HOME FROM ENGLAND.

Mr. J. J. Turner Arrives Home After two Months in England Visit.

Mr. J. J. Turner, of the firm of Turner & Son, arrived home on Saturday evening after a two months' visit to England. He was accompanied by his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Devenshire, of St. Blazey, Cornwall, who intend to take residence in Peterborough, and pass the remainder of their declining days in Canada. The party came over on the New England, of the Dominion Line. During the passage Mr. Turner was made chairman of the ship concert committee, and the sum of $100 was raised for the funds of the Seamen's Home, Liverpool.

Mr. Turner acted as quite an immigration agent. Besides his cousins, he brought with him a young man, a painter, named Fred May, who is also to become a Canadian citizen. He also diverted an organist and teacher of music from California, where he originally intended going, to Canada.

Mr. Turner says the Coronation arch in London, near Westminster Abbey, is not only a magnificent work of decorative art, but a magnificent advertisement for Canada and its resources.

SHEEP WORRIED BY DOGS.

Nine or Ten Fat Sheep Were Destroyed.

This morning nine or ten fat sheep are lying frightfully mangled—worried by dogs—in a field belonging to Mr. John A. Davidson, near town, about a mile north of the Waterworks Pumping Station, on the Smith side of the river. It is suspected that the dogs belong to the town, and are perhaps as worthless as their victims are valuable. Dogs of any value are worth shutting up at night. If they are allowed to roam at will they are sure to create annoyance, or to get into bad company, and be guilty of such destruction of valuable property as Mr. Davidson has suffered. Boys and girls, whose parents do not know where they spend their evenings, are like vagrant dogs, liable to get into bad company as well as trouble.

CHEMONG PARK NOTES.

Mr. Hartshorne on "High and Dry" is not any too dry these days.

Mr. J. C. Smith spends his time in bass fishing.

Miss Ruby of Rochester, caught a 17 1-2 pound lunge on Friday afternoon.

Mr. D. Burritt says the fish won't bite until the weather changes.

John Pope says that if the water keeps on rising he will have to move his boat house up to the park.

The cottages in the park are all occupied at present.

The Ogemah, which makes daily trips to the park, is being well patronized this year.

Mrs. T.A.S. Hay had a thrilling experience with a monster lunge, while trawling at Chemong Lake recently. After trying several times to steal her bait off her line, the big fellow came too close and was hooked. After half an hour's tusale, he finally broke away again, and the cottagers are now looking for him with harpoons.

The following guests have registered at the Chemong Park Hotel during the past week; B D Haly, W G Perks, W J Sherwood, G L Boucher, Alex Spence, R Nicholls, Percival Watson, W K Hall, C Hamilton, Helliwell; D McCabe, R. Craig, H Houston, H Clegg Gro Chalmers, P J O'Brien, D M W Summerville, A R Wilson and wife, H Best, Geo Porter, Peterboro, Mrs A D McDonald, Peterborough; W J Allen, Jas Best, Toronto; E Hugel and wife, J M Biddington, H E Carleton, Miss Dicker, Miss Bray, Rochester; A J Kent, Geo Furby, T George Holmes, Port Hope, W M Burritt, Detroit, F J Wagner, wife and son, Buffalo; J J Lynch and party, Ottawa.

The football match at the park between Bridgenorth and Omemee, resulted in a victory for the home team. The attendance was small. Supper was provided by the home team for the visitors and their friends at Mr. Brown's, after the match. The return match will be played on Coronation day in Omemee.

BIRTH.

CLARRY. — At Millbrook, on Monday, July 28th, 1902, to Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Clarry of Hastings, a son.

SILVER BAY CONVENTION.

Peterborough Y.W.C.A. Delegates are There—Many Strong Religious Addresses.

Silver Bay has been the meeting place this month of more than 300 women, older and younger, who are interested in the life of the young women of the Eastern States and of Canada, and in the work which the Y.W.C.A. is doing. For more than a week these delegates have listened to strong religious addresses by Mr. Robert E. Speer, Dr. J. W. Millard, and many others. Mrs. Margaret Sangster has been the presiding officer, her gentle Christian life, as well as her addresses, being a great blessing to the young women present. The influence of these meetings was seen on Sunday, when many young women were converted to Christ.

One of the most interesting hours each day was the city conference, when presidents, board members, secretaries, and association members conferred about the social and religious betterment of young women of the Eastern States and Canada. One of the most important topics referred to was the recent development of what is known as extension work. This means carrying into industrial centres and congested districts the benefits of the central association. Rest and lunch rooms have been opened in factories or factory districts, religious meetings, Bible classes and cooking classes are held during the noon hour, or at the close of working hours, and clubs are formed which meet either in the factory or in the Association rooms.

The Harlem Association, in upper New York City, also Brooklyn and Pittsburg, have branch associations for similiar work to that done in the central Association. In one city the proprietor of a caramel factory has fitted up a room for a women's rest room, furnishing it with a couch and chairs. The young women have added pictures and cushions to make it attractive. Similiar reports were given of other city manufacturies.

Mr. G. Shurtleff, of Cleveland, gave a stereoptican address one evening, upon the religious movement in the industrial centres of Cleveland, showing pictures of Bible classes held in various establishments, rest rooms, wash rooms, lecture rooms, and dining rooms, introduced by far-seeing employers, into the manufacturing plant. One picture showed a new piano used for noonday "sings," with the proprietor's wife present to help with the music. Libraries in these establishments were also shown, the books being largely upon technical subjects.

The religious, educational, business and social departments were fully discussed in auditorium and group meetings, also junior department work, addresses and suggestions being given by leaders of wide experience.

All who were privileged to be present during the conference found fresh inspiration and great spiritual uplift from the addresses, and also from contact with so many Christian workers. When to this is added the beauty of Lake George and the lofty mountains round about, the occasion is almost ideal.

There were present 22 delegates from Canada, the following cities being represented—Brantford, Hamilton, Toronto, Peterborough, Ottawa and Montreal. All possible courtesy and kindness was shown the visiting friends, who came away feeling as never before the oneness of the work and of the workers wherever found.

REMANDED FOR SENTENCE.

Brass and Copper Scrap was Being Stolen From George Stevens.

Hiram Long is in gaol on remand for sentence on the charge of the theft of a quantity of brass from George Stevens, of Ashburnham. Mr. Stevens missed the brass a week ago Saturday and made complaint to the police. Some articles corresponding to those which were stolen were found in Geo. Holmes' junk shop, but the police could not ascertain by whom the brass had been sold to Holmes. The goods had been purchased by Holmes, but the name of the seller had not been taken, in contravention of the by-law to that effect. On Mr. Holmes' attention being called to this, he promised to assist the police in every possible way to detect the culprit whom he knew by sight. On Friday the police received a telephone call to Holmes' place of business, where a boy was trying to dispose of some more of the brass "scrap." He stated that he had been given it to sell by his step-father, one Hiram Long, who worked for Stevens. Long was immediately arrested and confessed to taking the brass, on being brought to the police station. He stated that when working in the store house he was in the habit of occasionally slipping a piece of brass or copper "scrap" in his pocket when he came across it.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—The Central Charity Board meets this evening.

—There will be service in St. Luke's on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock p.m.

—Meetings have been called for the Court of Revision and Legal Committee to-morrow evening.

—Did you hear about it? Printers' Excursion to Jubilee Point, Saturday afternoon, Aug. 2nd. Don't miss it. The best outing of the season.

—The sum of $1757 was realized in the recent collection in St. Peter's Cathedral in aid of St. Joseph's hospital, and not $1650, as stated in a former issue.

—You save two per cent. by paying your taxes before August 1st, something of a consideration when the magnitude oft his year's tax bills is had in mind.

—During yesterday's storm the flag pole on the McAllister Milling Company's mill was struck and splintered by the lightning. No further damage, however, was done.

—The Galway Agricultural Society will hold its annual show at Kinmount on Oct. 7th. The prize lists have been printed and are now in the hands of Mr. C. H. Cole, the secretary.

—Church organists were placed at a great disadvantage yesterday, through the fact that the water supply was cut off, necessitating smaller organs being brought in, in some some cases.

—By prompt and energetic work the waterworks connection at the corner of Water and Smith streets was completed and the water turned on again for the use of consumers, a little before one o'clock yesterday.

James Grieves, the brakeman injured by being thrown off a car, losing a hand and getting severely shaken up, was visited Saturday in Nichols Hospital, Peterborough, by his family physician, Dr. Burrows, of Lindsay. The doctor reports the patient as progressing favourably, and says he will be able to leave the hospital in ten days.

—The Lindsay Post says—A citizen suggests that a photograph of the wharf park would be a good advertisement of the richness of the soil. Such an exhibit of healthy burdocks, thistles, nettles and other ornamental weeds is not to be found in any other town in Canada. One has only to pitch a tent and imagine himself in a vast and howling wilderness. One Alderman who visited Peterborough recently, was glad to get back here again. He missed the muddy streets and luxuriant plant growth so much in evidence here. Peterborough has beautiful parks and gounds, well kept trees, neatly trimmed and shaped. Ald. Hore should have his men trim the nettle and burdock plants near the boat wharf.

TWO WEEKS MORE.

Messrs. H. LeBrun & Co. have been assured by their contractors that the new premises will be ready for them in two weeks. The firm expected to have moved a week earlier, but the public will be the gainers by this extra week, as it will give them more time to secure some of the rare bargains advertised during our removal sale. Come and select what you want in ordered and in ready-to-wear clothing and general furnishings. Now is the time to buy, and have the full benefit of the reductions during the hot weather. If you have been here before come again. The prices are inducing buyers to lay in stocks for future use. Preparations for fall mean that all summer goods must be hurried out of the way.

For Friday and Saturday very special values will be offered in the following lines;

Men's Fancy Cambric Shirts, only 30 cents; we have all sizes as high as 18, for stout men, and lots of them. White and fancy coloured Summer Vests, at 50c., 75c., $1, and $1.25 — all these must go. 15 dozen Men's Overalls, at 25c. a pair. Thirty dozen flannelette, cotton and moleskin working Shirts, 15c., 20c., and 25c. Many sections of the store contribute double values, which you should profit by during these two closing weeks, before we move.

BOWLING-ON-THE-GREEN.

Members of the Bowling Club are reminded of to-morrow evening's 12-rink tournament on the Green. The following skips have been selected and asked to make up rinks;

President.	Vice-President.
1—Geo Giroux	Dr Moher,
2—E W Cox	W Pringle,
3—H Rush	F J Bell,
4—R Waddell	F J Frost,
5—W Sallsbury	A Elliott,
6—E C Complin	Fred Dixon,

Play will begin at seven o'clock sharp and last for one hour. As many bowlers as can possibly be in attendance are asked to be present, as the evening will take the form of a send-off to the Vice-President, Dr. Moher, who is leaving Peterborough.

GOLF.

The Sturgeon Point Club will send its senior team to Peterborough on Friday, in all likelihood, to play the local colts.

The Port Hope Golfers will be here for their return match on Wednesday of this week.

Peterborough Golfers will have quite a treat on Wednesday next, when George Cummings, the Toronto "Pro" will be in town, and will play the best ball of Mr. J. H. Burnham and Mr. S. Ray in the morning, and after the Port Hope match will play the best ball of Mr. Ray, Mr. Burnham, or Mr. R. M. Hamilton.

LACROSSE.

Cobourg was defeated in Hastings on Friday by four goals to two.

The Orillia Lacrosse Club have write St. Peter's T.A.S. team signifying their willingness to give them a game here on Monday, August 4th. Orillia succeeded in defeating Bracebridge last Wednesday by five goals to three—the first defeat that team has sustained in two years. Arrangements will be completed for the game at a meeting to be held this evening.

In Saturday's games, Shamrocks and Capitals won easily from Montreals and Nationals; Tecumsehs were beaten in Orangeville by 5—2, and the Brantfords took their medicine from St. Kitts to the tune of 8—4.

There are a number of strong teams in the intermediate C. L. A. series this year and the semi-finals promise to furnish a whole lot of interesting lacrosse. Oshawa has a carefully selected dozen, among whom are Kerwin and Sands of last year's Cornwall senior. They are tied at present with the Ontarios of Port Hope for the district and the saw-off will likely take place at the Island. Then there are the Thistles of Fergus who defeated Brampton in Brampton the other day. They play as pretty lacrosse as any team in the country, senior or intermediate, and its pretty effective lacrosse, too.

Seaforth in the West is reviving the old fame of the Beavers and having beaten out St. Mary's, who beat the London seniors for the district championship they expect to go further. Then away up north Owen Sound is strong while Bracebridge and the Checkers of Beaverton, are on top in their districts, and capable of making a strong bid for the trophy. In this connection it might be interesting to note the clubs that have held the intermediate championship since the C.L.A. was organized in April 1887. Here they are; 1887, Dufferins, of Orangeville; 1888, Young Torontos; 1889, Orillias, of Orillia; 1890, Excelsiors of Brampton; 1891, Athletics, of Toronto; 1892, Stanleys, of Barrie; 1893, Excelsiors, of Brampton; 1894, Excelsiors of Brampton; 1895, Aetnas, of Georgetown; 1896, Aetnas, of Georgetown; 1897, Dufferins, of Orangeville; 1898, Orillias of Orillia; 1899, Checkers, of Beaverton; 1900, Dauntless, of Shelburne; 1901, Iroquois, of Stratford.

The Cobourg World says; Could not the Port Hope Guide allow the Ontario lacrosse team to play the game without defaming their opponents and the town in which they play? No person with any idea of sport should of course countenance rough play, or rowdy or ungentlemanly usage of a visiting team but it seems to us that the Guide can never let the Ontarios go anywhere without having a long story about the abuse they suffer. The Port Hope players are well able to take care of themselves and are occasionally charged with roughness but stirring up strife between towns and sporting teams by a cranky editor is not fair and is becoming monotonous.

ODD REQUEST TO FISHERS.

Government Requests That They do not Keep Bass Caught in Muskoka Unless Mortally Wounded—The Design is to Allow the Lakes to Become Thoroughly Stocked Again.

Now that Mr. Bastedo, the Deputy Commissioner of Fisheries, has got the waters of Muskoka stocked with parent bass, his next care is to protect them until they have a chance to multiply. He could not, of course, prohibit fishing in the Muskoka lakes, even for a couple of years, as the result would be disastrous to tourist trade. He has accordingly decided to depend on the angler's own sense of honour, and he is sending out notices which will be posted generously around the district urgently requesting all anglers to return to the water all bass caught which are not mortally wounded, during a term of three years from the present time.

"Very few bass are hurt much in the catching," said Mr. Bastedo, "and they would thrive just as well after being returned to the water as before they were caught. The angler would have all the fun of catching them, too.

"The true fisherman, you know," continued Mr. Bastedo, "does not care a straw for a big string of fish. What he likes is the mere sport of catching them, and playing one good husky fellow will give him more enjoyment that another man would get in a day. Unfortunately, there are others whose only object is to make a big haul, with the result that in every fishing district there is a great waste every season."

Putting bass in trout waters like Muskoka is believed by some to bring disaster to the trout. Mr. Bastedo carefully studied the subject before he sent the nine cars of bass to Muskoka, and he came to the conclusion that the fish would thrive together and maintain the numerical proportions in which they started out.

THE MAN WITH THE FAD.

Only Those Who Have a Fad Find Life Worth the Living.

The world is full of faddists, but even at that it is better for the world to be full of faddists than full of lunatics, and that is the choice.

The average man has a fad. Perhaps he collects birds or bugs or geological specimens, postage stamps or rare coins. Perhaps his fad is for books with quaint bindings or quaint interiors. Perhaps it is for flowers or ferns, or mosses or fungi. Perhaps it is for something more expensive.

It may not take the collecting form. He may be a faddist about things that can't very well be collected. He may be a golf fiend or a ping pong maniac, a baseball crank or a lacrosse imbecile. He may have wheels on the subject of automobiles, or he may be a perpetual motion idiot or a flying machine enthusiast. Anyway, you may be tolerably sure that your next door neighbor has a fad and that his next door neighbor has one, too.

After all, it is largely fads that make life worth living. When we are not indulging in our own we enjoy nothing so much as sneering and jeering at the fads of our fellows, while they, doubtless, sneer and jeer at ours.

Great men have fads as have little ones, rich men have fads the same as the poor. Indeed, the great man would find his greatness oppressive could he not turn to his conservatory, his library, or his golf bag occasionally. Of what use is wealth to the rich man who has no tastes to gratify? Chamberlain is a faddist on orchids, Carnegie is a faddist on free libraries.

It is well enough to say that the busy man has no time for fads and the sensible man has no need for them, but it is not true. The busy man who has no time for anything but business becomes a mere machine in the wealth producing scheme of civilization; the sensible man who is specially interested in nothing is in danger of dying of paresis.

It is a bad sign when a man has no fad. It means that he has pretty well lost interest in life, or that he is excessively disgusted with his place and station, and when he gets to that pass look out for him. He is liable to become an Anarchist—that is, a faddist on the subject of dynamite bombs. A good fad is a camera.

AT SMITH'S FALLS.

A Wonderful Cure of Bright's Disease.

So Weak He Couldn't Stand—Terribly Broken up and Unable to Find a Cure—Dodd's Kidney Pills Made Him Well.

Smith's Falls, July 27th, 1902—(Special)—The cure of Mr. Theodore Young of this place is a wonderful example of the progress that medical science has made in the last few years.

Up till a short time ago the doctors claimed that Bright's disease was absolutely incurable, and in fact there are a few who still adhere to this theory.

But Bright's disease is not incurable. Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure this terrible malady and have done so in thousands of cases.

Those who are skeptical need not go farther than this town to find proof. Mr. Young makes this statement;—

"I was afflicted for about two years with Kidney trouble and chronic Bright's disease. My urine was very dark and I lost considerable blood, making me so weak that I could scarcely stand.

"After using the first box of Dodd's Kidney Pills I was much better, and when I had used four boxes I was able resume work, which I had not done for some time previous.

"I can conscientiously recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to any one afflicted as I was."

Mr. Young's case is only one of a great many where Dodd's Kidney Pills came to the rescue after everything else had failed. They have conquered Bright's Disease, and restored to life and health men and women who had not expected to ever again enjoy this great blessing.

Dodd's Kidney Pills having demonstrated their ability to grapple with Kidney Disease in its very worst form—Bright's disease—can certainly be depended upon to cure any of the lesser forms.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are the only medicine that has ever cured Bright's disease.

A Matter of Principle.

"Why is it," says the girl, "that in giving an account of an accident they always give the age of the person injured? I can see the sense of their talking about blonds and brunettes, a mustache or full beard if it is a man or a red, green or blue gown if it is a woman, for that is a means of identification for acquaintances and friends who may be interested. They don't even put the age in the death notices now, but if you meet with an accident out it comes in all the papers in town. But they will never publish mine. I have it on my mind every time I cross the street, and when there is a particularly bad crowd I say to myself, "Now, remember, if you are run over here, no matter how badly hurt, you are to remember never to tell your age. It's a matter of principle."

An Old Friend in Town.

There arrived this morning at Ormond and Walsh's drug store, a large consignment of Four T's, that great guaranteed cough remedy which cured so many people last winter. If you or your children have coughs or colds, don't neglect them but get a bottle of Four T's and be well in two days.

ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER.

DICKENS IN CAMP.

Above the pines the moon was slowly drifting,
The river sang below;
The dim Sierras, far beyond, uplifting
Their minarets of snow.

The roaring camp-fire with rude hames painted
The ruddy tints of health,
On haggard face and form, that drooped and fainted
In the fierce race for wealth.

Till one arose and from his pack's scant treasure
A hoarded volume drew,
And cards were dropped from hands of listless leisure
To hear the tale anew.

And then, while round them shadows gathered faster,
And as the firelight fell,
He read aloud the book wherein the master
Had writ of Little Nell.

Perhaps 'twas boyish fancy, for the reader
Was youngest of them all;
But as he read, from clustering pine and cedar,
A silence seemed to fall.

The fir trees gathered closer in the shadows
Listened in every spray,
While the whole camp with Nell on English meadows
Wandered and lost their way.

And so in mountain solitudes o'ertaken,
As by some spell divine,
Their cares dropped from them like the needles shaken
From out the gusty pine.

Lost is the camp and wasted all its fire
And he who wrought that spell—
Ah, towering pine and stately Kentish spire,
Ye have one tale to tell.

Lost is that camp, but let its fragrant story
Blend with the breath that thrills,
With hop-vines incense all the pensive glory
That fills the Kentish hills.

And on that grave where English oak and holly
And laurel wreaths entwine,
Deem it not all a too presumptuous folly
This spray of Western pine.

—The late Bret Harte.

Cunning of Br'er Fox.

A well authenticated story is told by one of the keenest of the members of the Toronto Hunt Club, which seems to prove that foxes, if they have not equal reasoning powers with the human race, are at least endowed with an excellent imitation. The weather during a hunt in the recent season was cool and crisp and there was just enough dampness on the leaves and grass to give the dogs good scent. A fox was soon unearthed and kept running in a circle about three miles in extent. A knoll in the centre overlooked the entire course and after the hunt had continued for some considerable time the fox made for a giant and venerable chestnut tree which had fallen across a ravine. Into the hollow tree dashed the fox, the dogs being about 150 yards behind. Reynard was seen to emerge from the other end of the log and soon made off through the forest.

The dogs were thrown off the scent at the hollow log, but soon caught it again across the ravine and kept up the chase for about half an hour or more. Then the fox once more disappeared in the hollow log to emerge as before. The dogs trailed on, but in about another 30 minutes the fox for the third time entered the log and still again disappeared in the forest across the ravine. The dogs were about used up by this time though the fox appeared to be quite fresh after the third trip through the log. The hunters noticed this unaccountable circumstance and began to suspect something. They securely closed up one end of the log and when reynard for the fourth time entered they closed up the other end. Then they procured axes and cut into the tree. Their reward came in the shape of three foxes, which had evidently been racing the dogs by turns.

Had Bleeding, Itching Piles

And now Claims That the Best Thing in the World for Piles is

Dr. Chase's Ointment.

The doctors are wrong. They usually claim that an operation, with all its risk, pain and expense, is the only cure for piles. We can prove by the statements of thousands of good, honest men and women that Dr. Chase's Ointment not only promptly relieves the suffering from piles, but also positively cures this dreadful ailment. It frequently cures after the knife has failed.

Mr. J. F. Miller, who is employed as cooper by the Kennedy & Davis Milling Co., Lindsay, Ont., states,— "I believe that Dr. Chase's Ointment is the best thing in the world for the piles. I say this because it has positively and thoroughly cured me of itching, bleeding piles, and this after all other remedies I could procure had failed. I can recommend this ointment to anyone suffering from piles, knowing that it will certainly cure."

Report of the Investigators Appointed by Sir Alfred Jones Into the Labor Conditions Prevailing in Canada.

A short time ago the press recorded a new departure in the investigation of industrial phenomena by Sir Alfred Jones. He selected a number of intelligent and representative British workmen in various trades, and sent them to Canada and the United States to study conditions in their respective callings, not restricting them to time or locality, but requiring a comprehensive report of their impressions. Most of the delegates have already returned, and a brief summary of their reports has been published in The London Daily Express. Mr. Abraham, who is a miner widely known through his influence among the men of his trade, devotes a large part of his report to conditions and prospects in Canada. He declares no ambitious youth need go elsewhere. The country needs thousands of farmers with sufficient capital to tide over the first two years. The Canadians he regards as a nation of workers, and he finds them very happy and highly contented, having congenial homes and being blessed with an exceedingly brilliant sky. The coal prospects of Canada attracted him very much: "Sydney, Cape Breton, is one of the most favored regions in creation. . . . Nature, both above and below ground, has been kinder and more propitious there than in any place I have been." He regards it as more than probable that the exigencies of travel and trade will call into being a new route: that Canada, and possibly the United States, will make Syndey their port of call and departure, and that it will become the real connecting link between the two worlds. He finds that, on the whole, both in Canada and the United States the miners work harder than in Britain. This is regarded by the British trades unionists as the crux of the industrial question. Harder work means the wearing out of the worker at an earlier period of life, a severer weeding out of the less robust workers, and a more onerous condition of life.

Mr. Ben. Tillett, who is better known in this country through his prominence in the Parliamentary movement of the British workmen, finds a very buoyant and hopeful demeanor on the part of the workers, combined with a great deal of push and originality. He also finds a franker and more businesslike relationship between capital and labor than in the old country, with a growing feeling toward arbitration. Trades unionism he regards as a growing force, and he cites an increase of half a million in the membership last year. On the subject of the minimum wage, he says:

"I found an entirely different policy in operation in America to that obtaining among employers in this country, a minimum wage being paid to the worker of average ability, while the extra skillful and capable are paid an amount extra to the average man. The British employers who seek to compensate for their deficiencies as captains of industry by the reduction of both wage and living standard of the workers should be reminded of the ever-increasing wage of the American workman. Not only is his wage increased, but the American worker has not, like his British brother, to give a maximum of service for a minimum wage. Whereas in this country the highest quality of skill and energy is claimed by employers to constitute 'average ability,' superior proficiency in America receives extra remuneration."

The impressions of Mr. Edward Washer, a delegate to the Bricklayers' Association, seem less favorable, and he compares the general effect of labor unions in the two countries to the disadvantage of the United States. He regards it as strange that the workmen, possessing the franchise, do not send labor representatives to Congress, and do not even elect representatives on local governing bodies. In his own trade he finds that matters are entirely different from what they are in England, the man who lays the most bricks being considered the best man. It is quantity, not quality, that counts, and workmanship is not so good. Mr. Washer seems to have found the same regard for quantity rather than quality in the unions themselves. Every workman, he says, belongs to some union, and the shop assistants, newsboys, shoeblacks, barbers, bakers and street-car men all have good unions.

Sir Alfred Jones intends to publish the reports of all the delegates in book form, and it will no doubt prove a valuable contribution to the literature of industrial and economic research.

JUNE 18, 1823.

First Date on Which British Infantry Soldier Appeared in Trousers.

The British infantry soldier first appeared in trousers, in lieu of other nether garments, on June 18, 1823. Prior to that date changes in military costumes had been very gradual, headquarters reluctantly yielding to novelties. The British soldier today would not appear to advantage on a battlefield decked out in full breeches, colored stockings and high shoes, which, according to colored engravings of the year 1685, was his costume. The 1st Royals and 10th Foot of the year 1692 are represented in red breeches and white stockings, while fifty years later various regiments are shown in purple, blue and red breeches, white leggings or gaiters up to the thigh, and a purple garter under the knee. British soldiers during the great wars of the early part of the present century wore either pantaloons or breeches, with gaittrs or leggings in almost every instance. Trousers were first introduced in 1823 by a Horse Guards' order, when the Duke of York was Commander-in-Chief. The order stated that "his Majesty has been pleased to approve of the discontinuance of breeches, leggings and shoes as part of the clothing of the infantry soldiers, and of blue grey cloth trousers and half-boots being substituted." The order further stated that to indemnify the Colonels for the additional expense, the waistcoat, formerly supplied, was now placed among the list of "necessaries" to be provided by the soldier himself. The Colonels of regiments were therefore relieved from buying the waistcoat and the soldier burdened with the cost. In time the "necessaries" of the soldier caused the nominal shilling a day to be actually worth fourpence. The miseries attendant on the Crimean war eventually led to the abolition of the "Colonel clothing" system, and drew attention to the condition of the soldiers.

The Arabs in Rhodesia.

It is, of course, well known that when the Portuguese first reached the east coast of Africa, after rounding the Cape of Good Hope in the famous voyage of Vasco da Gama, they found Arabs in possession of the ports and even surprised Arab dhows laden with Rhodesian gold, lying in the harbor of Sofala, hard by Beira. There is no doubt that the Arabs were the predominant trading power of the east coast of Africa throughout historical times, and good reason is shown for believing that the ancient ruins which are scattered over the country between the Zambesi and the Limpopo rivers may probably have been the work of the Himyarites of South Arabia as far back at 1000 or even 2000 B.C. Between those extremes of Himyarite occupation and Portuguese conquest the long interval is bridged by very few historical data. At the last meeting of the Royal Irish Academy, however, Professor Stanley Lane-Poole was able to bring forward a most interesting relic in the shape of the only Arabic inscription that has ever been discovered in Rhodesia. It is a small tombstone recording the death of one Sellam in the year 95 of the Hegria, or A.D. 713-714. Professor Lane-Poole was inclined, on internal grounds, to regard the slab as a memorial tablet set up in commemoration of the grave of some local celebrity, perhaps a Mahomedan saint, at a later date; but he admitted that it might be the original stone, and in any case he believed it to represent the original epitaph. This tablet puts the arrival of the Arabs in South Africa at a much earlier date than was hitherto established, for there is no record of any Arab colony further south than Quiloa up to the eleventh century. It is to be hoped that other monuments of the like interesting character may reward the explorations of Messrs. Hall and Neal and other antiquaries in Rhodesia.

Animal Mimicry.

Observers of nature are frequently struck with the singular resemblances of insects to leaves, dried sticks, and so forth, and these likenesses are supposed to have grown out of the necessity of protection against or concealment from enemies. An interesting example of this kind of resemblance was recently brought to the attention of the Entomological society in London by Dr. Chapman, who exhibited a spider found inhabiting some rocks near Cannes, on which were also fastened the cases of a species of moth. When at rest, the spider exhibited almost precisely the same form and color as the moth cases surrounding it.

PEACE ON PICCADILLY.

Hello, Peace! Glad to see you!
Get out of that hack!
But what are you doing
With your hair down your back
And your white robe all dirty
And your left eye all black?

Shake hands, my old sweetheart!
What you doing in town?
You came to see Edward Get into his crown?
Quite right, to be sure,
But, oh, what a gown!

Oh, yes, I catch on.
You've been down on your luck,
And it's pretty good guessing
You've been in the muck;
But you'll be all right
If you keep up your pluck.

Three years you've been missing.
What a naughty old girl!
And all the world knows
You'd a deuce of a whirl.
Forgive me for saying
Your wing's out of curl.

That smudge on your nose?
It's powder, you say?
But it isn't rice powder
That smirches that way,
Gunpowder's no pigment,
If you want to look gay.

Don't feel like a lark?
Why, you've got to, of course!
You're booked for the Abbey.
So away with remorse.
If you won't come without it
We'll have to use force.

Didn't think British soldiers
Would use ladies like that?
Now, Peace, have some sense!
You were out on a bat
And you killed twenty thousand
And scratched like a cat.

It cost us a billion
To land you, my dear,
And your clothing was rumpled
A little, I fear;
But we're all very glad
To have you back here.

So do up your tresses
And get some new things
And paint your bruised optic
And borrow some rings
And have the hair-dresser
Comb the sand from your wings.

Forget and forgive, dear;
Come back to your own!
Perhaps you feel sore.
But don't make it known.
You'll be nice and comfy
When the King's on his throne.

Eating Nightingales.

As exemplifying the pitch to which Roman epicureanism was carried and indicative of a truly barbaric nature, a dish consisting of the tongues alone of some thousands of the favorite songsters of the air was requisitioned at immense cost to satisfy the inordinate cravings of one of the emperors. One can hardly avoid the reflection that such a being must have been extremely untuneful. The liver of a capon steeped in milk was thought a great delicacy, and of solid meat pork appears to have been most relished.

The stanch Roman who did not take his pleasure homeopathically reclined during dinner on a luxurious couch, his head resting on his left elbow, supported by cushions. Suetonius draws attention to a superb apartment erected by the extravagant Nero, in which his meals were partaken, constructed like a theater, with shifting scenes changing with every course.

Good Health for Capital.

Maintaining good health is to the majority of people the most vital question in the world, and nature affords no more efficient strengthener for the system and Restorative for the nerves than Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Naturally, gradually and certainly it forms new red corpuscles in the blood, creates new, healthy nerve cells, and puts into the system the snap, energy and vitality that defies disease.

Rejected Fortunes.

Professor Bell had a strenuous time over his invention of the telephone. He took the first working model of his instrument to John A. Logan and forced him a half interest for $2,500, saying that it would do away with the telegraph and that there would be millions in it. Logan replied: "I dare say your machine works perfectly, but who would want to talk through such a thing as that, anyway? I advise you to save your money, young man." Bell then offered a tenth interest to an examiner in the patent office for $100 in cash. It was refused. That tenth interest was worth $1,500,000 in fifteen years.—Pearson's.

THE DEVELOPMENT OF CANADA

A View of our Prosperity and Progress From a United States Official Point of View.

From volume LXIX of the United States consular reports, for July, the following reference to Canada's progress and prosperity are taken. The report is furnished by John L. Bittinger, United States Consul-General, Montreal. The report states:

The development of the Dominion of Canada is progressing at a rapid pace. Few people in other countries comprehend that Canada represents 30 per cent of the entire British Empire and one-fifteenth of the land area of the world. At no period since the settlement of the country has it received so large an inflow of immigration as within the last two years. The production of the country is immense, when it is considered that the population is not over 5,500,000. Manufacturing industries are increasing and are generally prosperous. The men managing them are enterprising, and with great energy are seeking trade over all the world.

The agricultural wealth of the country is enormous. Immense cultivated areas furnish grain for the miller, fruit and vegetables for the canner; beef, pork and mutton for the meat trade; and cream for the butter and cheese factories. Canada's forests are now regarded as one of the chief sources for the supply of pulp wood for the paper industry of the world; and on her famous fisheries rest many important industries. Great deposits of the finest iron have recently been found; while good lead, asbestos, nickel, copper, silver, and mica mines are being opened up in all directions. The facilities for transportation are excellent. The Canadian Pacific Railway stretches from ocean to ocean, while the Grand Trunk covers the eastern provinces. Both systems are continually growing. Within two or three years another great line of railway will be completed, extending from Halifax to Vancouver and Victoria. Feedars to all these lines are being constantly constructed. No country, except the United States, has gone forward so rapidly in its transportation facilities as Canada. In 1867, the total railway track laid was 2,087 miles, and in 1900 it was 17,824 miles. Several hundred miles were added last year.

The work of canal construction has been vigourously conducted. The total amount spent in construction and enlargement up to 1900 was $95,316,000 of which $74,600,000 was expended since confederation. Canada can justly boast of having one of the most complete systems of canals in the world. The Government since confederation have contributed for the construction of railways and canals $292,921,000. The total capital invested in railways and canals in Canada is $1,100,000,000.

During the year 1901 the Dominion of Canada reached the highest mark in her progress. Compared with ten years ago her exports have doubled, having increased from $98,000,000 to $196,000,000, while her imports have grown from $119,000,000 to $190,000,000. The public deposits in the banks now exceed $400,000,000. These figures are evidence of great prosperity.

The harvest of last season was bountiful. The Government statement showed that it amounted in Manitoba to no less than 85,000,000 bushels of grain, of which 50,000,000 bushels were wheat. Another Government estimate places the total value of the products from the farms in Manitoba last year at $40,000,000, exclusive of the revenue derived from the sale of stock, hay or root crops, which was not included in the calculations. Not only was the grain crop large but it was garnered in good condition and is realising a good price; and although it must not be concluded that the large sum of $40,000,000 has already gone into the pockets of the farmers (for there is no doubt that immense quantities of grain are still in the hands of producers, owing to the impossibility of obtaining transport to the coast,) nevertheless this splendid harvest can not fail to have an extremely beneficial effect upon all classes of the community.

During the past year there has been a largely increased demand by real settlers for agricultural lands. In 1901 the Canadian Pacific Railway sold 830,000 acres, compared with 416,000 acres in 1900. The Canadian North-West Land Company disposed of 121,000 acres, compared with 71,000 acres in the preceding year, and I am informed that the demand has by no means been satisfied by these large sales.

During last month there were 101,029.22 acres sold by the Canadian Pacific Railway for $333,852.22; for the same month in 1901, 4,614 acres were sold for $122,362.47.

The latest official statistics of the port trade of the Dominion are interesting, as showing a steady expansion in the principal commodities which make up the resources of the country, with the exception of a limited few, on which the duty was raised some years ago by the United States to such an extent as to prevent further shipment. Chief among these was barley. During the four years prior to 1891 the number of bushels of barley exported averaged over 9,600,000, amounting in value to nearly $6,000,000 annually. In 1899 the exports were reduced to 368,768 bushels. Since then they have been showing an increase, the last two years averaging over 2,500,000 bushels. Wheat exports for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1887, amounted to 9,127,045 bushels; last year they amounted to 18,936,252 bushels. Wheat flour exports show an increase of almost double the quantity since 1887, last year's exports being 4,030,746 barrels.

THE WESLEY BI-CENTENARY.

Next year thirty million Methodists throughout the world will be keeping the 200th birthday of John Wesley. It is a striking fact to reflect to reflect upon that the clergyman's son born at Epworth in 11703 founded a brotherhood which is to-day as big in numbers as the whole of England and Wales. Nowhere else, perhaps, can we point to such a mighty organization, and say of it that it is one man's work. John Wesley, in the truest sense, was one of the world's greatest workers, and his noblest epitaph is not that he founded a church or that he died without a shilling, but that he wore himself out. For half a century he arose every morning at four o'clock and his five o'clock sermon he used to call "the healthiest exercise in the world." In the days when travelling was neither rapid nor easy John Wesley travelled four or five thousand miles a year to preach to the biggest congregations in England. He never lost a night's sleep in his life; not even his unhappy home life robbed hom of his great source of physical strength. "If I thought I should preach one sermon less or travel one mile less after marriage, I should never see your face more," he said to his wife—the wife who was to be a thorn in the flesh, and was to fly from his house twenty years after, taking his papers with her. "I did not forsake her, I did not dismiss her, I will not recall her," said Wesley, and there is still to be seen in Camberwell a gravestone which tells the world that "here lies the wife of John Wesley—a woman of exemplary virtue, a tender parent, and a sincere friend." In spite of the burden of his home life, the founder of Methodism accomplished a work which no one man has ever surpassed. He was his own printer and bookseller, and managed his business so well that living on £28 a year, he was able to give away £30,000, and he travelled during his life a quarter of a million miles, and preached over forty thousand sermons.

THE VISION AND THE ROBIN.

I was walking in the garden
On a lovely summer eve,
Breathing in the scent of roses,
Letting Fancy visions weave,
When I heard a robin singing
In a mellow tone and sweet,—
"Peterboro', Peterboro', Pete, Pete, Pete!"

But a wondrous vision mingled
With the robin's tuneful song,
And I saw a noble city,
With a busy, happy throng;
It was built upon a valley,
Where a lake and river meet,—
"Peterboro', Peterboro', Pete, Pete, Pete!"

All the citizens were brothers,
Sharing in the common weal;
Bearing burden one another's,
Willingly at each appeal;
Seeking earnestly and striving
For a happiness complete,—
"Peterboro', Peterboro', Pete, Pete, Pete!"

Love triumphant was their master,
Lust and License each a slave;
Truth the teacher and the pastor
Of a people strong and brave;
Faith and Hope their guiding signals,
Honor's path their well-worn beat,—
"Peterboro', Peterboro', Pete, Pete, Pete!"

Pure benevolence inspired
Every gentle act and word;
True compassion was the keeper
Of the weak one who had erred;
So the city had no jailor,
Nor policeman on the street,—
"Peterboro', Peterboro', Pete, Pete, Pete!"

No man idle nor ahungered,
No man evil-marked by crime;
No man hollow-eyed thro' yearning
Vainly for a better time;
No man thieving from his neighbor,
Stealing oft his drink and meat,—
"Peterboro', Peterboro', Pete, Pete, Pete!"

Willing work and recreation,
Peace and plenty everywhere;
War, a myth of legislation,
Bitter strife forgotten there;
Genius, Pride and best Endeavor
E'er to golden deeds entreat,—
"Peterboro', Peterboro', Pete, Pete, Pete!"

'Come Thy Kingdom, as in Heaven
Let Thy will on Earth be done,'
Prayed the universal Shepherd,
Christ the Brother and the Son;
Prayed His flock within the valley,
Day by day without deceit,—
"Peterboro', Peterboro', Pete, Pete, Pete!"

Can it be, O cheerful warbler!
Can it be a prophecy,
Thou art clearly, sweetly singing
From the top of yonder tree?
Is this but a mental mirage
Of a real, mankind shall greet?—
"Peterboro', Peterboro', Pete, Pete, Pete!"

STOCK MARKETS.

Most Important News on Southern Ry.

New York, July 26th. — A bit of exceedingly important information has come into our possession which should have considerable bearing upon the market price of the Southern Railway stocks very shortly. We herewith give the facts briefly; A railroad north of Ashville, North Carolina, through Mitchell and New Dowell counties is being rapidly built, which will connect the coal fields of South West Virginia with the Southern Railway lines at Marion, N. C., or Lincoln, N. C. A large force of convicts from the North Carolina penitentiary are now grading this road. The public of that section are in ignorance as to who is furnishing the money; but somebody is supplying a great deal of it. Logical opinion is that it is the Southern Railway people. When this line of road is completed it will put the coal of south west Virginia, which is in an air line connection with Wilmington, N.C., Charleston, S.C., Savanah and Jacksonville. A large naval station is being established at Charleston. This new railway will enable the Southern Ry to deliver the south western Virginia coal at all the South Atlantic ports with the shortest haul. There are only two river gaps made through the Great Smoky Mountains, which extend through North Carolina southward to Chattanooga. These are gaps made by the French, Broad river and Tower river. The Southern Railway now occupies the French broad gap by its road from Ashville to Knoxville. This new line will put it in possession of the only other river gap, through this great range of mountains. Recently there was a consolidation of a number of the roads which are controlled by the Southern Ry under the name of the Southern Railway Carolina Division, and a big mortgage was authorized and registered in the adjacent counties. This mortgage provided that $4,000,000 of the bonds shall be devoted to making an extension into Virginia and Tennessee. This new fact identifies it as the property of the Southern Ry. These facts are important and will ultimately increase the business and earnings of the Southern Railway most materially, also lift the market value of the shares. It is brand new news, and this is its first announcement in Wall street circles.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

(From our own Correspondent.)

The Lodge of the Canadian Order of Foresters attended divine service at the Methodist church in Mount Pleasant on Sunday the 20th. Rev. Mr. Mounteer delivered a very impressive discourse from these words, "But if any provide not for his own and specially for those of his own house he hath denied the faith and is worse than an infidel." The attendance was very large and no doubt the sermon will have a good effect on those who heard it. He said that the late Dr. Talmage spoke of the first life insurance society being founded in the time of Pharosh, that Joseph was the Chief Ranger, and that one fifth of the products was demanded as a premium and that during the seven years of famine they drew out the profit.

It would be almost impossible to elect to office to-day such a worthy hero as Joseph was; he would not stoop to do a wrong. When he was tempted he would say "How can I do this great wickedness and sin against God. Such men as Joseph were wanted to fill offices of responsibility.

St. John's church, in Cavan, was visited by Chief Justice Armour, of Toronto, on the 20th, inst., at the unveiling of a beautiful window, which was presented by him as a memorial of the services rendered by his father, the late Rev. Samuel Armour, who, about forty-five years ago, was pastor of that church. Rural Dean Allan and his son, Rev. Wm. Allan, officiated on that occasion, and the past history of the church was given by the Rural Dean, who has been minister there for about the last fifty years.

Buried a Boy Alive

Louisville, July 28.—Policeman Stone at 2 o'clock Saturday morning found Oscar Meyer, 14, buried to his neck in the sand of the old Shelby street fort. The boy was gagged so that he could only moan. Meyer's explanation of his interment is that he belongs to a band of boys at war with the band which guards the fort. He was caught by them early last night, and after a formal trial was condemned to be buried alive. He had been in the hole for hours when found. After being rescued he became unconscious and his condition is critical.

Will Not Oppose Trust.

London, July 25.— There is a strong probability that the Russian proposal for an international conference on trusts will be declined by England and Germany, whatever action may be taken by the othet powers represented at Brussels. The commercial relations between England and the United States are so intimate and complex that a movement directed against American syndicates and combinations, cannot receive Government encouragement here.

DEWET IS YET "SLIM"

Famous Boer General Arrived Unexpectedly at Cape Town.

QUICK HONORS ACCORDED HIM.

Afrikanders Entertain Him at a Semi-Private Banquet—His Nonchalance on the Streets of the City—A Remarkable Scene in a Church Last Sun day—Boisterous Demonstration to Botha and Delarey.

Cape Town, July 28.—General Dewe proved that he could evade friends as successfully as he did enemies by arriving here unexpectedly this afternoon and upsetting all the elaborate plans prepared for his reception. He strolled through the streets, casually nodding to his acquaintances and occasionally to a former opponent. Arrangements were quickly made by Afrikanders to entertain the famous leader to-night at a semi-private dinner, tickets to which already stand at five guineas ($26.25 premium).

A striking contrast to Dewet's return was the scene Sunday when Generals Botha and Delarey attended church. The building was packed, mainly with women and the service was scarcely concluded when those Cape Town admirers stormed the pew in which the generals sat. With difficulty they retreated to the vestry. The congregation followed, and Generals Botha and Diarey were lifted to the vestry table. The pastor of the church warmly remonstrated, whereupon a number of those present seized the generals and carried them to carriages, where another demonstration ensued.

St. Vincent Again Alarmed.

Kingston, Island of St. Vincent, July 29.—The Soufriers volcano has been slightly in eruption twice since last Monday.

DEMANDED A FAIR TRIAL, 3d.

British Commander Intervenes on Behalf of Nicaraguan Rebels.

Kingston, Jamaica, July 29.—The British cruiser Psyche arrived here yesterday. Her officers report that on July 7, when the force of Nicaraguan revolutionists, landed near Bluefields by the Colombian gunboat General Pinzon, had been captured, the Pinzon steamed away. The Nicaraguan forts fired at the Pinzon, but without success.

The commander of the Psyche landed and insisted that the captured rebels be given a fair and impartial trial instead of being shot without trial. It was believed that among those captured at that time was Mr. Wilson, an American, but the officers of the Psyche could not definitely ascertain anything regarding his presence. He had not been tried up to the time the Psyche left last week. Telegraph lines are broken, and news is difficult to get. According to officers of the Psyche the Colombian Government is helping the Nicaraguan revolutionists. All was quiet when the Psyche sailed.

Wilson's Life Spared.

Washington, July 29.—The life of Dr. Russell Wilson of W. Ohio, who was captured with a revolutionary party at Nicaragua, has been saved through the representations of Minister Cores of that country. A cablegram was received at the State Department yesterday from Chester Donaldson, U.S. Consul at Managua, Nicaragua, dated the 26th inst., as follows:

"As a courtesy to the United States and sympathy for the mother, the President will commute Russell Wilson's death sentence."

TRACY NOT IN IT WITH HIM.

An Ex-Convict in Fresno, Cal., Shot Five Men and Escaped.

Fresno, Cal., July 29.—At Porterville, James McKinney, an ex-convict, shot five men and escaped into the country in a stolen rig. McKinney first shot out the lights of a saloon, and then, in trying to shoot the cards out of the hands of a player, wounded the latter slightly. He then went to a livery stable and at the point of a revolver secured a rig. As he was driving off a constable, a deputy and several citizens tried to arrest him. He opened fire, wounding four of the party.

Wm. Lynn, whose abdomen and legs were filled with buckshot, succumbed to his wounds.

McKinney also filled the right arm of George Barrows, a printer, with shot, and sent a bullet into the mouth of Deputy Constable Tompkins and a load of shot into the arm of W. D. West. McKinney is headed for Fresno County and it is believed he will make for the mountains. He has a shotgun, a rifle and a revolver, and he said before leaving that "Tracey wouldn't be in it with him."

A Rothschild Suicides.

Chicago, July 29.—A. M. Rothschild, until two months ago the head of the State street department store firm of A. M. Rothschild & Co., committed suicide yesterday.

MOTHERLAND LOVED.

Premier Seddon States Evidence of Colonial Regard.

SHOULD JOIN IN COMMON CAUSE.

Britain and Colonies Should Unite Against American Competition and Should Pay Less Attention to the Interested Opinions of Continental Countries—Speeches by Mr. Barton and Mr. Ross.

Glasgow, July 29.—Richard J. Seddon, Premier of New Zealand, said in a speech yesterday that the colonies have already proved that they love the Motherland by sending their sons to fight in South Africa. They wished to go further, and give the Mother Country trade preference over other nations, but too much attention was paid to what continental countries might think. What the colonies and Great Britain should do was to join in common cause to meet American competition. Should this be done the future need not be feared, said Mr. Seddon, since the British workmen and manufacturers were unequalled in the whole world.

All the colonial Premiers, with the exception of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Prime Minister of Canada, who is in London, were given a grand ovation here yesterday.

Mr. Barton, the Prime Minister of the Commonwealth of Australia, in one of the many speeches he delivered in the course of the day, warned his hearers that the British Empire was large enough, and that Britons now ought to look to consolidation rather than to acquisition.

George W. Ross, Premier of Ontario, declared in a speech that the war in South Africa was prolonged to the extent it had been because there were so few colonial troops in the field.

NIXON'S SENSELESS JOKE.

Said He Was Tracey and Ran Risk of Being Shot.

Seattle, Wash., July 29.—William Nixon tried to win a woman's confidence in the guise of outlaw Tracey and is nearly dead as a result of his act. He told an actress in a music hall that he was none other than the desperado and threatened her life if she told. Later, when he re-entered the theatre, he was attacked by policemen, and the proprietor, Joe Williams, a brother of Deputy Sheriff Jack Williams, who was wounded in battle with Tracey at Bothell, July 8. Nixon was pounded into insensibility and has not fully regained his faculties yet. The mistake was discovered when the man's features were compared with a photograph at police headquarters. It is almost a miracle that the policeman did not shoot first and investigate afterwards, as he was told positively that the man was Tracey and a reward of nearly $7,000 is offered for the desperado, dead or alive.

His Ankle Shattered.

Toronto, July 29.—Thomas Henderson of 440 West Queen street, was admitted to the General Hospital last night, suffering from a badly shattered ankle, caused by a bullet, fired by someone unknown. About 9 o'clock he was visiting his brother, who lives in the rear of 27 Elm street. He and his brother were standing in front of the house, the former in the act of lighting his pipe, when he was struck in the ankle by the ball. He was assisted into the house and a physician summoned. Later he was taken to the hospital. A search was made through the lanes and yards in the neighborhood of Henderson's home, but no person could be located who had been using a revolver.

Jersey's Fatal Election Riots.

Camden, N.J., July 29.—The primary elections for delegates to the convention of the First Congressional district of New Jersey was held yesterday. The polls were open from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m., and the three hours were marked with serious fighting. One man was killed in this city and Joe Goddard, the well-known heavyweight pugilist of Philadelphia, was probably fatally shot while electioneering in Pennsauken township; another man was dangerously stabbed in this city and a fourth man received stab wounds at Dog Corners, near Merchantville.

Freight Trains Collide.

New York, July 29.—Two freight trains on the West Shore collided at Harrington Park, N. J., yesterday. E. W. Randall, fireman of one of the locomotives, was killed. Engineer W. F. Miller was bruised about the head and body, and a brakeman had his arm broken.

A LEADER ERRING AS TO FACTS.

"By a popular majority of over 7000 the people have marked their disapprobation and contempt for Liberal methods." So the Mail and Empire reports Mr. Whitney as saying at the Conservative meeting at Holland Landing. This is a case of the blind leading the blind. The assertion is founded on figures which are given in the Mail and Empire on June the 6th, when the claim was made that Mr. Whitney had a popular majority of 7,377. An examination of that newspaper's figures shows them to be full of errors. For instance the Liberal majority in South Renfrew was given at 500, while the actual majority was 874. The Liberal majority in Stormont was given as 250, while the true majority was 386. The Liberal majority in Parry Sound was given as 200, while it was 317. The Liberal majority in Port Arthur was given as 198, while it was in fact 559. The Liberal majority in East York was given as 250, while it was 322. The Liberal majority in Fort William and Lake of the Woods was left out altogether, while it was 362. There were many other "errors" of a similar character by which the Liberal majorities were reduced, while "errors" by which at the same time the Conservative majorities were augmented, were strewn through the Mail and Empire's columns of figures. Figures, it is said, can be made to lie, and lying figures in the Mail and Empire's columns can do more satisfactory work in its opinion than lying casuistry. Still it went on to back up the former with the latter. In Centre Gray there was no election, as has frequently been the case, here and there, in a general election, so the Conservative candidate was elected by acclamation. The Mail says; "The total popular vote of the constituency might under the circumstances be claimed as his"—the Conservative candidate's. As the Mail thus generously foregoes its right to claim that every voter in the riding was a Conservative, it does the next best thing for itself and claims the plurality of 1096 secured by Mr. Lucas, the member-elect, in a triangular fight with the patrons in the previous election. It must be remembered that at the election of 1894 a Patron was elected over the Conservative candidate by a plurality of of 542 votes, the Liberal who ran in that contest polling only 56 votes less than the Conservative. In the election of 1890 the Conservative majority of only 148, and in 1896 a plurality of 112. The fact is that in the election of 1899 Conservatives and Liberals united to defeat the Patron, and now the Mail claims the plurality of 1096 as a Conservative majority. Next take the riding of Dufferin. The fight there in the recent election was between a Conservative and a Conservative prohibitionist. The Mail put the latter down as a Liberal, and claims the majority of 1059 as the true Conservative majority over the Liberals of the riding. It repeats the trick in West Simcoe where the fight was between a straight Prohibitionist and a Conservative, and adds the majority of 977, to its alleged popular Conservative majority. As a matter of fact the Conservatives in 1894 were beaten by a Patron; the constituency is represented at Ottawa by a supporter of the Liberal Government, and never at any time had the Conservatives a majority of 500 in the riding at the provincial elections. Then look at its juggling with the Ottawa figures. There each voter has two votes. One of the Conservative candidates obtained a majority of 624, and the other 576, and the Mail puts down in its "popular majority of the voters" the two majorities, making 1200, while only 600 voters are represented in the majority. In making provision for calculating the vote on the referendum to be submitted in December next, the Legislature provided for this very matter, yet the Mail, with this knowledge before it, does not hesitate to practice the deceit pointed out. Im North Oxford a life-long Liberal ran as an independent Liberal and Temperance candidate, and polled 1150 votes. These the Mail says have no part in the Liberal columns, and it excludes them. It does be same with 197 votes polled by a second Liberal candidate in East Kent. Then again, in its claims respecting an alleged Conservative popular majority it ignores and sweeps aside 5,157 votes polled for the 14 Independent candidates in various constituencies. In truth, Mr. Whitney, notwithstanding the Mail's figures and his own boasts, has not now and never has had a majority of the voters of the province behind him. But if he had, that is not the test which the constitution applies to determine who shall govern the country. Had it been, the Liberal party would have had a candidate in every constituency, and would have fought to attain that result. It concentrated its energies on winning a majority of the constituencies, and did so. Beaten in that case, Mr. Whitney and the Mail, with fictitious figures and peculiar manipulations of alleged majorities, asked that the Conservative party shall be acclaimed victors in a race which was not run at all.

The Brantford Expositor exposed, some time ago, the hollow pretensions of the Conservative party so far as popular majorities were concerned. It showed that the gerrymander of this province for the election of members to the House of Commons was carried out for the express purpose of fettering the popular majorities, so as by a minority of votes to secure for the Conservative party a majority of members; and it proved conclusively that the end in view had been obtained. Mr. Whitney and the Mail and Empire supported the successful throttling of popular majorities by the gerrymander, yet now are ready to fall down and worship a popular majority and try to deceive the public by alleging that they had got it.—Perth Courier.

The main line of the Algoma Central and Hudson Bay Railway, between the Soo and Michipicoten, Ont., is rapidly approaching completion, though there still remain to be built several large bridges, that over the Montreal River being 1500 feet long and 150 feet high.

His Majesty King Edward is not above taking pointers. He is following the example of Hon. Mr. Tarte, who carries his office with him when he is travelling throughout the country to see things for himself. King Edward is presiding at Cabinet meetings on his yacht.

Sir Sanford Fleming, Chancellor of Queen's University, offers a prize of $250 for the best answer to the following question; "How can the Canadian universities best benefit the cause of journalism as a means of moulding and elevating public opinion in the Dominion?" Another question, which might aptly be considered also, is here suggested; "Which has the greater need of being 'moulded and elevated,' the press of Canada, or the universities?"

The hot weather is hard on the Mail and Empire. A few days ago it was worrying over an immediate Dominion general election, which, it asserted, was to be held at once. Now it is raising the cock and bull story that Mr. Ross is going to bring on a new election in Ontario. After inventing this yarn, it enters upon abuse of Mr. Ross for entertaining an idea that has no existence, except in the Mail's imagination, and also enters upon an elaborate argument to prove that such a proceeding would be unconstitutional.

Toronto has done nobly in raising a fund of over $50,000 for the families of the five firemen recently killed at a fire in East Toronto. But the city would have done better if it had provided an efficient system of building inspection, in which event, in all probability, the lives of the deceased firemen would not have have been sacrificed, and they would have been alive, and able to support their families. Locking the stable after the horse is stolen is simply being wise after the event, and emphasizes the criminal folly of neglect.

The Conservative newspapers are afraid of an appeal to the election courts. The World wants a new general election because it asserts "an appeal to the people would be the easiest and most convenient way of disposing of the immense amount of unsavoury business that is before the election courts. The World certainly does not object to the "unsavoury business" of the election courts if it unseats Liberal members, therefore it fears the unwholesome effect the "unsavoury" revelations of the courts will have upon Mr. Whitney's following.

The Conservative journals, not satisfied with the results of the appeal to the electors in the Ontario general elections last May, which confirmed the Ross Government in power for another four-years-term, is inventing all sorts of expedients to break the force of their disappointment. Concurrently with its running political mate, the Mail and Empire, the World declares that there will have to be a new election, "because neither party is strong enough to carry on the Government." That is certainly true of the Opposition, which is in a minority." But the Government has a majority, and when the House meets that majority will be found enough to do the business the Government will be called upon to transact.

THE SONS OF POETS.

The "Lancet," the well-known English medical weekly, has been enquiring into the question of the transmission of genius from father to son, and has found that sons of great poets are generally dull dogs. Poetic fervor is no doubt a spiritual flame that burns itself out in the generation wherein it is kindled. Indeed, it often seems to burn out the very aptitude for paternity; or is it that the poet is generally too poor to permit himself the delight of fatherhood? However it may be, many eminent English poets can never be accused of having "dull dogs" of sons, because they never had any sons at all. Cowley, Shenstone, Akenside, Butler, Otway, Prior, Congreve, Gay, Phillips, Savage, Thompson, Collins, Goldsmith, Grey, Johnson, and Keats all died without leaving offspring, and Pope, Swift, Watts, and Cowper were never married. Dryden's, Addison's, and Parnell's descendants did not pass into the second generation, and descendants of Shakespeare and Milton became extinct in the second and third generations. Sir Walter Scott's baronetcy expired with his son.

A Great Mistake.

The old idea of taking blood thinning compound sin order to purify the blood is an error, as the system is thus left in a vitiated condition. Marrill's System Tonic not only purifies the blood in a thorough manner but the iron contained in it again enriches the blood, leaving one with lots of good rich red blood. 50 pleasant-to-take doses for 50 cents.

TWO DROWNED AT A PICNIC.

A Very Sad Bathing Accident at Parry Sound.

Parry Sound, July 29.—A double drowning accident, under very sad circumstances, occurred last evening about 6 o'clock, near Two Mile Narrows, about two miles from here, by which the life of Miss Etta Beatty, eldest daughter of David Beatty, D. L.S., of this town, and also that of Mr. Frank Cross, a young Englishman, whose relatives are in England, were both lost.

The young couple were with a picnic party of Major Knifton's family and were in bathing. Miss Beatty, although only a few yards from the shore, got out of her depth. Mr. Cross at once rushed to her assistance, and, it is said, he seemed twice to be about to bring her to the surface, but, however, finally being overpowered in his exertions, was himself drowned in the attempt to save her. Mr. Cross was known to be an exceptionally good swimmer. The bodies were shortly afterwards recovered

Drowned in the Thames.

Woodstock, July 29.—A drowning accident occurred Monday forenoon in the River Thames in Blandford ford Township, by which Gladstone Green, aged 19 years, youngest son of the late Aaron Green, East Oxford, lost his life. Green was in bathing at the time of the accident, and with him were four companions, who tried valiantly to save the drowning man. In the attempt Green's older brother nearly lost his life, as did also one Clark, who was trying to rescue the younger Green.

OBJECT TO ECONOMY.

Friction with Workmen on the Yukon Telegraph Line.

THEY THREATEN TO CUT WIRES

Government Has Taken All Necessary Precautions to Block any Such Measures—Comptroller of Mounted Police Placed Sufficiently Strong Guard to Prevent Any Cutting of Telegraph Wires.

Ottawa, July 29. — The Public Works department have been notified of friction amongst the workmen engaged on the Yukon telegraph line. It appears that when the line was completed some time ago, Mr. Tarte, in accordance with his promise to the House last session, commenced to cut down expenses. To do this he had to lay off several of the employes and cut down the pay of others. Since this happened there has apparently been considerable agitation among the men, which has culminated in a threat to cut the lines. While not fearing any such serious action on the part of the workmen, the department has taken all necessary precautions to prevent any such measures. The Comptroller of the Mounted Police has ordered a sufficiently strong guard to be placed at points along the line to prevent any cutting of wires.

Dundonald For Decentralization.

The policy of decentralization which it is expected that Lord Dundonald will advocate will mean the more thorough organization of districts under the district officer commanding. This will greatly improve the organization of the forces, and, besides, will have the effect of more thoroughly educating the young officers. The new General visited Col. Pinault on Saturday and conversed with him in French for over an hour. Lord Dundonald has created a very favorable impression at the department, and from letters received from Sir Frederick Borden, who met the new General in England, he also formed a friendship with the Minister.

The King's Bulletins.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, July 29.—An official bulletin, issued yesterday, says:

"The King's health continues excellent and the wound is healing rapidly. His Majesty was able to be moved from his couch to his wheeled chair for a few hours yesterday. (Signed) Treves."

Soon after the coronation, Aug. 9, their Majesties will go to Balmoral Castle and remain there for a few weeks. The air there is expected greatly to assist the King to recuperate.

Struck Oil and Gas.

Vankleek Hill, Ont., July 29. — There is much excitement in Caledonia Township, a few miles from here, over the supposed finding of gushing oil and gas wells. The discovery has been made on the farm of D. Continure. He was boring for water when his drill was thrown out of the ground by the force of gas, a match was applied to the gas and it burned very brilliantly for 36 hours and went out. Since that time a black oily and very heavy smelling liquid is being discharged from the pipe.

The Haytians Activity.

Washington, July 29.—Acting Secretary Hill yesterday received the following cablegram from United States Minister Powell, dated Port au Prince yesterday; General Colin left Port au Prince yesterday morning with 2,000 men to repel Firmin's army. After a skirmish which ensued the forces of Firmin retreated to the warship. Colin returned to the city yesterday afternoon. The information is that 20 were killed and 60 wounded. The number killed on the other side is still unknown.

Kick From the Nationalists.

London, July 29.—In the House of Commons yesterday John G. S. MacNeill, Irish Nationalist, moved a protest against the appointment of Lord Alverstone, Lord Chief Justice of England, and Sir John Bigham, judge of the King's Bench division of the High Court of Justice.

Mr. MacNeill's motion was defeated by 210 to 64.

Death of John McCalla.

St. Catharines, July 29.—Mr. John McCalla of the grocery firm of W. J. & J. McCalla, died at his home yesterday morning. He was one of the most influential men of this city and has lived here over half a century. He was a native of Ireland and was 70 years old. He leaves a wife and one daughter, Mrs. Cameron of British Columbia.

Non-Union Men Shot.

Pottsville, Pa., July 29.—Daniel Landerman, foreman at the Kohinoor Colliery, Shanondoah, was shot yesterday near his home by a crowd of strikers. His face and shoulders are torn with buckshot, but it thought he will recover. Albert Landerman was chased and shot and four other non-union men were badly beaten.

Ten Seriously Injured.

Paris, July 29.—Many persons injured, ten of them seriously, and hundreds under arrest, are the net results of the street disturbances yesterday, in which both clerical and anti-clerical demonstrations, brought about by the closing of unauthorized religious schools were made.

WON BY CANADIANS.

Seven of Our Bisley Team Captured the Mackinnon Cup by a Good Score —Details of Aggregates.

Bisley Camp, July 29.—Canada won the Mackinnon Cup competition yesterday and there is great joy in the Canadian hut.

This match had been held on Friday, the 18th, when Australia was in the lead, but a protest entered on account of Scotland having taken over time in shooting caused a decision to be reached by the committee that there should be another contest, and yesterday was fixed as the date, though the Bisley meeting closed on Saturday.

Seven teams of twelve men each competed, the score at the finish being:

Canada	1376
England	1340
Scotland	1317
Natal	1228
New Zealand	1296
Rhodesia	1267

Australia did not finish.

The prize is a challenge cup donated by the late Col. Mackinnon, and the amount of the entrance fees £4 for each team, less 25 per cent, deducted by the association.

The distances of the ranges were 800, 900 and 1,000 yards, with ten shots at each range.

At the 800-yard range the scores were: Canada, 513; Australia, 504; New Zealand, 502; Natal 498; England, 498; South Rhodesia, 480; Scotland 478.

At the 900-yard range: Canada, 479; Australia, 471; England, 475; New Zealand, 466; Natal, 430; South Rhodesia, 449, and Scotland, 489—the latter the highest.

Canada made 384 at the 1,000-yard range.

Australia had 17 shots to fire when the time limit was reached, and finished with an aggregate of 1,197.

The Canadians got very little prize money out of the City of London Corporation Cup match.

Lady Weymss presented the principal prizes on Saturday. Two marksmen from Rhodesia, one from Trinidad and six from Natal figuring in the distribution.

New Zealand won the Belgian Challenge Cup, the principal prize, in a rapid firing competition at 600 yards with eight shots. The contest was open to team of ten volunteers. With the cup there goes a cash prize of $100.

NATURE'S SUMMER HEALTH GIVER.

It Purifies the Blood and Multiplies the Number of Vital Red Corpuscles, Feeds the Nerves and Tissues and Gives True Physical Strength.

Weak nerves, exhausted tissue, poor thin blood, impaired digestion and sleepless nights, account for much of the present existing summer misery and suffering.

Dear reader, if you are unfortunately numbered among the sickly and weak mortals of to-day, it is now time to awake to a true realization of your danger. The weakening and depressin ghot weather will only add to your miseries if you are careless and indifferent.

There is absolute relief and positive cure for you in Paine's Celery Compound. This wonder working medicine is successfully conquering such troubles as yours every day. It is a fact verified by able physicians and thousands of testimonials that Paine's Celery Compound makes new, pure blood, builds up the nervous system, regulates digestion, whets the appetite, and gives vigor and strength to combat the discomfort of the heated term. Mrs. E. Wilcox, Creemore, Ont., says:—

"For years I have suffered from constant sick headache and nervousness. At times I have been so bad that I have been unable to sleep two hours a night for weeks. I have tried many medicines and doctored a great deal, but never received a hundredth part of the value from them that I obtained from Paine's Celery Compound. After using three bottles I can sleep well, my headaches have ceased, and I feel healthier and fresher than I have done for years."

Killed on the Track.

Vaudreuil, Que., July 29.—A very sad accident happened yesterday morning about 11 o'clock, when Mr. Lueger Valois, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Vaudreuil, was killed. It is supposed that Mr. Valois was crossing the G. T. R. bridge and had reached the east end when a westbound freight train struck and instantly killed him. An eastbound passenger train was crossing the bridge, and it is supposed he was trying to keep out of the way of the passenger train when the freight struck him. The body was picked up by the freight train crew and brought to the station, where an inquest was held yesterday afternoon.

BRITAIN'S WHEAT YIELD.

Wind and Rain Threaten Serious Damage to the Crop.

London, July 29.—The Mark-lane Express, in its review of crop conditions, says that wind and rain threaten serious damage over a considerable portion of the wheat area of the United Kingdom. Barley has benefited by the weather, and oats have not suffered.

The French wheat yield is above the average in the most important provinces, the total crop being estimated at 42,000,000 quarters. Rye is not above the average, but oats are from 5 to 10 per cent. above.

A big wheat crop is reported in Hungary, and more than an average yield is expected in North Germany, Saxony, Bavaria and Silesia.

RE EARLY CLOSING.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir, — I ask the use of your columns for the purpose of protesting against a danger which is threatening the early closing movement. I understand that one of our clothing stores continues to keep open until 7 o'clock, while all the others close at 6. This is not fair, because it gives an undue advantage to the former. Now if this is continued, I know from what I have heard that the other stores will be compelled to protect themselves and keep open as long as the other does. All the clerks will then be deprived of the benefit of the extra hours of fresh air and exercise during the summer months. I am a strong union man and like to patronize union stores, but while I believe in the wage earner getting all he can for his labour, I also believe in shorter hours, during the hot weather, at least. I hope therefore no union store will be the means of depriving us of the shorter hours which all the other clothiers and boot and shoe men have so kindly agreed to allow us.

Yours truly,
CLERK.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir, — In the Examiner of the 23rd inst., is a report of the inquest on the body of J. W. McNaughton. That a body of intelligent men should decide that Christian Science "is a danger to the community," and recommend legislation against its practice, is most surprising in view of the afct that so many cases are daily being healed by it in every community in this country. Is it not time that the people looked into the subject fairly and impartially instead of being moved by blind prejudice to oppose something they know not of, and are not willing to investigate? Had this boy passed away under medical treatment not a word would have been said of it.

Yours truly,
C. R. MUNRO.

THE DAY AT STONY LAKE

The Cottagers and Their Friends Making Merry.

THE COTTAGERS' ASSOCIATION

Will Meet on Thursday Afternoon—Accidents at the "Canal"—Dancing at the Pavilion.

Juniper Island,
Tuesday morning.

The fine weather of the last few days has been thoroughly enjoyed by the pleasure seekers at Stony Lake, and all are of the belief that the wet weather is about over. The various summer resorts, whose trade has been somewhat backward during the month of July, anticipate a brisk trade during August, and the indications point pretty much in that way.

Mr. Roger P. Strickland, of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Blenheim, who is spending his holidays at Mrs. T. J. Tate's cottage, left for home to-day after having a most enjoyable vacation.

Miss May Donnel of Kilkenny, who is known very popularly amongst a wide circle of friends at the lakes, left to-day for Clifton, where she will enter an hospital as a nurse-in-training. Miss Donel will be greatly missed from the wheel of the trim little steam yacht, Mayflower.

The Mollie went down to Lakefield on Monday in order to have a larger screw attached to her shaft. She will pass through Stony Lake at a great pace when she returns.

Mr. R. D. Collins, who has been enjoying his holidays at Catsmaran, the summer cottage of his father, Mr. J. D. Collins, returned to his duties in the Molson's Bank, Brockville, to-day.

Crown Point, Mr. George Cochrane's summer residence, is the headquarters of a very merry crowd of young people. Amongst the guests to this beautiful spot, are Miss Howard, Toronto, Misses Laura and Irene Gray, Miss Nellie Hall and Miss Gertie Hutchinson, and Messrs. Will Cochrane, Ernie Payne, Harold Brown, Peterborough; Mr. A. E. Brundrett, Newmarket. Miss Quinn of Winnipeg, is chaperoning the party.

Mr. Jim Worts of Toronto, and Mr. Cook, of the same city, are the guests of Mr. Hubert McBain at Bona Vista. They are having a jolly time sailing, and when there is no breeze, the steam yacht Mollie is at their pleasure.

Miss Stratton of Peterborough, is a guest at Strathormond.

Mr. J. D. Collins' family and a few of their friends, made an excursion to the Blue Mountains on Saturday last. This is one of the most fatiguing trips that a person at the lakes can make, still it is the ambition of nearly every one to visit the Blue Mountains, which can be seen for such a distance away.

Another popular trip at Stony Lake is the journey to White Lake. Any one who visits Stony Lake and who goes home without seeing White Lake returns home minus an experience. Owing to the very high water this season, a trip through what is called the Canal to White Lake is often attended with disastrous results. Your correspondent some time ago told of an accident that befell a Peterborough bank clerk, and a lady friend, at this point, but Monday was a record breaker of a day at the Canal. Several canoe loads of people from from the Boschink settlement came to grief, and lunch baskets, canoes, paddles and canoeists went floating down the current. They all very fortunately reached shore and after gathering up their belongings they proceeded to a farm house on a borrowing expedition, and at arriving at this point they were surprised to find another large party that had met a like fate, and who were endeavouring to dry out their belongings. A second-hand clothing store would do a flourishing business at the Canal, as nearly every day some unfortunate comes to grief.

Day by day the necessity of having regular calling places for the steamboats becomes more apparent. The cottagers are most unreasonable in a great many cases, and were the steamboat men to attempt to call at every island requested, they would not get to Lakefield until well on to 10 o'clock. Many cottagers positively refuse to paddle to a neighbouring island and put the steamboat men to the trouble of going for them. This policy of good nature on the part of the captains of the boats has been abused to such an extent that a radical change is soon to be inaugurated. There are many cottagers in the vicinity of the store who could very well afford to have some one canoe them to that point and thereby facilitate traffic.

What would Stony Lake be without the pavilion, and how did the young people ever do without it? is a question that cannot but flash across one's mind as he visits Juniper on a beautiful evening. It is a sight most pleasing to see the throngs of cottagers from around the lakes, even from as far as Boschink, that assemble at the store. All kinds of crafts, steam yachts, skiffs, canoes, punts and any sort of craft, so long as it can be made to navigate the lake, are to be seen. The wharves are covered with these while their owners are enjoying themselves elsewhere. The sprightly strains of the piano can be heard upon the water for a long distance as the young people are enjoying their nightly dance. Inside, the scene is pretty—the girls in their summer costumes, and the young men in their conventional style of immaculate white ducks and dark coats. Last night, however, some one set the pace, and the remainder of the boys followed, and very few danced with their coats on, so excessively warm was it.

Mr. G. K. McAllister, of Rochester, who has been spending two weeks at the Lakes, returned home this morning.

Lt.-Col. H. C. Rogers returned this morning after spending a day or two the guest of Mrs. Dennistoun.

Many of those who preside at the piano at the pavilion complain bitterly of the poor condition it is in at present. The instrument is considerably out of tune, and should be repaired at once.

The cottagers and others are reminded of the meeting of the Stony Lake Cottagers Association which is to be held in the pavilion on Thursday afternoon commencing at three o'clock. Every cottage on the lake should be represented, as business of importance will be considered and arrangements for the annual regatta will be made.

Mr. John D. Craig returned this morning from his cottage at Boschink where he has been spending a day or two.

Messrs. Bob. Elliott and Fred Clarke went up to McCracken's Landing for a few holidays this morning.

Mr. Charlie Armstrong, the proprietor of Mount Julian hotel, caught an elegant lunge the other day with a silver bait. Charlie says that this is about the only way he can catch fish, and he has them the season through. Mr. Armstrong has his place in first-class condition, and the painters are now at work putting on the finishing touches.

There have been complaints made of reckless shooting on the part of some of those staying at the lakes. Unless the practice is stopped, a bullet will find its way to somewhere it was never intended. Revolvers are too freely used in some portions of the lakes.

STOCK MARKETS.

Another Bull Week Probable.

New York, July 28th.—A new week commences with indications strongly pointing to a continuance of rising prices for railway and industrial shares. It looks as though purchases made now will speedily show good profits. The market has broadened so perceptibly that it makes but comparatively little difference what stock issue you select. Each day witnesses new favourites brought forth by the manipulators for rapid progress, and yours will be certain to have its turn after a rest given the stocks advanced. They are often taken hold of again and carried to higher figures than they were on their previous innings. Seldom do markets offer such continuous daily chances for money making as the one now existing, hence our urgency for you to come in and participate. The general market is yet as we advertised on Sunday last—a long way from its zenith, as a matter of fact, it is a safer bull market to be interested in than was the great boom of 1900. The public having at present so small a percentage of interest adds to a great degree to its stability and safety. The cliques cannot afford to permit any market disaster, owing to their heavy holdings of stocks and the plans they have in view for various mergers, consolidations and agreements, with the view to still further concentrate railway management in various sections of the country. The present market situation is your opportunity. Avail yourself of it by purchasing some stocks immediately and we have told you that it was time to take up the industrial issue. This week we will devote some space in this series of letters to some industrials so that clients may deal in them intelligently.

Did She Part With Her Hair.

Hamilton, July 28.—It looks now as if the missing Copetown girl, Amy Wilson, may be masquerading in male clothing. Her relatives have discovered that a pair of scissors, a mirror and a boy's cap are missing from the Wilson home. It is believed that she got other male attire, put it on and clipped her hair, making herself into a passable appearing youth. Miss Wilson has a deep voice and with male clothing on will be hard to identify as a woman.

VOLCANIC REGIONS.

The Five Active Groups of the Western Hemisphere.

The active volcanic groups of the western hemisphere occur in five widely separated regions:

First.—The Andean group of volcanoes of the equatorial region of western South America.

Second.—The chain of some twenty-five great cinder cones which stretch east and west across the south end of the Mexican plateau.

Third.—The Central American group, with its thirty-one active craters, extending diagonally across the western ends of the east and west folds of the Caribbean corrugations, fringing the Pacific side of Guatemala, San Salvador and Costa Rica. This is separated from the Mexican group on the north by a large nonvolcanic area, the isthmus of Tehuantepec, and on the south from the Andean volcanoes by the isthmus of Panama, where no active volcanoes are found.

Fourth.—The chain of volcanoes of the Windward islands, marking the eastern gate of the Caribbean sea, standing in a line directly across the eastern termini of the Caribbean mountains, trending east and west and parallel to the Central American group similarly situated at the western termini.

Fifth.—The volcanoes of Alaska and the Aleutian islands.—Professor Robert T. Hill in Century.

Circumlocution.

A young Yorkshire collier, anxious to pop the question to a girl whom he honestly admired, but not having the courage to ask her straight out, adopted a method of sounding her which romantic people will be inclined to think rather too practical.

"Jessie, my lass," he said nervously, "Ah've insured my life."

"Has ta, lad?" said the damsel indifferently.

"Aye, an' Ah'm thinkin' Ah'm a fool for doin' it."

"How's ta mak that art?"

"Why, supposin' Ah get killed in t' pit, where does ta think t' money'll go?"

"Why, to thy feyther, for sure."

"True enough, an' it ain't fair. It ought to be paid to my wife."

"To thy wife! Why, tha hasn't got one, Bill."

"That's just it," cried Bill in a burst of confidence. "Tha're a nice lass, Jessie, an' Ah want thee to have that money."

"Why couldn't ta say so at fust?" cried Jessie joyfully.

Then the happy couple embraced and trotted off to break the news to Jessie's mother.

Went Him One Better.

A well known Glasgow divine related the following anecdote, showing that the ready wit of a countryman was more than a match for him:

He was going to the country for his holidays and was in a railway train when a young man entered. In a short time the two commenced a conversation, in the course of which the clergyman asked the youth what he worked at.

"I am a coupler, sir," was the reply.

"A coupler! So am I," replied the clergyman with a laugh.

The youth looked at him for a minute or so, then burst into a fit of laughter and said: "Oh, I see; ye'r a meenister. Ye marry folks. But I gang farther than ye dae. I baith couple and uncouple."

The clergyman laughed heartily and acknowledged that the youth had the better of the sally.

Man's Greatest Enemy.

"Fatigue is one of the greatest enemies of the human race," says a writer in Ainslee's. "Modern physiology shows that it is the cause of nearly half and perhaps more of the several hundred catalogued diseases that prey upon man. In our age, with its high pressure, its hot and bitter competition and the unrelenting struggle for survival, its moral and physical ravages are steadily increasing. Cities, in which an ever larger proportion of our people dwell, are biological hothouses and, for some, furnaces, forcing development prematurely and encouraging late hours and excitement and consuming nerve and brain."

Corrected His Error.

With the Germans the absentminded college professor is a stock source of witticisms.

One of these deeply absorbed gentlemen, sitting on a rear seat, thought he knew a person sitting in front and was about to speak to him when, the stranger by chance turning a little, the professor saw that he was mistaken.

Nevertheless, touching him on the shoulder, he remarked politely:

"You will excuse me, but you are not the person I thought you were."

Breaking a Will.

A wealthy woman named Silva died at Lisbon and left her entire property to a rooster. She was a fervid spiritualist, a believer in the transmigration of souls, and imagined that the soul of her dead husband had entered the rooster. She caused a special fowlhouse to be built and ordered her servants to pay extra attention to their "master's" wants. The disgust of her relatives over the will caused the story to become public, and a lawsuit might have followed had not one of the heirs adopted the simple expedient of having the wealthy rooster killed, thus becoming himself the next of kin.

You gave your hand to me, as though
The low scrub-growth that spanned
The old church-tower we caught anew
The keen and freshened breeze that blew
Across the reach of sand.

Too proud! The grace you scorned to do
Where scarce your feet could stand;
'Twas but for sheer fatigue I knew
You gave your hand!

How clear that scene comes back to view!
Your cheeks' faint roses fanned,
The gorge, the dimpling lake of blue,
The black boats on the strand!
I gave you all my heart, and you—
You gave your hand!
Bismarck, Ont. —M. O. Nelson.

Wanted to Watch Them.

The czar of all the Russias has never felt safe or at home among his subjects. To show the feeling of insecurity which was entertained by the Emperor Nicholas I., Bismarck used to tell the following story, which is one of Poschinger's collected "Conversations With Prince Bismarck:"

The court physician had prescribed massage for some ailment of the czar, who, however, was unable to find a single person in his household to whom he cared to intrust the task. At his wits' end, he at last applied to Frederick William IV. for a few non-commissioned officers of the Prussian guard. These were sent, and after the completion of the rubbing cure returned to Berlin heavily laden with presents.

"So long as I can look my Russians in the face," said Nicholas, "all is well; but I will not risk letting them work away at my back."

One Common Cause of Headache.

Perhaps the most general cause of headache and pain across the eyes is nasal catarrh. The simplest cure is to inhale the medicated vapor of Catarrhozone which traverses every air cell and air passage of the throat, lungs and nose. It kills myriads of germs at every breath, clears away mucous discharges, preserves and heals the membrane. Catarrhozone is just a splendid remedy for headache, and its action is certain and unfailing in diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Deafness, Bronchitis, Asthma and Catarrh. A trial will convince the most sceptical that Catarrhozone is all right. Large size, $1.00; trial size 25c. Druggists, or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

Telling a Horse's Age by Wrinkles.

"The popular idea that the age of a horse can always be told by looking at his teeth," said a veterinary surgeon, "is not entirely correct. After the eighth year the horse has no more new teeth, so that the tooth method is useless for telling the age of a horse which is more than eight years old. As soon as the set of teeth is complete, however, a wrinkle begins to appear on the upper edge of the lower eyelid, and a new wrinkle is added each year, so that to get at the age of a horse more than eight years old you must figure the teeth plus the wrinkles."

A Priceless Gift.

Had Bleeding, Itching Piles

Dr. Chase's Ointment.

The doctors are wrong. They usually claim that an operation, with all its risk, pain and expense, is the only cure for piles. We can prove by the statements of thousands of good, honest men and women that Dr. Chase's Ointment not only promptly relieves the suffering from piles, but also positively cures this dreadful ailment. It frequently cures after the knife has failed.

Mr. J. F. Miller, who is employed as cooper by the Kennedy & Davis Milling Co., Lindsay, Ont., states,— "I believe that Dr. Chase's Ointment is the best thing in the world for the piles. I say this because it has positively and thoroughly cured me of itching, bleeding piles, and this after all other remedies I could procure had failed. I can recommend this ointment to anyone suffering from piles, knowing that it will certainly cure."

THE GREAT JOKE, DEATH.

Funny Side of Dying Often Treated of in Literature.

"Death," said a publisher, "has been treated humorously in our literature often. Indeed I am quite sure that a collection of many thick volumes might be made under the title of 'Death's Funny Side.' Thomas Hood was one of our best writers of this sort of verse. Don't you remember his ballad on the young sailor who died heartbroken over his girl's unfaith? The last stanza was:

"His death, which happened in his berth,
At forty odd befell;
They went and told the sexton, and
The sexton tolled the bell.

"Hood did another ballad on the subject of a soldier who lost both legs in battle, who was in consequence jilted by his sweetheart and who then hung himself. Now, that is rather tragic, is it not? It has a bizarre but none the less poignant tragic note. Guy de Maupassant indeed once handled almost this same situation, but he handled it from the opposite viewpoint, and don't you remember how he narrated the first, the crucial, meeting of the lovers after Ben Battle's double amputation?

"But when he called on Nellie Gray
She made him quite a scoff,
And when she saw his wooden legs
Began to take them off.

"This treatment drove Ben to despair:

"So round his melancholy neck
A rope he did entwine
And for the second time in life
Enlisted in the line.

"And there he hung till he was dead
As any nail in town;
For, though despair had cut him up,
It could not cut him down.

"There is a tremendous literature of humorous epitaphs. There must be, I fan ~ 10,000 of these, but two of them are all I can retail. The first goes:

"Here lies the body of mild Maria;
She went one day to start the fire,
But the wood was green,
So she used kerosene,
And now she's where the fuel is drier.

"The other is grimmer:

"Life is a lie, and all things show it;
I thought so once, and now I know it.

"Then there are songs on the side splitting aspects of death, some of which have caused tender hearted ladies to double up with mirth. 'Johnny Jones and His Sister Sue' is one such song, and I bet that six people out of ten in America know it by heart.

"Yes," the publisher concluded, "under the title of 'Death's Funny Side' an anthology of many, many volumes could be made. The anthology should be bound in black pigskin, with grinning skulls and crossbones tooled in gold on it."—Philadelphia Record.

Nice Stories of Rhodes.

"It is said that the character of a man is best shown in little things, and if this letter is not too long already," says a writer in The London Times. "I should like to mention one or two of these little things to show what to my mind the real Rhodes was. One afternoon four of us started from Groot Schuur for a walk through the grounds in the first place to see some fine new birds that he had got for his collection. With some difficulty we found a gate that was not locked, but—like so many gates in this country—fastened with a piece of wire twisted round the top. One of the party—then as now a member of the Cape Ministry—untwisted the wire and we got in and saw all that was to be seen. When we came out he stayed behind to fasten the gate as before. (I should have mentioned that as it was Sunday afternoon there were hundreds of people, men, women and children, using the grounds as if they had been their own.) Rhodes turned and said, 'Come along, X, leave it alone.' 'No,' said he, 'the birds are nesting and some of these little beggars will go in and do mischief.' 'Come along, I say,' replied Rhodes, 'why shouldn't the little beggars have some pleasure?' Later in the afternoon, when we were sitting chatting in the billiard room, so well known now to readers of the illustrated magazines, a little girl, apparently a child of the artisan class, one of the 'afternoon visitors,' strolled into the room where we were sitting and said, 'Will some one please give me a drink?' Rhodes at once jumped up, and we could hear him call, 'James! James! bring this little girl a glass of water.' Of course these are straws but straws show which way the wind blows."

A Terrible Death Punishment.

In England, during the reign of Henry VIII., the public mind became greatly excited through several cases of poisoning, and parliament enacted a law making boiling to death the penalty. This law was on the statute books about sixteen years. It was made retroactive, so as to take in a case that chiefly prompted its enactment—that of Richard Rosse, otherwise Coke, the bishop of Rochester's cook, who poisoned seventeen persons, two of whom died. Coke was boiled at Rochester. The infliction was attended with peculiar cruelty, as Coke was put into a cauldron of cold water and gradually cooked to death.

A few years later, in March, 1542, a young woman named Margaret Davy was punished in a similar way on conviction of poisoning. The public were not satisfied as to her guilt, and, notwithstanding the comparatively slow travel of news in those days, the story of Margaret Davy's trial and punishment soon spread through the kingdom and aroused universal horror. Boiling to death remained on the statute books, however, as long as Henry reigned, perhaps because the monarch himself had a dread of being poisoned. Immediately after his death parliament repealed the law.

A French Drink.

The French are noted for their delicate and delicious drinks. The advantage of such a one that is nonalcoholic is apparent to every one. A favorite Parisian recipe calls for five pounds of raisins, five pounds of dried apples and five gallons of water. Put all together in a small cask or large earthen jar and let it stand uncovered for three days, stirring occasionally from the bottom. At the end of that time bottle with half a teaspoonful of sugar and a stick of cinnamon in each bottle. Cork tightly and store in a cool place. The fruits having fermented, the drink will keep for a considerable length of time and is really delicious when served ice cold. It is claimed that over 50,000,000 gallons of this punch were drank in France in a single year.

Spinning an Egg.

One of Lord Kelvin's favorite experiments while teaching natural philosophy at the University of Glasgow was to spin an egg which was suspended in the air. If the egg were hard boiled, it would spin a long time; otherwise, owing to the friction between its contents and the shell, its motion would soon cease. Lord Kelvin inferred from this that the interior of the earth cannot be a fluid, or the globe's rate of rotation would have been checked long ago. Once the students substituted raw eggs for the hard boiled ones provided for the experiment. Not one would spin properly, but Lord Kelvin was not to be fooled. "None of them boiled," was his only comment.

A Cruel Joke.

Oswald, a witty and original Parisian, had a mania for practical joking. He was very amusing to his friends, but when his talents were exerted to avenge some wrong there was more bitterness than fun in his wit.

One evening when a man who had not treated him politely gave a reception he revenged himself cruelly. The man was slightly deformed. All the hunchbacks of Paris, 500 in number, presented themselves at his reception. They had received notices from Oswald that if they would go to this address on this evening they would learn of a legacy which had been left them.

The Pride of Profession.

Soldiers, remarks the Kansas City Journal, are the only ones who really have pride in their profession. When a soldier dies, he is hauled to his grave on the trucks of an old cannon, and his memory would be disgraced if any other vehicle were used. But think what a howl would go up against the family if a dead farmer should be hauled to his grave on the trucks of a sulky plow!

Flat Noses Considered Beautiful.

In ancient Persia an aquiline nose was often thought worthy of the crown, but the Sumatran mother carefully flattens the nose of her daughter. Among some of the savage tribes of Oregon, and also in Aracan, continual pressure is applied to the skull in order to flatten it and thus give it a new beauty.

Not Very Smart.

"There's no use in trying to make me believe that Francis Bacon was a very smart man," said Senator Sorghum.

"Have you read any of his works?"

"No, but his biography shows that when there was a little financial deal on hand he wasn't clever enough to keep from getting caught."

The Electric Eel Is Very Old.

Certain species of electric fishes have been known from very early times. Occasionally we find people ascribing mysterious powers to them both of good and evil. It is certain that the Abyssinians knew an electric eel and used it "as a remedy for nervous diseases," and the Hindoos and other nations of the east in times past were also conscious of its powers. Humboldt describes an old method of capturing this eel practiced by the East Indians, which consisted in driving horses into waters inhabited by the eel and allowing the eels to exhaust themselves by attacking the horses with their electric organs, when they were "easily harpooned by the Indians," but subsequent travelers in the same parts where Humboldt says the custom was practiced have denied the report, and it is now not generally believed. However, the electric eel has been known to those people for centuries.

Shooting Stars.

The shooting stars are small bodies, weighing at most a few pounds and consisting mainly of iron and carbon. They traverse space in swarms and also revolve around the sun in long, elliptical courses, like the comets. When these little bodies enter the earth's orbit, they are deflected toward the earth, and great numbers are seen in a single night.

Mosquitoes and Strawberries.

Mosquitoes and strawberries make a queer combination certainly, but that is what the people in the neighborhood of Mount St. Elias can boast of in a region of perpetual ice and snow. Along the edge of the glacier, it is said, is a strip of luxurious vegetation, where strawberry vines cover the ground for miles.

Strike Now in 11th Week.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., July 28.—The beginning of the eleventh week of the anthracite miners' strike finds apparently no change in the situation, although the rumor has been revived that an effort will be made some day this week upon the part of one of the large companies, to start up one of their collieries.

At strike headquarters this belief is as strong as ever that the operators cannot resume and that it is idle talk to even suggest such a thing. President Mitchell simply says that the situation is about the same, and that the strikers are as firm as ever.

THE PANAMA HAT.

Plant From Which Fibre is Obtained not a Palm--Not Made Under Water.

With Panama hats in such unprecedented demand as they are this season, it is not surprising that much has been written concerning them, says an article in a recent number of Men's Wear.

The plant from which is obtained the material of which the hats are made is commonly called the Panama hat palm, although botanists do not group it under the head of palms, classifying it under the name cyclanthaceae. The botanical names of the particular species with which we are concerned is Carludovica palmata. The South American natives call it Palma de Pina. It is indigenous to parts of Ecuador, Colombia, Peur, Brazil, and Central America.

Right here it may be well to define certain terms that have been used by writers in connection with the subject and which appeared in advertisements in the daily papers, without their meaning being clear.

The word Jipijapa is really the name of an interior town in Ecuador, and the natives in that part of the country commonly speak of the Panama hat as the Jipijapa hat. Another word that has been frequently used is Manabi. This is the name of the province in Ecuador, and Manabi hat is also synonymous with Panama hat. In Manabi province is the city of Monte Cristi, where some exceedingly fine hats come from.

The expression paja torquilla has been erroneously used by some writers as being the name of the plant, but it is the name of the straw obtained from the plant, as anyone who knows Spanish might readily have understood, since the word paja means straw.

Many of our readers will be surprised to know that this straw is made from the flat leaf, and not from the stalk of the plant, for a casual glance at the exterior surface of a Panama hat would give the impression that the hat was woven from a fibre of cylindrical form. However, close scrutiny of the inner surface of the hat will disclose the fact that the fibre is not a cylinder.

The method of preparing the straw is as follows—Young plants, not more than four or five feet in height, are used for this purpose. Only the leaves that are young, stiff and in prime condition can be used. These are split into narrow strips by the native, who for this purpose uses his finger nails. But the strips are not separated at the stalk end. These bunches are then bleached in the sun. Up to this point you still have the flat straw, but what we shall call the rounding, for want of a better name, is accomplished by the deft-fingered native, aided by the natural tendency of the strip to curl. The strip is rolled from each of its two sides towards its middle, and thus is formed, ready for plaiting into a hat body, that excellent straw with no raw edges, and which is deceptively like a cylinder.

The French Panamas are made of this same material, which is exported to Nancy, Saar Union and other places in Europe where the French Panama hats are made.

The statements that Panama hats are made under water, and that the very finest ones are woven only by candle light, are characterized as incorrect by a man who has all his life been engaged as a first hand in the Panama hat trade, and who has made Panama hats himself.

It is true that the hats are woven in the early morning hours, when the atmosphere is damp, as the heat of the sun makes the fibre brittle and unfit for manipulation. At night the hat is hung out in the open air, where it absorbs the dew, and is the next day again in condition to be worked. This accounts for the great length of time required in the hat-making, one of the very finest grades requiring upward of three and a half months to produce.

The hat is woven on a block, which is held between the knees of the operator, although some of the very coarse hats are woven on the knees of the native too poor to own a hatblock. Men, women and children, among the native Indians, are engaged in the weaving of the hats. To the children is entrusted the making of the coarser grades, and the youngsters become more skilful from year to year, and in time some of them become experts, capable of making the exceedingly fine hats. Those who have been long engaged in the handling of the Panama hats know from a glance at the button from what locality the hat comes. The button is the little central portion of the crown of the hat, at which point the weaving begins and extends outward toward the edge.

While a great deal has been written about $100 and $250 hats, it must be remembered that these are few in number. When one takes into consideration that a broken straw or a straw not matching in colour the rest of the hat, or a knot showing makes the hat defective, it will be realised that there cannot be many of these extremely fine hats produced. The finishing of the hat is an operation requiring much skill, because each of the overlapping fibres has to be nicely turned back into the edge of the crown and trimmed off.

Of course most people in the trade are by this time aware that the Panama hats are not made in Panama at all. The great majority of the hats made in Peru and Ecuador find their way to Gunyaquil, whence they are shipped to Panama, and, after crossing the isthmus, are shipped from Colon. This is not true of the hats made in Colombia, many of which are shipped from Cartagena or Savanilla.

Latest Fashion Notes.

The Fashionable Blouse.

The odd waist has become a necessity, and one would not know how to get on without it. For people who travel much, it has certainly gone far to simplify, if not entirely to solve, the question of excess of luggage. This is a pretty blouse, simple in style, but hardly to be denominated a shirt waist. It is of Liberty satin, cut with a long shoulde seam, which is overlaid with a strap, below which the so-called "Gibson" pleat descends to the girdle. The front is made after the "Duchess" model, that is, opening over a vest which is almost invisible. The finish is of tan cloth, carefully stitched with Corticelli Sewing Silk, of self colour, and terminating at either side in straps buttoned over a lace scarf. The sleeves are quite new, tucked from the shoulder to several inches below the elbow, and falling free from there to form a sort of glorified bishop's puff. The little cuff is fitted very closely and finished with straps of cloth, stitched with Corticelli silk, as is also the edge of the pointed collar. This blouse is pretty enough for any ordinary occasion, and being without bouffant trimming, has the further advantage of permitting the coat to be readily slipped on and off.

ALL CANADA AT TORONTO.

There will not be a province or a piece of territory in the Dominion that will not be represented at the exhibition to be held in Toronto this year from Monday, September 1st, to Saturday, September 13th. To mark their appreciation of this evidence of the country's confidence, the executive have increased the prize list until now it is proudly boasted that, with specials, upwards of $37,000 will be distributed in prizes among the exhibitors, six-tenths of which will find its way to the agricultural community. While this large sum proves the magnitude of the exposition, the enterprise of its managers and the comprehensiveness of the exhibits, the fact that $30,000 is to be spent in attractions and special features the latest inventions as well as the latest novelties in the amusement world, and including $7,000 for music, shows that while the agricultural and industrial interests of the country are to be well looked after, the people's enjoyment will not be neglected. America and Europe have been scoured for all that is best in every line of attraction. Bolossi Kiralfy, the greatest master of spectacle on earth, has been secured to produce in all its brilliancy and gorgeousness his stupendous production, "The Orient," which was the wonder of London, at the Olympia, for a year, and that is only one of the really costly features that have either been engaged or are being negotiated for. Then there are the new Dairy Buildings and the new Art Building, which will greatly increase the value of the exhibition as a factor in the education and elevation of the people. In the Dairy Building, not only will there be exhibits of dairy products, utensils, etc., but lectures and demonstrations will be given twice daily in a hall provided with seating accommodation for 600 people. Reduced rates will of course be available on all lines of travel.

Texas Rivers Receding.

Dallas, Texas, July 29.—During the last 24 hours the aspect of the flood situation in Texas has grown brighter. The heavy rains have ceased throughout the greater portion of the State, and the water has begun to recede in all the rivers and creeks. If the fair weather continues some of the Texas railroads will begin regular trains on time to-day, while regular traffic will be re-established on others within three or four days.

As Mr. Hardy, who attempted to cross a swollen stream at Elms Springs, was drowned, this makes five drownings which have been reported as a result of the floods.

Hit a Church.

Brougham, July 29.—During a terrific thunder and hail storm that passed over here Sunday great damage was done to crops. The barn of Robt. Pugh of Glen-Major was struck by lightning and the end knocked in and five hogs killed; the barn was not burned. The church at Glen-Major was also struck during Sunday school. The tower was badly shattered, lightning coming down through the church and out of the window. A remarkable feature was the fact that while the church was fairly well filled not a person was killed, but two children were badly stunned.

July's Rain Fall

Toronto, July 29.— The rainfall during this month so far is 4.335 inches, the average for the month of July during the past 60 years being 2,918 inches. It has rained on 16 of the 28 days of this month. While the fall has been heavy it is comparatively light to those of 40 and 50 years ago. The weatherman at the Observatory states that pleasant summer weather might now be looked for after the heavy rains and thunderstorms of the past couple of months.

Earth Opened Up.

Santa Barbara, Cal., July 29. — Meagre advices received from Los Alamos, 45 miles north of this place, report that an unusually severe shock of earthquake occurred about 11 o'clock Sunday night, doing damage to the property of the Western Union Oil Company estimated at from $12,000 to $15,000. At Harris Station, on the railroad, a fissure is reported to have opened and from it a stream of water two feet deep and 18 feet wide is now flowing.

Mystery Still a Mystery.

Toronto, July 29. — The police court room presented an animated scene last night when the coroner's jury assembled to continue the investigation of the circumstances surrounding the Evans' warehouse mystery, as it relates to the death of George Whatley, an employe.

The half dozen witnesses examined failed to make a single statement that cast a ray of light on the mysterious circumstances that surround the whole affair.

Threw Stones at His Tug.

Duluth, July 29.—James Taylor, master of the tug Abbott of the local branch of the Great Lakes Towing Company, Sunday night shot George Wilson, engineer of the tug Haber, at West Superior. Two shots were fired, and Wilson is expected to die. Captain Taylor, who is under arrest, claims that Wilson and others were engaged in throwing stones at his boat, and that he warned them not to repeat it, but they did not heed his warning.

Killed on the Track.

Ottawa, July 29.—An old woman, Kate Kinnear, who was a well-known character throughout the Ottawa valley, was killed by the G.T.R. train known as the "Mocassin," about two miles west of Cornwall Junction, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

Worse Than Reported.

Belleville, July 29.—Mr. James Johnson, the well-known Canadian journalist, was quite severely injured at the time of his accident in London. Advices from him state that he had been confined to his bed for five weeks and was not at the time of writing able to leave it.

Lady Laurier's Reception.

London, July 29.—Lady Laurier, wife of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Premier of Canada, held a large reception, followed by a dance, at Hotel Cecil, last evening, in behalf of the members of the Canadian Government in London.

Spain Opposes the Vatican.

Madrid, July 29.—Premier Sagasta states that the negotiations with the Vatican regarding the schools conducted by the religious associations are progressing very slowly, and that if they are not finished by October the Government will take other steps. "Spain, following the example of the United States, cannot yield on the religious question," said Senor Sagasta.

Will That "War" Never End?

Manila, July 29.—A party of engineers commanded by Lieutenant Brown encamped at Mataiang River, was attacked by Moron at midnight, on Friday. The attack was repulsed without loss to the Americans. Three Moros were killed. Friendly natives report that the Sultan of Naull personally led the attack, thinking the American camp was without sentries.

MARKED BY APPLAUSE

Colonial Secretary Chamberlain's Speech in The Commons.

THE FUTURE OF SOUTH AFRICA.

Government Desires That Boers Should Preserve the Best Characteristics of Their Race, Shake Hands, and Thus Secure Prosperity Under the Flag Which Protects Different Races and Religions.

London, July 30.—Mr. Chamberlain's appearance in the House of Commons yesterday was marked by a speech, which won the applause even of such opponents as Henry Labouchere. Mr. Chamberlain dealt comprehensively with the past and future of South Africa. "We have no intention," he declared, "that the Boers should break with their old traditions. We desire that they should preserve all the best characteristics of their race, and hope they will shake hands with us, thus securing prosperity in South Africa under the flag which protects different races and different religions." That sentiment was the keynote of the speech.

Dealing with the much discussed labor question, Mr. Chamberlain said he believed every inducement to labor should be held out to the blacks, but he said no scheme of compulsory labor would receive the slightest Government support. There was no intention of packing the country with Britishers, but so much Transvaal land was lying idle that the colonies could only be made a great farm producing factor by bringing in British settlers.

In reply to Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, Mr. Chamberlain said that the one spirit animating the members of the colonial conference was the desire to draw closer together the consistent parts of the Empire, and he thought it safe to say that the conference had made important progress towards a perfect union to which he himself looked forward.

Regarding South Africa, he said the Government, however, reserved to itself the important right in the new colonies to refuse to allow the return or to keep watch over persons who showed themselve inimical to good order and peace.

"We are not going to allow the result of the war to be undermined," said Mr. Chamberlain, "by intrigues carried on by nominally constitutional means."

Regarding the future status of South Africa, the Colonial Secretary said the Imperial Government had established a crown colony in the strictest sense. The next step would be to add a nominated official element. Thereafter, there would be an elected official element, and then nothing but circumstances and time, would separate the new colonies from full self-government, the ultimate goal of their ambition. The consummation would not be delayed.

So far as the Government was concerned the surrender promises would be kept in spirit, as well as in letter. The Government, he said, was bound, both by honor and by interest to this service. Mr. Chamberlain continued, no man was more anxious than he to recover some considerable part of the cost of the war from South Africa. He thought it would be perfectly fair to lay a fair part of the cost of the war on the principal industry of the Transvaal, but what amount it was too soon to say.

Botha and Delarey Coming.

Cape Town, July 30.—Generals Delarey and Botha were given an ovation yesterday at Stellenbosch. They were driven to the Town Hall and each of the two carriages was drawn by 60 students. At a luncheon which followed, the students acted as waiters.

General Botha, in a feeling address, said the day of surrender was the most painful of his life, but, now that it had been done, he prayed earnestly that his hearers should consider it God's will. Although Afrikander nationality, in a manner, has been buried, it would remain the most important factor in the social life of South Africa. General Botha paid a tribute to former President Steyn's abilities as a statesman: "Now, let us stop bothering ourselves about politics," said the general, "and try to make ourselves happy in South Africa, because we have no home elsewhere."

Generals Botha and Delarey will proceed to England, the United States and Canada, to collect funds for the relief of widows and orphans of Boer soldiers.

Boers Homeward Bound.

Hamilton, Bermuda, July 30.—The steamship Roslin Castle sailed for South Africa yesterday with the first party of returning Boers, numbering 350 persons, on board.

Ledochowski's Successor.

Rome, July 30.—Cardinal Gotti, Prefect of the Sacred Congregation of Bishops and Regulars and of regular discipline, was appointed Prefect of the Propaganda, to succeed the late Cardinal Ledochowski, yesterday.

CORONATION HOLIDAY

Saturday, August 9, Will Be Observed in Canada.

AN INTERCOLONIAL SURPLUS.

In Accordance With the Predictions of Hon. Mr. Blair the Government Railway Will Be $40,000 or $50,000 to the Good This Year—Yukon Administration—Major Wood to Act For Gov. Ross.

Ottawa, July 30.—The Government will issue a proclamation at Thursday's meeting of the council proclaiming Saturday, August 9th a public holiday, in honor of Coronation of King Edward VII. This will mean the closing of banks and business places. In so doing the Canadian authorities are merely following the steps already taken in the old country.

The date of Ottawa's celebration of the coronation, has, therefore, been changed again. At a meeting of the committee last night August 11 was selected as the date, but yesterday morning, Hon. R. W. Scott, Secretary of State, notified the Mayor that the Government had decided to proclaim the 9th a public holiday, so after consulting together the committee decided that Ottawa will also be in line and have its pyrotechnical display on that night, too. The Monument Committee will meet at once, and it will probably be arranged to have the unveiling of the monument on the same date.

Intercolonial Surplus.

The financial returns of the Intercolonial Railway for the year ending June 30 last have not yet been completed, but it is known that there will be a small surplus. The road is doing a rushing business in passengers and freight, and the days of the big deficits, if careful and economical management is maintained, are practically over. The tourist travel this season is very large, and the Government line, with its efficient train service, good passenger accommodation and greatly improved roadbed, is now regarded as a favorite route.

For the eleven months of the year ending May 31 last there was a deficit of about $40,000, compared with $600,000 for the same time last year. The June figures are not yet completed, but when they are this deficit will be wiped out and there will be a small surplus remaining. When the Intercolonial estimates were under discussion last session, Mr. Blair said that he expected to close the year with a surplus of about $40,000 or $50,000, and his expectations, according to the information which is now being received at the department, will be borne out when the final returns are in.

Gov. Ross Coming Out.

Mr. James A. Smart, Deputy Minister of the Interior, will leave in a few days for Dawson for the purpose of disposing of matters affecting the administration of the Yukon Territory, which have accumulated during the illness of Governor Ross. Hon. Mr. Sifton has already given directions that Mr. Ross is to be brought out of the territory as soon as he is able to travel, in order that he may receive the best medical attendance. He will be accompanied by one of the physicians at present attending him, and everything will be made as comfortable for him as possible. Major Wood of the Mounted Police, who is stationed at Dawson, will act as Administrator during the Governor's illness, and he was instructed by telegraph to-day to assume the duties at once. The latest information here is that there is marked improvement in Mr. Ross' condition.

Ontario Cabinet Council

Toronto, July 30. — An order-in-Council was passed by the Ontario Cabinet at a meeting held yesterday afternoon, prohibiting the exportation of hemlock in rough condition. The order will go into force at the expiration of the present license year, which is April 30, next. By the passage of this order, hemlock is placed on precisely the same footing as pine.

The Cabinet voted $500 to assist in the search that is being made for oil and gas in Hastings county. The citizens in the neighborhood have subscribed $2,000 for the same purpose.

Ontario Matches Postponed.

Toronto, July 30.—The original date of the Ontario matches has been postponed, owing to the change of date at Ottawa. It is now arranged for the Palma trophy to be competed for on Tuesday, Aug. 26, and the Ontario matches to commence on the day following.

Wants 20,000 Men.

Winnipeg, Man., July 30. — The Manitoba Government estimate of the number of harvesters wanted in the various districts, according to the report from the crop correspondents, is 18,200.

COMBINE AGAINST COMBINE.

The British scare about Morgan's shipping combine, is perhaps another instance of John Bull's tendency to shy at a bogey, and fight out real trouble to the bitter, or, rather, triumphant, end. The pessimists who feared that the shipping combine would drive British bottoms from the sea, now perceive that perhaps the danger won't amount to much. There is a prospect that the combine won't be consummated after all. It is said that Morgan has promised such prices for the ships he has bargained for as to deter American capitalists from putting their money in the venture. Whether the combine is consummated or not, it has not been an unmixed evil. It has put both Britain and Canada on their mettle, and the prospects of having an all-Canadian-British fast line, is growing better every day, thanks to the spirit aroused by the threatened Morgan combine. The latest despatches assure us that great shipping and other corporations, are tumbling over each other in their anxiety to put in a fetching tender. Britannia will rule the waves a little longer anyway.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Lord Dundonald promises to be popular in Quebec. He speaks French fluently, and the French Canadian volunteers will enjoy a commander who can swear at them in the language of their Gallic sires.

There is always a fly in the ointment. If we have a fast Atlantic Canadian fleet, it seems that the cis-Atlantic terminus will be either Quebec or Halifax. This would paralyze the shipping interests of Montreal.

France is troubled with a "school question." The French people had better take advantage of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's presence in the Old Country. He has had some experience and great success in settling school questions.

The Montreal Star flippantly remarks;

"It is very absurd for Mr. J. P. Whitney to think that he has won the late Ontario elections. It is true that he received a large majority of the votes, but the indications are that 'the machine' was solidly against him. And who does not know that 'the machine' determines elections in Ontario, the better-than-other-Places?"

What election, pray, was won by the Tammany machine of forty-thug-power, brought from New York by Mr. Whitney and Conservative election purifiers? Was the Yankee machine "solidly against" Mr. Whitney?

In Toronto the Star is doing a good work in booming the fresh air fund by which children can get the benefit of country air. In Peterborough some of the children have a "fresh" air, which obviates the necessity of such a fund here.

POLITICAL EXPERIMENT.

According to the two Opposition journals, this Province is in a truly unhappy condition. The World says that Mr. Ross cannot possibly govern with so small a majority as he possesses, and must go the country. The Mail, however, will not let him go the country, and refers to the pecedent created by Sir Edmund Head, when he refused to grant a dissolution at the instance of Mr. George Brown. Now, if Mr. Ross cannot govern with his present majority, and cannot have another election, it is probable that the Tory organs are suggesting that the duties of government be handed over to Mr. Whitney. But here we are faced with another difficulty. If Mr. Ross cannot govern with a small majority, it would seem pretty clear that Mr. Whitney cannot govern with no majority at all. Again, if a dissolution cannot be granted at the instance of Mr. Ross, it is difficult to see how it can be granted at the instance of Mr. Whitney. The logical conclusion of the arguments presented by The World and The Mail is that this Province cannot be governed at all.

"Lo thy dread empire, chaos is restored,
Light dies before thy uncreating word.
Thy hand, great Anarch, bids the curtain fall,
And universal darkness buries all."

It is an awful state of affairs, but it is fortunate that we are in the midst of the holiday season, and do not require as much government as we shall when the fall trade begins and the courts are open again. We might organize a provisional Government to prevent shooting and fishing out of season, and trust to the natural goodness of mankind and the policeman for the rest. Magistrates, Justices of the Peace and other persons in authority may perhaps consent to go on discharging their duties provisionally until the reign of chaos and old night is over, and probably somebody will sign checks for salaries until the appropriations run out. To the gay and thoughtless, the experience of doing without a government will perhaps be a pleasing experience, just as children like to run about without shoes or stockings. To the more thoughtful it will afford food for reflection on the functions of Government, and especially the doctrines of the laissez-faire school of publicists. Anyway, we might try it for a month, as the advertisements say.—Globe.

OMEMEE.

Our farmers are busy saving their hay this week, being as yet the only chance they have had.

Our baseball club regret that they did not get a game on with Peterborough last Saturday evening, but had not received sufficient notice in order to get the best part of the team in from the country.

Dr. J. Keith, with his sisters, are spending a two weeks' holiday at Stony Lake, preferring it to all other resorts.

Omemee has many attractive advantages for a summer resort, surrounded by nice hills, picturesque in every way for driving, good fishing and boating and in connection with Trent Valley waters.

J. J. Nicholls, we are glad to report, is able to sit up after having his leg amputated.

The baseball match between Omemee and Bobcaygeon will be played here on Friday afternoon, and a good game is expected, as Bobcaygeon is bound to get even with Omemee.

Harvesters are very scarce, and big wages, as high as $30.00 a month, are being paid.

George Morrison has left for an extended visit to his son John at Sault Ste. Marie.

Mr. Higgins, Division Court Inspector, made J. D. Johnston, C. D. C., a visit last week, and found things satisfactory. The courts will not be removed from here and Bobcaygeon to Lindsay.

Although the medicine business should, above all, be carried on with the utmost conscientiousness and sense of responsibility, the unfortunate fact is that in no other is there so much humbug and deception. The anxieties of the sick and their relatives are traded upon in the most shameful manner; impossible cures are promised; many preparations are absolutely worthless, and some are positively dangerous to health.

As a consequence, all proprietary remedies are regarded with suspicion by many people, and the good suffer for the bad.

KITCHENER AND CANADIANS.

Final Despatch of the War Contains Glowing Tribute to Col. Girouard —Other Canadians Mentioned.

London, July 30.—Many pages of The Gazette yesterday were filled with Lord Kitchener's final despatch on the Boer war, and his mention of the officers and men who distinguished themselves while he was in command in South Africa. The same issue announces the general's new title as "Viscount Kitchener of Khartoum, and of the Vaal, and of Aspall, in County Suffolk."

In his last despatch, Lord Kitchener said of Lord Milner, the British High Commissioner:

"In many difficult situations it was always the greatest relief to me to feel that I could always rely on his unfailing sympathy and ungrudging assistance."

Referring to the deep obligation of the army to the colonies the writer said no requests of his had ever been refused by the colonial Governments, and their consideration and generosity only equalled the character and quality of the troops they sent to South Africa or raised in that country. Lieutenant-Colonel Girouard, a Canadian officer, is warmly praised. Lord Kitchener says that he is an "officer of brilliant ability and I wish him all success in his new capacity as head of a great civil department."

Almost all the leading generals were commended, including the writer's brother, General Fred Kitchener, who was described as an exceptionally keen and energetic officer. General Lord Methuen, Lord Kitchener said, had done more than most officers toward maintaining the high standard of personal courage, modesty and humanity which characterized the British army. "I share his own deep regret," said the despatch, "that his wounds prevented him from remaining in the field until the conclusion of peace." The following Canadians also are mentioned: Lieut. Colonel Evans, Major Rose, Captains Callaghan, McMillan and Williams, Lieutenants Ryan and Church, Sergeants Doherty, Bliss, Stallwood and Saunders, and Private Chesworth.

CESTRIAN REACHES HALIFAX.

Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Regiments of the C. M. R. Land.

Halifax, July 30.—The Leyland steamer Cestrian, from Port Natal, South Africa, July 2, arrived here at 4.30 yesterday afternoon. The steamer had a good passage and no accidents or deaths occurred on the voyage.

Six of the troopers are slightly ill, and have been sent to the military hospital, but outside of those, all on board are well.

The Cestrian anchored in the stream and will remain there until this morning. The steamer brought 1,639 officers and men, and the work of paying off was commenced as soon as the steamer came to anchorage. The officers are as follows:

Third Regiment—Lieut.-Col. V. A. Williams, Capts. C. T. Vanstraubenzie, W. Henderson, S. A. MacKenzie, A. A. Nasmith, E. A. Arnoldi, Lieuts. H. Reed, C. H. Hill, A. H. Trett, V. B. Patterson, A. E. Shand, G. S. Spokes, V. W. Odlem, W. G. Bishop and W. H. Butcher. Non-commissioned officers and men, 400.

Fourth Regiment—Col. Boulanger, Capts. Mackie, Good, Pope, and Dunnings; Lieuts. Lawlor, Stewart, Sully, Williams, Dickie and Papineau. Non-commissioned officers and men, 406. Surgeon-Major Elliott.

Fifth Regiment—Lieut.-Col. A. C. MacDonnell, Capts. B. E. Strickland, S. W. Strange, F. H. Bagley; Lieuts. F. Crean, L. Hooper, C. Harin, H. H. Nash, J. E. Sargeant and Worshop. Surgeon-Lieut. Thomas. Non-commissioned officers and men, 360.

Sixth Regiment—Lieut.-Col. Irving and Gordon; Capts. Unicake and Ross; Lieuts. Cooper, Gartshore, Bradburn, Robbins, Irvine, Sullivan, McKinley and Holland. Non-commissioned officers and men, 242.

Ten men discharged, irregulars: Lieut. Woodside and 41 men of the Second Canadian Mounted Rifles also came on the Cestrian.

The men will be landed in the morning and entrained for the west.

A Great Mistake.

The old idea of taking blood thinning compound sin order to purify the blood is an error, as the system is thus left in a vitiated condition. Morrill's System Tonic not only purifies the blood in a thorough manner but the iron contained in it again enriches the blood, leaving one with lots of good rich red blood. 50 pleasant-to-take doses for 50 cents.

A Little Girl Killed.

Toronto, July 30.—A distressing accident occurred yesterday morning on East Queen street, near Broadview avenue, which resulted in the death of Flossie Dixon, aged 11 years. The little girl dismounted from a gravel wagon, and in trying to cross the road was knocked down by an approaching street car. Her shoulder was dislocated and foot cut and she also received other serious injuries. She was attended by Dr. H. P. McLean, who ordered her removed to the General Hospital in the police ambulance. When admitted to the hospital she was still unconscious, and she remained in that condition till her death occurred, about 2 o'clock. Death was due to shock.

Explosion in a Subway.

New York, July 30.—As the result of a premature blast in the Rapid Transit Subway on Park Avenue, at 41st Street yesterday, four men were seriously hurt, two of whom it is thought will die.

It is considered a very healthful thing to eat an orange before breakfast. But who can eat an orange well? One must go to Spain to see that done. The senorita cuts off the rind with her silver knife, then, putting her fork into the peeled fruit, she detaches every morsel with her pearly teeth and continues to eat the orange without losing a drop of the juice and lays down the core with the fork still in it.

Shoemaker's Backache.

The constant bending over that of necessity a shoemaker must do when at work comes hard on the back and hard on the kidneys.

Backache, lame, weak and sore back are the bugbears of a shoemaker's existence.

The kidneys get cramped and strained, are unable to filter the blood as they should—they tell of their disordered condition by making the back ache and pain.

There isn't much use rubbing on liniments or sticking on plasters when the prime cause of the ache lies in the kidneys.

The remedy that is most effectual for "shoemaker's backache," as for all kinds of backache and kidney trouble, is Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets.

INTENSE PAIN.

John Saunders, shoemaker, Whitby, Ont., gives the following evidence:—"I procured a bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets at the drug store, and can say that they gave me great relief immediately. I was suffering with intense pain in the back and biliousness, with bad taste in the mouth, and loss of appetite. Under the influence of the medicine all this quickly disappeared and I feel well again. One thing I wish to say, while they did the work finely, they were very gentle in action, no distress, no griping like other medicines, and I was able to work all the time. I can heartily recommend them to all who suffer from backache, kidney trouble or biliousness."

Price 50c. a box, at all druggists or by mail, The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto.

Injured in a Runaway.

Galt, July 30—Mr. and Mrs. James Brown of Beverley were driving when their spirited team took fright and bolted, throwing them out on the roadway. Mr. Brown's head was frightfully cut in the fall. His chin and one of his legs were also injured, and all his front teeth, upper and lower, twelve in all, were knocked out. The physician found a fracture of the spine, and besides several ribs were broken. Mrs. Brown also had several ribs broken. Both are suffering greatly, but it is expected that they will recover.

Crops Not All Damaged.

Toronto, July 30.—Reports of the damage to the crops throughout the province by the recent rains show that it is not so heavy as generally thought, except to hay, which was cut, the continuous wet weather preventing it from being cured. The injury to the grain crop was confined mainly to the soft white wheat, which the rains prevented being harvested and which is sprouting in consequence.

Montreal Takes Action.

Montreal, July 30.—At a special meeting, held here yesterday by the Montreal Board of Trade, a resolution was adopted by 32 to 15, favoring a fast Atlantic service of at least 25 knots an hour.

A Right to Judge.

Persons who have used Dr. Chase's Ointment have the best right to judge of its merits and there is no preparation on the market to-day which is backed by such a mass of unsolicited testimony. It cures eczema, salt rheum and piles so promptly and thoroughly that people feel it a pleasure to recommend it to other sufferers. See testimonials in the newspapers.

The Cause of His Fame.

The Boston Journal tells a story of an actor who was accustomed to spend his summers in Wilton, Me. There he noted when, as the custom was, a farmer "killed a critter" the liver, sweetbreads, kidneys, etc., were thrown away. He offered to purchase these delicacies; but, though he got the goods, the "sturdy farmer scorned his proffered gold." Not long after he observed as he walked through the village that he was the cynosure of all eyes and was followed by a wondering if not admiring crowd, chiefly of the young. "Aha," thought he, "I cannot escape my fame. My glory as an actor has followed me even to this obscure hamlet." And he was mightily puffed up till he overheard one yokel about to another, "Bill, there goes the feller what eats innards!"

"DARDANELLES," a friend of the Clubman. A pure Egyptian cigarette at a moderate price. Packed in Silver, Cork and plain tips. Sold everywhere, 15 cts. per package.

'CARRY REFERENDUM'

Election Cry of the Dominion Alliance is in These Words.

500 OR 600 WORKERS ATTEND.

Convention of Prohibitionists in Toronto—Annual Meeting of the Ontario Branch of the Dominion Alliance—Some of the Business Transacted—A $10,000 Fund—Resolutions—The Officers Elected.

Toronto, July 30.—The annual convention of the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance was opened yesterday in Association Hall, with Rev. Dr. MacKay of Woodstock, chairman of the branch, in the chair, and between 500 and 600 prohibition workers in attendance. Among those on the platform were Senator Vidal, J. H. Carson, Rev. Dr. Carman, general superintendent of the Methodist Church; Mrs. McKee, W. W. Buchanan and Rev. Dr. Shutt.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Shutt, and F. S. Spence, secretary of the Alliance, moved that Rev. Mr. Cooley, Henry Moyles, Toronto, and Mr. Carson, Montreal, be appointed recording secretaries. This was agreed upon.

Upon motion the following were then appointed as the Business Committee: H. P. Moore, Acton; Rev. J. S. Ross, Walkerton; T. E. Parrott, Chatham; Rev. J. H. Oliver, Listowel; Rev. Mr. Shutt, L. C. Peake, Mrs. A. O. Rutherford, Mrs. S. G. E. McKee, Joseph Gibson and F. S. Spence.

Rev. Dr. MacKay then delivered his annual address.

J. J. Maclaren, K.C., presented the report of the Executive Committee, submitting the following recommendations:

1. That resolution be adopted calling upon the friends of temperance throughout the province to unite in an earnest effort to win a decisive victory in the voting on December 4th.

2. That the president of the Prohibition Association in each county or electoral district be made a vice-president of the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance, thus bringing the executive into close touch with the workers in every part of the province.

The report was adopted and committees were then struck, to which the various clauses of the executive's report were submitted. The committees and the conveners were:

Campaign Organization, Rev. J. S. Ross, D.D., Walkerton; Electoral Action, Geo. Wrigley; Resolutions, C. C. Fraser; Finance, W. H. Orr.

At the afternoon session the resolution committee made its report.

The convention then adjourned to meet again at 8 o'clock.

The Evening Session.

At the evening session the convention accepted a suggestion of the W. C. T. U. to offer individual prayer every day at noon for success on December 4th.

Rev. Dr. W. Dillon submitted a further report on behalf of the committee on the plan of campaign, providing for the printing of the necessary literature, etc. The recommendations were supported by Rev. Dr. Carman and adopted.

W. H. Orr presented the report of the Finance Committe. It recommends that a campaign fund of $10,000 be raised. The report was carried.

R. J. Fleming, secretary, submitted his report, showing the receipts of the year to be $3,840, and the expenditure the same. Vice-Presidents—G. F. Marter, Rev. Dr. Chown, Rev. Dr. Carman, Hon. A. Vidal, Hon. G. A. Cox, Hon. J. C. Aikens, Hon. G. W. Ross, Mrs. M. R. Thornley, and the chief officers of the Dominion and Provincial Unions and county presidents.

Secretary—F. S. Spence.

Treasurer—R. J. Fleming.

ALL FEARS NOW BANISHED.

King Edward Able to Walk and All Restrictions as to Diet Have Been Withdrawn.

London, July 30.—The latest and most reliable information indicates that King Edward's doctors were not mistaken in fixing Aug. 9 as the date upon which His Majesty could be crowned. The sinister rumors which have pervaded all classes for the last few days now appear to have lost the semblance of probability which made even the members of the Cabinet nervous lest another postponement of the coronation might be necessitated.

The apprehension that King Edward would be unable to stand the strain of the coronation ceremony has been greatly lessened by the announcement that His Majesty is now permitted to use his feet, and, with the aid of a stick, has done a little walking.

Another late telegram from Cowes, Isle of Wight, saying that nearly all the restrictions upon the King's diet have been withdrawn, has been welcomed, as evidence that the recent ominious deductions were drawn without due allowance for the doctor's extreme cautiousness. While the King was testing his ability to walk, two stalwart jackies stood by his side. After this experiment, which boded well for his fulfilling the necessary coronation functions at Westminster Abbey, King Edward sat smoking on the deck of the royal yacht, and watched the races of the small yachts off Cowes.

According to the present arrangements, King Edward and Queen Alexandra will leave Cowes either Aug. 6 or Aug. 8, for Buckingham Palace, and will return to the royal yacht Aug. 18, when the entire fleet will pass before King Edward and salute him, thus making a second naval review. After his return to the yacht, the King is expected to take an extended cruise to the northward, and, subsequently, to spend some weeks at Balmoral, where preparations for the arrival of Their Majesties have already been commenced.

Sir Joseph C. Dimsdale, the Lord Mayor of London, expects King Edward to visit the City of London the week ending Oct. 11, when a great luncheon will be held in the Guild Hall, which is to be followed by a royal procession through the south of London.

LIGHT ON EVANS' MYSTERY.

Ninety-Nine Gallons of Alcohol Missing Says the Manager.

Toronto, July 30.—There were interesting developments in the Evans' warehouse mystery last night, and facts brought out before the coroner's jury that may supply a motive for the possible murder of Edward Geen and George Whalley and the persistent effort made to fire the building the night of May 30, when the vault was tampered with.

The discovery has been made that the stock of Evans' & Sons' is short five hundred dollars' worth of alcohol, ninety-nine gallons.

The startling information was given to the jury by John B. Spencer, present manager. The statement came late in the evening, and had been anticipated by various questions put to each employe who took the stand, touching the manner in which shipments were made, whether or not they knew of any goods being taken from the stock in an irregular manner and how cheques were kept on shipments from the warehouse.

A complete invoice of the stock has not yet been made, and other supplies may be short. This is rapidly being done now, and figures will be secured from the Montreal end of the firm to verify the figures here.

Temiskaming Railway Board.

Toronto, July 30.—The first meeting of the Temiskaming Railway Commission was held yesterday morning at the Parliament Buildings, with all of the Commissioners present. Mr. A. E. Ames was elected chairman. Mr. D. E. Thompson, K. C., of Toronto, was appointed counsel pro tem, and Mr. P. E. Ryan, secretary pro tem. Reports were presented to the meeting by Mr. W. B. Russell, chief engineer of the road, and Mr. E. J. Sinclair, acting solicitor. The reports of these officials showed the survey and the purchasing of the right of way to be progressing in a satisfactory manner. Work on the 20 miles, contracts for clearing, which were let about a months ago, was also well under way.

The appointment of a secretary was not made, but it is likely that the position will be filled at the next meeting of the board, which will be held in the afternoon of Aug. 9.

THE BOWLING TOURNAMENT

In Honour of Dr. Moher, the Vice-President.

PRESENTATION MADE TO HIM

Of a Handsome Set of Silver Mounted Bowls—The Acknowledgment by Dr. Moher.

Twelve rinks played in the President vs. Vice-President's Tournament last evening at the Bowling Green, last evening, and the affair was, by far, the most pleasing function which has ever taken place under the auspices of the club. The tournament was arranged in order to give the bowlers an opportunity of meeting the Vice-President of the Club again before his departure for Orillia, and afforded an occasion for the presentation to him of a pair of Extra Quality silver-mounted bowls, which were suitably inscribed.

Lemonade and cake were served during the evening and almost the the entire membership of the club turned out to do honour to their departing Vice-President, who has proven himself so ardent a supporter of the Royal Game. The result of the tournament was as follows:

Totals for President, 69; Vice-President, 76; majority for Vice-President, 7.

At the conclusion of the match, in which keen interest was evinced, the pleasant duty of presenting an address and souvenir to Dr. Moher, Vice-President oft he club, was performed. Beneath the bright glare of the incandescent lights the bowlers assembled, with the doctor in the centre of the gathering. It was a very pretty sight, as the popular doctor's fellow members, attired in their immaculate white ducks, dotted the velvety turf.

Mr. George Giroux then read the following address;

Peterborough, July 29th.
T. J. Moher, M.D., Vice-President, Peterborough Lawn Bowling Club;

Dear Sir, — Regretting exceedingly to learn of your impending departure from town, we have assembled here this evening to voice our sorrow at losing a most zealous official and enthusiastic member of the Peterborough Lawn Bowling Club. We fully appreciate the interest you have always taken in everything which pertained to the welfare of the bowlers, and those of us who were with you at the Dominion Tournament at Toronto will not soon forget the courteous and kindly manner in which you entertained us.

In expressing our regret at your departure, we at the same time wish to congratulate you on your recent appointment as assistant superintendent of the Orillia asylum, and heartily hope that both yourself and Mrs. Moher may make as many friends and be as popular in Orillia as you were in Peterborough.

As a souvenir of our pleasant associations we wish to present you with this pair of bowls, which we hope may yet win you the Walker trophy.

Signed on behalf of the P.L.B.C., ALF. TERRILL,
Sec.-Treas.

Of course the doctor was taken by surprise. He had no intimation of what was being sprung and the handsome set of silver-mounted bowls were presented to him by Mr. A. J. N. Terrill, the secretary-treasurer of the club. Dr. Moher, who is a pleasant speaker, expressed his sincere appreciation of the honour that had been done him. As he had had no idea of what was coming he could not thank them in appropriate terms, he said, for the kindness they had shown him. He had always deemed it a great pleasure to be a member of the Peterborough Lawn Bowling Club, and they had spent many pleasant evenings together. The associations on the green were of a most enjoyable nature, and in view of this he would always consider that whatever efforts he exerted on behalf of the welfare of the club had been amply repaid. As to the presentation and social evening gotten up in his honour he begged of them to believe he sincerely appreciated their kindness, but he could not find words to express his feelings. He regretted leaving Peterborough for many reasons, but none more than the fact that in so doing he was severing his connection with the Bowling Club. He hoped to organize a club in Orillia, and when the Peterborough club came to that town there would be nothing too good for them, as far as he was personally concerned.

At the conclusion of the doctor's remarks he was given three rousing cheers and a tiger after which those present sang "For he's a Jolly Good Fellow." The gathering then dismissed.

The annual excursion of the employees of the George Matthews Co. took place yesterday to Jubilee Point, Rice Lake, and proved to be quite as successful as those of former years. The City of Peterborough, with an exceptionally large number of passengers on board, left Wolfe street wharf at 8.30 o'clock, but an unpleasant delay occurred at the locks. This was caused by the action of the Gilmour Company in floating through several large boom sticks, which necessitated the "City" and her passengers waiting for one hour and a quarter. However, the City reached Jubilee in good time, and a pleasant day was spent by the excursionists. Excellent music was furnished for dancing, and a keenly contested list of sports was run off. The excursion arrived back in Peterborough at 8.30 o'clock. Mr. T. F. Matthews, the sec.-treas. of the company, accompanied the excursion and made matters congenial for all on board.

The following is a list of events that were run off—

Boys' race under seven years—Howard Outram, Gordon Matthews.
Girls' race under seven years—Eva Outram, Pearl Pogue.
Boys' race, seven to ten years—Geo. Dryland, Roy Cranfield.
Girls' race, seven to ten years—Edna Boyce, Eva Outram.
Boys' race, 10 to 13 years — Archie Dryland, Eddie Shepphard.
Girls' race, 10 to 13 years — Ethel Crouter, Georgina Jackson.
Boys' race, 13 to 16 years—Louis Dinnie, Thomas Jones.
Girls' race, 13 to 16 years — Ethel Crouter, May Dinnie.
Mens' race over 16—Louis Dinnie, Tom Barrette.
Girls' race over 16—May Dinnie, Florence Smith.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Mr. William Hutchinson, of Bolivar Street, Expires Unexpectedly.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon, of Mr. William Hutchinson, who died very suddenly last Sunday at his residence, No. 20 Bolivar street. The deceased had been a sufferer from asthma for the past fifteen years, and on Sunday last attempted too much in walking as far as All Saints' church. On the way home he had to sit down and rest several times, and, on entering the house expired almost immediately.

Mr. Hutchinson was a native of Ida and has resided in Peterborough for almost twenty years. Four children survive him, viz., William, who is ill at the Nicholls hospital at present; Wallace, Miss Jennie and Miss Charlotte, all of whom are actively identified with the work of All Saints' church.

Rev. E. V. Stevenson conducted the service at the house, and interment took place at the Ida cemetery, where Venerable Archdeacon Allan officiated.

DR. MOHER WAS REMEMBERED

By the Members of the C. M. B. A.

He was Presented With an Address and a Gold Chain and Locket.

At a largely attended meeting of the Peterborough Branch of the C. M.B.A., last evening, Dr. Moher, who is about to leave Peterborough to assume the position of assistant superintendent of the Orillia Asylum, was made the recipient of a complimentarily worded address and a beautiful gold chain and locket as a token of esteem from his fellow-members of the society.

Dr. Moher has been connected with the C.M.B.A. for some years, and before coming to Peterborough he was president of the Trenton Branch of the society. During his residence in Peterborough he always displayed a keen interest in the affairs of the association and his removal from town will leave a gap among the members that will indeed be hard to fill.

When the president of the Peterborough Branch of the C.M.B.A. called the meeting to order last night, he explained the reason for which they had assembled. He spoke of the many good qualities which Dr. Moher possessed, and the loss the association and the town were suffering in the doctor's removal. However, Orillia was gaining a good citizen, and they could only hope that his residence in that town would be one of happiness and progress. Mr. Phelan, continuing, read the following address;

To Thos. J. Moher, M.D.,

Dear Sir and Brother, — The members of Branch 30, C. M. B. A., of this town, having learned that you are about to take your departure from Peterborough, and to take up your abode in another locality, they avail themselves of this opportunity of saying farewell to you, and wishing you God-speed and success in your new field of labour.

For a number of years you have been an active member of this society, having passed through the various offices to the proud position of Chancellor. You have always been earnestly devoted to the interests of the Branch as a whole, and its individual members one and all, have learned to regard you as a warm friend, and to esteem you as a brother.

While we are pleased to know that your new position is likely to be congenial to you, and that your appointment thereto is an expression of confidence in your ability, integrity and probity of character, we cannot help feeling that in your departure Peterborough sustains the loss of a good public-spirited citizen, and Branch 30 one of its most respected members.

In bidding you farewell, we ask you to accept this small token of the esteem in which you are held by your brethren of this society, and we trust that it may remind you from time to time of old and tried friendships, and of associations, and recollections, that have become dear to us all.

Signed on behalf of the members of Branch 30, C. M. B. A.,

H. PHELAN,
President.

Peterborough, July 29, 1902.

the handsome gold chain and locket were presented by Mr. Jas. O'Brien.

Dr. Moher made a feeling and appropriate reply, thanking the members of the C.M.B.A. for their kind expression of regard on his leaving Peterborough. He eulogized the work of the association, not only in Peterborough, but wherever it exists, and he trusted that they would continue along the same good lines. He would ever look back to his associations amongst them and to the handsome manner in which they had treated him on the present occasion.

Short speeches of an eulogistic nature were then made by Dr. O'Brien, and Messrs. Jas. O'Brien, John Coughlan, T. J. Doris, W. J. Devlin, M. Connors, M. O'Brien, Geo. Giroux, A. Vinette and H. Phelan.

LABOUR DAY DEMONSTRATION.

The Trades and Labour Council Making Preparations for the Event.

The different local trade unions have empowered their delegates in the Trades and Labour Council to undertake the proper celebration of Labour Day, which falls on Monday, September 1st. At the last meeting of the Council a strong committee was appointed to take charge of the demonstration, composed of representatives from each Trade Union, who have already got down to practical work. A special meeting of this committee was held in the Central Labour Hall last night, with Mr. Chas. Murty, President of the Trades and Labour Council, chairman. A general discussion as to the nature of the Labour Day demonstration took place, and various views and suggestions were made as to the best general features for the day. The committee are sanguine that, with the impetus that has been given the labour movement during the past year, and the rapid increase in the number of new unions which have been organized, a most successful demonstration can be arranged. Sub-committees for soliciting subscriptions were struck, and these will wait upon the business men and others at once. The committee will meet again on Saturday evening.

RASPBERRY FESTIVAL.

The Raspberry Social to-morrow evening on the church oval under the auspices of St. John's Girls' Guild promises to be a very enjoyable affair. Attractive music by the 57th Band will be one of the features. Admission 10c.

BAND ENGAGED

To Play at Toronto Fair on September 10th.

The action of the Toronto Industrial Fair managers in engaging the band of the 57th Regiment to play in Toronto on Sept. 10th is a high compliment indeed to not only the members of Peterborough's crack musical organization, but to the town at large. The excellent reputation the band of the 57th Rangers has made for itself, with its high-class concerts, has been readily appreciated by such progressive people as those at the head of Canada's greatest fair.

The band is to receive $200 for one day's work, which includes two concerts.

BEARS, BERRIES, BULLETS.

The Bobcaygeon Independent, which cannot tell a lie, relates that Mr. James Bardeau, of Harvey, went out the other evening to look for his cows that were in the woods, and was somewhat surprised to tumble over a large bear. He was almost on to it before he noticed it. The bear did not appear to take any stock of Mr. Bardeau, but quietly nosed around through the berry bushes for fruit, so Mr. Bardeau returned home for his rifle. When he got back with his weapon of death, the bear was still there, harmlessly nosing about and bringing his rifle to his shoulder, Mr. Bardeau took aim and fired. The bear gave a startled jump, and fell on his side, dead. The fur was in poor condition, and the meat was not extra good, being too early in the season for either to be in order. In the fall when the bears are fat, there is no nicer meat than a boiled bear ham.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

GOLF.

The Port Hope Golf Club is in town to-day playing the local ten. The following members of the Port Hope team are registered at the Oriental Hotel—Messrs. H.A. Ward, R. J. Hemwick, P. S. Smith, L. E. Pepler, F. A. Schwartz, John L. Schwartz, Dr. F. J. Brown, W. H. Nightingale, D. H. Chisolm, and H. Carveth.

BASEBALL.

The Bloomer Girls played against the local baseball team here again yesterday, but as the novelty had worn off, the attendance was not nearly as large as on their former appearance in Peterborough. The game was a close one, resulting in a win for the girls by eleven runs to nine. The heavy batting of the two men playing with the visiting team was the feature of the game.

The Examiner Baseball Team would like to arrange a game with a team to be picked from the Review and Times offices, to be played at the Printer's Picnic, Saturday afternoon, August 2nd, at Jubilee Point. The Examiner aggregation is feeding up well these days, and will be in prime condition by Saturday.

T. A. S. ATHLETICS.

Amongst the exciting events at the separate school grounds last night was a putting-the-shot contest, between Messrs. Picord and Dainard, and a 100 yards dash between Messrs. Robert Begley and James Lynch. Mr. John O'Brien was referee, but it is understood that an appeal from his decisions have been entered in both cases.

ACCIDENT GAVE IT ORIGIN.

Confetti Was Conceit of Frenchman With a Yankee Genius.

Some things that fall under one's observation every day and are regarded as commonplace are really somewhat extraordinary. Among these confetti may be mentioned. The history of confetti is rather curious. Several years ago a large printing works in Paris was turning out immense quantities of calendars, through which a small round hole had been punched to receive an eyelet for holding the sheets together. A heap of the little circular scraps of paper cut out by the punch accumulated on a table and one of the machine men amused himself by scattering a handful of them over a working girl's hair. She immediately snatched up a handful and threw them in his face. Other girls followed her example, and the first confetti battle began.

The head of the establishment came in when it was at its height, and being what the Americans call a "smart man," he at once realized that there was "money in it." He ordered special machinery, placed large quantities of the new article on the market, made a fortune and created a new industry. Paris now supplies nearly every part of the civilised world with confetti and single orders for fifty tons are not uncommon.

Uncle Sam's Slot Machine.

A business man who wanted a bookkeeper stated his need in an advertisement. The notice was seen by a young woman who was out of work and who had searched for employment day after day without success. She had just a cent left. This she spent for a postal card on which she wrote a reply to the advertisement and dropped the card in a street letter box.

Her application impressed the business man favorably, and he wrote to her, asking her to call at his office. She did so and secured the position.

Her modesty and worth, no less than her capability, so won upon her employer that before many months had passed he offered her his heart and hand, and she accepted and became his wife.

"And to think," he said one day during the honeymoon, "that it all came from your spending your last cent for a postal card and mailing it at a street corner!"

"Yes," she replied, with a smile and a blush. "I dropped a penny in the slot and got a husband."

AT SMITH'S FALLS.

A Wonderful Cure of Bright's Disease.

So Weak He Couldn't Stand—Terribly Broken up and Unable to Find a Cure —Dodd's Kidney Pills Made Him Well.

Smith's Falls, July 27th, 1902—(Special)—The cure of Mr. Theodore Young of this place is a wonderful example of the progress that medical science has made in the last few years.

Up till a short time ago the doctors claimed that Bright's disease was absolutely incurable, and in fact there are a few who still adhere to this theory.

But Bright's disease is not incurable. Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure this terrible malady and have done so in thousands of cases.

Those who are skeptical need not go farther than this town to find proof. Mr. Young makes this statement;—

"I was afflicted for about two years with Kidney trouble and chronic Bright's disease. My urine was very dark and I lost considerable blood, making me so weak that I could scarcely stand.

"After using the first box of Dodd's Kidney Pills I was much better, and when I had used four boxes I was able resume work, which I had not done for some time previous.

"I can conscientiously recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to any one afflicted as I was."

Mr. Young's case is only one of a great many where Dodd's Kidney Pills came to the rescue after everything else had failed. They have conquered Bright's Disease, and restored to life and health men and women who had not expected to ever again enjoy this great blessing.

Dodd's Kidney Pills having demonstrated their ability to grapple with Kidney Disease in its very worst form—Bright's disease—can certainly be depended upon to cure any of the lesser forms.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are the only medicine that has ever cured Bright's disease.

A Feast of Reason.

"I was at luncheon the other day," said a north side woman, "where the hostess was a graduate of Smith college, three of the guests were graduates of Wellesley, two went through Vassar, two had been Bryn Mawr girls, and the other ladies present were graduates of Northwestern, the University of Chicago and Wells, respectively."

"Well," one of her hearers said, "it must have been very interesting. How I wish I could have been there! What did you talk about?"

"Let me see. Oh, yes—about how hard it is to keep help!"

Balfour Lost North Leeds.

London, July 30.—The bye-election for member for the House of Commons to represent North Leeds, resulted in the election of Rowland Barran, Liberal. Mr. Barran received 7,589 votes to 6,781 cast for Sir Arthur Lawson, Conservative. The seat was made vacant by the elevation to the peerage of William Lawies Jackson, Conservative, who had sat for North Leeds since 1880. This shows the conversion of the Tory majority of 2,517, in 1900, into a Liberal majority of 758.

General Uprising Feared.

Lisbon, July 30.—Reports from Portuguese West Africa, where there have been rumors of troubles with the natives, show that the disorders are assuming a grave character. In the Province of Loanda several garrisons were attacked and factories were burned. A general uprising is feared.

Electric Company Culpable.

London, July 30.—The inquest into the death of victims of the Victoria street fire on June 9, in which nine young girls were burned to death was concluded yesterday. The jury found that the General Electric Company was guilty of gross negligence and of evasion of the factory acts.

A PROPHETIC JEWEL.

The Peculiar Ring That Was Owned by Marquise du Barry.

Marquise du Barry, whose lovely head fell into the basket beneath the guillotine in expiation of her levity, extravagance and folly, had in her possession a stone of which the Paris jewelers were unable to tell the precise nature.

There appeared upon it below the surface and as if under water an outline of a picture containing human figures. Strange to relate, when first the gem was given to-its afterward unfortunate possessor this outline was not clear, but after it had been some months in her possession it grew more vivid.

One day the negro boy, Lamor, who was afterward instrumental, from revenge, in the downfall of the Du Barry, declared, looking at the jewel, that he could decipher the figure of a woman with disheveled hair leaning before a scaffold and surrounded by a crowd, while beside her stood the executioner.

A strange but authenticated circumstance is that the negro servant boy precisely described the guillotine. Dr. Guillotine had not then invented his celebrated instrument of death, nor had the horrors of the revolution begun.

Snatching the jewel from the hand of the servant, Mme. du Barry examined it, saw the kneeling woman, the angry crowd, the death knife falling, and, with a cry of agony, fell senseless to the floor.

Had Headache Nearly all the Time

An Extreme Case of Exhaustion and Nervous Headache—Wonderful Restorative Influence of

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

There are scores of women in nearly every community in Canada suffering as Mrs. Miles did, from frequent attacks of nervous headache. No local treatment can prove of lasting benefit. The system must be strengthened and invigorated and the most effective way to do this is by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. The cure not only certain, but lasting.

Mrs. John Miles, 236 Wellington street, Ottawa, Ont., whose husband is employed with Davidson & Thackray, lumber dealers, states:—"I was very weak, had no strength or energy, and suffered nearly all the time with headache, in fact, I had headache for three whole days just before beginning to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I was also troubled a great deal with shooting pains across the small of the back. Under this treatment my health has been wonderfully improved. The headaches are a thing of the past, the pains in my back are cured, and I feel strong and healthy. As an evidence of restored strength I may say that I am now able to do all my housework without becoming exhausted."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto, Ont. 10.

POSITION IN SLEEP.

Night Habits That Assert Their Dominion Over All Mankind.

There are few persons who can tell offhand just what positions they assume to invite sleep, and yet there is not an individual in the world who has not some trick of distributing limbs and trunk to insure slumber's blissful spell which he practices unconsciously. This is a night habit as perpetual and immutable under normal conditions as the succession of the seasons. No sooner are we really off to the land of nod than the night habit asserts its dominion. Our hands and arms seek the same parts of the bed or the same portions of our bodies upon which they have nightly rested since infancy. Our feet and legs stretch at the same angles or loosely intwine in comfortable relaxation, as commanded by unconscious will.

It is seldom of our own deliberate volition that we place our bodies in position for sleep, as you will find tonight on going to bed if you remember these words. In truth, if you do not seek to combat the instincts you will be surprised at the dispositions of the various members involuntarily made. If you endeavor to sleep by a new arrangement of the body, you will also be surprised by the revolt against slumber which will surely ensue, but even before the struggle is well begun you will probably surrender and permit the all masterful night habit to reinstate those little details of position which long practice has made necessary to your comfort.

Things Borrowed.

Along with the habit to pronounce people's names correctly, to reply promptly to notes and the like another mark of the regard for the rights of others which indicates inherent refinement is the practice of returning borrowed articles. In cities and large communities there is comparatively little of the kitchen borrowing that has come to be proverbial in stories, but there are few households which do not find a fairly good list of borrowed articles accumulated in the course of the year, a book from this friend, an umbrella from that, a written recipe from another, a bit of fancy work as a model from another, and so on. The use which the borrower has for the loaned articles is temporary. It is therefore purely a selfish laziness which retains them after such use from the owner, who may be in positive and continuous need of the thing. —Exchange.

To Take Out Ink Quickly.

Clerks and others who write in their shirt sleeves are often annoyed by getting their immaculate linen ink stained. If the stain is allowed to remain until the garment reaches the laundry, the process of washing will produce an indelible brown mark, but for a few cents any writer can guard against annoyance and loss of this kind, for a little chlorinated soda will remove every suspicion of ink stain almost instantaneously. It is only necessary to rub the soda in and then rinse or wash it out with a few drops of water, and all trace of the ink is gone. But the remedy must be applied immediately after the accident to be effective.

Breaking a Custom.

At one time if a Japanese girl married a foreigner she was instantly decapitated. A Portuguese gentleman was probably the first European to marry a daughter of the land of the chrysanthemum with impunity. He went there years ago and fell in love with a Japanese girl. Her parents warned her of the fatal consequences of marrying him, but she persisted, with the result that the mikado decided that she must be beheaded. However, after a correspondence of over five years' duration between the Portuguese and Japanese governments she was permitted to live.

An Honest Horse Trade.

"I'll have you arrested for making false representations. I bought that horse of you only because you told me he had a record."

"Very true, but the record is a bad one. You didn't ask me what kind of a record he had."

Dodging a Tip.

Polite Diner—You have waited upon me very acceptably, and I have enjoyed my meal thoroughly. You have behaved like a gentleman, and a gentleman you certainly are, notwithstanding your humble occupation.

Waiter—I hope, sir, that I am a gentleman. I always try to be one.

Polite Diner—It is as I suspected, and, being a gentleman, I shall not insult you by offering you money. Perhaps at some time I may be able to reciprocate your courtesy. Till then farewell.

Conditions So Similar.

"Does that moon remind you of anything?" he asked, his mind reverting to their courtship days.

"Yes," she answered.

"What?" he asked.

"You," she said; "on club nights."

He looked again. Yes, the moon was in that condition.

Wrinkles come, the face fades, but the soul speaks just as eloquently from the eye where hope has conquered care.—Schoolmaster.

TIT FOR TAT.

In the peace congress at The Hague Lord Pauncefote attracted the attention of the delegates by taking notes with a fountain pen the handle of which was formed by the shell of a dumdum bullet. One day the representative of a foreign power, excited by the heat of the discussion in the interests of eternal peace, said to him sharply:

"My lord, it isn't right for you to use that murderous shell in this congress. The instruments used by persons are almost emblematic. They can become a part of themselves, an expression of their ideas and of their personality."

Lord Pauncefote smiled, but said nothing.

The following day his critic, wanting to write something, turned to the English diplomat to borrow a pen. The embassador pulled out of his pocket an old fashioned pen made of gray goose quill, and after the borrower had finished said:

"Monsieur, it isn't right for you to use such an instrument in this congress. The instruments used by persons are almost emblematic. They can become a part of themselves, an expression of their ideas, of their personality."

Not Quite Complimentary.

A very ordinary looking nurse was exhibiting the new born sister to six-year-old Bertie.

"Look at the sweet little baby, my dear! Is she not pretty?"

But Bertie, who has been made painfully aware from the servants of the household that the new arrival will usurp his past privileges as an only child, exclaimed with secret exultation:

"Auntie says that pretty babies grow up ugly."

"Maybe they do," assented the nurse, unable to forbear a smile.

But the smile was lost upon Bertie. He stood for a moment in meditative mood, and then, glancing up from his contemplation of baby's features to those of the nurse, he said with childish confidence:

"Nurse, you must have been a very pretty baby!"

A Browning Anecdote.

In the Cornhill Magazine, in an interesting paper entitled "On a Few Conversationalists," the writer tells an amusing story of Browning and how he received certain flowers from a lady, who, on being pressed to give their English names, shyly confessed they were called "bloody noses." I happened many years ago to be staying in a country house when Browning told this story in his inimitable way, and he ended with the following lines, which I then and there committed to memory, and which will, I think, interest your readers:

I'll deck my love with posies,
I'll cover her with roses;
Should she protest
I'll do my best
To give her bloody noses.
—London Spectator.

For Ingrowing Toe Nails.

By far worse than corns, the ingrowing toe nail makes life miserable for the man or woman, and no relief seems to come from paring the nail or in wadding it with cotton. To give instant relief to such pain a mixture used by the best physicians can be made as follows: Procure of the druggist one dram of muriatic acid and one dram of nitric acid and one ounce of chloride of zinc. Have these mixed thoroughly by the druggist or perform the operation yourself and apply one drop to the affected part once a day. It will not only give relief at once, but it will last all day.

DEADLY PRUSSIC ACID.

Hydrocyanic acid, or, as it is most commonly called, prussic acid, is one of the most deadly poisons known to animal life. It is a volatile principle contained in numerous shrubs and trees, chiefly the wild cherry, bitter almond, cherry laurel, St. Ignatius bean and the peach tree. It is obtained by distillation from ferrocyanide of potassium by the action of sulphuric acid in the form of a light, colorless gas. The preparation kept in the drugstore is a dilute acid of a strength of 2 per cent of anhydrous acid in distilled water, a colorless liquid, with the odor of bitter almonds. The dose is from two to six drops. One-half grain of the anhydrous acid is sufficient to produce death. It is used in medicine in correcting diseases of the stomach, also in whooping cough and the last stages of consumption.

It is very volatile, and the fumes will destroy vegetable life, causing the stems of plants to wither and dry up. Its effect on the lower animals is similar to its action on man, with the exception of the horse and the hyena, upon whom it does not appear to produce any impression. In fatal doses it causes death quickly by paralyzing the heart's action. After death the rigor mortis sets in, and in a few moments the unfortunate subject is as stiff as a board.

One Common Cause of Headache.

Perhaps the most general cause of headache and pain across the eyes is nasal catarrh. The simplest cure is to inhale the medicated vapor of Catarrhozone which traverses every air cell and air passage of the throat, lungs and nose. It kills myriads of germs at every breath, clears away mucous discharges, preserves and heals the membrane. Catarrhozone is just a splendid remedy for headache, and its action is certain and unfailing in diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Coughs, Bronchitis, Asthma and Catarrh. A trial will convince the most skeptical that Catarrhozone is all right. Large size, $1.00; trial size 25c. Druggists, or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

Some Curious Book Titles.

In the sixteenth century we find the greatest extravagance displayed in the titles of books. These may be taken as examples: "The Spiritual Snuffbox, to Lead Devoted Souls to Christ," and "The Spiritual Seringa For Souls Steeped In Devotion." A work on Christian charity published in 1587 is entitled "Buttons and Buttonholes For Believers' Breeches." Another quaint publication is Father La Chaucie's work entitled "Bread Cooked on the Ashes; Brought by an Angel to the Prophet Eligiah (Elijah) to Comfort the Dying." Another was issued with the curious title of "The Lamp of S. Augustine and the Flies That Flit Around It."

The following very attractive title appeared in a book published at Newcastle in 1605: "Some Beautiful Biscuits Cooked In the Oven of Charity and Put Aside For the Fowls of the Church, the Sparrows of the Spirit and the Swallows of Salvation."

The Skin on Fire.

So dreadful are the sensations of burning, itching eczema that victims frequently describe their sufferings by saying that the skin is all on fire. The stinging, biting fires of eczema are quenched by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. The first few applications may cause a little uneasiness, but cure is sure to result and the skin is healed without scar or blemish.

Rubber Foot Fever.

If a man has a corn, it can be removed, but if he is suffering from rubber foot fever no chiropodist can help him, and the only thing to prescribe is liberal bathing of the feet and removal of the cause. Rubbers should only be worn to keep wet out, and they should be removed the moment the wearer gets indoors. Failure to note this gives a man wet feet in a far worse sense than if he had waded through mud ankle deep.

It was the trouble resulting from forcing the perspiration to soak the stockings and keep the feet perpetually damp that drove rubber soled boots out of the market. Even loose rubbers are a source of danger and the cause of many more serious colds than they avert.

Saved His Laundry Bill.

A customer in our store put it uniquely recently by saying the 25c he spent for a bottle of Four T's saved him an extra quarter in laundry bills. The only thing he was out was a cold in the head. Get a bottle today if you've a cough or cold and try the same experiment. Sold at Ormond & Walsh's drug store.

CROPS IN THE MIDLANDS.

A Run Through Peterborough and Victoria.

The General Prospects Excellent—New Enterprises of Moment to Midland Farmers.

From the Toronto Globe.

The notion circulated by tourist agencies that bass and maskinonge are the principal products of the Midlands, is quite unfounded. Doubtless they are numerous enough in this land of dark and rushing waters, but the real basis of prosperity is agriculture, and agriculture for the most part of an advanced type. Rocky lands and swamps there are in the northern parts, amounting to perhaps a third of the area of both Victoria and Peterborough, and it is not exactly a peach belt, but it is a great wealthy territory, in which dairying and stock raising have brought comfort and advanced tastes to an immense number of farmers about whom a misconception exists. Grain growing is popular and with it has been coupled new branches of farming, which make many parts of the Midlands the equal, if not the superior, in wealth of any part of western Ontario. Cheese and butter making, hog, cattle and poultry raising are remarkably advanced, and the rate at which debts have been dissolved by the farmers and savings deposited in the banks in the last few years, has astonished the townspeople. The recent heavy rains and hailstorms have cast a degree of gloom over certain sections, owing to their injury to the fancy pea and hay crops. On the other hand they are a stimulant to the dairy industry, and the output, the conservative dealers say, will be from 10 to 20 per cent. above last year's figures. The price is also a little above. In fact the search today for a man in either Lindsay or Peterborough who had any serious complaint to make, except as regards the pea crop—the hay being mostly yet uncut—was unsuccessful.

Early settlers came to Victoria and Peterborough Counties just prior to 1820. Since the day when Governor Sir Peregrin Maitland was banqueted in a stone windowed log house standing where the Peterborough market square is now located, a nation has been won for civilization and progress, and if one climbs the ivy-mantled tower of St. John's church, he will conclude that there is no fairer part than that which stretches in every direction before his eyes. The black waters of the Otonabee rush by on their long journey from Algonquin Park to Lake Ontario, bearing stray pine logs, a momentary reminder that Ontario's frontier is not far distant. On every hand are the rolling hills, covered with ripening grain, and comfortable farm houses, until sight is lost in the mist covered highlands of Northumberland county, beyond Rice Lake. The struggle of the pioneer, though more recent in these northern counties, ware similar to experiences elsewhere, aided of course by some railway communication. The prosperity which newer methods and a series of successful years have brought, is now made use of for the improvement of buildings and the reduction or dissolution of debts, until it is everywhere admitted that the Midlands were never in such a thriving condition.

Not quite half the total areas of Victoria and Peterborough is entered as cleared land, the remainder being divided between woodland, rocky land and swamps. From the latter much tamarac and other timber has been taken, and is still being cut, and from some of them good pasture, and perhaps farming land, will eventually be got. Clay loam and sandy loam predominate in the cleared areas, and on these hay and oats are the principal crops. Of fall wheat there is a slightly increased acreage, and it is everywhere proclaimed a more than average crop, there being little lodged or rusted. The acreage of spring wheat, which has been almost as great as fall wheat, has decreased, and, as in oats and barely, the prospects are for an exceptionally heavy return. A considerable industry has sprung up in the growth of a special quality of peas for the European market, to be used for soup. In the vicinity of Lindsay some 7,000 acres were sown this year, divided among 1,200 to 1,500 farmers, while the industry has also secured a strong hold here, where a large warehouse, owned by a firm from Paris, France, is also devoted to it, and the acreage is 50 per cent. larger than last year. Mr. James M. Squier, the Lindsay agent, was quite gloomy to-day over the outlook for peas. "They are almost a failure, owing to the heavy rains," he said. "The early peas will be only a quarter crop, and the late ones not more than three-quarters of a crop. They were a failure on this continent last year, and with this result this year I anticipate fabulous prices in the world's market." In a good year the peas are said to pay the farmer handsomely. A considerable percentage of clover hay was spoiled by the rain, but if fine weather continues there will be a fine harvest of timothy, now overdue and ready for cutting. Hay generally is very heavy, and on the whole a large amount will be saved. The clover fields are springing up in a second heavy crop, and the prospects favour a heavy yield of alsike seed.

Much local interest is taken in two enterprises of more or less moment to Midland farmers. The new cereal works here will employ, it is said, from 600 to 800 hands when completed and consume millions of bushels of oats for breakfast foods. Rapid progress is also being made in the new lift lock on the Trent Valley Canal, just east of Peterborough, which, when completed, will greatly lengthen this chain of inland navigation. This lock is quite remarkable in its way. Its function will be to lift vessels bodily a height of 65 feet to cover a high ridge of land and to avoid building half-a-dozen or more small locks, to pass which would consume so much more time. The new lock will accommodate vessels 140 feet long, 35 feet wide and of six feet draught, and is built to raise 2,000 tons by hydraulic pressure. In its construction, which has so far occupied four years, 26,000 cubic yards of cement, made from Canadian Portland cement, have been used, or a weight calculated at 112,320,000 lbs. The work is of great magnitude, and yet simplicity, as the lifting of the one pontoon, containing the vessel, will be accomplished by hydraulic pressure by filling the corresponding pontoon with water to the required weight and lowering it, thus the one weight of water lowering the other, including the vessel, by overbalancing it.

BELLEVILLE NEEDS A PURSE-OPENER.

Not a Pickpocket but Something to Make Men With Money put it at Work.

The Belleville Intelligencer thus laments: "What a pity our industrial activity is not on a par with the natural beauties of the city! And it might be if some of our well-to-do people had more local patriotism, and would put their money to a proper use — that of providing employment for others. Could it be done? Of course it could. Look at the Lock Factory. Why should not other industries succeed as well as that? What Belleville needs is something which will make her well-to-do people loosen up on their money and hustle. When that is done we won't have so many of the boys coming back on visits; they'll find employment there and will joyfully sing, "There's no place like home."

SUMMER RESORT NOTES.

CHEMONG PARK.

Chemong Park is at the present time amongst the jolliest of all Peterborough's near-by summer resorts, and the cottagers are having a most enjoyable stay at this delightful spot.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. T. A. S. Hay gave a tea in honour of her guest, Mrs. E. C. Complin. The affair was most unique in many particulars. The invitations were of the birch bark variety, and the young gentlemen of the park waited on the tables, whilst Miss Isabel and Miss Helen Hay poured tea. At the conclusion of the afternoon tea an informal dance was held, quite a number of young people from town having driven out for the occasion.

Amongst those noticed at the afternoon tea were Mr. and Mrs. and Messrs. Jack and Howard Hopwood, Mr. and Mrs. V. Eastwood, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. G. Denne, Mr. and Mrs A. E. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Dennistoun, the Misses Kirkpatrick, Miss Greer, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Burritt, and Miss Frankie Burritt, Miss Bryson, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Elliott, Miss Tiffany, Mr. Legge, Rochester; Mr. Lates, Mr. and Mrs. Hartshorne, Mrs. German, Welland; Miss Marjory, Mrs. Moore, Ottawa; Mrs. Bull, Mrs. McCombe, Mrs. W. H. Moore, Miss Bertha Moore, and Miss McDonald.

STOCK MARKETS.

Another Reaction—Now Buy.

A well advertised attack took place on Monday against the market, the warning coming in the Sunday newspapers, articles which were of course broadly irregular. The articles were followed up by a bearish demonstration, and many easily frightened holders disposed of some of their stocks. We stated a few days ago that from now on reactions would be more frequent, and they will. Each reaction should be taken advantage of by buying something. The danger of a large decline at present is very remote. Large declines never occur when any financial scribe in the country has a red lantern hung to his financial articles giving warning to the public of impending trouble. When such occurences do come they are not preceded by due warning in the public press. It will be well to bear this in mind when considering newspaper reports discussing the markets that they are largely coloured in the interests of speculative financial interests. Markets do not seriously break when the great cliques possess the greatest supply of stocks. Only when the public are loaded with all they can conveniently carry and their purchasing power temporarily exhausted. The market will each time be all the better for the reactions. Weak spots are shaken out and a new, short interest engendered. This is a lively market and will continue to be so for a long time to come. Lively markets afford the best and most frequent advantages for money making. Buy when the weak are selling out. We believe this to be the best advice we can offer. We are also confident that stocks will far excel the best prices yet recorded on this bull market. It is hard to appreciate how large a quantity of stocks have absolutely been withdrawn by investors from outright purchases. The amount is simply enormous. Many issues have absolutely disappeared altogether in this manner. We have for the past three months principally advised the purchase of the higher-priced shares, stating that in our opinion they would show the best profits. They did so. We now urge the purchase of the medium priced, and low priced issues. The movement in them will speedily be under way.

Drowned at Port Dover.

Port Dover, July 30.—A sad drowning accident happened at this place at 12.45 p.m. yesterday. As a number of men employed in the fishing business were crossing the harbor in a small boat, the men, by changing places in the boat caused it to partly capsize, when one of the occupants, Arthur Brock, fell into the water, and, being unable to swim, quickly sank. The body was shortly afterwards brought to the surface.

Six Firemen Injured.

Pittsburg, July 30.—Six firemen injured, two eight-storey buildings almost completely destroyed, a number of others slightly damaged and a property loss estimated at $300,000, is the result of a fire on Liberty street, which raged fiercely for seven hours yesterday.

Statements Unauthorized.

London, July 30.—The Associated Press has been requested by the Canadian Ministers now present in London to say that all the statements which have appeared in the press respecting arrangements for the establishment and maintenance of a steamship service between Canada and England are unauthorized, and in many respects incorrect, in so far as the Canadian Government is concerned. Various proposals are under the consideration of the Ministers, but no conclusions have been reached with regard to subsidies and other matters.

Military Enquiry Began.

London, July 30.—A military court of enquiry, called to investigate the scandal caused by the alleged persecution of Second Lieutenant Gregson of the Second Life Guards, has held a secret session at Windsor. Lieut. Gregson and two other officers testified. The evidence showed that Lieut. Gregson's carpet was torn up, his kit damaged and his uniform ruined.

"Yes," said the engaged girl, "Dick is very methodical. He gives me one kiss when he comes and two when he goes away."

Thus it happens that they cease to speak to each other.

Ministers' Statement Published to Prevent Undue Pressure.

C. P. R. CO. NOT DISCONCERTED.

The Associated Press' Version of the Announcement Made by the Canadian Representatives Regarding the C.P.R. Proposals—Situation Is Still in Accordance With the Facts Previously Given.

London, July 31.—The statement by the Canadian Commissioners now in London to the Associated Press Tuesday night to the effect that reports concerning arrangements for the establishment of a steamship service between Canada and England were unauthorized, and in some cases incorrect, is generally regarded as an attempt to lessen the clamor and the pressure being brought to bear on their Government as a result of the publication of the Canadian Pacific's subsidy offer and the attitude of the Canadian and Imperial Governments. Canadian Pacific officials say they are not in the least disconcerted by the statement. One of them said: "Since the publication of the Canadian Pacific Railway's offer the Ministers undoubtedly have been besieged by inquiries and rival propositions. I see nothing in this statement except a desire to shut off public clamor in order to give better opportunity to reach an official decision. We have no doubt the Ministers will receive other propositions which will be entitled to consideration of course. The Government has made no authorized statement, and is not likely to do so while the negotiations are pending. It has not yet accepted the Canadian Pacific Railway's proposal, although there is good reason to expect that it will accept it."

In the mass of matter which has been published following the outline of the Canadian Pacific Railway's offers there probably have been some incorrect statements. The situation is still in accordance with the facts previously given.

MR. TARTE AT THE SOO.

Will Recommend Harbor Improvements —$100,000 For Dredging.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., July 31.—Hon. Mr. Tarte passed through the "Soo" yesterday en route for Chicago and Milwaukee from Fort William. In an interview the Minister said that he had decided to recommend that the Dominion Government expend the sum of $100,000 for dredging the channel from the international dock to the Canadian canal, so that vessels of any depth may be able to pass through the locks. Mr. Tarte said that if possible the work would be commenced this summer, and that he would endeavor to have a similar amount appropriated at the next session, so that the work of improving the harbor could be continued and better dock accommodation established. With respect to public buildings for the town, Mr. Tarte said this work would be proceeded with immediately, and tenders will be called for it in a couple of weeks, or perhaps in less time.

It was stated here yesterday on what appears to be good authority that the new industry, the tube works, the establishment of which Mr. F. H. Clergue has had in contemplation for over a year past, will soon be a reality, and that the mills of this new industry will be built and operations on the manufacture of tubes begin before the first of next year. The location of these works will be about a half mile west of the Algoma Steel Company mills, and when in operation they will afford employment for upwards of six hundred men and will be the most important of any of the enterprises operated by the Lake Superior Consolidated Company.

OPPOSE RAILWAY CONTROL.

The Montreal Exchange Passes a Resolution Expressing Its Views.

Montreal, July 31.—The Montreal Exchange is against giving any railway a contract of the fast line, and yesterday that body put itself on record as follows:

Resolved, that, in the opinion of this association, a fast Atlantic mail and passenger service should be established from a Canadian port to a port in Great Britain; that steamers employed in such service should have a speed equal to the swiftest now in commission or contemplated on the New York route, and that they make Quebec and Montreal the summer terminus, and Halifax or St. John's the winter terminus; that this association, having learned through the press that a subsidy is likely to be granted for such a service, would respectfully urge upon the Dominion Government the importance of this being done, but this association does not favor the subsidizing of freight steamers nor the granting of a subsidy to a line of steamers under the control of any railway or combination of railways.

COURTS DEAL WITH CORNER.

Order Restraining Capitalists From Continuing the One in New Oats.

Chicago, July 31.—The ban of the courts has been placed on the corner of July oats. On application of Waite, Thornburn & Co., one of the firms heavily short in the July option, a temporary restraining order was granted yesterday by Judge Chytraus in the Superior Court, prohibiting James A. Patten and associates from continuing a corner in new July oats, and from bidding up the price of the cereal or calling for further margins.

He Carried Large Insurance.

Owen Sound, July 31.—At the request of the directors of the Sun Portland Cement Company, experts have been sent by the manufacturers of the machinery, to investigate the cause of the recent accident, resulting in the death of Dr. Horsey. The late Dr. Horsey carried life insurance to the amount of $35,000, and had large investments in several industries, besides the stock held in the cement works.

ANGRY MOB AT SHENANDOAH.

Many Strikers Shot—Policemen Also Hurt —A Prominent Citizen Clubbed to Death—New Riot Began.

Shenandoah, Pa., July 31.—A reign of terror held Shenandoah in its grasp last night. Since 6 o'clock last evening Centre street, one of the principal streets of the town, has been in the hands of an infuriated mob. Two of the borough policemen were shot, one fatally. Joseph Beddall, a leading merchant and cousin of Sheriff Beddall was brutally clubbed to death, and upwards of a score of strikers were shot by policemen, and it is expected that many deaths will result.

Sheriff Beddall arrived from Pottsville at 7.45 o'clock with a posse of deputies. He took up his headquarters at the Ferguson Hotel, which was surrounded by several thousand men. To a reporter he admitted that he had asked Governor Stone to send the militia. The governor wired that if the citizens of the town petition for troops he will send them, and a petition was circulated for this purpose.

The trouble started about 6 o'clock last evening when Deputy Sheriff Thomas Beddall attempted to escort two non-union workers through the strikers line of pickets. The workmen were dressed in their street clothes, but one of them carried a bundle under his arm and this aroused the suspicion of the strikers. The bundle was torn from him and, when it was found to contain a blouse and overalls, the man was taken from the deputy and beaten almost to death.

In the meantime, Beddall opend fire on the mob which had gathered by this time, and emptied his revolver. Two of the shots took effect, one man being shot in the leg and the other in the foot. The deputy and the other strike-breaker were compelled to flee for their lives, and took refuge in the Philadelphia and Reading Depot. The depot was soon surrounded by an angry mob of 5,000, which were becoming more threatening and demonstrative every moment.

Joseph Beddall, a hardware merchant, and brother of the deputy sheriff, was seen making his way through the crowd in an effort to reach his brother, and the mob, divining that he was carrying ammunition to those inside the depot, seized him and beat him with clubs and billies into insensibility. He died en route to the Miners' Hospital.

Shortly after this the entire borough police arrived on the scene, and escorted the deputy sheriff and his men to an engine which had been backed into the depot for that purpose. When the mob realized that their prey was about to escape, they surrounded the engine, and the engineer was afraid to move.

In a few moments, however, the police fired a volley, dispersing the crowd for a brief period, and the engineer turned on full steam and got away with his men. Stones were thrown thick and fast about the heads of the police, whereupon Chief John Fry gave the order to fire. At the first volley the mob fell back, and several were seen to fall. Their retreat, however, was but momentary. They turned, and, with revolvers, stones and a few shotguns, they charged on the little band of policemen, and made them flee for their lives. The policemen turned in their flight, at short intervals, and fired volley after volley at their pursuers. When the Lehigh Railroad crossing was reached, a passing freight train blocked the passage of the police, two of whom were caught and brutally beaten. One of them, Stingy Yacopsky, will die.

It is estimated that upwards of 1,000 shots were fired and the wonder is that more fatalities did not result. More than 20 strikers, all of whom are foreigners, were shot, and at least two of them will die. Many of the merchants and politicians are refusing to sign the call for troops, fearing that the miners will boycott them after the trouble is over.

At 11 o'clock last night the streets were still crowded with people, but everything was quiet.

GOOD APPLE CROP.

Prediction of George C. Creelman, Superintendent of Farmers' Institutes.

Toronto, July 31.—Mr. George C. Creelman, Superintendent of Farmers' Institutes, has just returned from a trip through Halton County. He reports a good crop of apples in that county, except in the northwesterly portion, where a hailstorm did much damage. Apple buyers are in Halton County at present buying up the apple crop by orchards, one dollar a bushel being paid. Mr. Creelman, from reports he has received from various parts of the province is satisfied that there will be a good apple crop this year in the province.

THE ONTARIO ASSESSMENT ACT

We have heard a great deal about the scrap iron amendments to the Assessment Act, and have marvelled much at the ingenuity — to speak mildly — of judges in giving interpretation to what laymen consider plain language, contrary t othe meaning it was supposed and was intended to convey. The judgments upon the meaning of the "scrap iron" paragraph, amending the Assessment Act, by several judges, was a great surprise to many, and a serious disappointment to, especially, the cities of Toronto and Ottawa, which endeavoured to tax corporations and these industries as going concerns, and not as so much "scrap iron." Their benevolent intentions were defeated by the judges mentioned, who decided that the Legislature did not mean what it said in its amendments, and the "scrap iron" feature was not effaced from the statutes. As pointed out by the Ottawa Journal, these cities applied to the Imperial Privy Council for leave to appeal against a judgment last year of Ontario courts whereby the Ontario law aiming to authorize the assessmen tof the property of electric and other compupon the same basis as that of private persons, was declared of no effect. This law was an amendment passed by the legislature last year, the previous wording of the law having been declared insufficient by the courts. But after the Legislature of last year acted, the amendment was also declared insufficient by the Ontario Courts.

The Legislature last year made a second well intended effort at an amendment, but inesnwhile Toronto and Ottawa decided to further test last year's amendment if possible, inasmuch as the amount of taxes the cities would gain for last year alone, if successful in the suit, would more than repay the law costs. The Privy Council, however, has declined to hear the appeal on the ground that as another legislative amendment was was made this year, last year's one is not worth bothering about.

There is, however ,possibly something worth while in the Privy Council's refusal. City Solicitor McVeity of Ottawa, in reporting the Privy Council's view, says;

"The Legislature, having since the judgment of the Court of Appeal, passed an act amending the act complained of upon which the judgment was based and the amendment being, in the opinion of the judicial committee, sufficient to remove the anomalies pointed out by the Court of Appeal, there was no question of public importance, or upon which public interests depended, remaining for the consideration of the court."

If, as Mr. McVeity says, the new Ontario law is in the Privy Council's opinion "sufficient to remove" the evil complained of, namely the inequitable assessment of companies, the assurance is gratifying. Only a few days ago, an Ontario judge rendered a decision that the new law too means nothing, and a vista was dawning in which the Legislature for a few hundred years to come might go on annually making amendments to the assessment act to enable companies to be taxed the same as other concerns or persons, and the Ontario courts go on annually declaring that the Legislature did not mean what the Legislature said.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Balfour's welcome to the Premiership is a pretty demoralising buffet. The bye-election in North Leeds has resulted in the heavy defeat of the Government candidate.

The telegraphic announcement that King Edward has been weaned, and that he is learning to walk, is reassuring. The diet restrictions have been removed, which means that pap is not any longer a de rigeur feature of the bill of fare, but that he may eat what he chooses.

It is difficult to know what to believe these days. We have the most contradictory reports regarding the condition of the King's health — one hour he is on the verge of the grave; another, he is fit for a football match. We have all the most circumstantial despatches concerning the fast Atlantic steamship service, and all these are knocked on the head by a despatch which states that the Canadian ministers in London have under consideration various proposals, but that no conclusions have been arrived at.

As adult life brings new responsibilities, so also does advance in national life develop new responsibilities. We are likely to reap the penalty of growth in the resulting friction of the working of Confederation. The growth of population of the Northwest will of course disturb the representative status of the older provinces and the re-adjustment of representative relations will bring a little friction. In the readjustment of constituencies consequent upon the results of the last census, some of the Maritime provinces are threatened with a reduction of members. This, these provinces contend, will place them at a disadvantage, and "swamp" them in the future deliberations of Parliament. These three provinces are now demanding an amendment to the British North American Act, which will permit of the present ratio of representation being maintained.

Sometimes judges travel outside the letter of the law in imposing penalties, and come nearer giving justice than by following the lines of punishment prescribed by the statute. A New York justice sentenced a neglectful and dissolute husband the other day to do sixty days' work at his trade as painter for a contractor who stated in court that he needed such services, the money to be paid to the wife for the support of the family. For some time past the wife has had to support it, and hand over her lord money for drink. The sentence is not a judicial one in the sense that it is founded on statute law, but who shall say that it is not better to give him such a task than to send him to loaf in jail. The bird (a jail bird in this instance) which can sing and won't sing, must be made to sing. If such a style of justice could be applied to some girls, who patronize picnics, pound pianos in the front parlour, or read French novels on the front verandah, while the patient mother wrestles with the wash tub on the back verandah, the toils of many a household would be more evenly sub-divided.

The business aspect of the question of an Atlantic service must ultimately dominate, so, thinks the Globe, there these is no danger of the Government being hurried into a losing policy through fear of a monopoly or through any fanciful desire for a new line of national enterprise. The object in view is the cheap and expeditious carriage of our surplus products to the British market. To subsidize a passenger service would scarcely be regarded, from a business point of view, as a reasonable proposition. But the shipment of produce is a different matter, and every reduction in the cost is a gain to the producing interests. It is essential that we obtain full value for our outlay. If public money is spent on a fast Atlantic service, either as a subsidy to a private corporation, or as a public enterprise, the public must have an assurance of full value in return. The Morgan combine shows a possible danger in Atlantic transportation, but we must remember that excessive rates by an independent company will be quite as burdensome as by an ocean steamship trust.

WHEAT CROP BETTER THAN LAST YEARS.

Splendid Prospects in Manitoba and the Northwest—Additional Elevator Accommodation.

"With fair weather during the next six weeks, I believe the crop will exceed that of last year," said Mr. F. W. Thompson, vice-president and managing director of the Ogilvie Flour Mills Company, who arrived in Montreal from Winnipeg Monday, and was interviewed in regard to the crop outlook in the West.

Mr. Thompson stated that he had never seen the country looking better nor the people more prosperous and one had only to attend the Industrial Exhibition of Winnipeg to appreciate Manitoba's phenomenal development, from year to year. He fully expected to see last year's product of 55,000,000 bushels exceeded this year, but it is rather too early for any definite statements and calculations can only be based on existing conditions. The crop is about ten days later than in 1901, but if the warm weather holds, the harvesting date will fall about as usual.

Universal efforts are being made by the transportation companies to handle the product and to keep pace with the country's progress, and their success could not be doubted, said Mr. Thompson. His company are building twenty-three additional elevators, and a 250,000 bushel elevator is part of the improvements being made to their Winnipeg terminals.

Referring to emigration, Mr. Thompson said that the greater number of the new settlers are of a very superior class, and their thrift and intelligence would soon be felt throughout the country. Every effort is being put forth by those directly interested to secure the necessary help for the approaching harvest.

Mr. Thompson holds out a warning to eastern manufacturers to study well the needs of the great home market that is being created in the West, and which the Americans, as usual, are making most determined efforts to secure.

"We must maintain a strong Canadian policy, independent of party politics," he said.

Toronto, July 31.—The Dominion Alliance Council opened in annual session yesterday afternoon in Richmond Hall.

The meeting was opened yesterday morning with the president, J. R. Dougall, Montreal, in the chair.

At the outset the Business Committee was struck as follows: S. J. Carter, Montreal; Rev. J. H. Oliver, J. J. Maclaren, K.C., Toronto; Rev. E. J. Chegwin, Winnipeg; W. F. Lawrence, Sarnia; Rev. W. I. Moore, L. C. Peake, Mrs. A. O. Rutherford, Toronto; Mrs. Brownell and Secretary Spence.

President Dougall then delivered his annual address, reviewing the work for the past year.

The treasurer's report, presented by W. H. Orr, showed a balance on hand of $13.38.

The report of the Executive was read by J. J. Maclaren, K.C., and reviewed the events of the past year, dealing at length with the most important—that of the deliverance of the Privy Council on the Manitoba Act—and the consequent vote in Manitoba. Temperance legislation in Ontario was also referred to.

The report showed that requests for prohibitory legislation had been refused by the Governments of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia and that an amendment to the Canada Temperance Act, introduced during the last session by T. B. Flint, M. P., had been turned down.

The report embodied the following recommendations:

1. That, while refusing to accept as a final settlement of the liquor question any measure short of total national prohibition, the Council expresses its gratification at the decision of the Imperial Privy Council, further defining the power of Provincial legislatures, thus opening the way for the enactment of further effective measures for partial prohibition.

2. That steps be taken to secure at the next session of the Dominion Parliament the enactment of such a measure of amendment of the Canada Temperance Act as will secure the better enforcement of that act in those parts of the Dominion in which it is in operation.

3. That all churches and temperance societies be requested to inaugurate an active movement to secure signatures to a total abstinence pledge, submitting a pledge form to members of churches, Sunday schools, Young People's societies, and having public addresses and sermons delivered in favor of total abstinence. In this connection, the following form of pledge is suggested:

"I promise to abstain from the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and to discountenance such use by others."

At the afternoon session a debate upon the most advisable means of reaching the goal to which they all aimed was carried on, it having been introduced by a few remarks of the president on the machinery in existence for the enforcement of prohibitory legislation.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Chown, a resolution of condolence was passed on the death of Major E. L. Bond of Montreal.

The election of officers then took place, resulting as follows:

Hon. President—Hon A. Vidal.
President—J. R. Dougall.
Vice-Presidents—At large—J. J. Maclaren, K.C., LL.D.
Ontario—Principal Caven and R. J. Fleming.

Executive Committee—The officers of the Alliance and the following: Rev. Dr. Carman, Rev. Dr. Mackay, J. M. Walton, Rev. W. Kettlewell, Mrs. Thornley, Rev. L. H. Wagner, Frank Buchanan, Rev. Dr. Courtice, Hon. J. W. Sifton, Mrs. Rutherford, J. D. O'Donoghue, L. C. Peake, Rev. J. A. Macdonald, M. Auger, Hon. S. C. Biggs, Rev. G. G. Huxtable, J. T. L. Reid, S. P. Leet, A. Hubley, Rev. E. S. Rowe, R. Gorman, Mrs. A. Gordon, Dr. E. J. T. Fisher, J. A. Patterson.

Committee on Legislation.—The officers of the Alliance, Messrs. S. P. Leet, Robert Stewart, Rev. Dr. Moore, Rev. John Wood, A. W. Fraser, and all the members of the Senate and House of Commons who express their agreement with the program of legislative action adopted by the Dominion Alliance Council.

The Business Committee recommended that the matter of incorporation be left to the executive, with power to act.

PAID OFF ON BOARD.

Returning Troopers Disembarked Wednesday Afternoon From the Cestrian.

Halifax, N.S., July 31.—Pay for the C.M.R. regiments on the Cestrian went on board about 11 o'clock yesterday and immediately paying off work began, the total amount of pay of each regiment being handed to the commanding officers and by them to the company captains, who paid off the men. The amount taken on board in the A.P.D. pay chest was $17,320. There is no reception of any kind to the men.

The men who came on the trooper Cestrian began to land at 2.15 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The steamer is still in the stream. The men became weary of being tied up so long and swarmed over the ship's side, and scores of boats were taking them ashore. Cabmen and boatmen are reaping a harvest.

The men disembarked quickly, and one thousand went on board the military train waiting. A guard of 50 men from the Royal Canadian regiment was stationed at the terminus to prevent the troops from leaving the train, but many escaped, and made their way to the city. The troopers who remained caused lively scenes on the streets last night. The next train will leave here at 5 o'clock this afternoon, and a strong effort will be made to get all the men away.

In the absence of the Minister, the acting deputy replied that it was impossible to get a reply so soon, but stated that he would communicate with Mr. Tarte at Duluth. The declaration was forwarded to Mr. Tarte for him to deal with.

The Printers' Picnic.

Arrangements are now in apple-pie order for the Printers' Excursion to Jubilee Point on Saturday afternoon, and if the hot weather continues—and it probably will—there will be an exodus out of town. The City of Peterborough will leave at 2 o'clock. There will be an orchestra on board, which will supply music on the down and up trips and also at the Point. An exciting baseball match and other sports will be run off, and altogether a most pleasant afternoon is assured.

A Peculiar Accident.

While cutting hay with a mower on Friday morning last, Mr. Thos. Humphries, of Asphodel, met with a peculiar accident. The horses were working alright until they ran over a hornet's nest, when the insects made it too interesting, and the team became frightened. The seat of the mower broke, throwing Mr. Humphries to the ground. The mower was slightly broken, and Mr. Humphries received several bruises.—Hastings Star.

Altitudinous Oats.

Mr. Alex. Sanderson, lot 7, concession 4, Smith, has left with the Examiner a few stalks — in this case more like small tree trunks — which measure 6 feet 6 inches in length. The leaves are one inch in breadth and the head fifteen inches in length. Lo, the results of the growing time. If the warm weather holds the ripening time will come and in due course Mr. Sanderson will have a harvesting time worth something godo, for the samples sent are fair samples of the entire field.

WEDDING BELLS.

Nuptials of Mr. Bruce Anderson and Miss Maggie Weddell.

Rev. J. G. Potter officiated at a very pretty wedding that was celebrated yesterday evening at the residence of Mr. John Weddell, on Charlotte street west,, being the union in the happy bonds of matrimony of his daughter, Miss Maggie Murray Weddell, to Mr. Bruce Anderson, a popular Peterborough boy, who has for three years been resident at Oxbow, Assa. The house was bright and fragrant with pretty floral decorations. The ceremony was witnessed by only the relatives of the contracting parties.

The bride, who looked handsome in a travelling suit of blue lady's cloth, was attended as bridesmaid by her sister, Miss Alice M. Weddell, who wore a becoming costume of castor cloth. Both carried beautiful bouquets, the bride's being white, and her attendant's red.

The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Chas. E. Anderson.

After the ceremony and congratulations had been extended, a dainty wedding supper was served on the lawn. The bride, who was most highly esteemed, and very popular among a large circle of friends, received a handsome array of wedding gifts, among them being those of the choir and the Endeavourers of St. Andrew's church, presented so happily the other evening at Chemong. She had been a valued and most active member of the choir and church and her departure is sincerely regretted at St. Andrew's. The members and adherents of the church will unite in extending the best of good wishes for health and happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will remain in town for a few days, and Mrs. Anderson will be at home at her father's residence on Friday afternoon and evening. They will leave next week for Almeda, Assa., where they will reside.

VISITED THE MISSION.

The Work at Hiawatha is Prospering to an Encouraging Degree.

Rev. J. P. Wilson, of the George street Methodist church, who is chairman of the District of the Bay of Quinte Conference, has just returned with Rev. William Johnston, chairman of the Campbellford District, from visiting the Indian Mission at Hiawatha, which is conducted under the auspices of the Methodist church.

Rev. Mr. Dunkley has recently received the appointment of missionary at Hiawatha, and as he is an experienced and conscientious worker, he appears to have already gained the confidence of his charge to a singular degree. The prospect of the year's work is most encouraging.

RASPBERRY FESTIVAL.

The Raspberry Social this evening on the church oval under the auspices of St. John's Girls' Guild promises to be a very enjoyable affair. Attractive music by the 57th Band will be one of the features. Admission 10c.

A GREAT DAY ON THE LINKS.

Port Hope Team was 31 Holes Down.

GEO. CUMMINGS WAS HERE.

He won From the Best Ball of Pepler, Hamilton and Ray—A Fine Exhibition of Golf.

Wednesday, July 30th will always be looked upon as a red letter day in the history of Peterborough Golf. Not only were those time-honoured rivals, the Port Hopers, beaten by a big score, but, Cummings, the Toronto club "pro," gave a very fine exhibition of play by going against the best ball of Mr. Pepler, of Port Hope, and Messrs. Myles Hamilton and Sam Ray, of the local club.

The links were in fine condition, although the frequent rains have made such a heavy growth of grass on the green as to make them a trifle heavy, compared with their liveliness at this time last year.

The result of the match against Port Hope was as follows;—

0	R. M. Hamilton	T. Pepler	0
0	J. H. Burnham	D. H. Chisholm	2
4	S. Ray	J. Swarts	0
3	H. D. Burnett	F. Swarts	0
4	Dr. Eastwood	Dr. Brown	0
2	J. W. Garvin	S. Smith	0
10	P. Campbell	Nightingale	0
5	A. H. Stratton	H. A. Warde	0
5	Dr. Neill	Dr. Carveth	0

Majority for Peterborough 31.

As soon as the match was concluded, Messrs. Pepler, Hamilton and Ray went on with Cummings. Cummings played in fine form, although he has had no practice at all this season on account of giving ten hours a day to his pupils.. Over a score of enthusiastic golfers followed the play from hole to hole, and were thoroughly delighted with the exhibition, many valuable points being picked up from the Toronto professional's style of golf. Cummings made the round in 39—only two over the bogey score. He was over the bogey by one on the 1st, 3rd and 9th holes and was one under it on the 5th. He lost the first hole to Ray by one, the latter getting it in 4. He won the second in 3 to Pepler's 4. Pepler halved the third with him, in 6, and Pepler and Hamilton made the fourth in four with him. He won the fifth in 3, and the sixth also in the same number of strokes. Pepler and Hamilton were pretty close seconds in four. The seventh went to him in 5, as well as the eighth, but Hamilton took the ninth in 4 to Cummings 5. This left the "pro" three up on the first round.

The second round was played after dinner had been served, and reinforced by the splendid meal which had been provided for the occasion, the amateurs went after Cummings with renewed vim. The professional got the tenth, however, in 4, the others all making it in 6. Hamilton halved the eleventh with him in 3, Ray taking 4 and Pepler 5. Pepler took the twelfth in 6, Ray and Cummings taking 7. Cummings had to pick up his ball in the 13th, as it lodged close against the fence. Pepler made it in 3—one under the bogey. He beat the Colonel on the next hole, also doing it in 3 to Cummings 4. The 15th went to Cummings in 2—one under the bogey. Hamilton did it in 3 and Pepler took 4. Pepler halved the next with Cummings in 6, Ray and Hamilton taking 7. The 17th went to Cummings in 5 to Pepler's 6. Ray halved the 18th with the "pro" in 5 to Hamilton's 6.

Cummings may pay Peterborough another visit, when he has had some practice, in which event he is confident that he will play such a game that he can play the best ball of any three players and concede half a stroke a hole. This would be a match worth witnessing.

One of the most pleasant features of the day was the sentiment of bon camaraderie expressed in the few short speeches which were made in connection with the toast list at the conclusion of dinner. Mr. R. J. Hemmick, president of the Port club, accompanied the team, and his witty repartee during his post prandial remarks will long be remembered.

VERULAM BARNS BURNED,

Heavy Loss in Garnered Grain and Hay.

Lindsay, July 30th. — Three large barns belonging to Mr. John Bell, stock buyer, first concession of Verulam, were destroyed by fire on Tuesday morning. The barns contained 40 tons of hay, 1000 bushels of oats, wheat and barley, two horses, fourteen pigs, wagons and farming utensils. Mr. Bell's loss is heavy as he had very little insurance. One of the barns was erected over three years ago at a cost of over $1200. It was 30 x 80 feet in size, and was one of the most modern buildings in that part of the country. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

SUMMER SPORT OF EVERY SORT.

Athletics and T.A.S. Teams Together in a Close Match—Baseball Brevities—Miscellaneous Sporting Events.

LACROSSE.

Fully one thousand people turned out on the Nicholls Oval last evening to witness the City League lacrosse game, between St. Peter's T.A.S. team and the Athletics, and a splendid exhibition of the national game was served up. Some weeks ago these two teams engaged in a 40 minute struggle on the oval, without a goal being scored on either side, and last night's game worked excitement up to the fever heat. Referee R. J. Frost called out the teams promptly at 7 o'clock, and the game soon started. The ball was secured by McNicholl, and together with Frank McCoy they worked it up to the Athletics flags, but could not penetrate the husky defence. The ball travelled in this manner for some minutes, until the Athletics home succeeded in drawing the T.A.S. defence out, and Wasson scored for the Athletics.

The Athletics now adopted Cornwall tactics, and blocked their goal against the repeated assaults of the T.A.S. home and field. Time and again would McNichol and McGrath make brilliant charges up the field with the ball and pass it to a T.A.S. home man, but their shots on the defence of the Athletics were like a flight of fire-flies against the Chinese wall. Up to the last of the first half of the game, the ball remained in possession of the T.A.S. home and field, but they could not score. Whenever it threatened the T.A.S. flags, Kelly Meagher or Crowley would bob up serenely and relieve them of danger. This style of play marked the progress of the game until time was up, the Athletics winning out by a score of 1—0.

Of the two teams it can truthfully be said that the T.A.S. home and field were superior to the Athletics, while their defense, though not as heavy as their opponents, was composed of expert stick-handlers and first-class sprinters. It was the obstructive tactics of the Athletics that saved them from defeat. Morgan was their star player last evening. He played a cool game, interupted many passes, and took in everything that came his way. The playing on both sides was characterized by close checking which at times approached roughness. Only two men were ruled off during the evening by Referee Frost, but if the enthusiasts in the crowd had their way, and if their howls of disapproval had been hearkened to, there would have been "big doins" for the referee, but that official turned a deaf ear to their protests and filled the position with satisfaction to those most concerned in the struggle. A number attending these different games have a tendency, in their excitement, to give expression to statements which are not pleasant to the ears of their neighbours, and which, if not smothered in time, will encourage and foster a feeling that will prove disastrous to the community. There are a number of extremists who take a special delight in stirring up this feeling that should be relegated to the dark days, and of giving vent to epithets and words which are not found in the modern dictionary.

One thing that was noticeable last evening was the excellent manner in which the spectators kept off the oval proper. This is as it should be at every game.

NOTES.

The Athletic defence is a stalwart one.

President Howden of the City League, was pleased with the quality of lacrosse played.

Which team will win the championship?

Geo. Lynch, of the T.A.S. team, was almost knocked into insensibility last evening in a mix-up.

Fred McGrath was the speediest man on the field, and no one could catch him.

Frank McCoy, of the T.A.S., played the game with a lacerated thumb last evening.

Some of the players on the oval last evening play senior lacrosse, and are fast enough for the best of them.

Galley in goal for the Athletics saved the flags on many occasions.

Derocher of the T.A.S. is one of the most promising players in the field.

BOWLING-ON-THE-GREEN.

Dr. Moher has presented the club with the bowls with which he played in Toronto.

The following letter will be read with interest by the members;

Alf. Terrill, Esq., Peterborough, Ont.

Dear Sir,—I must apologize for not writing to you earlier regarding the prospects of the Caer Howell Club making a visit to Peterborough. I have not been able to arrange yet for a Saturday owing to the many engagements we have had on hand, but if opportunity offers at an early date I will write you again. Several of the members spoke strongly in favour of making a visit, and appreciate your kindness in suggesting a fishing excursion in connection with the trip.

If I can arrange to take three rinks down some Saturday afternoon, I will write you. If you or any of your members are in Toronto at any time we would be pleased to have you visit our Green, and make yourselves known. I can promise you a hearty welcome.

Yours truly,
J. R. CODE,
Hon. Sec. C.H.B.C.

The Auburns and the Excelsiors play a match on the Nicholls oval tonight. Game starts at 7 o'clock. Excelsiors will line up as follows,—Simpson 1b, Pilling ss, Belleghem c, J. Flaherty cf, W. Cawthorne 3b, W. Tougas rf, N. Graham, 2b, E. Allison lf, F. Flaherty p.

STONY LAKE REGATTA.

A very handsome medal is on exhibition in Mr. Alex. Gibson's window. It has been made on the order of Mr. R. M. Roy, who is presenting it as the first prize for the ladies' single canoe race at the Stony Lake regatta. The medal takes the form of a Maltese Cross enamelled in red and white with a round gold centre in which is engraved a view of a canoe race. The medal is suspended from a handsomely decorated silver bar.

CROQUET.

Sporting fads run in cycles. The sport that may be raging this year may be as dead as Pharaoh next. A few years ago croquet was a fashionable fad. Then it croaked, so to speak. This year it is being revived, and is becoming very fashionable. Every lawn, larger than a dining table, has its croquet lay-out. It is a very attractive sport, easily learned, so that little practice will put players on an equality. It is a rather nice flirtation game, too. The attention of players is not so rigidly exacted as to prevent the making of goo-goo eyes. Besides it is popular with the lady of the neat foot; the roquet act gives opportunity for the effective display of a well-booted foot, with its charming suggestion of a daintily turned ankle upholstered in the ravishing fretwork of clocked hose, which is another revival. Another advantage is that it requires a well-trimmed lawn, and pater familias often finds some young gaffers anxious for a game with the girls, willing to take the work of exploiting the lawn mower off his hands. The dealers report large sales of croquet sets.

OLD FORT GARRY.

Interesting Reminiscences of an Historic Spot in Canada—With Some Pleasant Talk of the Modern City.

The lecture given recently by Rev. Dr. Bryce, of Winnipeg, on "Picturesque Fort Garry," in the chemical building of the university, under the auspices of the Royal Society, was interesting to those of us who had lately visited the historic spot. No mention can be made with reference to the old fort but sorrow and regret come up at the thought of the fact that it is almost annihilated. The residents feel that it was a species of vandalism on their part to be so negligent.

On the one remaining gateway we found names inscribed of people from almost every land in Christendom. It certainly would have been the Mecca of this great Northwest land. The stereoptican views illustrative of the lecture gave us some of the strong faces of those who had much to do with the making of the Canadian West, men who, out of the chaos and evolution of events attended upon the settlement of a new country, by their wise counsels and intelligent manipulation of affairs brought peace and her handmaiden prosperity, such as Sir Donald Smith, Hon. A. G. Archibald, Sir John Shultz, Hon. A. Morris, and Hon. J. Norquay, who for 17 years was First Minister of his native province. The beautiful and costly monument erected to his memory in the Anglican cemetery of St. John's is one of the evidences of his appreciation. Next on the canvas was a group of pioneer clergymen. Archbishop Machray (Angl.), Archbishop Tache (R.C.), Rev. Dr. Black (Presby.). Some of us would like to have seen the face of a pioneer Methodist. Such men as Revs. Rundle and Evans, the last well known as the inventor of the syllabic system, which made possible a native religious literature that has been ample for the need of the Cree Confederacy. When Lord Dufferin visited this land in 1877, on being told the story of this remarkable invention, said: "How is it that I have never heard of this before? Why, there are men whose remains are resting in Westminster Abbey not any more worthy than is the inventor of such a system." Also Rev. G. McDougal, who was a life-long friend of Sir Donald Smith, and whose lifeless body was found on the prairie, after an absence of many days. Mrs. Hardisty is his daughter, now residing in our city, the widow of the late Senator Hardisty, of the Northwest.

Many of us pronounced Lord Dufferin to be visionary and optimistic when on the occasion of his banquet at Winnipeg he talked so positively of the capabilities and limitless possibilities of this Western land, "whose illimitable dimensions confront the arithmetic of the surveyors and the verification of the explorer." The population in 1870, 200, is now nearly 50,000. This great commercial centre feels the throbbing pulsations of life and activity from plain and prairie. Twenty-five years ago the wheat production was 20,000 bushels; this year 80,000,000. We are told that our Dominion is third in the world in its output of gold. It is hard to compute wealth of a germinal value. It has been stated that if all the land now fit for cultivation were growing wheat there would be enough produced to feed the world's millions for one year were there any possibility of its distribution.

Winnipeg is a beautiful city, with its magnificent wide streets, paved though not with gold, but something far better—asphalt, granolithic, sidewalks, electric lights, fine trolley system, an imposing City Hall, with a costly and artistic monument erected in front to the memory of those who fell in the rebellion of 1885. Colleges. Deaf and Dumb Asylum, hospitals, parks, and large departmental stores. Two very important factors which have aided in the development and prosperity of this city are its religious and educational institutions. The numerous denominations, even some of the foreigners, have their splendid churches.

As we were being driven around the city, we were impressed by the Public school buildings. I think nearly a score we noticed, looking like small colleges, with grounds to the extent of 27 acres. What a boon that will be to have such breathing space, as the city becomes more densely populated. The first schoolhouse, built about thirty years ago, was a small log hut. The first teacher a Mr. Luxton. As we step off the train here, we conclude that the universe at large must have its eyes on this Eldorado of the West. Here we see Mongolian, Hebrew, Doukhobors, Molohannes, Galician, Swede, Norwegian, Icelander, French, Spanish, Armenian, Italian, Pole, Saxon, Celt, Norman, Dane, and others. I never heard the word cosmopolitan so often before.

Growth, advancement, development and progress seem to be stamped everywhere. A torpid liver, or anything else of a pessimistic tendency, is speedily dissipated by the exhilarating and energizing ozone of the prairie breezes. And it is scarcely daybreak there yet. Does the history of any land furnish us with a precedent on the same lines?

We cross the Red River, and find the old Town of St. Boniface. In walking up to the front of the cathedral, we notice, a little to the left, a pretty shaft of brown granite, about five feet in height, and on it, in golden colored letters, the name "Riel." Nearby is a wooden enclosure, in which I find on a slab, "Sacred to the memory of four infants of Ambrose Lepine, Riel's adjutant-general of his provisional Government, 1869-70." Riel was educated in the college at St. Boniface. His father was called the "Miller of the Seine." A paper called The New Nation was Riel's organ. Some copies are still extant, and in the possession of the Provincial Library of Manitoba. This mission was established in 1818. The former cathedral, in which Bishop Provencher ministered, was burned. The original one had two towers. I was frequently asked while in the West if I had read Whittier's poem called "The Bells of St. Boniface." I ventured to remark that I had read his poem called "The Red River Voyageur," in which he refers to the hardships of the rower and hunter:

"The voyageur smiles as he listens
To the sound that grows space;
Well he knows the vesper ringing
Of the bells of St. Boniface.

The bells of the Roman Mission,
That calls from their turrets twain;
To the boatman on the river,
To the hunter on the plain.

We are indebted for the following extract to Rev. Wm. MacBeth's "Making of the Canadian West." Some years ago Sir John Shultz, then Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba, reminded the authorities of the cathedral of the birthday of the poet, and asked that the bells be rung in honor of the day. This being done, the Hon. J. W. Taylor, the United States Consul at Winnipeg, wrote informing Whittier of the fact. The aged poet, on recovering from an illness with which he was suffering at the time, wrote to Archbishop Tache at St. Boniface, acknowledging the thoughtful courtesy of the act, and in his letter the following sentences of great beauty occur: "I have reached an age when literary success and manifestations of popular favor have ceased to satisfy one upon whom the solemnity of life's sunset is resting; but such a delicate and beautiful tribute has moved me. I shall never forget it. I shall hear the bells of St. Boniface sounding across the continent, and awakening a feeling of gratitude for they generous act."

BLOATING.

An Extremely Unpleasant Symptom of Stomach Trouble—Its Cause and Cure.

Flatulence or Bloating is the immediate result of poor digestion.

The food taken into the stomach for some reason remains wholly or partially undigested, and in a very short time fermentation commences.

All fermentation is really a kind of decomposition, and this process always gives off gas.

Every housewife is familiar with the results of this gas caused by fermentation, and almost everyone has had experience illustrating the tremendous pressure exercised by this gas when confined.

As soon as fermentation commences in the stomach this gas begins to rise, distending the walls of the stomach and forcing itself downward into the bowels and freuently upward to the mouth, giving a sense of sourness, and a burning sensation.

It is this gas that causes that "full feeling" after meals, so often complained of by those whose digestions are weak.

Nothing is so distressing as this smothering sensation, caused by the distension of the stomach by gas.

There is a way to prevent this fermentation, and the consequent bloating.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, if taken immediately after meals, will insure a complete and perfect digestion of all the food in the stomach—every particle of it—and if there is no undigested food there can be no fermentation, and consequently no gas or bloating.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are composed of the best digestives known to medical science, and these complete the work of digestion without any assistance from the stomach, thus giving this overworked organ rest and an opportunity for restoration.

A short treatment soon brings the Stomach back to its normal healthy condition, after which the use of the tablets may be discontinued.

Human Bait For Leeches.

In meridional Russia and especially in the innumerable ponds of the basin of the Don and Donetz rivers the inhabitants gain a remunerative livelihood, though dangerous and disagreeable, in leech fishing. Bare legged they tramp about the water, and leeches fix themselves upon the bare flesh. As soon as the fishers reach terra firma they remove the flabby animals and deposit them in an earthen vessel. It is a painful and weakening operation and sometimes even fatal.

The Town of Mothers.

The town of Leonberg, in Wurttemberg, is known as the "town of mothers," for there the mothers of Schiller and Kepler lived. On the walk of the old castle where the magna charta of Wurttemberg liberties was signed by Ulrich, the well beloved, tablets have been placed in honor of the mothers of the poet and the astronomer.

By His Own Efforts.

Joax—Young Simpkins has at last succeeded in carving out a fortune by his own efforts.

Hoax—Why, I was under the impression that he married an heiress.

Joax—So he did, but he had to cut out a dozen other fellows before taking up his residence on the sunny side of Easy street.

This Year's Trees.

Trees planted out this spring will now require a little attention. Bedford's advice is to water them with a hoe; that is, cultivate about them to prevent a crust from forming which would hasten the evaporation of soil moisture, and also keep down weeds and grass. Trees that are newly set out have no chance against grass and weeds.

Tiffany's Big Day In 1837.

Mr. Charles L. Tiffany and his partner, Mr. Young, began business on a capital of $1,000 borrowed from Mr. Tiffany's father.

Their first stock of salable goods consisted of bric-a-brac, Chinese and Japanese wares, umbrellas, walking sticks, desks, dressing cases, cabinets, fans, fine stationery, pottery, fancy articles and curiosities. The total sales for the first three days are said to have amounted to only $4.98, but as the nature of the business became known the patronage increased, new features were added from time to time, and on the day before Christmas of the year 1837 the sales amounted to $236.—American Monthly Review of Reviews.

Dublin's Red Haired Club.

The Red Haired club of Dublin, which flourished years ago, was a society which barred out all whose hirsute covering was not of the most pronounced auburn. In order that no one could gain admission by false pretenses it was required at the initiation of each member that the applicant wash his hair and whiskers in hot soda and water. This effectually took out any "dye" that might have been used.

All Agreed.

Krankleigh—Naw! I don't like my new neighborhood at all. Every man on the street's a cad.

Sharpe—You don't say?

Krankleigh—Yes, and there's one man in particular who isn't fit to live there at all.

Sharpe—Strange; that's what all the other neighbors say.

A Priceless Gift.

What is the good of a fortune without health to enjoy it? Why go about half-sick when Merrill's System Tonic will give you back your health? This wonderful medicine purifies the blood, builds up the system, strengthens the nerves and regulates the bowels. It's no use to you if you're well, but invaluable to you if you are sick. A fifty cent bottle lasts three weeks. Sold at Ormond and Walsh.

Not to Be Sat On.

During a football match in Belfast between Ireland and Scotland an enthusiastic supporter of the Irish team kept crying out, "Sit on them, Ireland!"

There was an old Scotchman beside him who endured this for a time, but at length, unable to stand it any longer, he turned round and impressively remarked:

"Ye can sit on the leek, mon, and mebbe ye can sit on the rose, but I tell you, mon, ye canna' sit on the thistle."

The Explanation.

Knox—I sat down in my easy chair last night and picked up that new novel of Scribbler's and I didn't get to bed until 4 this morning.

Cox—The idea! Why, I thought it awfully tiresome.

Knox—Exactly! It was nearly 4 o'clock when I woke up in my chair.

Had Headache Nearly all the Time

An Extreme Case of Exhaustion and Nervous Headache—Wonderful Restorative Influence of

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

There are scores of women in nearly every community in Canada suffering as Mrs. Miles did, from frequent attacks of nervous headache. No local treatment can prove of lasting benefit. The system must be strengthened and invigorated and the most effective way to do this is by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. The cure not only certain, but lasting.

Mrs. John Miles, 236 Wallington street, Ottawa, Ont., whose husband is employed with Davidson & Thackray, lumber dealers, states:—"I was very weak, had no strength or energy, and suffered nearly all the time with headache, in fact, I had headache for three whole days just before beginning to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I was also troubled a great deal with shooting pains across the small of the back. Under this treatment my health has been wonderfully improved. The headaches are a thing of the past, the pains in my back are cured, and I feel strong and healthy. As an evidence of restored strength I may say that I am now able to do all my housework without becoming exhausted."

BACK TO THE FARM.

A Newspaper's Homilizing on Recent Action of Prof. Sharpe, of Queen's.

The Temiskaming district seems to be attracting the right kind of settlers. Professor Sharpe of Queen's having read his Georgics to advantage, has taken up three hundred and twenty acres, and will show the natives what science and hard work can do with rich, arable land. The professor is already an influence. He is agitating for good roads and experimental farms.

The fact that a college professor should abandon the ease and dignity of an academic chair for toil of the farm should do much to ennoble the ancient and honorable calling of husbandry. A university education too often results in a contempt for manual labor. Professor Sharpe's action should apprise all supercilious, loitering, lily-fingered graduates that all labor is honest and dignified, and that education has not missed its mark if it but teaches a man to plow a straighter furrow. Professor Sharpe is not the only man of his kind who has found comfort in agriculture. It is not so many years ago that a splendid Latinist of Toronto University cheerfully vacated his professoriate and went out to his farm in Blanchard to put into practice what Cicero had taught him about planting orchards and Virgil about farming matters in general. If Professor Sharpe needs any extraneous consolation for what he has done, he will remember that Cato got next to the soil in his old age, that Horace wrote some of his finest poetry from the Sabine farm, that Cincinnatus was raised from the plow to a dictatorship, and that rich and learned men in all ages have gratified a very healthy human instinct by taking up farms where they could see things grow, hear what nature is saying, and pluck a gentle philosophy from their quiet surroundings. As a man who all his life had so do with books, the professor has probably concluded that there is too much reading and too little original thinking. The farmer always has time for meditation, sowing or reaping, or garnering into barns, or by the winter fireside, and his meditation is usually of that calm, imperturbable sort which illumines the lessons of life, and at the same time compensates for them. Great, inspiring thoughts are bred in the country, though it takes the friction of the city to make them give out the sparks we call philosophy and literature.

Professor Sharpe's course is a challenge to university men to get back to first principles. Fortunately the idea that a university education puts a man above the sordidness of business, is being overcome. The learned professions are overcrowded, and the rewards are not nearly as great as may be had in the industrial departments. The multiplication of technical schools and physicial, biological, and geological laboratories indicate that the university man is beginning to know where his bread is buttered. In another twenty years we may expect to see the Master of Arts, the Doctor of Philosophy, and such proceeding straight from the convocation hall of his Alma Mater to the old farm that gave him his start. He will understand that an education in the humanities—if he has elected to take that course—is given to him to broaden his vision and make him contented wherever his lot may be cast. He will be fortified, too, by the principles of political economy, which teach that, in the last resort, everything good and useful for society comes from the soil. We look forward to a time when the Northwest Territories will be positively infested with B.A.'s.

Still, the curious may ask what led Prof. Sharpe to desert the studious calm of the college quadrangle for a tabernacle in the wilderness. One answer is that universities no longer provide a studious calm. They demand strepitant advertising from their professors, or their university is forgotten. Another is that Prof. Sharpe, having dealt out philosophy all his life to others, wants now to keep a little for himself. Such a treasure you may hoard in the country, but not on the lecturer's rostrum. Prof. Sharpe will find in the Temiskaming, the hard work, the studious calm, and those exceptional opportunities for insight and outsight which develop every side of a man's nature.—Toronto Star.

Go-Home Biological Station.

The Government biological station at Go-Home Bay, Penetanguishene, is now in active operation. Recent additions to the equipment have made this station one of the best scientific schools on the continent, and a varied scheme of investigation is being entered into by the staff, including experiments with a view to improving artificial methods of hatching bass and pickerel in special reserves. Also a classification of the fishes of Georgian Bay, and a study of the food upon which they live. Prof. C. Wright of the School of Practical Science, Toronto, is making a hydrographic survey of the waters in the vicinity, and Prof. W. J. Loudon, of Toronto University, will make daily observations on the meteorology of the district, which will be communicated to the Government observatory at Toronto. Dr. Amyot, provincial bacteriologist, will conduct bacteriological researches in connection with the water in the locality, and a number of junior workers are to carry on other lines of investigation. Accordingly it is expected that some very valuable work will be accomplished this season.

INSIST ON WILSON'S

THE MAN HE WATED.

Senator Clark of Montana had occasion once out in Helena to hire a carriage driver. The roads were mountainous, and a skillful man was needed. On the appointed day the candidates for the position appeared. "You know where the road runs along the mountain, with the hill on one side and a gorge on the other, five miles from here?" asked Senator Clark, and all the men nodded affirmatively. "How near can you go to the edge of the road," was asked, "without upsetting my carriage?"

The first man said, "Four feet;" the next man answered, "Two feet;" the third man said that he would drive close to the edge, and the fourth man allowed that if one wheel was over the brink he could still turn the horses in time to save the carriage.

At last Mr. Clark turned to a brawny Irishman. "What would you do?" he asked.

"Begorra, Mr. Clark," said the Irishman, "I would keep as close to the side of the hill as I could without pulling off a wheel."

"You are the man I want," replied Mr. Clark, and the Irishman got the job.

The Box Tortoise.

Though the tortoise is slow of foot, it is quick to make the best of all its available modes of defense. The box tortoise possesses a singular defensive apparatus. The plastron or shell covering the under part of the body is so formed that its front segment can be drawn upward to protect the animal's head, the head meanwhile being drawn back under the carapace or shell on the back of the tortoise.

The upper and under shells then meet in front, forming a kind of box in which the creature is unassailable. When the danger is passed, the reptile relaxes a muscle, and the raised part of the plastron falls, allowing the head and fore feet to come forth. This movable plate is fastened to the plastron by a strong hinge of elastic ligament.

Jekyll and Hyde Indians.

It is said that the Seri Indians are a tribe of Jekylls and Hydes. They spend a portion of the year in the neighborhood of the boundary line between northern and Lower California, when they dedicate themselves to peaceful pursuits and evidently adopt civilized customs, frequently working as farm hands on the haciendas. When the crops are in, however, they experience a remarkable change, like any of the lower animals with a change of season. It is then that they have a wild longing for a savage life and emigrate to Tiburon island, where they lead a barbarous existence, even indulging in cannibalism, it is averred.

His Whole Business.

Tar water as a remedy many years ago in England became the universal nostrum. Horace Walpole tells that a man went into a chemist's shop and asked, "Do you sell tar water?" "Tar water!" replied the apothecary. "Why, I sell nothing else!"

A Fierce Threat.

HIS "HINNER END."

An English clergyman and a lowland Scotsman entered one of the best schools in Aberdeen. The master received them kindly and inquired:

"Would you prefer that I should speer (question) these boys or that you should speer them?"

The English clergyman desired the master to proceed. He did so with great success, and the boys answered satisfactorily numerous interrogations as to the exodus of the Israelites from Egypt. The clergyman then said he would be glad to "speer the boys" and at once began:

"How did Pharaoh die?"

There was a dead silence.

In his dilemma the lowland gentleman interposed:

"I think, sir, the boys are not accustomed to your English accent. Let me try what I can make of them." And he inquired in broad Scottish:

"Hoo did Phawraoh dee?"

Again there was a dead silence, upon which the master said:

"Noo, boys, fat cam' to Phawraoh at his hinner end?"

"The boys with one voice answered:

"He was drooned."

And a smart little fellow added:

"Ony lassie could hae tell't ye that.'—London Tit-Bits.

One Common Cause of Headache.

Perhaps the most general cause of headache and pain across the eyes is nasal catarrh. The simplest cure is to inhale the medicated vapor of Catarrhozone which traverses every air cell and air passage of the throat, lungs and nose. It kills myriads of germs at every breath, clears away mucous discharges, preserves and heals the membrane. Catarrhozone is just a splendid remedy for headache, and its action is certain and unfailing in diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Deafness, Bronchitis, Asthma and Catarrh. A trial will convince the most sceptical that Catarrhozone is all right. Large size, $1.00; trial size 25c. Druggists, or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

Light on an Old Subject.

Old Mrs. Hubbard, several years after the poem appeared in print describing her fruitless visit to the cupboard in search of a bone for her poor dog, was speaking of the incident to her next door neighbor.

"In the first place," she said, "it wasn't worth making a poem about, and, in the next place, the man didn't get it right. I saw the dog was hungry, and I went to the icebox and got a nice piece of raw beef for him. I don't feed my dog bones. And if I did I wouldn't keep them in the cupboard. The cupboard wasn't bare, either. It was just as well filled as anybody's."

"What do you suppose made the fellow say you went to the cupboard?" asked the neighbor.

"He couldn't think of any other rhyme for Hubbard," replied the aged dame, lighting her pipe with a fresh coal of fire. "These (puff) poets (puff, puff) make me tired!"

The Skin on Fire.

So dreadful are the sensations of burning, itching eczema that victims frequently describe their sufferings by saying that the skin is all on fire. The stinging, biting fires of eczema are quenched by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. The first few applications may cause a little uneasiness, but cure is sure to result and the skin is healed without scar or blemish.

Traveling in Japan.

A writer describing scenes on Japanese railways says when a native lady enters the car she slips her feet from her tiny shoes, stands upon the seat and then sits demurely with her feet doubled beneath her. A moment later she lights a cigarette or her little pipe, which holds just tobacco enough to produce two good whiffs of smoke. All Japanese people sit with their feet upon the seat of the car and not as Europeans do. When the ticket collector, attired in a blue uniform, enters the car, he removes his cap and twice bows politely. He repeats the bows as he comes to each passenger to collect the tickets from them.

Saved His Laundry Bill.

A customer in our store put it uniquely recently by saying the 25c he spent for a bottle of Four T's saved him an extra quarter in laundry bills. The only thing he was out was a cold in the head. Get a bottle today if you've a cough or cold and try the same experiment. Sold at Ormond & Welsh's drug store.

CANADA ENTERS THE STEEL AGE.

Forecast of the Development of the Dominion Steel Trade—The Natural Advantages Possessed by Canada.

The former manager and vice-president of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company, Mr. A. J. Moxham, has contributed an interesting article to the July issue of Cassier's Magazine on Canada as a steel producer.

There is nothing said in the article of the possibilities of Canada at large but a good deal of interesting information is given concerning the development of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company.

He foreshadows the opening of new iron deposits in Canada, the extensive manufacture of bye-products and the invasion of the markets of the world in a formidable manner by the Canadian steel makers.

In fact Mr. Moxham writes; "The mining is cheap and the ore is transported from Wabana to Sydney, 402 miles, economically. The estimated cost of the ore delivered at Sydney was $1.25 a ton, but the company is already delivering the ore in the stock pile at a considerably lower figure. The writer says 'the ore at present worked,' advisedly. The discovery of large bodies of ore in Canada and the temptation of the extra bounties offered by the Canadian Government render it more likely that the Newfoundland deposits will soon become only auxiliary to a main supply that will be worked on the mainland proper, as already well defined districts in Canada offer ore equally as cheap."

"The several blast furnaces are in operation at this writing and have made over 10,000 tons of pig metal which have been shipped to 300 customers, covering practically all of developed Canada, the whole Atlantic seaboard of the United States, the largest part of England, and to some extent Germany. Its product has found a resting place in Europe during a time of depression, and in the United States, in spite of a prohibitive tariff, and it has given entire satisfaction.

"The coke is made in Otto Hoffman retort ovens, in which all the bye-products—gas, coal tar and ammonia—are saved and utilized. It is proposed to erect chemical works to utilize to the utmost the various ingredients resulting from the above components.

"While the enterprise does not possess the artificially high market possessed by the United States, resulting from a high tariff, it does not need it. While it has to pay freights, etc., to the European markets, it can and does assemble at tide water materials for making steel cheaper than they can be assembled anywhere in the world, and so can afford to pay it. It is located nearer to foreign markets than any competing points.

"As the works can deliver to any point in the British colonies, South America or Asia as cheaply as any of the present exporting countries, and can deliver to them at a lower price than they can manufacture, its rightful heritage is to find their foreign markets."

RIVER RIPLETS.

The union picnic, comprising the Presbyterian and Methodist Sunday schools, from Havelock and Norwood, arrived on the 7.10 C.P.R. train, and took the Steamers City of Peterborough and Water Lily for Idyl Wyld. They returned in time to catch the local 7.33 train for home. Wednesday was Norwood's civic holiday.

The City of Peterborough has carried during the month of July 4,000 people down to Rice Lake. There were as many as 1,600 in one week. This not only shows the amount of patronage the Calcutt line of steamers are getting, but also the popularity of the beautiful Otonabee River and Rice Lake.

The people are not through going down the river yet, however. The best of all the excursions are to take place in August, and the Printers' Picnic on Saturday afternoon, August 2nd, will be the greatest of the best.

A MIRACULOUS ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

A Peterborough Man has a Close Shave in Port Hope.

Mr. John Hinds, says the Port Hope Guide, who is employed at the steam shovel on the double track, met with a very serious accident this morning. He was walking up the track about 6.45, and did not notice that train No. 93 was behind him. By chance he looked around, and the train was coming at quite a fast rate, and was about two feet from him when he leaped from the track, but while he was in the air the edge of the cow-catcher hit him in the calf of the leg, and the beam of the engine struck him on the right side. He was hurled into the ditch on the side of the track, and rendered unconscious for some time. He was picked up by his brother, who, with some other gentlemen, conveyed him to his home on Elizabeth street. Dr. Corbett was summoned, who found that his injuries were very bad. His side was injured very severely, besides a bad bruise on the leg, a cut on his elbow, and his forehead all scraped by the cinders on the track.

No doubt the only thing that saved his life was being in the air when the train struck him, which broke the force of the blow considerably.

Hinds is about thirty-five years of age, and came here from Peterborough, but his home is in Albion, Mich. He is doing as well as could be expected, and will likely pull through.

STOCK MARKETS.

Market Letter, July 29.—A well advertised attack took place Monday against the market, the warning coming in the Sunday newspaper articles which, of course, were broadly irregular. The articles were followed up by a bearish demonstration and many easily frightened holders disposed of some of their stocks. We stated a few days ago that from now on reactions would be more frequent and they will. Each reaction should be taken advantage of by buying something. The danger of a large decline at present is most remote. Large declines never occur when the financial scribe in the country in the has a red lantern hung to his financial articles giving warning to the public of impending trouble. When such occurrences do come they are not preceded by due warning in the public press. It will be well to bear in mind when considerable newspaper reports discussing the markets, that they are largely coloured in the interests of speculative financial interests. Markets do not seriously break when the great cliques possess the greatest supply of stocks. Only when the public are loaded with all they can conveniently carry and their purchasing power temporily exhausted. The market will each time be all the better for the reactions. Weak spots are shaken out and a new short interest engendered. This is a lively market and will continue to be so for a long time to come. Lively markets afford the best and most frequent advantages for money making. Buy when weak, selling out when strong. We believe this to be the best advise we can offer. We are also confident stocks will far excel the best price yet recorded on this bull movement. It is hard to appreciate how large a quantity of stocks have absolutely been withdrawn by investors from outright purchasers. The amount is simply enormous. Many issues have absolutely disappeared altogether in this manner. We have for the past three months principally advised the purchase of the higher priced shares, stating it to be our opinion that they would show the best profits. They did so. We now urge the purchase of the medium priced and low priced issues. The movement in them will speedily be under way.

With reference to a steamship line between Canada and South Africa, I may say that the matter is now engaging our immediate attention. It would be premature to venture any prediction as to what the result will be, but no effort shall be spared on our part."

GEEN WAS POISONED.

Ragg, Ex-Manager for Evans, Toronto, Talks of Tragedy.

THINKS IT IS A CASE OF MURDER

But Says He Knows Nothing That Will Cast Any Light on the Front Street Mystery—What His Evidence Will Be Succinctly Put—Came Back From Buffalo to Testify.

Toronto, Aug. 1.—A. E. Ragg, former manager of the Evans & Sons branch in Toronto, is in the city today. He will remain here until night. Mr. Ragg is supposed to throw considerable light on the mystery surrounding the warehouse sensation. He came to the city last night as a result of some rather animated correspondence between himself and the Crown Attorney Dewart and the head of the local detective force. Mr. Ragg expects to be permitted to give his testimony to-day and be in a position to leave for Chicago on the evening train, where he is engaged in business.

Coroner Young says that Mr. Ragg might be permitted to give his testimony to-day if the situation was urgent enough. In that event, the evidence would probably be taken in the office of the Crown Attorney, and that as far as he knew, it would be public. That would, however, be determined wholly by the representative of the Crown. A coroner's investigation was supposed to be public, but, if in the estimation of the Crown, it was in the interest of justice to withhold any phase of the evidence, it would undoubtedly be proper.

The Crown Attorney refused to be interviewed on the case, and refused to admit that he knew Mr. Ragg was in Toronto last night and would remain here during Friday.

In the course of a long interview last night, ex-manager Ragg said:

Geen took a drop per day of prussic acid for heart disease.

A short time before he was found, and while he was apparently well, Geen said: "By Jove! I'm afraid I've been poisoned." This Geen said to Arnott White.

Geen's expression was that of a poisoned man.

I think there were three men engaged in the burglary.

In addition to our own employes, the watchman and certain employes of Northrop & Lyman had access to the basement.

There was no document in the safe which could be an incentive to burglary.

The key to the Geen mystery will be the key to the Whalley mystery. Geen's body should be exhumed.

I think that Geen and Whalley were poisoned, because one of the burglars suspected that they knew his secret.

The burglary was a genuine attempt because $8 worth of postage stamps were missing, and partition had been demolished to give free play to axe.

For anything that was known there might have been $5,000 worth of money in safe.

Arnott White was seen last night. He seemed much surprised when the matter of Geen's statement that he was poisoned was brought to his attention.

"Yes, I did tell Foreman Scott that Geen said: 'By George! I believe I'm poisoned.'"

"Why did you not mention the fact on the witness stand?"

"Because I was not asked. I did not think it so important."

"When did Geen make this remark to you?"

"Oh, about 9 o'clock the morning he died."

"Under what circumstances?"

"Well, I was talking with him about having been sick. I knew he had been feeling rather bad for some time, and he said in rather a joking way: 'I believe I've been poisoned.' He laughed and so did I, and we went on about our business. I never thought of it again until Monday morning, when I found he was dead, then I said to Scott that it was singular that Geen had remarked that he believed he had been poisoned, and then die a few hours later. I don't believe he meant that he thought he had been poisoned that morning, but that he had been poisoned some time before, and that he was sick as a result of it, but really I did not think he meant anything by the remark at the time."

Coroner Young said last night that the inquest had been formally adjourned until Aug. 5. He could not therefore convene the jury to-day, even to take Mr. Ragg's testimony. It could be taken specially and then read to the jury. As far as he was concerned, if Mr. Ragg's evidence was given to-day the press would be permitted to be present and hear. Still, that matter was in the discretion of the Crown attorney, and he would be governed wholly by his advice.

Mr. Ragg asserts that he has been placed in a false light largely by accident. He says one important telegram from Crown Attorney Dewart failed to reach him, and that he would have come to Toronto immediately had he received that message. He declares emphatically that he knows nothing that will cast light on the mystery of the Front street warehouse, and for that reason could not anticipate the interest the authorities took in his testimony.

At the same time Mr. Ragg expresses the opinion that murder has been done, and that the robbery at least, if not the graver crimes, have been committed by persons thoroughly familiar with the interior of Evans & Sons' warehouse and stock.

ROSEBERY'S WARNING

Imperial Aspirations and the Irish Question.

SPEECH AT THE LIBERAL LEAGUE

Great Significance of the Recent Election of Rowland Barran, Liberal, to Represent North Leeds—Declared Party Has Suffered From Its Attitude Towards Irish Question—A Rallying Point.

London, Aug. 1.—Lord Rosebery presided at a largely attended dinner of the Liberal League last night, at which Herbert H. Asquith, Sir Edward Grey, Sir Henry H. Fowler, Richard B. Haldane and other prominent Liberals were present.

Lord Rosebery, in the course of a lengthy speech, dilated upon the recent bye-election for member for the House of Commons to represent North Leeds, which resulted in the elections of Howland Barren, Liberal. Mr. Barran sat at Lord Rosebery's right.

The speaker characterized the North Leeds verdict as having greater significance than any single election since the late Mr. Gladstone was first returned from Midlothian, and as almost a vital blow to the prestige of the Government. Yet Lord Rosebery warned his hearers fifty such elections as that of North Leeds might not turn out the party now in power. It showed, however, that the nation was beginning to look dispassionately at the Government's record in domestic legislation, and to judge with cooler temper than it could during the South African war.

The Liberal party had suffered a long period of sterility, said the speaker; it had been going through the valley of the shadow of death from want of concentration, and it had been allowing itself to become dissociated from the Imperial aspirations of the nation. The party had suffered, continued the speaker, by its unfortunate attitude in regard to the Irish question, and until the Imperialist-Liberal principles prevailed within it there will be necessity for the continued existence of the Liberal League, which Lord Rosebery said did not threaten international union, but formed a rallying point for others sharing the principles of its promoters.

Goes Over to the Liberals.

London, Aug. 1.—Announcement is made that Earl Beauchamp has joined the Liberal League. This formal defection from the Conservative ranks, coming at a moment when excitement is rife over the Liberal victory in the North Leeds bye-election, occasions considerable interest in political circles. It is recalled that Earl Beauchamp, at the request of Colonial Secretary Chamberlain, accepted the Governorship of New South Wales in 1899.

ANOTHER SCRAP IRON TANGLE.

The new tangle which has developed in the law governing the municipal assessment of street railway, telegraph, telephone, light and power companies, arose from a decision rendered by the county judge at St. Catharines in an appeal of the Cataract Power Company against its plant, etc., in the township of Grantham. These judges held that, as the law was left by the Legislature at its last session, after amending the "scrap iron" clause, it exempted all the plant of such companies from municipal taxation, except such as lay on the public highways.

The assessment law on company taxation worked fairly satisfactorily for years until a technical decision of the Court of Appeal in a Hamilton case declared that the clause directing the assessment of property by wards compelled the assessment of property in a ward entirely independent of property in another ward, and entirely independent of any value given to it by property in another ward. It held that the wires and poles and rails in any ward were to be assessed in each ward as second hand wires and poles and rails as "scrap iron," without any relation to their being part of a valuable system extending over several wards. This decision defeated the intent of the law, which contemplated the assessment of all property at its fair value for the purposes for which it was used.

Mr. Carscallen's bill, adopted by the Government, failed to remedy this grievance. The judges held that the clause directing these plants to be assessed "as a whole," simply directed that the plant be assessed as one "scrap heap," instead of six or eight ward "scrap heaps," as was the effect under the Court of Appeal's decision. At the last session of the Legislature several amendments were advanced to make straight the intention of the Legislature, but the Attorney-General's bill was finally adopted, without objection, save from the representatives of the corporations. Sub-section 2 of section 1 of the Act provides that the land of these companies shall be assessed either altogether or in parcels. Sub-section 3 provides "that the rails, ties, poles, wires, gas and other pipes, mains, conduits, sub structures and superstructures, upon the streets, roads, highways, lanes and other public places of the municipality" shall, when in actual use, be assessed as land, and at their actual cash value, as they would be appraised upon a sale to another company equally qualified to operate them. Sub-section 4, which follows, provides that, "Save as aforesaid, rolling stock, plant and appliances . . . . shall not be land within the meaning of the Assessment act, and shall not be assessable."

The Act containing this clause passed its second reading, was adopted in committee and read a third time, the three stages only occupying a few minutes, and being recorded on a single page of the journals of the House. The city of Toronto opposed the exemption of rolling stock, which the Legislature favoured, but no exception was taken on the ground that the Act might extend to exemption to other forms of corporate property. Neither Mr. Foy nor any other of the city's representatives made a protest, and the leader of the Opposition raised no objection. The Toronto city solicitor's department did not regard the clause as extending the exemption to corporate property other than the rolling stock of the street railway companies. Nor is the city solicitor now willing, the Globe says, to accept as final the contrary decision of Judge McMillan, and the legal gentleman who acted with him at St. Catharines. It is the belief of the city solicitor's department, that the term "plant and other appliances" means only the plant and other appliances of the rolling stock. This seems to have been the intention of the Legislature.

At the appeal last week, counsel for the Cataract Company took the ground that under the provisions of sub-section 4 all the plant and appliances of the company except those located upon the streets, roads, etc., are exempted, and that the only property of the company now assessable is its land, its buildings and those appliances, etc., which are located on public places. The court accepted this view and struck from the assessment roll all the plant and appliances of the company situate upon its own premises. These were formerly assessed as scrap, but are now freed from taxation of any kind. As the most valuable part of the Cataract Company's plant is located upon its own land, the effect of the decision was to cut down the assessment from $110,000 to $25,115. The assessment of the poles and wires on the highway was increased from $500 to $6,300, this amount being included in the sum above mentioned.

The view of the Lincoln county judge will not be allowed to rest without appeal, but it seems very strange that the Municipal Committee of the Legislature, with the assistance of legal representatives of Toronto and other councils, cannot draft a clause that will pass the courts. The Attorney-General's clause removing the "scrap iron" injustice, is now bomb-proof, but the new one exempting rolling stock apparently needs rectification to carry out the intention of the Legislature.—Guelph Mercury.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The Kingston News remarks that "that majority of one is lonesome, and liable to desert the government at any moment." That majority is just as permanent as Mr. Whitney's minority, and that is saying a good deal.

One would think from the way the Mail & Empire's report made Premier Ross howled at, hooted, hissed and jeered at, at the Toronto Prohibition Convention, that he could not have been elected a floor sweeper. But he was re-elected vice-president. Blatant partyism sometimes gets disappointed.

An increase of population in honest conditions of society is a test of prosperity, so is the decease of prison population a sign of similar significance. The population of Central Prison, Toronto, has dropped to 269 as against 356 the corresponding week of last year. The lowest population of criminals at any time last year was 347. This decrease of population is indication of the general prosperity prevalent in the country. When times are good and employment plentiful there is less temptation to dishonest means of livelihood. Where the moral principles are not of the soundest, inability to get work and consequent inability to get bread to eat is a temptation that many cannot overcome. Still we have some persons who seem to prefer crooked work to honest toil, and therefore the millennial condition, when we can convert our persons into warehouses or something similar, is not likely to come very soon. The criminal, like the poor, we shall always have with us.

AUSTRALIA MINE DISASTER.

Sydney, N.S.W., Aug. 1.—An explosion, resulting in heavy loss of life, has occurred at the Mt. Kimbla colliery at Wollongong, a port forty miles from here. Twenty-seven bodies have been recovered. The buildings at the mouth of the pit were wrecked. One hundred and forty-nine miners were rescued, but a hundred are still entombed. It is feared their release is hopeless. A SWORD OF HONOR.

Cape Town's Gift to Lord Kitchener Presented to the Distinguished Soldier in London Thursday Night.

London, Aug. 1.—Amid tremendous enthusiasm, Lord Kitchener was last night presented with a sword of honor, the gift of Cape Town. Sir Joseph Dimsdale, Lord Mayor of London, made the presentation in the course of a South African dinner, which was attended by many notable persons.

When the enthusiasm had sufficiently subsided for Lord Kitchener to make himself heard, he modestly returned thanks for the gift, and expressed the confident hope that, in South Africa, at any rate, the sword would not again be drawn from its scabbard.

Lord Kitchener eulogized Lord Milner, British High Commissioner in South Africa, and made an appeal, based upon his intimate and personal friendship with and knowledge of, the South African administrator, that he be given the confidence and support of the British nation.

Referring to the mineral and agricultural wealth of the new territory, Lord Kitchener said: "You may assure yourselves that you have nothing less than the makings of a new America in the Southern Hemisphere."

He said the question who would supply the energy, brains and money to carry out this great development was one more for his hearers than for himself, but when, as in South Africa, patriotism was joined with self-interest, he was not afraid they would fail to sow the seed and reap the harvest, for which he hoped that those who had recently been in South Africa had prepared.

CHAMBERLAIN INVITES BOERS.

Will Discuss With Them the Conditions of Peace.

London, Aug. 1.—The Paris correspondent of The Times says a pro-Boer telegraphic agency which often receives authoritative information from Boer sources, states that Botha, Dewet, Delarey, and Lucas Meyer are coming to Europe at the express and direct invitation of Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, Colonial Secretary. It is stated that Mr. Chamberlain wishes to consult with the Boer generals on the construction of the conditions of peace in South Africa and the general situation there.

AID FOR STORM SUFFERERS.

Ontario Government Sends Mr. A. W. Campbell to Investigate the Havoc.

Toronto, Aug. 1.—The Cabinet met yesterday with Hon. Mr. Harcourt, acting Premier, presiding. It was decided to send A. W. Campbell to Stormont and Dundas to enquire into the extent of the damage done there by the recent storms, in anticipation of an application for relief. Several letters were read, intimating an application would be sent in due course. If assistance is granted in this case, it will be a precedent as far as relieving the needs of people rendered destitute by storms, although the Government have many cases where aid was granted to fire sufferers. Principal among the cases were the grant of $25,000 to the sufferers in the Hull-Ottawa fire, to Prescott and Russell Counties of $5,000, to Westminster, B.C., St. John, Nfld., and other places.

The main question before the meeting was relating to water powers at Niagara Falls. After discussion it was agreed that a decision would be given in the matter not later than Tuesday morning.

The Export of Hemlock.

It was learned at the Department of Forestry yesterday that the chief object in putting an export duty on hemlock was to prevent its exportation, especially in view of the fact that the value of this particular wood has increased lately in the markets on the other side of the line. It is taking the place to a large extent of the common class of pine in the construction of fences and barns and other coarse work. Of course, another object is to compel any manufacturing with Canadian hemlock to be done in this country.

Hon. Mr. Harcourt, acting Premier, has sent Mr. Burke, one of the factory inspectors, to conduct an investigation into the particulars concerning the accident resulting in the death of the late Mr. Horsey, M.P., at Owen Sound.

Free Grants For Veterans.

It is expected that 2,000 deeds will be issued in the Department of Crown Lands in a few days of land grants to old and modern veterans. This number is now ready for signature. Altogether about 18,000 claims have been received from the veterans, and a staff of officials are busy ascertaining those entitled to grants. Only the veterans of the Fenian raid who saw active service will be given grants.

A petition was received at the office of the Attorney-General yesterday applying for the freedom of M. Viallaincourt, who is incarcerated at Sault Ste. Marie for assaulting a man in an intoxicated condition. It is likely the application will be sent to the Minister of Justice at Ottawa, as it is beyond the jurisdiction of the department here.

Two Million Victims.

It is estimated that one third the population of Canada are victims to the pill habit. This should not be so, as Merrill's System Tonic restores the natural muscular power to the bowels, tones the liver, and permanently cures habitual constipation. The result is that dyspepsia, impure blood and nerve troubles disappear. One 50 cent bottle cures. Sold at Ormond and Walsh's drug store.

Octopus For Dinner.

Octopuses are pretty plentiful in Japanese waters and have been known to attack fishermen in their boats. When this hideous monster assumes the aggressive, the only chance the fishermen have is to lop off the tentacles of the beast. Failing this, the boat may be upset and the men dragged under. The octopus is highly valued in Japan as an article of food.

MISS AMY WILSON.

Has Not Yet Been Found—Local Constable Asks Provincial Assistance.

Hamilton, Aug. 1.—High Constable Twiss has asked the Attorney-General's Department to send a provincial detective here to work on the case of Miss Amy Wilson, the 19-year-old girl who mysteriously disappeared from here. The girl disappeared while her mother was on a visit to a neighbor less than 100 yards away. In her room was found a rather strange document, to the effect that she expected to be kidnapped, and which was published at the time.

Frank Collins and John Davis of Dundas state that they saw her in Dundas between 5.30 and 6 o'clock of Tuesday of last week. One asked the other who the little girl was with Amy Wilson. Both persons knew Miss Wilson well.

It has been learned that Miss Wilson has been ambitious to become a manager of some large poultry farm in the United States, and she went so far as to ask her mother if they would allow her to go away if she secured a good position. In the last issue of The Breeders' Advocate, a poultry and dog paper, there is an article on poultry and eggs, signed by Miss Wilson. In the same paper was Miss Wilson's advertisement, in which she offered her fancy stock at cut prices, yet her father says she had only re-entered the chicken business in May. This advertisement might go to show that Miss Wilson contemplated leaving these parts.

A number of doctors think she became insane and went to the woods.

Fire at Newstadt Made a Wide Sweep on Thursday Morning.

Newstadt, Aug. 1.—At 11 o'clock yesterday morning fire broke out at Binkley Bros.' foundry. A strong wind was blowing at the time and the fire soon reached the adjoining buildings. A sawmill, shingle-mill, foundry and dwelling house belonging to Binkley Bros. were completely destroyed. About 1 o'clock p.m. flying embers set fire to a stable and a dwelling house of Paul Miller about a quarter of a mile from the first fire, destroying both, two hogs being burned to death. Binkley Bros.' loss will be $8,000, insured for $1,600. Mr. Miller's loss is about $800, with insurance. The firemen from Mildmay brought over their fire engine, and did good work in protecting surrounding buildings.

NO MARTIAL LAW.

Troops, 1,200 in Number, However, Overawe Strikers in the Town of Shenandoah—Foreigners Are Blamed.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 1.—Twelve hundred state troops were camped last night on a hill overlooking Shenandoah. Down in the town, where raiders and policemen fought the bloody battle Wednesday night, all is qdiet, and the indications are that so long as the militia remains, the peace of the community will not again be broken. Ten thousands of idle men and boys in this vicinity who had been gathering in large numbers and marching from place to place, did not repeat their demonstrations yesterday, and the authorities consequently had little or nothing to do.

The major portion of the population here is made up of foreigners, and, as a rule, they kept close to their homes during the day. It is claimed by the citizens of the town, that the foreign element were solely responsible for the trouble. Contrary to popular belief Shanandoah is not under martial law.

The mine workers are greatly incensed over the calling out of the troops. They assert that the action was entirely unwarranted and is an unjustifiable expense on the state.

Of the twenty or thirty persons who were beaten with clubs or struck by bullets during Wednesday night's rioting, one man, Joseph Beddall, died last night at 10 o'clock. Most of the wounded strikers claim that they were merely onlookers.

The district attorney and the sheriff are prosecuting an investigation, with a view of placing under arrest all those who participated in the riot.

President Mitchell Enjoined.

Charleston, Aug. 1. — President John Mitchell has been enjoined by a coal company that blames the strike for its inability to fill contracts. Coercive measures on part of strikers is prohibited.

LOS ALAMOS WRECKED

70 Earthquake Shocks Twist a Large California Area.

THE TERRIFIED PEOPLE LEAVE.

Every Brick House in the Village Thrown Down—Presbyterian Church Razed to the Ground—Big Strip of Country Affected—Great Rifts in the Earth's Surface in Santa Barbara.

San Luis, Obispo, Cal., Aug. 1.—A strip of country, 15 miles long by 4 miles wide, rent with gaping fissures and dotted with hills and knolls that sprung up during the night, as if by magic, a village in ruins and hundreds of people fleeing for their lives are the results of Thursday night's seismic disturbance in the valley of Los Alamos., in the northern part of Santa Barbara County. During the last four days that section of the country has been shaken by a series of earthquakes that is without precedent in the history or tradition of the Pacific Coast, and the continuance of the disturbances and the increasing severity of the shocks have so terrorized the inhabitants that they are leaving for other parts as rapidly as possible, and, even now, the village is almost entirely deserted.

The disturbances began on Sunday evening with a shock which caused several thousand dollars' worth of damage to property in the village and the surrounding country. This shock was followed by a number of disturbances less severe and less disastrous, continuing throughout the remainder of Sunday night and Monday. On Tuesday night, beginning at 12.10 o'clock, there was another series of seven shocks, all of which were light. The most severe shock of the entire series occurred at 1.30 o'clock yesterday morning. Hills were shaken and twisted to their foundations and the valley trembled and rolled. Great fissures were run deep in the earth, hills and knolls appearing in level valleys, springs of water appeared in places that had been dry and the general topography of the valley was greatly changed in many respects.

With the first warning of the sound of the approaching disaster the terror-stricken people rushed into the streets and sought places of safety in vacant lots and roads, while many fled towards the neighboring hills. The first vibrations were similar to the preceding disturbance in direction and effect, but they were immediately followed by the most terrific shock ever experienced in this section of the state. The earth trembled and rolled and twisted until it was impossible for people to stand erect and the inhabitants crouched together fearful that the earth might open and swallow them. The terror inspired by the rumbling of the earth was increased by a sound of falling buildings, which gave some idea of the destruction that was being wrought.

When the most serious shocks had passed and the rumbling sounds had died away the people gathered about the ruins of their places of business and when they saw the extent of the damage many of them, fearful of a repetition of this experience, immediately started on foot or by any conveyance that could be had for places where the previous shocks had been less severe. With the dawn of day, the stricken village had the appearance of the ruins of a city long deserted.

Since the first disturbances on Sunday night there have been more than 70 distinct shocks and those who have been keeping the records have now given up as the disturbances have become almost continuous.

A SURPLUS OF $86,952.

Intercolonial Railway of Canada at Last Shows a Profit.

Ottawa, Aug. 1.—The net surplus of earnings over expenditure on the Intercolonial Railway for the year ending June 30 last is $86,952. These figures were obtained from the Minister of Railways before he left for England yesterday afternoon. It will be generally conceded that this is a very good showing, when the record of the road under the late Government is taken into consideration. There is no difference in the system of bookkeeping now from that in use when the Conservatives were in power. The result of the year's operations have been even better than was predicted by Mr. Blair. The Minister said that he expected a surplus of about $40,000 or $50,000, at the same time adding that he would not be surprised if it were a little better than that. It is just twice as large as Mr. Blair put it. The road is in excellent condition throughout. The year's figures show the traffic, both passenger and freight, to be the largest on record.

A Great Mistake.

The old idea of taking blood thinning compound sin order to purify the blood is an error, as the system is thus left in a vitiated condition. Morrill's System Tonic not only purifies the blood in a thorough manner but the iron contained in it again enriches the blood, leaving one with lots of good rich red blood. 50 pleasant-to-take doses for 50 cents.

We have noticed that the man who begins a fight with a velvet hand is soon using a club.

THE KING WALKS EASILY.

Entire Length of the Pavilion Deck Without Assistance.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Aug. 1.—Yesterday's bulletin on the condition of King Edward follows:

"His Majesty has made rapid progress since Monday last. His general condition continues all that could be desired. The wound is closing satisfactorily.

"The King is able to walk the entire length of the pavilion deck easily, without assistance. (Signed) Treves, Laking, Bankhart."

Favored by perfect weather, the royal yacht Victoria and Albert cruised westward yesterday afternoon. The King sat in the shade of an awning aft, with the Queen by his side. There was no salute, but at Osborne the guardship Australia manned sides as the King's yacht passed.

The Prince and Princess of Wales will take leave of the King to-day and will not return to the Solent until after the coronation.

Nervous and Sleepless.

There is just one cure and, that is plenty of food for the blood and the nerves, which is best supplied in Ferrozone, than which no blood tonic or strength producer is better. Ferrozone promotes healthy digestion, which results in improved nutrition. The blood grows rich and red, furnishes stability to the entire system, and the store of nerve force and energy increases daily. A rebuilding of the constitution, new spirits, health and strength, all come from the use of Ferrozone. This marvellous renovator is sold by druggists for 50c. a box, or six boxes for $2.50. For sale by Ormond and Walsh.

Chief of Mafia Convicted.

Bologna, Italy, Aug. 1.—The trial before the Assize Court here, which had been going on for some time, of Trapani, Fontana and Palizzolo, the last named, formerly Deputy from Palermo, on charges of murder, was concluded at 7 o'clock last night. The jury returned a verdict of guilty against Trapani and Palizzolo for the murder of Signor Miceli and against Fontana and Palizzolo for the murder of Signor Notarbartolo. Sentences of thirty years' imprisonment each were imposed upon the three guilty men, who are members of the Mafia. Palizzolo was accused of having, as the head of the Mafia, procured the murders of Signor Miceli and Signor Notarbartolo.

The appended despatch was received this afternoon by the Examiner from Mr. J. Alex. Culverwell;

Campbellford, August 1.

To Editor Examiner, — Have paid balance purchase moneys and secured deeds parts Healey's power, making me by far the largest private proprietor of falls. Have also claim for damages against Dominion Government for diverting the water. Shall press for a departmental engineer's dismissal for trafficking in water powers. He also offered to sell out his option to me, which is of but little value. What is more outrageous is that he never secured options until after I had been to his department for information."

He Suffered for Many Months From Rheumatic Troubles.

A very sad death occurred this morning, when Mr. Jack Milne, aged 22, passed away after a long period of suffering from rheumatic troubles. He was taken ill while hunting in the back country last fall, and was for a time a patient at the Nicholls Hospital, but the trouble was apparently too deeply seated to be vanquished by medical aid, and he gradually grew worse, succumbing this morning, after being confined to his bed for over four months.

The deceased was a general favourite with all who knew him. His kindly disposition and habit of looking on the bright side of things, drew many friends to him. He was a member of Otonabee Lodge, I.O.O.F., and of Eko Camp.

The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of his father, Mr. Geo. Milne, No. 176 Sherbrooke street.

THE DAY AT STONY LAKE.

Cottagers' Association Annual Meeting.

REGATTA DATE CHANGED.

Not to be on Peterborough's Civic Holiday—Personal Mention Around the Lake—Gay Times at the Resorts.

Juniper Island, Stony Lake, Friday morning.

A special general meeting of the Stony Lake Cottagers' Association was held at the Pavilion, Juniper Island, on Thursday afternoon. The meeting was fairly well attended, and there was a better representation than usual from the upper portion of the lake.

The chair was occupied by Mr. Geo. Cochrane, the president of the Association, and among those in attendance were Messrs. H. Brock, Secretary-Treasurer, Benj. Shortly, W. A. Sanderson, H. G. Buck, W. E. Roxburgh, T. W. Robinson, Wellington McDonald, (Pittsburg), Dr. Pond, of Pittsburg, Jas. Moore, John Nugent, C. B. McAllister, Fred Addison and many others.

The minutes of the last two meetings were read, straightened out and finally adopted after some alterations.

The first matter taken up was that of the outstanding accounts on the Juniper Island wharf.

Mr. T. W. Robinson explained in detail the circumstances leading up to the erection of the wharf, and he claimed that he should not be asked to pay the entire amount, or to assume the responsibility for the maintenance of the same. The matter has been dragging along now for some time, and in order to finally dispose of it, Mr. Shortly moved, seconded by Mr. Roxburgh, that the Association assume control of the wharf, and pay the Dickson Co. the amount still owing on the same.

Mr. Brock mentioned that he had received a communication from Hon. Mr. Stratton stating that he had arranged for another shipment of parent bass to be deposited in Stony Lake.

Mr. Shortly informed the meeting that he and Mr. Cochrane had been communicating with Mr. Thwait, District Fisheries Inspector, in regard to the matter and the the Government had offered to transport the fish to Lakefield. The Association would then take hold of the matter and have the fish properly distributed throughout the lake. Mr. Rogers had consented to place the Government boat "Empire" at the disposal of the association for this purpose.

Mr. Brock also informed the meeting that Mr. Bates of New York had promised to donate a prize of five dollars for one of the regatta events.

Mr. Cochrane, the president of the association, stated that he regretted to see that the name of Mr. John Nugent was not on the Regatta Committee. Had it not been for Mr. Nugent last year the regatta would have been a slim affair, as he had worked hard in placing the buoys, etc. It was no doubt an oversight in Mr. Nugent not being on the committee, and as the Regatta Committee had power to add to its number he suggested that Mr. Nugent be given a place on the same. This was unanimously approved of on motion of Mr. Sanderson, seconded by Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Brock announced that he had collected about $36 in fees already.

The secretary said that he had received a letter from a certain cottager concerning the slaughter of fish. The letter in question alleged that there had been a slaughter of one hundred or more fish, which had been buried not five miles from Juniper Island. It was a difficult matter to stamp this practice out entirely, but the association should lend what aid it could. It is also alleged that fish in some cases are given to the guides, who dispose of them for money. These allegations were against both Canadians and Americans.

Mr. George Cochrane said that he would be on the lake all next month and all that he would ask the cottagers and others to do would be to give him the names of the offenders, and he would see that the fishery overseer would prosecute the parties.

To put the matter in more concise form, Mr. Shortly moved, seconded by Mr. Nugent, that each member of the Association be asked to do his utmost to prevent the illegal killing of fish.

Mr. Cochrane thought that the Americans should not be blamed exclusively. They found it difficult to get the fish over the line, but the Canadians from outside places may easily smuggle large quantities of fish home. Mr. Cochrane also intimated that he was determined to stamp out the practice of the reckless firing off of fire-arms.

THE NORTH-ENDERS.

Mr. Roxburgh introduced the matter of establishing a better steam boat service to the upper lake. He explained the difficulty now experienced inasmuch as they did not know where or when to find a steamer to get down to Lakefield. If there was some distinctive point—say Mr. LeBrun's or Mr. Brock's—where they could reckon on the boat leaving at a certain hour each morning, it would be a matter of much importance. If the Association could use its influence in the direction just recited the people of the upper lake would be highly pleased.

The matter was informally talked over, and on motion of Mr. Shortly seconded by Mr. Roxburgh, the secretary was instructed to write to the steamboat men calling attention to the matter of better steamboat service for the upper section of the lake.

THE REGATTA.

The vital question of the date of holding the annual regatta was then reached. At the annual meeting of the Association held in Peterborough last winter, the date for this event was fixed for civic holiday, but it was whispered around the lakes that an effort would be made to have the date changed. This was introduced at the meeting by Secretary Brock, who said that he did not think it was decent to have their daughters and wives get out and paddle in the presence of several hundred excursionists, "many of whom are under the weather." Notwithstanding the fact that the date had been set at the annual meeting for Peterborough's civic holiday, he moved that the date of the annual regatta be not held on that date.

Mr. Cochrane, the President of the Association, expressed his desire to see the date of the regatta changed from Peterborough's civic holiday to some other date.

Mr. Shortly and Mr. Robinson pointed out that the date had been already given out, and the Association would be breaking faith with the public.

Mr. Brock—"We don't give a continental for the public—the regatta should be a family gathering, and we should have a quiet day among ourselves. He moved, seconded by Mr. Fred Addison, that the regatta be held on Monday, the 18th of August. The motion was declared carried on division.

Mr. Robinson said that there had been a committee appointed some time ago to choose a design for a flag for the Association. The committee had performed its duty in this regard.

The matter of changing the date of the annual meeting was brought up and the opinion of the meeting yesterday was unanimous in the belief that a more thorough representation could be obtained by holding the annual meeting on a date after the regatta each year. A motion was accordingly put through, making the 25th of August the date of the next annual meeting, and the present officers will continue in office until that date.

The following letter was read from Miss Theresa Armstrong—

Mount Julian, July 31st, 1902.

Mr. Brock, Esq.,

Dear Sir,—As the Stony Lake Association Committee are having their meeting at Juniper Island at 2 p.m., I humbly beg of you as their President, to call their attention to the matter of a telephone at Mt. Julian.

I herewith enclose the petition, drawn up by Messrs. Hatton & Bradburn, and you will see by the paper the names of those who I have called upon for money, poles and labour. Would you do me the favour of asking those present at your meeting to sign this paper, and when money is needed I will call upon them. The Telephone Company asks for the poles to be erected and given as a bonus, and $35 yearly in advance for three years.

Hoping this is satisfactory and thanking you in advance, and hoping the cottagers will subscribe towards it to-day as it is a difficult matter for me to reach each island separately.

Thanking you again for any influence or trouble you may take in this matter, and asking you to keep all the papers and return to me, as I have no copies. I intended asking this favour personally, but missed seeing you the other day.

Yours Very Respectfully,
THERESSA ARMSTRONG.

The petition was signed by a number of the cottagers present.

This concluded the business of the meeting, and the Regatta Committee got to work and arranged for the various events. Mr. W. A. Sanderson is chairman of the Regatta Committee.

LAKE RIPLETS.

Mr. Robert Jaffray, and wife, Mr. H. E. Cartwright and Miss Cartwright, and Miss Reid of Toronto, who have been occupying Rocky Island for the past two weeks, returned home this morning.

Mr. J. B. McWilliams' family are located in their summer cottage, "Tecumseh Lodge." Dr. Victor McWilliams, of Orillia, is expected to arrive in a day or two.

Mrs. R. B. Rogers, who is occupying the house boat, at Sandy Point, has issued invitations for a social evening this evening. The affair promises to be largely attended and will undoubtedly be most enjoyable.

A large party of young people visited High Falls on Tuesday last, amongst them being Miss Helen Hall, Miss Helen Stethem, Miss Berth Symonds, Miss Gertrude Kendry, Miss Flora Burnham, and Messrs. Walter Robinson, Harold Armstrong, Douglass Hammond, Geo. Burnham, and C. M. Patterson. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bradburn accompanied the party, which was an exceptionally jolly one.

Mr. C. M. Paterson, who has been spending two weeks at McCracken's Landing, went down to-day to resume his duties in the Belleville branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

Mr. Harry Brock's home presented a most brilliant appearance last night, and the illuminations could be seen for miles, while the merry crowd of young people from the upper portion off the lake who gathered around passed a most pleasant evening. The occasion was in honour of the arrival at Mr. Brock's cottage of his daughter, who has been abroad.

Miss Margaret Wilmot of Peterborough, is the guest of Mrs. Richard Hall.

Mr. Frank Laird of Binghampton, who is a guest at Vizmede, landed a beautiful 14 1-2 lb. lunge yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ball and Miss Ball, of Chatham, are guests at the Victoria House. They came up on Monday evening, and Mr. Ball yesterday in going from the store to McCracken's landed a nice sized lunge.

Miss Flora Collins of the Sick Children's Hospital, Ottawa, who has been spending a week with her parents, returned to Ottawa on Thursday. She was accompanied to Peterborough by her father.

Mr. Fred Hall, deputy Sheriff, is putting on flesh these days, and is throroughly enjoying the beauties of Stony Lake.

Mr. Bennett, who has been occupying Gemmell's Island, will spend two weeks at Victoria House, while Eko Camp enjoys its annual outing. Mrs. Bennett will return to Peterborough for the same period.

Miss Jessie Cameron returned to Peterborough yesterday after a delightful two weeks' stay at Rocklands, the beautiful summer home of Mr. W. E. Roxburgh, Norwood.

Mrs. (Hon.) Hamilton is the guest of Mrs. C. B. McAllister.

The steamer Empress in coming up on Wednesday evening was delayed for three-quarters of an hour at the entrance to Clear Lake by a Rathbun drive of logs.

Mrs. Graham of Vizmede, has just installed a 100-light Siche gas plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stevenson have been spending a day or two at Mr. T. E. Bradburn's cottage.

Mr. John Crane came up the lakes to-day to remain until after Sunday.

Mr. Hamilton Munro went up to W. H. Hamilton's cottage this morning.

Mr. C. D. Cranfield, wife and family, of Lakefield, are at the Lakes for a few weeks outing.

Messrs. C. B. Routley and Lieut.-Col. E. B. Edwards were amongst those who came down to Peterborough this morning.

A pleasant little hop took place at the pavilion last night. There was every appearance of rain, and consequently there was not much of a crowd from far away places. However, there was a jolly gathering from the vicinity of Juniper Island all of whom enjoyed themselves. The affair broke up shortly after ten o'clock.

So popular a feature are the nightly dances at the pavilion that a movement is on foot to provide special music for at least two weeks during the month of August. It is proposed to bring a couple of musicians up from town for this purpose. At the present time the young ladies of the lake with any musical ability, are imposed upon to too great an extent. They have been very generous indeed, with their talent, but it appears to be too self-sacrificing on their part to be continually providing music for sixty or seventy people each night.

Speaking of dances at the lake and their popularity amongst the younger people, it might be mentioned that there are some who pride themselves in the fact that they have not missed a night at the pavilion in one month. The dancing fever has evidently struck Viamede, and the young people of that resort have announced their intention of putting on a hop

A RUNAWAY COUPLE

From Lindsay Arrive in Town on the Noon Train.

The Chief of Police received a telephone message this afternoon from Lindsay requesting him to be on the look out for a couple that was said to have eloped from that place, and it was thought they had taken the noon express for Peterborough. The young man was described as being about five feet ten inches in height, dark complexion and dark curly hair. When last seen he wore a light grey coat, white duck pants, white shoes and had on a Panama straw hat. He walks very erect and has a rather military swing. The young lady in question is about five feet seven inches in height, fair complexion and her hair was of an auburn hue. When last seen at the Lindsay station she wore a beautifully trimmed dress of white organdie, and had on a large cream leghorn straw picture hat. The Chief, after receiving the message, set out on a hunt for the alleged eloping couple, and after considerable searching located them at Victoria Park. After questioning them regarding their escapade and telling them how anxious their parents were, the couple informed the Chief that they were on a visit to friends in town, the young lady stopping at her aunt's on Water street and the gentleman with his cousin on London street. The Chief advised them to inform their parents at once so as to relieve their anxiety, which they did by requesting the Chief to telegraph their parents that they would remain in town over Saturday, as they had come to town especially to take in the Printers' Excursion to Jubilee Point to-morrow afternoon per City of Peterborough. Come along with this couple and enjoy the outing.

BY A SMALL MAJORITY

Important Section of the Education Bill Passed.

GOVERNMENT'S MAJORITY IS 41.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt Makes a Most Vigorous Speech—Bill Was the Negation of Popular Control and a Violation of Every Principle of Sound Finance—Enthusiastic Liberal Applause.

London, July 31.—After being subjected to vigorous attacks from the Liberal leaders, one of the most important sections of the Government's education bill was passed in the House of Commons last night by 230 votes to 189. This small Government majority was greeted with prolonged cheers from the Opposition.

Previous to the vote Sir William Vernon Harcourt (Liberal) made a speech which was characterized by all his old-time vigor. He declared the present House did not reflect the opinion of the country, and that, if the Government did not know this it would soon learn it. The speaker said Mr. Balfour, the Premier, demanded unconditional surrender, but that he would never get it, that the education bill was the negotiation of popular control and a violation of every principle of sound finance, whether Imperial or local. Sir William declared the country did not love clericalism, and that the new clericalism imposed by the education bill was loved by the country least of all. He said the Liberals meant to fight the issues to the bitter end.

A reference to the bye-election for member of the House to represent North Leeds, which resulted in a Liberal victory, elicited enthusiastic applause from the Liberals.

BLOATING.

An Extremely Unpleasant Symptom of Stomach Trouble—Its Cause and Cure.

Flatulence or Bloating is the immediate result of poor digestion.

The food taken into the stomach for some reason remains wholly or partially undigested, and in a very short time fermentation commences.

All fermentation is really a kind of decomposition, and this process always gives off gas.

Every housewife is familiar with the results of this gas caused by fermentation, and almost everyone has had experience illustrating the tremendous pressure exercised by this gas when confined.

As soon as fermentation commences in the stomach this gas begins to rise, distending the walls of the stomach and forcing itself downward into the bowels and freuently upward to the mouth, giving a sense of sourness, and a burning sensation.

It is this gas that causes that "full feeling" after meals, so often complained of by those whose digestions are weak.

Nothing is so distressing as this smothering sensation, caused by the distension of the stomach by gas.

There is a way to prevent this fermentation, and the consequent bloating.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, if taken immediately after meals, will insure a complete and perfect digestion of all the food in the stomach—every particle of it—and if there is no undigested food there can be no fermentation, and consequently no gas or bloating.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are composed of the best digestives known to medical science, and these complete the work of digestion without any assistance from the stomach, thus giving this overworked organ rest and an opportunity for restoration.

A short treatment soon brings the Stomach back to its normal healthy condition, after which the use of the tablets may be discontinued.

One Better.

Mike—It's mesilf that wishes every day was Saturday.

Pat—And for whoy, Mike?

"Shure, and shouldn't I just take me wages ivery day?"

"Begorra, I wish every day was Sunday!"

"Ye do? And for what raison?"

"Shure, and shouldn't I get a holliday ivery day and draw me wages the day before?"

Half Mourning.

"That's Mrs. Gilltedge-Bonds, the prominent society leader," said the man in the crowd who knew.

"What's she in half mourning for?" inquired several voices.

"Three of her six former husbands are dead," said the man, whereupon the crowd expressed great admiration for her delicacy of feeling.

Not Quite Sure Which.

"After all," he remarked, "it is youth alone that has real courage."

"I don't know," returned the elderly spinster, with acerbity, "whether it should be called courage or foolhardiness, but it is unquestionably true that the girls who marry at all usually marry quite young."

Buried in Africa.

In certain parts of Africa it is considered a mark of disrespect to bury out of doors at all. Only slaves are treated in such unceremonious fashion. The honored dead are buried under the floor of the house.

Not So Tactless as That.

She—Mrs. Boretou called today, and I thought she would never go.

He—But you are so amiable I suppose you never gave her the slightest hint that you wanted her to go.

She—Indeed I did not. If I had, she'd be here now.

British Bellringer's Record.

A bellringer who recently died at DorKing had a remarkable record. Born in the same year as the late Queen Victoria, he rang on her accession, her coronation, her wedding, her two jubilees, on the occasion of her death, and on the accession o King Edward.

ARGYLLSHIRE.

Who knows Argyllshire's story
Can tell all Britain's fate,
Since there the Bowan's glory
Broke at her Highland gate,
To leave the sons of Erin
To bring the Scottish name
Where blessed by holy Kiaran,
A town has kingly fame.

For there the stone of wonder,
To Eastern magic known,
Was brought the oak thwarts under,
Great Britain's crowning stone!
Kinloch, Dunadd, Dunstaffnage—
Three forts of old renown—
Safe kept that stone, the presage
Where Scot shall wear the crown.

Argyll's sweet dewy splendor
Looks over loch and sound,
Whose purple lights attend her,
Imperially crowned;
And, kissed by loving nature,
In ocean's arms she lies,
Fair faced with hills whose verdure
From isle and mainland rise.

In mists the mountains haunting
The spirits still remain
Of those who wooed her, vaunting
Proud names of Scot or Dane.
The flag of Fionn dallies
Once more with sun and breeze,
Once more grim Haco's galleys
Flash past the Hebrides.

Once more, Iona, waken
With choral songs the deeps,
Lift fear from hearts sin shaken
Where great Columbia sleeps—
Green isle of white sands, bearer
Of happiness and doom,
Dyed with a hue yet fairer—
The red of martyrdom.

—Duke of Argyll.

His Maiden Speech.

It is related that when the Earl of Rochester in the reign of Charles II. rose to make his maiden speech in the house of lords he said: "My lords, my lords, I rise this time for the first time—the very first time. My lords, I divide my speech into four branches." Here there was an embarrassing pause of some seconds. "My lords," the earl then ejaculated, "if ever I rise again in this house you may cut me off, root and branches and all, forever."

The Chinese King.

The king is the favorite musical instrument in Chinese temples. In its most perfect form it consists of a number of large flat stones of different shapes and tones. The sound is that of a chime of bells and is singularly clear and musical. The stones are said to be a peculiar variety of basalt found in the mountains to the north of China.

Scotch and Norwegian.

The lowland Scotch are Norse, with a difference. They tell me that broad Scotch would carry one through Norway. I don't believe it. But a Scot could, from the resemblance of his dialect to the Norse, learn the latter in a shorter time than an Englishman.

Had Headache Nearly all the Time

An Extreme Case of Exhaustion and Nervous Headache—Wonderful Restorative Influence of

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

There are scores of women in nearly every community in Canada suffering as Mrs. Miles did, from frequent attacks of nervous headache. No local treatment can prove of lasting benefit. The system must be strengthened and invigorated and the most effective way to do this is by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. The cure not only certain, but lasting.

Mrs. John Miles, 226 Wellington street, Ottawa, Ont., whose husband is employed with Davidson & Thackray, lumber dealers, states:—"I was very weak, had no strength or energy, and suffered nearly all the time with headache, in fact, I had headache for three whole days just before beginning to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I was also troubled a great deal with aboating pains across the small of the back. Under this treatment my health has been wonderfully improved. The headaches are a thing of the past, the pains in my back are cured, and I feel strong and healthy. As an evidence of restored strength I may say that I am now able to do all my housework without becoming exhausted."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto, Ont. 10.

SOLDIERS OF THE KING.

How Two Wounded Veterans of the Boer War Got Back on the Ballet of the Alhambra Theatre.

There is a touching and true little story of two brave soldiers of the King, which has not yet been told, says The London Daily Mail. Both belonged to the Reserves, and in the middle period of the war both were engaged as supers in the ballet of "The Soldiers of the Queen" at the Alhambra Theatre. In course of time each received a summons to rejoin, and in the same week the man left England and went with their respective regiments to South Africa, where they lost sight of each other. One of them, a Northumberland Fusilier, received a terrible gunshot wound in the throat, and for months he lay in hospital upon the point of death. In a far distant quarter of South Africa the other ex-super was dangerously wounded in the thigh, and to each as time went on came the news that the other had died of his wound and had been buried with his comrades upon the field of battle. Many months later the man of the "Fighting Fifth" returned to England on sick leave. Wandering one day through the streets of London the old soldier's eye was caught by a poster announcing "The Soldiers of the King" at the Alhambra Theatre. The prospect of a re-engagement, and the modest salary attaching, led him to the stage door, where he presently met Mr. Charles Wilson, his old chief, and the prospect became a reality.

Cheered by his good fortune, the man passed again into the street. As he left the narrow passage leading to the stage door, he all but collided with one who, limping painfully, was making his way along the crowded thoroughfare.

As the men met they stopped, and for a moment or so looked silently into each other's face. At last the man with the wounded throat managed to gurgle out, "Well, I'm hanged! Why, Jack, I thought you were one of the lot that's lyin' out there under the grass. They told me you died of the plug you got at Klipdam."

"An' as Heaven's me judge I thought you was a first-class casualty, too," replied the other in a breathless way. "Heard you was hit in the throat and planted a week after."

Then the first told of the story of his good fortune, and the other, looking ruefully at an imperfect left leg, said: "I could do with a few bob, too. I wonder if they'd take me back, limp and all. I could march on the inside, and nobody wouldn't notice it."

"Come and try," whispered the Fusilier. "You see, I can do the marchin' for both of us, and you can do enough singin' for two." In less than five minutes they were back to the stage again, and for more than a month those two well-trained soldiers of the King filled their old places in the ballet.

Field of the Cloth of Gold.

Whatever diplomatic policy may have led to the famous meeting between Henry VIII. and Francis I. in 1520, it came to no effect. The invitation sent by the French King was believed to be due to the desire to secure the help of England in a dispute which had arisen with Charles V. of Spain, as to who was to succeed Maximilian on the throne of Germany. Guisnes was the chosen meeting place, and there some thousands of workmen were engaged for months in the erection of a palace of wood. The decorations were gorgeous in the extreme, certain of the most extravagant features being due to the inventive genius of Cardinal Wolsey. Ceilings were ruchly painted or adorned with cloth of gold and velvet, while silken ropes were lavishly used. Henry, with his Queen and Court, embarked at Dover, and on reaching Calais rode on to Guisnes, where Francis awaited his coming. A treaty for the marriage of the Dauphin with Henry's daughter Mary being arranged, the two monarchs then appeared arm-in-arm, and jostings and tournaments began. King Henry with Charles Brandon and other courtiers were champions of England, while King Francis and his nobles entered the lists to maintain the honor of France. Each side tried to outdo the other in expense and magnificence, and many nobles ruined themselves by the cost of their equipment and the gorgeousness of their trains. At length Francis made an effort to put matters on a more easy and hearty footing. Accompanied only by two knights and a page he rode over one morning to Henry's quarters before the English King had risen, and appearing at his bedside, told him he took him prisoner. Henry entered into the jest, and, appreciating the frankness which induced Francis thus to place himself unreservedly in his power, threw a costly collar of pearls over his captor's neck, asking him to wear that for the sake of his prisoner. The French King responded by the gift of a magnificent bracelet. Confidence was thus established and Frances carried on the courteous game by insisting on acting as the attendant of his brother of England, and assisting him to dress. In spite of all the professions of amity these international spectacles were of so little account that Henry afterwards espoused the cause of Charles V., the great rival of Francis.

The Bishop's Amendment.

Once when dining quite by chance with Dr. Creighton, the late Bishop of London, at a certain club, Lord Rosebery remarked: "Ah! my Lord Bishop, what a nuisance this dining is! Two things I absolutely dread—a long dinner and a long sermon! I think that a sermon and a dinner, however good either may be, ought never to last more than a quarter of an hour, or 20 minutes at the most."

"Well, well," said Dr. Creighton, musingly, "could we not arrange matters this way, my lord? Knock, say ten minutes off the sermon, and put it on to the dinner."—From Men of the Moment.

JOYOUS CROWDS.

London Lancet on the Difference Between the Insanity of the Man in the Asylum and in the Street.

The London Lancet seriously discusses the psychology of jubilation. After referring to the shouting, the bell-ringing, the feather-tickling and so on it proceeds:

"Of course, such exuberance is an insanity of the moment. When it is over we make excusses and look sheep-faced when brought to reflection; but we are able to settle down to our prosaic existence much more quickly than would have been possible if we had fought against the volcanic explosion of feeling and endeavored to cool ourselves by more gradual and rational methods.

"In these public outbursts of enthusiasm in the night time, which sees the culmination of the seismic social disturbance because inhibition is then at its lowest ebb and the light of day is gone, we must have more light so we flout the quiet heavens with artificial fire. The silence of night is oppressive and we must have a soothing noise. So we shout and then laugh and sing until the lava of jubilation has run out and we can rest lapped in the peace that follows an irresistible letting-go.

"So might argue the crowds filling our streets on Mafeking and peace nights and the affinity of this frame of mind to madness must strike observant men. The essential difference between madness of a man inside an asylum and the insanity of a man outside is that the former has his failure of inhibition at times when there is no excuse except his own personal morbid condition. When, therefore, the rest of society is unprepared it resents the forcible exhibition of what is against its feeling of the moment. The latter's outburst exactly represents that feeling and the sanity of what is really a manifestation of insanity is accepted by all."

The Lancet argues that these obullitions are good for the community, though it says: "We feel that this is tantamount to confessing that the march of civilization has not modified human nature so much as might be believed. The world is very much as it was long ago. There is still the same tendency toward explosiveness, mind storms, and loss of inhibition, and it takes very little to seduce the sedate citizen into the destructiveness of the child, the 'rag' of the university student or the 'hooliganism' of the man in the street. Habit may do much. The events of the last three years have been in the nature of a new experience. There was no preparation and no gradual adaptation to new conditions, while everything that argued for explosiveness was provided."

Killing of a Great Heroe.

Tippoo Sahib succeeded his father, Hyder Ali, in the Government of Mysore, which he defended with success against the Great Mogul. In 1799 he enguged in war with the English, and was defeated in a number of actions. He then made overtures to the French Republic through the Governor of the Isle of France. Only a few hundreds of French of the lowest caste, however, reached Seringapatam, and those immediately set up a tree of liberty surmounted by a red night cap, and vowed vengeance to all tyrants except their ally, "citizen Tippoo." Lord Mornington, determined to anticipate the plans of Tippoo, at once despatched thirty-one thousand men into Mysore. To these was added a strong reinforcement of British troops in the pay of the Nizam, and some regiments of Sepoys commanded by English officers. The united forces came into conflict with Tippoo's army on March 22, 1799, when within two days' march of Seringapatam. In this action Colonel Wellesley (afterwards Duke of Wellington) greatly distinguished himself, and the success of the action was ascribed to his regiment, the 34th. Tippoo soon made very humble overtures for peace, but the English, having no faith in him, continued the siege, and the city was carried by storm on May 4. In the midst of the confusion the Sultan was seen to mount a horse and make for a gate apparently without aim or object. There he received a wound in the right side. He rode forward a few paces, when he was again wounded in the left breast, and at the same moment his horse was brought down. He was placed in a palanquin and a few Mysoreans gathered round him. His turban attracted the notice of a grenadier, who attempted to seize his sword-belt, which was very valuable. Tippoo, weak and helpless as he was, made a stroke at the soldier with his sword, who thereupon shot him through the head. The English Empire of India, thus freed from its most formidable enemy, was enabled soon after to send an armament up the Red Sea to assist in driving the French from Egypt.

An Orphan Horse.

A certain small youth from the East end of London, had just been deported into the country for a week's holiday, under the auspices of one of the benevolent societies which now exist for that purpose, and on the morning of his arrival he stood in the main street of the rural town, watching the local pair-horse 'bus as it drove up from the railway station. "Hi, sonny," shouted the driver as he brought his team to a standstill, "just catch hold of that horse's head, will you?" Which 'orse?" queried the lad. "The off 'un," said the driver. "Horphan," said the lad in disgust; "'ow d'ye think Hi knows which ov em's a horphan? Garn, you don't kid me that way," and he walked away with an air of supreme contempt.

Fifteen Kinds of Kisses.

The monks of the middle ages divided the kiss into fifteen distinct and separate orders—the decorous, or modest kiss; the diplomatic, or kiss of policy; the spying kiss, to ascertain if a woman has drunk wine; the slave kiss; the kiss infamous, a church penance; the slipper kiss, practiced toward tyrants; the judicial kiss, the feudal kiss, the religious kiss (kissing the cross), the academical kiss, or joining a solemn brotherhood; the hand kiss, the Judas kiss, the medical kiss, for the purpose of healing some sickness; the kiss of etiquette; the kiss of love, the only real kiss.—London Tit-Bits.

Great Water Pumpers.

An acre of grass land, according to experiments, gives off not less than 6,400 quarts of water in twenty-four hours, and an acre of sunflowers would give a relatively greater quantity. In fact, swamps have been reclaimed and malarial marshes rendered innocuous by planting sunflowers or eucalyptus trees, which are great pumpers of water and also exert other influences counteracting baneful conditions of air, earth and water.

STOCK MARKETS.

South Western Allies.

New York, July 31st,—But comparatively few people appreciate the close financial alliance between the Rockfeller-Gould interest. They are working ceaselessly and energetically with the view in upbuilding their great south-west properties, and M.O.P. already shows in market position the benefits which will be derived. All the roads of the south-west are to be included in the new combination, and the Gould-Rockfeller are heavy shareholders in all of them, anticipatory of the event. These stocks are all a great purchase at the present time. The buyer will require but a comparatively small margin in our opinion, and a reasonable amount of patience. The great abilities of the late Jay Gould, who "Builded better than he knew," has been inherited by his son, and drawn unto itself an alliance with the rich Rockefeller interests—the union branch assosiated. The present M.O.P. is a consolidation of many western lines in 1880, which have been constantly added to since. The new M.O.P. will take in the remainder Gould lines and other purchases by the capitalistic interests now working so harmoniously together in the great south west. In the last four years the net earnings of the M.O.P. combine have increased almost 75 per cent. On account of the improvements, train loads have increased greatly, while per centage of operating expenses declined from 71 per cent. to 64 per cent. When the new alliance is completed this per centage will will decline materially further. K. & T. is earning at present the full amount which the preferred calls for dividends on the stock, which is four per cent., and quite something upon the common. It will shortly commence to pay dividends. When it does it will command over 90 in the market, while the common would well be worth over 60. Texas Pacific is due also for quite an advance, and will have it before the maturity of the greater M.O.P. system. The Wabashes are most improving issues. It will shortly enter Pittsburg and have an outlet of its own to the Atlantic seaboard. It will sell much higher. For five years it has steadily reported increases in earnings monthly, without hardly a break. This is the upbuilding of a powerful and substantial railway corporation, upon the foundation of what was a ruin. Those who more than superficially investigate the progress of the Gould railways and dig beneath the surface will unhesitatingly purchase the shares.

Haight & Freese Co.

Buy Union Pacific, it Probably Controls St. Paul.

When St. Paul was around 172 we openly and urgently advocated its purchase in these letters; while we publicly advertised it as a purchase for a large advance, and stated that some one was buying it "for keeps." Sunday we advertised it to sell above 200, and we believe it will. Creditable reports received from Chicago Saturday credit control at present of the great railway of the west to Union Pacific; it is more than likely true. The men who will probably control this vast property are E. H. Harrison, Wm. Rockefeller, John D. Rockefeller, H. H. Rogers, Geo. T. Gould and James Stillman. Some of these men are already great stockholders, while two of them are directors of the St. Paul. Among the interests to give way to the new regime are the Armours of Chicago, Roswell Miller, the present chairman of the board, who will probably be succeeded by E. H. Harriman or one of the Union Pacific party. The alliance of the two roads will give Union Pacific an entrance into Chicago and place it in equal position with the Northern Securities Company, and make it a continuous system from Chicago to the Pacific coast. The St. Paul has about 7,000 miles of lines; the Union Pacific about 5,500 miles. The combined capitalization of the two roads, including stocks and bonds, is $775,000,000—far less than the stock issue of the United States Steel Corporation.

Union Pacific has been held down by the market forces controlling that issue for the past three months; indications now point to a dis-continuance of these inside manoeuvres. If they do, the stock will take will take its old time place in the list of values, which heretofore has always been 10 to 15 points higher than M.O.P. Union Pacific ought to sell between 130 and 140. We believe it safe to hazard the opinion that it will speedily sell around 125. Buy and hold Union Pacific; its turn for a good upward whirl is rapidly nearing. Last year Union Pacific sold up to 123. It then earned about eight per cent. for the year. Crop indications along its line caused estimates of 12 to 15 per cent. for its net earnings for 1902. The stock will sell ex-valuable rights shortly. It will take the full year to move the immense crop indicated by the Union Pacific territory. We earnestly and urgently solicit you to buy some of this stock, proffering our services as Brokers.

GOLF.

A telephone message was received from Mr. J. D. Flavelle, of Lindsay, this morning, stating that the Sturgeon Point golfers would not be able to give the Peterborough Colts a return match until the latter part of August or the first of September. Ritchie, the professional, is coaching the Sturgeon Pointers, and in the course of a week or two they expect to be playing in such form as to be able to defeat the colts in Peterborough.

BOWLING-ON-THE-GREEN.

A schedule game at the green last evening resulted as follows;—

W. H. Rackham	J. Maude
J. M. McIntyre	A. Spence
E. C. Complin	W. E. Hall
A.J.N. Terrill, sk. 11.	R. Waddell, sk. 12

The game was a very close one, the score being a tie on the 14th end, and an extra end being necessary to determine the victors.

LACROSSE.

The Athletics are receiving a great deal of praise for the generalship which they displayed on Wednesday night in their game against the T.A.S. Their system of blocking showed much good judgment.

There should be a record breaking crowd at the next T.A.S.-Athletic match.

The Hastings Lacrosse Club is playing the Millbrook twelve in the latter town to-day. Messrs. Bob. Begley and Jack. McDonough went down to see the game.

The Elms Lacrosse Club, of Toronto, has written the Secretary of the T.A.S. team asking for a game here on Monday, August 4th, Toronto's civic holiday. The Orillia team is billed to play here on that date, but the Elms will likely visit town later on.

Orillia has promised to send down their best team to fast the T.A.S. boys on Monday afternoon, on the Murray street school grounds, and a fast game may be expected. The ball will be faced at 2.30.

The II. Shamrocks, of Toronto Junction, have also written the T. A.S. for a game next Monday.

BASEBALL.

The following account of last night's baseball match has been contributed to the Examiner;

The Excelsior baseball team succeeded in defeating a picked nine from the Auburns and Peterboroughs on the Nicholls oval last night in a five innings game. The Auburns, or at least some of their number, made no secret of the fact that they were going to shut "the kids" out, but, alas! as is so often the case, the unexpected happened and the "kids" came out victorious by a score of 8 to 7, and an innings to spare. McCorry for the Auburns, pitched a good game but was not very ably supported. The chief feature of the match was the skill displayed by Flaherty in the box. Every Auburn man fanned wind; some of them twice and three times, and at no stage of the game were they in the lead of their opponents. At the close of the game the Excelsiors gave three cheers for the Auburn baseball team, but failed to get a responsive cheer from the Auburns, who must have felt sore indeed over their defeat. W. Young umpired, and his decisions were generally satisfactory. The teams lined up as follows;

Excelsiors — F. Flaherty p, E. Belleghem c, K. Simpson 1b, W. Graham 2b, W. Cawthorne, 3b, T. Pilling ss, W. Tougas rf, J. Flaherty cf, E. Allison lf.

Auburns — D. McCorry p, J. Craig c, W. Wareham 1b, F. Davidson 2b, J. Sheridan 3b, E. Renton ss, B. Pollock, rf, F. Cassman cf, N. Fitzpatrick lf.

The rumor which has been circulated to the effect that the Examiner baseball team have signed a Philadelphia battery for their game with the team from the Review and Times offices at the Printers' Picnic on Saturday afternoon is utterly baseless. The "prints" from this office will, however, put up a star game and the man who looped the loop won't be in it for ourves when the Examiner's left-handed twirler gets going.

Made King Edward Kneel.

A biography of Marshal Canrobert has been published recently in Paris. Not the least interesting part of the work is that which refers to the extraordinary popular demonstrations that marked the state visit of the late Queen Victoria to the French capital. When the English sovereign with her consort and heir went to the Invalides to look upon the tomb of Napoleon, the scene was one which seems to have greatly impressed the marshal, who thus describes it:

"Everybody was profoundly moved. Not a word was spoken. Each person stood gazing at the coffin, and was lost in thought. Prince Albert was in front of me in the red uniform of a field marshal, at his side stood the Queen, and standing beside her was the Prince of Wales, dressed in his Highland costume, with his velvet coat, his purse of fur, and the kilt; at the right was Princess Mathilde, whose features, so pure, standing out in the middle of torches, recalled so vividly, the features of her uncle. After a moment's pause of reflection, of absolute silence, the Queen, with an expression on her face of severity, calmness, and meditation, turned to the Prince of Wales, and placing her hands on his shoulder, said: 'Go down on your knees before the tomb of the great Napoleon.' It was a fine exhibition of keen political tact, as well as of fine human feeling, on the part of the Queen."

Modesty of an Ameer.

The late Ameer Abdur Rahman left behind him, we are told, copious diaries from which he directed his successor to extract and publish those portions which bore upon his private and domestic life, omitting all political questions. It is now to appear under the modest title of the "Encyclopedia of the World." This is not so bad for an informal domestic record even of an oriental potentate.—Madras Mail.

THE KING'S ENGLISH.

Some Curiosities of Language in Writing or speaking.

A short time ago a midland contemporary published a series of curious notices which had come to the personal knowledge of some of its correspondents. Among these were the following: "Whales (Welsh) eggs fre daily." "I kill myself every Tuesday and Friday." "Take notis when this board is out of site the river is dangerous." "Widow with large family wants washing by the week." "Mr. and Mrs. Jones (of a Birmingham address) have left off clothing of every description; inspection invited; splendid opportunities for everyone." "Ladies and gents sold and healed; ladies, 1s 6d; gents 2s 6d." "This is the old shop just come from above." "A large stock of ladies' hose, pure cashmere, to be cleared at 8½d per pair. They won't last long at this price." "Try our 1s 2d butter; nobody can touch it." "Abominable belts made to order." "Sailor's vitals cooked here." On a tombstone: "Erected to the memory of John Phillips, accidentally shot as a mark of affection by his brother." "Why go further and be gulled elsewhere? Step inside." "Bring your bones here, good prices given" "Closed for the day owing to funeral of proprietor's wife, and who will carry on as usual to-morrow morning."

We have also come across the following collection of curios in writing or speaking: A certain politician, condemning the Government of the day for its policy concerning the income tax, is reported to have said: "They'll keep cutting the wool off the sheep that lays the golden egg until they pump it dry." An orator bore off the palm for mixed metaphor when he declared that "The British lion, whether it is roaming the deserts of India or climbing the forests of Canada, will not draw in its horns or retire into its shell." A lecturer on chemistry once said: "One drop of this poison placed on the tongue of a cat is sufficient to kill the strongest man," and a lieutenant stated that the Royal Niger Company wished to kill him to prevent his going up the river until next year. On one occasion one of the Irish whips in the House of Commons telegraphed to Dublin that "the silence of the Irish members would be heard in the House of Commons no longer." A coroner's jury once reported that "deceased came to his death by excessive drinking, producing apoplexy in the minds of the jury."—Golden Penny.

A Mystifying Village.

Stokenchurch is a very delightful little village as anybody who has stayed there during the summer will be only too ready to testify, but the difficulty about Stokenchurch is that it doesn't quite know where it is so to speak. There seem to be quite a number of English counties desirous of reckoning the pretty place within their borders, with the usual result that "too many cooks spoil the broth," and Stokenchurch occasionally gets into a muddle as to how it exactly stands in the matter of location. The postal authorities tell you to address your letter to "Stokenchurch, near Wallingford." This, therefore, makes the village come in Berkshire, but if you get the parliamentary voting lists you will find that for all electoral purposes Stokenchurch is regarded as being in the county of Oxfordshire. And then, as if to drive the inhabitant quite out of his senses, there comes along the Poor Law people, who say and insist that Stokenchurch is in Buckinghamshire. The whole business sounds very much like comic opera, although the comic side is not always obvious to the inhabitants.

Brave Grenadier Rewarded.

Ex-Color Sergeant Morgan, late of the 2nd Grenadier Guards, has been appointed Lodge-keeper by the King, near the Sovereign's entrance at Windsor Castle.

This gallant soldier wears the distinguished conduct medal for bravery in South Africa. In the engagement when the veldt was set on fire by the Boers, and our wounded Guardsmen were burned to death, Morgan lost both his officers by his side and 46 of his company.

When the officers were placed out of action he brought his company out of the fire, and came through it himself unscathed.

Charles Dickens' Effects.

Charles Dickens' office table, chair, and looking-glass, and another high-backed chair which he used in the editor's office of All the Year 'Round, were sold at auction in London recently for £85. They were given at Dickens' death to his housekeeper, and sold by her to a collector.

SEVEN WRITS ISSUED

Claims For Losses by the Late Disaster at Fernie.

SUING THE CROW'S NEST COAL CO

Twenty-Five More Writs at Once, Making the Total Claims For 32 Persons $240,000—The Total Yet to Be Claimed Will Be Over Half a Million Dollars—A Trial Shipment.

Nelson, B.C., Aug. 2.—Seven writs were issued yesterday by Taylor and O'Shea, lawyers at Nelson, claiming damages against the Crow's Nest Coal Co. Twenty-five more are to be served to-day, making the first batch of 32 claims, amounting to $240,000. These lawyers are acting for the widows and orphans of the disaster at Coal Creek last May. Altogether 84 suits are to be brought for claims amounting to over half a million dollars. The suits commenced yesterday were by the following persons: Louisa Stevens for $12,000 for loss of her husband; H. Dockson and wife, $4,000 each for loss of a son; Kate Balayti, widow, $6,000 for loss of a son; J. Hogan and wife, $4,000 each for loss of a son; Mary Pastek, $12,000 for loss of her husband; B. Camarro, aged 78, $6,000 for loss of only son; M. E. Robertson, widow, $6,000 for loss of son. The cases are to be tried before the Supreme Court.

A gold brick was received yesterday from the granite mill, to which a trial shipment of twelve tons of ore from the Camborne claim, owned by the Northwestern Development syndicate, was sent. The ore was not picked, but was taken as it came. The brick weighed 26 ounces. The syndicate are installing a ten-stamp mill, saw mills, tramway and complete electrical equipment on the property.

SYDNEY OR HALIFAX.

Must Be the Terminus of the Canadian Fast Atlantic Line.

London, Aug. 2.—Sir Christopher Furness organized a meeting of shipowners, which was held Thursday at West Hartlepool. It was resolved to protest against the payment of subsidies by the British Government for a fast Atlantic service, except for the purpose of securing an efficient mail service.

In the opinion of Canadian shippers and Canadian business men in London, generally, no freight subsidy should be given to the Canadian Pacific Railway. Many are also opposed to the enormous passenger subsidy. The British-German Line men declare that even the best Canadian line will not divert a pound of freight or a single passenger from the present routes. It is also the prevailing opinion that the terminal port of the fast Canadian line must be Sydney or Halifax. No greyhound could maintain ocean speed on the St. Lawrence River to Quebec.

DROWNED AT PARRY SOUND.

Wm. Lewis and Ed. Gardiner Find Watery Graves in the Harbor.

Parry Sound, Aug. 2.—A man named William Lewis was drowned off the dock at Parry Harbor Thursday night. Lewis had come in with a small excursion party from Depot Harbor, where he was employed. On returning to the steamer he fell off the dock and was drowned before assistance could be rendered. An inquest will be held. Lewis came from Port Perry.

Another drowning accident occurred last evening about 8 o'clock. Two lads, Ed. Gardiner and Sherrill Whalen, were in a canoe a short way out from the foot of Belvidere Hill. In some way the canoe upset. Whalen swam for the shore and was picked up by another boat. Gardiner, who could not swim, clung to the canoe, but before assistance reached him he had relaxed his hold and sank to the bottom. His body has not yet been recovered. His relatives live in Toronto.

MORE CHILDREN IN QUEBEC.

Ontario Shows a Decrease in Population of Infants.

Ottawa, Aug. 2.—The census department has issued a bulletin on ages, which shows that there are 18,021 more children under five years in Quebec than in Ontario, although the latter is one-third larger in population than Quebec.

Since 1871 there has been a remarkable decrease in the population of infants in Ontario and Prince Edward Island.

The provinces showing the largest proportion over 70 years are Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Ontario. Thirty out of every thousand in Canada are people over 70 years of age, and 23 are children up to 9 years. The largest proportion of children under 10 is in the Northwest, with Quebec and Manitoba closely following.

A TELEGRAPHIC MYSTERY.

Ex-Manager Ragg of Evans', Toronto, Wired June 26 to Drop the Geen Investigation.

Toronto, Aug. 2. — June 26, two weeks after Edward Geen died, under circumstances that pointed to murder in the basement of Evans & Sons' Front street warehouse, this telegram is said to have been received by Mr. A. E. Ragg, then manager for the company in Toronto:

Montreal, June 26, 1902.

A. E. Ragg,
23 Front street, Toronto, Ont.
Better let the Geen matter drop.
A. B. Evans.

The "time marks" on this telegram, which was transmitted over the Great Northwestern Telegraph Co.'s lines, show that the message was sent from Montreal at 10 o'clock, and was received in Toronto just before noon.

Mr. Ragg, when seen yesterday, would neither deny nor affirm that he had received such a telegram. He will, however, be at the inquest on Tuesday to give his evidence.

NO SECOND OPERATION.

London Lancet Puts at Rest Opinion of Medical Experts.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—A special from London says: There is a wide difference of opinion in medical circles as to the probability of a second operation to be performed on King Edward. There is; however, no thought of a postponement of the coronation ceremonies, despite much repeated rumors.

Some well-informed experts say that, while the King's physicians entirely relieved his ailment the actual cause of the illness has never been definitely determined. There was no sign of appendicitis and the appendix was not examined. All that the doctors did was to remove a dangerous abscess. As there was no complications in immediate sight they were content to ignore the cause of the abcess.

On the other hand, The Lancet says:

"If King Edward were an ordinary hospital patient he would have been discharged several days ago with a mild caution to be careful. It must be remembered that the incision in the side is extremely deep.

"The rigid precautions of the King's medical advisers in declining to allow His Majesty to move about as soon as he might have been expected was dictated merely by a desire to give the healing process ample time to consolidate. There has been at no time the remotest sign of anything pointing to malignancy and all talk of a second operation is without the slightest foundation."

Peace Efforts Thwarted.

Panama, Aug. 2.—The Peace Commissioners, who left here on July 29, on the British steamer Cana, to visit the revolutionary general, Herrera, near Agua Dulce, returned to Panama yesterday. They informed the representative of the Associated Press that they were unable to fulfil their mission because a very severe engagement between Herrera's forces and the Government troops had been in progress since Tuesday, July 29, when the revolutionary forces began to attack Agua Dulce.

CHAMBERLAIN HOPES

For Bright Future for British West India Islands.

EXPLAINED GRANT OF £250,000

How He Proposes to Bridge Over the Time Until the Promised Abolition of Bounties Takes Place in 1903—Meanwhile Some People at Jamaica Are Talking Annexation to the U.S.

London, Aug. 2.—In an explanatory statement, in the House of Commons, yesterday, of the grant of £250,000 ($1,250,000), for the relief of sugar planters in the British West Indies, Colonial Secretary Chamberlain said he took a hopeful view of the future of the islands. When he assumed office, grave apprehension existed that the islands would be thrown on the hands of the Government, and it was that state of affairs which led to the appointment, in 1896, of a Royal Commission, to investigate the West Indian sugar industry.

As a result of the Brussels Convention's abolition of sugar bounties, which were ruining the West Indies, the situation had much improved, and was now much brighter, especially as a direct line of fruit steamers was developing an important trade. It was promised, also, that enormous coal deposits, which had been found in Trinidad, would materially help the islands. British Guiana, which had been largely dependent upon sugar, is now developing diamond and gold fields, which promise to have considerable commercial value. However, the period till the promised abolition of bounties, in 1903, must be bridged over, and £250,000 ($1,250,000) was the smallest sum that would suffice. The Government would see that the relief fund was so distributed that the neediest should get the largest share.

TALKING ANNEXATION.

Sugar Industry Depression Is Making Islanders View Situation With Alarm

Kingston, Jamaica, Aug. 2.—The Chamber of Commerce Thursday condemned the British Government for its treatment of this colony, and urged that there be an energetic agitation for annexation to the United States.

A resolution, expressing alarm over the situation and disappointment over the utterly inadequate grant to assist the sugar industry was adopted.

Regrets that His Majesty's Government had failed to grasp the seriousness of the situation, as £10,000, offered as a loan, is of no apparent advantage to the colony, are heard on every side. The planters have agreed to take no notice of the offer.

Newspapers are printing articles on the annexation question. Most of the writers favor this step. A federation with Canada is also suggested.

VALUABLE ACQUISITION.

Earl Beauchamp's Defection From Conservative Party So Viewed.

London, Aug. 2.—Earl Beauchamp, who has gone over to the Liberals, is regarded as one of the "strenuous" order among the younger members of the British peerage. He is only 30 years old, but already possesses the distinction of having held one of the most important colonial governorships, succeeded his father as seventh Earl in 1891, and quickly showed a desire to engage in public life.

His marriage to Lady Lettice Grosvenor, sister of the present and grand-daughter of the late Duke of Westminster, which took place in Cheshire last Saturday, brings him into family relationship with the Duke and Duchess of Teck, the Cornwallis-Wests (Mrs. George Cornwallis West being formerly Lady Randolph Churchill), and, through Lady Beauchamp's mother, to Mr. George Wyndham, the present Irish Secretary, who is the Countess Grosvenor's second husband.

BISHOP LOST HIS TEMPER.

Rapped Coolies Over Knuckles in Corea and Was Attacked.

Victoria, B.C., Aug. 2.—The steamer Olympia brings details of the attack on Bishop Moore, the Revs. Appenzeller and Swearer and the Misses Moore and Melvin by the Japanese coolies in Corea.

The coolies who were carrying Bishop Moore's rickshaw stopped to talk with a friend. The Bishop lost his temper and rapped the coolies over the knuckles, whereupon the coolies called out, and a lot of Japanese camped in the vicinity rushed at the missionaries and stoned them, Bishop Moore being rather severely hurt.

Three of the ringleaders were arrested and sentenced to two months' imprisonment.

MACADAMS GOES FREE.

Discharged After a Lecture From Chief Justice Hunter.

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 2.—William MacAdams, editor of The Sandon Paystreak, who was committed to jail for nine months for an attack on the member of the Supreme Court, yesterday tendered a written apology, and was discharged after a severe lecture from Chief Justice Hunter.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Coal promises to be much higher next winter than the temperature it expected to create.

The first bye-election after Balfour got into Salisbury's saddle, Leeds the way to the Liberals' return to power in Great Britain.

How long would it take a recruiting sergeant to enroll the 20,000 Canadian contingent required to fight the bloodless battle of Manitoba's harvest?

There will be hundreds of people in town to-morrow who could not go to church the last couple of months, because it was too wet, and will stay at home, because it is too hot.

The Hamilton Spectator (Tammany in politics) asks with a sneer—"Who is building up Ontario these days?" Certainly not the New York tenderloin ward heelers the Whiteyites imported to purify Ontario election methods.

Free trade with Great Britain would do a heap more, the Ottawa Journal thinks, to establish better steamship relations with Great Britain, and all other kinds of relations, than a subsidy of two millions dollars for a fast Atlantic line.

It is said that ex-President Kruger will demand a pension from the British Government to compensate the loss of salary as president of the Transvaal. The Government might allow him the interest on the money he stole while in office.

"Uneasy lies the head which wears a crown," but in King Edward's case uneasier is the head that has not yet been crowned. It is a little hard to wait the length of a life time for a crown, and then have to wait a little longer from so trifling a cause as perityphilitis.

An unnecessary fuss seems to be made over the decree of the Bank of Montreal that its employees cannot marry under a salary of $1500. In many modern marriages, income, large or small, does not figure — a good style can be kept up anyway. It's only a matter of guileless creditors.

The Montreal Star says; "Ontario now has stopped the export of hemlock logs to the Michigan mills, which were beginning to find them a fair substitute for the forbidden Canadian pine. Ontario is determined to employ Ontario labour and capital in the manufacture of its raw material — which is an indication that Ontario's head is level."

Mr. Balfour, the British premier, is getting a rather wet-blanket welcome to office. The first bye-election gives him a black eye, and now the defection of Earl Beauchamp, who has gone over to the Liberal camp, constitutes another heavy blow. When the South African war was on, the loyalty of the people to imperial integrity, suggested support of the Government, whose short-comings were overlooked. But now questions of another kind demand attention, and the Government is being judged more on its merits, apart from sentimental considerations.

"Send us another ten thousand," is the celebrated demand now practically quoted by the Prohibitionists. It is proposed to raise $10,000 to carry on the referendum campaign. Ten thousand dollars seems, and is a large sum, but when one reflects that with 98 constituencies to cover, it is only a little more than $100 to each, it seems, and is, only a drop in the bucket. Why $100 won't cover the cost of printing in one constituency, unless it is done on the same principle that some printing on behalf of temperance workers, has been done in Peterborough county.

The truth is that our manufacturers have created our tariff rather than our tariff our manufactures. The manufacturers were first, and as they grew the tariff was raised. It is not the need of an "infant industry" but the power of a "vested interest" that has inspired tariff legislation. The wealth of this country and its manufacturing greatness are the inevitable result of settling an enterprising people in a country of immense agricultural and mineral resources.—New York Journal of Commerce.

That's the case in a nutshell; and when certain Conservative journals cast it up, says the Ottawa Free Press, as a sort of reproach against the Government that it has not cut down the protective tariff root and branch, they should also mention the fact that in Opposition, and after obtaining office, the Reform leaders frankly stated that the creation of these "vested interests" by the operations of the tariff itself, would prevent anything more than the application of the pruning knife on a moderate scale. And the salutary reductions, without revolutionary measures, have proved the wisdom of the governmental course.

WHEN LAURIER VISITED WOODSTOCK.

(Ottawa Journal.)

Sir Wilfrid Laurier is to be presented with the "Freedom of the City" by Edinburgh, and the compliment will be pleasant to him in view of his admiration of the Scotch, which he is said to express frequently in private speech. According to his friends, Sir Wilfrid tells a story that one of the occasions on which he has felt that he was really not all he should be was when the Hon. James Sutherland, prior to 1896, was once chaperoning him around Oxford country, and introduced him as "the leader of our party" to a gigantic West Zorra Scotch Grit. The Scotchman took Sir Wilfrid's hand in his vast pair, and shook it for several minutes with hearty expressions in broad Scotch of greeting and approval. Then backing off and surveying Laurier from head to foot, he ejaculated, "Man, but it's a peety ye're nae Scotch." Endowed with the freedom of Edinburgh, Sir Wilfrid ought to be Scotch enough for anybody.

BUSINESS MEN IN POLITICS.

Mr. Balfour is being urged, we are told, to introduce more of the business element into his reconstructed cabinet. The success made of their departments by commercially trained men such as Messrs. Chamberlain, Ritchie, and Arnold-Foster are pointed to as illustrating the value of business experience to a statesman. But on the other hand it should be noted that few men who have made even the greatest success of commercial life have added much strength to a government without previous public experience. A training ground for governmental service in the Old Land which is each year becoming of more importance is to be found in the municipal councils. Mr. Chamberlain began his career as an administrater in connection with the local politics of Birmingham, of which city he was for several years the mayor. The other two gentlemen mentioned had a similar experience. The Old Land can teach us hundreds of lessons in regard to the conduct of municipal affairs. A man of leading always considers that his place of residence has the first claim on his public service. In this way, to use an expression of Lord Rosebury's, the government of the country is made sound at the core and it is the men who have made a success of municipal administration that are gradually being drafted into the service of the nation at large. A government could obtain no more useful members than business men who have served such an apprenticeship in municipal life and shown that they have the qualities which make for public as well as private usefulness.—Woodstock Sentinel-Review.

Illinois Man Travels to Haliburtin Quest of a Wife.

He Went Home Without Her—She was a Married Woman—A Strange Termination.

(Lindsay Post.)

About a year ago a man residing in Illinois, a few miles from Chicago, advertised in an American matrimonial paper. A few months ago a Haliburton woman answered the advertisement, saying that as she was a widow she was in search of a husband. An exchange of photos followed and an engagement was arranged by mail. On Tuesday the Illinois man passed through to Haliburton to marry his widow and take her back to Illinois.

On arriving at Haliburton he made known his mission to a couple of well-known citizens. As the woman resided a few miles from the village he was driven by one of them to her home. On reaching the house he enquired for the would-be bride, and was informed by the woman's daughter that she was not in, but her father was. At this the American got disgusted and returned to the village. Late that evening the woman walked into the hotel and enquired of the hotelkeeper if Mr. —— was in, but was informed by the latter that he had retired. The next morning the Illinois man was surprised to find the woman waiting for him at the front door of the hotel, but before she could interview him he made his escape out of a back window and made for the train, which was just about to start on its trip to Lindsay. He locked himself in a small compartment of the car and remained there until the train pulled out.

The Illinois man passed through yesterday on the return trip. When interviewed by our reporter he said the woman had represented things in a much different light from what he had found them. He is a painter by trade, he been in search of a wife for some time, and this is the second time he has been fooled in an endeavor to get a wife by advertising. A Kansas City woman took him in and he got into a heap of trouble with her, from which it cost him considerable money to free himself.

As the train pulled out a couple of Haliburton gentlemen, in bidding the wife-seeker good-bye, wished him "better luck next time."

AN AFFECTING INCIDENT.

The blue ribbon for pathos belongs, says the Montreal Star, to the New York Journal. In a report in a recent issue, describing the visit of a dozen Boers from Bermuda to the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel on Saturday, the following paragraphs occurs—

'In the art room they came across a handsome bust of George Washington. An immediate quietness fell on the group, and conversation died away. All gazed on the bust in silence. It was the bust of the hero of a glorious cause won, welling up terrible memories in the hearts of living heroes of as glorious a cause lost. Vessels wept. So did young De Wet, the son of the most remarkable campaigner of recent wars."

The sight of Brother Vessels and young De Wet (aged 12) blubbering ove a bust of George Washington must have been truly affecting. There has been nothing equal to it since Mark Twain shed tears over the alleged tomb of Adam.

Vancouver World;— Here is a question for the dear little boys and girls of the third reader—"If it takes 23 sheriffs and deputy sheriffs, 68 specials and two companies of national guardsmen two months and five days to just miss catching one man named Tracey, how long would it have taken the great American republic to have captured De Wet?

NOT JUST AS GOOD

Did you ever inquire at a store for certain articles and get for a reply "We have something just as good"? Did it ever occur to you that "Something just as good" is something the dealer has been able to buy much cheaper than the articles you inquire for? This is true in drugs, fabrics, groceries, hardware, and in fact every line, including silver-plated ware. If you inquire for 1847 Rogers Bros.' Knives, Forks or Spoons, don't accept any bogus Rogers' stamp because your dealer tells you it's just as good.

GROWTH OF A CITY.

How the Capital of the Province Has Become a City of Homes.

It is a significant fact that the building permits issued for the City of Toronto during the past six months of the year represent an increase of more than fifty per cent. over the permits for the corresponding period of last year. The figures for 1901 were $1,154,265, while those for 1902 are $1,901,144. Here we have an increase of $746,879, of which $225,000 is attributed to the new hotel, and $138,500 to the Industrial buildings. Most of the additions to the city are in the residential quarters. We have been making Toronto more than ever a city of homes, says The Toronto Mail, and homes that are in every respect an adornment to the city. That there has been a brisk demand for these new residences is the best possible evidence of the solid growth of Toronto. Population has come in of late years so rapidly that the house accommodation of the city has been greatly overtaxed. It was stated recently that there were some fifteen hundred families in Toronto who had stored their furniture and were boarding because they could not secure suitable dwellings. This is merely an estimate, but it has behind it the fact that vacant houses of a desirable character are no longer allowed to wait for tenants. They are rented and occupied so soon as a tenant moves out. This has not long been the case. A few years ago Toronto was noted for its untenanted houses. We had overbuilt and, for the time, the tide was against us. Not only have those dwellings come into brisk demand, but thousands of structures since erected are now occupied. More than ever before the people of Toronto are becoming their own landlords. The inducements to buy are many, and the difficulty of securing a good house at a rental has increased. During the present season the added cost of material, and the unsettled state of the labor market have militated against extensive operations, but still we are making a remarkable advance. It is not in the nature of a boom, for it is very much within the actual requirements of the city. Toronto has grown and is growing rapidly in population and in wealth. It has large and flourishing industries and great emporiums of trade, which in their own lines serve the whole Dominion. Every increase in the national prosperity makes additional demands upon this city. There is, therefore, abundant reason for recognizing that the growth of this city is of natural and permanent character. We are simply keeping abreast of the times, and those who do that are bound to flourish.

What Toronto Figures Show.

According to the city directory Toronto has 409 disciples of Blackstone.

For her 225,000 inhabitants there are 383 physicians to administer to their physical needs.

Of druggists there are 146, all proprietors of stores well stocked and well kept—not like the apothecary of old with needy shop and a beggarly account of empty boxes.

There are 117 artists, some noted, The others hope to be.

Of banks and bankers there are 34 having several million dollars not theirs.

Architects number just 60, all willing to submit you "plans and specifications" on short notice.

There are 216 barber shops and perhaps four times as many barbers.

Dressmakers number 522.

There are 59 public schools and nearly 800 teachers. There are five special free schools in connection with orphans homes; 10 Separate schools; two industrial schools, under Public school auspices and two under Roman Catholic auspices; one Technical and three High Schools.

Toronto has also six schools and colleges for women; one art school; one language school; three colleges of music; 17 colleges and universities, and seven business colleges.

There are 11 libraries, not including college libraries.

Of churches and religious institutions of all denominations there are 267. Of these 43 are Anglican, 21 Baptist, 9 Congregational, 41 Methodist, 32 Presbyterian, 15 Catholic, 45 miscellaneous denominations, 58 missions and 9 convents.

The Sepoys of India mutinied on six separate occasions before the great mutiny of 1857.

HOSPITAL TREATMENT

Failed to Benefit Mrs. John Potter, of Wellandport,

But Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cured Her, and She is now Enjoying the Best of Health.

It is no uncommon occurrence for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to restore sufferers to health, after doctors, and even the best of hospital treatment, have failed to benefit them. Among those who have been benefitted in this way is Mrs. John Potter, a lady well known in Wellandport, Ont. Speaking about her illness to a reporter, Mrs. Potter said— "About three years ago I was greatly run down. My appetite was poor; I suffered from severe headaches and palpitation of the heart; I was very weak and had a constant feeling of weariness, which no amount of sleep could overcome. At night I perspired freely, and would wake up in the morning in a very enfeebled condition. To make matters worse, my trouble became aggravated with the ailments so common to my sex. I was afflicted with ulcers, and so bad were they that although at different times I had treatment from five doctors, they failed to cure me. I then went to the hospital in Hamilton, and although I received the best treatment that could be given there, I was not benefitted. I returned home very much discouraged, and it was then that I decided that I would try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I got a supply and began taking them, and to my great gratification they soon began to help me, and under their continued use my appetite returned, the headaches and violent palpitation of the heart disappeared, my weight increased, and all the troubles that had made my life so miserable vanished. It will give me great pleasure if my experience will lead some other sufferer to try these pills, as I am sure they will be benefitted."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are equally valuable to both men and women. They cure rheumatism, sciatica, kidney trouble, neuralgia, consumption, heart ailments, female weakness, and sallow cheeks. There are many imitations of this great medicine and the purchaser should always see that the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," is on the wrapper around every box. Sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail post paid at 50c a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by writing direct to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

FASHIONABLE MATERIALS.

Mercerised Cottons, Organdies and China Silks Popular.

Nowadays the cotton gown is without reproach and figures at quite smart functions, for the mercerised effects make it look like silk unless closely scrutinised. Cotton canvas with embroidered spots in white or color has quite the appearance of wool veiling, and when mounted over a taffeta silk foundation and trimmed with lace it is quite suitable for a garden party or an equally dressy occasion.

Organdie muslin this season is as near perfect as it can be. The muslin is clear and silky, and dainty blossoms and figurings in pale tints form the patterns. Designs composed of sprays of green foliage on a white ground make up most admirably over a pale blue foundation when trimmed with square medallions of transparent lace showing glimpses of the silk underskirt.

China and tussore silks much tucked and incrusted with many lace appliques are fashionable in ecru. Pure white gowns of china silk are now all the rage—in fact, they are a trifle overdone.

A pretty chiffon blouse for semi-dressy wear is here shown. The material is black chiffon shirred over a glace silk foundation. The yoke is of cream lace. The satin ribbons on the sleeves and body fasten with bows and tiny rhinestone buckles.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

The First Advertisements.

As early as 1612 the French began to advertise in a paper called The Petites Affiches, and ten years later the first bona fide attempt at printing a newspaper was made in London. Among the very earliest mercantile advertisements to appear in England was one advertising the sale of tea. It appeared in The Mercurius Politicus.

Preserving Old Roman Pharos.

The old Roman pharos at Dover Castle is being roofed in by order of the military authorities, in order to prevent further decay. This interesting relic dates back to a period before the Christian era. It was used by early Romans as a lighthouse.

APOLO KAGWA.

Grand Vizier of Uganda Is Probably the Most Curious Visitor to London to Attend King's Coronation.

Among the colonial representatives in London to attend the coronation one of the most curious was Apolo Kagwa, the Katikiro or Grand Vizier of Uganda and Chief Regent of the kingdom over which Great Britain is protector. He is described as a tall, well-made man, of Bantu features, wearing the picturesque costume of the greater chiefs of Uganda. He is 38 years of age, and traces his descent for fifteen generations. He is unusually intelligent even for the Baganda, and is undoubtedly the strongest man in the country. He has written three books in his own language, one on the history of Uganda, one on folklore and one on the history of his tribe. He was the first to build a tow-storied house in Uganda, and also erected the first brick dwelling. His house is fitted with electric bells, and he is the only native who rides a bicycle.

In the course of conversation with Reuter's representative the Katikiro spoke as follows through the interpreter: "Who ever thought of coming to this country and being greeted so nicely! I was very pleased to be met by Sir Clement Hill. What can I think of the King? To see his head in the distance will be a great thing, for he rules a brave people. It is a great honor to come to see the King. You have such fine roads. Surely this one here must be the road the King comes along."

He said he had been very ill during the sea voyage, and added: "The steamer is a wonderful thing, because it is a house on the water and you can play on it."

Asked about affairs in Uganda, he said: "The country is now very quiet indeed, but there is the awful sleeping sickness. It has killed 40,000 people in Busoga. In the district of Kyagwe 400 dead were counted in two months and 2,000 in six months. I want to see how you build houses in England, so that I can do the same."

The Katikiro's career has been a remarkable one. When quite young he was a page in the Court of King Mtesa, and after that ruler's death rose to the rank of steward under the notorious Mwanga. He always held himself aloof from the barbarities of the earlier days and in consequence was on more than one occasion beaten and tortured by Mwanga. Afterwards Mwanga gave him a chieftainship. Owing to his influence Mwanga signed the treaty with Captain Sir Frederick Lugard in 1890. The Katikiro was head of the forces in the war of 1892, and during the King's flight ruled the country. He has always been noted for his great loyalty, and has invariably stood up for the British, even at his own risk.

KIDNEY TROUBLES OF PAINTERS.

All the Kidney Ills and Ailments From Which Painters Suffer so Much, Rapidly Relieved and Completely Cured by Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets.

Every painter knows the trouble his kidneys give him now and again. The white lead and turpentine are hard on these organs—inflame and irritate them and produce pain in the back, difficulty and pain in urination, scanty and high-coloured urine and many other complications.

There is no remedy can do so much for the kidney troubles of painters as for all kidney ailments, as Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. They soothe and heal the kidneys and correct all urinary irregularities.

Mr. S. Harris, a painter by trade, living at 188 George street, Toronto, has this to say:—

"For some time I suffered from a pain in the back and a stoppage of my water. I have taken one box of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, and they have helped me promptly, and I feel confident they have cured me. I think the Kidney Tablets are a grand thing for the Kidney troubles, to which painters are subject, and I am pleased to recommend them."

If you suffer from backache, bloating, swelling of the feet and legs, puffiness under the eyes, difficulty of urination, pain or distress, brick dust or other deposits, frequent calls during the day or night, dragging pain in the loins, sense of weight or pressure in the region of the bladder, dull aching in the head, mist before the eyes, constipation, gradual failing of the strength, Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets will cure you promptly and permanently, even after common kidney pills have failed to help you. Price, 50c a bottle, or three for $1.25, at all druggists or sent by mail. The Dr. Zias Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont. 7

Ringing in the Ears.

This is an unfailing sign of catarrh, and if not checked will ultimately result in deafness. The simplest remedy is Catarrhozone, which if inhaled for a few times daily prevents the catarrhal condition from spreading. Catarrhozone quickly stops the ringing in the ears and head noises, and gives permanent relief to catarrhal deafness. For Catarrh in any part of the system, Bronchitis, Asthma, Lung or Throat Troubles, Catarrhozone is a specific, and is guaranteed to permanently cure or your money back. Story of Late Dr. Talmage.

The late Dr. Talmage used to tell this as one of his favorite stories: "I was riding in a Brooklyn horse car one day when a very large woman got on. As she went to sit down, the space not being any too much, she overlapped some, and I heard a man on one side mutter under his breath, 'I didn't suppose they carried elephants in these cars.' Immediately the woman jumped up, and, gesticulating wildly in the direction of the rear platform, shouted: 'Conductor! Conductor! There's an elephant and a hog in this car, and the elephant wants to get out.'"

THE BAND IN THE PARK.

A Fine Programme Splendidly Presented.

The beautiful weather of last night attracted a large gathering of beauty and bravery to the beautiful grounds of Victoria Park, and the attraction of beautiful music kept them delighted till 10 o'clock. The Fifty-Seventh Band was in great fettle last night, and presented a nicely balanced programme of music in a really really splendid way. The shading and sweetness were especially commendable, and it is no surprise that the conclusion of each number was followed by enthusiastic applause. The band, under Bandmaster Gliddon's instruction is developing rapidly, every appearance showing improvement in finish and artistic execution. One number of Braga's "Angels' Serenade" was a gem in a setting of charming performance, full of sympathy and feeling of the subject, rather rare in ensemble.

SOLDIERS HOME.

Capt. Strickland, Lieut. Alf. Shaw and Lieut. E. O. Bradburn Have Arrived.

The exact hour of the arrival in Peterborough of the local representatives on the 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th Canadian Mounted Rifles was not known to the citizens of the town, so that the arrival of each train from Montreal has been very eagerly watched. It was the general opinion that the boys would arrive home at 5.10 o'clock yesterday afternoon, per C.P.R., and a large crowd assembled at the station. The train was an hour late, but the people on the station platform did not mind that and when the train steamed into the station three of four hundred people were there to greet the boys. There was general disappointment expressed however, when it was learned that only a few of the Peterborough town boys arrived.

Those who got off at the local station were Messrs. Chas. Gow, Herbert Payne, J. H. Chapman, —— Forsythe, Walter Hodgson and Harvey Hartley. There must have been four or five hundred men on board, most of whom were on their way to Toronto and points west.

This morning saw quite a few townspeople at the C.P.R. station. The express which is due here at 5 o'clock was an hour and a half late, but when it arrived it brought D'Arcy Strickland, late inspector of the North West Mounted Police, Lieut. E. O. Bradburn, Lieut. A.E. Shaw, of Millbrook, Sgt. V. LeBar, Corp. John Strickland and Pte. Kemp.

Corp. Strickland brought with him a handsome little monkey, which afforded great amusement to the guests around the Oriental this morning.

Lieut. Bradburn appeared to be in the best of health, and says that while they did not see much of the country, still they had a pleasant trip.

The remainder of the Peterborough boys, including Pte. Burnham and Pte. Morden, will arrive this afternoon.

GIFT OF THE CHOIR.

A Tea and Dinner Service Presented to Miss Taylor.

A very handsome tea and dinner service has been presented to Miss Ida Taylor by the members of the Murray street Baptist church choir. The gift was sent to her residence to-day, accompanied by the following address :

Peterborough, Ont., July 31.

Dear Miss Taylor, — Having heard of your approaching marriage your fellow members of the choir of the Murray street Baptist church, feel that they cannot permit the occasion to pass without offering your their warmest congratulations and best wishes for a long and very happy married life.

We recall the fact that for so many years you have cheerfully rendered very valuable assistance in our service of praise and thanksgiving and while of course we deeply regret your leaving the choir we trust that in your future home you will find opportunities of similarly assisting some other church.

As a token of our appreciative esteem, we ask your acceptance of the accompanying dinner and tea service and hope that it will often bring to your recollection your old choir friends here and further we hope that when both we and you are done with earthly songs, we shall meet again to sing the New Song which will be everlasting.

We remain on behalf of the choir,
Very affectionately yours,
C. B. ROUTLEY, President,
G. K. MARTIN, Secretary.

All work for the afternoon scorning.

—There was a very large attendance at the weekly band concert of the 57th Regiment last night.

—Mr. Daniel O'Connel, acting on behalf of Minnie Cromlay, is applying at Osgoode Hall on August 5th for her release from jail. She was committed last week for keeping a house of ill-fame.

—The Trusts and Guarantee Company, Limited, 14 King street west, Toronto, accepts all classes of trust funds, whether under will, marriage settlement or agreement. As the company has perpetual existence, its clients have the assurance that the terms of the trust will be carried out, no matter what period they cover without changing the trustee, which so often occurs when a private individual has been appointed in that capacity.

—The Omemee Mirror says:— Mr. Samuel English, proprietor of the Victoria House, Keene, Ont., and the Idyl Wyld Hotel, recently had published a very neat folding card which gives an accurate description of that beautiful and healthful summer resort—Idyl Wyld. Mr. English extends a hearty invitation to those who purpose visiting Idyl Wyld to call on him, and has the reputation of keeping a first-class and orderly house, the public can count on having their wants well looked after. We congratulate Mr. English upon his enterprise, and also the Examiner upon the up-to-date card referred to above.

SUMMER SPORT OF EVERY SORT.

BOWLING-ON-THE-GREEN.

The 14th annual tournament of the Ontario Lawn Bowling Association, which will be attended by a number of Peterborough bowlers, will be held on the lawn of the Queen's Royal Hotel, Niagara-on-the-Lake, on Tuesday, August 19th, 1902, and following days. Play will begin at 10 a.m.

The lawn of the Queen's Royal has been taken up, levelled and relaid, and the Committee promise that no effort or expense will be spared to have the Greens in perfect condition for the tournament.

The bowlers' trophy, subscribed for by the affiliated clubs of the Association, will be offered for competition for the first time. The trophy is made of Sterling Silver, of a handsome design. Great interest will undoubtedly be centered in the competition for the trophy, from the fact that it will become the property of the club whose representatives win it twice.

The committee have increased the prize list by adding two events—a Rink Consolation and Novice Single Competition. A gold medal will be presented to each member of the championship rink.

Mr. C. T. Mead, President of the Association, has generously offered gold medals for the Doubles Championship.

Other handsome and valuable prizes are offered for the different competitions, notably the first prize in the Singles—a pair of Bronze figures.

Arrangements have been made with the G. T. R. and C.P.R. for special Convention Railway Rates for Bowlers and their friends. Visitors are required to purchase one single one way full fare ticket to Toronto and to obtain at the same time an ordinary Standard Convention Certificate, which must be handed to the Secretary at Niagara, who will endorse the certificate, entitling the visitor to return home at one-third of a full single fare.

A reduced rate of 50c has been secured from the Niagara Navigation Co., for the round trip from Toronto to Niagara. Boats leave Toronto 7 a.m., 9 a.m., 11 a.m., 2 p.m., and 4.45 p.m.

Special rates have been arranged for at the Queen's Royal Hotel at $2.50 per day.

The Annual Meeting of the Association will be held in the Pavilion, Tuesday, August 19th, at 8 p.m. sharp, for the receiving of annual reports, election of officers, for ensuing year, and other regular business. Unusual interest will be added to this meeting as numerous amendments to the playing rules will be brought up for discussion.

A Banquet and Smoking Concert will be held in the ball room of the Queen's Royal, Wednesday evening, August 20th. Good talent will be provided for the Bowlers' entertainment and an enjoyable evening may be expected.

Entries close on Friday, August 15th. Clubs are requested to send in their entries as early as possible in order to assist the Committee in making their final arrangements.

BASKET-BALL.

Judging from present appearances Basket ball will boom at the Y.M.C.A. this winter. Thursday evening the Colts met and organized for the season. The club suits are to be red and white. The following officers were elected—

Hon. President—G. H. Williamson.
President—J. H. Connal.
Sec.-Treas.—Howard Humphries.
Captain—Fred Howson.
Manager—E. A. Frowde.
Team—Fred Howson, centre; Lou. Johnston and Ed. Searight, defence; Ira Moore and H. Humphries, forwards.

LACROSSE.

Lacrosse is booming again in Marmora. Arrangements are being made for a match in Picton on Aug. 28th, and a game between Marmora and Hastings, which will in all probability by a hot contest, has been booked to take place at the R. C. Picnic in Havelock on Sept. 1st.

Hastings defeated Millbrook in that town yesterday by a score of 6 to 1.

Orillia plays the T.A.S. team on the Murray street school grounds on Monday afternoon.

The T.A.S. team will probably take a trip out of town on Coronation Day Aug. 9th.

HOCKEY.

Port Hope Guide—It begins to look as if Peterborough was to have a rink at last. They are holding meetings down there, getting good men interested and stock subscribed. The days of the soup plate are evidently past, and one of the fastest young organizations of hockeyists in the world is to have ice fit to play on. Now, why can't Port Hope get a move on in the same direction?

BASEBALL.

To the Editor of the Examiner,—

Dear Sir, — In Friday's issue of your paper we noticed an account of a game of baseball on the Nicholls oval on Thursday night, but it did not look like fair play to one who witnessed the game that night. In the first two innings the ball could be seen fairly well but in the remaining three innings it could not be seen at all. The game was won for the Baking Powder team by costly errors on the part of the Auburns, and at all stages of the game Flaherty was batted all over the field. The Auburns were badly handicapped by not having their regular players. The Excelsiors think at any rate they stick together, and in fact they already think they are fly paper. There is a rumour that their battery is corresponding with Manager Barrow of the Toronto senior team, but we think at they will still stick together. They seem to feel sore on the Auburns for not giving them a cheer, but they would like another game with the Excelsiors, with their regular team on any date satisfactory to both teams.

Yours, etc.,
AN EYE WITNESS.

MATTERS MILITARY

BY SENTRY.

It is not the intention of the officer commanding the local garrison to order a parade of the same on the occasion of the return to Peterborough of the local representatives on the 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th C.M.R. The reason assigned for this is that in view of the fact that the heroes of the Harts River engagement on the 2nd C.M.R. reached Peterborough unexpectedly, and received no public reception, although such was certainly intended, it would be rather superfluous to parade the local garrison to the station to meet those who did not see any actual warfare, and who, in fact, returned in a week or so after landing in South Africa. This action appears to be pretty thoroughly endorsed by the public, although every person recognizes fact that the members of the 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th Regiments went prepared to do their duty, and it was no fault of theirs if they did not have the smell of powder nor hear the deadly screech of the shell.

The many friends in Peterborough of Mr. Robert McMahon of Millbrook, will regret to hear that he is dangerously ill at his home. Mr. McMahon was for many years the competent and popular Sergt.-Major of the 14th Durham Field Battery.

The Peterborough Rangers will not leave Peterborough on Coronation Day. Had the Belleville citizens gone ahead with their celebration, and, as intended, put on a military review, the Rangers would have been there. However, it may be just as well, for the present is a very poor time to muster a regiment. It then appears to be a certainty that the annual trip of the Rangers will take place on Labour Day.

Matters are decidedly quiet at present in local military circles, and the attendance at the ranges on Saturdays is slim.

The Ross rifle which has been adopted by the Canadian Government, uses the same cartridge as the present British Army rifle, but has several advantages over it. One of these is that the wood of the stock comes down flush with the magazine, so that it is possible to "slope arms" after the old and comfortable fashion. The method of carrying the Lee-Enfield sideways at the "slope," which is necessitated by the obtrusion of the magazine, at the place which would naturally rest on the shoulder, proves excessively tireing to the wrist and hand during a long march and also tends to cause a marked unsteadiness in any firing that has to be done subsequently.

The bolt of the rifle is of the front-lock straight pull variety, a single rectilinear movement backwards and forwards serving to lock and unlock the breach action and cock the firing pin. This simplicity of operation, which is very marked in firing the rifle as compared with the usual turning bolt, is attained by making bolt head separate from the main portion of the bolt, the two emerging by a series of volute curves in such a manner that the pushing home of the bolt rotates the head, so that two lugs upon it enter into corresponding recesses in the front end of the breach shoe as in the turning bolt system, and vice versa, the withdrawal of the bolt rotates the head so as to free the lugs. Connected with the bolt is an improved cartridge extractor.

The trigger is arranged so that it will work even if both the trigger spring and sear spring are broken.

The magazine is of a compact form kept flush with the woodwork of the rifle. It consists of a metal box, into which the cartridges, five in number, can be dropped haphazard on to a platform depressed for that purpose by hand the arrangement of the cartridges in proper zig-zag fashion ready for firing, being accomplished automatically, or at worst, assisted by a slight shaking of the platform. In addition it permits the use of a chip or charger such as is adopted in the Mannlicher and Mauser rifles. An indicator shows the number of cartridges in the magazine at any time.

The cartridges are put up in bunches of five, in tin, or cardboard boxes, so made that by a single motion the cover is stripped off, and the cartridges poured into the magazine. This makes very quick loading possible and prevents loss of ammunition.

The rifle was subjected to very severe tests by the Canadian Government, and these were entirely successful. One of the tests was the firing of five hundred rounds as quickly as possible; this was done in 19 minutes and 4 seconds, or at the rate of 26 shots a minute; one lot of 50 rounds being fired in 92 seconds. At the close of the test the woodwork was charred and smouldering from the heat of the barrel, but the rifle was in perfect working order. It is claimed that the Lee-Enfield rifle cannot be fired half as quickly as the Ross.

The length of the rifle with its bayonet is 56 1-2 inches, without it 48 in. Its weight with bayonet is 8 pounds 34 ounces; without it 7 pounds 9 oz.

Lord Roberts has ordered that tests be made of the Ross rifle with a view of bringing its merits before the Small Arms Committee, appointed by the War Office, and it is possible that it may be adopted as the British army rifle.

The Ottawa Free Press says; "So the 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th Regiments, Canadian Mounted Rifles, will not be allowed war medals by the Imperial Government, nor will they get a war gratuity. This is to be regretted for the men certainly deserve some recognition, and this action on the part of the Imperial War Office authorities will be an unkind cut and one of which the men are not deserving. They should at least get the medal, for they enlisted with the best of intentions to serve their country, and made the same sacrifices as did their comrades in the previous contingents. If the War Office will not recognize them to this extent, something should be done by the Canadian Government to make up for the omission. The Fenian Raid veterans received medals, and many of them, in fact most of them, never saw action, moving a hundred miles or so away from headquarters and going into camp. Then why should not these men, who enlisted in good faith, and who travelled over the ocean for a month and braved the dangers of the deep, receive similar recognition? Here is new work for the medal claims board and the issuing should begin at once, so that there would be no difficulty experienced in securing proper and necessary identification."

Unless Lord Dundonald is a man of abundant good sense he is likely to be led into the errors that have been committed by most of his predecessors, who acted on the idea that this being a colony ours was but a miniature parliament and a make-believe Government, and that real authority was represented by the Governor-General, and such other Imperial officers or agents as might be over here. This is about the view that Major-General Hutton entertained, and it proved his undoing, as it did that of some who preceded him in command of the Canadian militia.

Lord Dundonald brings no authority with him. He possesses none but what the Canadian Department of Militia deputes to him. He is as clearly an official of the Canadian service as if he had been born in Ottawa and had got all his military training at Batoche or Cut Knife creek. He is subject to the Militia Department as directly as any postmaster is subject to the Post Office Department.

And yet a leading Montreal newspaper sends a reporter to meet him at Quebec with the information that the people of Canada are taking a keen interest in his coming and will watch eagerly the reorganization of our militia, which they think he was "especially sent out to accomplish." Over a column of this kind of talk is placed a large heading, saying, "Lord Dundonald arrives to remodel Canadian militia."

A PICTURESQUE SCENE.

Britain's New Colonists, the Boers, in a New Attitude.

One of the most picturesque scenes of the conclusion of the great war, is depicted in the above sketch. British soldiers and Boers sat around blazing bonfires at Pretoria and sang "The Old Folks at Home," "Bonnie Doon," "Auld Lang Syne," and other songs in the heartiest possible manner, and as earnest of their friendship for the future.

BRITISH AND BOER SING TOGETHER.

Kitchener Knew.

A British army officer writing to relatives just before the declaration of peace in South Africa, said:

"We who have been close to Lord Kitchener in this tedious struggle—that is, near to him in a physical sense, for no one gets close enough to him to get in touch with his thought—have observed three stages or moods in his South African career.

"When he came here, in answer to questions as to when the war would be ended, he would say, with confidence:

"'When we have whipped the Boers.'

"A year later the same question visibly annoyed him, and he would answer shortly:

"'When the Boers learn that they've been whipped.'

"But lately our commander, whose face expresses intolerable weariness, has changed the form of his reply to this continuous question, and, says:

"'When we have found a feasible way to reconcile the Boers to being whipped.'"

BLOATING.

An Extremely Unpleasant Symptom of Stomach Trouble—Its Cause and Cure.

Flatulence or Bloating is the immediate result of poor digestion.

The food taken into the stomach for some reason remains wholly or partially undigested, and in a very short time fermentation commences.

All fermentation is really a kind of decomposition, and this process always gives off gas.

Every housewife is familiar with the results of this gas caused by fermentation, and almost everyone has had experience illustrating the tremendous pressure exercised by this gas when confined.

As soon as fermentation commences in the stomach this gas begins to rise, distending the walls of the stomach and forcing itself downward into the bowels and freuently upward to the mouth, giving a sense of sourness, and a burning sensation.

It is this gas that causes that "full feeling" after meals, so often complained of by those whose digestions are weak.

Nothing is so distressing as this smothering sensation, caused by the distension of the stomach by gas.

There is a way to prevent this fermentation, and the consequent bloating.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, if taken immediately after meals, will insure a complete and perfect digestion of all the food in the stomach—every particle of it—and if there is no undigested food there can be no fermentation, and consequently no gas or bloating.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are composed of the best digestives known to medical science, and these complete the work of digestion without any assistance from the stomach, thus giving this overworked organ rest and an opportunity for restoration.

A short treatment soon brings the Stomach back to its normal healthy condition, after which the use of the tablets may be discontinued.

The Orange In Spain.

It is considered a very healthful thing to eat an orange before breakfast. But who can eat an orange well? One must go to Spain to see that done. The senorita cuts off the rind with her silver knife, then, putting her fork into the peeled fruit, she detaches every morsel with her pearly teeth and continues to eat the orange without losing a drop of the juice and lays down the core with the fork still in it.

CHANGES IN CUT.

Sleeves Are Larger—Godet Flounces Still in Favor.

There are few important changes in the cut of gowns. Godet flounces are still in favor for skirts, but mostly graduate from narrow fronts to a deeply trained back. All thin textures are much flounced, and the three tier skirt is much worn in silk and wool materials or in the very thin cloth and woolens of the summer season.

Lace is employed on nearly all summer gowns and is much threaded with ribbon, even lace gowns being decorated in this style. Irish crochet lace is very fashionable, although it is too heavy for muslin gowns.

Sleeves are undoubtedly growing larger, and this increase has encroached well above the elbow, but the newest sleeves have only a small top piece which fits the arm. The tight portion is trimmed or bordered in some fashion, and the lower part is arranged in quite a different style. The plain elbow sleeve is no longer quite the thing. It must have a puff at the elbow or a fall of lace in the shape of a graduated ruffle.

A smart foulard gown for a girl is here illustrated. The waist has a yoke of tucked mousseline de soie and a simulated bolero effect of tucking. Velvet ribbon is apparently passed behind the box plaits of the waist. The sleeves are tucked and have full wrist puffs. The skirt is plain, with the exception of three ruffles.

JUDIC CHOLLET

A Really Poor Author.

When Dr. Johnson was a resident of Grub street, he made the acquaintance of a poet named Samuel Boyse, whose poem on the Deity and other works had earned him high praise. Boyse could not go abroad to seek work because his clothes were in pawn, so he lay abed with his arms thrust through two holes in the insective blanket, which was the only covering, writing and starving. Johnson raised enough money to get his clothes for him, but two days later Boyse was in bed again, eating a stew of beef and mushrooms purchased by the repawning of his suit. "I might as well eat while I may," he said, "for I must some day starve, whether I will or not."

Ancient Gold.

In olden times gold was obtained abundantly from the rivers of Asia. The sands of Pactolus, the golden fleece secured by the Argonauts, the yellow metal of Ophir, the fable of King Midas, all illustrate the eastern origin of gold. Alexander the Great brought nearly $500,000,000 of gold from Persia. Gold also came from Arabia and from the middle of Africa by way of the Nile. But all of these famous sources of supply were long ago exhausted.

"FORGET AND FORGIVE."

"Work Under the Flag, the Free and Glorious Union Jack."

"He implored them to forget and forgive, and to work under the flag, the free and glorious Union Jack."

These are not Kitchener's words, nor Milner's, nor the words of any Englishman to his fellow-countrymen. They are the words of the new-made Briton, General Schalk Burger, former Vice-President of the Transvaal Republic, addressed to some hundreds of his fellow-Boers in one of the concentration camps.

Much as there has been to admire throughout the war in the steadfast courage, the tenacity and the self-sacrifice of the Boers, they deserve equally our admiration in the wholeheartedness, with which, so far as appears from cabled statements of their leaders they are disposed to assist in the rehabilitation of their stricken country.

It is a paradox, perhaps that one who a year ago was vehemently urging that his countrymen would never live under the British flag, should now describe that flag as "the free and glorious Union Jack," and look forward to peaceful prosperity under its aegis. General Botha, too, we are told, remarked that the day he signed the treaty, was "the happiest of his life since he left school." The change in sentiment is remarkable. We not concern ourselves as to the psychological process by which it was accomplished. It is sufficient for us that we find these new citizens of the empire sympathetic, cordial, and—strange as it seems to use the word in such a connection—loyal. We share in General Schalk Burger's hopes for the future of his country, and in his appreciation of "the free and glorious Union Jack."

Strange Ideas of Feminine Beauty.

An African beauty must have small eyes, thick lips, a large, flat nose and a skin beautifully black. In New Guinea the nose is perforated and a large piece of wood or bone inserted On the northwest coast of America an incision more than two inches long is made in the lower lip and then filled with a wooden plug. In Guinea the lips are pierced with thorns, the head of the thorn being inside the mouth and the point resting on the chin.

Cricket as She Saw It.

A German schoolgirl thus describes the English game of cricket: "It is very good for the exercising of the limbs, besides they learn to obey orders and not to quarrel. The cricket court consists of a great lawn and a little tents, where the players repose themselves or where are the places of the audience, which has to pay a little money before they are permitted to regard the elevens. Now the baller sends a ball, the batter who is standing before the wicket has to send it abroad. If the ball knocks down the wickets, the baller and the backstop make their runs," etc.

But the gem of the article is the moral reflection made at the end of it by the juvenile essayist: "When they are thirsty, they go into the tents to drink a glass of brandy, then they are drunk, and their parents scolds; poor boys, I would not allow my children to play such a stupid game."

Had Headache Nearly all the Time

An Extreme Case of Exhaustion and Nervous Headache—Wonderful Restorative Influence of

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

There are scores of women in nearly every community in Canada suffering as Mrs. Miles did, from frequent attacks of nervous headache. No local treatment can prove of lasting benefit. The system must be strengthened and invigorated and the most effective way to do this is by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. The cure not only certain, but lasting.

Mrs. John Miles, 236 Wellington street, Ottawa, Ont., whose husband is employed with Davidson & Thackray, lumber dealers, states:—"I was very weak, had no strength or energy, and suffered nearly all the time with headache, in fact, I had headache for three whole days just before beginning to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I was also troubled a great deal with shooting pains across the small of the back. Under this treatment my health has been wonderfully improved. The headaches are a thing of the past, the pains in my back are cured, and I feel strong and healthy. As an evidence of restored strength I may say that I am now able to do all my housework without becoming exhausted."

THE KING'S DOCTORS

THEY ARE THE MOST DISTINGUISHED PHYSICIANS IN ENGLAND.

Specialists in Every Form of Disease, From Skin Affections to the Most Complex Maladies of the Intestines—Their Honorary Titles Would Take Up More Space Than the First Bulletin They Issued From the King's Bedside.

The five names signed to the official medical bulletins concerning the condition of King Edward are the names of the most distinguished doctors in England. Their honorary titles would in each case take up more space than the first bulletin they issued from the King's bedside. Among them are specialists in every form of disease, from skin affections to complex maladies of the intestines.

Sir Frederick Treves, most famous of these physicians, and who himself performed the operation, is forty-nine years old. He is one of the greatest living authorities on abdominal diseases. He received his medical education at the London Hospital, and at a very early age, he became prominent in anatomy, pathology and surgery. At 30 he was the only man of his age who ever held two professions in the Royal College of Surgeons, those of anatomy and pathology. He gained the Jacksonian prize in 1883 for a long treatise on "Intestinal Obstruction." He has written copiously on surgery. He is a Baronet, a Knight Commander of the Royal Victorian Order, Companion of the Bath Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons, Knight of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem. Sergeant Surgeon to his Majesty, the King, Surgeon-in-Ordinary to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, consulting surgeon and emeritus professor of surgery in the London Hospital, late Surgeon Extraordinary to her Majesty Queen Victoria, consulting surgeon in the South African field forces, late with the Ladysmith column, and member of numerous medical societies.

Lord Joseph Lister, whose name was signed first to the bulletins, is Sergeant Surgeon-in-Ordinary to his Majesty, and he was Surgeon Extraordinary to the late Queen. He is famous for having perfected the antiseptic treatment of surgical cases. He has received numerous honorary degrees such as LL.D., M.D., D.C.L., and B.Sc. He was created a Baronet in 1883 and a Baron in 1897. He was President of the Royal Society from 1895 to 1900, and is now President of the British Association for the Promotion of Science. He is 75 years old.

Sir Thomas Smith, Honorary Sergeant Surgeon to the King, is sixty-nine years old. He is a consulting surgeon in numerous hospitals, and was created a Baronet in 1897. He has achieved considerable reputation for scientific articles entitled "The Treatment of the Ruptured Perinæum" and "The Surgical Treatment of Intra-peritoneal Injuries." He is a specialist upon the kind of trouble from which the King is now suffering. He is a Knight Commander of the Royal Victorian Order, a Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons, and Honorary Secretary of the Royal Medical and Chirurgical Society.

Sir Francis Henry Laking is what might be called the King's family physician. His official title is Physician-in-Ordinary and Surgeon Apothecary-in-Ordinary to his Majesty. He is also Apothecary-in-Ordinary to his Majesty's household, Surgeon Apothecary to his Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales and his household, and Surgeon Apothecary to the Duke of Connaught. He is a consulting physician at many hospitals and was once house physician at St. George's Hospital. He has made a specialty of children's and skin diseases. He is a Baronet, a Knight Commander of the Royal Victorian Order, a graduate of the Heidelberg University medical department, and fifty-five years old.

Sir Thomas Barlow was Physician Extraordinary to the late Queen Victoria, and is now the physician to his Majesty's household. He is professor of clinical medicine and physician to University College Hospital, medical advisor to the British Museum, Secretary of the Royal British and Chirurgical Society, a Knight Commander of the Royal Victorian Order, Fellow of the Royal Order of Physicians, and consulting physician to a number of hospitals. He is a specialist in intestinal diseases.

A GREAT WAR SPECIAL.

Closing Years of the Late Archibald Forbes—A Manly Fellow.

I was glad to read of Lord Wolseley's unveiling of the monument to Archibald Forbes in St. Paul's the other day. For Forbes was one of the ornaments of his profession. No man brought greater gifts to the work of a war correspondent than he did; knowledge of soldiering acquired when he was in the ranks himself, tremendous daring, unfailing resource, inexhaustible energies, the promptitude of a born commander of men and events, and then, at the top of it all, a singularly bright and picturesque pen. There was roughness of vigor rather than elegance in his writing; he was incapable, for instance, of reaching anything like the brilliance of style that was attained by poor G. W. Steevens. But no man could give you better—or as well—the throbbing and terrible sensations of the battle field.

Forbes was at heart one of the kindest of men, but he had the defects of his qualities. Indeed, there was a certain dash of the swashbuckler about him—especially in the days when he was making his name. I remember hearing him one night during the Russo-Turkish war times, make a speech at a public dinner which was a challenge—a very eloquent and vigorous challenge—to all those present who differed from him about public events as they were then, and I have heard some stories of brusqueness—almost arrogance—when he was in the midst of campaigning. But this was only the outward shell. Underneath it all, he was a fearless, good-hearted, manly fellow.

In his closing years life had but little joy for Archibald Forbes. The hardships of campaigning, and reckless disregard of his health, brought their Nemesis; and he was an invalid, subject, I believe also, to hours of poignant pain. There was something very pathetic in this great strong man brought low by illness and pain. He used to resent, however, any allusion to his state of health in any public notice of him. I was once warned by an intimate friend of his to be most careful not even to allude to his delicate health in something I happened to be writing about him.—From M.A.P.

WHEN DOES DEAFNESS BECOME INCURABLE ?

The unfavourable opinions expressed by Aurists, in long standing cases of deafness, no doubt prevent many afflicted persons from seeking relief for ear diseases and defective hearing, but according to a late number of The Journal for the Deaf, in justice to the latest forms of treatment, it is high time these opinions were reversed. As evidence in support of this assertion, the Editor issues a Supplement, containing upwards of forty cases cured by a special method, the Drouet Treatment, and points out that many of these cases were taken under treatment after other means had failed. Perhaps the most interesting case is that of Miss A. E. Burrows, who had defective hearing for nearly thirty years, which had increased during the last five years, until the deafness was extreme. The patient attended a celebrated London hospital for a twelvemonth, and also a private specialist for eighteen months.

It would doubtless be wronging her previous medical attendants to say that they did not devote to her case the best prescriptions they could formulate, and when we consider side by side the facts that on the one hand two years and a half of treatment administered by Aurists, of presumably the highest skill, gave absolutely no satisfactory results, and on the other hand that a perfect cure was effected by the Drouet Institute in less than a quarter of this length of time, it is impossible not to draw the conclusion that the Drouet treatment is the most successful method. It is only necessary to read the patient's last report to feel satisfied that the cure is of a permanent character.

167 Verney-road, Rotherithe New-road, London, England, April 28th, 1902.

Dear Sir,—I am sorry I did not write to you before, but I thought it best to try first and see if the cure was permanent, as after trying so many doctors and the ear hospital, I was afraid to make too sure about it, but it is quite a relief to say that it is cured. Yours truly,

A. E. BURROWS.

Those who are interested in deafness or diseases of the ear, nose or throat, can obtain a free copy of the Journal for the Deaf, with a Supplement, by addressing the secretary, Drouet Institute, 72 Regent's Parkrow, N.W., London, England. Each Journal is accompanied by a patient's report form, which enables applicants to receive full particulars for applying the treatment at home. Any advice by correspondence is absolutely free.

Bobs and Kitchener.

"Oh, yes," he said, "Bobs and Kitchener comes along sometimes. My colonial y' oughter see the difference at the stations, though! W'en 'Bobs' ' train pulls up, he gets out and strolls along the platform, an' everybody knocks off work so's to come up an' have a look at him.

"He jes' walks about among the crowd, talkin' to 'em like me an' you would. Asks 'em how thy're gettin' on for rations, an' so on. 'Course he's never familiar, or anything like that—y' can always see he's boss—an' if he notices anything wrong, he lets 'em know quick an' lively—but he seems to be more of a friend ti everybody than anything else.

"But when 'Herbert' steps out of his carriage, there's hardly a soul on the platform —they're all away diggin' trenches, or mountin' guns, or scoutin' round the county—any blessed thing, so long as he can see 'em workin'. Lord help 'em if they ain't. W'y I b'lieve if Kitchener was to be given command of Heaven's gates, he'd jes' as soon Stellenbosch Peter, spite of all his long service, supposin' he caught him nappin' any warm afternoon!" — "Tommy Cornstalk," by J. H. Abbott.

No Need to Worry.

Mark Twain and the Prince.

While he was in England Mark Twain says his head was once taxed as gasworks. He wrote Queen Victoria a friendly letter of protest: "I don't know you, but I've met your son. He was at the head of a procession in the Strand, and I was on a bus."

Years afterwards he met the Prince of Wales, now King Edward VII., at Homburg. They had a long walk and talk together. When bidding him goodby, the Prince said: "I am glad to have met you again."

This remark troubled Twain, who feared that he had been mistaken for someone else. He communicated this suspicion to the Prince who replied: "Why, don't you remember when you met me in the Strand, and I was at the head of a procession and you were in a bus?"

Time Is Money.

Anxious Wife—Mr. Dunner has called again for that money you owe. I wish you'd see about it, or something dreadful will happen. He says he won't wait—any—longer—as—time—is—money! Calm Husband—So it is, my love. I'd forgotten. Tell him I'll pay him—in time.—Punch.

A "Promising" Case.

Rummager, K.C.—You say the defendant put his arm round your waist and kissed you passionately? Didn't you do anything to prevent him? Fair Plaintiff—Oh—no! He might have stopped if I had.

MAMMOTH PRIZE COMPETITION

TO BE HELD IN CONNECTION WITH

GOLD SOAP $2,500.00 IN PRIZES.

In order to get thousands of people in all parts of the country to see how pure and economical GOLD SOAP is for all manner of washing and cleaning, the manufacturers have decided to hold a Mammoth Prize Competition, to start May 15th, 1902, and end November 15th, 1902. The prizes will be awarded to the persons sending in the greatest number of Gold Soap Wrappers before November 15th, 1902. A full list of prizes will be found below, and all those who do not win a prize will receive a regular Gold Soap premium in return for their wrappers—varying in value according to the number of wrappers sent in. The manufacturers of Gold Soap could not afford to offer such an astounding inducement to the public, were it not for the fact that they feel sure that once Gold Soap is tried it will be used constantly, as no good housekeeper would think of going back to one of the common, impure soaps, after using the soap that is "worth its weight in gold." GOLD Soap is the purest, handiest, and most economical soap that it is possible to make, and if used constantly will keep down expense, make the washing more quickly and easily done, and will bring the clothes out beautifully white. In the following list

THERE ARE 5,213 PRIZES.

If you start now to save your Gold Soap wrappers, you will have quite a lot by November, and you will then share in the big Gold Soap competition. Do not be afraid to send in your wrappers, no matter how many you may have, because you are certain to receive a prize or a regular Gold Soap premium.

Please note that you are not asked to send any money or do any work of any kind—simply use the best Soap in the world, save the wrappers, and we send you a prize or a premium. This is the greatest offer ever made to the public, and will make GOLD SOAP known from ocean to ocean—and wherever it is known it is liked and recommended.

Of course, if you prefer to have one of the regular Gold Soap premiums that are described on the backs of the wrappers, you may send in your Gold Soap wrappers at any time, with a note telling which premium you wish. All Gold Soap premiums are guaranteed, so you don't take the slightest risk.

DIRECTIONS—Save your Gold Soap Wrappers and send them into Gold Soap, Toronto, marked, "Competition," before November 15th, 1902, with your own name and address enclosed. The prizes will be sent out on November 24th, with a full list of the winners. You may send your wrappers in at any time, so long as your name and address come along with each lot. Do not send in the whole wrapper, but just the centre part, with the words "Gold Soap, Good as Gold."

Corticelli

SPOOL SILK

For dressmaking and family sewing Corticelli Silk is the best silk made. For hand or machine use it has no equal. Corticelli Silk runs smoothly in the needle; it is always even in size and always full length and full strength.

Ask your dealer for "Corticelli" and politely but firmly refuse all substitutes, which some clerk may say are "just as good." You may be sure they all lack the many qualities of the genuine Corticelli Silk. If your dealer does not keep Corticelli Silk, it is probably because he makes a little more money selling you some other brand. As Corticelli costs YOU no more than poor silk, why don't you try it? Ask for Corticelli—the Dressmakers' Favourite Spool Silk.

A Liberal Education.

Cornell's president, J. G. Schuman, speaking on education, recently said:

"The indispensable materials of a liberal education are, first of all, the humanities, and, secondly, the sciences of nature, including mathematics as the key, to which must be added, philosophy, the fundamental doctrine of both nature and man.

"As to the humanities, I am unwilling to dogmatize, for no one can study all the languages, literature, history and political science now offered at our universities. I put first, however, the English language and literature, and the history of our own country. And next to these I would put one ancient language and one modern. I believe that Latin and German would be a better combination than Latin and Greek. And I am myself so much impressed with the lesson of old Athenian culture that I think a liberal education quite possible without either."

The Skin on Fire.

So dreadful are the sensations of burning, itching eczema, that victims frequently describe their sufferings by saying that the skin is all on fire. The stinging, biting fires of eczema are quenched by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. The first few applications may cause a little uneasiness, but cure is sure to result and the skin is healed without scar or blemish.

PUPILS SAY FAREWELL TO MISS MARGUERITE O'CONNELL.

The Norwood Register says: The pupils of S. S. No. 6, assembled at the residence of Mr. D. Hurley, on Monday evening last to say farewell to their most esteemed teacher, Miss O'Connell, and to express in a tangible way their lively appreciation of the excellent training they had received under her wise and noble guidance. On behalf of the pupils, the following address was read in a very touching manner by Miss Florence Hurley:

To Miss M. E. O'Connell, from the pupils of No. 6, Asphodel.

Dear Teacher,—It is with a feeling of deepest regret that we have come to say "Farewell," knowing you are about to sever your connection with us. We do not now address you as our teacher but as our friend, our dear, trusted and much tried friend, for how often have we tried your patience and forbearance. For upwards of four years you have worked zealously in our interests, guiding and instructing us so successfully as to merit the appreciation of parents as well as pupils. We will ever look back to the time you spent amongst us as a time of happiness and pleasure since your kindness and amiability have rendered it so and our studies have been made easy by your patient endeavours.

We would ask you to accept this little gift as a slight token of the love and respect we bear you, and although we are to be separated let us assure you that you will ever be remembered by your pupils, and our united wish is for your future happiness and prosperity.

Signed on behalf of the pupils,
FLORENCE HURLEY,
MAGGIE HORE,
JENNIE BUCK.

Miss Jennie Buck then came forward and presented Miss O'Connell with a beautiful gold watch guard. Needless to say the zealous young teacher was so completely taken by surprise, that she could scarcely give utterance to the intensity of her feelings, especially as every eye was filled with tears. Though loath to leave the dear pupils of No. 6, she considered it a great pleasure and recompence to know that they had appreciated her humble endeavours, as evidently manifested on this occasion.

Her very appropriate and feeling response was concluded in the following beautiful lines:

"A soft voice is whispering—'though we part,
Affection's wreath is twined around each heart,'
And until memory's brightest sun has set
These happy hours we never will forget,
And now though bound as if by magic spell,
Dear pupils, we must say "farewell."

A very dainty supper was then served to the children on the lawn after which they enjoyed all sorts of enthusiastic games.

Miss O'Connell's departure is to be regretted not only by her pupils, who have undoubtedly found a way to her affections, but by the entire community in which she was a general favourite.

WHERE IS THE RUBE?

(Ridgetown Plaindealer.)

Don't laugh at the man from the country who comes to town without a patent leather shine. That team of his have got it on their harness.

Don't laugh because he gapes at a horseless carriage. Ten to one you wouldn't know a harrow from a hayrake, or an Ayrshire from a Holstein.

Don't give him a merry ha-ha because he wears a five-dollar suit. It is paid for, and he hates tailor bills worse than the devil.

Don't swell on yourself and call him a pumpkin because he cuts the sweat from his brow with his forefinger instead of a silk wipe. That sweat fertilizes the ground 60 bushels to the acre, and feeds the world. Go out in your 10x6 back yard, cut down the weeds, tidy up, raise a blister, and complain to your wife what a slave you are.

Go to, ye scoffers, who rail at the man in the country and call him Rube.

Compare.

Do you have that stone-in-your-crop feeling after meals? Take a pill, then look at the farmer and pity yourself. He doesn't even know what the word indigestion means. Give him a dictionary and he would think he was hunting for a Latin quotation.

His boss?
Time checks?
Pay days?
Crowded store, workshop?
Strike?

The farmer bossed, putting in a time-check, waiting for pay-day—well, hardly!

His own boss, the only check he knows anything about is that paper one from the grain buyer, and the leather one over the neck of the colt he is breaking. Every day is pay-day with him—drawing on the soil in summer and the bush in the winter. Lucky chap, got two banks, both founded on Providence.

His workshop the acres, perhaps 300 of them, where, roofed by the sweeping skies, served by the sun and seasons, tickling the soil, and watching the earth laugh grain, he is master of the situation and doesn't know it.

True, his boots are beaded with the dew of dawn, and his shirt damp with moisture of the gloaming, but his soul is as sound as the great tree that shelters his stock in the open.

Crowded, yes, sometimes the barn cries enough, and he stacks beside it.

And when the lean year comes and the world is chastened, when homes are wrecked and suicides made by a stroke of the ticker, when panic is in the air and poverty pinches, when the black flag of hunger floats to a peaked wind, when the cry for bread goes up from the great cities, when they steal to keep from starving, then he kills a hog and is happy, and his wife innocently throws the liberal sweepings from her table to the chickens.

Envy the farmer. Perhaps we are the Rubes.

BABY'S OWN TABLETS

For Weak and Sickly Children During the Hot Weather.

Thousands of children die during the hot weather months, because summer complaints and stomach troubles come suddenly and mothers do not have the means at hand to promptly check and cure them. In homes where Baby's Own Tablets are used these precious little lives can be saved, and no home where there are infants and young children should be without them.

Baby's Own Tablets will promptly cure all stomach and bowel troubles, and are a great relief to teething children. The Tablets are sold under a positive guarantee that they contain neither opiate nor harmful drug. Crushed to a powder they can be given with absolute safety to a born babe. Mrs. R. Ferguson, 105 Mansfield street, Montreal, says; "I have used Baby's Own Tablets and have found them the best medicine I have ever given my children. My baby has always been small and delicate and suffered so much last summer with his teeth that I did not think he would live. Then he was attacked with dysentery, a feverish skin and cough. As the doctor's medicine did not help him I sent for Baby's Own Tablets, and they did him a wonderful lot of good, and he is now getting on splendidly. I gladly give my experience for the benefit of other mothers." If your druggist does not keep these Tablets they will be sent by mail postpaid at 25 cents a box by writing direct to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, or Schenectady, N.Y.

STOCK MARKETS.

An Improving Property.

New York, August 1. — As promised early in the week we to-day commence taking up some of the industrial issues in these letters with the view of placing information relative to them before our clients, so that they will have a more complete knowledge of them than before. Our selection for to-day will be American Car and Foundry Co, formulated under laws of New Jersey in 1899, and combining the principal corporations manufacturing freight and passenger cars. Various plants were located in Michigan, Missouri, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illinois, New York, W. Virginia and Ohio. The plant consists of fifteen freight car shops, two passenger car shops, thirteen wheel foundries, fourteen forging shops, two rolling mills, two axle forges, two saw mills, two malleable foundries, 5 brass foundries and all the auxiliary shops essential for proper conduct of the general car business. The above works cover 425 acres of ground. The annual output of the company is 100,000 freight cars, 500 passenger cars, 250,000 tons of wheels, 250,000 tons of forgings, 180,000 tons of castings, 90,000 tons of bar iron, and 30,000 tons of pipe. In addition to car manufacturing the company furnishes small cars for mines, wheels of all sizes, gray iron castings, pipe, merchant forgings and miscellaneous railroad supplies. Capital stock, 60 millions, equally divided into common and preferred, the latter calling for and paying 7 per cent. accumulative. The benefits of consolidation were saving in transportation, common enjoyment of patents and processes, abolition of many duplicate offices, in establishing central finance, accounting, purchasing and engineering departments, and in the general advantages in accruing from purchasing raw material in large quantities. The cash assets of the company are about $7,000,000. The company pays regularly its 7 per cent on the preferred, and 2 per cent. on the common.

The business of the company the past year has increased over 20 per cent. and its surplus is growing with great rapidity. Both common and preferred ought to sell higher. The preferred is an excellent investment; the common an excellent speculative risk, paying good returns. There is very little risk attached to purchasing and carrying either issue. This company will probably unite with PRS within the next twelve months. This will still further reduce cost of production. American Car and Foundry Co earnings for the dividend quarter ending May 31 amounted to $1,008,000, which sum is nearly double the earnings for the corresponding period last year. They were at that time considered excellent as a marker of railway prosperity.

SUMMER RESORT NOTES.

VIAMEDE.

With the advent of good weather guests at Viamede are getting down to full programmes of pleasure for each day and evening.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Neal and Mrs. Bliss of Buffalo, entertained the young men of the "Graham Gem," prior to their leaving for their home in Rochester. Mr. and Mrs. Davies, from the main house, were also invited, and amid much laughter and a volley of fireworks the party broke up, after midnight. All were sorry to see Mr. Booth and his friends go, but were glad that Mr. Barry was able to remain a few days longer.

Fishing has been fair, the best catches of maskinonge being made close to Viamede, Mr. Michael, of Rochester, losing a giant on Wednesday morning, when almost over the side of the boat, and Mr. Booth made his big catches also in the bay, which is shadowed by stately Mt. Julian.

The following guests have arrived here recently—Mr. and Mrs. Michael, of Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Bliss, of Buffalo; Mr. and Mrs. F. B. James and Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McGowan, Toronto.

Return of the 3rd Regt.

Toronto, Aug. 2.— The men of the Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Regiments of the Canadian Mounted Rifles returned to Toronto last evening. These are the troopers who reached Halifax on the transport Cestrian. About 4.30 o'clock, the first batch got in on the Grand Trunk Railway. There were no Toronto men among them, their homes being in Hamilton, Guelph, London, and other places in Western Ontario. About 8.30 o'clock the C.P.R. train pulled into the Union Depot. A large crowd had assembled to greet the home-coming troopers, although there was no attempt at a demonstration.

Col. Williams, in command of the Third Regiment, Capt. Henderson and Lieut. Holland were the Toronto officers with the contingent.

Spent Night in Tree Top.

Dallas, Texas. Aug 2.—No heavy rains fell in Texas Thursday and the situation was vastly improved yesterday morning. Traffic of all kinds is now being handled by Texas roads, with perfect safety. Many people spent Tuesday night in tree tops around Quinlan, and were rescued with difficulty the following morning by boats brought from Greenville and Paris for that purpose.

DIFFICULTIES TO OVERCOME.

Trouble in Securing and Feeding Horses and Cattle—Speculators Making Money at the Expense of Needy Farmers—Disposal of Army Horses Had Been Accompanied by an Epidemic of Glanders.

Pretoria, Aug. 1.—Excellent progress is being made in re-settling the Boer farms. Already 9,000 families have been reinstated on their lands, although the work of replacing the farmers has been accompanied by many difficulties, especially in securing and feeding horses and cattle. Much complaint was caused by the military authorities auctioning off live stock, which was bought up by speculators, who re-sold at large profits at the expense of the needy farmers. The disposal of army horses has been accompanied by an epidemic of glanders, which is now raging in Cape Colony.

AT THE MINERS' PICNIC.

President Mitchell Reminds Them That Their Votes Made Strike.

Scranton, Pa., July 2.—At a picnic yesterday, attended by 7,000 miners, President Mitchell said:

"I want to say the anthracite miners went on strike themselves. They themselves voted for the strike. It was not the officers of the United Mine Workers who called the strike. It will never end until you vote it ended. From the officers of the coal presidents in New York comes the declaration that the strike will be settled only in their own way of settling it. I would direct your attention to similar declarations made in the 1900 strike. The Coal Trust may be powerful and strong, but the American people, whose hearts throb in sympathy with the miners' cause, are stronger than the Coal Trust."

Increase For Machinists.

New York, Aug. 2.—The Board of Arbitration of the International Association of Machinists have settled upon an advance of seven and one-half per cent. over the old rate of wages. An advance of fifteen per cent. and a shorter workday was asked by the men.

Boilermakers on Strike.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—The boilermakers and shipbuilders and their helpers, to the number of 1,500, employed in contract and job labor in this city, struck yesterday, because the Master Boilermakers' Association refused to concede a demand to increase the wage scale of the boilermakers from 30 to 35 cents an hour for inside work, and 50 cents for outside work, and to increase the helpers and heaters' wages.

CANADA TO SOUTH AFRICA.

Postmaster-General Has Arranged For a Freight Service.

Toronto, Aug. 2.—Acting Secretary J. F. M. Stewart of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association yesterday afternoon received a cablegram from Sir William Mulock, Postmaster-General, to this effect: "Arranging for service this morning from Canadian ports for South Africa. Wire at once by what time you can fill first ship."

Immediately Mr. Stewart sent this reply: "Association delighted, prospective African service. Think Oct. 1 best date."

Prior to July 28 the association had received from the Leyland Company at Montreal the following telegram: "Our London principals ask us to cable them early to-morrow what are prospects of securing freight from Canada, through to South Africa, New Zealand and Australia, and state approximately quantity obtainable for month service, and probable rate. We have seen Mr. Munro, who referred us to you. Wire at our expense to-morrow morning any information you are able to give on the subject."

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 2.—A heavy thunderstorm appears to have followed the main line of the C.P.R., being reported to have raged during the night at Luggan, Swift Current, Saskatoon, Gretnas and Minnedosa. Were it not for this thunderstorm yesterday's weather report would have indicated clear weather at all points.

The Colonial Premiers.

Nile Dam Finished.

New York, Aug. 2.—The Times has the following from London:—The Times announces that the last coping stone of the Nile dam at Assouan was laid on Wednesday.

The Nile reservoir, for which the great dams at Assouan and Assolut have been constructed, will enable wide tracts of land to bear two crops a year instead of one.

Non-Union Workers Fare Badly at the Hands of Strikers.

INTERSTATE RAILWAY TIED UP.

Compulsory Arbitration—Railway Men Meet in Ottawa to Consider Sir William Mulock's Bill—Delegates Will Present Their Views in a Memorial to Parliament—Trouble at Shenandoah.

Houton, Ohio, Aug. 4.—The strike of the employes of the Camden Interstate Electric Railway almost completely tied up the lines from Guyandotte, W. Va., to Hanging Rock, Ohio, and intermediate points, yesterday. In seven hours all the non-union men were driven from the cars in this city by violence. At noon James Saunders, a union man, who refused to quit, was taken from his car and dragged towards the Ohio river. On promising not to resume his car he was escorted home in a roundabout way to escape the crowd. Cars were held up all over the city until noon, when traffic was suspended. The non-union men also were afraid to run through the crowds at Catlettsburg, and Ashland, Ky., and other points on the Kentucky and West Virginia side of the Ohio River. The Ironton strikers ran cabs and secured more passengers than the street car. Women who chose that mode of conveyance in preference to street cars were cheered by the crowds.

Sympathy Strike With Fernie Against Crow's Nest Pass Co.

Greenwood, B. C., Aug. 4. — The Miners' Union has called out the miners in the employ of the Crow's Nest Pass Co., at Michel. This is in sympathy with the strike that is on at Fernie. The aim of the miners is to force the hand of the company. If this is persisted in, the smelters throughout the country will have to be closed down as a matter of fuel. The local representative of the company puts the blame on the Miners' Union.

COMPULSORY ARBITRATION.

Railway Trainmen Meet In Secret Session to Consider Provision of Sir William Mulock's Bill.

Ottawa, Aug. 4.—A meeting of railway men was held here on Saturday behind closed doors to discuss Hon. William Mulock's railway disputes bill, introduced at the last session of Parliament. P. M. Draper, secretary-treasurer of the Trades and Labor Congress, was present and took part in the discussion. The organizations represented were the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors, the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, and the Trackmen's Union. The delegates were strong in their expressions of disapproval of the Mulock bill, claiming that it gives the companies, which have all the influence in Parliament, unlimited power. Clause 5, which proposes to make strikes and lockouts illegal, came in for considerable censure. The delegates contended that if it were passed the railway employes would be made slaves of the companies, as they would have no redress against grievances. It was decided to report to the lodges on the matter and have the bill discussed at further length, with the purpose of having a memorial prepared for presentation to Parliament, embodying the employes' views of the bill, and the modifications and amendments they think desirable.

Trouble at Shenandoah.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 4.—The entire 8th regiment was called to arms during Saturday night as a result of three attacks made by a band of men in ambush, who threw stones at the troops now in camp on the plateau outside the town. These attacks are becoming so frequent that Brigadier-General Cobin has decided to adopt stern measures to end them. Last night a double guard, supplied with ball cartridges, surrounded the camp, and the sentries have been instructed that if the stone-throwing is repeated they must shoot to kill and investigate afterwards. One of the attacking party is under arrest.

CYCLONE AT ST. KITTS

Houses and Trees Were Badly Damaged on Sunday.

MERRITTON DISASTER RECALLED

No Lives Lost—Narrow Escape of Charles Steele and Family—Blow in the Rear of the N. St. C. and T. Car Barns—Many Roofs Were Taken Off Bodily—The Telephone Wires Are Down.

St. Catharines, Aug. 4.—This city was struck by a cyclone at 1.50 yesterday afternoon and several thousands of dollars' damage done to property. No lives were lost, but some very narrow escapes are reported. A large funnel shaped cloud formed in a northerly direction and moved over the city with wonderful rapidity. At Welland avenue it started its destruction, moving south by Court and Geneva streets.

It first blew out the end of the N. St. C. and T. car barns. The building is a new brick structure, and is badly smashed. It picked up a freight car in the N. St. C. and T. railway yard, and threw it several yards, stripping the trucks from under it. At this point huge trees were torn up and the road blocked.

All along Court street parts of the roofs are gone, and the yards and roads are completely blocked. Mrs. Captain Murray's brick barn was unroofed and almost wrecked. Slate shingles were stripped off and driven into frame houses. There is scarcely a chimney left standing in this vicinity.

The storm passed south, crossing Church, King and St. Paul streets. Here it turned east on Division street. The Belmont House, corner St. Paul and Geneva, was unroofed and damaged. Wise's lumber yard was slightly damaged and windows broken. Division street is probably the worst. Although the houses are standing, barns on all sides are unroofed.

The Bell Telephone Company and other wires are tangled in a mass. Some bare poles were picked up laden with wires and thrown on top of other poles and there they hang in the air. Fences are carried away, and chimneys and verandahs stripped off.

The storm, after leaving Division street, struck across the Welland Canal, throwing the water high in the air. Mr. Charles Steele, who lives just east of the canal, had his house wrecked. He saw the storm coming, and he and his family ran to the root house for safety. The roof of his house was picked up and fell with a crash on the root house, leaving him and his family prisoners until assistance came and chopped him out. He had a miraculous escape.

The last place in the city attacked was Carter's brick yard. It took the whole top off the main building and scattered bricks and smaller sheds everywhere. The barns were also unroofed. There was a power wire crossing near this point which fell and killed two cows. The street car wires here are down, and the traffic is suspended temporarily.

The cyclone moved in an easterly direction, but evidently spent its force here, as reports from surrounding places report no storm. A heavy rain followed the storm, which lasted for about 30 minutes and then it cleared.

The cyclone of yesterday afternoon traveled through about the same part of St. Catharines as the one four years ago, but instead of moving through Merritton, where four people were killed, it turned east. The streets are crowded with people viewing the scene of the disaster. Had the storm struck here on a week day there would undoubtedly have been a number of lives lost.

Twisted the Trolley Poles.

Niagara Falls, Aug. 4.—A party of forty masons and friends from Niagara Falls in special trolley car, kindly granted by Manager Seixus of Toronto, St. Catharines and Niagara Falls Road, to attend the funeral of the late Mr. William Thompson of that city, just missed the path of the storm, where it crossed the line near the Grimsby and Queenston road, between Merritton and St. Catharines. Several of the trolley poles were twisted by the force of the storm. The manager, who accompanied the party, soon had the poles and wires straightened out, and landed his guests in St. Catharines in ample time for the funeral.

Severe Hail and Windstorm.

Hamilton, Aug. 4.—About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon a severe hail and windstorm struck the Beach and did considerable damage. Tents were blown down and other damage done.

PROTECTION DOESN'T PROTECT THE CONSUMER.

U. S. Congressman Griggs has been looking into the operation of the tariff in those lines of goods which are the boast of the protectionists who, as the Hamilto nTimes says, are chuckling about "the commercial invasion of Europe," and he finds that the benevolent protected sell goods to the British free trader for 40 per cent. less than they are sold to the Yankee who is growing a hump on his back carrying the load of taxation that enables the infant industries to invade other countries. Here are some of the prices, and they are worth studying:

	U.S. price.	Price to foreigners
Wire nails, per keg	$ 2.25	$ 1.30
Wire rope, coil	12.00	5.00
Lead, 100 pounds	4.00	3.00
Shovels, dozen	7.50	5.80
Axle grease, pound	.08	.04
Washboards, dozen	3.00	1.70
Meat choppers	2.70	1.50
Barbed wire, 100 lbs.	3.00	2.00
Clock, alarm	.90	.80
Lawn mowers	4.25	3.75
Fruit jars, dozen,	.80	.55
Typewriters	100.00	55.00
Sewing machines	40.00	17.00

BRITON AND BOER.

The "sunny ways" of conciliation inaugurated by Sir Wilfred Laurier in Canada, and the success that attended their employment, have had a fitting complement in the policy of the British Government in South Africa. It has been the custom of victorious powers to dictate terms to the conquered. But the British way is to consult with the conquered. Mr. Chamberlain has invited the Boer Generals, De La Rey and De Wet, to visit England, and consult with him in relation to the situation in South Africa, and these late leaders are now on the way. The meeting will be, the Montreal Witness thinks, a unique historical event, and there would be nothing extravagant in the prediction that the Colonial Secretary will make it an occasion for establishing a friendship with them which should assist materially in obtaining their cordial cooperation in the work of reconstruction in South Africa. It is a wise stroke of statesmanship thus to give these representative Boers, whose character for sincerity and integrity is unquestioned, the earliest opportunity of presenting their views of the situation. The fact of their being consulted is an intimation on the part of the Government to shape its policy on lines that will win the respect and confidence of the Boer people, and establish peace in South Africa on a firm, permanent basis. No war ever fought so long and determinedly ever left so few animosities, and the frankness with which the Boer leaders have accepted the result is an omen of a happy future.

Business ability as a necessary accompaniment to successful political services, has come in for prominent consideration of late. The management of the Intercolonial Railway is an example of good business methods well applied. A few years ago when our national railway was administered on political lines, deficits were the rule. The Liberals came into power, business management was inaugurated, and the deficits disappeared, but the extension of the line and extensive and expensive improvements, brought back a slight revival of the deficit evil. But continued good management conjoined with the commercial and general prosperity which accompanies Liberal rule, have brought the line to more than a paying basis, and this year there is a surplus of earnings over expenses of $86,952. This is exceedingly gratifying, especially when the splendid service given to the patrons of the line, both travelling and freight, is considered.

NEWSPAPER POSTAGE.

The postage on newspapers is now excessive, is oppressive, it is utterly contrary to the spirit of the age and antagonistic to the principles which lie at the root of popular government and educational progress. For the government of a democratic country like Canada, where newspapers are necessaries of life, to restrain the circulation of journals by oppressive postage, is a startling anomoly which can only be explained by their being some influence at work which is a recrudescence of prejudices against the press that were entertained a century ago, and such as are kept up in half-civilized countries like Russia.

Postal burdens on newspapers are like a tax on free speech. A burden put on weekly journals is "a tax on knowledge," it is obstructive of educational progress, for the weekly paper, with a few exceptions, is a powerful and most effective educational agency.—Chronicle.

THE COAL STRIKE.

The strike of the anthracite coal miners continues. The leader, who is doubtless feathering his nest out of the unfortunate colliers, as has been done by leaders in other strikes, says;—"The men will win if they can hold out a few weeks longer." That will bring the time to the early part of October, when the demand for coal becomes pressing, as furnaces, and stoves generally, require hard coal. Ten more weeks of the strike means, at least, $10,000,000 to $15,000,000 more being wasted over this insane struggle, which already has cost $400 for every man engaged in it; that is, every miner has caused a sacrifice to the extent of an entire year's income, the loss of which will fall largely upon storekeepers, though thousands of families will have been impoverished, and hundreds ruined in health, as well as purse. Most lamentable, too, is the demoralization now going on of the strikers, hundreds of whom have committed criminal acts, such as indicate the arousement of those voilent passions which ordinarily require the restraint of a jail. The miners must be most illiterate, weak minded, or they would long since have asserted their manhood by acting on their individual initiative, independently of the professional agitators who live by labour disturbances. The rioting of the last few days has put the men wholly outside sympathy. Were justice done, the leaders who instigated such strikes as tend to bloodshed, deserve the gallows.—Financial Chronicle.

Nervous and Sleepless.

There is just one cure and that is plenty of food for the blood and the nerves, which is best supplied in Ferrozone, than which no blood tonic or strength producer is better. Ferrozone promotes healthy digestion, which results in improved nutrition. The blood grows rich and red, furnishes stability to the entire system, and the store of nerve force and energy increases daily. A rebuilding of the constitution, new spirits, health and strength, all come from the use of Ferrozone. This marvellous renovator is sold by druggists for 50c. a box, or six boxes for $2.50. For sale by Ormond and Walsh.

FUNERAL OF A JOCKEY.

Wreaths Sent by King, Rosebery and Others For John Watts.

London, Aug. 4.—Funeral services in memory of J. Watts, the one time well-known and successful jockey, were held at Newmarket Saturday, in the presence of a remarkable gathering. The King sent Lord Marcus Beresford specially to represent him, and wreaths were sent by the King, Lord Rosebery, Sir Edgar Vincent and others. Many notable persons and almost the entire town of Newmarket marched in the funeral procession. John Watts was known as the "Grand Old Man" of the English turf, although he was only 41 years of age at the time of his death. He rode the Derby winner four times in ten years. In 1891 he rode 114 winners. When he became too stout to ride, he became a trainer and served in that capacity for the King.

METEOR BURSTS OVER VESSEL.

Crew Stunned by the Shock, Declares Capt. Montgomery.

Kingston, Aug. 4.—Capt. Montgomery of the schooner New Dominion said yesterday morning that he never saw such sharp lightning as he witnessed Saturday night. When off Long Point a ball of fire shot out of the sky and appeared to make straight for the vessel.

When about ten feet from the stern it burst overhead, shooting fiery pieces in different directions. The report of the bursting of the meteora was louder than the discharge of a cannon.

The crew were stunned, and the captain, who was at the wheel, thought he would be thrown overboard.

TAPS FROM THE WIRES.

Lightning struck the barn of Amos Hagman, a farmer, living a mile from Moscow, Ont., and burned it with all contents.

Jacob M. Hirschfelder, teacher of Oriental languages at Toronto University, and connected with the staff of that institution for nealy half a century, died on Saturday, aged 83 years. The late Mr. Hirschfelder was born in Baden-Baden, Germany, and came to Canada in his 18th year. He was master of nine oriental languages and an author of some repute.

Another War Office Scandal.

London, Aug. 4.—Another War Office scandal has come to light at the Woolwich Arsenal, where, until 1899, the waste products of the gun foundries were given to the local authorities for repairing the roads. The arsenal authorities were then offered 44 cents a ton for them, and gladly accepted the money, until a policeman's suspicions were aroused by the fact that local marine store dealers were rapidly making large fortunes. Inquiries showed that they were recovering large quantities of brass from the Arsenal refuse, which really was worth $50 a ton. It is estimated that the public treasury has lost $1,250,000 by these transactions.

Russia's Line of Action.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 4.—It is semi-officially announced that the Russian Ministry of Finance expects a reply in the negative from the Powers to the note regarding international action against trusts. When such replies are received the Russian Government will once more affirm that any increase in duties on Russian sugar will be regarded as an infringement of existing treaties, and if such increase is enforced the Russian Government will consider itself free to disregard its treaty stipulations.

"Mere Pawn of Morgan."

London, Aug. 4.—The Right Hon. W. J. Pirrie, who represented the White Star and Harland & Wolff interests in engineering the Atlantic shipping trust with J. Pierpont Morgan, asked last week for the Conservative nomination for parliament for the vacancy for West Belfast. He was rejected unanimously by the Election Committee because it was said that he would be a mere pawn of Mr. Morgan.

Purchased a Razor For the Purpose, But Was Prevented From Carrying It Out by the Seller.

Sarnia, Aug. 4.—About noon yesterday a man, aged probably between 50 and 60 years walked into J. J. Clement's drug store and asked for a razor. He selected one from among those shown him. In payment for the same, he tendered Dr. Clement an envelope, with the remark, "Take your pay out of that," at the same time walking out of the store. Dr. Clement suspected that there was something wrong and he hurried out of the store and followed the man down the Lochiel street hill towards the river. When Dr. Clement found the would be suicide he was on his knees in the rear of the Lambton Loan Company building and was just in the act of cutting his throat. Dr. Clement grabbed the man's arm and called for assistance. Several men responded and the man was restrained from inflicting any more injuries upon himself. He fought desperately and seemed bound to destroy himself.

Dr. Morrison was summoned and attended to the cuts in the man's throat. In his attempt at suicide, Gravelle, for such his named proved to be, managed to make two cuts in his throat—one three inches long and another of about one in length, but neither of them was deep enough to cause death. Following is a copy of the letter which Gravelle left at the drug store.

"August 2nd.

"My dear wife Maggie, that I love,—I have been looking for you and Joseph night and day. I forgive you with all my heart. I love you, Maggie. Kiss Joseph and Maggie. Tell them a broken-hearted and loving father has gone to heaven. I kiss you all in my distress. In a few minutes I will meet my Judge, not the one that stole the children. I do not blame you. God told me to forgive. Please kiss the children. One more minute and I am gone to heaven.

"Augustin Gravelle."

"P.S.—I kiss you all. God be merciful to you. You have killed me and my dear children."

The letter was addressed to Mrs. A. Gravelle, Sarnia, Ont. The doctors express the belief that the man was insane and dangerous to be at the hospital. Information was laid against him and he was removed to the county jail on remand.

Fooled With a Fog Signal.

St. Thomas, Aug. 4.—George Parcy, the 12-year-old son of Birtch Parcy of Alvinston, was terribly injured yesterday. He was experimenting with a fog signal on the M.C.R., when it exploded. The left side of the face was torn from the eye down the side of the nose around and down to the centre of the lip. This cut was clean to the bone. The left cheek bone was broken. There was a wound four inches long down the centre of the forehead which cut to the bone and fractured the outer top of the skull. There was a wound on the right side of the head just back of the eye from which a piece of tin two inches in length was extracted. The membrane of the left ear was injured as the lad, after the accident, was perfectly deaf in that ear.

He was in a semi-comatose condition for some time after the accident.

DIFFICULTIES OF CANADIANS.

Why Our Traders Cannot Compete Successfully — Mr. Jardine, However, Hopes That a Direct Steamship Line Will Soon Be Running Between Halifax and South Africa—Before Trade Commission.

Johannesburg, Aug. 3.—While giving testimony before the Trade Commission, Mr. Jardine, Commissioner of the Canadian Government, said Canadian traders could not compete successfully in South Africa, until such time as a direct steamship line between South Africa and Canada is established. Mr. Jardine said that if his report on trade prospects in South Africa was satisfactory to the Canadian Government, they would be willing to devote money to such a purpose, and that he hoped to have a steamship line running from Halifax to South Africa within six months.

STEYN THANKS BRITISH.

Too Ill to Journey From Southampton to London.

London, Aug. 4.— Ex-President Steyn, of the Orange Free State, arrived in Southamption yesterday with his family, on the steamship Carisbrooke Castle. He was met by Messrs. Fischer, Wessels, and Dr. Pruyn, the former Boer delegates. He will go to The Hague, where ex-President Kruger will go from Utrecht to meet him Monday.

Mr. Steyn was too ill to bear the journey to London, although a special saloon carriage had been attached to the regular boat train for him. His physician would not allow him to be interviewed by the press, but Mr. Steyn sent word that he wished to express his thanks for the courtesies extended to him by the British authorities since the surrender, and for the care given him during the voyage.

The ex-President was removed on a stretcher to the Dutch steamer Batavier III., which was moored close to the Carisbrooke Castle. He will be landed at the Hook of Holland and conveyed in an ambulance to the cottage reserved for him near The Hague.

SHIP MAY BE SAVED.

Meanwhile the Tide Rises and Falls in Her Forward Compartments.

Halifax, N.S., Aug. 4.—The Norwegian steamer Blaamanden, 3,000 tons, with general cargo, from Hamburg, for New York, is ashore on the rocks off White Point, about five miles from Canso. The steamer struck Saturday night during a dense fog. The rocks protrude through her bottom and the tide rises and falls in her forward compartments. Her pumps are making an effort to keep the water out of the engine room and after compartments, and up to this time have been successful. If the weather continues fine the ship may be saved.

Mrs. Moffat of New York, and M. D. Grey of Elizabeth, N. J., were passengers on the ship. They, with the crew, and the wife of the second officer, a bride of two weeks, were put in the boats when the ship struck, at midnight, and at daybreak were landed at a fisherman's hut on an island near by.

Leaped and Was Killed.

Toronto, Aug. 4.—As a result of injuries received through jumping from a Mimico electric car on Saturday night Miss Maria Thompson died at the General Hospital last night. Miss Thompson had been on a visit to Mimico with her sister, Miss E. Thompson, who lives at the same address, and who has been for some time employed by the Christie, Brown Company on Duke Street.

Votes of Firmins Beaten.

Cape Haytien, Aug. 4.—A body of the troops of General Nord, the Minister of War of the provisional Government, commanded by General Piquion, has driven the army of General Salnave, who supports M. Firmin of the Presidency, to a point five leagues from Cape Haytien. A number of the soldiers were killed or wounded.

Prof Robertson's Trip.

While Mr. Robertson is in the east he will consult with the superintendents of education in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, with a view to a selection of the sites for the three consolidated rural schools, to be established in the Lower provinces out of the fund provided by Sir William McDonald.

Bicyclists Awful End.

Burk's Falls, Aug. 4.—While rapidly wheeling down Yonge street on Friday night, 1st inst., Walter Burk, a young man, son of Mr. D. F. Burk, ex-postmaster, deceased, ran into a team of horses, striking the whiffletrees, and was thrown violently under the wagon, sustaining terrible injuries. His bowels and chest were badly torn, and two of the wagon wheels passed over him. The unfortunate man died Saturday night at 6.30 p.m., never recovering from the shock.

Passed Off Quietly.

Paris, Aug. 4.—The Socialist demonstration in support of the Government in the schools question, which was held in the Place Maubert in the Latin Quarter yesterday, passed without disorder. A procession of 3,000 persons formed in front of the Hotel Deville. A majority of the paraders wore a Socialist emblem, a red flower.

A POSITIVE MAN.

He Seems Able to Prove the Truth of What he Says.

Mr. Chalker Makes Some Very Strong Statements—Explains That he is Prepared to Prove the Truth of Every Assertion he Makes.

Housey's Rapids, Ont., Aug. 3rd.—(Special)—Mr. George C. Chalker, a well known resident of this place, has authorized the publication of a letter containing some very startling statements.

Those who know Mr. Chalker will not ask any proof of the truth of any statement he makes, but to convince those who do not know him, he has announced that he is prepared to substantiate in every detail, the truth of his published statement, which is as follows;—

"It is with pleasure that I certify to the merits of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I was laid up with Kidney Trouble and was so bad that I could not do a day's work. My back was very sore, I had heavy aching arms, dull bloated eyes. I was very weak, and much reduced in weight.

"After I had used six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Tablets I was ten pounds heavier. I often wonder about the powerful virtue of this medicine. I do not know anything about what Dodd's Kidney Pills are said to cure, but I know a great deal about what they will actually do for lame back and Kidney trouble, and I can prove it.

"They are worth their weight in gold to anyone suffering as I suffered. The six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me completely, and there has been no return of my old trouble. That is over three years ago, and I still enjoy good health."

This is, indeed, a very strong testimonial for Dodd's Kidney Pills, and one which will have very good weight with all who have the pleasure of Mr. Chalker's acquaintance or his friendship.

Dodd's Kidney Pills have made many friends and are to-day, without doubt, the most popular family medicine.

THE CENTRAL EXHIBITION.

The Date is September 9, 10, 12—An Outline of the Special Attractions to be Offered—The Forty-Eighth Highlanders Band the Leading Feature.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Central Exhibition, held on Saturday, every arrangement was completed for the holding of the annual exhibition on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 9th, 10th and 11th. The date fixed is considerably earlier than that of former years, but the directors felt justified in making the change. The old date was about the equinoctial period, and there was always a good chance of foul weather interfering with the fair. It is to be hoped that the fine weather which is as important an element in the success of the exhibition, will be received by the change of date.

The Directors have supplied the following:—

Last year's fair had a good attendance, but that part of the attendance from the town was not up to the mark. Just what are the causes for this lack of interest on the part of the townspeople is hard to determine. It is, of course, out of the question that the Directors should make the fair, in addition to its legitimate exhibits, one so attractive by providing spectacular attractions as to ensure a large attendance from the town, for that would cost so far in advance of the resources of the fair that almost certain loss would ensue. Attractions, of the best class, cost large money, and much as the Directors would like to provide the best and most interesting, they have to consider the financial aspect of the question. Then again, attractions such as were provided, and liberally too, last year, are not of the best for the purpose. They were very good of their kind, but a performance on a platform cannot be viewed by all to advantage at the one time.

This year the Directors have provided as an attraction the celebrated "Kilties," the famous band of the 48th Highlanders. This band has a reputation of the very best, and last year were engaged for to play at the Pan-American. Their concert tours in the States and in Canada brought them additional renown. They have proved a good drawing card at fairs where engaged, delighting the thousands in attendance. When it is remembered that this fine band played an engagement in Peterborough some time ago, being brought here by private enterprise, at 75c and $1.00 per ticket of admission, the opportunity to see and here them, and view the fair in addition, for only twenty-five cents, should be taken advantage of. The band will play on the 2nd and 3rd days of the fair, and in the evening of the 2nd day a band concert will be given in one of the public buildings, up town. If the engagements of the 57th Regiment band will permit, the opportunity may be afforded of hearing the Kilties and the 57th massed and playing as one band. It should have a fine effect.

The speeding-in-the-ring will likely prove of more than usual interest. These competitions are always well participated in and the fact that within a few days after the fair Peterborough will have an important race meeting may be a factor, as no doubt some of the horses entering for the race meet may into the trials at the fair. This would give added interest to the trials, which will include a Free-for-all, a Green Trot, and as a special competition for the best matched team of drivers, speed to be considered, as a factor in the latter award. There are several fine driving teams in town, and in the coutry there are teams not to be sneezed at, and a good competition should ensue. Liberal prizes are offered in all these events.

The Directors working together with the officers of the local Poultry Association, have expended considerable money in procuring the very latest and most suitable system of coops for the purpose of enabling exhibitors to make a fine showing in the line of poultry. For years this department has been hampered for want of proper accommodation at the exhibition. The poultry pens or coops were rather crude, and not in number sufficient, and the sheds in which they were housed not large enough to afford proper display or allow of inspection. The new coops will accommodate over 700 birds and are neat and pleasing in appearance.

This department of poultry is becoming of increasing interest, as the opening up of the English market and the extent of the export trade now done, testifies. This district is only awakening up to what there is in this end of the business, and it is demonstrated that there is good money in raising fowls. Still there is a lot to learn and the directors have secured the services of Mr. D. C. Trew, one of the most expert breeders of fowl in the district, to attend at the poultry department during the days of the fair, and to afford information to all who may enquire as to the best breeds of fowl for purposes in view, the best methods of breeding and feeding, and all information that may assist those desiring to learn.

Then from the expert point of view there is still another demonstration, as it is termed. The services of Mr. W. A. Silverwood, of Lindsay, who is identified with the export end of the shipping business of Dundas and Flavelle Bros., who send large quantities of fowl to the old country, will be on hand. Mr. Silverwood, who is thoroughly conversant with the needs of the business, will give practical demonstrations of the way of preparing and dressing fowl for the markets. He will also afford information as to the best methods of feeding, of feeds, breeds, and all matters connected with the interest of poultry raising. These features of the fair are progressive and modern and it is hoped will be appreciated.

The directors have made a radical departure in the matter of judging. For some time the department at Toronto have had under consideration the engagement and appointment of what are known as "expert judges," whose services would be available for the purpose at the several fairs and exhibitions. Such fairs as made use of this provision last year were gratified with the results achieved. It seems to have removed a lot of contention and objection among exhibitors. It also had the effect of placing the judging in the hands of men entirely removed from local influences, and who, knowing nothing of the stock or the ownership of the animals exhibited, gave decisions founded entirely on the merits of the exhibits. The directors of the local fair desiring to be progressive, have asked the department to send expert judges to do the work in the more important classes of exhibits. It will not be known who these judges are until they arrive, and it may be relied on by exhibitors that awards will be made impartially. Other fairs are doing the same, and look for good results.

With fine weather, the fair promises to be a good one and it is hoped that its claims will be recognized, and that there will be a large attendance. The money to run the fair from year to year accrues from the entry money and receipts at the gates, and it is the duty of the public in general and the farming community in particular, to patronize the fair. The larger the attendance and better the receipts the more money the directors will have to put into the fair next season. Good public encouragement and support will not fail to inspire the officers to excel.

The posters and other printed matter is now being issued and will be circulated during the week. Exhibitors are urged to make entry early, and so allow of time to make preparation and accommodation.

THIS MORNING'S BLAZE.

A Building at the Canadian General Damaged.

About seven o'clock this morning fire broke out in a store house adjoining the Canadian General Electric Company's works, and for a while matters looked rather serious. The big steam whistle sounded the alarm, and the Company's private fire brigade was promptly at work. Three streams were very shortly playing on the blaze, and the fire was under control before the town brigade got to work. There was no very great damage done.

Barn Struck by Lightning and Destroyed—Soldier Boy Returns Home After Seven Years Absence.

During the electric storm which passed over this section about noon on Sunday, the barn of Mr. — Isaacs, of Haldimand township, was struck by lightning, and destroyed, with all its contents, containing waggons, harness, implements ,etc. Fortunately none of the crop had been stored.

Walter Johnston, son of Fishery Inspector Frank Johnston, arrived home quite unexpectedly at the residence of his father near Harwood, on Sunday, in Khaki uniform, direct from South Africa. Seven years ago Walter left home with a party of harvesters for the Northwest wheat fields. After spending several years there he moved to British Columbia. It was there that he enlisted for South Africa, joining the last contingent, and returning home with the boys from Peterborough.

J. Begley, or at the rooms of the T.A.S.

Huntsville closed Orillia out of the C.L.A. running on Friday by a score of 2—0.

BASEBALL.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Sir, — Permit me in your valuable paper to reply to a paragraph which appeared in Saturday's issue under the sporting heading and which was signed "Eye Witness. "Eye Witness" only displays ignorance and merits nothing but our contempt, and even the members of his own team are thoroughly disgusted with the underhand means which he uses in trying to do a personal injury to the Excelsiors' local pitcher. The rank falsehoods which appeared in the paragraph have no foundation whatever, and certainly do an "eye witness" credit, but then as he has never been esteemed very highly by the members of either team he is only keeping pace with his reputation.

The bride, who was beautifully gowned in white silk, was assisted by her sister, Miss May Jones, and Mr. James Browne was best man. The guests were confined to the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast and the happy couple left on the morning train for Rochester and other points.

THE PRINTERS' PICNIC A SPLENDID SUCCESS.

Magnificent Weather—The Public in Multitudes Join the Disciples of Faust in Their Annual Outing.

The Printers scored. Their annual picnic on Saturday afternoon was in every way a grand success. The weather was as if prepared for the occasion—not too hot and not too cold. The deep blue of the sky was frescoed here and there with fleecy clouds, which alternately veiled the hot face of the sun or left him free to cast his ardent smiles over the smiling country side.

It was thought that the City of Peterborough would accommodate all who appeared, but at two o'clock, a few minutes before the announced starting time, the steamer was packed with humanity to the gunwales—packed like a sardine tin. There might have been a few sardines in the company and a few "lobsters," but very few. The company on the whole was a most orderly and happy one. Of course when the "City" was loaded to her capacity the gangways were hauled in, the steamer cast off and away down the river.

The departure of the "City" with her full passenger list unfortunately left about a hundred excursionists disconsolate on the wharf. The Beaver, Rainbow and the Water Lily were there it is true, but they were on their regular trip and would not pull out until four o'clock. But the power of the press was brought to bear. A couple of members of the committee who had remained interviewed headquarters and the Water Lily was secured to carry the surplus excursionists down the river, making the Printers' Excursion for 1902 a double-header. About one hundred boarded this trim and speedy little craft and enjoyed a swift steam down the winding Otonabee and the trip was splendidly enjoyed. A cool breeze blowing off the cool green face of the country made the weather conditions ideal. The country looked beautiful. The broad fields sloping down to the river banks, dotted here and there with clumps of trees were as green as in May, except where the wheat fields had turned to gold or the stooks stood thick throughout the ground. There was abundance of hay still in the meadows, either waving greenly in the summer wind or standing in thickly grouped haycocks. The Water Lily made splendid time and on arriving found the picnic grounds at Jubilee Point flooded with the happy excursionists of the first contingent. The floor of the dancing pavilion was crowded with a merry throng plying the many-twinkling feet, an occupation of which they never seemed to tire. The orchestra had been kept busy on the down voyage and the dancing was kept up as industriously on the voyage up, the dancing never ceasing till the steamer reached the wharf—when the musicians played out and took an enforced rest, the dancers danced to the echoes of the music that had gone before.

When the second contingent arrived the rush was made for the picnic tables or the hotel dining room and the work of filling the aching void was diligently plied.

The "City's" cargo of excursionists were deep in the sports and games, which were of a curtailed character, owing to the baseball match failing to "fill." The Examiner's team was on hand, but the picked team from the Review and Times failed to materialize. An incident of the event was the pie eating contest, something in which printers, from their familiarity with "pi," are supposed to be expert at. The following is a list of the winners in the

SPORTING EVENTS:

Pie eating contest—1st, F. O'Brien; 2nd, J. Brady.

Boys' race, under 15 years—1st, Fred Conroy; 2nd, J. Brady.

Girls' race, under 15 years—1st, Florence Mitchell; 2nd, Vera Peters.

Young men's race—1st, W. Jackson; 2nd, W. S. Teft.

Young ladies' race—1st Miss Annie Ferguson; 2nd, Miss Eva Whiten.

Married men's race—1st, G. Paxman; 2nd, F. F. Garden.

Married ladies' race—1st. Mrs. Fredenburg; 2nd, Mrs. Cottingham.

Altogether the Printers' Picnic was a great success from every point of view, nothing occurring to mar the pleasure of the day, except the sun set too soon. It was not only the most orderly, but by far the largest excursion that has visited the Point this season. "Dan" says that he usually gives meals to between forty and fifty at his dining rooms, but on Saturday he fed 180 out of the 400 excursionists the printers brought down.

About seven o'clock the "City," with its live freight, set out for the return voyage and reached home without any untoward happening. The Water Lily, with its contingent, started an hour later and arrived at the home wharf half an hour after the "City," and if it had not been for a little delay with floating logs would have been in about the same time as her consort.

The Printers' Picnic was an exceedingly successful affair from every point of view, and the committee of management deserve great credit for the manner in which they carried out their duties.

The committee also desire to return thanks to their many friends who patronized the excursion and assisted in making the occasion the success it was.

LINK WITH THE PAST

LIONEL PHILLIPS' HANDSOME HOUSE IN THE TRANSVAAL.

Home of the Chief Signatory of the Uitlanders Reform Letter of, Invitation to the Jameson Raiders—The Story as Told by Mr. Fitzpatrick in "The Transvaal From Within."

A link with the stormy past out of which we have, so to speak, only just emerged, is a large house, said to be the finest in the Transvaal, which overlooks a vast expanse of country near Johannesburg. It is the home of Mr. Lionel Phillips, millionaire and chief signatory of the famous Reform letter of invitation to the Jameson raiders. The story of the treatment of Mr. Phillips and his fellow prisoners, after the Raid, told in full by Mr. Fitzpatrick in his remarkable book "The Transvaal from Within," is a black and bitter one.

Mr. Phillips was one of the members of the Reform Committee, arrested and taken through to Pretoria on March 9, 1896. After many adjournments, remands without bail, the trial commenced on April 24, and pleas of "Guilty" were recorded. Jude Gregorowski was specially chosen to try the prisoners because he had openly expressed his animosity against them. On Messrs. Phillips, Colonel Rhodes, Farrar and Hammond sentences of death was pronounced, the others being condemned to two years' imprisonment and a fine of £2,000 each. The punishments had all been arranged by Gregorowski, and surprised even the Boer policemen, one of whom exclaimed concerning the judge, "My God! he is like a dog; he has bitten and chewed and guzzled."

The prisoners were deliberately induced to plead guilty, and mislead as to the consequences of that plea. The death sentence, though ultimately revoked, Mr. Fitzpatrick tells us, was not regarded "as a mere formality," but viewed by the Government party as "a deliberate and final judgment."

The life in Pretoria gaol of Mr. Phillips and his friends is shocking to contemplate. Their food was given them in tin dishes placed on the ground, and consisted at breakfast of maize meal porridge, flavored with coarse salt. "No sugar, milk, tea, or coffee was allowed." Dinner was a small allowance of coarse meat boiled, and half-a-pound of hard bread. Supper was similar to breakfast. Even this food was sometimes docked or withheld at the caprice of the brutal gaoler, Du Plessis, a relative of Mr. Kruger.

The latter wily personage meanwhile was attempted to induce the prisoners to sign a petition asking for mercy, and admitting that they were justly dealt with. This they would not do, and one of them—Mr Frederick Grey—driven mad by harsh treatment, committed suicide. Public opinion was so aroused at this that Mr. Kruger thought it advisable to temporize a little.

Another form of petition was put before the prisoners, who consisted of "twenty-three Englishmen, sixteen South Africans, nine Scotchmen, six Americans, two Welshmen, one Irishman, one Australian, one Hollander, one Bavarian, one German, one Canadian, one Swiss, and one Turk." All except the four sentenced to death and two who refused to appeal were released on payment of fines of £1,000 each.

To the prisoners condemned to death, it was intimated that if an offer of sufficient money was made even they might be pardoned. An offer was made of £10,000 each. This was not enough.

The willing Boer tool, Judge Gregorowski, was again made use of, and he assessed the "present" to the executive at £25,000, each, and this sum Mr. Phillips and his four colleagues paid.

This money was not in the Boer eyes a fine, but a "present," and Mr. Fitzpatrick explains why, as follows:—"The Boers are in their way a very religious people. But they are also essentially practical; and it is difficult to find an instance in which the religious principle has operated to their commercial disadvantage. This, at any rate, was not one. The train of reasoning which led them to justify the imposition of a fine was somewhat in this wise:—To impose a fine would be to take blood-money, and would be immoral and iniquitous; to accept the offer of a present on condition that the sentence should be be quite another thing."

Mr. Phillips is to be congratulated entirely remitted, however, would ed on being able to go back to his beautiful Johannesburg home under the British flag,—and with no fear of any revival of the unpleasant past of which that home must occasionally remind him. Our sketch is from a photograph.

CONSTIPATION!

The Most Frequent Cause of Suffering and Serious Bodily Derangement, is Cured by

Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills.

Irregularity of the bowels and sluggish action of the kidneys and liver are the most frequent causes of the painful and fatal diseases known to mankind. Bright's disease, appendicitis, dropsy and various forms of kidney disease, for example. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills begin by setting the bowels right. Their combined action on the filtering and excretory organs enables them to cure when other medicines fail.

Mr. Jas. H. Harvey, baker, 641 George street, Peterborough, Ont., states:—"I was troubled very much with constipation and pains in the back. At times the pains were sharp like a stab with a knife, and caused me great suffering.

"I heard of many being cured by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and decided to try them. I am pleased to say that they soon helped me, and I used them right along until cured. I never have pains in my back now, and only occasionally take a pill in order to keep my bowels regular."

THE DAY AT STONY LAKE.

Largest Crowd of the Season on Saturday.

SEASON WELL ADVANCED.

Guests at McCracken's to Give a Dance Yesterday's Service at the Pavilion —Many Notes of Interest.

Juniper Island, Stony Lake, Monday morning.

The month of August opened at Stony Lake with every indication of a brisk and jolly season. The number of people who came up to Stony Lake on Saturday to spend periods ranging from one to four weeks, is surprisingly large, and the steamboats on Saturday night were delayed much later than usual at their regular points of calling. The evening boat generally reaches Juniper Island wharf about 8.30 o'clock, although on a Saturday night 9.30 p.m. is not unusual. A week ago Saturday night it was 10 o'clock when the Majestic landed her cargo at the wharf, but on this Saturday night, so numerous were the calls, that the Majestic did not reach the store until 11 o'clock. It must be borne in mind also that on a Saturday night the evening boat is met at Mr. R. Neill's island by the afternoon boat, and the Burleigh passengers are taken on up the lake, which facilitates the service towards the various points. However the train from Peterborough was very late in starting to Lakefield. The Toronto train did not reach Peterborough until after 6 o'clock, and it had on it a great number of passengers for various points on Stony Lake. There was in fact a passenger for nearly every island on the lake, and the eighteen or more Americans who were on their way to Mr. D. Breeze's resort, reached their destination at a late hour, or rather at an early hour on Sunday morning.

The two resorts at Boschink are proving to be popular stopping places and the accommodation at all the resorts in fact promises to be taxed to its utmost during the present month.

Social life at Stony Lake partakes of many of the conventionalities of social life in town. Evenings of various kinds are held and attended much in the same style as an ordinary social function in town or city. The dances at the pavilion, which are always well attended, bring together an assemblage of people who are as particular about their style of dress as though they were at Cobourg. The summer visitors come and go but each week now appears to bring larger crowds to the various resorts. Strange faces are to be seen at the pavilion each day, and the merry rush of summer traffic glides along, to the great satisfaction of the steamboat men and the proprietors of the hotels and resorts of various kinds.

Mrs. R. B. Rogers, who is living for the summer at Sandy Point, Clear Lake, gave an enjoyable at home on Friday evening. A host of Mrs. Rogers' friends from town, who are temporarily residents at the lake, as well as many others, were present. The evening was most pleasantly spent around a huge camp fire, and refreshments were served during the evening by the young ladies who are spending a while with Mrs. Rogers. Those who were present pronounce it one of the most enjoyable affairs of the kind held on Stony Lake this summer. It is understood that a number of other such social evenings are to be a feature of social life at Stony Lake during the present month.

The service at Juniper Island yesterday morning was not as largely attended as usual, which was of course due to the severe thunderstorm that arose at about 10 o'clock in the morning. However, a number of those in the immediate vicinity of the pavilion were in attendance, while the Mayflower brought a party from Boschink, Mr. Buck's yacht brought a number from the upper lake, and Mr. C. B. McAllister's yacht brought a number of downanders. The service was conducted by ———— , whilst Miss Georgie Dennistoun presided at the piano. The reverend gentleman took as his text the words, "Man cannot live by bread alone. He preached a short but very impressive discourse. Service will be held next Sunday, and the the name of the clergyman who will officiate will be announced later.

"Ishpeming," the splendidly situated cottage of Mr. Thos. Barrie, has quite a population, and the members of the party appear to be thoroughly enjoying themselves. Among those who are there are Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Barrie, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Layfield, Mr. W. A. Brundrette, and Miss Brundrette, and Mrs. T. H. Elliott.

Rev. E. V. Dyer, principal of Albert College, of Belleville is located at Mrs. Traill's cottage, and is of course charmed with the beauties of Stony Lake. Mr. Dyer is in search of an island on which to build; he thinks there is no finer spot in which to spend a holiday.

Mrs. James Kendry, Miss Rutherford and Miss Gertrude Kendry returned to Peterbrough on Saturday, after spending a week at Victoria House. It is Miss Kendry's intention to return again to spend a while at "Forest Nook."

"Forest Nook," Miss Brown's handsome lodge, is one of the jolliest places on the lake. There is quite a number of young people there at the present time, but next week a large assemblage of young people is expected. Most of them will be Peterboroughians.

Mrs. E. C. Complin, of town, is spending a while at Victoria House —McCracken's Landing.

Quite a number of the Eko camp party paid a visit to Juniper on Saturday evening. The camp is now in full swing on Gemmell's Island, and every one who knows Eko camp, (and who don't?) can rely on their having a splendid time.

Of the four or five young ladies who very generously preside at the piano for the nightly hops, none perhaps are more generous with their talent than the Misses Roberts, who are staying at Mrs. Dunn's cottage. The three Miss Roberts, who are Torontians, are highly accomplished in pianoforte music, and assist materially in the enjoyment of those who attend the pavilion dances.

Messrs. J. W. Worts and —— Cook, of Toronto, who have been the guests of Mr. Hubert McBain, at Bonavista, returned to Toronto to-day. They have had a very pleasant week's stay at Stony Lake.

Considerable interest in already being manifested in the annual regatta which will be held on Monday, August 18th, and some exciting events are promised.

Have you registered at the power house? A place that is visited by many who are passing to and from the lakes, is the power house of the Lakefield Portland Cement Company. It is an interesting spot, as one views the giant electric motors and hears the busy and unceasing hum of the machinery. A register is kept in the power house in order that all who visit the spot may leave their autographs.

Miss Marion Sherwood is a guest at the cottage of Mr. T. E. Bradburn.

Lieut. E. O. Bradburn, of the 6th Canadian Mounted Rifles, who has just returned from South Africa, came up to his father's cottage on Saturday night.

Mr. Alex. Collins, of the Ontario bank, Toronto, has been spending two weeks at "Cotamoran," returned to Toronto to-day.

Mr. J. B. McWilliams spent Sunday at Tecumseh Lodge.

It is a rather surprising matter to see the number of American flags that fly around Stony Lake, in some cases, without a Canadian flag near them. Take in the case of steam yachts. There are several of these owned on the Kawartha Lakes not owned by American gentlemen either, but who fly the stars and stripes perhaps too prominently. Some Canadian yachts, for some reason or other, float the flag of the American confederacy in preference to the grand old Union Jack. Perhaps a small Union Jack may hang out in a rather obscure manner from behind. This practice has gone on until many Canadians have become indignant, and while it is pleasing to see the evidence of good feeling towards the American visitors, displayed on the part of Canadians, still there is a limit to all courtesies, and the Union Jack should not be given second place to any other flag in the world, let alone on Stony Lake.

Are the residents of Stony Lake falling from grace? Many are considering why there are no pavilion services in the evenings, and people from distant parts of the lake often come down to Juniper, thinking that there is service, and are surprised to find that the pavilion is in darkness. Last night, for instance, about 50 people arrived at the pavilion from various parts and were thus disappointed. It is hoped by many that an effort will be made to have a service of some sort each Sunday evening during the present month, as was the feature of Sunday life at Stony Lake some years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Pope, who are known to many Peterborough people, and Miss Dickson, of Toronto, are spending a while at the lakes.

Messrs. E. A. Tanner and F. H. Kilbourne, spent Sunday at Mr. C. B. McAllister's cottage.

Amongst those who are now staying at Mr. D. Breeze's summer resort are Messrs. S. McLeish, Norman K. Reid, Allen McKinley, Ken. McCauley, and Jack Mackenzie, of Toronto, who form a very jolly stag party. They intend to spend about two weeks at the lakes.

Mr. W. W. Johnston, of town, spent Sunday as the guest of Mr. G. M. Roger.

Amongst the housefull of guests at the Victoria House now are Miss Mabel Bradburn and her friend, Miss Hall of Toronto, Misses Minnie, Florence and Allison Hamilton, of town. They are chaperoned by Mrs. R. H. Bradburn.

Lt. Paterson, who was with the 3rd Canadian Mounted Rifles, in South Africa, came up the lakes on Saturday night to spend a while with his mother, Mrs. Paterson, of Hamilton, who is staying at the Cox resort. Lt. Paterson was one of the very youngest officers who went from Canada with any regiment.

Mr. Will Ackerman, has as his guest at Eko Camp, Mr. Victor Martin of Whitby.

The boys of Eko camp intend celebrating Coronation Day by a huge bonfire on Saturday evening. Elaborate preparations are being made for the event, and many of Eko camp's friends will assemble at Gemmell's Island on that evening.

Messrs. Dr. Wightman, Joe Gibson, Frank Pakenham, and R. Mitchell were guests at Eko Camp over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bletcher and friends, and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Smith, and friends, were at McCracken's over Sunday.

Amongst those who came down from the lakes this morning, after spending Sunday at the various points were Messrs. Felix Brownscombe, J. A. Cameron, R. E. Layfield, W. T. Hall, Thos. Barrie, A. C. McCallum, L. D. Letellier, and Robert Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Frost were guests at Victoria House over Sunday.

Mr. Joe Farrell, of the Victoria House, is known by every one on the Lakes as an expert in the art of dressing fish, but he broke all records in this line on Saturday. In a surprisingly short time he prepared 80 nice bass for the proprietor of the Victoria House.

Sixty guests sat down to dinner at the Victoria House yesterday.

Messrs. Hal. Burnham and Llewellyn Hall spent Sunday at "Forest Nook," and left in the evening for Buckhorn, en route for Lake Ketchecum, where they will spend two weeks enjoying the fishing in those waters.

Miss Gwen Meade has returned to town, after spending several weeks at "Forest Nook."

Mrs. C. B. McAllister and Mrs. Crane went down to Peterborough this morning.

The young people who are staying at Victoria House, have announced their intention of giving a dance on Wednesday evening next. The affair promises to be one of the most enjoyable events of the kind yet given. Special music has been provided for from town, and the spacious dining room will be decorated profusely. About twenty young people from town have been invited, and the invitation around the lakes is of a general nature.

It is expected that a special dance will take place at the pavilion on Friday or Saturday evening, as many from town will be up at that time, Saturday being a public holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Davis went up to their Stony Lake cottage to-day. They were accompanied by Miss Stephens.

Mr. Reg. Blomfield, of Toronto, is visiting at the cottage of his father, Mr. C. J. Blomfield, of Lakefield. Reg. learned the art of canoeing on Stony Lake watters, and since going to Toronto he has cleaned out everything before him.

Mrs. (Dr.) Gray and daughter are visiting in Blackstock.

Mr. George C. Burnham, who has been at Victoria House for a week, went down to Peterborough on Saturday.

Messrs. Arthur and Clarence Piper are at their cottage now, having arrived on Saturday.

Cottagers appreciate very much the fact that they are able to get the Examiner on the same evening as it is published in Peterborough.

Mr. Wilbert Nicholls has returned to Peterborough, after spending a week with Mr. J. D. Collins, jr., at "Calamoran."

BARON SHIBUSAWA.

Japan's Richest Citizen and Country's Leading Business Man in Canada Searching for Information.

Baron Eiichi Shibusawa, who is visiting this country to gather information for the enhancement of Japan's industrial and commercial interests, is one of the wealthiest men of the Japanese Empire and has done more toward the industrial development of Japan than any other individual.

Baron Shibusawa occupies a position in the industrial and commercial affairs of Japan synonymous with that of Marquis Ito in the political affairs of the Empire. He is president of the biggest bank and heavily interested in five railroads in Japan and Korea, three other banks, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha company, which operates a big fleet of steamers in the orient and across the Pacific, and in all kinds of manufacturing enterprises, their aggregate capital exceeding 200,000,000 yen. He has established schools, reformatories, orphanages, hospitals and other institutions for public benefit.

In 1900 he was created a peer of the realm in recognition of his services in promoting the industrial development of the country. It was the first time such an Imperial favor was extended to a private business man.

Besides his business enterprises, Baron Shibusawa is president and director of many associations and clubs for the advancement of social conditions and education generally. The baron is accompanied by his wife and a numerous company of friends and attendants. After touring this country the party will visit France, Great Britain and Germany.

Canada's banking system is now engaging the attention of the Japanese commissioners who came to America a year ago charged with the business of investigating the credit and currency arrangements on this side of the Pacific.

They take the most practical way of making themselves acquainted with the methods under enquiry. They select a typical institution, secure the privilege of serving on its staff, and learn by experience the routine of duties and working of the system. Thus they have acquired intimate knowledge of the National and State banks of the United States and thus they propose to get an understanding of bank business in this country. For six weeks the two gentlemen will practice the duties of employes and officials of three of the banks of Montreal.

Mr. Ikuta, the senior commissioner, is chief clerk of the Bank of Japan. That institution issues the only paper money now circulating in the country. Japan has no shortage of banking houses, there being 2,105 head offices and 1,720 branch offices. The total paid-up capital of the banks is 288,024,897 yen, or upwards of $144,000,000. But the deposits of the country are very large, and for the safety of these, as well as for the greater elasticity of the currency, reforms may be made.

In 1897 Japan broke away from the silver standard, to which all the Asiatic countries adhered, and established the gold basis. At the close of 1899 the Government ceased issuing Treasury notes. Mr. Ikuta appears to be very favorably impressed with the Canadian system of banking. For the purposes of the Bank of Japan he considers it much better than the United States system.

A Russian Jungle of Words.

You do not change a man's state by calling him another name. The liberation of the serfs was merely a juggling of words. The Russian peasant is not and never has been free. England paid its colonists millions and set their negro slaves free. Russia liberated the serfs by ordering them to pay to the state an amount equal to the capitalization of the dues their landlords extorted, plus the cost of collection. The contention of the peasants was that they were unable to pay the sums the landlords demanded, as being beyond the yield of land occupied. The annual levies are more than the dues used to be. The tenants got into arrears. The forty-nine yearly payments which were to bring about the "redemption of the land" will not balance the outlay, and to all intents and purposes the payments are Imperial taxes and permanent.

Lobster Industry Threatened.

Quebec, Aug. 4.—Considerable alarm is felt both in the Maritime Provinces of the Dominion and by the Department of Fisheries at Ottawa over the decadence of the lobster industry. Present indications point to a possible extinction of the supply of Canadian lobsters. So poor was the catch this spring that the fishermen and proprietors of canneries obtained from the Government a ten days' extension of the open season. The Government has become so alarmed at this condition of affairs that it has begun an investigation of the subject.

Hit by Lightning But Lives.

Wallaceburg, Aug. 4.—Fred. Teeter, while on a laddet, was struck by lightning the other day. The top of the ladder was smashed, and the lightning ran down Fred's side, crossed over and ran up the other side, stripping off his clothing, even his socks and boots, and burning almost the whole of his body. He fell to the ground unconscious. Medical aid brought him around and he will live.

BRODRICK PROMISES

Remount Scandals Investigation Will Be Thorough.

DIFFICULTIES ENCOUNTERED.

The War Secretary, in Replying to Critics of the Government, Said Some Remount Officers Had Been Harshly Judged—What the Debaters in the House Said and Their Statements.

London, Aug. 5.—The remount scandals were re-aired in the House of Commons yesterday in the course of a discussion of the army estimates and the item of transportation and remounts. Sir Charles Dilke, suggested the publication of the correspondence bearing on the remount scandals, obtained from the United States and Argentina. Colonel John P. Nolan condemned the loose system of contracts under which such dreadful scandals were possible, while several other members of the House deprecated the method of purchasing horses through middlemen.

Mr. Brodrick, the War Secretary, replying, said the members overlooked the difficulties in the way of providing one hundred and fifty thousand horses in an emergency. He said the Government intended to probe the charges, but that he believed some remount officers had been harshly judged. He did not believe that Lord Kitchener would join in the universal cry against the remount department.

In answer to the War Secretary, John Dillon, asserted that Mr. Brodrick's vague speech only strengthened his suspicions, and he pointed out, as an instance of this, that the Government had not denied that Major Studdart had profited largely through buying horses in Ireland under a false name.

Mr. Brodrick denied that he had no disposition to push the Studdart and other investigations, and said the Government would go to the fullest extremes to convict the perpetrators of conspiracy and fraud.

The vote on the item of transportation and remount was agreed to.

To Subvert British Rule.

London, Aug. 5.—The correspondent of The Daily Mail at The Hague says in a despatch that it is becoming increasingly difficult to combat the generally accepted Dutch theory that the Boers leaders here are campaigning toward the ultimate subversion of British rule in South Africa. The Boer General, Lucas Meyer, who has just reached Holland from London, instead of going to Germany, has stepped at The Hague and is going to visit Mr. Kruger, while several other prominent Boer leaders are assembling here. Nobody at The Hague, continues the correspondent of The Daily Mail, believes their story that their mission is to collect funds for Boer widows.

POISONED BY A CUBAN COOK.

Supposed Vengeance Wrecked Upon Son of Sir William Van Horne.

New York, Aug. 5.—Richard Benjamin Van Horne, son of Sir William, chairman of the Canadian Pacific, lies in the quarantine hospital here, ill with fever and the effects of what is supposed to be poison, given him for vengeance by a Cuban cook in camp near Matanzas, Cuba.

Mr. Van Horne has been chief engineer of the new Cuban Railway, which his father is projecting, was passenger on the steamer Curityba and was taken to the hospital immediately on arrival yesterday.

In Cuba he discharged a native workman, who swore he would get even, threatening to shoot Van Horne on sight. The man left the camp, and later got back, unknown, as cook.

Mr. Van Horne complained of poison symptoms for several days before sailing from Mantanzas for a visit home. He was taken violently sick on board the Curityba, but was given the best care possible by Capt. Hoppe and his officers.

He is reported as being in a critical condition. Sir William has been notified. Sir William's friends in this city were also notified. He is about 30 years old.

JAMES J. HILL IN ROSSLAND.

He Says Some Nice Things That Raise Large Hopes.

Rossland, B.C., Aug. 5.—James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railroad, spent a few hours in Rossland with his party, but the visit was long enough to enable the famous railroad man to say some pleasant things about the Golden City smelting industry.

Mr. Hill remarked: "We have been waiting a long time to see if the camp was to be permanent. Now we are satisfied from the showing by the Le Roi and other mines that permanency is assured, and the Great Northern is prepared to take the matter up in detail with a view to doing everything in its power to enable the mines to utilize the enormous deposits of comparatively low-grade ore which we know they possess."

It is thought that this declaration portends immediate improvements to the road between Rossland and Northport, including substantial reductions in the cost of handling ore between the mines and smelters.

COMING TO CANADA.

Former Texas Ranchers to Take Up a Western Range.

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 5.—C. W. Merchant, J. H. Parradore and R. C. Anderson of Abline, and Cape Willingham of McMillan, prominent Texas stockmen, have arrived at Dallas, en route to Canada, where they will engage a ranch for next season. Heretofore Texas cowmen have been sending cattle to the Dakotas and Wyoming country, but next spring they will try the experiment of using a Canadian range, as they expect in Canada to meet with less disturbances from public authorities. The Texas combination expects to pasture about 2,000 head of cattle in Canada next year.

Well-Known Orangeman Dead.

Halifax, Aug. 5.—James Kelley, assistant traveling passenger agent of the I.C.R., died here yesterday after an illness of only a few days. He was about 48 years of age, a native of Ireland, but a resident of St. John, N.B., for many years, where he leaves a wife and family. He was at one time Provincial Grand Master of the Orange Order for New Brunswick and a Deputy Grand Lecturer of the Grand Lodge of British North America, and was well known all over Canada.

Canadianize the U.S.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 5.—The first definite announcement that the Canadian Pacific will enter American territory has been made by David McNicholl of Montreal, vice-president and general manager of the system. His statements were to a St. Paul railroad official. The important fact indicated by Mr. McNicholl, the official said yesterday, is that the Canadian Pacific definitely plans to secure its own line into St. Paul or a line so closely in its control as to amount to the same thing.

Another Murderer Gone

Ossining, N.Y., Aug. 5—Aaron Hallo was put to death in the electric chair in Sing Sing prison yesterday for the murder of Mary McCarthy, whom he shot and killed in a New York department store, May 17, 1900.

DIED TO SAVE OTHERS

Arthur Curry of Goderich Tp., and Dr. Gray of Tonawanda.

A BIG CHAPTER OF FATALITIES.

Miss Rubie Adams of Toronto Was Drowned Despite Dr. Gray's Effort to Save Her, and Fred. Burnett Went Down to a Watery Grave Although Arthur Curry Went to His Rescue—Other Accidents.

Tonawanda, N. Y., Aug. 5.—Miss Rubie Adams of Toronto, who has been visiting Dr. C. W. Clendeman during the past week, was accidentally drowned in the Niagara River near the Tonawanda ferry about 9 o'clock last night. The Outing Club of Tonawanda, left this city on the yacht Ella H. on a pleasure trip. The excursionists spent a pleasant day, and about 8 o'clock left Coney Island for home. When near the Tonawanda ferry dock Miss Rubie Adams and Dr. Gray, who were on the upper deck of the pleasure yacht, decided to go to the first deck. While Miss Adams was going down the rear steps her foot slipped a step and she fell to the deck below and rolled into the river before aid could reach her. Dr. Gray, who had been with her, dove into the stream and made a strong effort to save her, but owing to the swift current at that point, both were swept away and were drowned.

LOST LIFE FOR FRIEND.

Went For a Swim Sunday and Got Beyond Their Depth.

Clinton, Aug. 5.—A sad accident by drowning occurred on Sunday afternoon in Goderich Township about three miles from Bayfield, and six from Clinton. Two promising and much respected young men, Fred Burnett, only son of George Burnett, and Arthur Curry, only son of Joseph Curry, lost their lives. They had gone with another young lad some two miles from home to Bayfield river to have a swim. Burnett got beyond his depth and Curry went to the rescue. As neither could swim both were drowned. The third lad dragged Burnett's body out and went a mile and a half to the nearest house for assistance. Every effort was made to resuscitate them, but life was extinct.

His Fourth Son Killed.

Dundas, Aug. 5.—Word was received here yesterday that P. H. Clark, son of James Clark, of this town, was killed near Silverwood, Ind. He was an engineer on the Toledo, St. Louis & Kansas City Railroad, and fell from his engine. This is the fourth of Mr. Clark's sons who has met his death while employed on railways.

CAR REPAIRER KILLED.

S. Bown of Winnipeg Run Over in C.N.R. Yards.

Winnipeg, Aug. 5.—S. Bown, a car repairer was killed yesterday in the C. N. R. yards. Bown was engaged in repairing a line of freight cars when the foreman went down and warned all the men to go away, as the engine was going to pull cars out of the yards. Bown moved away with the rest, but evidently went back a few moments afterwards for some tools he had forgotten. He was run over and died a few hours later.

MOTHER'S AWFUL DISCOVERY.

Found Her Son in Cellar, Dead From Hanging.

Yorkton, N. W. T., Aug 5.—John Brio, jr., committed suicide by hanging. He was found in a cellar by his mother at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. No cause is known for the rash act. His mother was overwhelmed by her discovery.

SUICIDE AT FERNIE, B.C.

George Dunsmore of Crow's Nest Pass Co. Cuts His Throat.

Fernie, B.C., Aug. 5.—George Dunsmore, bookkeeper of the Crow's Nest Company, committed suicide Saturday morning. He was in company with two young men, who were making an attempt to reach the summit of the mountain called Middle Sisters. When almost within reach of their goal, Dunsmore's companions, on looking back at Dunsmore, were horrified to see him fall, with the blood gushing from a wound in his throat, caused by a razor. No reason is known why he should do this act, unless it was that he was temporarily deranged, the effect, probably, of the unusual exertion.

May Lose His Sight.

Chatham, Aug. 5.—A little son of J. G. Kerr, barrister of this city, will probably lose an eye as the result of a mishap while playing yesterday. The sight is badly damaged.

DOES THE FARMER LOSE?

The Galt Reporter is wasting tears on the Canadian farmer. It figures out that "the farmer loses" to the extent of $14,451,164, because, according to its statement, we last year imported to that value animals, breadstuffs, fruits, provisions, seeds and roots, vegetables, etc. Without pausing, says the Hamilton Times, to more than note that the Reporter takes no notice of the fact that some of these millions were re-exported, having merely made work for our carriers and our mills, etc.; that the "fruits" include nuts, dates, figs, oranges, lemons, bananas, raisins, currants, prunes, etc., we might remark that the assumption that our farmers lost fourteen millions—or fourteen cents—by the trade is worthy only of an N.P. Rip Van Winkle. The Reporter says: "An adequate duty would place that trade in the hands of Canadians, to a very great extent. Yet the Liberal Government declare that an attempt to succor the farmer is 'mere clap-trap.'" And we think every sensible Tory will say the same thing. Let us get our figs and oranges where they can be grown without "an adequate duty," and pay for them with the products that can be grown without tariff bonuses.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The Mail and Empire says "that majority of one will not survive North Renfrew." Certainly not; it will wake up two the morning after the election."

Mr. F. H. McGuigan, manager of the Grand Trunk Railway, after a trip over the Northern Division, reports everything in first-class order. By the end of the present year the G.T.R. will haave 775 miles of double track. The big double track bridge at Jordon, near St. Catharines, which will cost $200,000, is well under way. He says the grade on the Chicago and Grand Trunk is being reduced, and this will increase the speed about 50 per cent.

The Toronto Star makes a fuss over the heartless act of a "pathmaster" in Bruce county, who made a widow, who couldn't hire help, perform her statute labour with her own hands. The weakest woman in the land wouldn't be injured by doing statute labour if she didn't exert herself any harder than most of the men one sees employed at such work.

It is becoming clearer every day, remarks the Globe, that if there is to be anything in the nature of an imperial trade arrangement it must take the form of freer trade within the empire. Canadian protectionists, by some extraordinary process of reasoning, appear to think that we can do something to enlarge imperial trade by raising instead of reducing our duties. There is no way to increase British trade but to buy more British goods.

Canada is to be a factor in supplying the British army with horses. It is said that about 500 will be purchased in this country every year. According to Col. Dent, the results of the British Army Remount Commission in Canada has been satisfactory. A total of 10,941 horses were purchased, Ontario supplying 7,715; Quebec, 2,225; Maritime Provinces, 115; and Northwest Territories, 886. From April 1st, 1901, to July 7th, of this year, say fifteen months, the sum expended in purchasing horses, railway freight and necessary expenses, approximated $1,618,066.

A great many persons are objecting to church boys' brigades and high school cadet corps on the ground that they foster a too violent military spirit, develop blood thirstiness, etc., etc. This is doubtful, and if it were true, the training the boys receive, if it is in anyway thorough, will offset a good deal of a too aggressive spirit. Properly carried out, a military training develops the physical powers, gives the lads a good straight set-up, and creates the habit of prompt obedience and respect for authority, things that even the pulpit and Sunday school fail to overdo in the boys of the present age.

Mr. R. E. Gosnell, once editor of The Chatham Planet, writing from New York to The Victoria, B.C., Colonist, says:—"Regardless of political predilections, every Canadian must have a feeling of pride in the personality of the man who goes to London to represent the country of his birth, and who by virtue of the importance of that country and the same distinguished personality will take precedence among the Premiers of the empire, saving only the Prime Minister of England. It is a time when we can bury our prejudices deep down out of sight and cheer for the name that stands for us. It is not with the feelings of a Tory or a Liberal that we reply to a question by an American in New York or on board the steamer: 'Who is that distinguished-looking man?' 'That is Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Premier of Canada.' It is with pride of a Canadian, genuine delight to claim as a compatriot a man who ranks like Saul among the prophets wherever he goes."

A Word to the Great Army of Summer Toilers.

If You are not as Robust, Vigorous and Happy as Others in August, a Bottle or Two of

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Will Give You Health, Full Energy and Happiness.

Many men toiling in offices, stores and workshops during this hot summer weather, and women weighted with the works and cares of home, are critically near the breaking down point. The symptoms of coming sickness and disease are manifested in sleeplessness, nervousness, tired feelings, languidness, irritability, failing appetite and poor blood circulation.

Paine's Celery Compound is a precious boon to the ailing, sick and rundown in this August weather. A bottle or two used at once will quickly bestow the needed strength to battle against the weakening and enervating effects of the oppressive heat, and will enable men and women to go through the necessary routine of daily toil with heart, soul and energy. Paine's Celery Compound is specially distinguished for its ability to build up rundown systems in hot weather. Mrs. Mossop, of Mimico, Ont., says:

"I have much pleasure in giving my testimony in favour of Paine's Celery Compound. I was entirely broken down by hard work, anxiety and sleeplessness, and had pains all through my body. Doctors' remedies had no effect, and nothing met my case until I used Paine's Celery Compound. This medicine has done wonders for me, and I would strongly urge all sufferers to use it, as it is the best in the world."

WHAT THE TELEGRAM MEANT.

Merely an Admonition to Mr. Ragg to Drop Investigation.

Montreal, Que., Aug. 5.—A. B. Evans has gone to Europe, but his manager, Mr. Moffatt, made the following statement yesterday re the telegram to Mr. Ragg: "There is no mystery about it at all. Every reasonable man was satisfied that Geen had died a natural death. He had enteric fever in South Africa and was not well afterwards. The doctor said he died from heart disease, and the boy's father felt convinced that there was nothing wrong. Under the circumstances the hint of suicide or something else was very annoying. Mr. Ragg took great interest in the matter, and was apparently fond of something sensational. He kept writing to this office constantly about it. Finally, on June 26, a letter was received from him nominally on business, but half of it was taken up with discussing the Geen matter. Mr. Evans became annoyed, and sent the telegram. It was an admonition to Mr. Ragg to drop the subject and attend to business. Thats all there is to it."

At 2 o'clock a procession was again formed and marched through the gaily decorated streets to the Agricultural Park, where a monster band and baseball tournament was held. The band contest resulted as follows: The 19th of St. Catharines first, with the 48th Highlanders of Toronto second. M. James Robinson of the 13th Band acted as judge. In the baseball tournament Cobourg defeated a crack team from Bowmanville, the score being 22 to 18. Last evening a grand display of fireworks was given and a band concert in the Opera House.

TOWN IN HANDS OF MOB.

Trouble Arouse Out an Attempt to Raise Smallpox Quarantine.

Knightstown, Ind., Aug. 5. — The village of Charlottesville, five miles west of here, was in the hands of a mob for several hours last night, and the sheriff of Hancock County, with 75 armed deputies, is on the scene. The trouble arose from an attempt to prevent the running of its cars by the Indianapolis and Eastern Traction Company.

Recently a quarantine was established by Hancock County against this city on account of smallpox here. The traction company stopped running its cars until Sunday. When an effort was made to resume the police of Charlottesville stopped the second car, arrested the motorman and conductor, and side-tracked the car.

Later other cars were run through the town and late Sunday night a car was assailed by a fusilade of shot from the guards and villagers, and C. M. Kirkpatrick, one of the directors, and several other passengers were hurt.

The sheriff of Hancock County, with the armed deputies, has been sent to the scene to enforce the quarantine.

Owen Sound, Aug. 5.—The first round of the battle between the Lord's Day Alliance and the King's Royal Park Company was fought in the Police Court yesterday morning, on the charge against Capt. The first witness for the defence was N. P. Norton, customs collector, and after his evidence was heard as to the view taken by the department in the matter, the case was adjourned till next Monday.

THE MINERS' STRIKE.

Belief Gaining Ground That Any Serious Attempt by Operator the Mines Will Precipitate Railway Strike.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 5.—Belief is growing that any serious attempt on the part of the operators to resume the mining of coal at this time will precipitate a strike of the various organizations of railroad employes, which will render the situation tenfold worse than it has been since the miners quit work. It is more than probable that the shipment of coal mined by non-union men on a large scale will precipitate a contest on all the coal roads that may easily spread to other systems.

There is already a notable restlessness among the railroad men. They have grievances of their own and they have been urging upon their leaders that this would be an opportune time to bring them to an issue.

In answer to this demand, P. H. Morrissey, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Trainmen, made public a letter last week, in which he said that to strike at this time, would make it seem that the strike had been called in sympathy with the miners, and that he was opposed to any sympathetic strike.

It has already been agreed by the railroad men to contribute money for the support of the miners' strike whenever such a demand is made. This request has now been made, and it is expected that funds will soon be coming in from this source. The levies from the soft coal men and from other labor organizations will not begin to come in before the middle of the present month. It is estimated that, after the flow of contributions has once begun, it will yield not far from $1,000,000 a month. This should be sufficient, with careful management, to meet the needs of the 100,000 men and their families.

At the present time the strike is being supported largely on huckleberries. Miners, with their wives and children, go out regularly and return at night, with pails and baskets filled to the brim. They receive five cents a quart from the local buyers for what they care to sell.

Fernie Coal Strike Settled.

Toronto, Aug. 5.—A despatch received yesterday by Mr. Elias Rogers, Managing Director of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company, stated that the miners' strike at Fernie mines had been satisfactorily settled and the men were returning to work. This applies not only to the mines at Fernie, but also to Michel, where a sympathetic strike had been ordered.

A POSITIVE MAN.

He Seems Able to Prove the Truth of What he Says.

Mr. Chalker Makes Some Very Strong Statements—Explains That he is Prepared to Prove the Truth of Every Assertion he Makes.

Housey's Rapids, Ont., Aug. 3rd.—(Special)—Mr. George C. Chalker, a well known resident of this place, has authorized the publication of a letter containing some very startling statements.

Those who know Mr. Chalker will not ask any proof of the truth of any statement he makes, but to convince those who do not know him, he has announced that he is prepared to substantiate in every detail, the truth of his published statement, which is as follows;—

"It is with pleasure that I certify to the merits of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I was laid up with Kidney Trouble and was so bad that I could not do a day's work. My back was very sore, I had heavy aching arms, dull bloated eyes. I was very weak, and much reduced in weight.

"After I had used six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Tablets I was ten pounds heavier. I often wonder about the powerful virtue of this medicine. I do not know anything about what Dodd's Kidney Pills are said to cure, but I know a great deal about what they will actually do for lame back and Kidney trouble, and I can prove it.

"They are worth their weight in gold to anyone suffering as I suffered. The six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me completely, and there has been no return of my old trouble. That is over three years ago, and I still enjoy good health."

This is, indeed, a very strong testimonial for Dodd's Kidney Pills, and one which will have very good weight with all who have the pleasure of Mr. Chalker's acquaintance or his friendship.

Dodd's Kidney Pills have made many friends and are to-day, without doubt, the most popular family medicine.

—Cobourg is proud of the band contest yesterday. It was something to blow about. And St. Catharines has reason to be prouder, for its band got the decision over the celebrated 48th Highlanders Band. If the 57th had been there St. Catharines might not have got there.

MEMORIAL SERVICES

Held at All Saints' on Sunday—Children Brought Flowers.

At All Saints church on Sunday special memorial services were held. At the morning service reference was made to the four sad deaths which had happened during the two weeks of Mr. Armitage's absence. At 3 o'clock the memorial service was held in connection with the Sunday school to the memory of the late superintendent, Mr. A. Y. Hopkins, the children bringing and presenting bouquets of flowers, some of which were afterwards placed on the grave of the late Mr. Hopkins, and on the graves of the late Mr. Edward Harris and Mrs. Dainty. The remainder were taken on Monday to the Nicholls Hospital and St. Joseph's Hospital. The music included the anthem, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" at the morning service, and "Heaven is My Home," in the evening, Miss M. Rush and Mr. Bruce Rickey taking the solos.

Amongst the excursionists from Toronto were many former members of All Saints' church, who attended the services.

At the police court this morning Mr. Walter Young was charged with being drunk and disorderly on Sunday last. He pleaded guilty and was fined five dollars.

He was then charged with obtaining liquor at Mr. T. Cavanagh's on Sunday. Young pleaded not guilty, and as there was no evidence to offer he was discharged. The charge against Mr. Cavanagh of selling liquor during prohibited hours was not proven, as was also the charges against the Crown and Southern House. In all the cases Young proved to be a witness with a very bad memory and denied point blank having told the Chief where he obtained his liquor.

MR. DIXON JEWETT'S SEND-OFF

The Members of Otonabee Lodge Entertained Him.

Was Made a Triple Presentation Last Night—Mr. Jewett's Reply—An Enjoyable Event.

The members of Otonabee Lodge, I.O.O.F., had a most delightful gathering last night, when they assembled in their hall, at the corner of George and Hunter street, to bid a formal good-bye to Mr. Dixon Jewett, who has for many years been one of the faithful members of the local lodge. There was a large attendance of members, and when Mr. Jewett put in an appearance he was warmly greeted. Mr. Jewett a week or two ago left Peterborough to assume the proprietorship of the Bennett House, Cannington.

At the gathering last night, Mr. F. Packenham, N. G., presided. After the proceedings were set going, Mr. F. D. MacKay, read the following address;

To W. Dixon Jewett, Past Grand:

Dear Sir and Bro.—The officers and members of Otonabee Lodge desire to take advantage of this flying visit you are making to the old town and the old lodge, to do what they did not have the opportunity of doing before you left, and give expression to their appreciation of your good work in the interests of Oddfellowshipin general and Otonabee Lodge in particular, and to let you know how keen is the regret felt at your departure from amongst us. As a member of Otonabee Lodge you have been most active, serving with credit and ability in all the offices of the lodge, including a most successful term as its presiding officer. And in the other work in connection with our social gatherings and annual outings you have done more than you share of the practical hard work, and we would indeed be ungrateful if we did not express our appreciation of the important part you have played in the success of Otonabee Lodge. Your departure from Peterborough will be a serious loss to this lodge, and while we all regret your removal, we one and all wish you success in your new home.

As a small mark of the lodge's appreciation of your past services, we ask you to accept this Past Grand Jewel, and it is the earnest wish of Otonabee Lodge that you may long live to wear it with credit, and to give the Order, wherever you may be, the benefit of your assistance.

The members of the lodge with whom you have been more intimately associated also desire you to accept this ring as a token of their friendship and their esteem of your many good qualities and genial disposition, hoping that it will be be the ring that will wed you in pleasant and never dying memories to your associations in the old lodge.

Once more we wish you health, happiness and prosperity.

Mr. Alex. Rutherford then presented Mr. Jewett with a Pastmaster's Jewel, and Major Miller presented him with a beautiful ring that came from a few of Mr. Jewett's personal friends in the Lodge.

Mr. David Hall, from another section of Mr. Jewett's personal friends, presented him with a bird cage and a pretty little canary.

Mr. Jewett spoke quite feelingly. He thanked the members of Otonabee Lodge for all the evidences of good will they had shown him, and he assured them that he would not soon forget their kindness. He referred to his long connection with the lodge and his earnest hope that the lodge would continue to prosper.

Refreshments were then served, and a social time spent, and Mr. Jewett was showered with best wishes for success in his new venture.

TRAGIC END OF PETERBORO' BEN.

Dies by Dastardly Hand of the Poisoner.

A HERO OF THREE CONTINENTS

Strathcona Horse Mascot Passed Away Last Night—Sketch of a Distinguished Dog Career.

The lightnings may flash and the loud thunders rattle.
He hears not, he heeds not—he's free from all pain;
He sleeps his last sleep; he has fought his last battle.
No sound shall awaken him to glory again.

The patriotic public will deeply regret to learn that Peterborough "Ben", a veteran of the South African war, and the pet of Peterborough in the piping times of peace, died last night from poison administered, as the Coroner's juries say, "by some person or persons unknown."

As is well known the deceased dog came into the possession of the late Mr. McHarrie, local manager of the Bank of Commerce, having been sent to him by a friend in Scotland. He afterwards passed into the possession of the late Mr. R. S. Davidson. When the Strathcona Horse was being recruited "Ben" was attached to the regiment and passed through the distinguished campaign of his comrades with the highest credit. On his return to Peterborough with his regiment, he again came into possession of Mr. McHarrie, and became the guardian angel of the bank premises. Last night he went home with Mr. Geo. Perks, Gilmour street. At nine o'clock "Ben", who had been previously enjoying his usual health was seized with rigors and spasms. Treatment was at once administered and he partially recovered, but was subsequently more violently attacked with chills and intense and alternate opisthotonos and emprosthotonos—symptoms of strychnine poisoning—and in spite of every attention he died at one o'clock this morning. "Ben" received an honourable if unostentatious burial in the garden of Mr. W. W. Johnston's residence, and the tears from the eyes of the children of the family, and some of the elders, too, were as honest tears as many that bedew the dust of many a human being who has perhaps less worthily, in his sphere, performed the duties set before him.

Peterborough "Ben" was not exactly a handsome dog. His face had a sort of rugged beauty, in spite of its being seamed and scarred as the result of many a battle. But his heart was in the right place, he did his duty fully in a noble dog's way. Though he had a distinguished history his humble ending points the moral of the incongruity and mutations of mundane affairs. After a life of adventure on the soil of three continents, after perils by sea and land, after thousands of battles with his canine kind, after braving the bullets of the Boers and the deadly enteric, to come home to die from a poisoned bone picked up in a back yard seems rather an ignoble ending, such as has however fallen to the fate of many a great man.

The following appreciative biography of "Ben" is taken from the Easter number of "St. Margaret's Chronical," a journal published by St. Margaret's College for Girls, Toronto:—

"Ben" comes of a famous breed of Scotch dogs, and it is needless to say, as his physiognomy plainly indicates, he is assertive in disposition, but his history shows he has the courage of his convictions. His pugnacious spirit led him to "accept the King's shilling," and on St. Patrick's Day, of 1900, he left the home of his master, the late Mr. R. S. Davidson, of Peterborough, bound for South Africa as the Mascot of the "Strathcona Horse." The long voyage to Table Bay did not dampen the ardour of Ben's spirits, for it is related of him that on landing at Cape Town he was the very first member of the contingent to begin hostilities. Whether he happened with a Cape, Kaffir or Boer dog, to Ben it mattered not which, he was ever ready "to try conclusions" with him, and as evidence of his military ardour he brought back from the war proofs of many a furious encounter. He returned from South Africa by way of England and toward the end of the few belligerent days he spent in Liverpool (a fine field of activity for a dog of Ben's disposition), he was reported among "the missing" and had it not been for the prompt action of Lord Strathcona, whose acquaintance Ben had somehow previously made, and who evidently had made an impression on his Lordship, he might have been lost to his friends for all time. Lord Strathcona offered a reward of ten pounds for his safe restoration to the regiment, and after a few anxious days of suspense he was discovered in a Refuge for Dogs and restored, 'mid much rejoicing, to his soldier friends, and with a meekness that ill become his character, and with a "next morning" appearance that seemed to fit him better he resumed his accustomed place a wiser, if not a sadder, dog. Neither his long sea voyage, which is always trying to those of his kind, nor the hardships of camp life dampened his spirits or daunted his courage, for he is now back on his native heath, the same old Ben, the battle scarred hero and favourite of Peterborough.

Orillia Defeated in Lacrosse Yesterday by T. A. S.

A Good Exhibition of the Game Witnessed by a Large Crowd—The Score was 4—3.

LACROSSE.

St. Peter's T. A. S. Lacrosse Club added another to their list of victories yesterday, by defeating Orillia on the Murray street grounds by a score of 4—3. Some weeks ago the T.A.S. boys journeyed to the northern town, and were worsted in a friendly game by 8—6, and yesterday's game goes to prove that the teams are about evenly matched. The Orillia line-up was slightly different yesterday, but the team was just as strong, if not stronger, than the one the locals opposed in Orillia some weeks ago. They play beautiful lacrosse; their combination work is swift and accurate, and their checking at all times close and effective. A week ago this team succeeded in defeating the crack Bracebridge team, which had a record of two years of not losing a match, and the struggle is said to have been the hottest that has taken place in Orillia in years past. Their point player, Dan O'Connor, who is well-known to lacrosse enthusiasts, played a rattling game yesterday, as did Hinds at cover point, and Teskey and McKinnon on the home. Rose, who also figured on the home, did all the scoring, and his shooting was a feature of the game. He is certainly a wonder in this line. Arens in goal, however, carried off the palm for the visitors, and he won the applause of the spectators by his brilliant work in the nets. He stopped all kinds of shots, and not only stopped them but bagged them in his stick in a way that kept the T.A.S. home thinking.

The T.A.S. teaam lined up yesterday without the services of Mahoney, Crowley and Lynch, who were unable to turn out. The team went in to win, however, and from the face off to the finish the spectators witnessed first-class lacrosse. The T.A.S. boys played the game of their lives, and it is only fair to state that E. McNichol at centre was the shining star on the locals. The boys passed well at all times, and kept their checks well covered, and did not seem to be afraid to dig in whenever a scrimmage occurred. The score was 1—0 at first quarter in T. A.S. favour; 3—1 at second quarter; 4—2 at third quarter, and 4—3 at the at the close. Frank McCoy has the credit of scoring two goals, Lou McCoy one, and E. McNichol one. Mr. Joe Begley acted in the capacity of referee, but had very little to do during the afternoon.

The line up was as follows;

Peterborough.		Orillia.

R. Arens		O'Brien

Ed. Hinds		Boyle

NOTES.

The gate receipts yesterday were very encouraging.

The T.A.S. boys accompanied the Orillians to the train and gave them a hearty send off.

Fred Derocher took ill during the progress of the game and retired for about 20 minutes.

Lou and Frank McCoy and Jack Gorham, worked like Trojans yesterday.

Jack McDonough was in the game at all times, and with Derocher, Kelly, Boyle, Meagher and McGrath made a first class defence.

Jimmy O'Brien did all that was expected of him in goal yesterday.

Harry Overend had his working clothes on and played first class lacrosse.

The T.A.S. will journey to Hastings on Saturday, Coronation Day.

The Orillias pick Bracebridge as the winners of the northern series.

The northeners were well pleased with the treatment they received at the hands of the T.A.S.

The Orillia team has been under a heavy expense this season. Other years, when Bradford, Barrie and Beaverton were in the series, trips were made by boat, and the boys, as a rule, ran excursions, but this season the team was in different company, was was obliged to travel by rail.

BOWLING-ON-THE-GREEN.

Skip Kerr who intends taking in the tournament at Niagara-on-the-Lake with his rink was defeated by Skip Giroux in a very close match by 1 shot. The teaams were as follows, W. Sailsbury, E. W. Cox, Waddell and R. Kerr; W. F. Johnston, W. J. Green, Melville Green and G. Giroux. 18 ends:

SIR MADHOW SINGH.

MAHARAJAH OF JAIPUR, RULER OF STATE OF RAJPUTANA.

An Orthodox Hindoo's Visit to London to Attend the King's Coronation—All His Food Brought From India, Lest He Should Offend Against Caste by Touching Anything Forbidden.

One of the most important personages amongst the coronation guests of the King, was the Maharajah of Jaipur, ruler of the chief principality in the vast native State of Rajputana. He is one of the most enlightened amongst Indian Princes, his millions of subjects, speaking of him as "father of his people," and looking up to him with the utmost love and reverence. The Maharajah, who by tradition claims to be the direct descendant of the Sun God, was born in 1853, and succeeded to the throne of his ancestors in 1880. He is a stout, but very alert, man with a fine presence, and is a most devout Hindoo, every atom of food and drop of drink, even water, being brought with him from India, lest he should offend against caste by touching anything forbidden His great city of Jaipur, the chief commercial city of Rajputana, takes its name from Maharajah Siwai Jai Singh II., by whom it was founded in 1708. It stands in the bed of a dried-up lake, and is remarkable for the regularity and width of its streets. Its gardens, known as Ram Newas, cover seventy acres, and are considered the finest in India.

The London Chronicle gives the following story of the method by which a true Hindoo Prince finds it possible to leave his country for the coronation without losing caste, by carrying the image of one of his gods with him. The Chronicle says:

Although we have seen many thousands of Hindoos in this country, we have not yet been favored with a visit from an orthodox member of that community. The true Hindoo is most tenacious in his adherence to his own customs. The very idea of reform is a sin, and he can never dream of coming to our shores, for that involves the crossing of the "Kalapani," (black water, or the sea), which would mean to him the loss of his caste. Yet we are about to see in our midst, a really orthodox Hindoo Prince, living and moving about in strictly orthodox Hindoo style. His Highness Sir Madhow Singh, G.C.S.I., G.C.I.E., is better known in India and here as the Maharajah of Jaipur, one of the largest native States in Rajputana, Central India. His Highness, being torn between the desire to accept the invitation to the coronation and his religious scruples, called his Court Pundits to him and requested them to discover some injunction or other from the sacred scriptures which should allow him to cross the sea, and yet keep his caste and scruples intact. Although the Maharajah's problem was an extremely difficult one, and taxed their wits to the utmost, it was solved at last, and the solution was a most ingenious one. They decided that nothing short of taking Gopalji, the Maharajah's favorite image of Krishna, with him, and eating nothing but food already offered to Gopalji, could save his caste and scruples from being broken by the voyage.

But another difficulty presented itself. The problem now was: How could he take Gopalji on board a vessel polluted by the killing or eating of the cow, the most sacred animal of the Hindoos? This insurmountable difficulty was overcome with the help of Messrs. Thomas Cook & Son, his agents, who secured for him a brand new boat, just built, the upper deck of which had to undergo some additions and alterations to suit the requirements of Gopalji and the Maharajah.

An image of a Hindoo god has never before been carried out of India, much less across seas. The carrying of Gopalji across the ocean involves responsibilities and arrangements of the most peculiar and elaborate character. All stores required for the kitchen of Gopalji, were brought on board—from rice and flour and ghee (clarified butter), down to the smallest trifle, enough to last the whole period of the tour. Even when the Maharajah arrives in England, all fresh Indian vegetables will be shipped from Bombay preserved in the best manner possible, for Gopalji cannot touch anything not grown in India. Even Indian earth was brought on board lest it should be wanted at any time.

Moray Lodge, Campden Hill, has been taken for the Maharajah and his personal attendants, and another large building near by for the remainder of his retinue. After the coronation the Maharajah may undertake a continental tour, but this has not yet been settled. The cost of the whole tour has been estimated at £170,000, but the actual figure may approach a quarter of a million sterling.

His Distinguished Career.

The gentlemen to whom the degree of doctor of philosophy was awarded recently by the University of Toronto have had a distinguished career as under-graduate and graduate students. Mr. R. G. Murison (B.A., '98) and Mr. R. Davidson (B.A., '99) stood in the first-class in Orientals and philosophy until their final year, when they chose Orientals as their specialty, and graduated with high honors in that department. In Knox College they made a remarkable record for broad and accurate scholarship, especially in Oriental and Biblical study. Dr. Murison, who has been lecturer in Orientals in University College since 1897, is already well known as a scholar and investigator. His published researches into the primitive beliefs of the Semitic peoples have attracted attention, and he has written a sketch of the history of Babylonia and Assyria (Edinburgh: T. and T. Clark, 1901), which has met with universal approval. He is at present engaged on a similar sketch of Egypt for the same series.

Dr. Davidson was lecturer in Orientals in Trinity University, Toronto, during last season. As the holder of the traveling scholarship from Knox College he intends to spend a year in study in Europe. Dr. Murison's major subject was Hebrew, his first minor Assyrian, and his second minor modern history. His thesis was "the Serpent in Hebrew literature." Dr. Davidson's major subject was Assyrian, his first minor Hebrew, and his second minor Greek. His thesis was "the Semitic Permansive-Perfect Tense." In all of these subjects the candidates took first-class standing, and their work was of distinct original merit. It may encourage those who are endeavoring to promote post-graduate studies in Toronto to note that although one of these gentlemen has already pursued a course of study in Germany, and the other is about to do the same, and although resident fellowships in Semitic languages are offered by several American universities, both of them preferred to receive their doctor's degree from the hands of the alma mater.

WASH DRESSES.

They Are Taking the Place of Shirt Waists This Year.

The shirt waist this year has given way to a number of charming wash dresses. These little gowns are made without lining and are trimmed with many tucks and figures of lace. The favorite materials are glace linen, dainty cotton canvas and pique.

Pique is a stiff material and requires to be softened, so the waist should be daintily bloused and trimmed with lace insertion from which the under material has been cut away. Pique and white glace linen dresses are sometimes made on the "frocks and frills" style, with a full box plaited coat not reaching to the waist line in the back, but drooping in two becoming points in front.

Cotton canvases or etamines are very handsome trimmed with coarse ecru lace and made up over white or contrasting shades of lining.

A simple summer gown is shown in the sketch. The material is white glace linen, and it is trimmed with bands of blue and white linen. The blouse opens over a front of tucked batiste. The wide collar is edged with the blue and white linen and fastens with a bow in front. The skirt is prettily trimmed with three gored ruffles headed by a strapping of the blue and white goods. Just 400 Years After.

In 1492 Columbus discovered America. In 1892, just 400 years later, Merrill, a Brantford druggist, discovered Four T's, the great guaranteed cough and cold cure. In 5 years the sale of a quarter of a million bottles has proven that Four T's never fails to cure a cough in 24 hours, and a cold in two days. Large bottles, 25 cents, at Ormond and Walsh's drug store.

CONSTIPATION!

The Most Frequent Cause of Suffering and Serious Bodily Derangement, is Cured by

Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills.

Irregularity of the bowels and sluggish action of the kidneys and liver are the most frequent causes of the painful and fatal diseases known to mankind. Bright's disease, appendicitis, dropsy and various forms of kidney disease, for example. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills begin by setting the bowels right. Their combined action on the filtering and excretory organs enables them to cure when other medicines fail.

Mr. Jas. H. Harvey, baker, 641 George street, Peterborough, Ont., states:—"I was troubled very much with constipation and pains in the back. At times the pains were sharp like a stab with a knife, and caused me great suffering.

"I heard of many being cured by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and decided to try them. I am pleased to say that they soon helped me, and I used them right along until cured. I never have pains in my back now, and only occasionally take a pill in order to keep my bowels regular."

DON FELIPE

By GRANVILLE TRARE

Copyright, 1902, by Granville Trare

Don Felipe, banker of Manila, knew that to lie for the good of the church is a virtue, and he was not the man to separate religion and business. His devotion to the strong box was no less ardent than his ambition never to fail of counting the requisite number of beads on Sunday or to confess to Father Jose at least once a quarter. So Don Felipe lied with readiness when the church or his pesetas were concerned, especially the pesetas.

Therefore was he considered a good citizen, and thereby also he incurred the wrath of two heretics, impolite Americans with ancient Springfields in their hands and un-Spanish ideas in their prairie grown brains.

But the brains and the rifles served Don Felipe well once when, just after their arrival, he offered two thousand ("Mex.") to Privates Turner and Larson for the rescue of his twelve-year-old son, who was supposed to be at the plantation La Honradez in the interior.

The colonel, on whose ranch the two had punched steers was obdurate when they went to him about it. But Larson had often worsted him at poker, and out of respect for the man he finally gave him permission to try for the reward. As for Turner, the "old man" loathed him for a shiftless dog and considered it only a question whether he would some time reach his death by Mauser bullets or by order of a court martial.

So Don Felipe sent his emissaries jungleward, to return after three months with a medley of bruises and beards of long standing and wide sweep. They brought the boy, and he was bruised about the ears.

"He thought he was the king of these cannibal isles," Turner said. "We had to cuff the little devil a good deal to teach him his place. At first he ordered us around as if he was born in shoulder straps, but we soon taught him that traveling in the jungle isn't the same thing as lying in a hammock and having a nigger to work the fan. That trip was a good thing for the kid. It would have been a good thing for any of these satin skinned Spaniards."

It was philosophy, but Don Felipe was no philosopher. He was indignant and went to the colonel. The colonel in turn was indignant and showed him the door, whereat Don Felipe waxed more wrathy than ever. He swore in fervid Castilian, brandishing his flabby fists, and told Turner and Larson to get their pay where they might.

It was a bluff, a lie, to save the reward, for if more cuffing would have yielded more gold he would have kept the boy's ears roaring like a canebrake in a monsoon. But what was to be done? The military government must be lenient with the resident population, advertising its benevolent intentions. Moreover, how were soldiers, who, according to the sergeant's book, had been spending their time in barracks, to receive pay for a nasty job somewhere in the jungle?

Larson was stupefied. The ingratitude of the man was beyond him. It was an hour before he recovered from the shock, and when the eruption finally began Turner stopped him.

"Return good for evil," he admonished.

Larson was dazed anew, and his dumbness returned upon him.

"We must," continued Turner. "It is best for him that he should pay his honest debts, and we must do what we can to make him see his best interests."

It was Saturday night and Larson was eager for canteen drill, but Turner objected. He turned in early to think.

Monday morning, and Don Felipe sat at his desk, a look, half anger, half terror on his face and his right hand grasping nervously for his cane. The intruder was Turner. Don Felipe's apprehensions were soon quieted, however. Turner stopped at three paces from the door, hat in hand, and made a deep obeisance.

"Will the senor grant me a word?"

Don Felipe radiated majesty for a half minute, then pronounced:

"I shall hear you."

Turner expressed gratitude.

"The senor no doubt expects to dispose of his plantation."

No reply.

"The condition of the country is extremely unsettled and the future is uncertain. The new administration may not be friendly to Spanish interests. Being an American, I am willing to place capital here. In case the senor wishes to dispose of the plantation my friend and I are prepared to offer a satisfactory price."

Don Felipe was astonished at hearing a private refer to himself as a capitalist, but he reflected that the man must be merely an agent, and, moreover, even the shadow of such an opportunity would have been worth grasping at. But business policy dictated delay, and Don Felipe bade his caller to an interview the day following.

"Well?" queried Larson as Turner came back from the second encounter.

"Good. His standing me off for a day was pure bluff. He was dead anxious. All there is left for us to do is to sign the papers and turn over the money."

Larson contorted his visage expressively.

"When do we sign the papers?"

"Saturday evening, and we are to do it in style—invite a dozen or two of the push and have a blowout at the castle of his highness. A banquet is always in order with these Spaniards. A Spaniard couldn't have his mustache curled without giving a dinner."

Numerous paper lanterns rivaled the splendor of twenty white uniforms in the pavilion that served for a banquet hall, and the glory thereof was full compensation to Don Felipe for an expenditure that ordinarily would have been heartrending. He was eloquent in lame English, and there was free flowing of good wine and bad toasts.

"Ellos Socorrodores, the Rescuers," announced the toastmaster, and their host made Turner and Larson feel themselves heroes indeed. He forgot animosities and poured forth his soul.

Larson was touched. He whispered:

"Say, Turner, don't you think, really, now, that the old gent is coming around all right? Maybe we'd better not"—

"Yes, we had too. Suppose we'd be getting any of that if it cost him anything? Don't be easy—and let up on the cognac."

Don Felipe's commercial English was too limited for use on an occasion like this, and in his native tongue, thus interpreted, he concluded:

"Rescuers, heroes, you have restored to me the light of my soul. I owe you the life of my beloved son, and I repay you, senores, with the only reward which the poor may bestow or which heroes can desire; senores, I thank you."

Principals and witnesses signed legal documents, and Turner and Larson became owners of La Honradez.

Don Felipe was about to give the signal for resuming festivities when a servant brought a letter. It was from the plantation. He broke the seal and read:

Honorable Master—I hasten to write to you of what happened when the two Americans were here three weeks ago. One afternoon when we were all fishing in the river where it cut through during the last rains I dropped my fish pail in the water, and when I brought it up it contained some queer yellow pebbles. I showed them to the Americans, and they seemed greatly astonished and said it was gold, and they dipped the pail and brought up more of the pebbles.

Don Felipe did not finish the rambling account. He hastened to find the signature and after casting aside several closely written pages found crowded into a corner:

Your honor's faithful and humble servant, PEDRO.

Don Felipe felt genuine emotion now. His nails blanched, but he did not swear. Turner was watching him, and it was necessary to act. He signed for silence after a moment and said in a broken voice:

"Senores, a letter from my mother, on her deathbed. She—she makes a last request." Pause for supposed grief. "A last request that I shall never part with the beloved estate of La Honradez. Senores, you will appreciate my position. Such a request cannot be denied. I take refuge in the honor and generosity of my dear friends"—

"Alas, your honor's saintly mother," interrupted Turner, "a pious and devout woman, I have heard. Is her name not Pedro? I bribed Pedro to keep silence, but"—

Voluble and profane remarks from Don Felipe; then calm.

He led Turner to one side and settled the business like a man by paying two thousand ("Mex.") to get the deed back.

They of the uniforms departed. Another message arrived. It read:

Senor—It is my duty to inform you of the sad death of your faithful servant, Pedro, on the day before my arrival at La Honradez. He was wildly delirious before death and imagined himself the discoverer of quantities of gold.

TURNER.

How Wars Begin.

"Papa, how do nations get into war with each other?" asked Tommy Seasonby.

"Sometimes one way, sometimes another," said the father. "Now, there are Germany and Spain; they came near getting into war because a Spanish mob took down the German flag."

"No, my dear," put in Mrs. Seasonby; "that wasn't the reason."

"But, my darling," said Mr. S., "don't you suppose I know? You are mistaken. That was the reason."

"No, dearie, you are mistaken. It was because the Germans"—

"Mrs. Seasonby, I say it was because"—

"Peleg, you know better. You are only trying to"—

"Madam, I don't understand that your opinion was asked in this matter anyway."

"Well, I don't want my boy instructed by an old ignoramus."

"See here, you impudent"—

"Put down your cane, you old brute. Don't you dare bristle up to me or I'll send this rolling pin at your head, you old"—

"Never mind," interrupted Tommy; "I think I know how wars begin."—London Answers.

Pill Manufacturers Enraged.

The makers of all the various pills on the market are greatly troubled over the new medicine, Merrill's System Tonic. It is doing away with their business. System Tonic is not only a positive cure for Habitual Constipation, but a blood purifier and builder as well as a tonic for every organ in the body. One 50c bottle cures to stay cured. Sold at Ormond & Walsh's drug store.

Used in Bookbinding.

It seems a somewhat surprising statement to make that eggs, condensed milk, olive oil and vinegar are all used in the binding of books. Yet such is the case. The white of egg is used for "sizing," to cause the delicate ornamental gold leaf to adhere to the leather. To make the "sizing" perform its adhesive work even more delicately a little milk is added, and to help further in the important work of adhesion, a coating of olive oil or diluted vinegar is sometimes applied to the leather. Wise old bookbinders have been seen to use the light froth of ale as a coating over a binding of silk. The froth holds the gold leaf with perfect success and does not stain the silk. Many of the old expert bookbinders have little secret methods of their own by which to produce peculiarly fine results, and these secrets they guard as jealously as the housewife does her favorite family recipes.—Pearson's Weekly.

A Matter of Mare.

"You should get your ears lopped, O'Brien," said a "smart" tourist to an Irish peasant whom he was quizzing. "They're too large for a man."

"An', bedad," replied the Hibernian, "I was just thinkin' yours would want to be made larger. Sure, they're too small for an ass."

Helping Him Along.

"Do you think your father would offer me personal violence if I were to ask him for you?"

"Hardly, but there's no telling what he will do if you don't say something pretty soon."

An Obstinate Case of Eczema.

Mr. W. D. Johnston, Tilsonburg, Ont., writes that his father was entirely cured of a long standing and obstinate case of Eczema by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. His leg and foot were a mass of sores that refused to heal, and he suffered terribly from the itching and stinging. Though he used a great many remedies and was treated by first-class doctors, no permanent relief was obtained until he used Dr. Chase's Ointment.

ASHBURNHAM COUNCIL.

The Regular Monthly Meeting Held Last Night.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ashburnham village council was held last night. There were present Mr. John H. Smith, reeve, and Messrs. Johnston, Sheridan, Pollock and Adams.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and confirmed.

Accounts to the amount of $220.20 were presented and ordered to be paid.

A statement of receipts and expenditures from July 7 to August 2 was received, the former amounting to $93.08 and the latter $719.95.

A communication was received from the Ashburnham school board stating that a levy of 5 mills on the assessment for 1902 will be required and also from the Separate School Board, requesting the collection of $417.60 from supporters of the Peterborough Separate School, who are rated in Ashburnham, as taxes for the current year.

After consideration of a communication from a number of the ratepayers the council decided to have a new sidewalk built on Driscoll Terrace, from Elizabeth street to Douro street and to have the same four feet farther from the fence than the present one.

On motion of Messrs. Johnston and Adams, the clause in bylaw No. 57, regarding licenses for retail butchers, was amended by reducing the cost of a license from $25 to $12.

A motion was passed, referring the matter of granolithic sidewalks on Elizabeth street for consideration at a special meeting of the council to be held next Monday. Estimates will be prepared in the meantime, and the question will be thoroughly discussed.

The question of extending the water mains was placed in the hands of a special committee to report at the next meeting.

An Aching Back.

Is the first indication of kidney disease, and should be taken as a signal of danger—a warning to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, while yet there is time to avoid the dreadful pains and certain fatality of this certain disease. There is no guess work, no experimenting when you use this prescription. It brings relief in a remarkably short time, and because of its combined action of liver and kidneys, cures complicated cases which cannot be reached by an ordinary treatment.

TOWN COUNCIL REGULAR SESSION.

A Light Batch of Business—Many Petitions for Remission of Taxes—Alderman Turner Welcomed Home—New Boiler for Town Buildings.

The regular meeting of the Town Council was held last night. Present, Mayor Denne, presiding, and Aldermen Batten, Best, Corkery, Clinkscale, Morrison, Turner, McGregor, Rush, Roger and Edgcumbe.

After the reading of the minutes, Mayor Denne said he was glad to see Alderman Turner in his place, after a prolonged absence in England, and he was sure the members would join in his welcome home. Though, owing to the unfortunate illness of the King, Mr. Turner missed seeing the Coronation, he hoped he had enjoyed a pleasant visit.

Alderman Turner said that his visit though disappointing in its main object, had been a most pleasant one, and he had seen a great deal, especially the review of the colonial troops, and a sight of the numerous nationalities represented by the soldiers of the Empire, was a most impressive one, as was also the reception of General Lord Kitchener of Khartoum. He had not forgotten Peterborough, and had brought back with him six persons to add to the population of the town.

COMMUNICATIONS

were received and disposed of as follows;

From F. Brownscombe, treasurer, respecting taxes.—Received.

From Alex. Killenbeck, asking rebate of dog tax.—Court of Revision.

From A. J. MacDonald, superintendent of the American Cereal Co., stating that his company was prepared to go ahead with the filling in of the flume at Hunter street, and the laying of permanent railway tracks, and saying that they would be pleased to have the work done under the direction of the Town Engineer.—Granted, the petitioners to assume all risks.

From Messrs. Stratton & Hall, re the taxes on the plant of the Peterborough Underwear Co.—Court of Revision.

From Adele Forcier, asking that her taxes be remitted, as she is unable to pay them. — Court of Revision.

From T. Moldon, asking that his statute labour tax be refunded. — Court of Revision.

From G. Mowatt, W. Menzies, Annie Sheppard, Wm. Buller and Patrick Lynch, asking rebates of dog taxes, claiming that they had no dogs —Referred to the Court of Revision.

From Minicolo Bros., asking a rebate of $20 on peddlers' license. — Referred to the License Committee, with power to act.

From Thos. J. Wilson, asking that the sidewalk in front of his new residence on London street, be repaired, and that the street be graded. — Referred to the Board of Works.

From Elizabeth B. Kennedy, on behalf of the Y.W.C.A., asking that the taxes on their property be remitted. —Court of Revision.

From Wm. Staunton and John Sullivan, asking rebate of dog taxes.—Court of Revision.

From Peter Connal and others, asking that a bylaw be passed closing all grocer shops at 7 o'clock, except Fridays, Saturdays, the night before holidays, two weeks before Christmas and one week afterwards.—Referred to the Legal Committee.

From Wm. Pilling, respecting drainage on Bolivar street.—Referred to the Board of Works.

From Dr. Moher, tendering resignation as member of the Board of Health.

Mayor Denne said that the town had sustained a distinct loss in the departure of Dr. Moher. He had given most efficient service in his official capacity, especially during the small-pox trouble, and he hoped the town would be fortunate enough to secure as good an official in his successor.

Resignation accepted.

From M. A. McCartney, requesting the grading of Murray street from Reid to Rubidge streets. Mr. Anglesyc was heard in support of the petition, which was referred to the Board of Works.

STOCK MARKETS.

Booming Markets.

New York, August 4th.—In New York as elsewhere periods of activity accompanied by heavy trading are followed by waiting periods or one of rest, in which quotations rise and fall more or less aimlessly it is a resting period and commonly designated in Wall street parlance, "A Trader's Market." Such a state of affairs exists at present, but indications are strong that the bull movement will shortly be recommenced. It is the heighth of the summer vacation period and the powers that be are following the usual custom of a few days market dormancy. Plans relative to the great lines are, however, now being pushed most energetically. Result—a rising market will naturally follow. Manhattan has occupied the centre of the stage the latter part of the past week, and rumours connecting it with N.Y.C. are again current. At the proper time they will no doubt materialize. It seems a certainty that all kinds of securities will reach a higher level of percentage before the termination of August.

Latent obstinate strength was the feature of last week's market, even when most vigorously attacked. The bull forces evidently encouraged the bearish fraternity to their best efforts. The success they met with was but normal. Stocks do not come out when declines are recorded, and the market becomes. We see no reason at present writing for holders of stocks to worry at all, and continue.

To-day's market was dull and without feature. Trading after twelve o'clock was of very secondary importance, and commission house business was trifling. A rumour of an impending announcement of some amalgamation project in connection with pressed steel fell absolutely flat. Tex. acted well and appeared to be oversold on the recent floods. There was considerable bullish sentiment on T.C.I. during the day, but re-acted in the last hour. Profit taking appeared in M.O.P. late in the afternoon, also considerable realizing in Atch. Few other recessions took place this afternoon, however.

Market closed listless and without feature. However, we advise buying on recessions, as we believe the next activity in the market will be for higher prices.

THE COST OF LIVING.

Reason exists these days for agitation for increases of wages in many lines of industry. The cost of living is greater decidedly than it was a few years ago. Most householders are aware of this, especially when such sharp reminders are supplied as recently in the case of the price of meat; but it is interesting to note the exact figure as estimated by supposed experts.

In the early part of each month Dunn's Review publishes a table showing what supplies sufficient to last one person a year would cost according to the prices quoted on the first day of the month. The figures for July are given in the current Review, and estimate the cost in the United States as $101.81, which is $10.41 more than the cost a year ago. In a family of five, this would amount to at least $50 in a year. For Canada the increaase is probably proportionate as the general conditions in the two countries are much the same.

Dunn's Review gives figures for yearly supplies as far back as Jan., 1888, and the quotation for the current July 1st, is the highest during that period, with one exception, that for May 1st, 1902, which was $102.29. All this year the estimate has ranged much the same, and uniformly higher than last year. The chief items which have contributed to an increased cost of living during this year are breadstuffs, which include wheat, corn, oats, rye, barley, beans and peas; and meats. During June breadstuffs rose 6.7 per cent. The cause, of course, was the large demand and consequent high price for grains and flour, in spite of the fact that the wheat yield last year was the largest ever harvested in America. Oats and corn, however, were below the average. These facts explain the increased cost of breadstuffs. The rise in meats as compared with June 1st was over 3 per cent. Naturally, the cost of dairy and garden products fell off in June, so that the quotation for July 1 was over 8 per cent. less than for June 1, and the fall during May was 7.3 per cent. As compared with a year ago the increase in the cost of living on the first of this month was about 11 per cent., due almost entirely to the enhanced prices of breadstuffs and meats.

Food is not the only factor in the cost of living, although with most families the greatest. But certainly in other important things — rent or price of clothing—there has been no reduction. So the average family, especially among the less well-to-do classes, is unquestionably at a higher cost of living than a year or two ago, and at a decidedly greater cost than a few years ago. There is reason for increased wages and salaries.

GOOD FISHING.

Mr. W. Bailey, of Cobourg, last night sent up to Mr. Elcome, Peterborough's well-known taxidermist, a beautiful black bass weighing 6 pounds 2 ounces. The bass was caught at Rice Lake. It will be suitably mounted.

Mr. Adam R. J. Hall while out trawling last night between the Hunter and C.P.R. bridges hooked onto and landed a beautiful 12 pound lunge. Ad. says that he is going out after the mate of it this evening.

SEGUIN SANK VENICE.

Bay City Steamer Rammed by a Parry Sound Steamer.

VENICE SANK IN DEEP WATER.

The Seguin Shove Right Through the Doomed Craft on a Clear Night—Three Lives Were Lost and Several Persons Were Injured—Tragedy in Lake Erie Off Rondeau.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 6.—As a result of a collision on Lake Erie between the City of Venice and the Steamer Seguin, a steel lumber vessel, off Rondeau, Ont., Monday night just after midnight, the former vessel was sunk, and three lives were lost, while several other persons were more or less seriously injured.

The drowned—Peter Simondson, fireman, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Thomas Flanigan, deck hand, Buffalo, N.Y.; George Weir, watchman, residence unknown.

Injured—John Sullivan, Chicago, contusion of back, will probably die; J. A. McDougal, Cheboygan, Mich., engineer, City of Venice, arm injured and body badly bruised; Louis Hubecker, Cheboygan, Mich., head and back badly bruised.

The cause of the collision is not known. There was no fog whatever, and the night was fairly clear. The lights of the City of Venice were burning brightly. The second mate of the Seguin, W. A. Lavigne, who was on watch, refuses absolutely to give any information about the accident. "The less said about it the better," was his only remark.

The City of Venice, laden with 3,600 tons of ore, was bound to Buffalo, while the Seguin was going north to Parry Sound from Ogdensburg. On board the Seguin all were asleep save Lavigne and a watchman with him in the pilot house. The first mate of the Venice, Sullivan, was on watch aboard that boat. He is now in the hospital. The Seguin struck the Venice fairly amidships and plowed her way half through the boat.

All those who were sleeping rushed out on deck, and there was a frightful panic for a time. The Venice was sinking rapidly. Captain Broderick ran on deck in his sleeping robes and called to the men to man the lifeboats. The members of the crew who had not been hurt rushed to his assistance, and in five minutes they had the boats in the water. Several of the men threw themselves overboard, but they were picked up by the lifeboats from the Seguin. The City of Venice went down in very deep water in less than fifteen minutes after the collision occurred. After standing by for an hour the Seguin headed for Cleveland with the survivors, arriving here early yesterday.

The City of Venice was a wooden vessel, 301 feet long and 42 feet beam. She was owned by the McGraw Transportation Company of Bay City, Mich., and valued at about $175,000. She was commanded by Captain Broderick. The Seguin is an iron vessel, 207 feet long and 34 feet beam. She is owned by J. B. Miller of Parry Sound and commanded by Captain J. B. Sims.

THE TOBACCO INQUIRY.

The Investigation Will Begin on September 6—The Ministers Abroad—The Cape Town Memorial Fund.

Ottawa, Aug. 6.—His Honor Judge MacTavish held a preliminary meeting yesterday morning in the Court House here of the royal commission to inquire into the tobacco trade of Canada. Mr. C. S. Campbell, K.C., of Montreal, represented the Empire Tobacco Company, and Messrs. J. M. Fortier and Goldstein of Montreal appeared on behalf of the petitioners, who allege that the American and Empire Tobacco Companies issue an unfair contract, which militates against the interests of other manufacturers and the tobacco trade generally. It was represented to Judge MacTavish that it would be difficult to get the witnesses together until the month of September, and his Honor adjourned the commission until that month at Ottawa, it being understood that all persons interested in tobacco manufacture would be notified to be present. The commission will probably sit at Windsor, the centre of the tobacco growing industry; in Toronto, Hamilton, Kingston, London, Montreal, Quebec, St. John and Halifax.

The Ministers Abroad.

A letter received in the city from one in close connection with the Canadian Ministers attending the Colonial Conference, states that there has been considerable progress made during the past week. It is expected, however, that the conference will last until the day before the coronation, when it is thought the deliberations will have been completed. Hon. Mr. Paterson is booked by the Allan Liner Tunisian, which sails from Liverpool on September 11th. It is expected that Sir Frederick Borden and Hon. Mr. Fielding will return about the same time. The Premier and Sir William Mulock will return later.

The Cape Town Memorial.

Patrons: His Majesty the King, Her Majesty Queen Alexandra, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales.

The proposal is to erect at Cape Town a building which shall serve as a memorial to those who have fallen in the South African war and as a thank-offering for those whose lives have been spared.

It has been decided that the memorial shall take the form of the eastern portion of the new cathedral. This portion of the cathedral will cost at least £30,000. The names of all those who have fallen in the war will be preserved on the walls of the building so far as possible. Towards the adjacent portion of the building a sum of £20,000 has been subscribed, mainly from colonial sources.

His Excellency the Governor-General desires that the action of the memorial be brought to the notice of the militia of Canada, in order that those members of it wishing to do so might have an opportunity of subscribing towards the fund to be raised for the purpose of the memorial.

Donations may be paid, if desired, by annual instalments, extending over a period of years. Contributions should be remitted direct to the Secretary Cape Town Cathedral Memorial Fund, Church House, Westminster, S.W.

Thronged All Day Tuesday

Were it not that rare, good, honest buying opportunities are offered at this sale, the crowds would not be so continuous.

We anticipate for to-day a repetition of yesterday, and shall be glad to see to-day those who had not time yesterday to wait, or finish their purchases.

Denial of Sinister Rumors About The King's Health.

KING TO BE IN LONDON TO-DAY.

Victoria Station Brilliantly Decorated—The Trip to London Will Be Made on a Royal Special Train—Felt That His Majesty Is Fully Equal to the Fatigue of the Journey—Some Start of Yacht Race.

London, Aug. 6.—All preparations have been completed for the return of King Edward to London to-day. The Victoria Station has been brilliantly decorated. It is expected that his Majesty's return to the capital will be marked by a great street demonstration en route to Buckingham Palace. The trip to London will be made on a royal special train, but there will be no invalid chair or other special arrangement, for it is felt that his Majesty is fully equal to the fatigue of the journey.

Story of Second Operation Denied.

A story afloat for several days that a second operation for appendicitis will be performed on the King after the coronation, is denied here. According to all authoritative reports the King is making an excellent recovery and it is considered unlikely that his physicians would allow him to endure the fatigue of the coronation ceremonies if another operation was impending.

RACE FOR KING'S CUP.

The Meteor's Lead Not Maintained—King Saw the Start.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Aug. 6.—The second day of the Royal Yacht Squadron's regatta was favored with beautiful weather, the sky was clear, but the wind was rather light. There were twelve starters in the race for the King's Cup, with the German Emperor's Meteor III. at the scratch.

King Edward watched the start of the yachts in the race for the King's Cup with keen interest, and at 1 o'clock the Victoria and Albert steamed slowly in the direction of Ryde to meet the returning racers.

At the finish the Bryn Hild led, with the Glory second, and the Meteor third.

In 1827 he came to Canada with his parents and in 1848 graduated M. D. from McGill College, Montreal. Dr. Christie filled many local positions in the County of Argentouil. When the ship fever scourge broke out in 1847 he was appointed assistant surgeon at Point St. Charles, in which capacity he did active and faithful work. Dr. Christie entered Parliament in December, 1875. He was re-elected in 1878, but was unseated. He was again returned in 1891, 1896 and 1900. He was an ardent Liberal, an earnest prohibitionist, and took an active interest in Sabbath observance.

CAPTAIN LEFT WRECKED SCHOONER

Sixty-Five Persons Picked Up by Steamer Sardegna.

New York, Aug. 6.—The Italian steamer Sardegna arrived yesterday from Naples having in tow the two-masted schooner Notice of Providence, R.I. The schooner sailed from Brava, Cape Verde Islands, on June 27 with 65 persons but no cargo. On July 21 a sudden squall struck her, disabling her, and she drifted helplessly in the Gulf Stream. On June 27 the rudder was lost and the captain, Antonio Ramos disappeared, having evidently jumped overboard. When the Sardegna appeared on August 30 the Notice's provisions were running short.

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 6, 1902.

AT IT AGAIN.

Mr. J. P. Whitney, the leader of the Ontario Opposition, has achieved an unenviable reputation as an extremist. His violent and unconsidered rashness of asseveration in public, and with all the responsibility that attaches to his position, have made him a marked man, and deprived his utterances, as a public man, of the consideration due to a public man, who habitually keeps within the lines of truthful, or, at least, temperate and unexaggerated statement. Recently Mr. Whitney in a public address, stated that in every one of 98 constituencies, an organized attempt was made to steal one or two ballots in each sub-division. This wild statement, impugning the honour and honesty of every deputy returning officer, is naturally resented, and Mr. Whitney has heard from one or two of these slandered officials, who doubtless represent scores of others. The following open letters, addressed to Mr. Whitney, and rebuking him in good set terms, are printed in the Toronto World;

J. P. Whitney, M.L.A.,—I notice by the report in the Toronto World of a meeting you addressed in Holland Landing, on July 17th, that you state that "in every one of the ninety-eight constituencies an organized attempt was made to steal one or two ballots in every polling sub-division." "In every constituency a great deal of looseness and carelessness prevailed among the deputy returning officers." I notice by the Mail and Empire also that you are reported as making substantially the same statement.

I was a deputy returning officer at polling sub-division No. 5, in the township of Whitechurch, in the North Riding of the County of York, at the recent election, and I wish to say to you that, so far as my polling place was concerned, your statement, is an unqualified falsehood. I know most of the returning officers in this constituency and they are a class of men you cannot come into this riding and deliberately slander, as you did at Holland Landing in your speech there. There were a number of Conservatives who acted as deputy returning officers in North York. I would like very much to hear the opinion of these men on the statement that you made. I am perfectly satisfied that there was not one ballot stolen in one polling sub-division in this riding, and a man who at a public meeting would make the charge that there was, I would regard as a cowardly slanderer. I think you ought to apologize to every deputy returning officer in the riding, but from what I know of your political utterances in the past, I hardly expect you to take the manly course of doing so. I challenge you to prove the statement that you made in my polling sub-division, and shall await with interest your either taking it up or crawling out of the situation, as you have so frequently done when your statements have been challenged in a similar manner in the past.

Yours respectfully,
NELSON MAY.

Mr. J. P. Whitney,—I notice by the reports of your address at Holland Landing on July 17th, that you make the sweeping assertion that one or two ballots were stolen in every polling sub-division in the province at the last provincial election. It seems to be characteristic of you to make sweeping assertions without your being able to prove them, but I hardly expected a man who aspires to be premier of the province of Ontario to slander in this way a large, and perhaps, I may say, respectable body of men, who had charge of the polls in the contest on the 29th May.

I wish to say to you that not one ballot was stolen in my polling sub-division, and when you included me, which you did in your assertion, you were stating a deliberate falsehood, and you were doing so with the knowledge that it was untrue, because you could not possibly have information to go to prove its truth. I challenge either you or your friends, who cheered your utterances at the meeting, to give one tittle of proof for the statement that you make. I hardly expect you to take up the challenge, because I am strongly of the opinion that if you set out to prove all the assertions that you make in your speeches when you usually allow your party feelings to run away with your judgment, you you find yourself in serious difficulty. I hope that you will be gentleman enough to apologize to the men, whom, according to the reports in the papers, you deliberately slandered at Holland Landing on that day.

Yours respectfully,
A. J. McCRACKEN.

We cannot expect Mr. Whitney to justify his language or to apologize for his slander. We all remember how viciously he attacked Mr. Conmee during the last election, and though his attention was called to the foundationless nature of the alleged facts upon which he based his charges, though he claims to "be bold enough to be honest," he was not honest enough to retract the slanderous imputations he had made against a prominent Liberal.

Readers of the political columns of the newspapers in which Mr. Whitney's remarks are published, should be provided with a permanent supply of salt—a few grains are needed with every political statement made by Mr. Whitney, especially in criticism of his political opponents.

The Manitoba Free Press says that the C.P.R. land sales for July were larger by about three times than they were during the same month a year ago. The sales for July, 1902, amounted to 155,344 acres for $564,-892.50. For July, 1901, the sales were 49,089 acres for $154,646.84. This land has been well distributed over all sections of the country, and the sales are in nearly every case for actual settlement. The sales of the Canada Northwest Land Company for July were 29,354 acres for $165,-231.69.

The Globe says that the Mail finds fault with Sir Wilfrid Laurier because his speeches in England are not sufficiently jingoistic. It must be said for The Mail's friends that however jingoistic they may occasionally be in speech their conduct is quite untainted with that vice. In the winter of 1895-6 there was considerable excitement in the British Empire over Cleveland's Venezuela proclamation and the German Emperor's telegram of congratulation to Kruger. It was considered that the situation was critical, and throughout the United States there were threats of invasion of Canada. Just at this time the Conservative Ministry of Canada quarreled and collapsed, thus creating a Ministerial crisis, which would have been highly convenient for the United States if there had been trouble. There was no jingoism in that.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

(From our own Correspondent.)

A very pleasant excursion party, consisting of four persons, left Omemee station on Aug. 2nd, their destination being that lovely summer resort, Magantewan," in the Parry Sound District. Two of the party came from the town of Peterborough, one from Richmond Hill, and one from Mount Pleasant. We hope they will enjoy their outing, and that during their stay in the north their energies will be devoted to a large share of missionary work, as those remote districts are shut out during a great portion of the year from civilization. We hope to hear from the party on their return more than those fish and bear stories that go to fill up the columns of some newspapers.

The crop of fall wheat in this section is excellent, and now that we have a new moon, we may expect dry weather. Oats are promising a great yeild, and very large areas have been sown, so that farmers will find their deposits in the bank much larger than for many years past. The weather during haying time was not just as we might have wished for, but the crop of hay has exceeded the expectation of farmers, so that we will have enough and to spare. Let us be thankful for such an abundant harvest, and acknowledge with gratitude the goodness of God to His dependent creatures. Let there be joy and gladness, instead of grumbling and sadness.

George Howson, the collector of taxes for Cavan, was in our village last week. The query is, was he collecting for the roadwork undone by those who should have under the old system put in so many days road work, when changes are made that have been of so long duration and of such a satisfactory nature? Surely our municipal fathers should give prior notice of such changes so that the ratepayers may know what they ae doing in the council. Our local paper is open and will be glad to publish all their proceedings, and the burdened taxpapers will be only too glad to hear all the doings of our municipal council.

Although the medicine business should, above all, be carried on with the utmost conscientiousness and sense of responsibility, the unfortunate fact is that in no other is there so much humbug and deception. The anxieties of the sick and their relatives are traded upon in the most shameful manner; impossible cures are promised; many preparations are absolutely worthless, and some are positively dangerous to health.

As a consequence, all proprietary remedies are regarded with suspicion by many people, and the good suffer for the bad.

For these reasons we announce that our proprietors are the principal shareholders in

TRIED TO JUMP CONTRACT.

But Scotch Machinists Were Overhauled and Taken Back.

Kingston, Aug. 6.—An attempt to get some of the Scottish machinists out of the country has been frustrated by the alertness of the locomotive works management. The strikers are accused of the work. They are said to have met the Scotchmen and induced them to accept $11 each to go to Clayton, N. Y., to get work in Watertown, N.Y. They were taken aboard a vessel and secured. Meantime some Scotchmen told the story and it reached the management. Several of the heads, with an officer and lawyer, started in a steam yacht. Outside the harbor the Scotchmen were called out and given their chance of arrest for attempting to jump a contract or return to work. They choose the latter, and at Brophy's Point were taken off the vessel and put on board the yacht for Channel Grove. They gave the money received to Mr. Birmingham, and made affidavit of the circumstances leading up to their attempt to leave the country.

Attacked by Strikers.

South Manchester, Conn, Aug. 6.—The first acts of violence in the strike of the velvet weavers employed in the Cheney Bros. mill, occurred yesterday. Henry Leister, a non-union man, accompanied by a guard consisting of four members of the firm, was attacked by 15 strikers as he was on his way to work. He was knocked down by a large stone, and it is reported that he is severely injured. No one else was injured.

Blacksmith's Backache.

Swinging heavy hammers, frequent stooping over shoeing horses, getting a wrench once in a while from a refractory horse, bending at all sorts of odd jobs that the average blacksmith does—any wonder that in time the strongest man begins to find his back give out and his kidneys trouble him.

The progress of medical science has produced nothing that is a greater boon to the blacksmiths throughout this country than Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. They get at the origin of the backache in the kidneys and make a thorough and radical cure.

THE RESULT OF A STRAIN.

A. Soper, blacksmith, John Street South, Aylmer, states his cases as follows: "A blacksmith's work is always hard and mine is no exception. I strained my back some time ago, and the trouble settled in the small of my back and kidneys, laying me up. I have been subject in times past to an attack of backache, and took different kidney pills, but got little relief after long use. This time I got a bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets and they stopped the attack in a hurry. They acted far differently and away quicker than anything I ever took. I am pleased with them, and consider them satisfactory in every way."

FAST SERVICE LINES.

Questions Asked and Answered in the British Commons.

BERESFORD TO VISIT AMERICA.

The Government Has No Official Information Regarding the C.P.R. Tender—Mr. Morgan's Offer to the Admiralty Referred to—A Proposed British Canadian Combine to Fight Steel Trust.

London, Aug. 6.—In the course of the consideration of the naval estimates in the House of Commons yesterday, Edmund Robertson (Liberal), alluding to the statement that J. Pierpont Morgan had offered the Government the right to utilize the vessels of the ship combine as British cruisers, said he hoped that neither the Admiralty nor the Government would make a conclusive bargain in so serious a matter without affording the House an opportunity to considering it.

Hugh O. Arnold-Forster, Secretary to the Admiralty, in reply said he was not in a position to make a statement on the subject, except to say that the Admiralty certainly was not relying on any pledge made by any foreigners. The subsidies to which the Admiralty was not committed, however, would be paid.

Continuing the Secretary to the Admiralty said he was not in a position to state what might be the ultimate decision of the Government on the larger question of subsidization, or in regard to contributions toward the establishment of new lines between the United Kingdom and the colonies.

Beresford to Visit America.

London, Aug. 6.—Rear Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, M.P., will visit the United States in the coming autumn to study the American navy and to inquire into the working of the Morgan shipping combination.

British-Canadian Combine.

Montreal, Aug. 6.—The Herald last night published a circumstantial but confirmed story that the Dominion Steel Company and the Nova Scotia Steel Company and a well known English corporation, which has works established in all the principal mining areas in England, would probably combine in the near future. This gigantic British and Canadian steel corporation will compete with the American Steel Trust not alone for the control of the steel markets of the world but for the production of manufactured steel products cheaper than they have ever been produced before.

NEGOTIATIONS PROCEEDING.

Proposition For Establishment of Fast Service Regarded Favorably.

London, Aug. 6.—Replying to an inquiry in the House of Lords yesterday, the Earl of Onslow, Under Secretary of the Colonial Office, said the Government had no official information on the subject, but had reason to believe that negotiations were proceeding between the Canadian Government and the Canadian Pacific Railway. The British Government did not know whether these negotiations were likely to lead to a satisfactory conclusion, but it regarded favorably any project for the establishment of a fast steamship service between the United Kingdom and any of His Majesty's dominions.

Concerning the rivalry of ports in the United Kingdom ambitious to be made terminal ports for such service, the Earl of Onslow said the Government would be glad to form a ring to see the matter fought out fairly.

MR. TARTE AT OWEN SOUND.

Assures Deputation That Harbor Improvements Will Be Made.

Owen Sound, Aug. 6.—Hon. Mr. Tarte arrived here at noon yesterday on the Lord Stanley, and received a deputation from the council and board of trade during the afternoon. After examining the harbor extension work he expressed himself as pleased and satisfied with the progress made. He assured the deputation that the improvements would be pushed until the harbor was made one of the best on the lakes, with at least twenty feet of water throughout from the entrance to the swing bridge. The question of a public building was left in abeyance as an appropriation for that purpose will be recommended at the next session of the House. The Minister left about 5 o'clock.

Lightning in St. Mary's.

St. Mary's, Aug. 6.—During an electric storm yesterday afternoon lightning struck the implement factory of David Maxwell & Sons and started a fire in the paint vats, but it was put out.

The dwelling house of Joseph Longhorne in the west ward was also struck and considerably damaged.

STORM HIT FONTHILL HARD.

Damage Estimated at $25,000 Done by a Fall of Hail.

St. Catharines, Aug. 6. — Word reached here yesterday from Fonthill through the postmaster, Mr. Fred Kinsman, that the most disastrous storm in years struck that village on Sunday afternoon, causing a loss of between $25,000 and $30,000. It struck the village at the same time as the cyclone struck this city, but the greater damage there was done by hail. Mr. Kinsman saw the storm coming when it was about two miles away and warned several of the danger approaching.

The different fruit and grain farms are badly damaged. Mr. A. Railton and Mr. Wm. Platts, fruit-growers, will lose to the amount of $2,000 each. The large vineyards were stripped of their fruit, and fully 50 per cent. of the peaches and plums were cut off. Morris Stone's and Wellington's nurseries were badly damaged, their loss amounting to several thousands of dollars. Fisher & Son, nurserymen, were heavy losers. Mr. Frank Muirhead's place was damaged and one cow killed.

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN ASSOCIATION.

Annual Convention Being Held a Stratford—Reports Presented.

Stratford, Ont., Aug. 6.—The annual session of the Ontario Volunteer Firemen's Association opened here yesterday afternoon. President E. F. Earl, of Milton, occupied the chair. About forty delegates were present and more are expected today.

A deputation from the city council, Mayor Stamp and Aldermen Davidson and Savage extended a welcome to the association.

The report of the secretary, W. J. Armstrong, of Milton, indicated the association to be in good shape financially and showed an increase of membership.

The report of the Committee on Laws showed the efforts which had been put forth toward getting a bill through the Legislature to tax insurance companies with a view to establish a fund for the aid of volunteer firemen.

The committee was re-appointed for the purpose of making further efforts in this direction.

Women and South Africa.

London, Aug. 6.—The Government has taken up the scheme, started by private enterprise, for promoting the immigration of women to South Africa. Arrangements have been made for the despatch of the first party comprising fifty domestic servants and six dressmakers. The Government provides five pounds of the cost of each woman's passage, and free railway transportation in the Transvaal and Orange River Colonies. The current wage of domestic servants in South Africa is $25 a month.

Niagara Power Dispute.

Toronto, Aug. 6. — The Niagara Falls Park Commissioners met at the Falls on Saturday and considered the questions in dispute between the Canadian and Ontario Power Companies. The commissioners will recommend that their agreement with the Ontario company be ratified, subject to a provision that the company shall submit to the Commissioner of Public Works detailed plans of their proposed construction. Then the Commissioner of Public Works shall act as referee between the two companies.

A POSITIVE MAN.

He Seems Able to Prove the Truth of What he Says.

Mr. Chalker Makes Some Very Strong Statements—Explains That he is Prepared to Prove the Truth of Every Assertion he Makes.

Housey's Rapids, Ont., Aug. 3rd.—(Special)—Mr. George C. Chalker, a well known resident of this place, has authorized the publication of a letter containing some very startling statements.

Those who know Mr. Chalker will not ask any proof of the truth of any statement he makes, but to convince those who do not know him, he has announced that he is prepared to substantiate in every detail, the truth of his published statement, which is as follows:—

"It is with pleasure that I certify to the merits of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I was laid up with Kidney Trouble and was so bad that I could not do a day's work. My back was very sore, I had heavy aching arms, dull bloated eyes. I was very weak, and much reduced in weight.

"After I had used six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Tablets I was ten pounds heavier. I often wonder about the powerful virtue of this medicine. I do not know anything about what Dodd's Kidney Pills are said to cure, but I know a great deal about what they will actually do for lame back and Kidney trouble, and I can prove it.

"They are worth their weight in gold to anyone suffering as I suffered. The six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me completely, and there has been no return of my old trouble. That is over three years ago, and I still enjoy good health."

This is, indeed, a very strong testimonial for Dodd's Kidney Pills, and one which will have very good weight with all who have the pleasure of Mr. Chalker's acquaintance or his friendship.

Dodd's Kidney Pills have made many friends and are to-day, without doubt, the most popular family medicine.

Electrical Novelties.

Mr. J. H. Hughes, representing the Canadian branch of the American Novelty and Manufacturing Co., is at the Oriental with samples of their wonderful electrical inventions, and his room, where he shows the same, is a novel electrical display. He has bicycle and carriage lamps, candles of elegant design, banquet lamps, surgical lamps, night lamps with clocks, reading lamps, walking sticks, scarf pins, etc., all lighted by electricity.

Mr. Lewis' Outfit.

Mr. James Lewis, of town, has a stylish little turn out that is attracting considerable attention as it passes through the streets. It is a handsome little black Shetland pony attached to a cute little buggy, with a nobby set of harness to match. The pony, which weighs only 400 lbs., was purchased in Pickering township. The harness was made by the Ackerman Co., and the buggy by Mr. Yelland. The turn out is decidedly cute looking.

MAY PROVE FATAL.

Miss Maud Callahan of Town Met With a Serious Accident.

An accident that may yet be attended with fatal results occurred on Monday evening, to Miss Maude Callahan, of No. 47 Elm street. Miss Callahan, with a number of other young people drove out to Mr. Garvey's in North Smith, to attend an evening party. Dancing was one of the features of the evening's enjoyment. Miss Callahan went outside the house to enjoy some cool air and was sitting on a railing that surrounded the opening to the cellar way. The railing broke and the young lady fell with great force into the opening. When picked up she was unconscious and she has been in this state since the accident occurred. Dr. Fraser, of Lakefield, and Dr. Scott, of town, attended the young lady, and it is much feared that her spine has been injured to such an extent that she will not likely recover.

Miss Callahan is the daughter of Mrs. John Callahan, Elm street, and is well known to the people of Peterborough. Much sympathy is expressed for her in her great trouble.

Commercial Education.

The new catalogue of the Central Business College, Toronto, which has just been issued, reflects to some extent the popularity of business education, as it shows that 768 pupils registered at that college during the eleven months ending July 31st. This very liberal patronage bestowed upon the school in question must also be taken as an indication of the excellent reputation this college has won for its thorough work, and for the success of its students and graduates. You should not fail to read the announcement of this reliable school in our advertising columns from time to time.

AFTER MANY DAYS.

An Early Resident Revisits the Scenes of His Youth.

One gentleman who appreciates the advance Peterborough has made in the past half century is Mr. Edward M. Taylor, of St. Louis, Mo., who visited the town to-day, the first time in half a century. Mr. Taylor, who is a son of the late Rev. J. C. Taylor, in the good old days principal of the Grammar School here, says that the town is quite unrecognizable, except a few points such as the river, Court House hill and St. John's church grounds, which Mr. Taylor remembers as a coasting ground in his early days, and which he now considers the finest and best kept church grounds he knows, and he has travelled extensively. He meets few of the old faces he was familiar with fifty years ago. Mr. Taylor is at present a grain commission merchant in St. Louis, and is taking a summer tour. He is chaplain of a fishing club in Michigan, near Mackinac, the club he is connected with having a chaplain as well as a patron saint common to all fishing activities—St. Ananias. Mr. Taylor is delighted with the appearance of Peterborough, both in the abstract, and in connection with the association of his earlier days, and counts the experiences of his visit here as the most pleasant incidents of his present tour.

The Stony Lake region in Mr. Taylor's young days, was known by the general and misty term, "the back lakes," where now there is a summer population of about 2,000 souls.

DOG POISONING.

The Mania Has Struck Gilmour Street in an Acute Form.

These are the Dog Days, but some malicious soul seems determined that Gilmour street dogs are an exception to the truth of the old saw, "Every dog has his day," because the poisoner is certainly curtailing the days of the dogs in an alarming manner—especially to the survivors.

Within about a week, one after another, five dogs have been killed by poison on Gilmour street, the latest to go under being Peterborough "Ben." Some of the others were also valuable ,well-bred animals, and the owners are naturally indignant.

The question whether a dog by misbehaviour forfeits his right to life, as represented by the license his owner pays, is a delicate one, but the indignant owners of some of the deceased dogs think that if their dogs pay taxes, they are entitled to protection. This is a reasonable position to take, but until dogs reform their habits, and abstain from poking their noses into all sorts of back yards and lanes in search of bones, one cannot very well see how abstinence in the case of a poisoned bone, is to be enforced. The authorities are investigating, and enquiries as to the sale of poison, to be presumably fed to dogs, are being made.

OBITUARY.

The Late Mrs. Thos. Borland, of Villiers

The funeral of the late Mrs. Thos. Borland took place at 2.30 o'clock on July 25th, from the family residence, lot 13, concession 2, Otonabee, and proceeded to Borland's cemetery for interment.

The funeral services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. D. D. McDonald, of Keene and Westwood Presbyterian churches. There was a large number of the friends and acquaintances of the deceased who turned out to pay their last tribute of respect.

Deceased, who was born in 1856, was a daughter of the late John and Hannah Walker. She was married to Mr. Thomas Borland in 1883, who survives her to mourn the loss of a kind and loving wife. The brothers and sisters of the deceased are Wm., Peter, John, Joseph, Jane, Alice, of Otonabee, and Thos., of Oregon. Mrs. Borland, having no children of her own, accepted the unselfish charge of a little girl, who has now grown to womanhood, and will miss her loving guardian as she would her own mother. Mrs. Borland was a living member of Westwood Presbyterian church, and we believe that her Heavenly Father has taken her to a home where sickness, pain and sorrow are unknown. We in kindness say to the sorrowing husband, daughter, brothers and sisters, not to mourn, for although her body resteth in earth, the soul liveth with its Brother, Jesus Christ.—Com.

It is Mr. Pousett's intention to open out in Peterborough a branch office of the well known firm of brokers of McIntyre & Marshall, of New York. The name of McIntyre & Marshall is sufficient to guarantee every confidence in Mr. Pousett's venture, as they are prominent on the New York Exchange. Mr. Pousett will make an announcement as to the location of his office in the course of a day or two and in the meantime a private wire is being strung to Peterborough. Mr. Pousett's friends will wish him success in his enterprise.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

LACROSSE.

There should be a large attendance at the Nicholls oval to-night to witness the game in the town league series between the Athletics and the Y.M.C.A. It is reported on the streets to-day that the T.A.S. club is contemplating withdrawing from the town league, which is perhaps a mistake.

All those who have handed their names into the secretary of the T.A.S. for the trip to Hastings, or Coronation Day, are asked to secure their tickets from the secretary of the club, and from the assistant secretary of the T.A.S., at the society's rooms. The list closed to-day at noon.

Campbellford will put two teams in the field at the Roman Catholic picnic at that place on Peterborough's Civic Holiday. The T.A.S. and H. teams will play there on that day. Campbellford has written to the secretary of the T.A.S. in regard to the matter.

BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

Where the First Visits of the Prince and His Bride Were Made.

As Duke of Cornwall, the Prince was welcomed very warmly when he and his wife spent a few days in the Duchy in the summer of 1895. They visited Land's End, and the memory of the event is recalled by the inhabitants of that remote strip of country to this day. The Royal couple also descended a tin mine near St. Just—indeed, the mine was partly owned by the Prince, who had not hitherto had the strange experience of inspecting the underground methods of mining. The Cornishmen were charmed with the Princess, and were prouder than ever to reckon her their Duchess. She was as blithe as a girl on her holiday, and never seemed tired of sightseeing in a part of the kingdom which reminded her of her old home, with its blue waves and rugged hills. In after years she revisited Cornwall, and several times has referred to her delight in its scenery. Another event about this time must be chronicled—the reappearance in public of Queen Victoria, who consented to open Parliament in person, accompanied by the Prince and Princess of Wales and other members of her family. The Princess occupied for the first time the special seat prepared for her on the Woolsack in the House of Lords, and showed great interest in the ceremony. A few Peers who are alive to-day still recall the charming spectacle of the daughter-in-law of Queen Victoria sitting with her face bright with smiles while the formalities were duly performed. The Princess' appearance in the rather dreary chamber always seemed to bring with it a ray of sunlight. She was often present in the Peeresses' Gallery during great debates, and used to look absorbed in the business transacted—a very different attitude of mind to that displayed by many of the peeresses who are more concerned to display their becoming costumes.

The Prince and Princess were the guests of the Duke of Sutherland at Dunrobin, and enjoyed the characteristic lavish Highland hospitality shown to them. Soon afterwards they welcomed Queen Louise of Denmark and two of her children at Sandringham. She remained at Sandringham with her daughter while the Prince paid a visit to Russia, so as to be present at the wedding of Princess Dagmar of Denmark to the Czarevitch (afterwards the Czar Alexander III.). It was a very brilliant function, and the curious ceremonies of the Greek Church interested considerably the Prince of Wales. He has always been a capital wedding guest, for his good-nature and appreciation of humour have frequently relieved an occasion which is not without its tinge of sorrow for the parents of the bride and bridegroom. In July of this year the Prince was also present at the wedding of his sister Helena to Prince Christian in the private chapel at Windsor Castle.

The Madness of Fashion.

On February 20th, 1867, a daughter came to the Princess of Wales at Marlborough House, and her advent was very welcome as a sister to the boys who were beginning to run about. The names bestowed upon the child were Louise Victoria Alexandra Dagmar. The Princess had not been well, suffering from inflammation of the kneecap, and she was some months in recovering from this painful complaint. When at last she made her rentree into public life in the following July it was noticed that the Princess limped slightly. At once the ladies who follow Royalty's ways with the flattery of imitation began to adopt a limp in walking. Such folly received a rebuke from one of the great preachers of the day, who said it was surely the height of absurdity to imitate so snobbishly a temporary mark of weakness on the part of the Princess. It may also be mentioned here that the inability of the Prince to sound very distinctly the letter R was another failing which Society thought it would be courteous to imitate! In May of this year (1867) the Prince read an address on behalf of his mother at the laying of the foundation-stone of the Royal Albert Hall. The next month he took part in the entertainment of the Sultan of Turkey.

A Visit to Ireland.

In the summer of 1868 the Prince and Princess paid a State visit to the Irish capital, and notwithstanding murmurs on the part of dissatisfied revolutionaries it proved a great success. Both the Royal couple were indefatigable in pleasing the Irish people, and their attendance at reviews, balls, dinners, the races and the agricultural show did much to add to their popularity. Each day a long account of what had transpired was telegraphed to Queen Victoria, who followed all the details of the visit with interest, not unmixed with anxiety. It had been the Queen's wish to have undertaken such a series of functions, but it had been overruled by her advisers owing to the disturbed state of the country. Everybody who saw the Prince and Princess in public—and vast crowds, unrestricted by any military, had the opportunity of seeing them during the week—was won by their gracious zeal to please and gratify their hosts. It was probably one of the busiest weeks in the life of the couple up to this time, but it was well spent, and increased the desire in many people's minds that some members of the Royal Family should permanently make his home in Ireland. The fine statue of Edmund Burke, which was unveiled by the Prince, is one of the permanent memorials of the visit. On their return the Prince and Princess called at Holyhead, and had a brief stay at Carnarvon, where the first Prince of Wales was born. They had not hitherto seen Welsh people in their native land, and the quaint headdress of the peasant women amused the Princess.

On July 6th a second daughter was born at Marlborough House, and was christened Victoria Alexandra Olga Mario. She has never been quite as strong as others of the Queen's family, and during the last few years Princess Victoria has hardly ever taken any part in public work. Most of the summer was spent at Sandringham and the Princess and her children were often to be seen driving along the quiet country lanes in a Norfolk car. Prince Albert Victor was now in his fifth year, and his brother was fast eclipsing him in sturdiness.

A TOUR ON THE CONTINENT.

Saw Karnak in Egypt and Opened Suez Canal Sluices.

In November, 1868, the Prince and Princess went for a pleasant tour to various Courts on the Continent, as it was thought a change would benefit the Princess' health. At Compiegne they were entertained by the Emperor and Empress Eugenie, who had had the Prince when a boy as a guest. In Denmark there was the customary group of relatives awaiting them, and a pleasant time was spent. In Berlin and Vienna they were also entertained, and soon afterwards they boarded the man-of-war, the Ariadne, and put to sea. First of all they went to Alexandria, then to Cairo, finally, up the Nile in a fine barge. They saw Karnak and its marvellous ruins, and were received by M. de Lesseps at Tussum, in order that the Prince might open the sluices of a great dam across the Suez Canal, which was then in process of construction. From Egypt they journeyed to Constantinople, and were royally entertained by the Sultan in the Seith Bazar Palace, which is not very far from Yildiz. Leaving the Bosphorus on the journey homewards they called at Athens and enjoyed an unconventional visit to the Princess' favorite brother, King George of Greece. By the middle of May the holiday came to an end, and the Prince and Princess found themselves once more immersed in home affairs.

On November 26th, 1869, another daughter was born at Marlborough House. She was christened there on December 24th, receiving the names Maud Charlotte Mary Victoria. She was from the earliest days of her life the merriest of the children, and added a great deal of happiness to the home. As she grew up she retained her frankness and her sense of humour, and on several occasions Princess Maud astonished those who had been trained to suppress their feelings by her merriment and her dislike of Court etiquette. She was much attached, as were her sisters also, to the German lady who was their governess: and when the governess married Mr. Johnson, once the Liberal candidate for Exeter, the daughters of the Princess of Wales frequently visited her in her Devonshire home.

The Franco-Prussian War.

On the Continent there were ominous signs of a coming struggle between

A BARON'S CORONET.

Germany and France. It finally burst out in the terrible war which crippled the resources of the French nation for many years afterwards and left an embittered feeling, which survives to this day. There was great anxiety in England because of the close friendship which existed between the ruling families of both France and Prussia. Queen Victoria had her eldest child married to the Crown Prince, who was destined to play an important part in the coming conflict. She had another daughter married to a German Prince, who likwise was linked with the war. The Emperor and Empress of the French had been her friends for many years. It was therefore with intense, though mingled feelings that the British Royal Family witnessed the commencement of a war which threatened to be long and severe. It was a sad time for the whole of Europe, and general relief was felt when the embers of war began to die and the formal treaty of peace was signed at Frankfort, May 10th, 1871. In the previous month the Princess had given birth to a son, who unhappily only survived for a day. The child was named Alexander John Charles Albert, and was buried at Sandringham on April 2nd. This was the first sorrow in the life of the young Royal couple, and the sadness and disappointment of the nation were poignant. A little grave in the churchyard marks the infant's resting-place.

Just 400 Years After.

In 1492 Columbus discovered America. In 1892, just 400 years later, Merrill, a Brantford druggist, discovered Four T's, the great guaranteed cough and cold cure. In 5 years the sale of a quarter of a million bottles has proven that Four T's never fails to cure a cough in 24 hours, and a cold in two days. Large bottles, 25 cents, at Ormond and Walsh's drug store.

JOSH SANFORD.

Here in northern solitudes,
Sounding shorelands, gloaming woods,

Where the pines their dreams rehearse,
Is the home of haunting verse.

Dreams of beauty here inspire
All the summer's radiant fire,

In the gleam of leaf and bird,
Ere the Autumn's voice is heard.

Fluting, soft, her woodland tune
Down the golden afternoon.

Where the seaward ships go down,
By some ancient Norman town;

Where the northern marches lie,
Golden under azure sky;

Where the northern woodland glooms,
Luminous in leafy rooms,

With its ancient sunlit wine,
Under smoke of dusty pine;

Here the soul of silence broods,
Under haunted solitudes;

Here that spirit rare and pure,
Of the muses who endure,

Dreams the Wisdom's quiet eye,
While the phantom years go by.

Where far sunlands shine and drowse
And great leafy, golden boughs,

Swaying, pendulous, within
A sleep diaphanous and thin,

Answer to the drowsy mind
And loiterings of the thoughtful wind;

Here in seasons lone and long,
The spirit rare of northern song

Keeps in dreams, remote, apart,
The cadences of her own heart.

The Ear and the Thumb.

There is a whole world of telltale indications in the apex of the ear. If it lies close to the head, the owner possesses a refined nature, but if the top starts away from the head at a well defined angle that person has an uneven disposition and is not to be relied upon. If a girl's thumb lies flat or droops a little, marital submission to the master mind is indicated. If the thumb has a tendency to stand at right angles to the hand, the damsel owning it is headstrong.

A person of weak character has a pendent thumb. The strong character has a strong, erect thumb. Fingers which bend backward mean powerful determination. If they are round, strength, both physical and mental, is indicated. Stubby fingers are grasping fingers. Finger nails that are rounded show refinement; if long and rather square at the top firmness and energy are denoted.

CONSTIPATION!

The Most Frequent Cause of Suffering and Serious Bodily Derangement, is Cured by

Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills.

Irregularity of the bowels and sluggish action of the kidneys and liver are the most frequent causes of the painful and fatal diseases known to mankind. Bright's disease, appendicitis, dropsy and various forms of kidney disease, for example. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills begin by setting the bowels right. Their combined action on the filtering and excretory organs enables them to cure when other medicines fail.

Mr. Jas H. Harvey, baker, 641 George street, Peterborough, Ont., states;—"I was troubled very much with constipation and pains in the back. At times the pains were sharp like a stab with a knife, and caused me great suffering.

"I heard of many being cured by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and decided to try them. I am pleased to say that they soon helped me, and I used them right along until cured. I never have pains in my back now, and only occasionally take a pill in order to keep my bowels regular."

London, Aug. 5.—The Sunday Observer, one of the most serious and erudite of English journals, gives great prominence to a long editorial article advocating the extending of the postoffice savings banks into an Imperial banking concern, embracing the whole Empire, somewhat upon the lines of the American national banks, with branches in America, with an Anglo-American naval alliance as an adjunct.

Montreal, Aug. 5.—Judge Emersan of Newfoundland, who is in the city on a visit, says that the feeling in favor of confederation is now very keen, but he hesitates to give an opinion as to whether the colonial conference in progress in London is likely to bring about the consummation desired by many. FOR COUNTRY WEAR.

Useful Coat and Skirt Suits Are Made of Delaine.

Never was there a better material than delaine for wash blouses and skirts for country wear, because it does not shrink, while nearly all flannels do a little. Delaine is an excellent substitute for flannel, especially in hot weather.

There are some smart little coats and skirts made in delaine, but they are not things to be attempted by the amateur. The coat must be made by a first class tailor or dressmaker. The short sack has taken the place of the bolero and will continue to look charming until cheap sales have made it too common.

Golf skirts are worn longer than ever and now barely escape the ground by an inch or so. As a consequence they are made of lighter materials, and the newest are laid in wide tucks stitched down until within a few inches of the bottom.

The cut shows a bathing suit which is made of deep red brilliantine and trimmed with cream white bands and black braid. The suit opens down the front with pearl buttons.

The jaunty little hat is of plaid silk lined with rubber.

GOOD BOOKS.

Good books, like good friends, are few and chosen—the more select the more enjoyable.—A. Bronson Alcott.

A good book is the precious lifeblood of a master spirit, embalmed and treasured up on purpose, to a life beyond life. —John Milton.

Books, like proverbs, receive their chief value from the stamp and esteem of ages through which they have passed. Sir William Temple.

Of all the things which man can do or make here below, by far the most momentous, wonderful and worthy are the things we call books.—Thomas Carlyle.

Knowledge of books in a man of business is a torch in the hands of one who is willing and able to show those who are bewildered the way which leads to properity and welfare.—Joseph Addison.

A taste for books I would not exchange for the wealth of the Indies. The miseries of a vacant life are never known to a man whose hours are insufficient for the inexhaustible pleasure of study.—Gibbon.

Except a living man, there is nothing more wonderful than a book, a message to us from the dead, from human souls whom we never saw, who lived perhaps thousands of miles away, and yet these, on those little sheets of paper, speak to us, amuse us, vivify us, teach us, comfort us, open their hearts to us as brothers.—Charles Kingsley.

Above all, there is this value in books—that they enable us to converse with the dead. There is something in this beyond the mere intrinsic worth of what they have left us. When a person's body is moldering, cold and insensible in the grave, we feel a sacred sentiment of veneration for the living memorials of his mind.—Sir Egerton Brydges.

Books, it is true, are silent as you see them on their shelves; but, silent as they are, when I enter a library I feel as if almost the dead were present, and I know that if I put questions to these books they will answer me with all the faithfulness and fullness which have been left in them by the great men who left the books with us.

Pill Manufacturers Enraged.

The makers of all the various pills on the market are greatly troubled over the new medicine, Merrill's System Tonic. It is doing away with their business. Kinship Names.

Katie, the romping 6-year-old, came dancing and singing into the parlor.

Then, seeing a strange caller, she stopped, abashed.

"This is my little daughter," said her mother. "Katie, this is Mrs. Beggs."

"How do you do, Mrs. Beggs?" said Katie, anxious to remove any unfavorable impression the visitor might have formed. "I know a little girl at school named Bess. Is she any relation of yours?"

Ringing in the Ears.

This is an unfailing sign of catarrh, and if not checked will ultimately result in deafness. The simplest remedy is Catarrhozone, which if inhaled for a few times daily prevents the catarrhal condition from spreading. VICTORIA CHEESE BOARD.

1825 Boxes Offered for Sale on Monday —Highest Price was 9 9-16.

(Lindsay Post)

A meeting of the Victoria Cheese Board was held this morning in the market room, commencing at 10 o'clock. The buyers present were Messrs. W. Flavelle, G. Fitzgerald, Bailey, representing McGraw & Co., Belleville, Leslie Bowes, representing The Toronto Produce Co., and F. J. Gillespie, representing Fowler & Co., Hamilton.

The Factories Boarded.

The following factories boarded the number of cheese set opposite:

Star	128
Cameron	115
Dunsford	158
Mariposa	129
Janetville	56
Omemee	145
Fenelon Falls	84
North Verulam	152
North Ops	97
Pine Grove	55
Reaboro	150
Bobcaygeon	205
Maple Leaf	120
Palestine	79
Red Rock	185
	1825

How the Bidding Went.

Mr. Gillespie started out first by bidding 9c, Mr. Flavelle made it 9 1-8c, Mr. Fitzgerald raised it to 9 1-4c, and Mr. Flavelle went a point higher, making it 9 5-16. Mr. Bowes was not going to be out of the race, so he made it 9 3-8c, and then Mr. Bailey made his presence known by jumping to 9 7-16c.

Mr. Fitzgerald came to Lindsay to secure some cheese and was not to be shut out; he made it 9 1-2c, and as the other buyers refused to raise it he secured first selection. He called Maple Leaf, Dunsford, Star, North Ops, Palestine and Mariposa, all selling except Dunsford, North Ops and Mariposa.

Mr. Bailey offered 9 1-2c. for further selections and secured Janetville, Omemee, Pine Grove and Reaboro.

Mr. Flavelle bought Fenelon Falls, North Verulam, Red Rock, Bobcaygeon and Dunsford at 9 1-2c.

He called Cameron, but Salesman Parkin stood firm and refused to sell at that price.

Mr. Kennedy, salesman for the Dunsford factory, said his factory had 158 boxes for sale; out of that number 78 were in Mr. Flavelle's cold storage. As Mr. Fitzgerald called his factory first he would sell him the 80 boxes and Mr. Flavelle the 78. Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. Flavelle agreed to this.

Mr. Gillespie—"I see there are three factories that have not sold. I will give 9 1-2c and clear the board."

Mr. Bowes was anxious to secure some cheese, so went a point better, making it 9 9-16c. He secured North Ops, Mariposa and Cameron.

The next sale will be held on Monday, Aug. 25th.

An Aching Back.

Is the first indication of kidney disease, and should be taken as a signal of danger—a warning to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, while yet there is time to avoid the dreadful pains and certain fatality of this certain disease. There is no guess work, no experimenting when you use this prescription. It brings relief in a remarkably short time, and because of its combined action of liver and kidneys, cures complicated cases which cannot be reached by an ordinary treatment.

HARVEY.

Whilst it was known that Mr. Thos. Kingsboro, of Harvey, had been ailing for some months, the news of his death on Thursday was a painful surprise to his many friends. He was in the village a week or so ago, and in fact he was up and about on Wednesday looking fairly well. Thursday morning he called his son James at the usual time for getting up, and after James had done the milking and regular chores, he went to his father's room to give him his medicine, and found that he had passed away. Some 35 years ago, Mr. Kingsboro lived in Haliburton, and many a time carried the mail from Haliburton to Minden and return, which was then done by rowing a boat to the foot of Kushog Lake, and walking from foot of Lake to Minden, via Bat Lake. The row was about eighteen miles, and was doubled in the day. With a stiff head wind, and a heavy load, for freight and passengers were carried as well as the mail, it was a good days work. Later he came to Bobcaygeon and was for some time engaged at the Commercial House, and afterwards took up farming in Harvey where he remained to the present time. His death removes another of the older and prominent members of the Presbyterian Church, of which he was an Elder, and a most regular attendant. His character was moulded in what is now, unfortunately for the period, looked upon as the old style, staunch, true and solidly reliable.—Bobcaygeon Independent.

FIRE IN OTONABEE.

House of Mr. Wm. Brealey Burned.

On Tuesday night, from some cause unknown, the house of Mr. W. Brealey, lot 22, in the 8th concession of Otonabee, took fire. The family was aroused by the blaze between one and two o'clock this morning, but the fire had gained such headway that the inmates of the house barely escaped with their lives. The entire contents, with the exception of a little bedding, were destroyed. Adjoining the residence was a driving house which, with its contents, including a mower, seeder, ploughs and other implements, was destroyed. The loss is large, and will not be covered by insurance, in the London Mutual of $400, and on contents in Northern of $300.

STOCK MARKETS.

Another Improving Steel Producer.

New York, Aug. 5.—We again revert to our newer industrials as commenced last week. Believing as we do that industrials will shortly be great market features. Consequently to enlighten our friends and clientele as to the general make up and prospects of various companies of this class so they may deal in them intelligently, our subject today will be the Republic Iron and Steel Co., whose shares are selling low and which are immensely cheap, far more so than when the common sold over ten points higher in 1899. Organized in N. J. in 1899, this Company has to-day outstanding $30,852,000 preferred stock, which is seven per cent. cumulative with preference to its par value, and $27,852,000 common stock. This company has no funded debt, and just made an excellent statement for its fiscal year showing its dividend for that period fully earned and over $600,000 additional, which has been credited to its surplus. The company's business is increasing most rapidly and profits in proportion. The company combined the leading rolling mills and manufacturers of bar and forge iron in the United States. It acquired a number of such establishments, blast furnaces, steel works and very large ore, coke and coal properties. Their various plants are excellently located with the view to diminishing cost of deliveries, being located in Michigan, Minnisota, Alaska and Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois Ind. and Kentucky. Included in the company's property are valuable iron and coal mines, and coal and limestone lands in Penna., Ala., Mich. and Minn. Chief among them being the pioneer property at Birmingham, Ala., which comprise 26,000 acres of which 14,000 are underlaid with coal of excellent quality suitable for coking and general steam purposes. The Franklin group and the Kinney mines on the Mesaba range, Cambria, and Lillie Mines on the Marquette range, and a one-half interest in the Union Ore Co., all being well known ore producers, all belong to the company, and some 800 acres of coking coal lands in the Connellville District. The company's products are pig iron, bar iron and steel, steel billets, bolts, nuts, screws, angles, shapes, car axles, etc. The annual capacity of the plants exceed one million tons finished iron and steel, and 600,000 tons of pig iron. The concern is earning nearly double the money it did in 1899, when its stock sold up the neighbourhood of 30. At present it can be purchased below 20. The comparison is freighted with meaning. It wont be so many weeks before this market anomoly will adjust itself to a more proper plan. Possibly general ignorance of the public as to the property may be the cause of the present low quotations. Wall street will eventually discover the incongruity. A sharp advance will then come about.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

NO SOLUTION YET.

The Inquest Touching the Death of George Whalley Still Pruitless.

Toronto, Aug. 6.—The session of the coroner's jury, which is enquiring into the death of George Whalley, last night was devoid of anything tending to cast light upon the mystery surrounding the death of the Evans' warehouse employe or other features touching the unusual circumstances that contred in the Front street building. The physicians testified that they found no evidence that death had been occasioned by poison, and further, that the organs of the dead man were in normal condition. They had examined every vital organ carefully, and were unable to offer a suggestion as to the cause of death.

The coroner announced that no verdict would be asked for at present, but that an adjournment would be taken until Sept. 12 to await developments.

CROWNING OF KING EDWARD.

Impressive Ceremony Performed in London on Saturday.

CROWNING THE QUEEN

London Crowds Acclaim With Cheers Their Monarch.

HOMAGE PAID NEWLY CROWNED.

Graphic Description of the Great Event —Touching Scene Between the King and the Feeble Archbishop of Canterbury—His Majesty's Special Regard For the Prince of Wales.

London, Aug. 11.—Edward VII, R. I., by the grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, was Saturday crowned without hitch or harm, and then London noisily celebrated the event, for which the world has waited, as perhaps, it never waited any other coronation.

In all respects the celebration was impressive, and it was carried out with a perfection of detail and lack of accidents that has previously marked such displays. The pride of Empire, which marked Queen Victoria's jubilee, was lacking, and in its stead there pervaded among all classes a keen recollection that only six weeks ago the King lay in danger of death. This last produced thankfulness and genuine sympathy for the man, rather than adulation for the King, and this feeling was voiced by the Archbishop of Canterbury, when he inserted in one of the coronation prayers the words "For whose recovery we now give Thee heartfelt thanks." This did not prevent the public from voicing its appreciation of each military display as the short procession gave to them a chance to see.

The absence of special diplomatic embassies deprived the coronation in a large measure of its international character, although Prince and Princess Henry were in the choir, many princesses in the royal box, and the regular embassies were fully represented. The roll of the British Empire, however, might have been called in the Abbey. The Indian princes, in splendid costumes, were present, and all of the self-governing commonwealths and nearly all of the crown colonies were represented by Premiers, Ministers or Governors. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in picturesque blue mantle and decorations of gold, sat with Premiers Barton and Seddon in the choir near Ambassador and Mrs. Choate, and close at hand were Messrs. Fielding, Paterson, Mulock, Borden, Ross and other Canadian Ministers and provincial Premiers. Lady Laurier was richly dressed in white, and there were many other Canadian woman in prominent seats. There have been grand pageants at Westminster Abbey for generation after generation, but there never has been a spectacle so unique in representative and comprehensive character as this Imperial coronation with a cloud of witnesses from the remotest bounds of the Empire. The Americans were less favored than the Canadians, who had at least seventy seats, yet there were fully thirty in the Abbey.

Earl Roberts, commander-in-chief of the forces, was once more the hero of the hour, and, next to the King himself, received the heartiest welcome of the assembled crowds. "Here comes good old Bobs," was invariably the signal for all the reserve power of British lungs to be brought into play. Lord Roberts rode alone, anx constantly bowed and smiled acknowledgments of his greeting. Lord Kitchener was not so easily recognized, but he was seen as he rode with General Sir Alfred Gaselee and Admiral Sir Edward Hobart Seymour, and was the crowd's next favorite.

At various points along the route of the procession Lord Kitchener received thunderous ovations, which he acknowledged neither by look nor bow but as English crowds are used to this treatment from Lord Kitchener of Khartoum it failed to suppress the enthusiasm.

It was for the King and Queen themselves that the people really let themselves loose. Through the day, whenever and wherever Their Majesties were seen, the cheers were loud and long, and especially was this noticeable on the return journey of the King and Queen to Buckingham Palace.

Until the booming of guns announced that the crowning of King Edward and Queen Alexandra had been achieved there lingered in thousands of minds a nervous apprehension that even at the last moment some untoward event might once more plunge the nation into consternation. When this time was passed, the unrestrained jubilation was as much a tribute to the King's personal popularity as it was an evidence of relief from the tension of the last few weeks, and so, while the scenes on the streets were robbed of many of those elements that usually accompany a great pageant, they will long be remembered—perhaps somewhat tenderly— by those who stood on the stands, at windows and on the sidewalks to see King Edward after he had won almost from the jaws of death his crown.

In Westminster Abbey the scene was nothing less than marvelous. Nearly seven thousand members of the nobility, the clergy and the gentry had gathered, with foreign princes, ambassadors, colonial rulers, Indian potentates and leaders from the farthest quarters of the globe, where the Union Jack flies, to do honor to the King.

Two incidents in the service in the Abbey will live in the memory of all who witnessed them. The first of these, which almost developed into a dramatic contretemps, centered around the aged Archbishop of Canterbury. From the opening of the service the Archbishop had the greatest difficulty in reading or remembering the prayers. The book from which his almost blind eyes endeavored to read shook in his hands, and when he came to place the crown on King Edward's head, his huge frame, towering above the seated King, swayed so violently that the Bishop of Winchester had to support him, while the Dean of Westminster put a guarding hand under the crown. It was evident that the Archbishop of Canterbury could not see the King's head, and, after groping around, he was just about to complete the most important part of the ceremony when it was discovered that he had the crown with the back to the front. Slowly he raised it, but too late to prevent the choir from prematurely bursting out with a loud "God Save the King." Amid a tension which has grown to a pitch of painful nervousness the Archbishop finally managed to place the crown correctly upon the King's head.

A few minutes later came the climax to feebleness. He was kneeling to do the first homage of all the subjects of the King, when suddenly he almost fainted, and would have fallen upon his sovereign's knees had not King Edward, tenderly but firmly, grasped both the prelate's hands, and lifted him to his feet. The Bishops of London, Winchester and Durham clasped their arms around the Archbishop of Canterbury, the King kissed his wrinkled hand, the Archbishop's head fell back, his feet moved slowly and mechanically, and thus he was more carried than led from the throne to St. Edward's Chapel, where he was revived.

The tremor which this event caused had scarcely subsided when another human touch varied the proceedings and the King was forgotten in the father. Instead of merely accepting the homage of the Prince of Wales, King Edward put his arms around the Prince and kissed him and then recalled him and wrung his hand with a manliness of parental affection that brought tears to many eyes. To those who were able to see clearly these two episodes, the magnificence of the bejeweled women, the splendor of the uniformed men and even the historic grandeur of the coronation office itself sank almost into secondary interest.

Late Saturday night it was learned that King Edward was greatly unnerved by the condition of the Archbishop of Canterbury, and that His Majesty sat in constant dread of a failure in the proceedings, though he was outwardly calm, as could be judged from the steadiness with which he held his sceptre rod erect during the ordeal. This brave show, however, did not deceive the Queen. Through the service, and especially as the Archbishop of Canterbury became more and more nervous.

Her Majesty palpably dreaded that the King would break down. With keen anxiety she constantly turned toward her husband, watching him intently through the ceremony. Her dignity and solicitude for King Edward was one of the most charming features of the proceedings in the Abbey. Her Majesty's appearance won praise from the women, many of whom declared that Queen Alexandra did not look a day over thirty-five.

The Queen's own crowning was brief and simple. When the four duchesses went to hold a canopy over her Majesty's head, the Duchess of Marlborough, and the Duchess of Portland led the way. They performed their duties excellently. As the critical moment for which the peeresses had long practiced, namely, the putting on of their coronets at the moment the Queen was crowned approached, a flutter of nervousness ran through their ranks and coronets were pulled out and patted and pinched into shape, and then all their arms suddenly went up, and coronets, large and small, were put in place, some crooked and some straight. For the next five minutes the peeresses disregarded what passed before them; first one and then another turned around for advice and help, and then ensued a pushing of each others' coronets into place.

Another incident relating to royalty was the presence of the Duchess of Mecklenburg-Strelitz, who, at the express desire of Queen Alexandra, sat at exactly the same spot as she occupied at the coronation of Queen Victoria.

No stage effect could have equalled the climax that ensued the moment the crown was placed upon King Edward's head, the sudden illumination by hundreds of electric lights making the thousands of priceless jewels, including those in the crown itself, sparkle with dazzling brilliancy. The instantaneous movement of the peers, the placing of the coronets upon their heads, the choir's loud "God Save the King," with its unharmonious, yet genuine, refrain from thousands of male and female throats, constituted such an outburst of pent up thankfulness and rejoicing as even Westminster Abbey, with all its historic traditions, never before witnessed.

When night came on there was orderly revel and public rejoicing. The illuminations were brilliant at the Bank of England, and the Mansion House, and the Canadian arch was transformed into loveliness by a most artistic arrangement of lights, being the centre of attraction until midnight. Clubland was ablaze with electric lights and transparencies, and Piccadilly was the scene of gay revelling. The crowds were immense and received full possession of the roadways, the police contenting themselves with keeping them in motion. Even at midnight the streets were still densely thronged, and "God Save the King" was heard at every turn. Splendid as was the day's function, there was a homely air of national gratitude and thanksgiving pervading every scene and act of ceremonial homage. England rejoices not that the time honored ritual of the coronation has been repeated on a scale of unexampled magnificence, but because the King is himself once more restored to health, after the terrible strain of anxiety and disappointment.

HOW A BUDGET IS PREPARED.

Few, perhaps, besides parliamentarians and leading financiers, take more than a passing interest in such a thing as an annual national budget, although it is a subject of consequence to any man who pays taxes or to any business man who seeks to keep himself informmed about the financial affairs of his country. On the meeting of Parliament, Canadians are treated annually to a Budget Speech by the Minister of Finance, and the discussion of the Budget affords members, young and old, scope for animated discussion. An ingenious Finance Minister has it in his power to make his Government popular or the reverse by the way he makes his Budget, that is to say, by the way he adjusts the taxes to be paid through the customs or through the inland revenue officers of the country. It used to be said of Mr. Gladstone that he showed wonderful ingenuity in such adjustment, and such rhetorical skill in putting the yearly Budget before the British House of Commons that he could make even the multiplication table interesting. What is "the Budget?" It is defined by the Standard Dictionary as, "A statement of probable revenue and expenditure and of financial proposals for the ensuing year, as presented to or passed upon by a legislative body." In the June issue of the Journal of Political Economy, published by the University of Chicago, appears an article on "The Canadian Budgetary System," by Mr. R. C. Matthews, a Canadian postgraduate student at Harvard University. In spite of its unattractive title, the paper contains information which may well challenge attention. And we propose giving a synopsis of its contents in the hope that others may derive benefit, as we have done, from the description given by the writer of the method employed in the framing and working of the Canadian Budget, framed as it is upon the English Budgetary System, which has attained an almost perfect working.

The Department of Finance in the Federal Government of Canada is presided over by the Minister of Finance, who is a member of the Premier's Cabinet. In its preparation, the Budget is in the hands of this minister and his colleagues in the Cabinet. The Cabinet is really a committee of the House of Commons, and its responsibility to the House and the country is absolutely unlimited. Composed as it is of men drawn from the various provinces, knowing the needs and resources of different parts of the country, the Cabinet is well qualified to advise the Governor-General in regard to financial matters. It may be well to explain that no money may be appropriated and no tax levied except on the recommendation of the Governor-General. But at the same time, any such recommendation is not his own, but is initiated by the Cabinet, whose mouthpiece he is, and in this particular he is nothing more.

The process of preparing the budget is lucidly described by Mr. Matthews: In the autumn of each year the Finance Minister issues a circular letter addressed to each of the other Ministers — of Customs, Inland Revenue, Railways, Agriculture, Justice, Public Works, the Post Office, the Interior, etc. These officials are requested to send in estimates of the expenses of their several departments, and their income, if any, for the fiscal year beginning with the following July. It is the practice of the various Ministers to ask for about ten per cent. more than will be required, in order to be on the safe side. For example, in 1900—1901 the Finance Minister spent only 91 1-3 per cent. of the amount appropriated for its use. With the information thus elicited the Minister of Finance proceeds to adjust expenditure to revenue, cutting down the former if necessary. His functions in this somewhat delicate matter are described. We quote from the paper;

The Canadian Finance Minister occupies rather a unique position in regard to the preparation of the estimates and the maintenance of the equilibrium between revenue and expenditure. The functions of his office under existing conditions are not precisely those of the Chancellor of the Exchequer in England. Much less are they identical with those of the Ways and Means Committee of the United States House of Representatives. And yet in a large measure they combine the duties of both. Like the Chancellor of the Exchequer it is the duty of the Finance Minister of Canada to devise legislation in order to raise sufficient revenue to meet the expenses of government, and like the chairman of the Ways and Means Committee at Washington, he must so adjust the tariff as to afford protection to home industries. The English and the American fiscal policies are built on widely divergent lines, the former attempting to raise only sufficient revenue to meet expenditures without regard to the protection of manufactures; the latter aiming far beyond the point of the adjustment of taxation to the requirements of the public service. The predominant motive in the American system is the protection of the manufactures of the country, and in carrying out this policy large surpluses accrue, little attempt being made to adjust receipts to expenditures. The Canadian tariff is a low protective tariff, and in comparison with the American it may be called a revenue tariff, affording incidental protection.—Monetary Times.

LIVING AT HIGH PRESSURE.

An American journal has just begun the publication of a series of portraits of men under forty-seven who are the "men of the future" of the United States. First is Mr. Schwab, whose salary a barbarian emperor might envy. He is but 41, and they are building him a palace in New York to cost three millions or more, and to look like the Chateau of Blois. When the materials for this sketch were prepared Mr. Schwab was a man of iron, or at all events he had nerves of steel. He is a man of 41, with a clear head, a happy disposition, nerves of steel, and an income beyond the dreams of avarice might well be reckoned a man of the future. But while the sketch was in progress came the news of a mysterious indisposition that left him helpless for some days. A doctor who is a friend of the family, says that there is nothing to be gained by talking about it, but that it was an affair of the nerves—those nerves of steel. Mr. Schwab in fact has been overworked, and he is paying for it. About the same time comes the report that Israel Zangwill, the brilliant portrayer of old and new Jewry, has been ordered to "a lonely but on a desert common." Overworked, too. The gospel of hard work is a good thing in its way. Nobody really gets far who has not abounding faith in it. But the sybarite has something to say for himself in face of such incidents as these. And yet, when the choicest spirits are tugging so hard at their harness that they collapse like this, the old world must be moved on a bit by the combined effort. For it is not only two who thus joyfully overstrain their powers. There are thousands at it, who are not content to leave to the slow evolution of a century what may by an extra effort be evolved in a lifetime.

The Petit Bleu announces the sudden death of Gen. Lucas Meyer of heart disease, at Brussels. General Meyer was attacked several times with this illness during the war in South Africa. Gen. Lucas Meyer fought and lost the opening battle in the late Boer war. Meyer's troops began the first bombardment of Ladysmith, on Oct. 28. Gen. Meyer was born in the Orange Free State in 1846.

An Aching Back.

Is the first indication of kidney disease, and should be taken as a signal of danger—a warning to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, while yet there is time to avoid the dreadful pains and certain fatality of this certain disease. There is no guess work, no experimenting when you use this prescription. It brings relief in a remarkably short time, and because of its combined action of liver and kidneys, cures complicated cases which cannot be reached by an ordinary treatment.

Double Drowning.

St. John's, N.B., Aug. 11.—A double drowning marred the coronation celebration here, on Saturday. Chester McCluskey and Walter Pynes, two bright young men, lost their lives in Loch Lomond, ten miles from the city. They were in a small boat competing in a race when a squall struck their boat and upset it. The wind was blowing a gale at the time, and they were drowned before a rescuing party could reach them.

Nervous and Sleepless.

There is just one cure and, that is plenty of food for the blood and the nerves, which is best supplied in Ferrozone, than which no blood tonic or strength producer is better. Ferrozone promotes healthy digestion, which results in improved nutrition. The blood grows rich and red, furnishes stability to the entire system, and the store of nerve force and energy increases daily. A rebuilding of the constitution, new spirits, health and strength, all come from the use of Ferrozone. This marvellous renovator is sold by druggists for 50c. a box, or six boxes for $2.50. For sale by Ormond and Walsh.

TWO MEN ANNIHILATED.

Explosion of 40 Ten-Quart Cans of Nitro-Glycerine.

Bradford, Pa., Aug. 9.—Joseph Gilson, 44 years old, and Oscar Bergvall, both of Bradford, were instantly killed near here yesterday about 10 a.m. by the explosion of a load of nitro-glycerine. There were 40 ten-quart cans of the explosive in the wagon and the team of horses and the wagon also went up with the flash of fire that accompanied the explosion. A hole was torn in the ground 8 feet deep and 20 feet across. Trees were blown down and a large boulder was carried 300 yards and driven deep into the earth.

Strike Is on in Earnest.

Hamilton, Aug. 9.—The Electrical Workers' strike is on in earnest. The men met yesterday morning in Labor Hall, and afterwards issued a statement, defining their position. It was, in brief, that their arbitrator, Rev. C. E. Whitcombe, had used every legitimate means to secure a third arbitrator. The men were willing to meet the company half way as to wages, but the company wanted more arbitration.

The company also issued a statement in which it says the men have violated their agreement by dropping arbitration. The men can have no serious grievance against the company, when their wages and those of outside workmen are compared. The original proposition for arbitration had not been withdrawn. Manager Hawkins claims he has used every fair means at his disposal to prevent the occurrence of the trouble.

WILL HOLD A CONFERENCE.

Heads of Colleges to Meet to Allocate Rhodes Scholarship.

Toronto, Aug. 9.—Some days ago Hon. Wm. Harcourt, Minister of Education, received a communication from Hon. R. W. Scott, Ottawa, Secretary of State, stating that he had been officially notified that Ontario was to share in the Cecil Rhodes' scholarships. No particulars were given as to what extent the province would share in the bequest, but it is understood that two of the scholarships will go to the universities in the province each year. The Minister of Education has decided to arrange for a conference here at the end of September of the heads of the degree conferring colleges, which will enable the winners to live nicely, even at Oxford. One plan suggested is to let each university send a representative to Oxford in turn. This, together with the other plans, will be discussed at the conference.

TOWN TREASURER.

Quebec Municipal Officer Gives Important Evidence.

Without Fear, Favour or Affection, He Speaks Plainly His Honest Sentiments, Adding Some Words of Advice.

Wolfestown, Que., Aug. 10—(Special.)—Mr. R. Boulanger, Secretary and Treasurer of this town, is numbered among the most prominent and highly respected citizens of the country.

Time and again he has been honoured by appointments to offices of public trust and there is no man in our community who commands the universal respect and esteem of all classes of citizens more than Mr. Boulanger.

Those who know him well are aware that for some time he was very ill and they also know that he was restored to good health, but many of them may not be aware of the means used by Mr. Boulanger in accomplishing the wonderful recovery which he has been fortunate enough to bring about.

Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him and he has made this fact public in a grateful letter which reads as follows:—

— "I desire to say that I was completely cured of Kidney Disease and Urinary Troubles by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I was so bad that I was obliged to urinate often, with much pain. They have relieved me of the pain and the results in every way are satisfactory.

"I think it is prudent for every family to keep them and use them."

When a man of Mr. Boulanger's standing puts himself on record so frankly and positively, there can be no doubt but that he has experienced all and more than he states in his letter.

Dodd's Kidney Pills have now permanently established themselves as an infallible remedy for all urinary trouble and the closing words of Mr. Boulanger's letter are an advice which every household should observe.

THE LAST BULLETIN.

Announces That His Majesty Bore The Strain Well.

HIS CONDITION SATISFACTORY.

The King Experienced But Little Fatigue From the Coronation Ceremony—Their Majesties Attend Church on Sunday—Other Special Services of Much Note in London—No Further Bulletins to Issue.

London, Aug. 11.—The festivities in London were continued yesterday. There were considerable crowds almost all day long in the vicinity of Buckingham Palace and along the route of Saturday's procession, viewing the decoration and watching the flow of notable personages to and from the various thanksgiving services. In the evening the Canadian arch, which is an exceptional novelty for Sunday, brilliantly illuminated, was a great centre of attraction, and served to bring an immense concourse of people into its neighborhood. In spite of the welcome announcement made Saturday night that King Edward had borne the coronation day well, yesterday's bulletin concerning his health was awaited with a certain degree of anxiety. Perhaps this is the reason His Majesty's physicians issued the bulletin at the rather unusually early hour of half past nine o'clock. Because of the early hour very few people were about when it was posted at the gates of the palace.

The following bulletin concerning the King's condition was issue yesterday:

"His Majesty bore the strain of the coronation ceremony perfectly well, and experienced but little fatigue. The King had a good night, and his condition is in every way satisfactory. No further bulletin will be issued. (Signed.) Treves, Laking."

After the posting of the bulletin, there was still some doubt as to whether His Majesty would drive out yesterday, but the small crowd which remained at Buckingham Palace, hopeful to see the Sovereign, was finally rewarded by the appearance of the King and Queen. Their Majesties were accompanied by Princess Victoria, Prince Charles of Denmark, Prince and Princess Henry of Prussia and the Crown Prince of Denmark. The procession drove along the Mall to St. James' Palace without receiving any notable demonstration from the people. Tickets to the Chapel Royal had been sparingly granted. The choir boys who took part in the service in the chapel were clad in quaint gowns of crimson and gold lace. The service was very simple, and there was no sermon; special prayers for the occasion, however, were read. The service lasted about one hour, and was brought to a close by the congregation, still upon its knees singing slowly and softly the first verse of the National Anthem.

An almost identical service to the one held at the Chapel Royal of St. James' was conducted at Marlborough House Chapel, and attended by the Prince of Wales and his family, and other royal personages. Another official service attended by William Court Gully, speaker of the House of Commons, members of the House and the Ministers, was held at St. Margaret's Church, Westminster. The Mayor and corporation of Westminster in their official robes were present at the service.

The most interesting of all the services, was that held in St. Paul's Cathedral. This was essentially a people's service, and presented a strong contrast to the sad service of supplication held there in June on the day the coronation should have taken place. Yesterday the public was freely admitted to the Cathedral, and the great edifice was crowded with people in every corner. The Lord Mayor of London, Sir Joseph C. Dimsdale, and the corporation of the city, attended in state, and in the choir were seated Princess Henry of Battenberg, the Duchess of Fife, and the Duchess of Albany, with the royal children, a large number of diplomats, including Joseph H. Choate, the United States Ambassador, as well as the Earl of Dudley, Lord Rosebery, the Earl and Countess of Aberdeen, a number of prominent colonial visitors and others. The very elaborate and prolonged service included several of the musical numbers which were performed at Westminster Abbey Saturday and the celebration of holy communion.

The newspapers yesterday were rather ridiculous in some of their comments upon the events of Saturday. To read these papers one would imagine that no one ever looked to be in better health than did King Edward, and that never was seen such an array of beautiful and gracious princesses as shared the ceremony. One exception to the foregoing is found in Reynold's Weekly Newspaper, which, whatever its standing, has, nevertheless, a tremendous circulation among the masses, and at least on this occasion it had a good foundation for its description of and attitude of the crowd of Saturday.

The paper acknowledges that "a mighty greeting" was accorded King Edward and Queen Alexandra, but says: "The one man the populace knew and desired to cheer above them all, was Lord Kitchener. He sat on his horse like a centaur, a grim, stern and never smiling figure; a man who had accomplished something. History may rate his achievements poor, but history will have to say he worked. The crowd was not repelled by Lord Kitchener's cold and almost callous indifference; it lavished cheers upon him with a very wealth of profusion."

To-day (Monday) will be celebrated throughout the nation as a day of thanksgiving for the King's recovery.

While the British press is resounding with elaborate descriptions of the coronation ceremony, telegrams are pouring in from every city of the Empire recording sympathetic celebrations and rejoicings.

GIFT OF THE KING.

Presents Osborne House, Sacred to the Memory of Victoria the Good, to the British Nation.

London, Aug. 11.—King Edward has signalized his coronation in a memorable manner by the munificent gift to the nation of Osborne House, one of the favorite residences of the late Queen Victoria.

The gift is made in the following message to his people addressed to Prime Minister Balfour:

"Buckingham Palace, Coronation Day, 1902.—"Under the will of the King's much beloved mother, the Osborne House estate is, as Mr. Balfour is aware, the private estate of the sovereign. Having to spend a considerable part of the year in the capital of this Kingdom and in its neighborhood, at Windsor, and having also strong home ties in the county of Norfolk, which have existed now for nearly 40 years, the King feels he will be unable to make adequate use of Osborne House as a royal residence, and he accordingly has determined to offer the property in the Isle of Wight as a gift to the nation. As Osborne House is sacred to the memory of the late Queen, it is the King's wish that with the exception of those apartments which were in the personal occupation of Her Majesty his people shall always have access to the house which must ever be associated with her beloved name. As regard the rest of the building the King hopes it may be devoted to national purposes and be converted into a convalescent home for officers of the navy and army, whose health has been impaired in rendering service to their country.

"If, in order to give full legal effect to the King's wishes, it is found that application to Parliament be necessary, the King trusts that Mr. Balfour will see that the necessary steps are in due course taken."

HOW CANADA CELEBRATED.

Lord Dundonald superintended the firing of the royal salute at Ottawa.

Halifax had a big regatta and a review of local and Imperial troops.

Besides the morning salute, Winnipeg had a novel water fete.

At London, Ont., union thanksgiving services were held at St. Paul's Cathedral.

A royal salute was fired from Fort Henry, Kingston, and in the afternoon there were games, etc.

Hamilton spent the day half working, half holiday, and the mayor sent cable of congratulations.

Toronto was like Hamilton in doing it half way during the day, but she blazed out on island and mainland in six great bonfires.

Hamilton, Bermuda, held a public holiday regatta, and an imposing display of fireworks in the evening.

St. Johns, Nfld, had special coronation services in all the churches Sunday.

SNARES FOR THE SIMPLE

WHAT the brand,—"Joseph Rodgers, Sheffield,"—signifies on a knife blade, the slate frame brand of—"The Slater Shoe"—signifies on a shoe sole.

But don't confuse mere personal names with registered brands!

The advantage of a brand, depends entirely upon its record for merit, established by the years certain goods have been publicly tested under that brand.

And, when such a brand has become a passport to people's confidence, there creeps in a species of piracy, which trades upon that confidence, by the selling of unknown goods, at a long profit, under some name which sounds like that of the brand.

This is how heedless Consumers are snared, and sold, and laughed at.

No purchaser should accept a blind excuse from a Retailer for the absence of the advertised trade mark, and the presence of something which resembles it superficially, but is not it legally.

There are thousands of men named "Rodgers," but there is only one standard brand of "Rodger's Cutlery," as there is only one standard brand of "The Slater Shoe."

If these words—"The Slater Shoe," are not stamped on the sole in a slate frame, it is not a genuine "Slater Shoe," and you buy it at your own risk.

The Slater Shoe Co. do not stand behind any but their own make—the shoe with a five year record of fixed value and uniform quality.

When you get the slate frame brand of "The Slater Shoe," stamped on the soles with the Makers price, you get the responsible, Goodyear Welted article.

TIMOTHY FOBERT'S CONDITION

A Deplorable Case in the Police Court.

Police Magistrate Dumble Declines to Commit an Indigent to Jail—Has Not the Power.

Police Magistrate Dumble, Chief Roszel, and a newspaper reporter, were the only occupants of the police court chamber this morning as Timothy Fobert climbed up the stairs from the cells and took his place in the prisoner's box. He presented a most deplorable looking sight — filthy looking and haggard from want of proper care.

Chief Roszel explained to his worship that Timothy Fobert was a vagrant. He had no one to support him, and he was unable to support himself. He was 77 years of age, and had lived in the jail as a vagrant for the past four years. The last three nights he had spent in the cells of the police station, and he has of late lived on the refuse from the hotels of the town.

"I would like you to commit him to jail for another term," concluded the Chief.

Police Magistrate Dumble then addressed the prisoner pretty much as follows;

"You are one of those poor unfortunates that belong to the vagrant class, and which are neglected by the town. Under a recent law of the legislature I have not the power to commit to jail as a vagrant any one who has been a resident of the county for two years. I would be glad to give you, Mr. Fobert, any comfort I possibly could, but in the face of the statute I cannot send you to jail. It was no doubt the intention of the Legislature when they deprived the Magistrates of the power of committing such persons as you to jail to force the municipalities to erect suitable houses of refuge, and give proper support to persons whose only crime is poverty. I regret therefore that I must turn you out on the street to die until there is some provision made that will give you the care at least that is afforded to an old horse."

Chief Roszel — "This is a case where the county and town should be equally responsible for his care. He is an old resident of the county."

In reply Mr. Dumble said that humanity calls for the care of the poor, and there is no reason why Mr. Fobert should be committed to jail among criminals. While the prisoner had his sympathy, still there is no way in which he could help him. It was a case for the Mayor and the Warden to look after. "You may go," concluded His Worship, and Timothy Fobert crawled down the stairs to wander about the streets asking alms, and proving to be a disagreeable citizen to everybody by reason of the poverty he is in, and the extreme filth that encircles him. Oh, for a House of Refuge!

LONG LIVE THE KING.

The King is crowned; long live the King! In spite of gypsy prophecies, the postponed great event took place with complete success and splendour on Saturday. In place of kingly disaster and death, everything amiably conspired to invest the occasion with success. The weather was considerate, and nothing intervened to mar the smoothness of the proceedings. The extraordinary outburst of popular enthusiasm and acclamation, which greeted the King and Queen on their triumphal progress to and from historic Westminster Abbey, while a spontaneous expression of popular affection, was doubtless intensified by the fact that the central figure of the pageant had come back from the doors of death to receive upon his brow "the round and top of sovereignty." No monarch was ever thus formally inducted into the kingship of a greater Empire than the Empire King Edward VII rules over to-day. Great as it was when his august mother was crowned, it is greater by far to-day — greater in territorial extent, greater in the development of the unsurpassed beneficence of British freedom, greater in the development of the arts of peace, greater in that in no part of the widespread realm is there a note of discord; peace reigns to the uttermost rim of empire. The crowning of the King is under the happiest auspices, and there is every reason to hope for a realization of the benediction of the venerable Archbishop of Canterbury: "The Lord give you a fruitful country and healthful seasons; victorious fleets and armies, and a quiet Empire; a faithful senate, wise and upright counsellors and magistrates, a loyal nobility, and a dutiful gentry; a pious and learned and useful clergy; and honest, industrious and obedient commonalty. Amen."

KING EDWARD VII.

WILL GO TO CAMP.

The Boys of St. John's Choir Will Go Under Canvas To-morrow.

The boys of St. John's choir will go into camp for two weeks, commencing to-morrow, at St. Jacob's Island, Pigeon Lake. The outing promises to be one of unusual enjoyment, and great preparations have been made for the event.

The following boys will compose the camp:—

Messrs. Charles Roy, Earl Miller, Arthur Sollitt, Arthur Seward, Charlie Dean, Fred and Jack Seymour, Vernon Morphet, Frank and Arthur Sawers, Gordon Cummings, Evans Bradburn, Charlie Kingscote, Frank and Carol Halpany, Gordon and Allan Campbell and Hague Sawers. It will be observed that there are a number of brothers in the above list which would indicate that the camp would be a brotherly gathering. Of course there will be several older members of the choir who will accompany the boys.

The entire party will leave here to-morrow morning by 'bus to Chemong. The Lady of the Lake will then convey them to their destination. The island will certainly present the appearance of a canvas village as the boys will have with them seven small tents, a dining tent and a large rain tent. They are taking a cook with them and arrangements have been made for a daily mail service.

THE CRUISE OF THE T.A.S.

Outing to Hastings Saturday on Steamer Water Lily.

A Delightful Trip Over Trent Waters—Excellent Time Made—Hastings Wins the Lacrosse Match.

On Coronation Day the T. A. S. Lacrosse Team, accompanied by about 125 friends and supporters, journeyed to Hastings, where a friendly game was played with the team of that village. Lacrosse has been in a dormant condition in that burg for some years, and the T.A.S. boys in order to encourage the team at present organized there, and to revive enthusiasm in the game, chartered the staunch little steamer Water Lily for a cruise to the village. The speedy little boat left the Wolfe street wharf shortly before 8 o'clock, and the trip from the locks to Hastings was made in three hours and forty minutes. The sail was a delightful one, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Of course the trip down the Otonabee to points on Rice Lake, is not by any means a new one, but the run down the beautiful waters of the Trent in a fast-sailing craft, was indeed a treat, and those who accompaniedt he lacrosse boys on Saturday expressed no small degree of astonishment and delight over the pleasure they derived from the outing. The day was an ideal one in every particular. Old Sol was in evidence all day, but not too much so, and seemed to vie with the gentle breezes that were wafted from the shore in furnishing veritable King's weather.

The steamer landed at the dock in Hastings, shortly before the massive bell in the city hall tower announced the hour of 12. A rush was then made to satisfy the cravings of the inner man, after which the sights of the village were taken in.

The pleasure seekers however were anxious to see the lacrosse match, and shortly after one o'clock, the crowd made for the lacrosse grounds. Ye gods and little fishes, what grounds! At one end a barricade of huge stumps, served as an enclosure for the "grounds" proper, and the opening where the admission fee was deposited, was situated at the entrance of a valley through which the people oozed before making the ascent of the elevation upon which the game was played, or at least was supposed to be played. The refreshment booth was erected at a point overlooking the valley, and the bottled stuff and other refreshments had to be braced up in order to keep them in order. As a result, treats were taken on the slant, or at right angles, and all the business was done "on the side," as it were.

After crossing the aforesaid elevation, the spectators were face to face with a life-sized cliff, and many of them longed for the services of an Alpine mountain climber. Gunner Dick Boyle, who was with the crowd, sized up the kopjee, and his thoughts went back over the herring pond to South Africa. After exercising his fingers in his cranium, he led the charge and the ascent was made in a manner that reflected the highest credit on his ability as a soldier. It was in fact a reproduction of Paardeburg.

From this point a fine view of the game could be obtained. On account of the lay of the land the goals could not be placed in an upright position, and in order to score a player was obliged to shoot on his side. As a result of this condition of affairs, Jimmy O'Brien, the T.A.S. goal-keeper, has become round shouldered from trying to stand at ease in the nets.

Hastings' lacrosse teams have won in many a struggle on this spot, and they know every hillock and ravine, every crag and gorge, as well as they know that respected old patriarch, Mr. Johnston, and it is impossible for an invading team to come out victorious.

After a few preliminary skirmishes, the referee, Mr. Bob Begley, who looked like a fish monger with his foghorn, blew a blast and the fight was on. The ball travelled down the valley towards the T.A.S. flags, and went over the cliff, as did several players, and they were actually lost to view for some time. Finally a blue shirted Hastings boy reached the summit of the elevation with the rubber, which ever and anon disappeared in some opening in the ground. It about this time that the referee tumbled to the fact that the lacrosse rules are different now than in the eighties, when he carried the sticks for the club. In desperation he blew his foghornuphone, just as a search warrant was issued for the sphere, which secreted itself in a brush heap. This gave the referee time to get pointers, and it was only a short time after that a mighty shout went up and a mad rush made down the incline, for Hastings had scored.

The game again started and it was soon found that the blue shirts had at least a dozen more field captains than the rules allow, and a shout went up for the referee to do his duty. A well known medical man of the village drove into the arena, (evidently looking out for business) and his horse, vehicle and players soon became on friendly terms, and mixed up occasionally—just to be agreeable. The game went on and my! how the rooters did root. This had a tendency to arouse every living thing in hearing distance, and no surprise was manifested on the part of the spectators when a huge porker, with a litter of little ones, was seen to enter the arena from a neighbouring farm yard, followed shortly afterwards by "the daddy of them all," who waddled in with an abnormal strut. Of course they had come in to "root," and had a license to do so. It is said that a number of bovines became fractious, and created a stampede in their efforts to follow the porkers and mix it up with the players, but this report has not been verified as the paper goes to press. The game throughout was characterized by brilliant charges up the kopjee, and through the valleys which gave an onlooker the impression that the battle of Spion Kop was being reproduced. This impression was probably created by the fact that the referee was endeavouring to produce several military calls on his horn, in order to torture the onlookers into believing that he was absolutely necessary on the field.

About four o'clock a truce was declared, arrangements to this end having been made at the beginning of the struggle, and it was found that Hastings had located the nets on four occasions, and that the T.A.S. had only been able to notch three goals. Enthusiasm was now at fever heat. Parasols, hats, hat pins, and other toggery soared heavenwards, and the fair ones of Hastings embraced each other as they had never been embraced before. They were proud of their team, and had every reason to be. Dodds and Clapper, who figured on the famous '98 team, are fast enough for the best company, and their work on Saturday was of the gilt edged order. Smith and J. Walsh are also clever stick handlers. In fact the whole twelve play excellent lacrosse. They have a great combination, and experience no difficulty in getting it going. They are a gentlemanly lot of young men, both on and off the field, and treated the T.A.S. boys handsomely. As a result of Saturday's game, lacrosse ought to boom in Hastings.

The following was the line-up:

Hastings.	T. A. S.
	goal.
Walsh	O'Brien
	point.
Clapper	Kelly
	cover point.
Coughlin	McDonough
	3rd defence.
S. Walsh	Meagher
	2nd defence.
J. Walsh	Mahoney
	1st defence
Hill	Crowley
	centre.
Learmouth	McNicholl
	3rd home.
Carey	Lynch
	2nd home.
Dodds	McGrath
	1st home.
Smith	Overend
	outside home.
Scrivér	McCoy
	inside home .
Stewart	Derocher
	Field Captain.
Morrison	Picard
	Umpire.
Johnston	Mahar

The T.A.S. team missed the services of Frank McCoy on the team Saturday, owing to the fact that the game started before he reached Hastings. Frank is one of the best home players in the business, and the score would have been different had he figured in the game.

Jack McDonough and Fred McGrath showed up exceptionally well in the game, in fact all the boys played good lacrosse, considering the "field" they played on.

Hastings will play the return game here at an early date and will run an excursion by boat.

Kelly, McCoy and Derocher tallied the goals for the T.A.S.

Lou McCoy was in the game with a sprained ankle.

The T.A.S. boys and their friends boarded the Water Lily for home shortly before six o'clock, and were given a hearty send-off by the Hastings people. The boat reached Peterborough shortly after ten o'clock.

The management are loud in their praise of Captain Breen and crew, for their uniform courtesy and for the excellent manner in which they looked after the comfort of the excursionists.

All Saints Church.

A Coronation Service was held in All Saint's yesterday morning, when the authorized service was used. Rev. W. L. Armitage preached an interesting sermon from the text, "The Powers that be, are Ordained of God." The Anthem "Praise ye the Father," was very appropriate and well rendered, and added greatly to the beauty of the service. Rev. Mr. Langfeldt and Rev. Mr. Armitage exchanged pulpits in the evening.

CORONATION SERVICE.

Celebrated Sunday Night in the Charlotte Street Methodist Church.

A large congregation assembled in the Charlotte street Methodist church on Sunday eving to assist in the beautiful coronation service that was conducted there The special sermon, appropriate to the occasion, was preached by the pastor, Rev. W. T. Joliffe, B.C.L. His able discourse, "King and Country," had a three-fold division—refernce to the personal qualities and character of the King and Queen and a patriotic view of the occassion celebrated. The preacher pointed out that the significance of the home life of an individual was a criterion of his character. It was shown that in the home life at Sanderingham King Edward was always seen to great advantage, as evidenced by his affectionate bearing and delightful association with the children, his royal nephews and nieces, who gathered there. Another creditable phase of King Edward's character was shown in his chivalrous bearing towards Queen Alexandria, who for forty years has shared with him the most intimate and loving associations. Reference was made to the large general knowledge the King possesses by virtue of his extensive reading, his industry making him familiar with every new publication of importance. The infinite tact possessed by the King which had had a great influence in smoothing international relations was warmly eulogized. His influence had been exercised to good effect in the reform of social habits, as shown in the decrease in high circles of the erstwhile universal habit of hard drinking and hard swearing. He tactfully abstained from intruding his political views, even upon his intimate friends. Queen Alexandra was a lady of stainless reputation. Never in all her forty years as Princess-Consort had her life or action given rise to an act of ill-natured gossip unkind criticism, a high tribute to her exalted character, moving, as she necessarily did, in a more or less miasmatic moral atmosphere. Her love of art, her quiet domestic tastes, her love of home life, the admirable training she gave her children, and her many private virtues were eloquently referred to. The preacher then dealt with the patriotic branch of his subject in a most effective way. Patriotism was a virtue enjoined in the Bible and practiced by the heroes of the Scriptures, and all the great names of history, and especial point was made of the claims to patriotic affection the world-wide Empire was calculated to evoke from the herts of British subjects, and a glowing picture was painted of the infinite resources and potentialities of Canada, the greatest of the immense possessions of the empire, whose united progress should inspire the nations with larger thoughts and brighter hopes.

The hymns and prayers had special reference to the occasion, Mr. R. A. Shaw, the celebrated tenor, singing a much appreciated and appropriate solo, and the closing hymn being "God Save the King."

FEDERAL LABOUR UNION.

Election of Officers—Organizer Flett, of Hamilton, Presided.

The regular meeting of Peterborough Federal Union, No. 9,240, was held Friday evening in the Central Labour Hall, Water street. The President, Wm. Henry in the chair. Before proceeding to routine business, the president said he was pleased to see Organizer Flett present. He understood that Bro. Flett had been instructed by the Executive at Washington to come to Peterborough and inquire into certain representations that had been made by a few dissatisfied members of the union. While it was unfortunate in the interests of the union that a few members persisted in making trouble, the president trusted that Bro. Flett would "straighten out" matters so that everyone would be found working in the interests of the union instead of trying to injure it.

Organizer Flett then addressed the members. He went over the grievances that had been complained of, and said he was surprised that any member of the union should have any fault to find. There was really no reason for him being sent for to come to Peterborough. He had examined the books of the union and found them well kept. He had made minute inquiries into the general working of the union and found no good grounds for complaint. He believed there had been some mistakes made in the past about one or two matters, but these were passed now, and there was no good to be gained by keeping up old sores. With regard to the question as to whether a member of the Inside Workers could hold office and be an active member of the Outside Workers' union, he ruled that he could not. It was perfectly inconsistent with the interests of the respective unions that one man should hold office in the two unions.

The election of officers was then proceeded with, when the following were re-elected by acclamation:

President—Wm. Henry.
Rec.-Secretary—J. McCann.
Financial Secretary — A. Kingscote.
Treasurer—W. Taylor.
Inside Tyler — J. Cousins.

The committee will be chosen at the next regular meeting.

The meeting then adjourned.

COREA DEFIES THE CZAR.

Russia Loses Prestige in the Far East and Britain Gains.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 9.—Russia's waning prestige in Corea is the subject of an article in The Novoe Vremya, by M. Syromiatnikoff, an expert in the eastern question. M. Syromiatnikoff comments as follows: "Every one who follows oriental affairs is aware that every step of Russia since the Chinese war has met with ever increasing opposition in Corea.

"The greatest danger for Russia," says the writer, "would be for England and Japan to establish a naval station in the south of Corea, which would cut Vladivostok off from Port Arthur."

He fears the agreement of 1900 forbidding any such station would not prevent some British company under cover of commercial rights from building docks, cannon, foundries, etc.

Fourth False Clue.

Hamilton, Aug. 9.—J. H. Wilson, father of Amy, the girl said to have been masquerading as a man and working as a farm hand near Paris, has returned from the Snowden farm. He is uncertain whether the farm hand the authorities suspected of being his daughter is really the girl who ran away from home July 22. The Snowdens were not certain about the photograph of the girl being a likeness of the farm hand whom they suspected was a women. Then, too, the father decided that his frail daughter could not have done the heavy work the farm hand did while on the Snowden place. This is the fourth clue the father of the mad girl has followed up only to return disappointed.

Vaillancourt Released.

Toronto, Aug. 9.—Yesterday at Osgoode Hall an order was made by Chief Justice Falconbridge for bail for Magloire Vaillancourt, who is in jail at Sault Ste. Marie, on a charge of murder. His own bail of $500 will be accepted. It is the smallest bail for such a case ever granted in the history of Canadian courts. He is now said to be very ill. He is 65 years of age. Pietro Gusparelo was the Indian he is supposed to have shot and killed.

Received Terrible Injuries.

Toronto, Aug. 9.—Goldwin Macfarlane, the 12-year-old son of Mrs. Eva Macfarlane, 12 Draper street, received terrible injuries about 8 o'clock last night. He fell a distance of about 30 feet, from the railway bridge on Bathurst street, alighting on his head. In falling he seized a live electric wire and was painfully burned. At 8 o'clock this morning the doctors at the Emergency Hospital stated that the lad could not recovery.

C.P.R. Brakeman Crushed.

London, Aug. 9.—Charles Sampson, a C.P.R. brakeman, who resided in Toronto, was terribly injured at Ayr yesterday morning. He went between two cars to examine the coupling, but failed to notice an engine shunting down to the train. When the cars came together his hips were caught between the bumpers and it was little less than a miracle that he escaped death. He may die.

Fire at New Hamburg.

New Hamburg, Aug. 9.—About 8.30 last evening fire was discovered issuing from the second storey of the New Hamburg flour mill. The mill, which was a frame building, with contents, were destroyed. The loss is about $6,000. The mill was owned by Jacob Zurbrigg and occupied by I. M. Clemes & Co., both of whom will be heavy losers.

Drowned at Delta.

Delta, Aug. 8.—The six-year-old son of Rev. G. P. Williams, a Methodist Episcopal minister, was drowned Wednesday evening about six o'clock. The family were spending the day with Mr. and Mrs. Sterns Ransom, at their summer resort on the island. They were just about ready to leave for home, when they missed the little fellow. After a thorough search the body was found by Mrs. S. W. Seamen.

Wants $2,000,000 Damages.

Craig of Toronto, for slander and libel. Damages to the extent of $2,000,000 are asked. The Sapphine Carudum Company is a concern organized within the year in London, England.

They Killed Beddell.

Shenandoah, Aug. 8.—The coroner's jury which has been investigating the death of Joseph Beddell, who received his fatal injuries in the riot here last week, concluded its inquiry today, and rendered a verdict holding "Joseph Paluwicz, a butcher; Matthew Paulaskas, a one armed saloon keeper, and many other rioters unknown to the jury," responsible for the killing. The men named in the verdict are now locked up and other arrests will follow.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Trial of the Pyx.

The coins of Edward VII have just passed for the first time the trial of the pyx, a venerable British institution. The custom dates back at least as far as Henry II., while some historians trace it to the Roman occupation. The trial is held under the supervision of the King's remembrancer, and by the coinage act of 1870, the jury consists of not less than six competent freemen of the mystery of goldsmiths of the city of London, who apply tests for the composition of the alloy. The trial was formally established by King Edward III., and is now held annually.

This Little Girl Cured of Eczema

The Burning, Stinging Sensations Taken Away and the Raw Flesh Healed by

Dr. Chase's Ointment

It is not at all unusual for children to suffer greatly from eczema, a form of itching skin disease, but it frequently happens that relief is very hard to obtain, and neglect is likely to leave the subject a life-long victim of this skin trouble. Dr. Chase's Ointment has proven itself a quick relief and permanent cure for this ailment. Take, for example, the following case:—

Mr. C. Wiley, who is employed as cooper by the Kennedy and Davis Milling Company, Lindsay, Ont., states: "I used Dr. Chase's Ointment for eczema on my little girl some few years ago, and soon brought about a thorough and permanent cure. She had suffered for considerable time, and though we tried a great many remedies, Dr. Chase's Ointment was the only preparation to prove effective.

"I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Chase's Ointment, as it certainly effected a prompt and permanent cure in this case."

Dr. Chase's Ointment is, we believe, the most effective and most thoroughly satisfactory treatment that was ever used for eczema, salt rheum, and itching skin diseases and eruptions. 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates and Co., Toronto. 12

IRELAND AND HER GRIEVANCES.

T. P. O'Connor, M.P., Vigorously Denounced Sergt. Sheridan.

London, Aug. 9.—On a motion providing for the third reading of the appropriation bill in the House of Commons yesterday, T. P. O'Connor (Irish Nationalist) made a brief fighting speech, in which he re-aired the grievances of Ireland, vigorously denouncing Sergeant Sheridan. He described Sheridan as a perjured villain, who, while in the Irish constabulary, falsely convicted innocent persons. Mr. O'Connor strongly attacked the Government for its refusal to extradite Sheridan from the retreat at Lowell, Mass. George Wyndham, Chief Secretary for Ireland, declined to further discuss the Sheridan case, but promised that if Irish landlords combined and resorted to such practices as boycotting and intimidation he would take much pleasure in summoning the officers before magistrates.

THE LORDS ADJOURN.

New Canadian Service Has Nothing to Do With Morgan's Combine.

London, Aug. 9.—The House of Lords adjourned yesterday to Oct. 16. In response to inquiries just prior to the adjournment, as to whether the Government was taking steps looking to the establishment of a British Atlantic steamship service, after the absorption of British lines by American combine, Lord Onslow, Under Colonial Secretary, said the question of a new Canadian service had nothing to do with the American combine. Certain proposals had been submitted to the Canadian Government, but the latter had not informed His Majesty's Government of their purport or asked assistance. The question of the establishment of a British service, however, was receiving the earnest attention of the Government. If such a line were established it would be necessary to come to Parliament for money, and then complete details would be given out. It would be unwise at present to communicate the negotiations.

A DUKE'S AMBITION.

How Ernest of Cumberland Wanted the English Throne—King's Answer to Duke's Toast to Himself.

At the time of George IV.'s death my father was with the duke, who then for the first time said how he longed to be King, adding that he was much more fit to be King than his brother, the Duke of Clarence, who might be a good sailor, but was kingly neither in looks nor manners. On one occasion when the duke was to have an interview with the King my father went with him to Windsor, where they remained for the night. The royal brothers dined alone together. Queen Adelaide was ill and did not appear, and my father dined with the suit in an adjoining room. During dinner loud voices were heard, which soon became more vehement. Both brothers had drunk more than usual, and the Duke lost his temper and his head. Then for the first time King William suspected the idea which from that time was never out of Duke Ernest's mind, that he ought to be the next King of England should no male children survive his brother, William IV.

The duke, rising, said: "Call in the suit. I am proposing a toast: 'The King's health! God save the King!'" The suit came in and drank it. Then the Duke said, "May I also, sir, propose the next toast?" "Name it, your grace," replied the King. "The King's heir," proudly said the Duke, and "God bless him!"

A dead silence followed; then the King, collecting all his energies and wits, stood up and called out: "The King's heir! God bless her!" Then, throwing the glass over his shoulder, he turned to his brother and exclaimed, "My crown came with a lass, and my crown will go to a lass."

Every one noticed that the Duke did not drink the toast. He left the room abruptly, scarcely bowing to his brother, the King.—"Tales of My Father," by A.M.F.

Some Historical Windows.

In history and literature the window holds a conspicuous place. There is the window in Leven Castle tower through which the wistful eyes of Mary, queen of Scots, strained their gaze across the lonely lake; there is the window in Greenwich palace from which Elizabeth waved her farewells to her brave seamen as they set forth in their tiny "cockboats" to seek a westward path to far Cathay.

There is the window in the tower through which the aged Laud stretched his hands in benediction as Strafford passed onward to his death; there is the window "in Carisbrook's narrow case," which baffled the unfortunate Charles in his attempt to escape; there is the window in the Louvre from which that other and guiltier Charles witnessed the massacre of St. Bartholomew.

Then there is the window in the narrow Linlithgow street from which Bothwellnaugh shot "the good Earl of Murray," and the window in the High street of Edinburgh whence Argyll watched the chivalrous Montrose borne onward to his scaffold, with never a thought or forecast of what his own fate would be.—London Standard.

An Obstinate Case of Eczema.

Mr. W. D. Johnston, Tilsonburg, Ont., writes that his father was entirely cured of a long standing and obstinate case of Eczema by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. His leg and foot were a mass of sores that refused to heal, and he suffered terribly from the itching and stinging. Though he used a great many remedies and was treated by first-class doctors, no permanent relief was obtained until he used Dr. Chase's Ointment.

New Use for Dried Peas.

A most interesting place is the interior of a powder factory, where fine and special brands of smokeless powder and powder used for sporting purposes are made. The smokeless powder, which, like all other gunpowder, is composed of the three ingredients charcoal, saltpeter and sulphur, requires a certain kind of charcoal, which the manufacturers discovered at the cost of a great deal of experimenting with fine cedar, boxwood, maple and ash charcoal.

The special charcoal used in the manufacture of smokeless and other brands of fine powder is made, surprising though it may seem, of dried peas, which are "burned" to charcoal in kilns like any other vegetable material used for the same purpose. These dried peas make a very fine and light charcoal that is in great demand in the manufacture of fine gunpowder.

THEY ATTENDED DIVINE SERVICE.

Sons of England Marched to St. Luke's.

THE RECTOR'S ABLE SERMON

He Delivered a Very Interesting Discourse—A Large Congregation Present—Special Service.

Lansdowne Lodge, No. 25, Sons of England, to the number of 80 or more, attended divine service, at St. Luke's church, Ashburnham, last night. The church parade was, of course, in honour of the crowning of His Majesty, King Edward VII. The members of the order assembled at their rooms on Hunter street and marched in a body to St. Luke's. The interior of the church was patriotically decorated for the occasion, and the service was very impressive throughout. Neat orders of service were distributed throughout the church for the convenience of those present.

THE SERMON.

Rev. Mr. Langfeldt's sermon was as follows;

Psalm xxi, 3, "Thou settest a crown of pure gold upon his head."

The crowning of a king in any country and in any age has been an event of great and solemn importance. It marks the turning point in the history of a nation, the beginning of a new period of better, or worse, things. In thinking this afternoon of the coronation of King Edward VII we remember that more than three centuries have passed since the last Edward occupied the English throne. Of those dead-and-gone Edwards some are remembered for their chivalrous courage, some for their great weakness, one, at least, for his great piety; his memory is kept green by the many schools and charitable institutions which his brief life gave him time to endow. Our prayer to-day is that the chivalrous courage and the pious example may be combined in the person of our present King. We must remember also that while the ascension of the King to the throne is a political event, his coronation is a most solemn act of religion. As in the old days, Saul and David and many others, were annointed and crowned by God's priest, so yesterday the solemn acts per performed, consecrating the King to God's service, and showing that by God kings reign, and that it is by Divine grace that King Edward occupies his present position. The 21st Psalm, from which I have taken my text, tells us also of the crowning of a king. This king is another King, even Jesus, He, who was called the Man of Sorrows, but He is also the King of Glory. To Him came joy in the morning of Easter, after the sorrow of Good Friday, when He rose from His tomb and rejoiced as a giant to run His course. "Thou settest a crown of pure gold upon his head."

The only visible crown which Jesus wore on earth was one of thorns, yet he was in one sense crowned many times. At his incarnation He was crowned with our flesh; by the Jews He was crowned with thorns; by His faithful people He was crowned with a crown of righteousness; at His ascension He was crowned by God His Father with a crown of glory. Men on earth saw no other crown on the brow off Jesus but that of thorns, which the soldiers platted, but in Heaven, St. John tells us, on His head are many crowns. Those who looked on the coronation of the King of England saw only one crown upon his head, yet in another sense he will wear many others, even as Jesus his Master, does. Jesus wears the the love which made Him come down from Heaven for us men and our salvation: the love which made Him content to be betrayed and given up into the hands of wicked men, and made Him hold the little children in His arms, which made Him dry the widow's tears and comfort the broken, contrite heart of the Magdalene. Yes, and that crown is composed also of the love of His people. The grand cathedral service, with its pealing anthems and echoing Psalms, the evening hymn lisped by baby lips, the cottager's simple prayer—all these come from the love of His people and make a crown for Jesus. Surely one of the crowns which the King of England wears will be the crown of his people's love. Some crowns have been gained by fraud, by violence, by usurpation; they have been stained by the blood of brave men and of murdered innocents, but the crown which our King wears is pure, unstained by blood, unsullied by crime. No widows need make lamentation, no fatherless children need mourn because of it. It is a crown rightly and justly assumed, and it is adorned with the love of the British nation. It is of pure gold. There is no true Briton at home or abroad who will say a word against the coronation of our King. The love of his dead parents, the love of wife and children, the love of the great ones in the realm, the love of loyal soldiers and sailors, the love of loyal Sons of England, the love of little suffering children in the hospitals, and the love of little happy children at school—all combine to make a crown of pure gold, a beautiful crown. From palace and cottage, from stately minster and simple village church alike, the prayer goes up, "God save the King."

Yes, King Edward is crowned by his people's love.

One of the many crowns of Jesus is the crown of righteousness. He, Who knew no sin, yet suffered for the sins of others, is crowned with a diadem of perfect righteousness. For the King, as for any mortal man, this is impossible. The King, like other men, is a frail mortal, liable to sin, or to fall into temptation. Yet it should be true of England's King as to his master, "A King shall reign in righteousness." The example which comes from the highest place in the realm should be one of good to the lowest place. It was written of Queen Victoria:

"HER COURT WAS PURE."

A pure example from the throne is the very best influence which can gladden society of every kind.

"Thou settest a crown of pure gold upon his head."

One of the crowns of Jesus is a crown of victory, a crown of many victories. These victories were not gained on blood-stained fields amid the headlong rush of battle. They were not gained over earthly foes, or for the sake of wealth and conquest. They were gained not by the blood of others, but by that of the conqueror Himself, the battlefields were those of humility, of patience, of suffering and pain. They were gained by the lowly birth at Bethlehem, by the obscure life and labour of Nazareth, by the fasting and temptation, the loneliness and the sorrow of Gethsemane, by the wounds and agonies of the Cross of Calvary, and the victories were final. Sin and death were conquered once for all; death has no more dominion over us. And the crown which the King of England wears is a crown of victory. Some of the brightest jewels which adorn the diadem of England are memories of the triumphs won by English arms in times gone by; triumphs which have planted the British flag on nearly every soil and made England mistress of the largest Empire the world has ever seen. It shines with splendid memories, not only of victories gained in war but won in peace, which gave England her Colonies and enlarged her commerce, and carried the English tongue to the very limits of the world.

But surely there is another sense in which our King wears a crown of victory. Glorious as are these jewels of a splendid past, these are not the greatest and the best. The King who can rule himself is the noblest King; he who can conquer himself is the greatest conqueror. The crown is not for every one who runs the race, but for him who perseveres to the end, and the victory is not to the fighter only, but to him who gains the victory.

Lastly, another crown on the head of Jesus we remember; it is the crown of thorns. That crown of mockery and insult was yet very precious as being the token of the infinite love and gentleness of the Son of God. We rejoice in our Saviour's crown of glory, but we never forget the crown of thorns or those sorrows which brought us joy everlasting.

For England's King there is a crown of thorns, and for all his people also. The cross and the thorn crown are given to us all. For King Edward as for the poorest person in his Empire, there are sorrows, losses, trials, sufferings. God crowns all His people with a crown of thorns, and such a crown is very precious for it reminds us that as we suffer with Jesus we shall also reign with Him.

But now, what of ourselves? Can we take part in the crowning of Jesus? Yes; by giving ourselves to Him we add fresh splendor to His crown. Every penitent tear shed over our weakness and our sins shines like a precious jewel in the pure crown of Jesus. Every conquest over self, gives a new glory to the Saviour's crown of victory; every gentle act of tenderness and mercy enriches His crown of love. And have we no part in the King's Coronation? Only the few were privileged to take part in that solemn service, but the poorest of us can help to add something to the glory of the crown of King Edward. It is written in the Prophets: "Take silver and gold, and make a crown." Let us take of the gold of our love and the seven-times-tried silver of our loyal service and make crowns for England's King, so that he may know himself crowned with the loyal love of his people, throned in the great heart of the great nation, safe in the hands of a brave people. Thus can we, even the humblest of us, set a crown of pure gold upon his head. The people of the Great Empire of King Edward have been taught:

"To reverence the King as if he were their conscience, and their conscience as their King. To break the heathen, and uphold the Christ. To ride about redressing human wrong. To speak no slander, no, nor listen to it."

It is such a crown of love and reverence and loyalty, that the Sons of England offer to-day to their Sovereign, praying that he may wear it as a worthy occupant of a glorious throne till the time when he must exchange an earthly diadem for a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Mrs. Benjamin Seabrook Dangerously Injured.

On Friday evening a serious accident, due to a runaway team, happened to Mrs. Benjamin Seabrook, who resides near Fraserville. Mrs. Seabrook and her husband came in to Friday's market and were returning home late in the evening. At the Grand Trunk railway crossing of Charlotte street the team became frightened and ran away. The driver, Mr. Seabrook, managed to keep control of them. The horses ran furiously west on Charlotte street, and nothing untoward happened till they passed Park street. Opposite St. Joseph street, either due to the darkness or a sudden shy of the team, the wgaon ran up on the embankment resulting from a Waterworks trench. The sudden swerve threw Mrs. Seabrook out violently upon the hard road, and the wagon was overturned and both horses fell into the trench on the opposite side of the embankment—one on top of the other.

Fortunately Mr. Seabrook, who with a child three or four years old, was thrown out, nor the child nor the horses, were seriously hurt, but Mrs. Seabrook was picked up unconscious, bleeding profusely from a scalp wound three or four inches long in the back part of of the head. She was at once removed to Dr. Pegeon's surgery, and after receiving interim surgical attention, she was removed to the Nicholls Hospital, under the care of Dr. Pigeon.

It was found that she was suffering from concussion of the brain and shock. To-day she is showing signs of returning consciousness, and seeing that she is a lady of strong constitution, her attending physician has strong hopes that she will recover. She is said to be the mother of a large family, and the accident that befel her made a night of anxiety in her home.

Persons in the vicinity, who quickly flocked to the scene of the accident think that it was due to lack of light. There appears to be need of an electric light on this much travelled road at the intersection of St. Joseph's street, where other accidents attributable to deficiency of light, have happened. A light placed at this point would not only light this vicinity but afford light to the part of Gilmour street opposite that point which, owing to the dense shadow of the trees, is very dark.

proached the excitement about Buckingham Palace was most marked. Punctual to time the advance guard of the royal cavalcade issued from the archway, the horses of the troopers curvetting nervously as they faced the wall of humanity that cheered their coming. Shortly afterwards came the Prince and Princess of Wales' procession, and finally within a few minutes Their Majesties' state coach appeared at the gateway, and the King and Queen smiled and bowed in response to the mighty roar of cheers that dwarfed all previous welcomes. The scene in the vicinity was remarkable.

The three processions to the Abbey were carried out according to program and the only striking features of the first two were the gorgeous state carriages and the beautiful trappings and horses.

IN THE ABBEY.

How Brave King Edward Took the Oath and the Ceremony.

In Westminster Abbey the doors of that edifice were scarcely opened and the gold sticks and ushers had barely found their stations before the seats began to fill. Peers and peeresses swept up the nave, their scarlet and ermine making vivid contrasts with the deep blue of the carpet. As they arrived before the thrones they separated, the peers going to the right and the peeresses to the left. By 10 o'clock the interior of the Abbey present a blaze of color.

The Archbishop of Canterbury took his seat in front of the coronation chair, and the Earl of Halsbury, the Lord High Chancellor, seated himself by his side. Several minutes elapsed, however, before the King and Queen came in sight of those gathered about the throne. Suddenly "Vivat Alexandra" was shouted by the boys of Westminster, and the Queen, walking slowly to the left of the throne, gained her chair and knelt at a silken priedieu, her magnificent train of cloth-of-gold, being lifted out of her way by six scarlet coated pages.

Two or three minutes later arose the cry from the Westminster boys of "Vivat Rex Edwardus," with blasts from trumpets, and King Edward appeared and walked to his chair in front of the throne, bowing to the Queen as he passed, and then knelt down in prayer.

After removing his cap His Majesty stood up and the Archbishop of Canterbury in a trembling voice read the recognition beginning:

"Sirs, I hereby present unto you King Edward, the undoubted King of this realm," etc.

Then there was a hoarse shout and the blending of the choir and the people, women and men, in the cry "God Save King Edward."

Several times this was repeated and the Abbey rang with the loud fanfares.

Having placed the King into his new throne the Archbishop knelt and paid homage, the aged prelate scarcely being able to rise until the King assisted him and himself raised the Archbishop's hand from the steps of the throne. The next person to pay homage to His Majesty was the Prince of Wales, and then the representatives of each grade of nobility touched the crown as a token of fealty, and kissed the King's cheek.

The Queen then rose, and accompanied by her entourage, proceeded to the altar steps, where, under a pall of cloth of gold, she was quickly crowned by the Archbishop of York, supported by the Bishops. She was then led to the throne beside that in which the King sat and her enthronization was accomplished. The Queen bowed to King Edward, and both walked to the altar and received the communion.

As Their Majesties were leaving the Abbey, rain commenced to fall, and they returned and deferred their departure until the rain ceased. They left at 2 p.m. The departure of the King and Queen from the Abbey was signalled by another salute, the massed bands played "God Save the King." The entire route of Their Majesties return to the Palace was marked by scenes of enthusiasm, similar to those which greeted their progress to the Abbey.

DROWNING ACCIDENTS

Hubert W. Eaton of Montreal Drowned at Shawinigan Falls.

FRANK LUFFMAN AT DESERONTO

Willie Buchanan, an 8-Year-Old, Finds a Watery Grave in the Don River—Mr. E. Bush of Lindsay, Killed a Port Sandfield—Dunnville Boy Killed by a Piledriver—A Chapter of Accidents.

Montreal, Aug. 12.—Hubert W. Eaton, a Montrealer, 22 years of age, was drowned Sunday afternoon while bathing from a boom at Point a'Bernard, Shawinigan Falls. Eaton who had been for some time in the employ of the Great Northern Railway at Shawinigan Junction, had gone down to the boom to bathe. He was accompanied by Messrs. G. B. Blackburn and W. G. Wilcox. He was the first to dive in, and almost immediately called for assistance. He subsequently sank. The body was recovered and brought to Montreal.

Drowned at Deseronto

Deseronto, Ont., Aug. 12.—A very sad drowning accident occurred here yesterday afternoon by which Frank Luffman, about 8 years of age, son of Charles Luffman, lost his life. The boy was fishing at the docks near the Refuge boilers, when he lost his balance and fell in. His body was recovered in about twenty minutes.

Drowned in the Don.

Toronto, Aug. 12.—Willie Buchanan, the 8-year-old son of Robert Buchanan, of Don Mills road, was drowned just below the first dam on the Don River yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The little fellow stole away from home with his 10-year-old brother, and both went down to the river to play, and in crossing over a board, the high wind which blew all morning with great force, carried Willie off his feet, and he fell into a deep spot.

Killed by a Fall.

Bracebridge, Aug. 12.—A sad accident happened at Port Sandfield yesterday afternoon, when E. Bush of Lindsay was instantly killed. The bridge at the cut at Port Sandfield was being swung to allow the steamer Islander to pass through, when Bush, who was on the approach, attempted to jump across to the bridge after it had been swung a few feet. He evidently miscalculated the distance, struck the railing, and fell to the wharf beneath, a distance of 30 feet, head foremost.

Boy Killed Instantly.

Dunnville, Aug. 12.— While some boys were playing around the pile driver at the new bridge yesterday afternoon, one of their number, William Brunt, aged 10 years, son of A. S. Brunt, barber, was instantly killed by the lever of the apparatus striking him on the head with terrific force.

Cheaper Postage on Newspapers.

London, Aug. 12.—One of the first acts of Mr. Austen Chamberlain as Postmaster-General, will probably be to co-operate with his father in the scheme for the heavy postal subsidy to the new Canadian fast mail service, making the British and Admiralty subventions not far short of $500,000, to add to Canada's expected subsidy of $1,000,000. Mr. Austen Chamberlain is also expected to depart from past British postoffice administrations by establishing a halfpenny newspaper post throughout the Empire, beginning with Canada. The British Ministers have been strongly urged to take this step in order to counteract the alleged anti-British influence upon Canadian opinion of the American journals, which enter Canada at the one-cent rate.

Who Pays the Shot.

London, Aug. 12.—The provincial Premiers are of opinion that the Dominion Government should defray all expenses of the provincial Government houses with the exception of living and entertaining during the coronation.

GOVERNMENT WILL APPEAL

Against the Judgment Order in the Vancouver Foreshores Case.

Ottawa, Aug. 12.—The Department of Justice has sent instructions to Vancouver, B.C., to appeal against the order of Mr. Justice Martin, dismissing the application for an injunction against Sam Kee entering upon the foreshore lands of False Creek. When the argument was heard on the motion for the injunction, Judge Martin decided against the plaintiff, on the ground that the Dominion Government had shown no title in the property mentioned. The notice of appeal gives as the grounds of appeal that the Dominion of Canada is in possession of the harbor of Vancouver, exercising jurisdiction and assuming all those rights incident to the proper maintenance of the harbor for the public, and that the said harbor consists of Burrard Inlet, English Bay and False Creek, along the last of which is the foreshore mentioned. It is claimed that the defendant by intruding and building structures and excavating on the foreshore in question is trespassing upon Dominion Government land. The appeal states that the learned Judge erred at the hearing on several points, and also alleges that the plaintiff's title to the possession of the lands as against the defendant was abundantly shown by the material before the court. It is also claimed that the Judge had no power to award costs.

FRENCH OFFICER UNDER ARREST.

Col. St. Remy Refused to Take Cavalry to Close Nun's Schools.

Vannes, Aug. 12.—The Prefect of the Department of Morbihan asked that a detachment of cavalry be sent to assist the authorities in their efforts to close the unauthorized congregational schools at Ploermel.

The general commanding the district ordered Lieutenant-Colonel St. Remy to go to Ploermel with a part of his regiment, but Col. St. Remy refused to obey this order, declaring his religious sentiments forbade him to co-operate in closing congregational establishments.

General Andre, the War Minister, has ordered Colonel St. Remy to be confined in the fortress on Belle Isle and to be court martialled for insubordination.

"Long Live the Sisters."

Brest, Aug. 12.—At a meeting here yesterday, the Prefect attempted to justify the Government's action, but his speech was constantly interrupted with cries of: "We will resist to the death; there will be blood shed. We will allow ourselves to be massacred before we abandon the sisters." Abbe Gayraud said the only way to restore peace was not to disturb the sisters.

CANADA'S CORONATION.

Lord Minto's Cable Message to the Newly-Crowned King.

Ottawa, August 12.—The following is a copy of a cable which Lord Minto sent to King Edward:

"Ottawa, Aug. 9.

"To his Majesty the King:

"On behalf of myself, my Government and the people of Canada, may I offer to you and Queen Alexandra our loyal and heartfelt congratulations on the occasion of your Majesty's coronation. (Signed) Minto."

The King to Canada.

The Governor-General yesterday received the following reply from the King to the message of congratulation on his coronation:

"My most sincere thanks, and those of the Queen, to yourself, your Government and my loyal subjects of Canada for their congratulations.

"(Signed) Edward R. and I."

MINISTERS SWORN IN.

The King's Privy Council at Buckingham Palace.

London, Aug. 12.—King Edward held a Privy Council yesterday at Buckingham Palace, at which the newly appointed Ministers were sworn in. Later he officiated at an investiture of the Victorian Order.

London's Coronation Gift.

The King gave an audience yesterday afternoon to Sir Joseph Dimsdale, Lord Mayor of London, who presented the city's coronation gift of $575,000 toward the King's Hospital Fund. The gift included more than 20,000 penny donations from the poorest quarters of London.

Where Is This Cook?

Toronto, Aug. 12.—There is a mystery at Big Bay Point, Lake Simcoe. Robert Smith, a cook, employed at the Robinson House, is missing since last Tuesday, when he quietly let himself out of the hotel at 4 o'clock in the morning. Smith is a played as cook by the Toronto Hunt Toronto man, and was formerly em- Club.

Milk Fever in Kingston.

Kingston, Aug. 12.—A veterinary surgeon says milk fever is prevalent. Since June last over a hundred beasts have died from the disease. It is caused by the rich grass and the prevalence of white clover.

FORAGING STRIKERS.

Complaints Made That Mine Strikers Have Become Raiders.

FARMERS ARE TO TAKE ACTION

Concerted Steps to Help Stop Further Depredations—Two Shots Fired at a Farmer Who Interfered to Prevent His Crop Being Taken—Dug Up Widow's Potatoes Without as Much as by Your Leave.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 12.—Complaint was made to Brigade headquarters yesterday that strikers are foraging in the rich agricultural district of the Catawissa Valley. The life of one farmer has been threatened, because he attempted to protect his property and the raids have reached such serious proportions that the farmers are preparing to take some concerted action to help stop further depredations. The complaints reached headquarters yesterday afternoon, and it is not unlikely that cavalry will be sent into the district to-day for the purposes of stopping the raids.

Lucian Munbeck, a farmer, reported that for some time past raids have been made on his place by parties of men. Early yesterday morning he caught a man tearing out whole stacks of corn. He ordered the man off the place and as he was leaving he fired two shots at the farmer. The latter was armed, but did not shoot.

A widow, who owns a farm, reported that several men came on her premises and started to dig potatoes. She ordered them off the patch, but they paid no attention to her and did not leave until they had taken all they needed. One farmer has several men patroling his farm day and night. The foragers do not confine themselves to stealing crops, but also take poultry.

The soldiers in camp are daily feeding several hundred women and children. They came there saying they are hungry and as there is more than enough food in the camp to supply the wants of the men, the officers permit the soldiers to give something to the needy applicants. The number that came last week was small, but it is increasing every day. Many of them bring baskets to carry the food home. It is a common sight to see some of the women and children take scraps from the leavings of the soldiers. Col. Hoffman, of the 8th regiment, was asked if all these persons were foreigners and he replied that a great many belonged to English speaking classes.

The officials of the Mine Workers' Union deny there is any actual want. They maintain the union are able to take care of the distress.

The End of the Strike.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 12.—David R. James, operator of the Cambridge Colliery at South Shenandoah, said yesterday:

"You may safely predict that the anthracite strike will end in some manner before the 15th day of September.

"No one can tell whether the end will come through a break in the ranks of the striking mineworkers or through arbitration or compromise; but it is certain beyond all question, that the mines will open.

"We realize the enormous and permanent losses that confront us. Every anthracite strike has resulted in the loss of territory of the coal-producing companies of this region, and this strike promises to exceed its predecessors in that respect. Manufacturers who once use the cheaper bituminous coal are hard to win back to anthracite. Hard coal will monopolize the market in domestic sizes, and for many years to come, but the domestic trade is only a fraction of the total.

"Speaking for myself as an individual operator, I will say that I am heartily sick of this trouble."

Fight at Scranton.

Scranton, Pa., Aug. 12.—A lively battle occurred last night between deputies and strikers at Throop, an isolated mining village six miles north of here. Scores of shots were exchanged but as far as is known no one was hit.

Fete For Many Miles.

Paterson, N. J., Aug. 12.—A tremendous explosion occurred yesterday at the works of the Laflin & Rand Powder Company at Wanaque. The building in which the glaze is put on the powder, blew up, and the shock was felt for many miles. There was nobody in the building at the time, but three men in another part of the plant were hit by flying splinters. It is believed their injuries are not fatal.

Schooner Lost With Ten Men.

St. John's, Nfld., Aug. 12. — The steamer Virginia Lake returned here yesterday morning from Labrador and reports the fishery prospect there to be excellent. The catch promises to be above the average. A schooner has gone ashore at Farmyard Islands. Her crew of ten persons were drowned.

GROWTH OF BRITAIN'S TRADE.

The following figures show the growth of Great Britain's trade between 1840 and the present time:

With	1840.	1895.
Colonies	£34,000,000	£172,000,000
United States.	23,000,000	131,000,000
France	6,000,000	68,000,000
Germany	5,000,000	60,000,000
Other Count's.	45,000,000	272,000,000
Total trade	£113,000,000	£703,000,000

The wealth of the United Kingdom was in 1840 estimated by McCullagh and other authorities at £4,100,000,000. Mulhal, in his work, National Progress, estimated the total in 1895 to be £11,805,000,000. In 1860 the income tax assessment was £335,000,000; in 1900, £706,000,000. The assessment is computed as representing about half the total national income.

FARMERS' INSTITUTES FOR WOMEN.

What the Farmers' Institutes have done for the farmers, so the Women's Institutes hope to do for the farmers' wives and daughters. Two yeers ago the Superintendent of Farmers' Institutes made arrangements and called meetings of farmers' wives in different parts of the province, and as a result there are now 42 organized Women's Institutes, with a total membership of 3,048. A handbook of Women's Institutes has just been issued by the Ontario Department of Agriculture for use at the meetings during the coming fall and winter. It contains specimen programmes for women's gatherings; it suggests topics of study; it contains lists of good books, bulletins and other publications that should be helpful in the home. In addition to this there are leading articles by Canadian and American authors on subjects relating to the home, care and furnishing of the house, care of children, treatment of servants, housekeeping as a profession, housekeeping in the country, etc. Mrs. Martha Van Rennselaer, of Cornell University, contributes an article on "Saving Steps," which contains many useful hints in reference to economizing time and money in the home. "How to Build the Farm Home," is discussed at length, and illustrations of convenient country houses are given, together with the plan of construction, cost of material, etc. "A Simple Method of disposing of House Sewage on the Farm," has been written by an officer in the Department of Public Works, Ontario. This most important topic is given the attention it deserves, and plans are shown for cheap and convenient methods of disposing of all house wastes. The pamphlet concludes with descriptions and illustrations of methods of home adornment with flowers. Photographs are shown of porch and yard decorations and the book generally will be appreciated by all who may have the pleasure of reading it.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The recent joint conference of Toronto machinists and their employers, who have been at loggerheads for some weeks past, have at length resulted in an amicable settlement. A compromise has been arrived at by which the men will receive an advance all around of 7 1-2 per cent., making the minimum rate of wages about 20 cents and hour. The hours of labour will remain as before.

Prophecy is not a very encouraging nineteenth or twentieth century occupation. Some garrulous gypsy prophesied that King Edward VII would be King, but would never be crowned. He has been crowned. Bismarch once undertook the role of prophet. He prophesied that "South Africa would be the grave of the British Empire, and we see how a British triumph has discredited his foresight.

A Bulletin has been issued by the Census Bureau of the United States, which shows that the total railway cars built in the United States were 145,440, of which 118,504 were built by contracting companies themselves. The freight cars built by the companies in their own shops were 26,543, and 115,590 by the contracting companies, either working outside the railway organizations or in co-operation with them. There are 1,361 car building establishments in the United States, rated at an aggregate capital of $207,904,000.

Before and during the general elections we heard from Opposition quarters the claim that the Ross Government's declared intention to build the Temiscamingue Railway, was only a blind and a "fake," made to influence the elections. It was not that, of course, and the bona fides of the Government's intention is evidenced by the fact that it appointed commissioners under the act to have charge of the construction of the line. The commission is organized, and at the last meeting decided to call for tenders for the clearance of the right of way, grading and also construction work. The Opposition regarded the work as a political expedient; the Government regards it as a straightforward business proposition, and are acting accordingly. A business government, such as the Ross Government is, is what this progressive province needs, what it has, and what it will continue to have, for four years longer at any rate.

A MYSTERY OF JOURNALISM.

There is a mysterious phenomenon exhibited in the field of journalism which baffles investigations. Let a journal which is depreciated by a person because of its alleged paucity of readers make ever so obscure an objectionable allusion to one who declares he "never sees it," or, "never hears of it," there comes instantly complaint, or explanation, or request for withdrawal from the person to whom such reference was made. How comes it to pass that he who declares that he "never sees" a certain paper and "never hears of it" becomes aware of its having alluded to him immediately after publication? The experience of journalists is, that the most diligent, exhaustive readers of a paper are those who affect to never see it, and those who pretend to pay no regard to a journal, who profess to ignore it, are the most sensitive to and quickly observant of any criticism relating directly or indirectly to themselves individually, or the affairs or institutions in which they are interested. All of which is highly flattering, as it demonstrates the wide sphere of a journal's influence which extends far beyond those by whom it is directly supported. The beneficial influences of an honourably conducted journal "droppeth as the gentle rain from Heaven" upon the "unjust" who affect to ignore it, as well as upon the "just" who have intelligence enough to recognize and honour enough to show appreciation of its value.—Chronicle.

TRIUMPH OF BRITISH TRADES UNIONS.

Judicial Decision in Favour of Miners' Federation.

A special cable to the Globe says: "The trades unions, with the help of Rufus Isaacs, have won a decisive victory in the Welsh colliery case. Justice Bidgam declined to hold the Miners' Federation liable for pecuniary losses from the stoppage of work ordered by the Sliding Scale Committee. He admitted that the federation controlled the movement involving a violation of the working contracts, but decided that its advice to the miners was honest and without malice. The trades unions will be greatly encouraged by this judgment, especially as the courts, during recent years, have been going against them."

A Noted Medical Specialist Speaks For the Benefit of Hot Weather Sufferers.

He Maintains That PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND Is a Banisher of Disease and a Restorer of Health.

A noted medical specialist — a physician possessing ample wealth — ever ready to acknowledge worth and merit, speaks of Paine's Celery Compound as follows:

'In summer time, when strength fails, when that tired, listless feeling is experienced from day to day, when the digestive organs are not doing their work properly, when constipation is poisoning the blood, when disease with iron hand is taking possession of the body, Paine's Celery Compound will be found a marvellous banisher of disease and a true health restorer.'

This strong statement should influence all weak, run-down and half-sick men and women during the hot August weather. This remarkable endorsation of Paine's Celery Compound by an acknowledged specialist, should at once convice the suffering and diseased that Dr. Phelp's great medical discovery is what they need to restore perfect health. The thousands of lives wearing away can be saved and made happy and useful to families and friends. May Heaven speedily convince the doubting and despondent and direct them to that unfailing life giver — Paine's Celery Compound.

Big Fire Loss at Harriston.

Harriston, Aug. 9.—Last evening fire was discovered in the large brick factory, owned and operated by Merriam Bros., builders and manufacturers of builders supplies, and novelty wooden goods. There was a very heavy stock of material on hand, and this, with the building and machinery, was totally destroyed. The loss will be heavy, and there was only a light insurance.

England Won't Discuss Sugar.

London, Aug. 9.—In a despatch to The Daily Mail from St. Petersburg the correspondent says Great Britain in her reply to the circular issued by M. de Witte, Russian Minister of Finance, regarding the Brussels sugar convention, declines to participate in a conference on the sugar question.

IMMENSE BUSH FIRES.

Vancouver Island Settlers Are Fighting Fires That Threaten the Destruction of All Their Property and Crops.

Victoria, B.C., Aug. 12.—Immense bush fires are raging at many points on the island, destroying thousands of feet of lumber, and threatening houses and railways.

Near Chemainus, a logging camp of the Victoria Lumber Company, a camp of the Chinese residents of the village and other property was destroyed, and all day the entire community were fighting to save the schoolhouse and town hall.

The Flemor Railway, running from Mount Sticker to Crofton, was also threatened, but finally saved.

Near Victoria thousands of cords of wood have been burned and fences and barns destroyed.

All over the country the settlers are fighting the fire to keep it out of their crops. Luckily most of the grain is harvested.

The fires must continue to burn until there is a rainstorm, of which there are no signs.

Having been without rain since April, the country is dry as tinder, and it takes very little to start a big blaze.

THE LABOR PROBLEM.

Puzzling the Manitoba Harvest Government Officials.

HARVEST HANDS ARE SCARCE.

Fields Are Already White For Harvest, and a Splendid Crop Is Assured—Provincial Immigration Agent Golden Talks of the Prospects—May Yet Have to Advance Fares to Eastern Harvest Hands.

Winnipeg, Aug. 12.—No unfavorable reports in regard to the crops were received yesterday morning and, with a splendid crop assured, officials are deeply puzzled over the labor problem. They are doubtful whether the requisite number of harvest hands can be induced to come west this year, and, as a result, it may be found necessary to advance fares of eastern men, in order to gather the harvest.

J. J. Golden, Provincial Immigration Agent, received word from Jos. Burke, who was sent east to secure harvesters, that his work in Quebec had not been too successful. He induced about 200 French-Canadians to come west, and they will arrive in Winnipeg early this week, but low as the fare is to the west they encountered many who are anxious to leave, but who cannot raise enough money to do so.

Mr. Burke will visit Montreal and Three Rivers this week and hopes to induce several hundred more harvesters to visit the west. He says that the harvests in Ontario and Quebec will be late this year, and, as a result there is plenty of work at fair wages in the east.

Mr. Golden, speaking yesterday morning of the situation, said: "We still believe we can get all the laborers we need in the harvest fields from the east, but will not know definitely until the end of the week. The reports I have received from our eastern agents are by no means optimistic.

"Should our expectations not be realized, we will consider the advisability of advancing the fares of laborers. The men will come up under contract and the farmers who employ them can make some arrangements in the matter of refunding to the Government the money advanced. This matter will probably be given consideration by the Government at the close of the present week.

Mr. Golden's reports of the crops yesterday are still of a most favorable nature. The cold weather and rains of the last three days have done practically no injury to wheat. The other grains are in splendid condition in most sections. The C.P.R. weather reports generally indicate cool cloudy weather.

The C. N. R. R. reports is similar. The weather was beautiful and warm last night.

Melbourne, Australia, Aug. 12. — Captain Shields, medical officer of the Transport Drayton Grange from South Africa, has made a report, in which he says:

Special Council Meeting.

A special meeting will be held in the Council Chamber to-morrow afternoon at three o'clock for the purpose of considering and, it is hoped, dealing with the street railway matter. Peterborough's relation to the street railway is not in keeping with the town's enterprise in other regards.

Splendid Dahlias

Mrs. Benjamin Cooney, the enthusiastic florist, has sent the Examiner a number of splendid samples of dahlias, grown in her garden, Stewart street south. The collection is made up of a bunch of large beautiful compound flowers of every variety of colour and shade. They give one an idea of the great force and vigour of bloom this season. Some of the flowers measure fully five inches across.

A Peterborough Poetess.

The following interesting item of information is taken from the Canadian Bookseller; "Miss Alma Frances McCollum, of Peterborough, whose verse has attracted considerable attention, and given the author enviable distinction in her own town and section of country, has compiled a volume of her poems, and placed it with William Briggs for publication. "Flower Legends, and Other Poems," is the title Miss McCollum has given to this first collection of her verse. The quality of the poetry has been placed at a high standard by competent critics." It might be added that it is expected that the volume will appear about Christmas.

THE RETAIL CLERKS.

A Good Sized Meeting in the Labour Hall Last Night.

A meeting of the retail clerks was held in the labour hall, Water street, last night, there being about forty of the clerks of the town present.

The following officers were elected—

President—R. J. Begley.
Secretary—R. K. Brown.

Money was subscribed for a charter, which will arrive in the course of ten day.

After the transaction of other business the meeting adjourned to meet again on Monday night in the labour hall, Water street. In the meantime any clerks wishing to become members may do so by notifying the secretary, R. K. Brown.

Tenders were opened for the construction of a sewer on Harvey street and a sidewalk on Walton street. There were three tenders for the construction of the sewer and four tenders for the sidewalk. Mr. R. Sheehy was awarded the contract for the construction of the sewer on Harvey street, and Messrs. Henry and Kennedy were given the contract for constructing the granolithic walk on Walton street.

THE KING'S OAK.

Planted on Saturday in Little Lake Cemetery.

The only "King's oak" planted in Peterborough on Saturday was that planted by the Little Lake Cemetery Company. The oak, an English oak, supplied by the Campbellford nurseries, was planted by Mr. Superintendent Wise, in the absence of the Directors, who are out of town, and in the presence of Alderman Rush, a Toronto gentleman, and Mr. J. Alex. Culverwell. The site of the King's oak is on the west side, and near the chapel. The oak is two years of age, was carefully shipped and planted, and, Mr. Wise says, is pretty sure to grow.

AS TO TIMOTHY FOBERT.

Rev. Father McColl Explains About the Unfortunate Man.

Regarding the condition of Timothy Fobert who was up in the Police Court yesterday morning, charged with vagrancy, and Police Magistrate Dumble's remarks concerning the unfortunate gentleman, Rev. Father McColl gave the Examiner some interesting information to-day.

Rev. Father McColl states that Fobert has been an inmate of the House of Refuge where he is welcome to go at any time. During the time that he was an inmate of the House of Refuge he was given the same privileges and treatment that is so charitably accorded the other unfortunates that make the House of Refuge their home. But Fobert will not remain there. He is of the wandering tramp variety and prefers to stroll about the town and country asking charity. If he were taken to a House of Refuge, it would necessitate the work of a couple of guards to keep him at home and this does not appear to be the obligations resting upon the staff of the House of Providence.

Father McColl thinks that under the circumstances the jail is the proper place for Fobert, in view of the fact that he will not remain in a charitable institution.

THE NEW COMPANY.

The Colonial Typewriter Company Preparing for the Trade.

Mr. George H. Dubelle, the expert chemist, who is to take charge of the ribbon and carbon paper department, of the Colonial Typewriter Co., Limited, arrived here from New York yesterday. The directors met, and after closing a contract, gave him authority to immediately purchase the special machinery and other equipment required to put the plant in complete running order. The company expects to be turning out goods within six weeks. The selection of a suitable site will be settled definitely within 24 hours. Mr. Dubelle leaves for New York to-night to purchase the equipment of the plant. The Examiner learned that a large portion of the capital stock of the company has been taken up in Hamilton by the leading bankers, professional and business men. No less than eight bank managers are shareholders in this company. It was decided to give Mr. John Moody, jr., one of Hamilton's wealthiest business men, a seat on the board. This company promises to become in the near future, one of the leading enterprises of this growing town.

WANT THEIR GRANTS.

Four Members of the 3rd C. M. R. who are Kicking.

A deputation of the 3rd C.M.R. filed into the Examiner office this morning. They had a complaint to make in regard to the recent grants of $25, to each of the men who went to South Africa. The county had granted $25 to those of the 2nd C.M.R., from Peterborough County, and had also granted $25 to each of the members of the 3rd C.M.R., with the exception of four men. These were Messrs. R. Gibson, R. Clinkscale, J. Judd and W. J. Donovan. Why, they asked, should these four men who went to South Africa with as good intentions as the bravest of soldiers, be deprived of the usual grant? They have been residents of the county all their lives, and should share alike with the other members of the 3rd.

However the matter may be an oversight, and it would perhaps be well for the boys to make application for their grants, and the matter will no doubt be satisfactorily cleared up.

AT BEAUTIFUL "BELLECHASSE"

Coronation Day Festivities—Music, Mirth and Patriotic Songs.

Mr. Harry LeBrun, the genial host of beautiful "Bellechasse," nestling in the little archipelago at Boschink, was at home to about forty jolly guests at his handsome summer residence on Saturday evening. Mr. LeBrun is not the man to let an occasion like the coronation of the Monarch of the Empire pass without the best and most loyal recognition circumstances permitted. The entertainment provided by Mr. and Mrs. LeBrun on this occasion took the form of a musicale.

Couriers had been sent out to summon the cottagers summering at the northern end of the lake, and about forty assembled to listen to and take part in a splendid impromptu programme presented under the skilful direction of Mrs. W. J. Morrow, assisted by Miss Alphonsine LeMay, of Willard, N.Y., and pupil of Mr. Beale, of Ithaca, N.Y., Conservatory, Miss Daisy Houston, pupil of Miss Hamilton, of the Toronto College of Music, Mr. Kelland, of Jersey City, leading baritone soloist of St. Peter's Cathedral, Chicago, for many years, and Dr. W. McKeown, of Toronto. The regular programme was interspersed with dainty refreshments in evidence of the graceful and profuse hospitality of the host and hostess. The social element was brought out charmingly under the prevailing spirit of bonne camaraderie; in this department Mr. "Ned" Benton of Port Hope, was pour le temps the young man of the gathering, and its life and soul. To the musicale proper succeeded a little hop, which was participated in by the guests with intense enjoyment till 12 o'clock. During the evening the set programme did not have all its own way; there were volunteer songs, among which was the "Star Spangled Banner," sung in compliment to several American guests of the occasion, and the "Marsellaise," led by Mr. LeBrun in the spirited style familiar to his social chums, at the proper stage of festal proceedings. The rule of social hilarity, requiring those who did not contribute in the way of singing, to make speeches, was rigidly enforced, and patriotic addresses appropriate to the coronation occasion, were made by Mr. Lee, barrister, Toronto, and Mr. D. O'Connell, barrister, Peterborough, both concluding by expressions of congratulation to the host and hostess, and thanks on behalf of the guests for the splendid hospitality they had dispensed. The proceedings were concluded by the enthusiastic singing of "God save the King," and by none more enthusiastically than by Judge Hudspeth, of New Jersey, now an American citizen, all the better for having been born a Canadian. This led to the compliment by Mr. LeBrun, that the Judge sang the National Anthem in as good voice, and with as good heart, now that he was a naturalized "Yankee," as he did twenty-five years ago, when he was a Canadian, living on British soil, or paddling in a canoe meet in Kawartha Lakes waters.

The occasion was one of great enjoyment, which was not confined to the guests at "Bellechasse." In evidence of the charms of music on the water, with the added glamour of midsummer moonlight, the strains of the "Marsellaise," and "God Save the King," were heard by island dwellers for miles around, for the occupants of Mr. W. A. Sanderson's cottage at "Belmont," a mile and a half distant, distinctly heard the words. Stony Lake must be a delightful spot for holiday enjoyment.

LACROSSE.

The Toronto Telegram says editorially:

"The power of a good referee was illustrated in the character of the playing in the lacrosse match between Port Hope and Oshawa at the Island on Saturday.

"Port Hope does not love Oshawa and Oshawa does not exactly love Port Hope as David loved Jonathan.

"The rivalry between two thriving towns is apt to culminate in rough playing when their chosen athletes meet on the field. Lacrosse is a trying game to excited players, and with a weak and ineffectual referee the Port Hope-Oshawa match would have been a fearsome spectacle.

"No referee in Canada ever excelled the work of Harry Gillespie at the Island on Saturday. He allowed the players all the latitude which is needed for fast lacrosse. He was impartial and energetic and unmindful as to how many men he ruled off, but he kept the game clean and did credit to himself and to the Canadian Lacrosse Association."

ANGLING.

The following paragraph is taken from the Oil City, Penn., Derrick, and has some local significance.

Thursday evening there was a strike in Mercer which threatened the pleasure of the Nimrods of the Solid Comfort Fishing Club. For some time past the youngsters about town have been picking fishing worms at 40 cents per qt. The toothsome angleworm is unknown to the soil of Canada, and as a result are looked upon by the finny tribe of that country as a luxury. To supply this want the Solid Comfort Fishing Club has each year taken with them a large consignment of worms. To secure these, the boys of the town have been paid 40 cents a quart for them. The manner in which the capture is made is quite interesting. The worms are all secured after night. After a rain the lawns about town are infested with boys with lanterns. The worms come out at night, and as they get well out of the ground they are captured. Adepts at the business can pick several quarts in an evening. When the weather is dry the hose is used to dampen the lawns. The trouble among the boys on Thursday evening was caused by a demand of a raise from 40 to 50 cents a quart, which had been denied them. One urchin who wanted to scab it, was soon brought to see that such a course might mean bodily harm to him and he changed his mind about the matter. Some of the speeches made by the striking worm pickers were very convincing and an attempt to employ scab labour might have been the cause of some of the rising young Americans wearing darkened eyes. Friday, however, the boys saw defeat ahead of them, and decided to go back at the old price, and Friday evening the twinkling lanterns were again in view.

The foregoing paragraph is reproduced, not so much for its real merit, as to show that the big head of the average "Yankee," and the arrogation of all excellence to himself and the supercilious degradation of Canada, extends even to the tortuous burrow of the humble angleworm. The idea that we have no angleworms in Canada, and that Americans who come over to the Kawartha Lakes, Rice Lake and elsewhere to enjoy the best fishing sport on the continent, have to bring their bait with them, is simply preposterous. Almost every night in the fishing season in this very town persons armed with lanterns are seen stealthily prowling over lawns, and with dexterous grabs, seizing fish-worms the diameter of a baby's thumb and as long as a baby's arm. The above paragraph, which Flaneur of the Mail and Empire, quotes as an "odd piece of intelligence," is not "odd" at all, except in that it states a specific untruth in ragard to Canadian poverty in fishing bait. We caught fishworms with lanterns before oil was struck in Pennsylvania, and we shall have them when journalistic wind jammers are food for worms.

Latest Fashion Notes.

An Attractive Outing Costume.

One of the special features of the newest frocks is the stitching in a contrasting colour. Especially smart are the frocks composed of materials in two colours, the stitching of each matching the colouring of the other.

This gown especially designed for seaside or yachting wear but suitable for any other occasions, is composed of course grained white mohair, a favourite among the season's fabrics. The sailor collar of dark blue mohair is stitched in white Corticelli stitching silk, size E, and is finished with a strap of the white mohair also stitched a dark blue shade of the same silk matching the collar, which is prolonged to form a tab. The strap edge of the collar in turn appears to be continued to form the vestee. All the edges of the blouse as well as the pleat which broadens the shoulder, running from there to the belt, are piped with dark blue mohair, and this piping is repeated upon the narrow flat flounces of the skirt.

A DEMAND FOR THE FRANCHISE

The Examiner has been requested to print the following somewhat enigmatical letter;

I have often wondered why you don't allow Indians to vote, when you have them all in your white man's laws. You know we use the top of our heads and our tongues less, and that is why you don't often hear of an Indian committing suicide, and of your white men we see two and three in a week's paper. We would like to ask how it is that he did such a deed—the answer we get is, "O, he was so sorry he voted for the wrong man," whereas if his head was right he would vote for the right man, and put him in the right place, and that is just what we will do if you will allow us to vote.

Yours truly,
ONE WHO WOULD KNOW HOW TO USE HIS VOTE.

ROMANCES OF CROWNS.

Royal Jewels That Have Been Stolen by Burglars.

Of Colonel Blood's desperate attempt to steal the crown in the reign of Charles II, everyone has heard. Having contrived to ingratiate himself with Edwards, the deputy keeper of the crown jewels, he one day introduced four companions to whom he asked the old man to exhibit his charge. Suspecting nothing, the keeper complied, when he was at once thrown to the ground and gagged, and but for the opportune appearance of his son the thieves would doubtless have accomplished their nefarious aim. As it was, Blood made off with the crown, but was promptly pursued and, after a struggle, in which the crown escaped from his hold and rolled in the mud, was secured. Strange to say, none of the miscreants was punished, Blood, indeed, being later received into royal favor.

Another celebrated robbery was that of the French crown jewels in 1792. After the death of Louis XVI. the jewels, which included the crown, sceptre and other treasures to the value of £500,000, were removed to the Garde Meuble, which, on the night of September 17th, was mysteriously broken into and its precious contents carried off. For awhile the affair was wrapped in doubt and conjecture, but an anonymous letter finally put the authorities on the track of the stolen property, the greater portion of which, including the famous regent diamond, was found in a ditch in the Alle des Veuves, Champs Elysees.

Yet another crown that has been stolen is that of Holland, which, in 1829, was carried off by ambitious and successful burglars. For over two years did the magnificent prize—it was valued at £120,000—remain in the hands of these thieves, who did not dare to dispose of their priceless capture. At length gaining courage they began to disembarrass themselves of it piece-meal, and by this means it was gradually recovered, some of the gems being discovered in Brooklyn, U.S.A., while the remainder were found near at hand, in Belgium.

On four occasions has the crown of England been placed in pawn. The most frequently quoted is that which happened in 1386, when Richard II. was driven to this last resource to replenish his depleted treasury. The crown, however, must either have been of comparatively little value, or the merchants of London, to whom he pledged it, adepts at driving a shrewd bargain, for the amount received, as vouchsafed for by the King's receipt when redeeming his regalia, was but £2,000.

Richard, however, was but following in the steps of his father, Edward III., who, pressed for money, did not hesitate to place the symbol of royalty in pledge with the Bishop of Winchester for the comparatively handsome sum of £13,500. Henry III., impoverished by the struggle against his barons, and Henry V, by his war in France, likewise hypothecated the crown. Charles II, also, would doubtless have done so; and, indeed, the pardon and subsequent pensioning of Colonel Blood seem to point to the fact that that adventurer, when he attempted to steal the regalia, was acting with the King's connivance.

TOWN TREASURER.

Quebec Municipal Officer Gives Important Evidence.

Without Fear, Favour or Affection, He Speaks Plainly His Honest Sentiments, Adding Some Words of Advice.

Wolfestown, Que., Aug. 10—(Special.)—Mr. R. Boulanger, Secretary and Treasurer of this town, is numbered among the most prominent and highly respected citizens of the country.

Time and again he has been honoured by appointments to offices of public trust and there is no man in our community who commands the universal respect and esteem of all classes of citizens more than Mr. Boulanger.

Those who know him well are aware that for some time he was very ill and they also know that he was restored to good health, but many of them may not be aware of the means used by Mr. Boulanger in accomplishing the wonderful recovery which he has been fortunate enough to bring about.

Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him and he has made this fact public in a grateful letter which reads as follows:—

— "I desire to say that I was completely cured of Kidney Disease and Urinary Troubles by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I was so bad that I was obliged to urinate often, with much pain. They have relieved me of the pain and the results in every way are satisfactory.

"I think it is prudent for every family to keep them and use them."

When a man of Mr. Boulanger's standing puts himself on record so frankly and positively, there can be no doubt but that he has experienced all and more than he states in his letter.

Dodd's Kidney Pills have now permanently established themselves as an infallible remedy for all urinary trouble and the closing words of Mr. Boulanger's letter are an advice which every household should observe.

Prevent Disorder.

At the first symptoms of internal disorder, Parmelee's Vegetable Pills should be resorted to immediately. Two or three of these salutary pellets, taken before going to bed, followed by doses of one or two pills for two or three nights in succession, will serve as a preventive of attacks of dyspepsia and all the discomforts which follow in the train of that fell disorder. The means are simple when the way is known.

Mr. Chamberlain, after thanking Mr. Morgan for inclosing copies of these papers, says:

"There is not the slightest foundation for the theory that there is any humiliation in Mr. Balfour's well-deserved promotion. I have never been a candidate for the office of Prime Minister, and greatly prefer to continue in my present post of Secretary of State for the Colonies."

In Poor Health for 19 Years.

Too Weak to Work and had Severe Headaches—Remarkable Influence of

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD.

When a person gets weak and run down in health, the fault is usually with the blood supply—the blood is deficient in quantity or quality. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is a wonderful system builder because it forms new blood and creates new nerve force.

Mrs. James Clancey, 714 Water street, Peterborough, Ont., states: "I have used four boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and found them an excellent medicine. I was troubled more or less for nineteen years with severe headaches, which made me useless as far as accomplishing any work was concerned.

"The nerve Food seemed to build me up generally, and so made a thorough cure of my old trouble. I would not think of being without Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in the house, and would strongly recommend anyone suffering as I did to give it a fair tria It succeeded in my case after a great many remedies had failed."

His Sister's Keeper

By Elizabeth Dyke Lewis

Copyright, 1901, by E. D. Lewis

She was only the third lady in the cast of the comic opera, but her voice was improving, and she had youth and a good figure to give her hopes of advancement. She entered into her part with an enthusiasm which overlooked the drafty wings and even the chilly barrenness of her own dressing room. She hated her lodgings in the French quarter in West Twenty-fifth street and always longed to get back to the theater.

She was sitting in her dressing room on Wednesday afternoon, ready for the matinee, which was to begin in ten minutes, when the callboy came to the door.

"Why, surely my watch isn't wrong!" she exclaimed, for she was not needed until half past 2. No; only the manager wanted to speak to her. The manager often wanted to speak to her. She came cheerfully forward to see what he wanted. He was standing in his shirt sleeves giving the gas man a dressing about some lights which had ruined the star's costume the night before, but he left his speech in the middle and came to meet her, laying his hand familiarly on her shoulder. He was a big man and rather ugly, but even the chorus girls confessed that he had a way with him. The little singer felt it, too, for she let herself be drawn into the office, and the door shut behind her. Then she gave a fillip to her short skirts and perched on the table.

The manager cleared his throat and went to the point.

"You see, Miss Kennedy," he began, "I've been wanting to give you a lift for some time. I can't bounce Miss Gray, of course. She's been on a good while and is used to it. But after this run I do want you to have something better. Now, here's a thing called 'Liberty Belle' that's bound to make a hit some time, and if you like you can take the score home and try Fair Helen's part on your piano. It was simply made for you." He turned the leaves rapidly, showing her the size of the part and a few of the situations and humming a couple of the songs, while his plump forefinger followed the score. "Now," he said, checking off the points on his finger, "here's the scheme in brief: You're Fair Helen, Stevens is the Duke's son, and I'm your manager, and we go off on the road—Pittsburg, you know, and Cincinnati, and perhaps Chicago if it's all right. And now, before you say anything, I want it to be quite understood that the point of the whole thing, to me at least, is that I'm your manager—see? And now, Miss Kennedy, I'm going to make myself believe that you'll think it over the right way. And I guess it's about time for us both to be on the outside of that door, isn't it?"

He opened the door and let her out ahead of him, and she ran into the wings and talked to the chorus girls till her cue came. She joined absently in their laughter at her own jokes, and all the time she was thinking over the manager's proposal.

It sounded very attractive. She knew that she would stand a better chance of real promotion if she held her position in a good "stock." Yet the idea of a star part and presumably higher salary was alluring in the extreme.

She abandoned her reflections as the time came for her to lead the chorus out and to dance while they echoed responses to her song.

"But that I never do!" her song concluded as she brought both feet together with a martial click and salute.

"Ah! That we never do!" echoed the chorus, and then she had to come farther down and do the last verse over again. She could see over the footlights and even distinguish faces in the first three or four rows of the orchestra. The front row was nearly filled by a party of schoolgirls, with their chaperon, but at the end was a man, who was strangely out of place in that matinee assemblage. She looked beyond him to the old ladies behind and then to the lines of heads in the galleries, but presently she found her glance coming back to him. For a few moments she was tantalized, and then she suddenly remembered where she had met him. It was in quite another life. He could hardly afford to recognize her even if he remembered her, she thought bitterly, and just then his face lighted up, and he stared at her and bowed and smiled in the most friendly way, though he seemed a little uncertain of her returning the salutation. She found a way to do so, however, and when she gave the last whirl to her skirts and ran off she knew that he would take her final bow as meant for him.

She joined the others for a chat in the wings till the end of the act, and when she went to her dressing room she found two fine bouquets of Jack's waiting for her. She looked for the cards. Her first bunch was from a man to whom she had sent a box. He was doubtless there—with his wife and children. She must remember to look when she went on again. But the second! She opened her eyes. He had not only spoken to her; he had sent her flowers! Did it mean that there were others in this world who would take her back again still? The manager and his melodramatic adoration seemed suddenly as far away from her as they would have been a year before. She remembered having read a newspaper clipping which had suggested higher than this for her. "Miss Kennedy's abilities," it had said, "are rather above her voice, and it would not be amiss for her to see what she could do in legitimate comedy." Indeed she had been thinking seriously of leaving the operatic stage at the close of the present engagement, perhaps for the drama, perhaps for no stage at all. Who could tell? She lifted the flowers and impulsively hurried off to the manager's room.

"I have come," she said, afraid to stop for breath, lest her resolutions should change, "to refuse your very kind offer, for reasons which I cannot explain, and to return you the books."

She thrust score and libretto into his hands. He stared at her astonished.

"Why, Miss Clara," he exclaimed, "you will at least take till tomorrow to think it over. You will at least try the score. You cannot refuse me—surely you"—

"No," she said firmly, for she would have no more words with this man than she could help. "I am sorry if I disappointed you—sorry if I gave you to understand—but this is final, and I must go! There is my call," she added hastily as she heard the song out on the stage drawing to an end. Then she ran out and stood for an instant in the wings.

"I may repent it afterward," she said to herself, "but I won't if I can help it. It was real nice of him sending me those flowers. I am glad, though, that he'll never know how much they happened to mean to me. He'd think it was too silly! I shan't dare to look at him again."

The star brushed past her with a kind jest and a laugh, and she went on, crying to meet a Strephon in blue satin, who vainly endeavored to wipe away her tears. She was too much occupied with her business to have a fair look at the front seats. After a few explanatory sobs on her part Strephon, with histrionic intuition, seemed to grasp the situation, and they advanced to the footlights together, joining in a duet. The air was familiar to every street boy now, and unless she gave it her entire attention each person in the audience would think that he had heard it better done. She dared not glance even once to the spot toward which she was half unconsciously acting all the time, but when she ran out for the last time she thought that a certain lifting of her eyelashes and a saucy shrug of one shoulder just as she kissed her hand in that same direction would be accepted as reparation for her apparently cold treatment. She almost fancied a gleam of gratitude as warm as her own coming toward her from the golden haze of the footlights on the end.

That seat, had she but seen it, was empty. It had been empty since the first scene. The man in a box of the upper tier scarcely remembered that he knew one of the girls on the cast. He was engrossed for the present in quite a different sort of young woman—the one for whom he had brought some flowers and whom he had been able to find only after the second act. She was sitting a little behind the rest of her party, and as he leaned over her chair she bent her head back until it almost touched his arm and laughed softly into his eyes at something he had said. There was a charming understanding between them. They had both forgotten that there was any one on the stage.

of Dodd's Kidney Pills are legion. The box is imitated, the outside coating and shape of the pills are imitated and the name—Dodd's Kidney Pills is imitated. Imitations are dangerous. The original is safe. Dodd's Kidney Pills have a reputation. Imitators have none or they wouldn't imitate. So they trade on the reputation of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Do not be deceived. There is only one DODD'S. Dodd's is the original. Dodd's is the name to be careful about—

CORONATION DAY IN Y. M. C. A. CAMP.

How the Day Was Spent at Sandy Point—Aquatic Sports and Coronation Bonfire.

Y.M.C.A. Boys' Camp,
Coronation Day, 1902.

"God save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,
God save our King;
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save our King."

The familiar national anthem was heartily sung this morning, immediately before the morning meal, and was followed by three lusty cheers and a tiger, in honour of the coronation of our King.

This was not the only token of recognition of the day for a big programme of aquatic sports is on for this afternoon, and a mammoth bon fire this evening.

Let me give you some idea of our camp organization. Our number totals thirty, divided into five sections of six each, and in charge of section leaders as follows, each man being known by his number;

No. 1, "Frowde's Favourites" — E. A. Frowde; A. Greer, W. Armstrong, E. Harrison, W. Gordon, and W. McIntosh.

No. 2, "The Noisy Turners," G. H. Williamson; W. Brown, C. Frowde, E. Jobe, W. Erskine, and F. Turner.

No. 3, "The Galley Slaves" — G. Galley; H. Daly, E. Daly, M. Dobbin, C. Kingan, Chas. Ackerman.

No. 4, "The Jolly F's" (fellow.)—N. Jolliffe, M. Miller, A. Wood, A. Williamson, M. Hartley, B. Gillespie.

No. 5, "Ayers' Acrobats,"—H. E. Ayers; J. Rosa, M. Robinson, J. Downing, G. Fitzgerald, C. Osborne.

Each section has a tent of its own with the exception of 4 and 5, who sleep under one roof.

The "grub" tent, which is a most popular centre of attraction is situated at some distance from the sleeping tents, and adjoining it the tables, covered by tent awnings.

Near by is the historic stove, which has done such excellent service during the past years of the camp.

The camp is supplied with four boats, including a "diamond scull" for the benefit of the Beamsville visitor, "Coxswain," who states that he has his crew in the pink of condition to win the doubles in the water sports.

The Beamsville man was elected postmaster-general for the camp, but owing to an accident on Saturday he tendered the resignation of this important portfolio.

Each section has its day on duty, which means the preparation of the meals for that day, washing dishes, etc. All are under the direction of the cook, "Jimmy Flannigan," who is winning great ecomiums from the boys for the good bill of fare which he puts up.

Those who think that we have come up here to starve have very much misjudged the ability of "Jimmy" to provide both quality and quantity.

Three committees assist the leaders in the management of the camp; Orderly, field and water sports, and camp provisions.

The daily routine of the camp is as follows: Rise at 7 a.m., breakfast at 8 a.m., Bible study at 8.30, baseball 10 a.m.,d ner 1 p.m. Afternoon—Boating, sports and swimming after 4 p.m., supper 6 p.m. Evening—Free and easy, camp fires, etc.

Many amusing things are seen and heard as the sections go about their duties. The boys are getting the best kind of a course in domestic science, which should serve them well in future years. Some of the fellows in camp show great aptitude, especially several older fellows to whom the future appears to have great things in store.

The boy with the patriarchal name was seen in the role of a philanthropist the other evening when he spent a large part of the day in gathering wood for the other section which was to do duty the next day.

Another boy said that he was not going to go near the water until he had learned to swim.

Donnybrook fair cannot hold a candle to the pillow fights which occur with almost nightly regularity in camp. There was a large causuality list on Friday evening, and feathers scattered all over the field of battle.

Some of the leaders like to go to the store every evening, and if we are to judge from the starchy, shining make-up of them, they go to meet company of a very pleasant kind.

There are few fellows in camp who have been here for all the past five camps. The two Dalys and the Secretary have been at them all. Ackerman attended the '99 camp and Ayers '00. Wood and Hartley, Ross, Fitzgerald and Galley 1901, and all the rest are new men.

Through the foresight of Jack Ross, the genial Examiner representative, all the fellows wear neatly printed camp badges.

STOCK MARKETS.

The Stock Which Should Advance 20 Points.

Dear Sir,—The old saw, "All things come to him who waits," is oftimes applicable to Wall street. Sometimes when it is almost impossible to diagnose the immediate market fluctuations of either a stock or speculative commodity, taking into consideration the factors, which will have a bearing upon its earnings in the future, together with a keen analysis of properties of a like character located in the same territory, make it possible to foresee with certain accuracy the probable future market results—so certain that there can be hardly one chance in a thousand of making a wrong calculation. These opening remarks apply in no uncertain manner to Southern Pacific stock. Time, and of not any remarkable duration, will see these shares worth more than par and sought after as a gilt-edged investment. The reasons for this opinion are remarkably clear; we briefly and in condensed form present them to you for your consideration, urging you, at the same time, to take advantage of the situation by buying some of the stock. Great investors, such as the Harriman interest, which have gathered a controlling interest in Southern Pacific for their Union Pacific investment, look far into the future, weighing most carefully the pros. and cons., before tieing up millions in the stock of a company, which at the time is a non-dividend payer. No one better than the railway magnates of America appreciate the manifold advantages of purchasing a non-dividend paying property, with the proper possibilities, and bringing it up to such a state that it will yield goodly dividends upon its existent par value, so great as will ultimately cause the stock to sell at a good premium. More money is made by investing in this manner than by investing it in a road or any other property already brought to the maximum of its possibilities, and upon which the investor can make but the customary return, possible upon investment of such character. The enhancement in values brought about by investment after the former method far exceed those of the latter description. Previous examples of investment, such as a present one in Southern Pacific, can be notated by mentioning Adams' Express, which rose in price, during its upbuilding period, from 40 to 200 in addition to dividing one hundred per cent. in four per cent. bonds to its shareholders. The same methods, now operating in S.P., carried Lake Shore from 50 to 250; Harlem from 4 to over 400, Lackawanna from 40 to 275, Jersey Central from 6 to almost 200. Numerous other examples might be mentioned. Men like Moses Taylor, Percy Pyne, the Nat. Bank party, including Baker and Fahnestocke and the late Austin Corbin, accumulated their millions in this manner. Austin Corbin in the early '70's saw the possibilities in the then bankrupt L. I. Railway, selling at that time below 10. He, together with his friends, who at his solicitation, went into the enterprise, bought up the major portion of the stock around 10, then with careful and proper management brought the road up to a six per cent, dividend basis and the stock crossed par. The Harriman interest in Southern Pacific are men who have invested their money in similar manner. Their management of the property clearly demonstrates this fact. Their first act once in control was to commence improvement expenditures upon the property aggregating some $30,000,000, all of which is being charged to operating expenses. This expenditure has driven the operating expense account of Southern Pacific up to 74 per cent., whereas the next highest operating ratio in that country is only 64 per cent., and that of Northern Pacific but 50 per cent. These improvements will enable the road to handle its business at a much greater margin of profit, greatly increasing train load and decreasing cost of haul per mile. Once these extraordinary expenditures are completed, think of the vast saving that will be effected when you stop to consider that already Southern Pacific is the second largest gross earner in the United States; next to Penna! It now earns over $80,000,000 per annum; in five years it will earn nearer $120,000,000. Despite these large expenditures it already shows for the net, over 5 per cent. upon its stock; reduce its operating expenditure to 60 per cent and it will show 10 per cent. for the stock. It is in a country still in its infancy and also one of the richest sections in the United States. Five years with its natural increase in population with its consequent increased and diversified interests, created along the Company's line, will give both earnings and stock the same impetus as they gave the other roads of the west; a power that lifted St. Paul from 10 to nearly 200; Northwest from 20 to above 250; Omaha from 10 to 150 and so on. We fail to see how the student of the railway business can expect any different for the future for Southern Pacific. It seems to us as if the stock has the best prospects and brightest outlook of possibly any issue now before the public. Its control of Pacific Mail gives it a strong grip upon the rapidly growing trade with the Orient. There are some 600,000,000 people who are on the eve of becoming customers of Uncle Sam and the Southern Pacific is one of the participants in the benefits to be derived. It is a splendid stock to put away for a long pull, also an excellent stock for trading purposes marginally upon the long side, and has at all times a good 100 share and fractional market.

Faithfully yours,
HAIGHT & FREESE CO.

Southern and South-Western Deals Maturing.

New York, Aug. 11.—The extremely rapid and continuous march of Illinois Central, L. N., San Francisco, Southern Railway and kindred issues is a most certain indication of the approaching maturity of the various plans and mergers calculated to still further weld these great properties together, fortify them against competition and vastly increase their earning power. In some instances new stock issues will be made as was done with Chicago and Alton, and as is planned for Rock Island. To buy the existing issues of the company as enumerated will be to place yourself in a position to come into these new issues upon the ground floor and to derive the advantage from increased valuations these plans, when announced, will bring about. We have consistently and persistently in these letters for the past three months steadily urged the purchase of all these issues. The advice was timely and what is more to the point, correct, to have followed it was to have reaped colossal profits from the already remarkably advances recorded. We now state it to be our belief that all these issues will yet go considerably higher. We are most confident, as to the profitable results if you will but purchase them. The present market has and is still continuing to offer most unusual opportunities for rapid and most certain money making. To buy now will be to participate in the goodly profits the promulgators through their financial schemes are preparing to reap. The rest period in the market has about finished. During the past month the little detrimentals to market that possibly could be conjured have arrayed and publicly exploited.

The great factors having so important a bearing, and bullish ones, upon certain stocks have been kept carefully in the back ground. The policy of the stocks accumulators has been one of privacy. The hand will play later on, publicity will be given certain facts and there will be the usual grand rush of the public into the financial arena and they will as usual buy the stocks near top prices. Precede these people by making your purchases now.

Haight & Freese Co.

New York, Aug. 8th.—The vacation period for the active Wall street men is now rapidly running out. The cruise of the New York Yacht Club will soon terminate while the racing season at the society track at Saratoga is drawing to a close. J. R. Keene, who has been away for some time announced his intention of returning from abroad. At the present time an unusual number of the railway and financial magnates are hovering around New York City, while another goodly number have arranged to be on the field very shortly. It is quite clear that it is all anticipatory of a resumption of activity on the street. While the powers that be were away vacating, the market dragged along into a slightly lower range of prices, while dullness accompanied the movement. Illustrating most emphatically the fact that stocks could not be secured in any quantity on recessions, and only from bears, who when they with a demand turned to reserve them, and then the market would recover. There are several large railway deals that will be brought to completion late this summer, and in the fall the market will commence to discount them some considerable time before their respective announcements. We are at present engaged in harvesting one of the finest crops ever grown in the middle west. Nature has been most strongly arrayed this year upon the bull side, and contributed most magnificently to the cause of prosperous times, and higher prices for securities. The big fellows have enormous quantities of stock; they will sell them later on to belated buyers at higher prices, who have just awakened to the fact that things are on the boom. Seldom does a more propitious time present itself for people to make money in Wall street. Those who will buy stocks now will, in our opinion, reap splendid profits. All signs point that way. We believe it makes comparatively little difference what group of stocks you take hold of, they are all going to go up. We always prefer under and all conditions the more substantial and better class of securities having at all times a good market, and under this class notably recommend P. A., N. Y. C., Ill. C., M. O. P., St. P., U. P., S. Pac., Southern Ry., Kt., the Wabashes, Atch., B.R.T., M. R., Norfolk, C. & O. etc.

BUILDING FOR THE MINT.

Plans Completed For the Structure at Nepean Point.

Ottawa, Aug. 12.—The plans for the Canadian branch of the Royal Mint, which is to be located on Nepean Point, alongside the Printing Bureau and facing St. Patrick street, are now completed. They were prepared by Chief Architect Evart who visited the United States and Europe last summer to get the best possible information before proceeding with the work. Two features of the building will be endurance and security. It will be one story, with the exception of the part for the office, where the main entrance is placed. This part will be two stories with a basement. The building will be constructed with limestone dressed front. On either side of the main entrance there will be granite columns and above the main entrance will be the coat of arms and the words "Royal Mint." As far as it is possible to make it, the building will be fireproof. The roof will be of expanded iron and floors of concrete and mosaic. It will take two years to complete, and work will be commenced this fall. The size of the building is 177x165 and it is rectangular in form.

MURDERER ONLY SIXTEEN.

Frank Higgins Charged With Killing Willie Doherty in St. John.

St. John's, N.B., Aug. 12.—In a crowded court room last night, when the coroner's jury resumed the inquest into the death of Willie Doherty, the 17-year-old lad found dead near Rockwood Park, on Aug. 4, Fred Goodspeed, aged 14, told a terrible story of youthful crime.

He swore that on Aug. 1, he saw Frank Higgins, aged 16, kill Doherty, firing four shots at him, and then pounding him on the head with the revolver butt. Both Higgins and Goodspeed have been under arrest for several days.

The motive for the crime was robbery, as Doherty had some money hid, which he had stolen.

The jury brought in a verdict of murder, charging Higgins with the crime.

REVIEWED COLONIALS

The King Inspected 2000 Troops From Over-Sea Dominions.

THE CORONATION MEDALS GIVEN

His Majesty Delivered an Animated Address, in Which He Expressed His High Appreciation of Their Patriotism —The King Closed With a "God Bless You All"—Notables Present.

London, Aug. 13.— Two thousand Colonial troops here to attend the Coronation, including the Canadian contingent, were reviewed by King Edward yesterday on the grounds of Buckingham Palace. The Prince of Wales, on behalf of His Majesty, distributed the coronation medals to those entitled to them.

The King inspected the troops from the terrace, where he was accompanied by Queen Alexandra, Prince and Princess Henry of Prussia, and other royal personages, Earl Roberts, the Commander-in-Chief, Gen. Lord Kitchener, Joseph Chamberlain, several Colonial Premiers, and King Lewarnike of Barotzeland, all of whom showed keen interest in the picturesque body of men arrayed in vari-colored uniforms as they marched past in single file.

The King personally fastened the Victoria Cross on the breast of Sergeant Lawrence, the first man in line, after which he retired to the shade of an awning and left the distribution to the Prince of Wales.

The members of the royal family were much amused at the unconventionality of the colonials, who after they had received medals seated themselves comfortably on the grass and smoked as they watched the decoration of their comrades.

When all had received their medals, the troops advanced and presented arms, while the massed bands played the National Anthem. The King stepped forward and delivered an animated address, which was greeted with cheers and waving of hats by the troops.

The King said: "It has afforded me great pleasure to see you here to-day and to have the opportunity of expressing my high appreciation of your patriotism and the way you distinguished yourselves in South Africa. The services you have rendered the mother country will never be forgotten by me, and they will, I am sure, cement more firmly than ever the union of our distant colonies with the other parts of my great empire.

"Your stay in England has been longer than originally intended, owing to my illness, but perhaps you have enjoyed it and derived pleasure from visits to various parts of the land of your ancestors. God bless you all. I wish you a safe and pleasant return to your own countries."

Col. Turner and the Canadian contingent, though camped with the Australians, showed up well individually at the King's review yesterday, but the variety of their uniforms rather destroyed the general effect.

Repeatedly the question was asked: "Where are the Canadians?" even when they were passing. The troops first marched single file past the King, who was seated under a canopy, with the Queen and the children of the Prince of Wales. The King returned each man's salute smilingly. The little Princes were delighted. The Prince of Wales handed each man a coronation medal, shaking hands with Col. Turner.

Queen Alexandra left the canopy and moved among the guests, shaking hands with Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Lady Laurier, Sir Frederick Borden and Lady Borden and the other Canadians present. King Edward looked somewhat fatigued and limped slightly. Everyone will be glad to learn that he will get away for a holiday in the Highlands after the naval review.

From the King's Own Hands.

London, Aug. 13.—His Majesty the King, invited the Colonial Premiers to Buckingham Palace yesterday at 4 o'clock. From his own hands they received the gold medal struck to commemorate the occasion.

Queen Presents Medals.

London, Aug. 13.— Queen Alexandra presented war medals Monday afternoon in the grounds of Devonshire House to doctors, nurses and others in the Imperial Yeomanry hospital service. The Prince of Wales and other royalties accompanied the Queen.

A Remarkable "Keep-Up"

Never have we had a more thoroughly successful sale. The large numbers of people who attend daily is a surprise to our even sanguine expectations. We had prepared for large crowds, in the way of large quantities of merchandise, also in the matter of having the people properly served, by more than doubling our sales-force. These two factors, with the rare, good purchasing opportunities, account for the steady "keep-up" of the daily crowds.

Not a lagging hour since this sale started one week ago, but the steady, smart buying which has characterized this 10 Days' Sacrifice Sale is a proof of the appreciation for our sale values, which we represent as we believe them to be.

CONFERENCE RESULTS

Increased Contributions to the Imperial Navy.

ADOPTED BY A MAJORITY VOTE.

Preferential Tariffs Depend on Each Individual Colony—No Definite Military Arrangement With Canada or Australia—These Colonies Will Rely on Volunteers in Case of Imperial Need—Naval Subsidies.

London, Aug. 13.—While the results of the Colonial conference, which ended Monday, are generally considered satisfactory as far as they go it must be understood that the enforcement depends ultimately upon action by the Colonial Legislatures and by the Imperial Ministers, whose departments they concern.

In addition to the Australian naval arrangements, by which the Australasian contributions are to be largely increased on condition that certain vessels be officered and manned by Australasians, a general increase in Colonial naval subsidies was agreed to.

The scheme also provides that some colonies shall allot part of their local military forces to Imperial defence, in case of emergency, but Canada and Australia contented themselves with agreeing to keep their local forces in a state of efficiency, relying on volunteers in case of Imperial need as was done in South Africa.

The contribution of Cape Colony to the Imperial navy was fixed at $250,000 annually and Natal's at $175,000.

The preferential tariff arrangement is in a nebulous condition, depending entirely on future arrangements between the Mother country and each individual colony, the understanding being that such arrangements would follow the general lines of the Canadian tariff.

The foregoing arrangements do not represent the unanimous opinion of the conference, but each resolution was adopted by a majority vote.

Earl Cadogan Leaves Ireland.

W. Umphrey, W. R. Robeson, J. W. Marshall, H. Collins, S. H. Armstrong, W. H. Thompson, S. Morrison, W. Elmslie, T. H. Balls, W. T. Armstrong.

WINNIPEG'S UNWISE AMBITION

Winnipeg is waxing great, and is developing, to put it mildly, a sufficient degree of self-respect. She begins to believe that she is the hub of the Dominion, and that necessarily in time she will be the capital of the Dominion. No doubt Winnipeg is the central point of the Dominion, but the vast majority of the Members of Parliament live east of "the hub," and the plea of travelling convenience, which Winnipeg now urges, will have little force for years to come. There are both sentimental and material reasons against a change of capital. There are the sentimental considerations connected with the site selected by Her Late Majesty, Queen Victoria. The halls of the Legislature are made sacred by the memory of the great statesmen who have therein wrought out the destinies of the Dominion. On the principle of central situation, the capital of the British Isles might be removed to York, and the capital of the Empire might be shifted to British Guiana, which is about the topographical centre of the outlying units of the Empire. But there is a financial consideration. Canada is great and growing, but it has emergent needs for the employment of all its financial resources in some thing more practical than erecting new buildings to replace her present Parliament Buildings, one of the finest structures of their kind in the world, and with a situation far preferable to the flat uniformity of any site Winnipeg could offer. What Winnipeg wants worse than the Parliament Buildings of the Dominion, what she needs to make, what that city promises to be, one of the chief commercial centres of the Dominion, is improved traffic facilities. The money, the millions and more, that the removal of the capital and the construction of new buildings would involve, could be far better employed by being used as an instalment of other millions needed to provide Winnipeg, and the illimitable West with better facilities for access to the outside world. Her growth and prosperity, her increase in population and importance, depend far more upon such facilities than upon her being made the legislative centre of the Dominion.

THE WHEAT OF THE WEST.

The Examiner has received from the Manitoba Free Press, published in Winnipeg, a copy of its Crop Edition for 1902. In addition to its regular issue it consists of a splendid 16-page supplement, furnishing a history of wheat growing in Manitoba and the west, describing the country and its wheat growing capacity, and giving most interesting statistics of the development of the wheat growing industry. Many descriptions of individual farms are given in detail, with photographic reproductions of standing grain in which men and horses standing show only the heads of the men, and the heads and withers of the horses. The crop of this year promises to be immense, a conservative estimate, based on complete returns by a large corps of correspondents, placing the yield of wheat at 65 million bushels, and in the coarse grains the output will be 40 million bushels, greatly in excess of last year. This will bring the total crop of Manitoba and the Territories up to the fine figures of 105 million bushels, with only a pin point of the immense arable area brought under crop contribution. With this great yield, it is a pleasure to know that if the crop is safely harvested, that there will be little trouble in moving it. The elevator capacity has been largely increased, and 10,000 additional grain cars will do much in preventing a glut of transportation avenues.

Space will not permit of a further and more detailed reference to this splendid crop bulletin. It is a great credit to the enterprise of its publishers. It is all wheat, both in the character and quality of contents. Its wide circulation should have a marked influence upon the future of this great wheat area.

WHY IS WOOL SO CHEAP?

Attention was first drawn to the extensive adulteration in woollen goods by an able article headed "Why is Wool so Cheap?", in which the writer, who is well known as a wool expert, boldly states that, "if the wearing apparel, as used by men and women, were only made out of the pure wool fibre expressly given to us by Providence for this sole purpose, instead of being substituted by other foreign materials, then there would be a robust state of affairs, in connection with wool, but, as it is, the use of wool is annulled at every turn by the use of substitutes for the sole purpose of cheapening wool fabrics, with little or no regard to the wearing properties of the same."

The same authority states that in a drive of 30 miles around Bradford, not one, but scores of mills could be pointed out, where for every bale of wool used, ten bales, and often more of shoddy, mungo stockings and cotton are used, and that, in what is known as the heavy woollen districts of Yorkshire, there are dozens of manufacturers who never buy a single bale of raw wool, and yet are known and acknowledged as influential manufacturers of woollen goods.

This is a very extraordinary statement, and notwithstanding the wide circulation of the article uoted, no refutation has been forthcoming from the manufacturers interested.

The importance of the frequent sales of rags of every description, stockings, mungo and the like, despatched from all parts of the British Isles, and several continental countries, held at Dewsbury, Batley, Leeds and other centres in the manufacturing districts, prove the truth of the foregoing assertion.

It is further stated that to several large woollen (?) manufacturers, these sales are far more important than any of the great wool sales held in London, Bradford and elsewhere.

Examples of adulterated goods, — Melton, 42 inches wide, 6d. to 7d. per yard, extensively used for skirts and frocks, contains no wool, being absolutely all cotton warp, the weft being entirely spun from rags and a little raw cotton blended together to give it strength —sold as woollen goods. It is stated that thousands of pieces are sold weekly in the shape of meltons, serges and the like, and that the art of finishing as practised in Yorkshire has reached such a state of perfection that it is now quite possible to hide from the ultimate buyer the defects of the fabric, particularly hiding the foundation material of the cloth.

In the Yorkshire Daily Observer, of March 29th last, reference is made to a cheap class of coverts brought out by some leading manufacturers, composed of a mixture of worsted warp and a cheap carded weft termed Angola, a high sounding name for a blend of cotton with mungo. Having a satin or Venetian weave the weft is thrown on the back of the cloth, leaving the face with a worsted appearance. The cloth is well constructed and has a large sale.

An assize trial at Leeds on March 17th last, has settled the vexed question of the vague terms "all wool," and "woollen," and we now know that "all wool" means all wool, but "woollen" means anything that is composed of shoddy, mungo and cotton.

Although the medicine business should, above all, be carried on with the utmost conscientiousness and sense of responsibility, the unfortunate fact is that in no other is there so much humbug and deception. The anxieties of the sick and their relatives are traded upon in the most shameful manner; impossible cures are promised; many preparations are absolutely worthless, and some are positively dangerous to health.

As a consequence, all proprietary remedies are regarded with suspicion by many people, and the good suffer for the bad.

For these reasons we announce that our proprietors are the principal shareholders in

TRIBUTE TO THE BRITISH RACE

The one immutable factor, however, remains, regnant and supreme. Men change their skies when they traverse the seas. They change their centuries in the long lapse of time. Their minds remain unchanged by time or place. To-day the British race is the same in spirit that it was centuries ago, at the beginning of the illustrious line of sovereigns of which Edward VII. is the latest. The "Anglo-Saxon grit" is still there in undiminished measure. The self-control amounting almost to stolidity, the dogged resolution and disregard of hostile odds, the swift jealousy of rights and privileges, the enterprise of a warrior race that looks upon all the world as its field of conquest — these rugged masterful features, together with innumerable fine and gentle traits, are all there as they were in the days of the Black Prince. The change is objective, not subjective. New men, new issues, new circumstances, surround the new King. But he is still King of England, and England is England still. It is in that fact that the most auspicious promise of his reign abides. — New York Tribune.

Judges of Live Stock.

Toronto, Aug. 13.—The idea of the Department of Agriculture to furnish judges for the live stock at the different agricultural fairs throughout the province promises to be productive of good results, inasmuch as fifty-eight agricultural societies have taken advantage of the offer. The fairs have been arranged in circuits of from two to three weeks and three judges will visit each fair. Before starting out on their circuits the judges will take a course of training at the Toronto Exhibition. In making their awards they will be supposed to give their reasons, in order that the exhibitor may be thoroughly satisfied with the decisions.

Enormous numbers of £50 notes have been put in circulation, and the national banks, according to the correspondent, have cashed $2,000,000 worth of forged paper. The private losses as a result of the forgeries amount to $45,000. The leaders of the forgers have been arrested.

CROPS OF ONTARIO.

Annual Estimate Published by Department of Agriculture.

1902 IS REALLY A GOOD YEAR.

High Averages Characterize Yield of Most of the Crops—Beans and Corn the Exceptions—There Were Heavy Yields in Most Grains—Plenty of Fruit—Some Interesting Statistics.

Toronto, Aug. 13. — The Ontario Department of Agriculture has issued an encouraging bulletin regarding the crops of the province, based on the reports of its regular correspondents. It says that June was an exceptionally cool month, being 5 degrees below the average. The rainfall of July was more than double the general average.

The yield of fall wheat has been from fair to large, except in Essex and most of the counties in the Lake Erie group. In several instances from 35 to 40 bushels have been reported and the average yield will be considerably above the average for the last twenty years. There will be an abundance of straw. The crop of spring wheat is expected to be a good one, both in point of yield and quality. The barley crop is generally good and there will be a large yield of plump grain.

This promises to be one of the best years on record for oats, both as regrads grain and straw. Cutting will not be general until next week and perhaps later.

The rye crop has turned out very well this season, notwithstanding the unusual amount of rain, which has somewhat affected all cereals.

The yield of the pea crop generally is one of the most irregular on record. From some quarters splendid reports have been received, while from others the crop is not worth cutting.

Wet weather has played havoc with the bean crop.

The indications are that the corn crop will be considerably below the average, owing to cold weather in the earlier part of the season and excessive rains.

Hay and clover and grasses of all kinds made an immense growth this year, but where grown for hay the wet weather told against the crop in both cutting and curing.

The prospects are favorable for a large yield of potatoes.

The rains have had a very injurious effect on the tobacco crop, and also upon root crops generally. There has been but little damage from insect pests. Mangels, turnips and beets will, however, be plentiful. The sugar beet crop will be satisfactory.

Favorable reports are to hand regarding flax and hops.

Apples promise to yield very well and there will be lots of peaches and pears, but the reports as to cherries are not so encouraging. Grapes will not be plentiful.

The rain has kept pasture in prime condition and consequently live stock is everywhere in fine, healthy shape. The season's output of cheese and butter will be heavy. Reports as to honey are on the whole favorable.

The scarcity of labor during the haying and harvesting seasons is a chronic complaint in all sections of the province, and the present season offers no exception in this respect. Extra help appears to have been difficult to obtain almost everywhere and wages have had decidedly an upward tendency. There are numerous complaints as to the quality of the labor obtainable.

The following are the crop estimates for 1902, as judged from appearances on August 1. The acreages are final, but the yields (except in the case of hay) will be revised from actual threshing results in November.

Fall wheat shows an area of 748,593 acres harvested, the estimated yield being 19,856,056 bushels, or 25.9 bushels per acre. In 1901 the yield from 911,587 acres was 15,943,289 bushels, or 17.5 bushels per acre. The average yield for the past 20 years was 20 bushels per acre.

Spring wheat: 303,115 acres and 5,993,695 bushels, or 19.8 per acre. In 1901 358,048 yielded 5,498,751 bushels, or 15.4 per acre, the average of the past 20 years being 15.5.

Barley: 661,622 acres and 21,281,108 bushels, or 32.2 per acre. In 1901 637,201 yielded 16,761,076 bushels, or 26.3 per acre, the average of the 20 years being 26.1.

Oats: 2,500,758 and 105,540,510 bushels, or 43.2 per acre. In 1901 there were 2,408,264 acres yielding 78,334,490 bushels, or 32.5 per acre, the average for 20 years being 34.8.

Rye: 189,318 acres and 3,686,476 bushels, or 19.5 per acre. In 1901 there were 158,236 acres yielding 2,545,268 bushels, or 16.1 per acre, the average for the 20 years being 16.2

Peas: 533,630 acres and 11,363,345 bushels, or 21.3 per acre. In 1901 there were 602,724 acres yielding 10,089,175 bushels, or 16.7 per acre, the average for the 20 years being 19.6.

Beans: 53,964 acres and 632,099 bushels, or 11.7 per acre. In 1901 there were 53,688 acres yielding 824,122 bushels, or 15.4 per acre. The average of 20 years was 17.3.

Hay and clover: 2,646,202 acres and 4,955,438 tons, or 1.87 per acre, as compared with 1.81 in 1901, and 1.40 for 20 years.

Other crops: corn for husking, 371,959; corn for silo, 209,859; buckwheat, 93,324; potatoes, 144,733; mangels, 76,553; carrots, 8,625; turnips, 136,725; rape, 49,573; flax, 7,101; hops, 2,237; tobacco, 2,961; orchard, 356,251; vineyard, 14,028; red clover for seed, 135,390; alsike, 54,185.

Apples: 7,024,890 trees of bearing age are estimated to yield 41,174,552 bushels, or nearly 6 bushels per tree.

500 Acres of Flax.

Windsor, Aug. 13.—Some time ago a company located in Strathroy, Ont., purchasing 500 acres at a venture, and erected a flax mill at Essex. The first crop has been harvested, and experts pronounce it the finest flax grown in Canada.

Honey Plentiful.

Toronto, Aug. 13.—Reports from nearly every section of Ontario go to show that the present season has been one of the best in many years for honey. Present prospects are that prices will be much lower than for several seasons.

Splendid For Ripening.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 13.—Yesterday's weather report received at the Grain Exchange from along the lines of the C.P.R. indicates that no frost had been experienced in the 24 hours previous to 8 o'clock yesterday morning. Broadview, Brandon, Estevan and Napinka all report cool weather. Yesterday was very hot and splendid for ripening.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Ottawa, Aug. 13.—A private letter received in the city states that Sir Frederick Borden, Minister of Militia, will visit Switzerland and other places on the Continent before returning to Canada. He will not likely reach here before the end of September.

Prevent Disorder.

At the first symptoms of internal disorder, Parmelee's Vegetable Pills should be resorted to immediately. Two or three of these salutary pellets, taken before going to bed, followed by doses of one or two pills for two or three nights in succession, will serve as a preventive of attacks of dyspepsia and all the discomforts which follow in the train of that fell disorder. The means are simple when the way is known.

ELECTION PETITIONS ALL IN.

Forty-Eight Filed at Osgoode Hall—Some Old Dominion Protests.

Toronto, Aug. 13.—It is thought that all the petitions and cross-petitions arising from the recent Provincial elections have now been filed, and both sides are now busy getting their material and evidence into shape. Arrangements for the examinations will be made in a couple of weeks. There are altogether 33 straight and 15 cross petitions, a total of 48. This number is rather smaller than usual for at the previous Provincial elections there were no less than 73 petitions, 65 straight and 8 cross petitions.

After the last Dominion general elections there were fourteen protests filed in Osgoode Hall; of these seven were disposed of by the courts, and there are still seven, about which nothing has been done. These are as follows:

South Ontario, William Smith against William Ross, Liberal.

North Wellington, Henry Jelly against Edward Tolton, Conservative.

Cornwall, C. F. McRae against R. A. Pringle, Conservative.

West Durham, James McCormick against Robert Beith, Liberal.

West York, R. L. Burrows against Archibald Campbell, Liberal.

West Hastings, C. Mullens against E. Gus Porter, Conservative.

Addington, S. W. Davey against Melzar Avery, Conservative.

Ringing in the Ears.

This is an unfailing sign of catarrh, and if not checked will ultimately result in deafness. The simplest ramedy is Catarrhozone, which if inhaled for a few times daily prevents the catarrhal condition from spreading. Catarrhozone quickly stops the ringing in the ears and head noises, and gives permanent relief to catarrhal deafness. For Catarrh in any part of the system, Bronchitis, Asthma, Lung or Throat Troubles, Catarrhozone is a specific, and is guaranteed to permanently cure or your money back. Kidney Troubles of Women.

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets the Most Successful Treatment of Kidney Ailments That Cause Women Untold Suffering.

There are so many women suffering from backache, headache, dragging pain in the loins, and weary, worn-out feelings, who attribute all their troubles to some form of "female complaint." Nine cases out of ten the kidneys are at fault, and the poisons which these organs should filter out of the blood are circulating through the system and making havoc with the health.

No woman can enjoy good health and be free from pain whose kidneys are not acting properly.

No woman whose kidneys are out of order can afford to delay one day in procuring Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets.

No other medicine ever received such overwhelming endorsation from the women of Canada.

AS A LAST RESORT.

Mrs. May Goddard, 393 Adelaide Street West, Toronto, whose portrait appears on the opposite column, speaks in the following terms:

"After enjoying the most perfect health for many years it was a sore trial for me to realize that my health was failing. I had, in the first place, acute pains in the small of my back, and was losing flesh rapidly. Then other complications arose, which so weakened me that it was only with the greatest amount of determination that I could attend to my work. I tried a number of remedies and consulted several physicians without obtaining more than temporary relief, and as a last resort I thought I would try Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. Their beneficial action was almost instantaneous, and the results highly gratifying. The pain in my back disappeared in a short time, and my general health improved greatly. I am now feeling fine, and am glad to have this opportunity of expressing my appreciation of so valuable a remedy."

BACKACHE AND HEADACHE.

Mrs. A. Craigie, Lighthouse Street, Goderich, Ont., relates her experience:

"For some time I suffered with a good deal of backache and kidney trouble, and with a severe headache which continued to grow worse. I heard of the many cures Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets were making and determined to try them I procured a bottle from our druggist, Mr. P. M. Dunham, and they acted splendidly, stopping the backache and headache and curing the kidney complaint. I strongly recommend these Tablets to any one suffering as I did."

Mrs. John Wiseman, Woodham Street, St. Mary's, Ont., says: "During a recent sharp attack of lumbago, due to exposure to cold, I used Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets with complete relief. I did not use the entire bottle, which speaks well for their ability to cure backache kidney troubles."

What's to be Worn Next Season?

Every lady likes to know as early as possible what's to be worn next season. And for that reason it is recognized to be one of the functions of a first-class millinery store to keep in close touch with the fashion changes of the year. Ladies of Peterborough have learned to depend upon Miss Delaney as among the first to be informed of the latest approved styles of each approaching season. As a consequence the head of this firm goes abroad regularly to make a tour of inspection of the American centres of fashion, taking notes of what is going on among the skilled milliners and ingenious modists. Miss Delaney is at present visiting the New York wholesale millinery emporiums and will also visit a number of the other largest American cities for a similar purpose. She then returns to Canada in time to be present at the wholesale openings in Toronto and Montreal. To be well posted on the trend of fashions is the main desideratum, and Miss Delaney, when her tour will have been completed, will be fully conversant with the newest fall ideas, and her patrons will have the fullest confidence in her advice. 1d1w

SADLY SUDDEN DEATH.

Mrs. J. P. Strickland, of Lakefield, Dies as the Result of Accident.

The entire community of Lakefield and the many friends of the family in Peterborough were shocked and grieved this morning to learn that Mrs. J. P. Strickland passed away last night at the family residence, "D'Eyncourt Park," Lakefield, as the result of an accident conjoined with an affection of the heart, to which she was subject. Last night about a quarter to seven o'clock a little blaze broke out in an out house of the residence. Mrs. Strickland and daughter were the only members of the family home at the time and they were naturally considerably excited, and in hastening out of the house Mrs. Strickland fell or struck her head violently against the frame of the doorway and suffered concussion of the brain which, operating with an affection of the heart, led to fatal results. Although medical attention was very soon available, all efforts were without effect and the unfortunate lady remained unconscious till the time of her death, which took place at 10.30.

About forty years ago Mrs. Strickland, whose maiden name was Susan S. Sherwood, sister of the late W. E. Sherwood, "Inglewood," was united in marriage to Mr. Strickland in Germany. They took residence in Lakefield where they have since lived.

Mrs. Strickland leaves behind her a husband and six children, three sons and three daughters, to mourn her loss, and not only they but the community in which Mrs. Strickland passed so many years of her life, deeply mourn their loss, for Mrs. Strickland was greatly beloved for the amiable qualities of character which distinguished her both in the home and the social circle. The Examiner begs to join in the general condolence and sympathy which will be extended to the surviving relatives in their awfully sudden bereavement.

The funeral takes place from the family residence, "D'Eyncourt Park," on Thursday afternoon next, at 3 o'clock.

Stole a Shirt.

County Police Magistrate Edmison was in Havelock yesterday. A young man was charged with stealing a shirt. He pleaded, however, that he was intoxicated when he took the article from the store, and he promised to behave himself in future. Under these circumstances he was allowed to go on suspended sentence, and on the understanding that he would leave the village forthwith.

Saturday to Monday Trip to Idyl Wyld

The hotel at Idyl Wild is new this season, and under the new management will be a great success. The fishing is good and the boating pleasant. This is an ideal trip, and should prove a favourite with the citizens of the town. The return fare is only 75 cents. 4d36

THE DAY AT THE LAKES.

A Newsy Letter From Juniper Island.

Visitors Coming and Going—A Trip to White Lake—Pavilion Dances.

Juniper Island, Wednesday a.m.

Mrs. Fred Hewson and Dr. Thompson spent Monday at the lake on the steamer, and were accompanied from the Victoria House by a large party of young people.

The gentlemen staying at "Viamede" chartered the "Maida Vale" on Friday and gave the lady guests a most pleasant day on the lake.

A large party picnicked at White Lake the other day, including a number of guests from the Victoria House and others. Mr. McAllister's launch brought along a large tow of canoes. A shore dinner was partaken of at the portage. Only one accident was reported and that happened when Bob Elliott, of Eko Camp, in assisting a boat load up the rapids, stepped into the water up to his waist.

Will Ackerman had a run of hard luck this year at Eko Camp, as he got into the water four times with all his clothes on and it wasn't a case of accident every time either. He got into trouble again just before he left for home on Monday, when the "Mayflower" blew a blast of soot over his nice white ducks.

Mr. Robt. Shaw is holidaying at Mr. A. L. Davis' cottage and while out sailing on Monday had a narrow escape from being run down by the Majestic, having not more than ten feet to span as he crossed her bow.

The guests at "Viamede" danced on the pier on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thompson are spending a couple of weeks at Victoria House.

Miss Mamie Hamilton on Saturday joined a party of her friends at the Victoria House. She has already landed a fine eight pound 'lunge.

Mr. Jim Hamilton has left for town after a week's holidaying at the lakes.

Miss Mabel Bradburn, of Peterborough, and Miss Maisie Hall, of Toronto, who have been spending the week at the Victoria House, left for their respective homes to-day.

Miss Forgie, of Pittsburg, is being welcomed to the lakes by the many friends she made on former visits.

A Sunday afternoon high tea followed by a bonfire on the top of Eagle Mount was one of the features of the week.

Miss Alta Bradd is at the Victoria House for a few weeks with the Misses Hamilton. Miss Eva Bradd is a guest at Bona Vista with Mrs. McBain.

Mrs. Hunter and Miss Vieyd Hunter are the guests of Mrs. G. R. Stratton at "Strathormond."

A number of the guests at the Victoeia House chartered the "Mayflower" on Monday and spent a pleasant day at the head of the lake. The "Mayflower" takes another party from the same hotel on Friday.

"Viamede,"
Stony Lake, Aug. 12.

A young man while sailing on Stony Lake, Peterborough, in a canoe in the neighbourhood of Eagle Mount, was upset by a sudden squall of wind. His boots and heavy clothing were soon saturated so that it might have been serious had he not been observed from the dock at "Viamede" by his brother. The young man pluckily held onto the upturned canoe although benumbed with the cold. Boats were quickly manned and put out from "Viamede." By this time it was growing dark and he was only found by his paddle which he managed to raise. The rescue was accomplished by Mr. Clifford Babson, a sophomore, of Princeton University, New Jersey, who is entitled to a medal from the Humane Society. The victim's name is withheld for obvious reasons. He was received with an ovation when he reached the dock, as he is a general favourite with the guests. The first words he said to his rescuers were, "Couldn't you put me through a wringer?"

The "Exploring Club," of Rochester, N.Y., numbering eighteen young people, arrived at "Viamede" last evening. They have two chaperones and are domiciled in "The Graham Gem."

A concert will be held at "Viamede" on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. An excellent programme will be given by talent from Toronto, Rochester, Buffalo and other cities.

Trinity church congregation is holding a pic-nic at Mount Julian today, (Tuesday.)

A very pleasant excursion on Capt. Buck's launch, the "Maida Vale," was given by about twenty-five guests of "Viamede" on the 9th. All the delicacies that could be found at the stores were procured and a swell dinner was cooked and provided by the gentlemen of the party.

A lady bicyclist was fined $2.00 in the Police Court this morning for riding on the sidewalk. The said young lady in an unconcerned manner wheeled by the Chief's residence, but the Chief was not found sleeping.

The Matter to be Carried to the Court of Appeal.

The case of Minnie Crossley, who is serving a term in jail for keeping a house of ill-fame, is not yet over. The learned Judge reduced the fine to $50, but otherwise upheld the judgment of the local Police Magistrate. Mr. O'Connell has now given notice that the matter will be carried to the Court of Appeal.

The question of placing granolithic sidewalks on Elizabeth street, was taken up, but it was considered that on account of the sum raised for the sidewalk improvements being already exhausted that it would be advisable to lay the matter over for the present.

Mr. W. McGregor's request that a walk be laid to the front of his house, was granted.

Mr. Wm. Weir asked that a crossing be placed over the ditch in front of his premises, and it was placed in the hands of Councillor Johnston and Mr. Fitzgerald to be attended to.

THE STREET RAILWAY AND THE COUNCIL.

Special Meeting Respecting the Matter—The Option Extended.

A special meeting of the council was held at three o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of discussing the street railway matter.

Mr. A. R. Bene, of the National Construction Co., wrote asking if the company were to pay the old street railway company off inside of 30 days, would the council extend the option on the franchise until the 1st of May, 1903?

The council is sitting as we go to press.

Ald. Turner introduced a resolution providing that the terms asked by Mr. Bene be accepted, providing that the company deposit to the credit of the town the sum of $5,000, as a guarantee of good faith. This sum will be refunded by the town to the company when the road has been put in operation. The motion was seconded by Mr. Shortly and carried.

The $5,000 must be deposited with the town at the same time as the sum of $25,000 is paid to the old Street Railway Company.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—Idyl Wild Hotel is in full swing these days and is doing a good business.

—Some fine catches of bass are being made at the Hunter street bridge.

LACROSSE.

The public is reminded of the game to-night on the Nicholls oval between the Y.M.C.A. and T.A.S. teams. The surprise that the "Y" team sprung on the public last week when they defeated the Athletics, is causing a great deal of uncertainty in the minds of many as to the probable outcome of to-night's game.

A Village Porcupine.

Bobcaygeon evidently needs something to stir it up to a little activity and the Bobcaygeon Independent has discovered it in the shape of the fretful porcupine. The Independent says: "Among the distinguished visitors to be noted this week, is a full quilled porcupine. He strolled leisurely along the sidewalk from the swing bridge to the fire hall. Mr. John Hamilton helped him along with his foot, once, just once, and can testify that it was not necessary to sit on him to find if he was a porcupine or ground hog. He disappeared under the sidewalk at Hill's saddlery, and no one felt inclined to interfere with him."

THE HOME OF SONG.

Sanford said: "Carnie, you're a brick."—Daily Paper.

Shake, Josh Sanford.
You're a brick
Of the richest, rarest clay;
Soldier-garbed such stuff would live
Forever and a day.
("By the, that black like yours
Wasn't labelled—"glorious wars";
Hadn't fought where shot and shell
Roar their threnodies of hell,
Yet, Josh Sanford, duty calls
Kings in smocks and overalls,
Writes their names imperishable
Even on an old farm well.

Young Josh Sanford.
Sixty feet
Down a hole of treacherous sand,
Where (his merry heart aglow)
You and I would quake to stand;
Digging, diggings, whistling p'raps,
Just like lots of other chaps—
When that awful shiv'ring swell
Caved the sides that greased and fell.
Then Josh Sandford—where were you?
God in heaven only knew,
Swift was death and burial
In that deep sepulchral well.

Dead? Josh Sanford!
Yes, they said—
Like the well pipe, good and deep;
Till a tapping on the pipe
Made a hundred pulses leap—
Made a hundred pulses sing
And a hundred shovels ring;
Lo!: Each tap came like a knell
Mated to a marriage bell,
And Josh Sanford—all cried "save
Dig him from his living grave";
And they dug for your grim cell—
Dug, till sank again the well.

Faith! Josh Sanford—
You shall show
In your soul's extremity
Valor, such as scorns all fear,
Staggers all humanity.
Fight a hundred torturous hours
All death's nameless, hideous powers,
Make men leap to say, farewell—
Dare the demoniacal—
Hold! Josh Sanford—Saved! Well done—
Carnie, Dunston, Hamilton;
These have wrought a miracle,
Snatched you living from the well.

Shake—Josh Sanford,
You have crowned
With the laurels of your fame
Everything that honor loves
In a truly hallowed name.
Pity, tho', that pluck like yours
Wasn't labelled "glorious wars";
Think what homage you'd compel,
And the grand things possible!
Stay, Josh Sanford—fame and time
Know no struggle more sublime
Than the one that you could tell,
Dauntless hero of the well.

—T. C.

Root and Branch.

A gentleman wishing some bushes removed from his garden, told his gardener to pull them up by the roots. Some time after he went into the garden and found the gardener digging trenches round the bushes.

"Why, George," he said, "you need not dig round those small bushes in that way. I am sure you are strong enough to pull them up by the roots."

"Oh, yes sir," replied the gardener, "I am strong enough, but I must dig a little before I can catch hold of the roots. If you had told me to pull them up by the branches I could have removed them." —London Answers.

Defining the Broad Church.

A latitudinarian Dean, whose thirst for information makes him the dread of the society in which he moves, recently catechized one of the Siamese Princes about the religion of Siam. The Prince replied that it was Buddhist.

"Yes," replied the dean. "I know that Buddhism is the religion of the common people. But what is the religion of the upper and educated classes?"

"Ah!" replied the Prince, with an engaging smile, "we are what you call Broad Church. We profess to believe, but do not."

The catechism was brought to an abrupt conclusion.

TOWN TREASURER.

Quebec Municipal Officer Gives Important Evidence.

Without Fear, Favour or Affection. He Speaks Plainly His Honest Sentiments, Adding Some Words of Advice.

Wolfestown, Que., Aug. 10—(Special.)—Mr. R. Boulanger, Secretary and Treasurer of this town, is numbered among the most prominent and highly respected citizens of the country.

Time and again he has been honoured by appointments to offices of public trust and there is no man in our community who commands the universal respect and esteem of all classes of citizens more than Mr. Boulanger.

Those who know him well are aware that for some time he was very ill and they also know that he was restored to good health, but many of them may not be aware of the means used by Mr. Boulanger in accomplishing the wonderful recovery which he has been fortunate enough to bring about.

Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him and he has made this fact public in a grateful letter which reads as follows:—

"I desire to say that I was completely cured of Kidney Disease and Urinary Troubles by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I was so bad that I was obliged to urinate often, with much pain. They have relieved me of the pain and the results in every way are satisfactory.

"I think it is prudent for every family to keep them and use them."

When a man of Mr. Boulanger's standing puts himself on record so frankly and positively, there can be no doubt but that he has experienced all and more than he states in his letter.

Dodd's Kidney Pills have now permanently established themselves as an infallible remedy for all urinary trouble and the closing words of Mr. Boulanger's letter are an advice which every household should observe.

WALTER SCOTT'S LAND.

How the Great Novelist Met His First and Only Love.

In his paper on "Walter Scott's Land," William Sharp tells how the great novelist met his first and only love:

"It was at the stage when 'the queerness and the fun' of the bygone time and the present hour were with him more than any other conscious compelling influence," Mr. Sharp says, "that, one day in his twenty-fifth year, with his friend, Adam Fergusson, he went for a ride 'by Gilsland moors,' over by Naworth, perhaps, or by Lanercost Priory, above the vale of Lanercost, or by the fragmentary ruins of Triermain Castle, where Sir Roland de Vaux lived and dreamed, as afterwards so musically set forth in 'The Bridal,' or by Burdoswald Farm and the ruins of the great wall of Severus and the Roman camp. Perhaps the young poet's heart was longing for love; at any rate, it was at Gilsland, and before he met Miss Carpenter, that he gave 'to a lady,' along with some wildflowers gathered in the fragments of Severus' wall, these all-but-forgotten fugitive quatrains:

"Take these flowers which, purple waving
On the ruin'd rampart grew,
Where, the sons of freedom braving,
Rome's imperial standards flew.
Warriors from the breach of danger
Pluck no longer laurels there;
But they yield the passing stranger
Wildflower wreaths for Beauty's hair."

"In any case it was on high ground near Gilsland that, one August day in 1897, Scott and Adam Fergusson were riding, when both young men were charmed by the apparition of a beautiful young girl, also on horseback. So much impressed, indeed, was the young poet-advocate that he kept the fair horse-woman in view till the divided cavalcade entered Gilsland, and he saw where the lady lived. Whoever wants to know more of the picturesque details, where fancy only slightly colors facts, may turn to the romance of Frank Osbaldistone and Diana Vernon, as set forth in 'Rob Roy.' Well, there was waiting and wooing and ultimately pledging by the Lovers' Stone in the romantic glen of Gilsland Water, and by Christmas the young couple were married, and Walter Scott returned to Edinburgh with much never-to-be-forgotten material for poem and tale, and a bride to give color and zest to all he should do with these."

Over a Million Victims.

A careful estimate shows that one fifth of Canada's population suffer every winter with hacking lung weakening coughs. Four T's, Druggist Merrill's great discovery cures a cough in 24 hours and the worst cold in two days making it unnecessary to wear the system out in this way. Perjury Is Charge Laid.

Hamilton, Aug. 12.—The announcement that there is a warrant out in Buffalo for the arrest of Grant Henderson of this city, who was a Canadian commissioner to the Pan American Exposition last year, has caused a mild sensation. According to The Buffalo Times the charge against Mr. Henderson is perjury. Last May, it is alleged, some Chinese were smuggled into Buffalo, and five persons, J. Harrer, Jas. R. Hussey, G. James, Earl L. Parish and J. Grant Henderson, were induced by the Chinamen's solicitors to go bail for the Celestials. The alleged smuggled Chinamen took leg bail, hence the trouble. The United States authorities accuse the five men of perjury, alleging that none of them are worth the money they swore to when going on the bonds.

Harvesters in Plenty.

Toronto, Aug. 9. — Hon. Robert Rogers, Minister of Public Works for Manitoba, is in the city. Mr. Rogers thinks sufficient men will easily be secured to harvest the crop in his province, though the estimated yield was fifty million bushels. He also thinks that with their increased railway facilities they will be able to handle the crop without much difficulty.

In Poor Health for 19 Years.

Too Weak to Work and had Severe Headaches—Remarkable Influence of

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD.

When a person gets weak and run down in health, the fault is usually with the blood supply—the blood is deficient in quantity or quality. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is a wonderful system builder because it forms new blood and creates new nerve force.

Mrs. James Clancey, 714 Water street, Peterborough, Ont., states; "I have used four boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and found them an excellent medicine. I was troubled more or less for nineteen years with severe headaches, which made me useless as far as accomplishing any work was concerned.

"The nerve Food seemed to build me up generally, and so made a thorough cure of my old trouble. I would not think of being without Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in the house, and would strongly recommend anyone suffering as I did to give it a fair trial. It succeeded in my case after a great many remedies had failed."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, six boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. 1

This fast and popular little steamer is open for charter for excursions for the season of 1902. The steamer and barge have a carrying capacity of 600. The "Alert" has been fitted with the most modern improvements, including machinery, etc., and has a speed, with the barge, of 7 miles an hour. The crew will be found to be careful and obliging, and the best of attention is guaranteed the travelling public.

Parties wishing to take a day's outing on Stony Lake, or any of the Kawartha Lakes, cannot do better than charter the fast sailing steamer Alert Parties of fifteen people and upwards can charter this steamer for the day at a very reasonable price. Prices made to suit parties. This gives the people a splendid chance of seeing the Lakes and gives more time at the different points of interest than by going by the regular steamers. No crowding. Hot and cold water always provided on board the steamer.

THE POISON PLANTS

SOME OF THOSE WHICH ARE COMMON IN THIS COUNTRY.

Poison Hemlock or Elder—Woodbine—Night-hade—Poison Ivy—The Signs by Which These Dangerous Summer Plants May Be Known—Drawings Which May Help You to Distinguish Each of Them.

During last summer more cases of ivy poisoning were reported than in several years previously. For this reason no precautions should be neglected to rid the neighborhood of the plants early this summer.

Fortunately poison ivy is easily recognized when once its characteristics are known. Its three leaves, like the black flag, is a certain signal of danger.

The two distinct forms in which the plant occurs frequently confound the uninitiated. One form is an erect plant, spreading by root stalks along the ground and over rocks and logs; the other climbs trees and fences, sometimes reaching a height of twenty feet or more, attaching itself by many strong root-like fibres, which project from the stem and maintain a firm hold on the supporting body.

POISON HEMLOCK OR ELDER.

In both instances, however, this Loki among the floral gods is distinguished by the leaflets, which grow three together, at the end of long leaf stalks. These leaflets are oval in shape, enlarged toward the base, mostly pointed with edges entire, notched or lobed.

The flowers are greenish yellow and occur in clusters, springing from the juncture of the leak stalk with the stem. The fruit is a white or brownish globular berry that often remains on the leafless plant during the winter months.

The plants occur along the lake shore, north and south, and are likely to be found anywhere. The climbing form is often transplanted from the woods to the garden, and proves a veritable serpent in the Eden.

Poison ivy is easily distinguished from other climbers in the woods. The wax-work or bitter-sweet has alternate single leaves, scarlet fruit in orange colored pods and terminal instead of axillary flowers. The woodbine, or American ivy, has five leaflets at the end of the leaf stem and blackish berries in October.

The poison effects are produced by the spores of a fungus that grows on the plants. These getting into the air may affect a person who has not come in actual contact with the plant.

People with thin skins or in a state of perspiration are more susceptible than others.

The most successful remedy is the fluid extract of grindelia diluted four drams to the pint of water. Clothes saturated with the solution, should be kept bound on the parts affected.

Of the six species of the genus rhus found in Central Ontario, only two are poisonous. The one is ivy and the other is the poison sumach or dogwood. This cheerful plant differs from the ivy in having the general appearance of a small tree, having a trunk three to five inches in diameter. The leaflets are from seven to thirteen in number, smooth, entire and oval. The small green flowers form a panicle.

WOODBINE.

The plant is not common and is found chiefly in swamps.

The common nightshade is a garden weed, as well as an inhabitant of the woods and roadsides. It belongs to the same genus as the potato. The flower of the two plants strongly resemble each other. The nightshade is readily distinguished by its white flowers, which have a yellow cone in the centre, the petals being unusually reflected.

The stem is about a foot in height; the leaves oval, with wavy edges, dull in color, somewhat downy and generally filled with holes, where they have been eaten by insects.

The berries, which are at first green, soon become black and are poisonous. The foliage is also poisonous to some people.

Specimens of the poison hemlock, sacred to the memory of Socrates, are sparingly found.

The plant is tall and smooth with a glossy stem dotted or streaked with brownish purple. The leaflets are cut-edged and the white flowers form umbels or flat masses at the ends of the stems, somewhat resembling parsley. It is chiefly distinguished by the fruit, each division of which has five ridges with wavy margins. The plant has a strong odor.

It is a good rule not to eat berries found in the woods or to handle the plants on which they grow. Special attention should be given to the character of the plants found growing around a picnic or camping ground, as the ivy is more than likely to be present in one of its two forms.

KING OF BAROTSELAND.

Interesting Visitor to British Isles Who Speaks No English.

King Lewanika, Paramount Chief of Barotseland, a South African kingdom about the size of Germany, who was one of the earliest arrivals in London amongst the coronation guests, is a well-built, very tall, and very black man about 50 years of age. He has been King of Barotse-land since 1877, and formerly gave a lot of trouble by his cruelty and oppression of surrounding tribes. Of late years, however, he has very much altered, and is now quite an enthusiast on questions of government on British lines. He speaks no English, and had with him a special interpreter, as well as the Gambella, or Prime Minister of Barotseland, a son-in-law, and four attendants. King Lewanika is not a Christian, but is very kindly inclined towards Christians, his son-in-law and many of his relatives having been baptized into the Church of England. One reason given for the King's not embracing Christianity is that he is a polygamist and does not like to limit himself to one wife. He is the husband of twelve dusky Queens, none of whom have accompanied him on the present occasion. King Lewanika stopped in Somersetshire with Colonel Colin Harding, late British Administrator in Barotseland, who accompanied the South African potentate to England.

Fraud in Bank Notes.

It is hard to counterfeit the Bank of England notes, not only on account of the paper and ink, but also of the care which is used by the bank to trace the note.

Every note that comes into the bank must be indorsed, although it is doubtful whether such indorsement could be enforced, as the notes are payable to bearer.

Recently the bank refused to cash one of its own notes for Pierpont Morgan. As the story goes, Mr. Morgan presented the note and asked that it be exchanged for gold.

The cashier requested him to write his name on the back, but he refused, saying that the note was to bearer, and, as it was genuine, the bank should cash it without indorsement.

Upon the cashier persisting Mr. Morgan said he would let the note go to protest, whereupon the banker threw up his hands in holy horror at the idea of a protest of the Bank of England. He was about to hand over the money when Mr. Morgan as a favor wrote his name across the back of the note.

How Attention Was Gained.

A late Edinburgh professor was much annoyed by the want of attention displayed by his students, so he determined to put a stop to it. Accordingly one day, while delivering a lecture to his class, he illustrated it by an experiment, in which he mixed certain mixtures in a glass jar. He then inserted his finger into the concoction and put it to his mouth, afterwards passing the jar round the class. As each in turn tasted the mixture, their faces assumed a very disgusted expression. When the jar was returned to the professor, he laid it in front of him, and thus addressed the class: "Gentlemen, I perceive by the expression of your faces that you have not been paying sufficient attention to my experiment, else you would have noticed that the finger that I inserted in the mixture was not the same that I put into my mouth." He had never cause to complain of lack of attention all that session.

The Policeman's Evidence.

Policeman Peter Morris, Toronto, says that for years he was troubled with habitual constipation and although he spent much money for medicine was only disappointed with the results. He now recommends Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to his friends, because it cured him of this troublesome ailment. You can be cured of this trouble by this treatment. One pill a dose; 25c a box.

Getting the King's Ear.

The gentle art of speeding a parting guest is not new. The story from Hertfordshire, as told in the "Victoria County History" series, reveals the method tried on King James I. Hunting had taken place of state affairs in the monarch's affections, and one morning a favorite hound was missing. The dog appeared the next day, bearing a message tied to his neck: "Good Mr. Jowler, we pray you speak to the King for us (he hearing you every day and so doth not us) that it will please His Majesty to go back to London, for else the country will be undone, all our provisions spent already."

A Complicated Machine.

is an object of admiration, but a complicated medicine is a thing hitherto unknown. Druggist Merrill of Brantford has combined iron and herbs and made a marvellous blood cleanser and purifier, as well as a tonic for the nerves. Effects a radical cure in stomach, nerve, liver and kidney troubles. The fifty cent bottle lasts three weeks. Sold by Ormond and Walsh.

ENORMOUS WHEAT FARM.

Mr. Thos. B. Hord Buys 43,000 Acres of Land.

Interview With Col. A. D. Davidson, of Duluth—The American Immigration Into Our Northwest—A Word to Canadians.

Col. A. D. Davidson of Duluth, President of the Saskatchewan Valley Land Co., was in Toronto on Saturday, and registered at the Queen's. Col. Davidson stated that his company has just sold to Thomas B. Hord and associates, of Central City, Nebraska, 43,000 acres of their land near Davidson, N.W.T., a new town 75 miles north of Regina, on the line of the Regina, Long Lake & Saskatchewan Railway. Mr. Hord purposes putting this enormous tract of land under wheat, and will then have the largest wheat farm on the American continent. He is not an experimenter, but a practical Nebraska farmer, who now feeds in that State more cattle than any other man in the United States. Mr. Hord's investment in western Canada is an important step in the development of that country, and must impress favourably thousands of his fellow-countrymen.

Col. Davidson, who is himself of Canadian birth, hailing from London, Ont., is strongly of the opinion that the Canadian west has before it a great future. He estimates that within the next five years 100,000 American farmers from the western States will settle in Canada west of the great lakes. He bases this conclusion on the fact that 300,000 men come into the United States from Europe and 300,000 Americans come of age each year. The cheap arable lands of the United States are pretty well disposed of, and there is no place in the United States where a large tract of land can be purchased at as low a price as in western Canada. He looks for a rapid development of the country, because the people who are looking for homes now, both Americans and Canadians, have a great deal more money than had those who settled in the western States twenty or twenty-five years ago. The early settlers spent four or five years learning how to farm; those going into western Canada to-day buy new machinery and simply go right ahead with their farming, profiting by the experience of themselves and others in western agriculture. The men who are going in to-day are many of them sons of pioneers in Illinois, Wisconsin, etc., who have grown up amidst this very kind of farming. A man in Illinois who had 160 acres can sell it for $50 or $60 an acre, and with that money buy a lot of land at $5 an acre, and establish all his sons on Canadian farms. An American going into western Canada feels as much at home as in his own State, for the laws are practically the same, the schools are the same, and the conditions are in all respects very similar.

Col. Davidson had one word of warning to say to Canadian newspapers—that they should not attribute the influx of Canadians back from the United States to dissatisfaction with the United States, but to its real cause, the fact that they can better their condition in Canada, that Canada is a country of unlimited resources, with every opportunity for development and success in life. As it is, the press of the United States look upon the emigration of Americans to Canada with friendly eyes, but should the press of Canada treat it in a manner unfavourable to the United States their attitude might change materially.—Globe.

Just 400 Years After.

In 1492 Columbus discovered America. In 1892, just 400 years later, Merrill, a Brantford druggist, discovered Four T's, the great guaranteed cough and cold cure. In 5 years the sale of a quarter of a million bottles has proven that Four T's never fails to cure a cough in 24 hours, and a cold in two days. Large bottles, 25 cents, at Ormond and Walsh's drug store.

VILLAGE BOARD OF HEALTH.

At a meeting of the Ashburnham Board of Health which was held last night, a communication was read from Mr. J. Z. Rogers, in reference to the action of Mr. George Stevens in drawing night soil and storing it on his premises, using the same for the manufacture of fertilizer. Mr. Rogers requested that the Board take the necessary steps to prevent Mr. Stevens from continuing in this regard.

Mr. Wm. Scott wrote in reference to the same matter and asking that immediate action be taken.

The Medical Health Officer, Dr. Bingham addressed the Board on the matter. He had made an examination of the premises accompanied by another member of the Board, and pronounced the presence of the material to be most dangerous to the health of those living in the vicinity, it being especially productive of the germs of typhoid fever, diphtheria, etc. Mr. Stevens had told him that he intended to change the place of manufacture from the village to Monaghan.

Extracts from the Health Act were read by the chairman, and the following resolution, after some discussion, was passed:

Moved by Mr. McCarthy, seconded by Mr. Wright,—That the Medical Health Officer be hereby instructed to notify Mr. Geo. Stevens to abate and remove forthwith from the municipality the nuisance complained of and reported on by the Medical Health Officer as prejudical to health, such as the manufacture of fertilizer and anything and everything that is offensive or injurious to health.

The Board then adjourned.

A FISHY FISH STORY

The following from the Kingston Whig proves that the proximity of the penitentiary doesn-t deter the fish editor from practicing the performances of Ananias: —"The latest fishing story comes from Rock Point Camp, below Barriefield, where a large Kingston colony is spending the summer months. The truth of the story is vouched for by prominent business men of the city. A young man was out fishing on Monday, when he hooked a small bass. When he saw his catch he was in no hurry to 'pull in.' Finally, however, he did so, and was astonished to see to what proportions the fish had grown in a few minutes. It came up hard, and when it neared the surface the young man discovered he had a monster pike instead of a bass. He was just in the act of pulling it in when it escaped, and the bass again came to view, and was safely landed. The big fish had swallowed the smaller prey, but relinquished it when on the verge of being itself captured. But little bass changed so suddenly to a monster pike, and then so suddenly again, that the young man wondered if somebody had put 'strong drink into his morning's coffee."

STOCK MARKETS.

New York, August 12. — The largest crop on record! The reports from the great crop belt are amazing. We are about to harvest the greatest crop on record, and have you stopped to think that that will mean untold millions to the farmers, and millions to the earnings of the railways for the coming twelve months? The farmer is bound to be prosperous; he will wind up his year with a clean slate as far as debts are concerned, and he will have a goodly supply of cash on hand. His prosperity is the fundamental basis of the prosperity of us all. The market is once more feeling the resultant impetus. Buying orders can only be executed by advancing quotations. There is plain evidence of quiet accumulation by investors and organizers, which is the conspicuous feature of these times, and which has fashioned a market based on confidence and hope which has withstood panic, the slaying of a president, portentious strikes, corn crop panics, disaster of last year, with a strength and serenity, that all is well with the nation and that promises of continuance are of the best. Capitalists, both small and large, are keeping firm grips on their holdings. Administrative genius carries on its plan of acquirement and consolidation despite anonymous prophecy that something dreadful must happen some day. The compulsory purchases of shorts at frequent intervals lend additional spurts to quotations. Activity in present market is always accompanied by strength—a most favourable efature. Most significant is steadiness without speculation. That prices do not yield to the frequent dull spells means that the capitalists see profits by purchasing at present levels. The flourishing state of manufactures and exports assures still greater railroad earnings, and so long as earning power increases values must correspondingly be enhanced. Railroad and industrial values can no longer be compare dwith the prices of the past. Property of any kind is certainly worth what it is earning for its owners, and that it is likely to earn more is a legitimate element of value. We are pronounced bulls.

Bullish activity was renewed in Mop. The stock last night finished its customary reaction; it rose from 115 5-8 to above 117. Ill. C. advanced a point and a half, while WU was bid up over 2 per cent on an extended short interest. Manh also improved about a point and one half. South Westerns showed symptoms of accumulation. Buy the KT issues and Tex Pac. St Paul rose then fell a point to cover then lost again later. It is a splendid trading market. S S preferred advanced two points. CFI was heavy. Steel and copper steady. PO was ex div. yet made a gain. Buy stocks on the dips. Money closed offered at 3 per cent; last loan 3 1-2. Sales, 417,200.

A New Idea in Barns.

Mr. Robert Britton is striking out in a new line of his own by building a circular barn. The basement is ready, and the superstructure will be up in a few days. The building is 58 feet across, and the idea is that in the stable basement, the cattle will be ranged with their heads to the centre, which will facilitate the work of feeding. The root cellar will be below and the chopped food will come from above and the labour of feeding twenty-five or thirty head of cattle will be reduced to a minimum.—Bobcaygeon Independent.

THE BOYS AT SANDY POINT

The Annual Camp Proving Most Successful.

Ocronation Day Sports Were a Great Success—Distinguished Visitors.

5th Y.M.C.A. Boys' Camp,
Sandy Point, Aug. 11th.

The Y.M.C.A. Boys' Camp to-day enters into the last week, the end of which will come only too soon for the boys. It is voted on all hands that the camp days already passed have made the camp a record breaker as far as real enjoyment goes. There are many reasons for this but the main one is the presence of our Physical Director, who keeps the sports on the move.

On Friday evening Mr. Will Robinson, chairman of the Boys' Committee, arrived in camp, and has spent three very pleasant days in the camp with the boys, with whom he is very popular. He hit the boys in a good place, bringing a good treat with him. He caught enough fish to give the whole party a square meal.

Messrs. Jim Gerrard and Jake Jackson were visitors to the camp on Saturday, and with Mr. Robinson became boys again for a day or two.

The coronation day sports passed off very successfully with the following results;

Junior swimming race—C. Ackerman.
Senior swimming race — A. Wood.
Long dive—G. Fitzgerald.
Junior sculls—Hartley and Harrison.
Senior sculls — Osborne, Daly and Jolliffe.
Punting contest was a draw.

Two crews from the Harriar camp competed in the sculls, but the triplets left them far behind.

Fine frills, red hats and paris green don't go against the diamond scullers led by Coxswain Osborne.

The polo match between section 4 and 5 was won by the latter. Score 4—1. The game has been protested, as it is admitted that it was not a regulation game.

The bon fire at night at the camp was a credit to the younger boys. The older ones had pressing engagements at Juniper Island, and returned just as early as camp law allowed.

The baseball league is the most exciting feature of the camp, and this increases as each successive game is played. There are three teams, and they include nearly every man in camp. The captains are No. 1, G. L. Galley, No. 2, N. Jolliffe, No 3, H. E. Ayres. The Friday game was umpired by Mr. Ayres, the play being between Nos. 1 and 2. Victory perched on the banners of the latter. No. 2 beat No. 3 on Saturday, and this morning No. 1 won a great victory from No. 2, by a score of 12 to 10, and an innings to spare. E. Daly proved a good pitcher for No. 1, and Fitzgerald did good work for No. 2.

Yesterday being Sunday, was of course a quiet day in camp, and owing to unfavourable weather the greater part of the day was spent in the tents. In the evening Mr. Ayers led a song service on the shore and gave a brief address.

The camp was to-day favoured with a visit from Hon. J. R. Stratton, Provincial Secretary, Mrs. Stratton and party, who came down on the Molly. They showed a kindly interest in the camp and the boys, and before leaving the Provincial Secretary handed the camp leader a bill for a treat for the boys. His name has been placed on the camp's list of "Jolly good fellows."

Mr. E. A. Frowde, boys' secretary, was obliged to go home for a few days owing to a bad throat, and Mr. H. W. Daly succeeds him as leader of Section 1.

Last night one of the fellows in No 5 got lost upon the shore, and it was fortunate that he was a snorer as the searching party found him out by that signal, sound asleep on a camp bed which he had carried with him.

The weather to-day is clearing, and the boys are mapping out a great week for themselves. You will hear from us again.

SPECIAL SCRIBE.

LAKEFIELD.

Capt. D'Arcy Strickland, and Mr. John Strickland, who have been in South Africa, arrived home Monday.

Mr. Rolly Carter's many friends were pleased to see him home from Africa, none the worse for his experiences.

Miss Roy of Peterborough, passed through the village the other day on her way home from the lakes.

Miss Montgomery has returned to the village after quite a lengthy stay with her brother in Hawkesbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stephenson, of Norwich, are visiting in the village with Mrs. P. Baptie.

ANGLO-SAXON BROTHERHOOD.

Not Confined to Political Boundaries.

The Examiner has received through Mr. J. J. Turner, sr., from Mr. J. J. Turner, jr., now sojourning at Clifton Springs Sanitarium, New York, a copy of the bill of fare at the Sanitarium on Saturday, August 9th, the day of the coronation of King Edward VII. The menu card is quite English. The motto at its head was "Long Live King Edward," and the soup was "Beef, a l'Anglaise," and the roast, Ribs of Beef "English Style."

This is a friendly recognition of the unity of the races comprising the dominant element of the American and the great bulk of the British people, and a compliment to the British Canadians who may have been guests at the Sanitarium.

1,300 INDIAN TROOPS

On Parade at Buckingham Palace for Review by the King.

PRESENTATION OF THE MEDALS

King Edward Wore a $50,000 Jeweled Sword Presented by the Maharajah of Jaipur—His Majesty at the Close of Review Addressed the Troops in Well-Chosen and Tactful Language.

London, Aug. 14.—The Indian coronation troops, to the number of 1,300, were reviewed by King Edward yesterday. The arrangements were similar to those when a body of colonials was reviewed. The Prince of Wales presented medals to the men, who are all picked troops, including Lord Curzon's bodyguard. They presented a fine spectacle in their handsome vari-colored uniforms. The Princess Victoria and other royal persons took snap-shot pictures while the ceremony was in progress. Queen Alexandra and many notables were present. The King wore a jeweled sword that cost $50,000, which was presented to His Majesty by the Maharajah of Jaipur.

The scene on the terrace was a very brilliant one, the European military and levee dress being quite outshone by the splendid apparel of the Indian princes. The Queen received a greater ovation than the King as both passed down a line of notables, bowing and shaking hands. The young sons of the Prince of Wales, the Princes Edward and Albert, constituted themselves aides to the King and fetched several general officers, who smilingly obeyed their summons to an audience with their grandfather.

The great lawn below the terrace was a marvelous sight in red, yellow, green and blue. The Bengalese, Sikhs, Gurkhas and Punjab cavalry made a strong contrast to a single khaki spot where the British regulars from India stood. At the word of command fluttering lances, rifles and carbines were grounded and the contingents one by one filed past the royal canopy, saluting Their Majesties and receiving medals at the hands of the Prince of Wales.

At the close of the review the troops were drawn up in front of the King, who addressed the officers as follows: "I wish to convey to all ranks the high satisfaction it has given me to see this splendid contingent from India. I almost feared, owing to my serious illness, that I would be prevented from having the advantage of seeing you, but I am glad to say that by God's mercy I am well again. I recognize among you many of the regiments I had the advantage of seeing at Delhi during my tour of India.

"I hope the contingent has enjoyed its stay in England and that all may return in safety to their homes. I wish you to convey these sentiments from me to all ranks of your command."

Medals From the King.

London, Aug. 14. — The medals which the King yesterday presented to the colonial premiers bore portraits of the King and Queen on one side; on the other side was the simple monogram E. R. VII., and the date, 26 June, 1902.

Members of the Coronation contingent were also presented with coronation medals yesterday. Members of the contingent who came for June 26 and returned home will not receive medals.

Boers in the Barricades.

Brest, France, Aug 14.—Soldiers have been requisitioned in several places in Finistere during the past two or three days, to protect police commissioners, engaged in closing religious schools, from threatening crowds. A battalion of infantry and a strong body of mounted gendarmes were expected at St. Meen, Folgoet, and Ploudaniel yesterday to overawe the excited population of these towns. The inhabitants of Folgoet are engaged in building a wall of masonry behind the principal door of the church school. At St. Meen scouts on horses, bicycles and even automobiles are reconnoitering in order to give alarm of the coming of the police. The peasants declare they will throw beehives among the gendarmes and will put beehives in the barricades.

HEROES GET MEDALS.

Five of Joshua Sanford's Rescuers Honored at Paris.

AN INTERESTING PUBLIC EVENT

Function, However, Was Like Hamlet With the Melancholy Dane Left Out, For Joshua Sanford, Who Lived in the Well For Four Days, Was Absent—The Proceedings of the Presentations.

Paris, Aug. 14.—The people of Paris took a half holiday Wednesday afternoon to witness the distribution of medals to the heroes of the well. Five of the men who helped dig Joshua Sanford out of the 80 foot well were decorated with the medal of the Royal Canadian Humane Association, and President Adam Brown of that organization declared that there was a number of others who would later receive this evidence of the people's esteem and appreciation of their extraordinary bravery. Those upon whom medals were conferred are: George Carney, George Blanchard, George Wentworth, Richard Hamilton and David Mott.

The weather was so propitious and the prospects of a large attendance so good that the committee concluded to hold the exercises in the pretty little park in the western part of the town. When the populace discovered that Sanford was not to be present, that he had been sent only the night before to Toronto to prevent his being excited over the demonstration, the interest in the medal awarding dwindled perceptibly and fewer than three hundred people participated in the exercises. What they lacked in numbers made up in point of enthusiasm. It was really a kind of family gathering, and those present enjoyed themselves hugely.

After President Adam Brown had made an appropriate speech, John Carney was the first man decorated. As the handsome medal was pinned to his coat, the good-natured fellow blushed like a schoolboy. He was pushed forward by the president and told to say something. Then the crowd cheered and that seemed to bring him back to earth.

"I only did my duty," he faltered, "and I want to say that those other men did as much, if not more. I appreciate this gift, but I can't express my feelings as well as I would like," and then the man who spent the two days and two nights in the bottom of the well trying to extricate a human being from imminent death seated himself, while the cheers were renewed.

George Wentworth, Richard Hamilton, David Mott and George Blanchard were then presented with medals and made a few modest remarks in reply.

Then President Brown asked for three cheers for the five heroes, and the crowd responded with a will and added a tiger, as an evidence of good faith. Three cheers were called for Mr. Penman, Dr. Dunton, Mayor Brown, and, finally, for "Our King," and each was heartily given. Mayor Brown then called for three cheers and a tiger for President Brown, and the meeting broke up in a kind of love feast.

Mr. Penman decided Thursday to send Joshua Sanford to Toronto, where he would have a change of surroundings. The people very much desired to see the man they had saved and shake his hand, but his extraordinary mental weakness was not thought to be such as would permit any such exciting experience. Though the man who was dug out of an 80-foot well was able to walk out in the street and take the back for the depot, he is in pretty bad shape. The nurse says that after a person mentions the well incident to her patient, she cannot control him for days thereafter, and he constantly broods over the terrible experience he had in the well for four or five days and nights. Dr. Dunton said Sanford would probably require six months more before he would be himself again. It is mental trouble now as much as physical. One arm is practically useless but he is expected to recover his full mental and physical faculties.

It was shortly after noon Tuesday June 24, that the old well on the Skelly farm, three miles east of Paris, caved in and buried Joshua Sanford, the well-digger.

Sanford in Toronto.

Toronto, Aug. 14.—Joshua Sanford of Paris well fame is at present undergoing treatment at Dr. Meyers' private hospital, in Deer Park, for the treatment of nervous diseases. His ultimate recovery is confidently expected.

"CANADA A NATION."

Canada as such is not and never has been a dependency of any nation. It is a free British Dominion, governed by its own British people with the King of all the Britons at their head. Canada is no more a British dependency than is England or Scotland or Ireland.

Canada "belongs" to the United Kingdom, in the same sense that the United Kingdom belongs to it, and in no other. Each is and both are a part of the common British possessions throughout the world.

Canadians cannot too soon rid themselves of the old phraseology and the ideas that cling to it. That phraseology is not in the least expressive of fact in these times nor is it conducive to self-respect among us.

Canada, we repeat, is the possession only of the British people who inhabit it or come to make it their home. It is dependent on none but itself. It is subject to its King, the supreme head of the great sisterhood of British nations of which it is a member. It is as free and independent and happy and promising a country, the Halifax Chronicle concludes, as the sun in all its rounds smiles upon.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Britannia — through Canadian agency — still rules the waves, and she does it with a Trident.

Now we understand why King Edward is so level-headed a ruler and such a jolly good fellow . It is said that he is a practical printer.

Who said that Cuba was not fit for self-government? The fact that she is beginning her career of independence by creating a public debt is satisfactory evidence to the contrary.

If Sir Tea Lipton wishes to lift the American Cup, he should collaborate with the builder of the Trident. If Canadians can build yachts that have the habit of beating American yachts on fresh water, why not yachts that can hold their own on the salt sea?

On its common stock the C.P.R. has declared a semi-annual dividend at the rate of 5 per cent. per year, and in addition carried over a surplus of $3,063,074 from the year's earnings. That amount would pay nearly an extra 4 per cent, if desired, so that the C.P.R. is doing pretty nicely.

Dominion trade returns show that Canada sells more to Great Britain than to the rest of the world. We sold $109,000,000 worth last year to Britain, buying from her but $49,000,000. A surplus of sixty million dollars of British money came into the Dominion. That's a practical intimation, the Ottawa Journal thinks, where our best friends are.

The function of a police force is popularly supposed to be the protection of the lives and property of the people, but Police Magistrate Denison of Toronto, seems to have a different view—that policemen are entitled to take liberties with public rights. When the opportunity offers it does not reqquire a very large office to breed an autocratic spirit.

If we regard the predominance of the female element in population as a criterion of advanced civilization, Ontario and Quebec are the least advanced off the provinces. Ontario has 10,334 more males than females, and in Quebec the angelic element is only ten less than the male portion of the population. As we go farther west the ladies suffer a proportionate numerical decrease, and in the unorganized territories of the Northwest, there are over two males to one female.

The Ridgetown Dominion, a staunch Conservative journal, says: "The vast majority of Canadians are perfectly satisfied with our present relations with Great Britain, and the noisy group of ultra-Imperialists, who reside chiefly in Ottawa and Toronto, and who, aided by three or four Conservative newspapers, are endeavouring to hitch the car of Imperialism to the Liberal-Conservative band wagon, are doing their level best to lengthen Laurier's term of office at the Canadian capital."

HAVE WON THE RIGHT TO WEAR GARB OF GLORY.

Soldiers returning from South Africa should have full liberty to wear their khaki uniforms longer than seems necessary to outsiders.

Men who have led lives of danger and self-sacrifice ought not to be sneered at if they are prone to wear out the stern habiliments of war.

Small and peevish critics blame the soldiers for not acting like philosophers when the war is over. If the soldiers had been philosophers they would have never been soldiers. Philosophers do not let soldiers teach them how to fight. They should not insist on teaching soldiers how to behave, provided the boys do nothing worse than indulge in the innocent amusement of sporting khaki.—Telegram.

Facts re. Canada's Crime.

Ottawa, Aug. 14.—The report of criminal statistics for the year ending Sept. 30, 1901, just issued, shows a decrease of charges for indictable offences. Convictions were not so frequent, in ratio to population throughout Canada, but there was a decrease in acquittals, which were 2,582. Detentions for lunacy were more. In the Yukon, the decrease is from 35 to 14 per cent. Crime has decreased among agricultural, commercial and domestic classes, and increased in industrial classes. Professional and laboring classes also show a decrease, while female criminals are diminishing. There was an increase of 1.7 per cent. in summary convictions, as compared with 1900.

Anarchist Commits Suicide.

Rome, Aug. 14.—The Italian steamer, Citta di Milano, from New York, July 22, which arrived at Genoa, Aug. 9, reports that Sganza, a New York anarchist, committed suicide by jumping overboard while the vessel was off Gibraltar. It is alleged that Sganza had been commissioned to murder a European royal personage, and that he was on his way to Europe for this purpose, but weakened at the last moment and killed himself. Two of his companions disappeared upon the arrival of the Citta di Milano at Genoa.

About Drainage

You know the deadly consequences if a house is badly drained. Only a madman or a criminal would himself incur the risk, or subject others to it, for one unnecessary minute.

But do you realize the danger of a badly drained body? Are you aware that it poisons the blood, the very fountain of life?

DR. PARKIN'S NEW WORK.

He Has Been Selected to Organize the Rhodes Scholarships.

Toronto, Aug. 14.—A cable from London announces that the trustees of the Rhodes scholarships have honored Canada by selecting Mr. G. R. Parkin, C.M.G., head master of Upper Canada College, to organize the scheme and to visit the countries to be benefitted by this educational bequest, under which two hundred picked men are annually to receive a British education.

Dr. Parkin has made it a condition of his acceptance that he shall be given time in which to put Upper Canada College on the best working basis before undertaking his new work. He believes that he will be able to benefit the college greatly in his new sphere.

Dr. Parkin Sails.

London, Aug. 14.—George Parkin, principal of Upper Canada College, Toronto, left Liverpool to-day for New York on board the White Star steamer Oceanic. Dr. Parkin will go to Toronto and return to London in October. After his return here he will visit Canada, the United States and Australasia in connection with the scholarships provided for in the Rhodes' will.

Fell Exhausted and Unconscious.

Mrs. R. W. Edwards, 33 McMurray street, Brantford, Ont., suffered for five years with nervous exhaustion, headache and dyspepsia. "The pains in my head would almost drive me crazy. I could not sleep nights, but would walk the floor in agony until I fell exhausted and unconsciousness. For the past nine months I have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and from a mere skelton this medicine has built me up in flesh and weight, until I am well and strong." It would be scarcely possible to produce stronger evidence of the wonderful power of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Oil Fuel Test a Success.

San Francisco, Aug. 14. — The Oceanic Steamship Company's oil burning liner Mariposa arrived Tuesday from Tabiti, and the record of her voyage is a tribute to the wisdom of the step taken in deposing King Coal and substituting liquid fuel as food for her furnace. She reached port with her paint work fresh and bright and her decks clean as those of a yacht. Officers and crew were jubilant over the success of the new fuel.

Gigantic Killing Order.

Vienna, Aug. 14.—The "Arbeiter Zeitung" declares the recent assassination of officials in Russia to be the work of a vast secret revolutionary society, which embraces the whole of the Empire and numbers twelve thousand members, who are drawn from every class of society. The society has ample funds and is well organized, and every member of it has sworn to give his life, if required, for the cause.

More Canadian Than Ever.

Montreal, Aug. 14.—Ex-Mayor Raymond Prefontaine, M. P., arrived home yesterday from the Yukon a better Canadian than ever as he expressed it. He believes the Canadian Yukon will in a few years justify the construction of a branch of the Canadian Northern from Edmonton to Dawson City.

Protest in Halton.

Toronto, Aug. 14.—The Conservatives of Halton have filed a protest against the election of John R. Barber, through Bristol, Cawthra & Bayly. They claim the seat for Dr. Nixon and the usual charges are made.

Save Your 1892 Quarters.

Take them to Ormond & walsh's drug store and he will give you a bottle of Four T's, the best, safest and quickest cure known for coughs and colds. More than a quarter million bottles sold in 5 years proves Four T's the best lung compound known. It is a positive cure for whooping cough.

The Youngest Earl.

The youngest earl, David Lyulph Gore Wolseley, ninth Earl of Airlie, is a very pathetic little figure, for he lost his father and became chief of the great Scots house in the summer of 1900, when his father laid down his life for Queen and country at Diamond Hill, near Pretoria. The eighth Earl of Airlie had not long returned to the field after a severe wound, when he headed his regiment, the Twelth Lancers, in the victorious charge—a victory of which his life and that of Lord Chesham's heir swelled the cost. The widowed Countess of Airlie, a daughter of the fifth Earl of Arran and sister of Viscountess Cranborne, is now a member of the household of the Princess of Wales. The young earl is in his ninth year and has two brothers and three sisters.—The Tatler.

Boat 2,000 Years Old.

In County Mayo, Ireland, a wooden boat, believed to be nearly 2,000 years old, was recently dug up by some laborers. The boat, beautifully carved from the trunk of a tree, is of oak, 46 feet long, and in a perfect state of preservation. So hard is the wood that the hatchets of the men scarcely left an impression. Provision will be made to receive the relic in the Dublin museum.—Pearson's Weekly.

Just 400 Years After.

In 1492 Columbus discovered America. In 1892, just 400 years later, Merrill, a Brantford druggist, discovered Four T's, the great guaranteed cough and cold cure. In 5 years the sale of a quarter of a million bottles has proven that Four T's never fails to cure a cough in 24 hours, and a cold in two days. Large bottles, 25 cents, at Ormond and Walsh's drug store.

GAYNOR AND GREENE GO FREE.

Absence of Dates in Warrants Fatal to Prosecution.

Quebec, Aug. 14. — Gaynor and Greene were liberated yesterday by Judge Caron. His Honor, in giving judgment, said the case was one of great importance, if only by reason of the unusual proceedings employed. He only reviewed his last two writs of habeas corpus. With regard to the attacks made upon himself, he was sure that the American Government authorities and their agents could have had no hand in them. The absence of dates in the warrant, he held to be distinctly fatal to the latter and he therefore upheld the prisoners' claims and their objections to the warrant, maintained the writ of habeas corpus and ordered the release of the prisoners. The prisoners were accordingly released, and received the congratulations of their friends. Mr. McMaster was asked whether the prosecution intended to take any further action in the matter, but declared that he was unable to speak positively on the subject until after a conference with Messrs. Erwin and Stuart.

THE BALDWIN EXPEDITION.

Captain Johannsen Refused to Obey Orders and Was Removed.

Tromsoe, Norway, Aug. 14.—Evelyn B. Baldwin and several members of the crew of the America have made statements before a notary public regarding the dispute between Mr. Baldwin and Captain Johannsen of the America. According to Baldwin's statement, Captain Johannsen refused to obey the orders of the ice pilot, and that necessitated his removal from the command. Baldwin says also that Captain Johannsen left the vessel at Honingsvaag without Baldwin's knowledge or consent. The relations between Baldwin and the ice pilot were always of the best, the statement asserts, and it is added that, while the death of half the dogs from worms, hindered the party from reaching as far north as intended, Baldwin is confident that within twelve months the America will reach the intended latitude en route to the north pole. The Consulate at Christiania, to which Captain Johannsen complained, has referred him to the Consulate at Bergen.

THE MANUFACTURERS.

Annual Convention of the Association Opened.

RESOLUTION ON TARIFF PASSED

Increased Protection Favored—Effect of Labor Organizations on Manufacturing Industries Subject of Inquiry—Canada to South Africa—Text of a Cable From Sir Wm. Mulock Re. South African Trade.

Halifax, Aug. 14.—The two hundred members of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association who are here for the annual convention steadfastly refused the numerous invitations to social gatherings which were thrust upon them and yesterday applied themselves to the business of the meeting with astonishing results. A vast amount of business was transacted, and several important resolutions were adopted, among them being an enunciation upon the tariff policy, a decision to prepare for some means of defence against the aggressions of trades unions, a declaration upon the subject of technical education, and a finding in favor of an all-Canadian Exhibition in Toronto in 1903

Tariff Resolution Adopted.

Resolved: That in the opinion of this association the changed conditions which now obtain in Canada demand the immediate and thorough revision of the tariff upon lines which will more effectually transfer to the workshops of the Dominion the manufacture of many of the goods which we now import from other countries.

That in any such revision the interests to all sections of the community whether of agricultural, mining, fishing, or manufacturing, should be fully considered, with a view not only to the preservation but to the further development of all these great national industries.

That while such tariff shall be primarily framed for Canadian interests it should, nevertheless, give a substantial preference to the mother country, and also to any other part of the British Empire, with which reciprocal preferential trade can be arranged to our mutual advantage, recognising always that under any conditions the minimum tariff must afford adequate protection to all Canadian producers.

Canada to South Africa.

The following cable from Sir William Mulock, London, to R. J. Young, secretary of the association, was read:

"London, Aug. 13.—Pleased to inform you Government has completed contract with syndicate composed of Allan, Elder-Dempster and Furness lines for service between Canada and South Africa. Sailings at least monthly with provision for increased frequency. Summer sailings, Montreal and Quebec; winter, St. John and Halifax; African port, Cape Town and two other ports. First sailing first week in October from Montreal. Ships will carry mail, also supplies with cold storage. Contract five years."

Over a Thousand Members.

After the communication had been disposed of the report of the Reception and Membership Committee was presented by the chairman, James P. Murphy. The report showed a membership of 1,021, an increase of 226 over the previous year. Pleasure was expressed at the establishment of the new branch at Halifax and the establishment of one at Quebec was also recommended. The holding of the monthly lectures and dinners was stamped as a most advisable policy, and the local branches were urged to adopt it.

An All-Canadian Exhibition.

A resolution favoring the holding of an all-Canadian Exhibition in 1903 was also passed.

E. B. Eddy submitted a resolution calling upon the Government to place a prohibitory export duty of $4 per ton on all Canadian pulp wood. The resolution was passed.

The delegates were tendered an excursion around the harbors by the local branch, when the afternoon session adjourned, which proved both enjoyable and profitable to all. At an open meeting in the evening which was largely attended, President Robert Munro delivered his annual address, a splendid exposition of the year's work.

THE BOER GENERALS.

To Be Members of the Transvaal Legislative Council.

London, Aug. 14.—It is unofficially announced that Generals Botha and Delarey, who, with General Dewet, are expected to reach England from South Africa next Saturday, will be appointed members of the new Transvaal Legislative Council.

It is said that as a result of an interview with ex-President Steyn, Mr. Kruger has abandoned his political campaign, and countermanded the proposed conference of Boer leaders.

The steamer Saxon, on which Generals Botha, Delarey and Dewet are coming to England from Cape Town, arrived at Madeira yesterday. Generals Botha and Delarey went ashore sightseeing. General Dewet remained on board the steamer continuing his work on the book he is writing detailing his experiences during the war.

Met Violent Death.

Toronto, Aug. 14.—Archibald Fulton, a structural ironworker, was instantly killed yesterday afternoon while working on a new stable for the Canadian Express Company at the corner of Front and Porter streets. With several others, he was engaged in hoisting to the top of the building a heavy iron support. This was being done by the aid of a derrick. When the iron bar was about at the required height, a cog wheel suddenly gave way, and the bar fell. Fulton tried to escape, and, in doing so, tripped and fell. The heavy support fell on his head, crushing it terribly, and killing him instantly. He came from Coldwater, where his mother lives.

Arms and Legs Paralyzed.

Toronto, Aug. 14.—Lying at the General Hospital is William Bentley, a northern Ontario man, suffering from injuries that will likely end in death. Bentley was brought to the city yesterday.

Last Thursday while at work on the farm of John Paget at Sunbridge, Muskoka, he met with the injuries. He was assisting to put up a barn and a heavy beam fell on him. When removed to the house it was found that his both arms and his lower limbs were paralyzed. Bentley is 17 years of age.

Found in Mill Pond.

Collingwood, Aug. 14.—On Thursday morning last a son of Mr. Robert Reid of this town disappeared and no trace of him could be found. He was a lad of about six years of age, and it was supposed that he had gone away with a circus that performed here that day, but instead, he wandered down to the J. & T. Charlton's mill, where his body was found yesterday afternoon in the pond, floating amongst the saw logs.

Russia Falls Into Line.

London, Aug. 14.—In a despatch from Brussels the correspondent of The Daily Telegraph says it is affirmed there that negotiations with the powers are likely to result in a special treaty, under the terms of which Russia will recognize the Brussels sugar convention and modify her internal sugar legislation.

Unknown Man Killed.

Bothwell, Aug. 14.—An unknown man, about 45 years old, was killed by a train two miles from here yesterday morning. The dead man is of sandy complexion, and his left hand had been amputated at the wrist.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Fire in London.

London, Aug. 14. — At 2 o'clock yesterday morning fire destroyed the manufacturing plant of the Pond Mills Cheese Factory. Much of the contents were saved and the insurance will likely cover the full loss, which is hardly known as yet. The place is owned by the Thames Cheese Company.

Prevent Disorder.

At the first symptoms of internal disorder, Parmelee's Vegetable Pills should be resorted to immediately. Two or three of these salutary pellets, taken before going to bed, followed by doses of one or two pills for two or three nights in succession, will serve as a preventive of attacks of dyspepsia and all the discomforts which follow in the train of that fell disorder. The means are simple when the way is known.

WHAT DOES DOHERTY KNOW?

Will Tell Story of Arnott White's Disappearance Thursday Night.

Toronto, Aug. 14. — The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Arnott White, the Evans Warehouse employe, who dropped out of sight Monday, is likely to be somewhat explained at 6 o'clock Thursday evening, if, in the meantime, nothing develops showing what has become of the young man.

Charles Doherty, the man with whom White worked at the warehouse, and with whom he walked a few blocks the last day he worked, declared Wednesday evening to Fred White, brother of the missing boy, that if nothing had been heard of Arnott by 6 o'clock Thursday evening, he would tell him something that Arnott said to him on parting Monday evening. Fred White urged Doherty to tell him then, but he refused. "I will tell you Thursday night if you do not learn anything by that time. Come down to the warehouse at 6 o'clock, and I will tell you then what your brother said to me."

The police are making no effort to locate White. He is not wanted by them, but they will do what they can to find him, for the parents' sake.

Cut His Head.

Master Harry Munro, son of Mr. R. J. Munro, proprietor of the Morgan House, met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon. While opening the door of the driving shed at the Morgan House, a carriage pole that was leaning against the inside of the door fell on his head, inflicting a very severe cut. Medical aid was summoned and several stitches were placed in the scalp.

Foresters' Civic Holiday Excursion.

For cheapness, speed, comfort, enjoyment, and seeing something worth seeing, the Foresters' excursion on the Civic holiday must be voted a good one. By the splendid coaches of the C.P.R. the excursionist is whirled on his way to Toronto. Here the splendid steamers, Chicora, Chippewa and Corona are taken for Queenstown, a fine sail across the lake and up the beautiful Niagara river to the historic points of interest. Here the electric cars on the Canadian side are taken, and the excursionist skirts the Canadian bank of the river, which, with its magnificent scenery is always in sight, the open cars halting at all points of interest, such as the stupendous whirlpool, the bridges, Victoria Niagara Falls Park, etc. Those who wish can linger at the Falls, where the beauty of the surroundings will take all the time at their disposal. The Falls never grow old or lose their beauty. Those wishing to go to Buffalo can buy a return ticket at Niagara Falls, per electric line, for an extra half dollar, good for three days. This is only a hint at the attractions of the of the route. Now for cheapness. Return tickets for the trip are, to Toronto, $2.05; to Niagara Falls, $2.20. Toronto tickets good for two days; Niagara Falls tickets good for three days. 3d

About Twenty Members of Masonic Order From Peterborough Attended Ceremony—Grand Master Harding Officiated.

The corner stone of St. James' Episcopal church, Fenelon Falls, was laid yesterday afternoon by Grand Master Harding, of the Grand Lodge, A. F. and A. M. A great many of Peterborough members of the craft went up to attend the ceremony, amongst whom were Messrs. R. E. Wood, W. H. Walkey, H. Rush, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, W. Miller, A. Gibson, Col. H. C. The party drove to Chemong, leaving here at 8 o'clock. The steamer Lady of the Lake had been chartered for the occasion, and the party reached Fenelon Falls at 12 o'clock.

The ceremony of laying the corner stone commenced at 1.30 under the direction of Grand Master Harding, assisted by other officers of the craft, amongst whom were Messrs. R. E. Wood, W. H. Walkey, H. Rush, Alex. Gibson, Dr. Boucher, John E. Belcher and R. M. Dennistoun.

Brief addresses appropriate to the occasion, were made by Rev. Mr. McNamara, rector of the church, Rev. B. Davies, Baptist, Fenelon Falls; Rev. W. Farncomb, former rector; Rev. R. C. H. NOTES.

The Grand Master was officially welcomed by the Town Council with an address, and an address was also presented by Rev. Mr. McNamara, rector of the church, on behalf of himself and the congregation.

The business citizens of this beautiful little place, showed a fine spirit of sympathy with the occasion by suspending business during the afternoon.

An offertory of $47 in aid of the building fund was made by the Masonic brethren and others assisting at the laying of the corner stone.

Excursions were run by steamers from Lindsay and Sturgeon Point.

Dinner and tea served by the ladies of the congregation were liberally patronized.

The new church will be erected at the foot of the little mountain upon which the present church stands. It will be a fine structure of brick on stone foundations with stone trimmings. It will seat about 300 persons. It is of Gothic style, a good deal like the mortuary chapel at the Little Lake Cemetery.

THE BOYS AT SANDY POINT.

Another Interesting Letter From the "Y" Camp.

5th Y.M.C.A. Camp,
Sandy Point, Wednesday.

The Y.M.C.A. Boys' camp goes merrily on. The bright warm days and cool nights make it very pleasant. The climax of the camp will be soon reached, as the baseball league games are nearly completed and the field day is drawn for Friday next.

Monday is regatta day at Juniper Island and the majority of the fellows will attend.

Sailing on the lake has been one of the pleasing features this year — thanks to the ingenuity of Commodore Arthur Wood, who with his bed sheet made up a very creditable looking sail. Trips by sail to Juniper and Young's Point are quite frequent.

The evening camp fire entertainments are delightful, the second of the series was held on Monday evening, when the Harriers furnished the major part of the entertainment. Mr. Cheakemp, of the Harriers, gave a number of declamations which were applauded again and again.

Last night "Whitehead," of Section I., gave a concert in front of his tent. "Molly" acted as chairman. Collection—two cents.

One is not safe around section 4 or 5 tents, as they have a novel method of "pun"-ishing anyone who ventures near them. They certainly put on many "Ayers" and "Jolly" if one submits to it.

No.1 fellows still maintain their reputation as the "noisy."

One boy swallowed a Webster's Unabridged before he came, making his indigestion very bad. "Turkey" often finds himself up against a "grampus," while another fellow "Jawbones" a good deal when asked to blow out the lantern, an operation which requires many efforts owing to the peculiar construction of his mouth and the lantern.

The baseball game this afternoon was very close, but No. 3 succeeded in defeating No. 2 by 7 to 10. The final game will be played to-morrow between Nos. 1 and 2.

Galley and Ackerman went down this morning to help our lacrosse team win the match.

The Beamsville visitor "Coxwain," who has been a most popular man in camp left for his home this afternoon, and the boys showed their appreciation of him by the hearty send-off which was given him.

Mrs. Frowde was an interested visitor to the camp to-day, and left a good sized fruit cake which will receive marked appreciation by the boys at tea to-night, unless the writer fails to be a discerner of signs.

SPECIAL SCRIBE.

P. S.—"Premier" Ross caught two good sized bass this morning.

THE HEALING OF THE KING.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—The Toronto Mail and Empire of Friday last, August 8th, gave highest prominence to a message which for importance and extent of influence is unprecedented in the annals of history, and should commend itself to the thought of everyone.

The portion of the message referred to in particular are the words of gratitude expressed by our noble King, Edward VII., on his deliverance from the very jaws of death, wherein he says: "The prayers of my people for my recovery were heard, and I now offer up my deepest gratitude to Divine Providence for having preserved my life and given me strength to fulfil the important duties which devolve upon me as Sovereign of this great Empire." Thus acknowledging the truth of the Bible, that the sinful are reformed, the sick are healed and the dying restored by Divine Providence, in answer to prayer rightly directed. "He healeth all my diseases," King David said. "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." "The prayer of faith shall save the sick," said James, and Jesus said, "Preach the Gospel, heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils."

Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary B. G. Eddy, says: "God will heal the sick through man whenever man is governed by God; man is properly self-governed when he is guided by no other mind but God." Today the healing power of Truth is demonstrated to by an imminent, eternal quality or principle, instead of a phenomenal exhibition. Its discovery is the second coming of the Gospel of "Peace on earth and good will to man." Body cannot be saved except by mind. A higher and more practical Christianity, capable of meeting human wants in sickness and health, stands at the door of this age, knocking for admission. Will you open or close the door upon this Angel visitant, Who cometh, as He came of old to the patriarch, at eventide? Truth has furnished the key to the Kingdom and with this key Christian Science has opened the door of the human understanding. None may pick the lock, or enter by some other door." Let it be emphasized that we are grateful for all blessings, and if we have a great Empire, we have in the highest sense, a Christian King and Queen.

WILLIAM BRUNDRETT.

SWIFT GAME AT THE OVAL.

T.A.S. and Y.M.C.A. Play a Tie Last Night.

A LARGE CROWD PRESENT.

And a Good Clean Game Was Witnessed—Mr. Frank Pakenham Was Referee—Notes on the Game.

Six or seven hundred people assembled on the Nicholls Oval. last evening to witness the City League lacrosse game between the Y.M.C.A. team and the T.A.S. club, and a fast game it was. Considerable interest had been manifested in this event because of the fact that the "Y" team had succeeded in turning down the Athletics one week ago, and many were confident that they could do the trick with the T.A.S. team. As a result the friends of both teams were keyed up to the highest pitch of excitement last evening, and of course expected great things from their favourites.

It was understood in lacrosse circles that the "Y" would play their last game in the City League last evening, allowing the scheduled game of July 30th to go by default to the T.A.S. It will be remembered that a heavy downpour of rain date prevented the "Y" boys from turning out on the oval in full strength. A tie game with the Athletics it is understood, will also be declared off. The boys in black lose the services of Trollope and Foreman this week, as both are leaving town. In the departure of these two players the "Y" team loses two very clever stick handlers, whose work during the season was marked by clean, scientific lacrosse. In finishing the schedule the lacrosse team of the Y.M.C.A. have made a most creditable record. They have introduced a style of play which has contributed all that is essential in order to make the game clean and scientific, and most interesting, and their demeanour and bearing in the many struggles in which they have participated is worthy of every commendation.

Last night's game started shortly before seven o'clock, with Mr. Frank Packenham wielding the mace of authority, as referee, and although Frank hasn't got the present day lacrosse rules committed to memory, owing to the fact that he has been out of the game for some time, still he was fair and impartial on all occasions and did his duty in a satisfactory manner.

The game was a fast one at the start, and the "Y" team jumped into it with both feet. Their playing was superb at all times, and their combination work was as accurate as it is possible to make it. They covered their checks well, intercepted many passes, and altogether played beautiful lacrosse.

The T.A.S. team on the other hand showed a demoralized condition of affairs. Their playing was loose and ragged and they seemed to be "up in the air." The defence of the T.A.S. did not seem to get into the game at all, and there was a tendency on the part of a great many of the team, in their anxiety to score, to allow their checks to remain uncovered. The "Y" boys certainly started in with the game all their own way and it was a pretty piece of combination that enabled "Wally" Robinson to score the first game of the evening in about 25 seconds.

The second game opened with some very clever work by both teams. Robertson and Foreman of the "Y" and McNicholl and McCoy of the T. A.S. showing up exceptionally well. After about ten minutes play Lou McCoy secured the rubber and scored for the T.A.S.

The third game was a swift one and both teams went in to do or die. Pennick and McDonald had an opportunity to show their ability as lacrossists and came in for considerable applause as did McGrath, Crowley and Kelly, of the "cold water" team. The game was replete with splendid stick handling and pretty combination work. A few minutes before the close of the first half "Wally" Robinson scored another for the "Y" and there was great joy among their supporters. The first half closed with the score standing 2—1 in favour of the Y.M.C.A.

The second half was a stunner from the drop of the hat. The T.A.S. team pulled themselves together, and, it must be admitted, had the best of the argument to the close. Anglesyc at centre for the "Y" and Frost and Dumble on the home tried their prettiest to notch another goal, but the T.A.S. defence had pulled itself together and with the home was playing beautiful lacrosse. Mahoney, Meagher and Tracey were playing with the determination of drowning men, and the defence of the "Y" team were repelling attacks on all sides. Towards the close the play was all centered on the "Y" flags, and the only one left on the T.A.S. defence was O'Brien in goal. It was a block game from now out, and a few seconds before time was up Lou McCoy made a neat shot on the "Y" flags which was cleverly stopped by Best, but Fred Derocher secured the sphere and planted it in the net, tieing the score and saving the T.A.S. from an expected defeat.

The following was the line-up of the two teams:

T. A. S.	Y. M. C. A.
goal.
O'Brien	Best
point.
Mahoney	Rickey
cover point.
McDonough	Trollope
1st defence
Kelly	Pennick
2nd defence.
Meagher	Brown
3rd defence.
Crowley	McDonald
centre.
McNichol	Anglesyc
3rd home.
F. McCoy	Dumble
2nd home.
McGrath	Robertson
1st home.
L. McCoy	Foreman
outside home.
Tracy	Frost
inside home.
Derocher	Robinson
Umpire.
J. McFadden	G. Galley
Field Captain.
J. Picard	R. M. Glover

Frank Packenham, referee.

DROP SHOTS.

Best's playing in goal for the "Y" last evening was the feature of the game, and the same can be said of Jimmy O'Brien's work in the T.A.S. nets.

Fred Derocher pulled the game out of the fire for the T.A.S.

Jack McDonough, who played a cool game, has entirely recovered from his recent accident.

Robertson and Foreman are the shining lights on the "Y" team.

Frank Trollope played his last game last night, and a splendid one it was.

One player had a tendancy last evening to kill time by throwing the ball out of bounds in the long grass. This is not lacrosse nor yet is it sportsmanlike. According to the rules the offender can be penalized by the referee.

This is probably the last game in the city league, as the officials are face to face with a problem, which will probably end the schedule.

It is understood the "Y" team protested "Larry" Lacey, of the T.A.S. team last evening on Geo. Lynch's place, who was unwell.

"Jim" Anglesyc has played a much better game for the "Y" since he was moved out in the field, and last night he played as steady a game as any one on the oval.

FAITH IN PETERBOROUGH.

Grafton & Co., Clothiers, Invest in Valuable Peterborough Store Property on George Street—Preparing to Occupy Their Own Building.

The firm of Messrs. Grafton & Co., clothing manufacturers, recently announced that they had purchased the centrally situated four-storey building on George street, at present occupied by Messrs. H. LeBrun & Co. This announcement is supplemented with the pleasing statement that the firm have "unbounded confidence in the growth and progress of Peterborough," and that on the strength of this confidence they "decided to make an investment in suitable real estate on George street for the purpose of securing a future permanent business home for their local branch store."

The most optimistic enthusiast in regard to Peterborough's bright future could not wish for better confirmation of his faith in the permanent commercial prosperity of the town. Grafton & Co. are not "plunderers." On the contrary, they are recognized throughout the Province of Ontario, especially, as careful, shrewd, far-seeing business men, whose energy and enterprise have not only been recognized, but have brought them a large measure of well merited success. The example of the rapid growth of their Peterborough branch is not the only instance of their success. Their other prosperous branches in Hamilton, London, Brantford, Owen Sound and Dundas are all established on equally as sound and good financial standing. That Grafton & Co. have been influenced to invest in a building of their own in Peterborough is an index of the town's stability and our citizens will be glad to see them share in its prosperity.

The firm expect to take possession of their own store about the 3rd of September. Plans for important alterations and improvements have been prepared, which when completed, it is contemplated will give them an up-to-date clothing house, equipped with fittings and appointments for carrying on their business in a manner commensurate with that rapid growth which their local trade demands.

During the past five or six weeks, Grafton & Co. have been holding a stock reduction and clearing sale previous to removing. This sale has been a general trade-puller. The well-known high-grade character of the clothing, coupled with the bona-fide reductions in price, have afforded bargains such as are seldom offered to the gentlemen and youth of Peterborough. This sale is still in full swing and will be continued from day to day until September. There's still enough variety to go round, and prices cover so wide a range that any and every purse can be accommodated. But the public are reminded that the sale will only last until the end of this month. Don't wait for better chances, but attend this sale now and get a pick of some of the good things going.

NOTES FROM VIAMEDE.

An Account of Saturday Evening's Entertainment—Some of the Guests.

"Viamede" is now very gay with its large number of guests, which at present number 84. On Saturday evening, Coronation Day, the event was celebrated right royally. The house and grounds were brilliantly illuminated with the new Siche gas, the number of lights, including those in the cottages, being over 90. To those coming in on the boat it presented a very fairy like scene. When the night boat came in the guests were all down at the wharf, and sang loyally the National Anthem, "The Maple Leaf Forever," and other patriotic songs. They had a large bonfire built on a small island near by, which could be seen from all parts of the lake. The balance of the evening was spent in dancing, interspersed with songs, recitations, etc., by several talented performers. The Exploration Club of Rochester, to the number of 18 are having a very fine time. A great many of the guests were on an excursion around the Lake on Mr. Buck's new yacht, and in the evening they enjoyed a moonlight sail.

A great many fish are being caught by Messrs. Bolson, Mr. Ritchie and Mr. Kingston.

The following are the arrivals for the week; J. M. Ritchie, Mrs. Ritchie, Chas. L. Ritchie, Pittsburg, Pa.; L. R. Arnott, Toronto; Miss Weaver, Hamilton; W. B. Seace, Brantford; Miss James, Miss Phoebe N. Readman, Miss Kathleen E. Bourne, Toronto; Jas. S. Fee, W. C. Sutherland, land, Edmund H. Barry, Rochester, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bliss, Cleveland; W. S. KRUGER INTERFERING.

Some Fool's Party Anxious That the Boers En Route Should Avoid England—Precautions Taken.

London, Aug. 13.—The arrival next Saturday from South Africa, whence they sailed July 30, of Generals Botha, Dewet and Delarey, promises to be the occasion of another struggle between Boer and Briton.

The Colonial Office has made special arrangements for the reception of the visiting Boers at Southampton. The naval review will be in progress when the Boers arrive, and after their reception by distinguished Colonial Office authorities, Lord Kitchener and other prominent persons, they will be conducted on board the steamer chartered for the use of the Colonial Premiers to witness the naval review.

It is expected that Mr. Chamberlain, the Colonial Secretary, will be on board the steamer. The Boer leaders will spend Saturday night on board this vessel, and on Sunday they will be received by King Edward on board the royal yacht, and in the presence of a number of distinguished personages.

The arrival in England of the Boer generals will doubtless be the prelude to another round of lionizing like that experienced by the late General Lucas Meyer should the generals decide to stay in England, but, according to The Hague correspondent of The Daily Mail, former President Kruger of the Transvaal and his party are equally anxious to prevent Generals Botha, Dewet and Delarey from landing in England.

Members of the Kruger party have sent urgent letters and cablegrams to Madeira in an effort to dissuade the generals from accepting British hospitality. It is proposed to send a Dutch vessel to intercept them, according to the correspondent, and in any case Messrs. Wolmarans, Fischer and Wessels will go to Southampton with that intention.

Kruger Leaves Steyn.

The Hague, Aug. 13.—Ex-President Kruger of the former Transvaal Republic left Scheveningen yesterday, after a cordial farewell to ex-President Steyn of the former Orange Free State, Mr. Steyn is improving in health.

In the Grip of Trusts.

Cape Town, Aug. 12.—The British Trade Commissioners who have been investigating trade conditions in South Africa will sail for home on Aug. 18 and publish their report in England. In an interview to-day, one of the Commissioners said:

"Our revelations will come as a surprise to the British public. The situation here is far more serious than any one imagines. There are fine openings in South Africa for energetic and up to date manufacturers but trade is hampered by trusts and combinations, which threaten to cripple the development of the country."

A SERIOUS MATTER.

It is the Duty of Everyone to Look After the Health and Well-being of the Body.

A very great deal is being said and written just now about Consumption and the fearful number of fatal cases which occur in Canada during a year. It is very gratifying to note that so many prominent citizens of our country are actively organised to meet and if possible to defeat this monster.

But there is another demon at work in the land whose evil influences are much more far-reaching and whose fatal consequences are more numerous if the statistics could be shown, than even those of Consumption.

Dyspepsia has ruined more lives than any other disease that has ever attacked the race.

There are very few indeed who have entirely escaped from its painful influences.

Infants suffer excruciating tortures through indigestion, and the days of many an aged man and woman have been rendered miserable by these blighting and destroying influences.

But if the records were investigated it would be found that a comparatively small number of the deaths occurring in our land are charged to Dyspepsia.

This is accounted for by the fact that Dyspepsia if allowed to go uncorrected, almost invariably brings on some other disease which would never have made its appearance but for the opportunity afforded by the ravages of Dyspepsia.

If the deaths indirectly resulting from Dyspepsia could be shown the number would be appalling.

But no one need suffer with Stomach Trouble. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure it. They have never failed when used according to directions.

X Rays on an M.P.

Belleville, Aug. 13.—Some time ago E. Guss Porter, M.P., had his foot stepped on by a horse. It has since given him a good deal of trouble and Monday night he went to Toronto to have the injured member examined by the X rays. He returned home last night.

Ringing in the Ears.

This is an unfailing sign of catarrh, and if not checked will ultimately result in deafness. The simplest remedy is Catarrhozone, which if inhaled for a few times daily prevents the catarrhal condition from spreading. Catarrhozone quickly stops the ringing in the ears and head noises, and gives permanent relief to catarrhal deafness. For Catarrh in any part of the system, Bronchitis, Asthma, Lung or Throat Troubles, Catarrhozone is a specific, and is guaranteed to permanently cure or your money back. THE BOER SURRENDER.

Not a Dogged or Sullen Submission, But One to Elicit Grateful British Acknowledgments.

There is much reason for congratulation in the speedy and good-natured manner in which the Boers in South Africa have surrendered themselves and their arms to the British authorities. Within a few hours of the signing of the agreement the surrenders began and now they are practically complete. There may be a few isolated bands of irreconcilables, but they are insignificant in numbers and influence. Some 16,000 men have complied with the terms of peace, and they have done so in such a way as to elicit the grateful acknowledgments of the British commander, as well as to inspire confidence for the future of the country. It has not been a dogged and sullen submission. On the contrary it has been a frank and manly confession of defeat, accompanied with a willingness to take up the responsibilities and privileges of British citizenship. Among the Boers there has always been a conflict of opinion, as to the attitude they should assume towards the British. The national party, headed by Mr. Kruger, lived by fanning the prejudices and the racial pride of the people. While this campaign had its political success, there was moderate men who saw its error and were anxious to lead the Boers along a less dangerous path. Though at the outset they resisted the war, yet when once the conflict had been precipitated they fought with their people and remained loyally with them until the last. In the effort to bring about a peaceful solution these leaders have exercised a salutary influence. They have gone to their people and convinced them that it would be folly any longer to resist, and they have, assisted by the logic of events, won the race over to a moderate as well as a reasonable view of the British power. It is a revolution of opinion scarcely less significant than the overpowering of the burghers by means of force. Suddenly a nation has had its eyes opened. It has clasped the hands of its late antagonist, and is prepared forthwith to be his loyal and consistant ally and friend. Englishmen are disposed to be suspicious of newly made friends, and do not place high value on loud professions of cordiality. Still the British are so confident that they can cement the friendship of the Boers that no one doubts or challenges their sincerity. Under the most auspicious circumstances, better than any British statesman had hoped for, far better than Great Britain's enemies had believed possible, the reconstruction of South Africa has been begun. The war in truth is now over, harmony has been restored, peace has been established on a lasting basis, and the foundations have been cleared for building up in South Africa a strong and united British nation.—Toronto Mail.

Chinese Dying Like Flies.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 13.—Advices from Kharbin, Manchuria, say that the inhabitants who are able to do so are fleeing from the town in consequence of the cholera epidemic. The average daily mortality at Kharbin and in its vicinity is from 130 to 150.

Hosts of people are in the habit of trying new-fangled medicines, which are offered to the public from time to time but when these fail they return to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, knowing that in this tried and tested remedy they have a treatment that will of a certainty cure them. Some way or other you can always depend on Dr. Chase's remedies.

Mrs. F. Heathorn, whose husband is of the firm of Mark & Heathorn, founders and machinists, and who lives at 286 Ann street, Belleville, states: "Some years ago I was taken with a pain across the small of my back, caused no doubt from deranged kidneys, and my system generally was very much run down. I began using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and I must say I found relief from my trouble at once. They proved thorough and effective in action, and soon brought about a complete cure. REDEEMING HER SEX

By VENA KENNEDY WILSON

Copyright, 1901, by V. K. Wilson

"Are you sure, madam, you bought nothing in the upholstery department on Thursday?"

"Yes, I am sure."

"Then this receipt for $3.29 was given you for a five dollar deposit?"

"Yes; it must have been. I was here Thursday and paid $5 on a rug, and when I got home I found the receipt was for $3.29."

"Well, just take a chair, and I will look it up."

The head of the department went through a pile of papers before him. A faintly amused contemptuous glance in his eye told the underclerk that he had branded her story "another lie."

In a few minutes he turned to her and said courteously, but coldly:

"Strange; our slip says $5. Now, I will give you a duplicate receipt. I will keep the receipt you gave me for the $3.29. It is of no value to you," looking her in the eye.

"No; oh, no! Of course not. Thank you! I—I—knew I had paid the $5."

After she had left he took his way with a smile to the upholstering department. When he returned, the smile was almost a sneer.

"Well?" said the underclerk, with a laugh.

"Same old thing," he said wearily. "The receipt was given for goods bought by her Thursday. She has lost or mislaid her receipt for the $5 and, judging us by herself, was afraid we would deny receiving it, so hatched up that lie. By heavens, I believe a woman would lie her soul away to save a dollar!"

The other man chuckled.

"You think it is funny. Well, I don't."

An hour later he turned to his clerk again:

"Five more women; five more lies; a good record for an hour."

A woman stood beside him, and as his eyes scanned her quickly he smiled involuntarily.

She was not shabbily genteel, but shabbily grotesque. The skimpy cape, the threadbare waist, the bedowered bonnet and ill hanging skirt were of all colors and materials. They were alike only in cleanliness.

She raised her sharp brown eyes, hesitated and smiled a little tremulously, showing gums entirely devoid of teeth. Then straightening herself up she said slowly:

"I've come to see if you'd take a rug back."

"What is the matter with the rug?"

"Nothin', only I don't want it."

"How long have you had it? A couple of days, I suppose," ironically.

"No, I've had it purty near two month."

"But you have not used it, of course."

"Well, it's been on the floor all the time, but I only set there when I have company, an' I don't have company very often," this a little apologetically. "It's a purty rug an' I like it, but I want to send it back."

"Why did you buy it, if you didn't want it?" he asked bluntly.

"I do want it, but—but I've got to have some money an' I can't get it unless I can send the rug back."

"How much was it?"

"'Leven dollars an' forty cents," she answered dejectedly.

"Are you sure there is nothing wrong with the rug?" he asked in an insinuating voice. "If it is crooked or off color or not as represented, I may be able to do something for you."

"No," emphatically, but sorrowfully, "there ain't nothin' wrong with the rug. It's purty an' all right, but it ain't hurt any, an' I must have the money, an'—an' I thought you might take it back."

"Give me your name and address," he said, "and I will call tomorrow and look at it. I will tell you then what I can do." His eyes held a smile that was not amusement or contempt, but a combination of incredulity and joy that made the underclerk wonder.

The next afternoon he climbed five flights of stairs and was ushered into the room with the rug.

Its flaunting colors, the glaring chromos, the table with the installment plan album, the few wooden chairs and the old cane rocker, even the one little scarlet geranium, were noted in a single glance. But he looked at the old woman's face long and steadily. It was such a battered old face, as though time, sorrow and privation had fought out their desperate battle there and left each time traces to tell the tale.

"It's a purty rug," was what she said.

"You don't want to give up the rug. Why do you do so?"

She clutched nervously at her apron and shrank within herself before the man who seemed to fill the room with his dominant, forceful personality. He was so strong, young, well groomed, that she felt suddenly old, weak and helpless before him.

"Excuse me," he said kindly. "I had no thoughts of prying into your business. I only want to help you out of this if I can."

"I know, I know," she said quickly, "an' you're good—good. You'll think me a silly old woman, but I can't bear to disappoint him. Nigh thirty years! It's a long time, an' we've both got old an' ugly, but our hearts is just the same. If he hadn't said it almost the last thing. I wouldn't care so much, but, 'Molly,' said he, 'be careful of your teeth. You've such a purty mouth. An'—an'—now I ain't no teeth at all, an' him a-comin' after all these years! It's a long time to be in prison, an' that's why I want the rug, 'cause it's so bright an' cheerful, an' he hain't seen nothin' very cheerful all these years, but—but I must have the teeth. I had the money for them, too, but they'll only send him to Cincinnati, where he went up from, so I'll have to send the money for the rest of the way. I must have the teeth," wringing her hands unconsciously while the sunken lips quivered and the tears trickled down the yellow cheeks. "I must have the teeth—an'—an' I don't know what to do.

"They sent him up for fifty years. It's a long time for killin' a man that egged him on to doin' it, an' he was young an' hot headed then. We'd only been married four year, an' we was jus' gettin' a nice little start, but," with a dry sob, "I know it seems silly to you fer an old woman to care how she looks, but it's for him; it's to please him."

The man walked quickly to the window.

A woman true for thirty years! A woman who would not lie! A woman whose love had grown with suffering! A woman with clear brown eyes like—He bowed his head in his hand a moment, and when he raised it the light of joy that shone through the mist was like the sun behind an April cloud.

"We can't take back the rug," he said, "but here," quickly writing on his card, "is the address of my dentist. Go to him. He will make your teeth, and I will stand good for them. Now promise me that you will go today."

"No, no," she said, breaking into tears. "I ain't nothin' to you an' I can't let you do that. God bless you! I ain't never taken nothin' yet but what I earned. I wouldn't feel honest in doin' this, for I wuzn't tryin' to get help, only to have the rug taken back."

"You must," he said firmly. "You can pay me back; you can pay it a little at a time. Will you be generous and do this to please me?" And he looked into her face with a winning smile.

"God is good," she answered brokenly, the weary old face lighting with a great joy. "I know you mean what you say, an' I'll pay you every cent jus' as soon as I can. You don't know what this means to me," breaking into helpless sobs, "for—for I want to look as good as I can for John."

That evening a girl with clear brown eyes sat with hands folded listlessly in her lap, her lips in wistful curve. Suddenly she started, a flush came to her cheeks, a warm light to her eyes. With a cry of joy she sprang to her feet and held out her hands to him. With no words he caught her to him and kissed her with a passion of love; then, putting his hand under her chin, he held her face so he could look into her eyes and said slowly:

"If I was sent to prison for thirty years, would you love me, be true to me and kiss me after those thirty years with the same gladness you do now?"

"I don't know," she answered hesitatingly.

"You don't know?"

"No. How could I? I love you so much I think I could love you always. But how can I tell? Oh," her face flushing scarlet, "what am I saying? I am telling you I love you, and—you have never yet said you loved me. And you cannot or you wouldn't have left me for a month with no word, even to tell me why."

"You know I love you, though," he said—"love you so much I was afraid of it. And I am happier to hear you say that you can't tell whether you would be true to me or not than for an assurance to come tripping off your tongue. It wasn't you, darling, but your sex, that has almost robbed me of my happiness. But one little old woman has redeemed all your sex for you and brought me to you again. For God's sake, never lie to me, Cleta!"

She looked at him with tender womanly pity.

"Poor boy!" she said softly. "You have seen the one side so long you forget how many sides there are to an octagon. Because from millions of women a few hundred come to you with lies on their lips must you condemn all womankind? No, no, my dear; you must not condemn women, for every noble man is mostly what his mother has made him. While women have their weaknesses, they are"—

"The light of man's life!" he cried.

We understand that Mrs. H. B. Stowe received recently from her publishers, Messrs. Jewett & Company, the sum of ten thousand three hundred dollars as her copyright premium on three months' sales of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." We believe that this is the largest sum of money ever received by any author, either American or European, from the actual sales of a single work in so short a period of time.

We observe that some of our contemporaries speak of the Americans intending to celebrate the battle of Lundy's Lane on the battleground. This is incorrect. In the announcement of the Committee of Arrangements Niagara Falls only is mentioned. The Americans could not ask to hold meetings or deliver speeches on our side of the line. We have no doubt, however, that many of the visitors will see the battleground on that occasion.

The hotel company at Quebec have already advanced so far as to advertise for a lot of ground, containing 20,000 superficial feet. When will we be so far advanced in Toronto? Will not some of our active men take the enterprise in hand?—The Globe, July 17, 1852.

"I take great pleasure in telling you what Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has done for me and mine. A year ago my little girl, now nearly three years old, was attacked by Cholera Infantum. It was in the hot season and she was teething at the time. The doctor gave her up; in fact, I did so myself.

"I finally decided to try Dr. Fowler's Wild Strawberry. I procured a bottle and it did her so much good that I got another bottle and by the time it was finished she was completely cured. As for myself, it has saved me from inflammation of the bowels several times. I always keep a bottle in the house and cannot recommend it too highly."

LACROSSE.

The departure from Peterborough of Foreman, the speedy little home player of the Y.M.C.A. team, will be severely felt by lacrosse men in general. Foreman during the few months he has been a resident of Peterborough, has proved himself to be very popular and a tower of strength on the "Y" team. He intends spending a few weeks at Lake Simcoe before returning to McGill University. While here he is engaged in taking a course in the Canadian General Electric Co. Foreman is a native of Victoria B.C., and learned the game out west. He tells of how when he was a "kid" he sat on the fence with other kids of his age, and marvelled at the brilliant work of "Bob" Frost, who was one of the idols of the western aggregation. He never thought then, he said, that Frost and he would be playing on the one team at a later period.

Cobourg defeated Millbrook in a game of lacrosse at Cobourg on Aug. 8th by 3 goals to 0.

The Marmora Herald says; "If the lacrosse boys here expect to keep up their good name at Havelock on the 1st, they will have to get out and practice. The Hastings team has undergone some changes and is now stronger than ever, and declare that they are not even afraid of a team from Marmora. They defeated Millbrook and Peterborough in a couple of games last week.

Millbrook will play in Hastings a week from to-morrow.

Speaking of the T.A.S.-Hastings game the Hastings Star says;

Comparing the two teams, Peterborough was heavier and were better runners, but our boys far excelled them in defence and combination work. Our defence held their positions, and when the visitors home started a combination it was speedily checked and they then resorted to a lot of individual playing. Our home on the other hand played a fast combination game and could draw the visitors' defence away from their goal with ease.

The visiting crowd was so disappointed that everything was to blame. The rough grounds came in for a good deal of criticism, but we would judge from what other clubs tell us that they must get a little practice on their own. They knew what they had to face in the ground line, but they got a set back in the playing line, and of course they had to acknowledge the superior playing of our boys. The game was clean throughout and not one player figured on the fence. The spectators went wild at times, both teams being well supported. The boat left for Peterborough at 6 a.m., and arrived home about 10.

The following is the standing in the Peterborough City League:

	Won	Lost	Draw	Play
T.A.S.	3	1	2	2
Athletics	3	1	2	2
Y.M.C.A....	1	5	2	0

This standing of the teams is made out on the supposition that the Y.M.C.A. team has closed their season in the league with last night's game.

COUNCIL GRANTS AN EXTENSION

Of the Peterborough Street Railway Franchise.

MR. McGILL'S INTERVIEW.

Says That Other Capitalists are Anxious to Get the Franchise—Board of Works Reports.

At a special meeting of the Peterborough Town Council which was held in the Town Clerk's office yesterday afternoon, there were present His Worship Mayor T. H. G. Denne, and Aldermen J. Edgcumbe, B. Shortly, G. M. Roger, Jos. Batten, M. A. Morrison, H. Best, and J. J. Turner.

The meeting was called to consider a letter from Mr. R. R. Bane, President of the National Construction Company, to His Worship, concerning the Peterborough Street Railway. Mr. Bane wrote as follows;

The party from Ohio representing the capitalists, whom I took with me to Peterborough a few days ago, was very favourably impressed with the outlook, after driving over the route and looking over the rolling stock, and the environments of Peterborough. His people would not be interested in the proposition at all if the city lines had to be completed by the 1st of September. We regret the delay, of course, and it will probably be known in due time that the delay was through no fault of ours. We have concluded to ask your council the following;

1. That the time limit on the franchise for the completion of the city lines on September 1st, be extended to October 1st, one month.

2. That in the event of the payment of $25,000 to the present owners on or before October 1st, 1902, a further extension of the franchise be granted until May 1st, 1903; provided the said extension to May 1st is desired by the capitalists. It may be that they will not desire a further extension, and that they will complete the city lines by Oct. 1st. However, they want that extension until May 1st, 1903, incorporated in the said resolutions or bylaws, so that it can be used in case it is thought necessary after more deliberation. It is the present intention of these capitalists, if the above resolutions or bylaws are passed promptly, to pay the $25,000, take over the assets of the old road, and begin the grading of both city and outside lines this fall, get the city lines in operation by May 1st, and be ready to put the outside lines in operation by June 1st, 1903, in order to reap the benefit of the large summer traffic.

I find your council very reasonable indeed, and there is not one of them but what will realize that to put the city lines in shape at present we would have but little time before winter dawned. The city lines would therefore be run all winter with little or no profit, and probable loss. This therefore should not be shouldered on to the new company, unless they of their own volition put the city lines in operation this fall. The future of the Peterborough Radial Railway Company would be assured if the city lines went into operation on May 1st, 1903, and the outside lines by June 1st. Your council will realise that this is more important to the promoters than to Peterborough. There should be a tremendous traffic for June, July, August and September, which would be most encouraging to the promoters. It is the intention to also build to Cobourg and Port Hope, via the western extremity of Rice Lake.

Please kindly call your council together and take action on this at once, and send me a copy of the resolution; also wire me at my expense as soon as favourable resolution is passed, and oblige.

Yours truly,
THE NATIONAL CONSTRUCTION CO.
R. R. Bane, Pres.

Considerable discussion followed the reading of the above letter. Ald. Best led off by declaring his opposition to granting any further concessions to capitalists whose object in the past appeared to be to peddle the franchise throughout the country. He would grant Mr. Bane the conditions asked for in his letter providing only that they deposit with the town the sum of $5,000 as a guarantee of good faith. This is the course that should have been pursued long ago. The council should not undertake to give Mr. Bane an extention of time without first consulting the people, or without receiving a $5,000 guarantee that they would proceed with their enterprise.

Ald. Shortly was anxious that the council should deal liberally with the present men.

Ald. Morrison while in sympathy with a good deal of what Mr. Best had said, considered that perhaps they would not be unwise in granting Mr. Bane what he had asked.

Informal discussion followed in which all the Aldermen and the Mayor participated. Ald. Roger's views on the matter coincided with those of Alderman Best's. He thought that they would be serving the best interests of the town by asking a deposit from the company of $5,000. After a little reasoning all the members of the council came pretty much to this way of thinking and Ald. Shortly introduced the following resolution:

"That the request of the National Construction Co., for an extension of time for the resuscitation of the Street Railway Co., in the event of their taking over the franchise of the Peterborough Radial Railway Company, be granted, upon condition that with the payment to the proprietors of the present Street Railway Co., $5,000, be also deposited with the town, not later than 1st Oct., next, as security for the fulfilment of the terms of the contract, to be refunded less expenses, one month after the town lines shall have been commenced, and continuing operating according to the said terms, and to be forfeited to the town in the event of such operations not being bonafide and commenced as proposed."

Upon motion of Ald. Shortly, Mr. C. McGill, Superintendent of the Canadian General Electric Company, was heard. Mr. McGill then read a letter he had received from a friend of his a prominent financial man, asking him concerning the Peterborough Street Railway. If there was any chance of securing the franchise he would like to know, as he along with one or two other gentlemen was prepared to consider the question of buying it out and placing the system on a proper basis.

Mr. McGill was thanked by the council for his information.

TEACHING OF LANGUAGES.

The Scranton Correspondence School Have Opened an Office in Town.

By reference to the advertising columns of the Examiner, it will be noticed that the International Correspondence School of Scranton, Pa., has opened an office in Peterborough in order that they may be in a better position than ever to look after their rapidly increasing business. The local office of the School is situated above Ormond and Walsh's drug store, corner of George and Simcoe streets.

Mr. Phineas Harris will act as assistant superintendent, while Mr. G. W. Morgan, special representative of the Institution will be in Peterborough for some time.

A visit to the handsomely fitted up office of the Scranton Correspondence School, in Peterborough, is most interesting, and the local representatives are always willing and courteous in their endeavour to explain the advantages to be derived from a course of study in their well known institution. The teaching of French, German and Spanish, by means of a Phonograph is indeed wonderful.

For ten years the International Correspondence Schools have been teaching by mail. That the system is a success is proven beyond question by the results accomplished by thousands of students in all parts of the world. This system, which has made it possible to give efficient instruction in over one hundred courses, has been successfully adapted to instruction in languages, by mail and with the phonograph.

Ordinary textbooks cannot be adapted to instruction by mail, nor to instruction with the phonograph. The instruction papers of the language courses have been specially written, illustrated, and arranged for instruction by mail with the phonograph, and are the only textbooks that can be successfully used for that purpose.

Through the "talking machine," the instructor teaches the correct pronunciation and accent of foreign sounds or words and the inflection of the voice in conversation. Through the same medium, the student recites the foreign words, phrases, and conversational exercises, and affords his teacher frequent opportunity for correcting and preventing mistakes in pronunciation or accent and for pointing out bad habits of speech. The phonograph does not teach the student to repeat set phrases mechanically, but, rather, enables him to assimilate and use the valuable and systematic instruction furnished through the I.C.S. textbooks.

A phonograph at the local office of the firm gives one a splendid opportunity of what can be accomplished in this line.

A Study in Railway Mileage in Kansas and Nebraska.

New York, Aug. 13. — A Study in Railway Mileage in Kansas and Nebraska. With crop prospects in such discussion a review of the railway mileage of the two states mentioned is important to speculators. Both Kansas and Nebraska were in the thick of the railway boom in the early 80's, which was largely to their undoing later; the one state recording an increase of about 55,000 miles of road, about 60 per cent., and the other an increase of 3,500 miles, or 170 per cent. during the decade ending with 1890. Construction since has been on a very modest scale, the existing roads having gone through hard and perilous times, while awaiting the territory to build up to the facilities furnished, meeting in the meantime with anything but unfavourable, state and other legislation. Poverty or bankruptcy came along as a result. The companies most interested in the two states are the Union Pacific, and Atch, both of which fell into the receiver's hands in 1893. Mop, which suspended dividends in 1891, and would have had a receiver but for the financing of Gould and Sage, Rock Island, which paid 3 per cent in 1895, and 2 per cent in 1896, Burlington, which paid 4 per cent. annually from '95 to '97 inclusive, and Omaha, which fared equally badly. Official returns show 8,719 and 5,625 miles of road in Kansas and Nebraska respectively, on July 1, 1900. This represents 59 miles and 53 miles respectively for each ten thousand inhabitants, while at the time mentioned the balance of the country had 25 miles for every 10,000 population. Taking due notice the railroad mileage practically did not increase in this territory from 1890 to 1900, and that the increased productive capacity of the areas covered came upon already operating roads it may be said that the increased value of property in every shape was enjoyed by a population unchanged as to numbers, excepting an increase of about 3 per cent. This would rationally explain the change that has come over railroad results in this territory, placing railway property on a firm and substantial basis, through the forceful influence of augmented revenues and enlarged profits. Farm values and increased acreage are steadily doing their work. The people have become owners of some money instead of debtors. The wave of populistic discontent has as a consequence vanished. These two States have enlarged their farm values between the two decades nearly one thousand millions of dollars. No wonder the market has so radically and permanently changed for certain railway issues.

FIRST OF GREAT PLAN

Canada-South African Service And What it Really Means.

TO MAKE EMPIRE INDEPENDENT

Canada's Investment of $150,000 Yearly May Yet Secure Her Big Bulk of Mother Country's Food Supply—Britain Gives $75,000 Yearly to Helping This Project Along—C.P.R.'s Move.

London, Aug. 15.—In its issue of this morning The Daily Express asserts that Canada will subsidize to the extent of $150,000 and Great Britain to the extent of $75,000 a year, the new line of steamships to be established between Canada and South Africa, which is the first portion of the great plan elaborated by Colonial Secretary Chamberlain to make the British Empire independent of American and foreign supplies of food, etc.

Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, Canadian High Commissioner, in London, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian Premier, assisted, according to The Daily Express, in arranging Mr. Chamberlain's plan, which has the sympathy of King Edward and the Prince of Wales.

The Canadian Pacific Railroad has thrown in its lot with the shipping lines concerned in the amalgamation, the paper concludes, and the same combination is arranging for a fast steamer service between Canada and Great Britain.

Where Does Canada Stand?

London, Aug. 15.—The conference of colonial Premiers with Colonial Secretary Chamberlain, which adjourned Aug. 11, reached no agreement as to Canada's contribution to the Imperial navy. A special arrangement is contemplated in the case of Canada. Australia's share was fixed at $1,000,000 annually, and New Zealand's at $200,000.

MORE COMBINES.

This Time It Is the Agricultural Implement Makers of the U.S.—Canada Headquarters at Hamilton.

Chicago, Aug. 15. — The Tribune says: Details of the formation, operating plans, scope and purpose of the International Harvester Company were made public yesterday and include the immediate absorption of five of the largest harvesting machine and agricultural implement manufacturing concerns in the country, including the two great enterprises in Chicago. When the merger of these huge manufacturing plants is completed it is anticipated that the combination will reach out after the smaller concerns and ultimately invade Canada. The headquarters of the combined company will be in Chicago.

A director in speaking of the combine says: "In addition to the plants of the mergered companies the company will soon have another operation in Canada. This is almost completed. It has warehouses in the chief centres of population, and economies of production will result from its ownership of timber lands, coal, ore, blast furnaces, and steel properties. The administration of its affairs is to be of the most conservative character.

"The annual output of the five plants in the combine approximates over 700,000 machines. They employ fully 20,000 men."

Hamilton Its Location.

Hamilton, Aug. 15.—Hamilton is to be the Canadian headquarters for the International Harvester Company, incorporated yesterday in New Jersey, with a capital of $120,000,000. The Deerings, McCormacks and all large American manufacturers of harvesting machinery are in the corporation. The Canadian plant, which is of huge proportions, is now in course of erection in East Hamilton.

Farmers in $50,000,000 Combine.

Pierre, S.D., Aug. 15.—Articles of incorporation were filed with the Secretary of State yesterday by the Farmers' National Co-operative Exchange Company, with a capital of $50,000,000. The principal object of the corporation is to enable farmers to secure better prices for their produce. For this purpose the corporation will buy and sell grain, live stock and all kinds of produce on commission and otherwise. A chain of grain elevators, warehouses, cold storage plants and stockyards will be built.

Pekin, Aug. 14.—The restoration of the Pekin-Shan-Hai-railway is being delayed by the Russians, who refuse to relinquish the new Chwang-Shan-Hai-Kwan section, unless they are allowed to retain the machine shops, and roundhouses at Shan-Hai-Kwan. The Russians also object to foreign officials.

THE KING HAS GONE TO COWES

Crowds of People on the Streets Cheer Their Majesties—Royal Salute in Portsmouth Harbor on King Boarding His Yacht—The King's Health—No Truth in Rumors of Second Operation.

Liverpool, Aug. 15.—According to The Daily Post of this city, King Edward has promised the Chief Secretary for Ireland, George Wyndham, to visit Dublin, Cork and Belfast in February, at the latest, possibly as early as November.

The King Goes to Cowes.

London, Aug. 15.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra left London for Cowes, Isle of Wight, yesterday. They drove in semi-state to the railway station, escorted by the Life Guards, through streets thickly crowded with cheering people.

The King and Queen arrived at Portsmouth at 4.30 p.m. yesterday, and went on board the Victoria and Albert, which sailed at once for Cowes. The warships in Portsmouth Harbor dressed ship and fired the royal salute when the King went on board his yacht.

The British Medical Journal makes the announcement that it is authorized to say there is no truth whatever in the recent rumors that King Edward will undergo another operation. The British Medical Journal declares that the King's recovery is complete, and that his general health is better than for a long time past.

MORGAN NOW THEIR HOPE.

Both Sides in Coal Strike Look to the Financial Magnate to Settle It Somehow.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 15.—In J. Pierpont Morgan striking coal miners believe they see Moses, who is to lead them from strife to arbitration and perhaps victory. This sentiment, arisen no one knows how, is of overwhelming force from one end of the coal field to the other, and the news that the financier had sailed for New York from Liverpool yesterday, was received with enthusiasm everywhere. Crowds surround the bulletin boards of the newspapers which announced his sailing and operator and striker exclaimed together:—"It'll soon end when Morgan gets back. He'll make them come to terms."

Mr. Morgan, the miners believe, will return determined to force some concessions from the operators. This determination, no one believes, has come from any sociological sentiment, but from a business brain that can see the folly of continuing a weekly loss of millions, which a placatory policy would avert. They believe he will use the Reading, Lehigh Valley and Central Railroad of New Jersey as a weapon to compel the management of the other coal roads to recede from their present positions.

Rumors were plentiful yesterday that John Mitchell has already determined that the committee of the operators will not have finished their report before a committee of strikers will ask them to hear their side again.

Welshmen to Aid Strikers.

Cardiff, Wales, Aug. 15.—The South Wales Miners' Federation has adopted a recommendation that the federation districts contribute $50,000 to assist the striking miners in the United States, on the ground that they are contending for principles of international importance.

Church Burned to the Ground.

Toronto Junction, Aug. 15.—The Roman Catholic Church, near Lambton Mills, was burned to the ground yesterday afternoon about 3.30. Three Episcopal clergyman were coming down the hill from St. George's, Islington, and seeing the flames they rushed into the sacred edifice and saved a great deal of the interior draperies, seats and movable things. The clergymen who saved the contents of the building were: Rev. Davidson Owen of St. James' Cathedral, Rev. A. McCausland, M.A., of St. Thomas' Church, Toronto, and Rev. H. S. Musson of Indianapolis. After the fire, they met Rev. Father Gallagher of St. Cecelias' Church, who was on his way to the church to make preparation for Sunday's service, and informed him of the catastrophe.

Change in I.C.R. Staff.

Montreal, Aug. 15.—A special from Moncton, N. B., says: The Government organ here announces that Mr. E. G. Russell, manager of the Intercolonial Railway, has retired.

Mr. David Pottinger, the general manager, will take over the duties of Mr. Russell, whose office, that of manager, has been abolished.

The office of the assistant manager, filled by Mr. E. T. Horn, who was brought from an American road by Mr. Russell, has also been abolished.

THE EDUCATION BILL IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

The following article from the Canadian Baptist, pretty fully expresses, no doubt, the sentiments of English Non-conformists in relation to the Education Bill:

Non-conformists in England and Wales are just now facing what is undeniably the gravest crisis that has ever confronted them. The Education Bill, now before Parliament, is aimed directly at their rights and liberties. This Bill provides for the abolition of the School Boards created by act of Parliament thirty years ago, and the substitution of a less directly representative system of control. It increases the facilities for the establishment of denominational, that is, of Anglican schools. If this Bill becomes law, Non-conformists will have to contribute to the support of schools the management of which is taken out of their hands, and put into the hands of Church-men; they will be reqquired to pay for the teaching of denominational doctrines which they disbelieve; they will be compelled in thousands of parishes to send thir children to English Church Schools, to be taught the doctrines of the Established Church, and where opportunity of teaching their own faith will be denied them. If this Bill is passed there will be some thirteen thousand schools in the country from which Non-conformist teachers will be effectually barred. One purpose of the Bill is to "relieve the English Church from the payment even of that small part of the cost of their schools which now comes from voluntary subscriptions, and backed and supported by such a law Churchmen are already saying, "give us time and we shall cut off Dissent from its springs.

And when this Bill is passed Anglicans will be emboldened to demand still more, and if allowed, they will push their way till every Non-conformist teacher is ousted, every child taught the Church catechism, and, if possible, every Non-conformist chapel destroyed or closed up. And the remarkable fact is that the Government, led by Premier Balfour, is determined to pass this iniquitous measure. Non-conformists have been allowed no voice in the formation of the Bill, their criticisms and objections have been disregarded, they have been utterly set at defiance by the Premier and his colleagues, and have been contemptuously told that they are better off under the new law than they deserve anyway. All of which appears the more monstrous when we remember the present relative position of Non-conformists in the country.

Two hundred years ago Non-conformists were to Churchmen as one to twenty-two; one hundred years ago they were one to eight, but to-day they are one to one, and they are as prosperous and liberal as they are numerous.

And what will follow the passage of this Bill? Mr. Balfour has signalized his entry upon the office of Prime Minister by "plunging the country into all the bitterness of sectarian strife." Stirrring times are ahead in England. Non-conformists may be unable to prevent the enactment of this unjust law, but they will have something to say when its enforcement is attemtped. Already a determination to resist the payment of the rates is becoming fixed. Such a powerful Journal as the British Weekly deliberately says, "It has been recognized from the beginning that there are limits to civil obedience, and that specific demands on the part of the State for money appropriated to purposes against conscience, ought to be firmly resisted." Non-conformists are prepared, if need be, to suffer, and we believe when they have suffered a while, they will regain, and be confirmed in the enjoyment of their proper rights. This is the manner in which the Christian World regards the situation:

"But the moral of the present crisis lies in the fact that Non-conformists are now paying for their astounding apathy with regard to their principles. For the most part they have treated Disestablishment as a more or less academic question, and have regarded with complacency the State-endowment of Anglicanism. As a result the Church that is established and endowed is emboldened to insist that its schools be similarly treated. Filled with the arrogance of supremacy, and the confidence engendered by Non-conformist indifference, it has become more and more exorbitant, thinking with some justification, that there was hardly anything to which we would not submit. Until we ourselves become convinced and ardent on religious equality, it is idle for us to complain of the apathy of others, but when we have converted ourselves to believe in it, Disestablishment will be within measurable distance, and sectarian dominance in national education will be once for all destroyed."

EDITORIAL NOTES

Canadian imports in July were nearly the same in amount as in July, 1901, but Canadian exports—our sales abroad—were two and a half million dollars greater. That is nice.

The prophets of woe to the King should, the Hamilton Times suggests, be given a rear bench along with the Canadian Tory fakirs who used to prophesy that the country would go to the bow-bows if the Liberals were returned to power.

That United States foreign trade decreased last fiscal year by some twenty-six million dollars has been noted. Detailed figures show the curious fact that one big item of shortage occurred in the iron and steel business. The United States imported $10,000,000 more of iron and steel manufactures than during the previous year, and on the other hand exported $19,000,000 less, a rather surprising thing in view of the rapid previous growth of American iron andand steel exports.

TEACH GIRLS TO SWIM.

This is the season when the water appeals to one, when the morning dive or the evening swim is as healthy as it is pleasant, and when Venus emerging from the waves should be the ideal of every English girl. Parents ought to encourage the love of swimming in their children. Boys, perhaps, are taught the art at school, but the girls are sadly neglected. Who of the many maidens paddling their canoe, or using the punt pole at Henley, could swim or even save themselves if they fell overboard? Swimming should be made compulsory in every curriculum of study. — London Graphic.

HARVERTING THE MANITOBA CROP.

How the Army of Farm Labourers Will be Sent to Their Destinations.

More important than any other topic at this particular time is the gathering of the anticipated bountiful harvest in Manitoba and the Territories this and next month. At least 20,000 men are required for the work, and the great majority of these will go from Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime Provinces. Some interesting information regarding the way the farm labourers will be handled is given by the Manitoba Government in a statement made by Mr. Hugh McKellar, of the Department of Agriculture, in reply to the following letter received from a person in Ontario:

"Please say what arrangements you will have at Winnipeg for sending farm labourers to certain localities where they may desire to go. Upon inquiry I find many of those contemplating going from this locality have relatives, friends or farmers for whom they have worked before, and for whom the yhave promised to work again should they return. These parties will decline to go unless some arrangement is made whereby they can be sure of being ticketed through to their desired destination."

The following is Mr. McKellar's reply which concisely sums up what the Government has done in the way of preparing for the distribution of the labourers from the East:

"The question you raise is the one that impressed itself most forcibly upon me last year in considering any change in our method of distributing harvest hand. I consider it absurd to dictate to any man where he should go, especially when men have definite places in view. There is nothing, however in this year's arrangements that will prevent men from going to their friends or to those for whom they worked in past years, if they advise such friends or farmers that they are coming, so that such friends and farmers do not engage others.

"The fare to Winnipeg is $10. On presenting stub of coupon to C.P.R. officials on arrival at Winnipeg a pass is given to any point in Manitoba and away men go to destination. They can take care of themselves for they have been here before. Their baggage would also be re-checked from Winnipeg to destination. For those who have never been here to help in harvesting and who have no particular place to go, we are arranging that they shall be met at Winnipeg by delegate farmers from all points in the province and taken out to their various districts. This is to prevent congestion at any stations. A pass is also given to all such from Winnipeg to destination.

"You will see, therefore, that there is no interference with men who know their destination, and that every assistance possible is to be given by the officials of this department in locating those who may come to assist us for the first time. There is nothing therefore, to deter any one from coming. They are wanted, and they will receive every attention and assistance possible."

It is hoped that the Eastern Canadian press will put this matter in its proper light, so that no one may be deterred from going, for it may be readily seen from the above letter that men will be allowed to go to whatever destination they desire, without intereference, and those who have no special preference will be assisted in every possible way.

Fell Exhausted and Unconscious.

Mrs. R. W. Edwards, 33 McMurray street, Brantford, Ont., suffered for five years with nervous exhaustion, headache and dyspepsia. "The pains in my head would almost drive me crazy. I could not sleep nights, but would walk the floor in agony until I fell exhausted and unconsciousness. For the past nine months I have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and from a mere skelton this medicine has built me up in flesh and weight, until I am well and strong." It would be scarcely possible to produce stronger evidence of the wonderful power of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

As to Packing Canadian Fruit.

Ottawa, Aug. 15.—Fruit Inspector MacKinnon in Great Britain writes that British fruit dealers object to the barrel as a means of packing fruit. Mr. MacKinnon suggests that small packages with honest statements will find a much more ready sale on the market over there. He also advices that experimental packages of fruit should not be sent indiscriminately, but at more stated times and in larger quantities.

Two Killed and One Insane.

Evreux, France, Aug. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fair, Americans, who were related to Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, jr., (Miss Virginia Fair), were returning to Paris from Trouville yesterday, when their automobile swerved and crashed into a tree 15 miles from here. Both were killed. The chauffeur became insane as a consequence of the shock.

Fell Down Stoke Hole.

Belleville, Aug. 15.—Little Miss Evelyn McCarthy, eight years old, granddaughter of Sir Mackenzie Bowell, while returning from a picnic on the steamer Aletha last night, fell down the stoke hold and sustained a slight concussion of the brain.

Just 400 Years After.

In 1492 Columbus discovered America. In 1892, just 400 years later, Merrill, a Brantford druggist, discovered Four T's, the great guaranteed cough and cold cure. In 5 years the sale of a quarter of a million bottles has proven that Four T's never fails to cure a cough in 24 hours, and a cold in two days. BLOW AIMED AT LOTTERIES.

Montreal Men Convicted of Complicity Severely Punished.

Montreal, Aug. 15.—Judge Choquet dealt a crushing blow at lotteries yesterday when he delivered his judgment in the case of the five directors of the Dominion Colonization Company, who were charged with keeping a disorderly house by running a lottery against the statutes, as revised by Parliament. George Giguere who was the organizer of the scheme, and practically the manager of the whole business, was sent to the common jail for three months, without the option of a fine. Alias Rivet, Albert Desjordy, Elie Sicotte and Ernest David were each fined $100 and costs or three months. There is no appeal from this judgment.

A SERIOUS MATTER.

It is the Duty of Everyone to Look After the Health and Well-being of the Body.

A very great deal is being said and written just now about Consumption and the fearful number of fatal cases which occur in Canada during a year. It is very gratifying to note that so many prominent citizens of our country are actively organized to meet and if possible to defeat this monster.

But there is another demon at work in the land whose evil influences are much more far-reaching and whose fatal consequences are more numerous if the statistics could be shown, than even those of Consumption.

Dyspepsia has ruined more lives than any other disease that has ever attacked the race.

There are very few indeed who have entirely escaped from its painful influences.

Infants suffer excruciating tortures through indigestion, and the days of many an aged man and woman have been rendered miserable by these blighting and destroying influences.

But if the records were investigated it would be found that a comparatively small number of the deaths occurring in our land are charged to Dyspepsia.

This is accounted for by the fact that Dyspepsia if allowed to go uncorrected, almost invariably brings on some other disease which would never have made its appearance but for the opportunity afforded by the ravages of Dyspepsia.

If the deaths indirectly resulting from Dyspepsia could be shown the number would be appalling.

But no one need suffer with Stomach Trouble. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure it. They have never failed when used according to directions.

Dennis' Narrow Escape.

Guelph, Aug. 15.—William Dennis, one of a gang engaged taking out gravel on the railway at Guelph Junction yesterday, slipped between two cars, and the wheels of one ran over his arm, almost severing it completely a little above the wrist. His hip was badly fractured and his head bruised. He is now in the hospital in this city. Dennis is a resident of Cooksville, and is about 30 years of age.

SPEECH OF MR. TARTE

Raised Enthusiasm in a Gathering of Staid Business Men.

QUESTION WAS TRANSPORTATION

Final Session of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association Meeting—The Officers Chosen—Association Will Probably Meet in Winnipeg Next Year—Fast Atlantic Steamship Service and Other Resolutions.

Halifax, Aug. 15.—A banquet, made notable by a characteristically impressive speech by Hon. J. Israel Tarte brought the convention of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association to a close last night. The Minister of Public Works in an address upon the necessity of increased transportation facilities, an Atlantic steamship service of the highest class and a tariff which would prevent the danger of Canada being made a slaughter market for foreign goods, raised the enthusiasm of a great gathering of business men to a high pitch. The banquet, which was an exceedingly brilliant affair, was also addressed by Mr. R. L. Borden, M.P., leader of the Opposition; Sir Charles Parsons, commander of His Majesty's troops in Canada, and many prominent visitors. At its last session yesterday the association declared in favor of a subsidy for an Atlantic steamship service "second to none," elected the officers for the next year and practically decided to hold the next meeting in Winnipeg.

The matter of the location of next year's convention was left with the Executive, but it is almost a settled fact that the next meeting will be held in Winnipeg.

The Business Meeting.

The Manufacturers' Association opened their business meeting with the reception of the report of the Railway and Transportation Committee, which contained important recommendations touching the steamship service between Canada and Great Britain, South Africa, Australia, the West Indies and Japan.

Among the things the report said: "A schedule of rates to be charged on the White Pass and Yukon Railway, submitted to the Department of Railways and Canals, was examined carefully by your committee. The rates were very excessive and after carefully considering the circumstances surrounding the carrying of freight to the Yukon district, we could not see that they were justifiable in any particular. The Department of Railways and Canals was communicated with and they were asked to insist upon a very considerable reduction in the rates as submitted. We are pleased to note that the rates were considerably lowered before being ratified by the Government."

Your committee beg to note with satisfaction the action taken by the Dominion Government during the last session in introducing an Act providing for the appointment of a Railway Commission. This bill is the result of a detailed report made to the Department of Railways and Canals by Dr. S. J. McLean, and is a direct response to the needs of the case as pointed out by our association and embodied in a resolution passed at the last annual meeting. The Act, which is a very comprehensive one, is under consideration by your committee, who may have some suggestions to make to the Government and hope that the bill will receive attention at the next session of Parliament.

Continuing the report dealt at length with the importance of fast steamship service between Canada and other countries, and in conclusion urged upon the Government the necessity for further efforts to perfect the different harbors and waterways of Canada, with special reference to the St. Lawrence route, which, as pointed out, was discriminated against by insurance and steamship companies.

Resolutions were adopted asking the Dominion Government to aid the establishment of steel shipbuilding by granting a reasonable subsidy and asking for improvement of Canadian waterways, with special reference to the St. Lawrence.

After a private session of one hour the following resolution was adopted: "That only practical men should be appointed by the Government as commercial representatives to foreign countries and that they should be given an opportunity to get into close touch with Canadian manufacturers."

It was decided that the association should send a representative to South Africa as soon as possible: that a special committee be appointed to consider the Copyright Act, and that a special committee be appointed to take up the labor question and the effect of combinations upon Canadian industries.

A resolution in favor of adoption of the metric system of weights and measures was adopted and a resolution was passed asking the Dominion Government to appoint a commission to report on technical education.

The association will make efforts to extend the lumber trade in the West Indies.

The following cable was sent to Sir Wm. Mulock: "Canadian Manufacturers in session convey thanks for South African steamship arrangements."

The report of the Parliamentary Committee points out that a vigilant watch was made over all legislation introduced into the Federal Parliament and provincial Legislatures during the year, and reviewed the action taken in regard to such proposed acts as affected the manufacturing interests.

In regard to the Alien Labor Act, the report said: "The present Alien Labor Act prohibits the importation of skilled labor into Canada by manufacturers except to perform labor in or upon any new industry not at present established in Canada, provided that skilled labor cannot otherwise be obtained.

No Canadian organizations is more patriotic in the employment of labor than this association, yet cases have arisen where the interests of manufacturers have suffered under the existing law because they were unable to import skilled labor which was absolutely unavailable in Canada. An effort was made by your committee to have this act amended so that skilled labor for any industry, new or already established, might be procured if the labor was not obtainable in Canada. At the suggestion of your committee a bill was introduced by Mr. John Charlton providing to strike out the words "in or upon any new industry not at present established in Canada,"

This would make it lawful for labor to be imported for any industry where a supply could not be had in Canada. Partly owing to press of business during the season, and some opposition to the measure, it was not passed, but your committee received assurance that until such a time as it became law, the present act would be so construed as not to interfere with the necessities of manufacturers. It is confidently expected that the bill will become law at the next session of Parliament.

Upon the recommendation of your committee the association strongly opposed a measure introduced during the last session of Parliament by Mr. Smith, M.P., providing for the transfer of the power to investigate and punish violations of the Alien Labor Act from the Department of Justice to that of the Minister of Labor. Your committee believe that the Department of Justice is fulfilling its functions quite satisfactorily and that there is no occasion to have this work undertaken by the Department of Labor. The bill was not passed in committee.

Reports were received from the Industrial Exhibition, and special Exhibition committees, were submitted and adopted.

The officers for the current year were elected as follows: President C. A Birge, Hamilton; vice-president, George A. Drummond, Montreal; Ontario—W. K. George, Toronto; Quebec—J. J. McGill, Montreal; Nova Scotia—D. W. Robb, Amherst, N.S.; C. J. Osman, Hillsboro, C. B.; John Hendry, Vancouver; Manitoba—E. J. Drury, Winnipeg; treasurer, George R. Booth; Executive, W. C. Breckenridge, Hamilton; A. Campbell, Toronto Junction; John Chaplin, St. Catharines; H. Cockshutt, Brantford; W. W. Cox, St. Catharines; E. B. Eddy, Hull; W. M. Gartshore, London; James Goldie, Guelph; R. Hamilton, Peterboro; Lloyd Harris, G. P. Henderson, Paris; J. Newton, Kingston; R. H. Hobson, Hamilton; G. W. McLaughlin, Oshawa; T. A. Russell, Toronto.

A resolution was passed recommending that fast line service be established between Britain and Canada second to none.

During the afternoon the members of the association with their lady friends, were taken out on an excursion on the steamer Chebucto.

Mr Tarte at the Banquet.

At the Manufacturers' banquet last night Mr. Tarte said:

The shortest route to the sea-board is destined to be the great highway not only for the commerce of Canada but of the whole American continent. The G.T.R. and the C.P.R. must work together to carry this Canadian trade. We can offer the exporters a route from the Georgian Bay to Liverpool, shorter than via New York. We must have trains from the west to the east.

Sectional differences must be laid aside. This country must be one. I believe we will have the fast line and we will have it very soon. The magnificent port of Halifax is the natural terminus of the fast line. If we have a fast line it must be best we can get. Montreal cannot be the terminal of the fast line; Halifax in winter, and Quebec in summer are the natural terminals; Montreal will supply the freight and passengers. St. John is the port for freight, but not for a fast passenger and mail service. This country must be united by cheap transportation and a strong Canadian tariff.

Our markets must no longer be slaughtered by American agricultural implement makers and our carrying trade must not be done in American bottoms and through American channels.

New Head of Sandhurst.

The Savings Bank of Health.

Is lots of red and vitalizing blood to nourish and invigorate the body. If your blood is thin and watery use "Ferrozone." It supplies the necessary elements such as phosphorous and iron, and quickly restores lost strength and spirits. Ferrozone is an unequalled restorative for the tired, the sick, and the run down; it stimulates appetite, aids digestion, soothes the nerves, and makes the system too healthy for disease to exist. No tonic does so much good in a short time as Ferrozone. Get it to-day from any druggist for 50c. per box, or six boxes for $2.50. Sold by Ormond & Walsh.

HARD COAL FAMINE.

Price Has Now Reached $9 a Ton in Jersey City—A Cargo of $6,500,000 Gold From the Klondike.

The secretary of the Percy Arctic Club, New York, has received a letter from the captain of the Windsor dated July 26, from Labrador.

As the outgrowth of the Tobacco Trust, a pipe trust, to control the manufacture and sale of all kinds of pipes in Europe, is now projected.

Jack Lossin carried a 180 lb. bag of flour from Aylmer, Ont., to Orwell without dropping it, on Tuesday, a distance of two and one-half miles.

Official returns brought from the Klondike to Vancouver, B.C., by the steamer Princess May, states that $6,500,000 gold has already been taken from creeks and shipped to the coast.

Reports from many U. S. cities show that there is a hard coal famine pretty generally throughout the States. The retail price in Jersey City is $9 a ton and orders are taken only conditionally.

The London Daily Express says that the three principal mail lines running between England and South America have combined. Tickets issued on one line are good on any of the steamers in the combination.

At Knoxville, Tenn., Rev. Whig Duncan, Baptist minister, living near Winfield, Scott County, killed John and William Tramwell, brothers, in a battle on the street there Thursday. The Tramwells attacked Duncan, whom they charged with paying too much attention to John Tramwell's wife.

Mr. Burke, Provincial Factory Inspector, has returned to Toronto from Owen Sound, where he investigated the circumstances leading to the death of Dr. Horsey, M.P., by the bursting of a fly-wheel. Evidence of various witnesses was taken by him, but no definite cause for the break was ascertained.

Hon. Mr. Harcourt, Minister of Education, has stated that definite steps will be taken in September to establish in the province a forestry school. Just exactly where it will be located was a matter now under consideration. Toronto University, School of Practical Science, Toronto; Queen's University, Kingston; Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, are each after it.

Wm. Ridley, the boy who started to beat his way on the trains to the States with Arnott White, on Monday night, is back with a lurid story that White said "Something terrible is going on at the Evans' warehouse," and that, as he could not tell on his friends, he fled. White is now probably across the border. What the "something terrible" is White did not tell him.

Nervous and Sleepless.

There is just one cure and that is plenty of food for the blood and the nerves, which is best supplied in Ferrozone, than which no blood tonic or strength producer is better. Ferrozone promotes healthy digestion, which results in improved nutrition. The blood grows rich and red, furnishes stability to the entire system, and the store of nerve force and energy increases daily. A rebuilding of the constitution, new spirits, health and strength, all come from the use of Ferrozone. This marvellous renovator is sold by druggists for 50c. a box, or six boxes for $2.50. For sale by Ormond and Walsh.

Purely Loyalist Movement.

Paris, Aug. 15.—In a Cabinet council yesterday Premier Combes said that the agitation against the closing of the schools was a purely Royalist movement. There had been grave occurrences, he said, which came within the penal laws and which would result in prosecution, instruction for which had been sent to the procurer-general.

Doctors Agreed.

Every doctor who has been shown the formula of Merrill's System Tonic has expressed great admiration for its scientific and medical ingenuity. It is a thorough blood purifier, a great muscle, blood and tissue builder, and an excellent and permanent cure for constipation. 50 pleasant-to-take doses for 50 cents. Sold at Ormond and Walsh's pharmacy.

Who Stole the Shell ?

Mrs. Robert Boys of No. 139 Lake street, called at the Examiner office yesterday to complain that while she was out boating on Little Lake the evening before, a valuable shell that she had received from the Old Country, had been stolen. The shell was one of a dozen very handsome ones Mrs. Boys prided herself in being the owner of. She complains that she has to contend with the theft of flowers etc., at various times. Mrs. Boys says that she has a good idea of who the guilty party is, and unless the shell is returned at once there will be trouble.

Along with a detailed programme of the events for Labour Day and evening, it will contain interesting views and statistics of the labour movement and the strength of the local unions. A limited number of business announcements will be inserted, and as the issue will number 5,000 copies, its circulation will be valuable as an advertising medium.

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING.

Mr. J. Alex. Culverwell Married to Miss Jessie N. Hill, of Port Hope.

Port Hope Guide.

One of the prettiest as well as most fashionable weddings that ever took place in Port Hope, was that of the Culverhill—Hill nuptials, which were solemnized [illegible] John's church at noon to-day.

The bride was Miss Jessie N. Hill, daughter of Mr. J. L. Hill, of New York, and sister of Mrs. Capt. H. H. King, of Penryn Park, whilst the groom was Mr. J. Alexander Culverwell, Manager of the Central Ontario Power Co.

Rev. E. Daniel, Rector, officiated, assisted by Rev. Dr. Symonds, of Trinity College School.

Shortly after 12 o'clock the contracting parties took their places in the church, where the impressive ceremony was performed.

Miss Winnifred King, niece of the bride, made a very pretty bridesmaid, and carried a large bouquet of pink sweet peas; while Mr. Jack Dykes of Toronto, nephew of the groom, performed the duties of groomsman.

After the ceremony the many guests departed to their homes, excepting the very intimate friends and relatives of the bridal pair, who were driven to the home of Mr. H. H. King, Penryn Park, where the wedding breakfast was served.

Their hosts of friends join in wishing the happy couple many years of happiness and prosperity.

CHOIR BOYS' CAMP.

Excellent Fishing at Pigeon Lake—The Camp a Great Success.

Alderman H. Rush, and Mr. A. A. Hollingshead came in this morning from the choir boys' camp at Jacobs Island, Pigeon Lake. They report that the boys of the camp are having a splendid time and the camp promises to be a most successful outing.

The fishing in the vicinity of the camp is excellent, and yesterday morning before breakfast four beautiful lunge were landed while a nice 18-pound lunge was caught this morning. There is also excellent bass fishing. Jacobs Island has a splendid beach for swimming and the boys take plenty of enjoyment in that line.

On Wednesday the camp was visited by about 25 members of the Masonic fraternity who were on their way to Fenelon Falls. The boys entertained them by singing several selections. The steamboat which plies between Chemong and Bobcaygeon calls daily, and the boys have therefore a daily mail service. Mr. Hollingshead will return to the camp to-morrow evening and any person desiring to send any messages or parcels may do so through Mr. Hollingshead.

Mr. Walter Wesley is the most successful fisherman of the camp.

BRINGING BACK THE T.A.S. BANNER

Rev. Dr. O'Brien's Enthusiastic Welcome Home.

THE TRIUMPHANT BANNER

The Magnificent Demonstration by the T. A. S.—A Great Procession—Address of Welcome and Congratulation—Dr. O'Brien's Reply—The Bishop's Words of Encouragement—A Notable Occasion Notably Recognised.

The circumstances attending the enthusiastic welcome last night, tendered Rev. Dr. O'Brien, Chaplain of the St. Peter's Total Abstinence Society and the banner so splendidly won at the Dubuque Convention, emphasized in a most decided manner the work done by Dr. O'Brien and the Society over which he has spiritual supervision. In noting the long procession which escorted him from the railway station, one could not help being deeply impressed with its significance. It had an eloquent meaning in that it expressed in tangible form the result of the forces at work among the Roman Catholic people of Peterborough to the promotion of temperance and sobriety. In a procession of, it seemed a thousand men, it was highly probable that many of those who were proudly walking in that procession bearing their share in celebrating the triumph of a local work for the advance of temperance sentiment and the uplifting of those fallen under the blithing influence of the intemperate use of strong drink, were a few short months ago by no means good husbands and sons, nor creditable citizens. The moral effect of this demonstration was two fold. The members themselves, no doubt, more fully realized the importance of the movement of which they were a part, and the thousands of spectators on the line of march must have been morally influenced in no uncertain way by the demonstration of the agencies at work with such palpably beneficial effects. Without a desire to make any invidious comparison, it may be hazarded that the combined forces of all other temperance organizations in Peterborough could not have gathered so impressive and large a procession of their memberships as the St. Peter's T.A.S. did last night. The demonstration will doubtless have at least this effect that it will stimulate the other temperance organizations of the town to an enviable rivalry, which, however, much as one would desire to see the work of the society exceeded, have perhaps little chance of successfully accomplishing even relatively so great a work in the Protestant portion of the community.

THE RECEPTION AND WELCOME.

The members of St. Peter's Total Abstinence Society and the affiliated juvenile organization, St. Michael's Cadets, assembled at their hall on George street at seven o'clock and, headed by the Fifty-Seventh Regimental Band, marched to the C. P. R. station to await the arrival of their popular, and more than popular, beloved, Spiritual Adviser, Rev. Dr. O'Brien, and the captured banner, the spoil of the peaceful battle at Dubuque, Iowa. The parade formed on George street, in front of the hall, and during the process the time was brightened with spirited selections of Irish airs performed by the band.

The station platform was crowded with a dense mass of people, and the streets along the line of march were also blocked with spectators. About 7.40 the train rolled into the station from the west, and the genial smile of Dr. O'Brien, as he descended to the station platform, bearing the banner which meant so much, greeted the multitude. He was presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers, no doubt the share of the ladies in the reception.

The reception committee, consisting of Messrs. John O'Brien, president, Mr. M. J. O'Brien, Provincial Separate School Inspector; Fred McGrath, Secretary; Leo Callaghan, Financial Secretary; and Jos. Begley, ex-President, together with the Cathedral Clergy, welcomed Dr. O'Brien, and escorted him to a carriage in waiting. The procession was formed, and marched up George street in the following order:

Union Jack.
57th Regt. Band.
Carriage drawn by four horses, containing Rev. Dr. O'Brien, Rev. Father McColl and Rev. J. O'Brien, and Mr. John O'Brien, President T. A. S.
Carriage containing Rev. Fathers Phelan, Young's Point; F. J. O'Sullivan, Lindsay; and Rev. T. J. Crowley, Grand Seminary, Montreal.
Carriage containing Reception Committee.
C. T. A. U. BANNER.
Guard of honour of members of T.A.S. Lacrosse Club.
St. Michael's Cadets, 100 strong.
Union Jack.
St Peter's T.A.S., 500 strong.

The marshalls of the occasion were Messrs. P. Kane, W. Crowley, C. Theobald, W. O'Brien, F. McAuliffe, H. Gainey, E. O'Brien and T. Corkery.

The line of march was up George street to Hunter, and up Hunter to St. Peter's Cathedral. The line-up was perhaps the longest society procession that has marched in Peterborough for years, and the streets along the line of march were everywhere thronged with spectators. The band was stationed in front of the Cathedral doors, and the procession which filed into the church to the enlivening strains of the "Rakes of Mallow," took a considerable time to pass the band. The members took their seats in the front half of the church, which was reserved for them, and the rest of the church was literally packed with people. As the church was filling, and the clergy entering the sanctuary Miss Annie Simons sang from the organ loft a finely executed sacred solo, "Peace be Still." The clergy present were His Lordship Bishop O'Connor, Rev. Father McColl, Rector, Rev. Father John O'Brien, Rev. Father F. J.O'Sullivan, Lindsay; Rev. Father C. J. Phelan, Young's Point; Rev. T. J. Crowley, and P. J. Kelly, Grand Seminary, Montreal.

The reception committee took their places with the banner at the altar rails, and Mr. M. J. O'Brien read the following ADDRESS.

Rev. Michael Joseph O'Brien, D. D., Chaplain of St. Peter's Total Abstinence Society:

Rev. Dear Father,—The members of St. Peter's Total Abstinence Society are assembled this evening to welcome you on your return home from the Convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union, which was held during the past week in the City of Dubuque. We wish also to extend to you our warm congratulations on having secured the banner of the Union, as the representative of that branch, which, during the past year, has made the greatest increase in membership, and, accordingly, the most marked advancement in the holy cause of temperance. We further desire to give some expression—though in a feeble way perhaps—of our esteem for you, and of our recognition of your labours amongst us, since you were raised to the Priesthood and particularly since you were appointed Chaplain of our Society.

Born and bred amongst us, the work you have accomplished and the esteem you have won, forbid us to regard you as an exemplification of the adage that a prophet shall be without honour in his own country; in you the old proverb is happily refuted. As a youth you gave promise of a holy life, and of a future which should be given up to the service of God and, to the welfare of your fellow man, and although yet young in the Priesthood, the expectations of your early admirers have been more than realized, and the promises of your younger years are being abundantly fulfilled. By your ordination you have accepted the responsibility of devoting yourself to the care of those souls whose spiritual welfare you might be charged with from time to time. But you do not confine yourself to the letter of any duty, nor to the literal discharge of any obligation. While the things that are spiritual have your first attention, and your deepest consideration, you have not been unmindful of our material interests, nor of those things which contribute to our intellectual and social well-being.

Less than three years ago this organization was first contemplated by your worthy and zealous predecessor—Rev. F. O'Sullivan. Under his fostering influence and inspiring instruction it soon took shape and grew in earnestness and in numbers until he was called to another field of labour. Taking up the duties in connection with the Society which by his removal he was necessarily compelled to relinquish, you have not only worked to increase the membership, but you have left nothing undone to make the Society attractive, and to render it, socially and intellectually, worthy of the great work which it is seeking to accomplish. Even in the Athletic Department where young men are encouraged to engage in the more vigorous kinds of out-door amusements, the influence of your presence is felt in the direction of cultivating better and more manly types of character, and destroying the petty jealousies and heart-burnings that are too often the outcome of the rivalries of field games.

But your zeal in our interests and in the cause of the good work to which you have so earnestly devoted yourself does not end here. In season and out of season you have preached the virtue of temperance; privately you have, by exhortation and kindly entreaty, secured the ear and the heart of those who were deaf and cold to the instructions from the pulpit; no hour of day or night; no place, no condition of things was considered by you unsuitable or unseasonable for the work you had in hand, and the thirteen hundred names that have been added to our list of members during the past year, gave abundant testimony as to how effectively and successfully you have laboured.

The banner which you have wrested from the representatives of the great temperance societies of this continent, and which you have borne home so triumphantly to-night, is indeed a source of much pride—we hope a pardonable pride—to us all, yet it symbolizes, but in a very weak way indeed, the great good that has been done among us since the inauguration of this society. We have all co-operated with you in the endeavour to secure it, and we all rejoice with you in the victory that has been won, yet we all realize as you do that such things are but baubles light as air when compared with virtuous lives, peaceful homes and happy firesides, and to the thrift and industry and prosperity that can come only to a truly sober people.

In conclusion, Rev. Dear Father, we again extend to you a hearty welcome, and we congratulate you most cordially on the success which has crowned your zeal in the cause of Total Abstinence. May we ask that you will still continue your watchful solicitude for this society and for its best and truest interests, and that we may participate in the intentions of your good offices and particularly during the Holy Sacrifice of the Altar.

Signed on behalf of St. Peter's Total Abstinence Society.
Peterborough, Aug. 14th, 1902.

REV. DR. O'BRIEN'S REPLY.

Rev. Dr. O'Brien, who in spite of the elation and satisfaction natural to the occasion, was deeply moved, in reply said, that there were times when no matter how full of feeling one was it was impossible to give it expression, and such was the present time. He was grateful for the magnificent reception and the kind address given, not so much on his own account as on account of the victory the banner represented. He congratulated the society which had won the banner—the victory was their's. He then spoke of the keenness of the competition—1,000 societies—some of them in large centres of population. It was due to the work of the society. He referred to its rapid growth till now its membership was over 1,600. He congratulated them upon their splendid increase made, not so much on winning the banner as upon the noble work done in promoting temperance which was doing the will of God. The society deserved the highest credit. The banner won represented a greater victory than that won by warriors The latter won victories over others, but the members of the society had won a greater victory. They had conquered themselves, overcome their passions and appetites. The winning of the banner was not his work, he was only the instrument of bringing it to them. None could do much without the grace of God, and the help of others. The bond of charity, the greatest of the graces, impelled us to help one another. Dr. O'Brien then referred to the growth of the society. It had been started two years ago under a good and devoted priest and with the good will and favour of their beloved bishop. It had grown. This growth among other causes was due to the noble influence of the devoted women of the parish. Women are united in doing work for God. So great had been the increase of the society last year that so great an increase this year could not be expected, because the members not already enrolled in the society were less. But they would not rest in the good work till every man, woman and child in the parish were bright under the banner of total abstinence. This was not a question of mere sentimentality. Temperance was not a matter of sentiment, but a matter of duty. Man was separated by reason and higher instincts, from the brute creation, but the separation ceased when man became a slave to drink, and lowered himself to the level of the brute. Temperance was a matter of reason. Reason and nature would dictate temperance, even without the light of divine revelation. Dr. O'Brien went on to point out that total abstinence was the only safety—the first glass led the way to the downward path—this was the principal cause of drunkenness. The work and stand of the T.A.S. was wiping out the false idea that a man could safely take a glass or do without it. This was not a mere theory but a fact that was demonstrated every day. In view of the terrible danger to home, wife and family, a man should not take the great risk involved in the first glass. Total abstinence was not necessarily so good in itself, but it saved men from the fate of the drunkard, dying in drink, unable to make an act of contrition, or ask for God's mercy. He hoped the present demonstration would mark a starting point for greater effort. It was sad to see fathers of families hold aloof from this society. They were asked if they wanted to see their children become drunkards for lack of the good example the fathers might set. The importance the Scriptures placed

SOLD IN BUYING.

Light on the Dark Ways of Some Bric-a-Brac Dealers.

For ways that are dark and tricks that are as ingenious as they are dishonest, said a well-known collector of antiques, the heathen Chinee might well take lessons from some of our dealers in bric-a-brac. In fact, some of their tricks are so clever that even an expert may at times be deceived, while the average purchaser runs the greatest chance of being sold.

This is, perhaps, especially the case in antique furniture for which there is such a craze nowadays that the demand far outstrips the legitimate supply, and nothing is more certain than that the supply will never be allowed to fail so long as the demand exists.

The truth is that there is very little genuine old furniture to be picked up nowadays, and the dealer must either turn away good customers or fabricate the furniture, an amiable art in which he excels. For example, a man will pick up an antiquated bedstead for a few shillings in a country cottage, and will fashion from it an antique cabinet which would deceive anyone but a connoisseur, and quickly find a purchaser for it for, perhaps £30 or £40. By means of sulphuric acid and French polish he will make it as black as ebony, and a few minutes with a shotgun, he will riddle it with wormholes, in a most artistic and realistic manner.

In this way an old chest of drawers or an old wardrobe can be converted into a costly piece of furniture which has every appearance of being a well-preserved example of sixteenth or seventeenth century work, and by a little manipulation a single genuine piece of old furniture can be converted into quite a number of pieces, each of which will fetch many times the cost of the original.

A favorite method of disposing of these furniture frauds is to send them to remote country cottages, where their custodian, coached for the purpose, will explain to the unsuspecting collector that they have "been in the family for centuries." The collector has no reason even to suspect this statement, which the circumstances all seem to corroborate, and he adds a few bogus treasures to his collection and congratulates himself on his luck.

Occasionally the dealer discovers quite a treasure house of real ancient furniture in some out-of-the-way-corner of the world. Probably its owner knows little of its real value, and regards it no better than lumber. When, therefore, the dealer approaches him and offers to refurnish his house in the latest style in exchange for the "rubbish" to which he has "taken a fancy," the rustic is more likely than not to consent, and thinks for once he has outwitted a townsman. He little knows that all his brave new furniture is not worth a twentieth part of the "lumber" he has so gladly got rid of.

The purchaser of old silver is quite as likely to be deceived as the buyer of antique furniture. A common plan is to cut the mark out of some small piece of genuine old silver, such as a spoon, and introduce it skillfully into a large piece of very modern metal, the value of which is thus increased immensely. This very common fraud would easily impose on any but an expert, who would detect the imposition at once when he observed the difference in color between the dark old silver and the whiteness of the modern metal, or the smallness of the mark in relation to the size of the piece of plate. This transference of marks from old to new silver is the commonest of all traps for the unwary, and purchasers should be on their guard against it.

One would think that ancient armor would be sacred from the arts of the "forger," but I can assure you that very many of the suits which are proudly pointed out as having been "worn by one of my ancestors at Otterbourne or Agincourt," were not even in existence a dozen years ago. These old suits of armor and ancient weapons are turned out wholesale at certain factories on the continent.

Fortunes, too, are made by supplying ancient tapestry which, faded and discolored, ragged and patched, has all the appearance of having been worked by the hands of chatelaines half a dozen centuries ago. In truth, it would be the easiest thing in the world to fill your house with antiques of all kinds, costing thousands of pounds, not a single one of which would be anything but a fraud.—London Mail.

Tweed, Aug. 14.—There were 770 cheese boarded; 200 sold at 9 11-16c; balance unsold; Magrath, buyer.

ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER.

ABOU BEN ADHEM.

Abou Ben Adhem (may his tribe increase!)
Awoke one night from a deep dream of peace
And saw within the moonlight in his room,
Making it rich and like a lily in bloom,
An angel writing in a book of gold.
Exceeding peace had made Ben Adhem bold,
And to the Presence in the room he said,
"What writest thou?" The vision raised its head
And with a look that made of all sweet accord
Answered, "The names of those who love the Lord."
"And is mine one?" said Abou. "Nay, not so,"
Replied the angel. Abou spoke more low,
But cheerily still, and said, "I pray, then,
Write me as one who loves his fellowmen."
The angel wrote and vanished. The next night
It came again with a great awakening light
And showed the names whom love of God has blessed,
And, lo, Ben Adhem's name led all the rest!

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Parker's First Stories.

Gilbert Parker said of his first attempt at authorship: "I went to Archibald Forbes, with whom I was acquainted, to have him give me a note to the Macmillans, as I wanted to see whether they would not bring out a book of short stories for me. He read the stories and then invited me around to dine, to give me the letter of introduction and his opinion of the stories. 'I have read your sketches,' he said, after dinner, 'and I must say this of them—I have never seen such a fine collection of titles in my life.' 'There, don't say another word, Mr. Forbes,' I said. 'I understand perfectly. Each title suggests a complete idea which the story fails to carry out. I understand perfectly.' Thereupon I went home and burned every one of them. Then I sat down and wrote the first of the 'Pierre' series, which was the beginning of whatever successes I ever had."

Hard Lessons in Good Manners.

School chaff is wholesome in most cases, but it may cramp what should not be cramped. As to the chaff which a man gives and gets at a university, however, we do not think there can be two opinions. It must do good, and it has not the opportunity of doing harm. Only those receive it who lay themselves open to receive it. The quiet man who wishes to read or to think apart need hardly ever come into contact with his fellows unless he so chooses. The swaggering or bumptious man, the opinionated man, the offensive man—these are certain to be chaffed, and the chaff usually goes home; not at once perhaps, but it usually gets there in the end with satisfactory consequences. The personal remark may be rude, but rudeness is often a very salutary weapon. It is certainly one of the most valuable instruments of English education. Indeed it may seem a strange thing to say, but it is surely true that continued experience of calculated, formularized and well intentioned rudeness teaches people to be polite.—London Spectator.

Sore Feet

Chafed, Blistered, Burning, Swollen Feet Soothed, Healed and Cured by

Dr. Chase's Ointment.

You may know of the exceptional merit of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and still not think of using it for sore feet. It is remarkably effective for this trouble, which is so annoying to many people during the warm weather.

Mrs. J. Brunton, Allandale, Ont., states:—"I can recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment as a sure cure for sore feet. I stand a great deal on my feet, and have been troubled for some time with chafing and blisters. My toes were often raw and very painful.

"I had tried nearly everything recommended for sore feet, but Dr. Chase's Ointment is the only remedy that did me any real good. It soothed the burning and stinging, and thoroughly healed and cured the sores."

THE SKY WATCHERS

SKILLFUL MEN WHO RECORD INTERESTING DOINGS OF NATURE.

In the Observatory Dome in Queen's Park, Toronto—Earth Disturbances Photographed—Also the Record of the State of the Weather—How the Temperature of the Weather Is Taken—Some of the Mystic Work of Mr. Stupart and His Assistants.

Recording earth tremors and other disturbances due to subterraneous causes, photographing the state of the temperature, measuring the velocity of the wind, and recording its direction, and keeping the correct time by the stars, are a few of the interesting things being done constantly at the Observatory in Queen's Park, says a writer in the Toronto World. The building in which this valuable work is being accomplished is a modest one, ensconced in a spot with a grove-like semblance, and the unpretentious appearance of which is accentuated by the magnificent university buildings surrounding. That the splendid instruments used in connection therewith should be hidden in such an antiquated pile is a wonder that impresses itself forcibly upon the ordinary visitor, to say nothing of the cramped condition of the apartments provided for the officials.

In fact, it is freely admitted that a new structure should be erected for the carrying on of this most important branch of Government work, in accordance with some of the latest and improved designs. Any person going through the Observatory, comes away with that idea. Of course the officials say nothing about any requirements in this respect, feeling probably that it is not their place to do so, and would probably decline were they requested.

It is in the dark cellar where the work involving the application of photography is carried on. This includes the recording of earthquakes by the seismograph—an instrument which is most simple in construction. It consists only of a thin steel rod, or a horizontal pendulum with one end in a pivot and the other supported by a silk cord, coming down from the perpendicular bar, or pole, at the base of which the pivot referred to is attached. In this position the pendulum is highly sensitive to the least movement or tremor, which makes it oscillate, and being placed on a solid cement pillar which penetrates a considerable depth, and therefore, any movement of the latter causes it to swing from one side to the other. The protuding end of the pendulum is constantly casting a shadow on a roll of bichromide paper, the shadow being caused by a gas light, and, as the roll goes slowly around the shadow is photographed upon the paper in a straight line. Whenever any oscillation of the pendulum takes place, the straight line is broken in the photograph. By reason of the regular movement of the paper the exact time that the line is broken is automatically recorded, thus giving the length of the time of the shake or quiver. The recent earthquake at Guatemala was recorded quite distinctly, but nothing was recorded on the occasion of the Martinique disaster, showing that it was unaccompanied by any severe shock. Similar instruments are located in different countries in such a way as to completely encircle the world, so that the extent of any disturbance can be recorded.

In the same way the lowering and raising of the mercury in a barometer is photographed, showing the state of the temperature the whole time.

Another compartment above is utilized for taking astronomical observations, the principal one of these being for keeping the correct time, Mr. F. Blake has a good share of the work to do in this connection, and every day that the sky is clear he sets the two largest clocks in an adjoining compartment to where the telescope is, by the movement of the stars. He has the Greenwich almanac, giving the minute and second that such and such a star crosses the zenith, and, in looking into the instrument, he can see the star appear in the shape of a small white light and move across the line in the telescope, denoting the zenith. He touches an electric button attached to one of the clocks referred to, stopping it on the instant, and he then checks the time of the other clock with it. It is the other clock that the official time is given from. The correct time is telegraphed to Montreal every day, and on it the clocks at the different railway stations are set. The mid-day gongs in the different fire stations are also rung by means of an electric connection.

An interesting feature of the work is the taking of observations with the larger telescope in the upper portion of the building, which is done shaped. The dome revolves on wheels, so that observations can be taken easily in any part of the heavens.

A circular glass ball is kept outside of this dome with a strip of marked paper underneath for the purpose of telling how many hours of sunshine there are in the day. While the sun shines the paper is scorched underneath and whenever a cloud appears a gap is caused in the burnt line.

The velocity of the wind is registered by an anemograph, an electrical instrument connected with an anamometer, an instrument set on top of an adjacent building which consists simply of a number of inverted aluminum cups that revolve with the force of the wind. Every mile the cups revolve is indicated by the anenometer in the building.

It is understood that Mr. Stupart, the director, has a suggestion to make shortly with a view to increasing the efficiency of the work, although at present it is generally regarded to be a high standard, considering the means at the disposal of the officials.

MOORE'S POEMS.

Still Almost as Popular as When the Poet Was in the Flesh.

The Irish melodies and national songs of Thomas Moore still enjoy a popularity almost as widespread as in the days when he shared with Lord Byron the honor of being the most popular poet of his generation. His longer poems have not stood the test of time so well, though "Lalla Rookh," with its wealth of eastern imagery and detail, is still read and admired by many, as are also his satirical papers and lampoons collected under the title of the "Twopenny Post Bag," and his biographies, including one of his friend Lord Byron. Moore, who was born at Dublin in 1779, was the son of an humble Dublin grocer, and even in his earliest youth wrote poems of no mean merit. When he went to London in early manhood his engaging social gifts, his charming personality and the sweetness with which he sang his own songs gained him almost instant admission to the highest society, and he retained the love and respect of hundreds of friends and acquaintances until his death in 1852. His health completely failed in 1845, and he wrote nothing for publication after that year. Above everything else Moore was a patriotic Irishman, and his national songs and ballads vibrate with love of country and are tinged also with that strain of pathos which seems to be inseparable from all Irish poetry. "The Minstrel Boy," "The Harp That Once Through Tara's Hall," and other songs may be instanced in support of this. One of the best known of his songs and one which was a particular favorite with the poet is "The Last Rose of Summer," which follows:

'Tis the last rose of summer
Left blooming alone;
All her lovely companions
Are faded and gone;
No flower of her kindred,
No rosebud is nigh,
To reflect back her blushes,
Or give sigh for sigh.

I'll not leave thee, thou lone one!
To pine on the stem;
Since the lovely are sleeping,
Go, sleep thou with them.
Thus kindly I scatter
Thy leaves o'er the bed,
Where thy mates of the garden
Lie scentless and dead.

So soon may I follow,
When friendships decay,
And from love's shining circle
The gems drop away!
When true hearts lie withered,
And fond ones are flown,
O who would inhabit
This bleak world alone?

THE TWO MOTHERS.

Great mother of the proudest race,
Save one, that ever drew the sword,
Who gatherest now with smiling face
Thy sons around the festal board,

From lands that see the Northern lights
Shine splendid over wastes of snow,
From lands where throught the summer nights
The stars like fiery crescets glow.

From East and West, o'er sand and flood,
Descendants of a mighty line,
And proud to claim their right of blood
As thou to call them sons of thine.

They came to crown the new-made King,
To share the plaudits of the throng,
And in their loyal hearts to bring
The strength that makes the empire strong.

O, happy mother, open wide
The gates of rock that front the foam,
And welcome with rejoicing pride
Thy children to their ancient home.

But all the pomp, the pride, the joy,
Ring strange and hollow unto me!
They cannot give me back my boy
Who sleeps beside the Southern Sea.
—B. Paul Neuman, in The Spectator.

DEFOE'S PREVISION.

His Description of an Imaginary Eruption at St. Vincent.

The terrible news from St. Vincent, following the impression that this island had escaped the volcanic deluge which has cremated half Martinique, at once recalls and reverses the famous hoax by which Daniel Defoe led all London to believe, in 1718, that the whole island of St. Vincent had been blown up and obliterated. On the basis of his own imagination, or on some thin ship story, Defoe wrote in 'Mist's Journal' a circumstantial account of the destruction of this island, giving such details as, with all our facilities of news transmission, we wait for in vain to-day. After leading up very gradually to the catastrophe, he told his readers that, 'on the night of the said 26th, about Midnight, the whole Island of St. Vincent rose up in the Air, with a most dreadful eruption of Fire from underneath the Earth, and an inconceivable Noise in the Air at its rising up, that it was not only blown up, but blown out of the very sea, with a dreadful force, as it were torn up by the Roots, or blown up from the Foundations of the Earth.' Finally, to bring the event home to its readers, he recalled an incident in a foundry in Moorfields, where a quantity of liquid gunmetal coming into contact with some water had blown up the works—just as a journalist of today might recall the recent destructive fire in the same district as to suggest, however, faintly, the storm of fire which swept over these hapless islands recently.—London Academy.

The Landed Thunderer.

In an old copy of Bradshaw's Guide to London (1857) I read that a visit to the office of The Times during the time the "huge machine" is at work, casting off its impressions, at the rate of 170 copies a minute—10,200 an hour—will present a sight not easily to be forgotten. "The average daily circulation is 32,000, and the value of the advertisement is estimated at $550 per page of six columns. The duties paid to the Government, for paper, advertisements and stamps alone, amount to $475,000 annually. This stupendous establishment employs 300 people daily on its premises. Scarcely an event can occur anywhere of which its emissaries are not prepared to supply the earliest and fullest account." The first number of The Times appeared on January 1, 1788.

Compare the great city newspaper of to-day with The Thunderer of 45 years ago. Circulation, 350,000, and presses that print 96,000 sheets an hour!

The Policeman's Evidence.

Policeman Peter Morris, Toronto, says that for years he was troubled with habitual constipation and although he spent much money for medicine was only disappointed with the results. He now recommends Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to his friends, because it cured him of this troublesome ailment. You can be cured of this trouble by this treatment. One pill a dose; 25c a box.

Hope for Him.

A young probationer was preaching his trial sermon in the church in one of the inland villages of Scotland. After finishing the "discourse" he leaned over the pulpit and engaged in silent prayer—an act which surprised the congregation, which was unaccustomed to such procedure. Suddenly the young preacher felt some one slapping him on the shoulder, and, on turning round, he beheld a grave and sympathetic elder, who remarked: "Hoot, man, dinna tak' it sae muckle to hert; ye'll maybe dae better next time."—Pearson's Weekly.

A Complicated Machine

is an object of admiration, but a complicated medicine is a thing hitherto unknown. Druggist Merrill of Brantford has combined iron and herbs and made a marvellous blood cleanser and purifier, as well as a tonic for the nerves. Effects a radical cure in stomach, nerve, liver and kidney troubles. The fifty cent bottle lasts three weeks. Sold by Ormond and Walsh.

FROM LAKEFIELD TO COBOCONK.

A Correspondent Writes of Kawartha's Charms.

HOLIDAY OUTING DESCRIBED

The Beauties of Stony Lake—Various Portages—Many Side Trips.

Kawartha—a simple, easy-flowing Indian name that signifies nothing to the uninitiated. But to one who has been under the influence of its charm it means everything that is healthful, life-giving and beautiful.

There are many ways of receiving the benefits of this charming region. One can start at Lakefield at the one end or Coboconk at the other and traverse the entire chain of lakes by the fine steamers of the Trent Valley Navigation Company; one may spend a week or so at any of the numerous hotels or boarding houses which are scattered along the route; or, if out for roughing it, pitch once tent along the shores and be ones own master. But, to really enjoy the full benefit and see all that is to be seen, get a friend and a canoe with tent, bedding and provisions and paddle the seventy miles from Lakefield to Coboconk. In this way the numerous interesting creeks and bays which abound can be fully explored.

Starting from Lakefield, a busy little place nine miles north of Peterborough and reached by the Grand Trunk Railway, we enter Lake Ketchawanooka, six miles long, which is the first of the Kawartha Lakes. At the head of the Lake is the Village of Young's Point and here, unless we happen to find a steamer about to look through, we have our first portage, if a mere matter of carrying our outfit round the lock may be called a portage. Here we can replenish the provision-box as in fact we can all along the route which is a great convenience as we need keep very little on hand, and can have everything fresh besides greatly reducing the weight of the load, and after one or two portages the weight of the load and how to reduce it will become a burning question.

Leaving Young's Point behind we enter Clear Lake, so called on account of its remarkable lack of the islands which dot the other lakes. The possibilities for sailing are excellent here but the shores are not very suitable for camping. At the northern end, however, where the islands of Stony Lake commence, there are some first rate camping grounds. At the entrance to Stony Lake we encounter some of the finest scenery on the trip, and the wise man will make up his mind to return and spend at least a week on this gem of Canadian Lakes. Our route lies across the south-eastern end of the lake to Burleigh, but two days could be spent to advantage here taking in the beauties of the many creeks that flow into and out of Stony Lake. Eel's Creek is seven or eight miles from the entrance to the Lake, but the falls are truly magnificent. White Lake and Indian River, which drain Stony into Rice Lake; Jack's Creek and Fairy Lake are all worth the trouble of finding them. The latter is particularly interesting, being a small lake in the middle of an island and having no visible inlet or outlet, and yet being some feet above the level of the surrounding lake. But to dilate on the beanties of Stony Lake would take a volume.

At Burleigh we have a portage of some two hundred yards and after reaching the upper level we must not miss a view of Burleigh Falls and Perry's Creek, the two outlets of Lovesick Lake into Stony. The canal locks are also an interesting sight, where there is a lift of fifty-two feet. Continuing our trip we enter Lovesick Lake to which a fantastic legion of an Indian lover has been attached, probably by some enterprising guide-book manufacturer. Here the advance of civilisation has sadly marred the beauties of nature, as the damming up of the waters at Burleigh has so drowned the land that, what must once have been one of the prettiest of the lakes is now almost a mass od dead trees. At the upper end of the lake, however, this is not so evident and there is a charming view from the lockhouse where Mr. MacFarlane, the genial lock-master, has made for himself a beautiful place out of what was almost a wilderness a year or two ago. At Lovesick lock we find a set of rollers to pull our canoe over the dam, which is only two or three feet high. Before the dam was built there was a treacherous rapid at this point where many a canoe has upset, sometimes with fatal results. A short distance from Lovesick we come in sight of Deer Bay, a beautiful stretch of water lined with high and impressive cliffs. Our course, however, lies across the mouth of the bay entering Deer Lake, a short paddle up which brings us to Buckhorn, where we have another portage of two or three hundred yards. Two interesting side trips in this vicinity are Bucks Lake and Missisauqua Creek.

We now enter Buckhorn Lake where the scenery changes considerably. In place of small rocky islands and wild shores we see well cultivated land and larger islands, with massive foliage, making the scenery of the lake almost identical with that of the St. Lawrence River. To the south lies Chemong or Mud Lake, where a number of people, mostly from Peterborough, have summer cottages. Chemong Park is only a distance of six miles from Peterborough. There is also a first class hotel at Chemong, which is on the route of the T.V.N.Co steamers. Our course, however, lies along the northern shore of Buckhorn Lake, to Gannon's Narrows, about nine miles from Buckhorn, where we enter Pigeon Lake, one of the largest of the chain.

At the head of Pigeon Lake we come to Bobcaygeon, "the hub of the Kawarthas," and the headquarters of the T.V.N.C. This is a favourite resort for fishermen, as some of the best fishing in the lakes is to be had here, and the hotel accommodation is excellent. A portage is again avoided by the welcome rollers, and we enter Sturgeon Lake. A ten mile paddle brings us to Sturgeon Point, one of the most popular resorts for cottagers, who come from all parts of Ontario. This resort is more convenient to Toronto than any other point on the lakes.

About two miles from Sturgeon Point we enter the picturesque Fenelon River, which will not soon be forgotten, and after a short battle with the current, arrive at Fenelon Falls, where we encounter another portage, this time a rather nasty one up a steep hill. The view up the Fenelon River with the Falls in the distance is one that has few equals in the whole lakes.

A two mile paddle across Cameron Lake, where we see a number of fine summer residences, brings us to the Gull River, a winding stream that brings us to Balsam Lake—last but by any means least, of the Kawarthas. The scenery here is magnificent, and with feelings of regret we paddle our last six miles to Coboconk, the end of our seventy mile trip through the Kawartha Lakes, and no one can say that there is any finer or more varied scenery in Canada.

From Coboconk, we take the train for Gravenhurst, fifty miles, and continue our trip through the famous Muskoka Lakes, where the scenery is, if anything, grander, but not as varied. A description of this delightful region will probably follow later.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

Concord, N. H., Aug. 14.—An eminent lawyer of Baltimore, Maryland, John Henry Keene, has recently written and published a wonderful booklet entitled "Christian Science and its Enemies." In this he startingly condemns the pulpit's unjust attacks upon Rev. Mary Baker G. Eddy and Christian Science.

A representative of the press called on Mrs. Eddy to enquire as to her endorsement of this book. In reply she said: "Upon reading the grand preface of Mr. Keene's book, I laid it aside from lack of time just then, and sent my compliments to the author with an order for said books. After perusing his book thoroughly, I changed my opinion, not of the author's talents, scolarship, and high intent (although I have never seen him) but of the advisability of publishing the book, and immediately requested the parties to discontinue publishing it in its present form of treating the subject. I did this, solely, because the author's vehemence in denouncing the pulpit's furious attacks upon me was not consonant with my Christian sentiment. It is written of our great Master whose life and teachings furnish my model that "When he was reviled he reviled not again."

DATE FIXED FOR REMOVAL.

Only Five Days Longer of LeBrun's Reduction Sale.

We will close the store we now occupy on Monday, the 18th instant, and begin business in our handsome new premises with entrances on George and Hunter streets. We will not tell you just now how complete an establishment our new home is going to be, but the store is rapidly approaching completion and permanent settlement, and in ten days every floor and section will be in shipshape order. What you ought to know just now is that we are making the last days of our Removal and Reduction Sale so important to every man, youth and boy that to overlook its advantages would be a serious mistake. The prices, as well as the qualities, tell the story of unusual saving opportunities offered in the buying of whole suits and parts of suits, as well as cloths for making up suits to order. Great specials in underwear, hosiery, shirts, etc. Prices are low enough to make it an object to buy ahead for future use. Everything in the store has been put on the bargain list, as we would rather sacrifice than have the trouble to move or carry over the goods. Don't fail to come, as you have never before seen such bargains in a clothing store. H. LeBRUN & CO.

Foresters' Civic Holiday Excursion.

For cheapness, speed, comfort, enjoyment, and seeing something worth seeing, the Foresters' excursion on the Civic holiday must be voted a good one. By the splendid coaches of the C.P.R. the excursionist is whirled on his way to Toronto. Here the splendid steamers, Chicora, Chippewa and Corona are taken for Queenstown, a fine sail across the lake and up the beautiful Niagara river to the historic points of interest. Here the electric cars on the Canadian side are taken, and the excursionist skirts the Canadian bank of the river, which, with its magnificent scenery is always in sight, the open cars halting at all points of interest, such as the stupendous whirlpool, the bridges, Victoria Niagara Falls Park, etc. Those who wish can linger at the Falls, where the beauty of the surroundings will take all the time at their disposal. The Falls never grow old or lose their beauty. Those wishing to go to Buffalo can buy a return ticket at Niagara Falls, per electric line, for an extra half dollar, good for three days. This is only a hint at the attractions of the of the route. Now for cheapness. Return tickets for the trip are, to Toronto, $2.05; to Niagara Falls, $2.20. Toronto tickets good for two days; Niagara Falls tickets good for three days. 3d upon example was referred to, and it was declared a sin for a father of a family to hold himself aloof. Taking the total abstinence pledge was not a sign of weakness; it was harder to say "No" to temptation. Those who had the courage to say "No" had conquered themselves. In conclusion, Dr. O'Brien prayed God's blessing upon the society. He regretted that all the members were not at the convention to see prelates and priests from all parts of the United States working so earnestly for the cause of total abstinence. The convention would be at Pittsburg next year, and he urged greater activity, not so much to win the banner, which generally remained with one society only one year, but to bring every member of the parish into the society. Reference was made to the strength of the society in Pennsylvania, in the coal strike region, and the comparative lack of violence and disorder, was due to the large total abstinence element among the miners. Total abstinence was not only a virtue, but a requisite in business, where sobriety was the demand. The Bishop and the Rector had given every help and encouragement to the local society, and that was an incentive to go to work with new energy. They should never say they had done their whole duty till they laid down their weapons at last. Rev. Dr. O'Brien concluded with a prayer for the success of St. Peter's Total Abstinence Society.

THE BISHOP'S REMARKS.

His Lordship then briefly addressed the society and the great congregation. It was a great pleasure to him to see so large a demonstration, and the great reception given to Dr. O'Brien, who returned with the banner, which did not represent a material, but a moral victory, implied in so large a number during the year being enrolled in the ranks of the society. The members had experienced the good done to their moral and physical condition and to their families. He was greatly gratified at the progress of the society, and gave it every encouragement. Temperance was absolutely essential to spiritual and temperal progress. Intemperance neutralised the most brilliant talents. The local society had set a great example, its fame had gone abroad and they should see that they lived up to their good name. His Lordship paid an earnest tribute to the zeal and earnestness of the Rev. Dr. O'Brien, the Chaplain of the society. He had thrown his whole heart and energy into the work, and the Bishop hoped that they would continue to second his efforts. His Lordship closed his gracious address by praying God's blessing upon the members and their families and that their good work would continue to prosper.

Then followed the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament intoned by his Lordship. The full choir was present and during the service the solo in the "Tantum Ergo," of Riga, was sung by Miss L. Hallihan, and the "O Salutaris" was sung by Miss Lily Hurley.

The banner was placed on the altar, and it will remain exposed in the church till next annual convention of the union. It is a beautiful work of art, about two by three feet, of silk, fringed with gold bullion and handsomely hand-painted. On one side is a portrait of Father Matthew, the Apostle of Temperance.

There was a great rally at the society's rooms after the demonstration. Young and old assembled and hearty congratulations were exchanged. The younger element adjourned to the concert hall where an impromptu musical programme was presented and social enjoyment prevailed till 12 o'clock. During the evening a resolution was passed thanking the ladies for their kindness to the T. A. S. Lacrosse Club.

In this connection it may be interesting to reprint the references of the Catholic Register to St. Peter's T. A. S., under the heading, "A Notable Distinction":

> Peterborough, and especially the Catholic people of that progressive and enlightened young city, have reason to be proud of the distinction won by Rev. Dr. O'Brien's temperance society at the International convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America, which has just been held at Dubuque, Iowa. Peterborough won the banner awarded to the society showing the largest increase of membership for the year. Not only does the banner come to Canada, but it comes with honourable mention in the report of the Secretary, Rev. A. P. Doyle, of New York. The year was a remarkably successful one for the society at large, and on this account the record made by a Canadian city affords all the more reason for congratulation. We extract the following paragraphs from the report:
> "This last year, however, has been a most notable year for the victories that have been won. The ordinary natural growth of our organization has been about 3,000 a year; one year, and that was the Jubilee year, the addition to our membership was 9,913, but this last year we have pledged and organized into societies and affiliated with the National Union, over 10,000 new recruits—in actual figures 10,436. And were it not for the shrinkages in some of the older unions, we might have had the pleasure of counting the year 1902 as the most phenomenal year in the history of temperance work. The decreases so offset our gains that our net progress in actual membership is 5,166.
> "Canada is again coming into line. There is an apostle of the right kind at Peterborough. Dr. O'Brien, of the cathedral of Peterborough, comes here to-day with societies of 1,500 and more, the fruit of his own labours. The inauguration of these Peterborough societies means the spread of a larger and wider movement throughout Canada."

LACROSSE.

Hastings and the T.A.S. lacrosse teams will again cross sticks on Thursday next at Father McCloskey's picnic at Campbellford.

The warning of the C.A.A.U. sent out to those who played against Griffiths and Barney Quinn has only tended to show the keepers of track athletics how powerless they are to interfere in that which is none of their business. Port Hope played against Oshawa and Barney Quinn without a murmur. St. Kitts lined up against Tecumsehs and Harry Griffiths cheerfully and gladly. It is reported though that Brantford do not like the re-appearance of Griffiths any too well and that they sent a wire to St. Kitts before the game warning them not to play against Griffiths. And if all reports are true the answer that Brantford got was almost in the nature of a snub. It read, "Let Brantford mind her own business and St. Catharines will mind hers."—Telegram.

G.T.R. AFTER CLOVER LEAF.

Said to Want Line to Control Canadian Southwest Traffic.

Chicago, Aug 16—The Record-Herald says: There was a well defined rumor in railway circles yesterday that the Grand Trunk was after the Toledo, St. Louis and Western road, better known as the Clover Leaf. It was stated that the purpose of the deal was to place the Grand Trunk in the heart of affairs in St. Louis.

The Clover Leaf delivers at Toledo a large amount of traffic desired for Canadian points and some for export by way of Canadian routes. The acquisition of the road by the Grand Trunk would give the latter all of this traffic from the Southwest over the Clover Leaf whereas it now gets but a small portion of it. To connect the two systems would require the building of a short line of road unless the tracks of the Detroit and Southern were used by the Grand Trunk between Malinta and Detroit.

THE KING AT OSBORNE

WHERE VICTORIA'S COFFIN STOOD

City of Portsmouth Congratulates the King, Who Makes a Feeling Reply—Deeply Touched by People's Loyalty and Affection During Recent Events—The King's Busy Day at Portsmouth.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Aug. 16. — King Edward's reply to an address from the city of Portsmouth Thursday was handed to the Mayor of Portsmouth yesterday. On behalf of himself and Queen Alexandra, His Majesty thanks the city for its congratulations on his coronation, the recovery of his health and the conclusion of peace, and adds:

"We are unfeignedly thankful for the mercies which it has pleased Almighty God to vouchsafe to us and to our people, and we trust, now that we are happily at peace with all the world, that the recent rejoicings, wherein the whole Empire shared, may send us forward, each in his own station, to work with renewed earnestness for the maintenance and improvement of our noble heritage and the accomplishment of the ends that become a great people. For myself, I shall ever be stimulated in my exertions for the welfare of the Empire by the ineffaceable recollection of a tribute of loyalty and affection, which has touched me deeply."

The King and the Prince of Wales landed at East Cowes yesterday and visited Osborne House. During the morning the King marked the spot occupied by the coffin containing Queen Victoria's body on the deck, of the royal yacht Victoria and Albert. A brass cross was set into the deck bearing the words: "Here rested the beloved remains of Queen Victoria from Feb. 1 to Feb. 2, 1901. Born May 24, 1819, Died, Jan. 22, 1901."

KING'S DAY AT PORTSMOUTH.

A Busy Day—Gen. Kitchener and "Bobs" at Portsmouth Ready to Welcome the Boer Heroes.

London, Aug. 16.—Portsmouth is now filled up with visitors who have gone to witness the naval review today. Last night the fleet was illuminated for a little while, by way of rehearsal, and fireworks sent up from Southsea Commons added to the picturesqueness of the scenes.

Several more royal personages joined the royal party off Cowes last evening. Colonial Secretary Chamberlain and Mrs. Chamberlain, Earl Roberts, Commander-in-Chief of the Forces, and General Lord Kitchener reached Southampton yesterday and boarded the steamer Nigeria, upon which the Boer Generals Dewet, Delarey and Botha will be welcomed upon their arrival from South Africa to-day and entertained during the review.

The Lord of the Admiralty arrived at Portsmouth last evening, and boarded the Admiralty yacht Enchantress, which will participate in the naval procession to be reviewed by King Edward.

By sanction of His Majesty, Portsmouth will observe to-day as a coronation holiday. Last night the Mayor of Portsmouth gave a garden party in Victoria Park, at which the 2,000 guests included a number of British and foreign naval officers, and the Japanese Minister to Great Britain, Baron Hayashi Tadasu. The naval suites were especially entertained.

An investiture was held yesterday afternoon on board the royal yacht at Cowes when several gentlemen received coronation honors from His Majesty's hand. Subsequently the party was conveyed to Portsmouth on board the royal yacht Osborne.

King's Gift Stolen.

London, Aug. 16.—The medals presented to the Trinidad West African soldiers by King Edward on Tuesday were stolen from the barracks yesterday. The soldiers went to Westminster Abbey, and left their medals at the barracks. When they returned, they found that the decorations had disappeared. No clue to the thief or thieves has yet been obtained.

Hill Cuts Grain Rates.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 16.—J. J. Hill has led a movement to reduce grain rates in Minnesota and the Dakotas. All the roads have followed and the announcement was made yesterday. The reduction is from one-half cent to one and one-half cents a bushel. This will cut from the earnings of the roads about $1,000,000 annually.

C.P.R., Engineer Killed.

Nelson, B.C., Aug. 16.—James Connachem, one of the first engineers on the Pacific division of the C.P.R., was killed three miles from Roseberry, on the Nakusp and the Slocum branch, by his engine plunging through a trestlework which had been burned by a forest fire.

Navigable 24 Hours a Day.

Montreal, Aug. 16.—The Shawinigan Water and Power Company have made an offer to the Dominion Government to light the St. Lawrence channel from Quebec to Montreal, so as to make the river navigable 24 hours a day.

AN OBJECT OF ATTACK

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Viciously Assaulted by Paris Paper.

ENTHUSIASTICALLY WELCOMED.

The People and the Municipality of the Island of Jersey Greet the Premier of the Dominion With Much Warmth—By Sir Wilfrid's Wish He Was Welcomed in French, in which Language He Replied.

London, Aug. 16. — Sir Wilfrid Laurier's visit to the Island of Jersey was marked by an enthusiastic welcome from the people and the municipality and by a vicious attack upon the Canadian Premier by a Paris newspaper.

Before the welcome was read to Sir Wilfrid he was asked what language he desired to be addressed in. He replied that he wished to be welcomed in French, and the address was read in French accordingly. A more enthusiastic reception could not have been tendered the distinguished visitor.

The Patrie of Paris referring to Sir Wilfrid's visit to Jersey indulges in some scathing comments. Sir Wilfrid is described as a renegade.

"He is more English than Pitt," continues The Patrie, "more Imperialistic than Chamberlain. He owes his success to the clever way in which he panders to British vanity by vaunting his French origin, while loudly proclaiming himself a Britisher and an Imperialist."

Furthermore, The Patrie charges that Sir Wilfrid has inoculated the virtue of Pan-Britannicism in old heroic Canada, and has desecrated the memories of Quebec and Montreal with anti-patriotic doctrines.

LAUNCH CROSSED ATLANTIC.

Captain Newman Gives Details of His Perilous Adventure.

Falmouth, Aug. 15.—Capt. Newman and his son Edward arrived here last night, in the 38 foot kerosene launch Abiel Abbot Low, in which they sailed from New York July 9.

In an interview Capt. Newman said: "The launch has proved herself a noble boat, but we experienced awful times since we left New York. Several times, in terrible gales, we nearly lost our drag anchor, owing to the gear chafing away. We voyaged 3103 miles. We had great trouble with the kerosene, because the tanks which held it broke and the oil flooded the cabin. My boy became ill and homesick. I suffered greatly from exposure and long sitting in one position. We spoke the Red Star Line steamer Kroonland Aug. 1 in mid-Atlantic.

"After this we encountered a series of most severe gales, and the hardships were so great that I feared we could not survive. We did not speak another vessel until Aug. 12, when we met a fisherman, 90 miles off the Scilly Islands. Those last 90 miles were the longest I ever ran in my life. I would not hesitate, however, to try the voyage again."

The voyagers rarely used the sail on the launch.

THE ATLANTIC FAST LINE.

Quebec Board of Trade Sends Wishes to Lord Strathcona.

Quebec, Aug. 15.—The Board of Trade held a special meeting to-day for the purpose of adopting resolutions pointing out Quebec's claims to being made the summer port of the new line of steamers. The meeting was a very large and influential one.

The president was strongly against making Sydney a port of call as was proposed by Hon. Mr. Tarte, claiming that the line's benefit to the whole Dominion in general, and Quebec in particular, would thereby be greatly impaired.

The resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, advocated the establishment of the very fastest line possible. They speak of the St. Lawrence as the sole fluvial artery, or most important waterway of the Dominion, that is safely navigable from the Gulf to Quebec by the largest and most powerful vessels, and that Quebec, possessing one of the finest harbors in the world, and being the head of ocean navigation, should be the summer terminus of the proposed line.

After the meeting the following cablegram was sent to Lord Strathcona, London:

Quebec Aug. 15.

To the Canadian High Commissioner, London:

A large and representative meeting of the Quebec Board of Trade was held to-day concerning the fast line and its terminus. It was unanimously resolved to recommend that Quebec, owing to its great facilities, should be the summer terminus, and that the service should be of the best in speed and tonnage to compete successfully with other routes, and that there should be no intermediate port of call. Please transmit this to Sir Wilfrid Laurier; full text of resolutions being forwarded by mail.

WHAT MAKES BAD CHILDREN.

In reference to the hooliganism, or ruffianism, that has recently been displayed in London, England, a high ecclesiastical authority points out what he sees from his point of view—that there is an absence of moral instruction in the schools to blame. "What," he asks, "have been the outbreaks of hooliganism that have attracted some attention of late, but practical evidence of the absence of reverence and self-control?" Of course it requires some courage to question the dictum of so high an authority, but it seems that the lack of religious instruction in the public schools in Canada does not always account for the absence of the qualities of good citizenship. If one were to analyze the history of the cases of boys and girls going astray, it would be safe to assert that in nine cases out of ten the primary cause of their departure from the paths of good living and good conduct can be traced to lack of proper and judicious parental control in the region of home influence. If one were to take a certain number of lads, who have had their training in public schools, we find that some of them grow up well behaved and virtuous in life and conduct, and that others go to the bad, with bad manners, and disregard of moral restraint of any kind. If we examine into the home life, home training, and home influences of these two classes, respectively, we should find that the home life of the bad boy was bad, his home training bad, and furnishing the proper conditions for producing the bad results achieved. On the other hand it will be found that the lad who turned out well had good home influences, and careful training, involving the inculcation of reverence for sacred things and respect for parents and superiors. Thus two lads with the same school influences and training have with different home training, a correspondingly different career. While too much attention cannot be given to the moral training of children, it seems that clergymen and ministers seem to be only too willing to delegate their duty in moral regards to others. In this country, at least, it is evidently impracticable to engraft religious or more than incidental moral training upon the public school curriculum. Of course if it were practicable this would relieve the teachers of religion of a part of their work, but not, evidently, of their duty or responsibility. Obviously the church cannot exercise its moral influence directly upon the moral training of children but it can and should do this through the medium of the home, by creating favourable conditions and thus influencing the moral life of children through home training. If the church and pulpit were successful in their mission to the extent of bringing the heads of families to the point of living well and worthy to give wholesome training and set good examples, there would come from such homes into the world children with a moral training and sense of reverence and respect for divine things and moral and civil laws, which the schools do not, and, from the nature of things, cannot impart. Christianity is universally recognized as the basis of all good citizenship and Christianity must exercise its influence through the church, the established exponent of its tenents and teachings. Therefore if Christianity, through the church, and the next most important allies, home, the home, can be made to reach the individual in the impressible stage of his life—childhood—we may look for good results. We demand special qualifications in our school teachers in respect of intellectual training, but it seems to be held that any 'prentice hand, no matter how illy fitted in respect of special knowledge and moral equipment, will do for moral training.

EDITORIAL NOTES

There is a good deal of talk about a "fast line," but the chief controversy is about where will it be made fast to on this side the water.

Street Railways and Corporations don't seem to get on well together. Both Toronto and Montreal are having great trouble with their respective street railway systems, because they wont let the latter have all their own way. In Peterborough, however, our council is tenderly considerate of the "rights" of street railway corporations.

Our exports of home produce in 1895 were $102,828,441; for the year just ended they were $196,019,763. That is an increase to be proud of. Our total foreign trade has now reached the four hundred million mark. In 1890 it was just about half that. An increase like that in a dozen years is not bad, and it is to be noted that the far greater part of the increase accrued since the Liberal Government came into power.

The Mail and Empire's latest wail is that our public schools do not give to every boy as "much education as he shows capacity for," and it praises a scheme which involves three more examinations. And how it has raged against "the examination evil," and declaimed against the "overloaded" curriculum of the schools! It entirely overlooks, says the Hamilton Times, in its new enthusiasm for fault-finding the fact that the furnishingof all the education a boy has capacity to take is a question of time as well as curriculum. In short, the phrase, as applied to any public school course is mere drivelling nonsense.

WHEN YOUR COSTLY WATCH

is out of order you have it regulated; you don't at once throw it aside. Why, then, when your bowels are out of order, do you treat them as useless?

That is precisely what it means to take violent cathartics. They do not regulate the bowels, but take their work away from them, debilitate them, and make you more constipated than ever.

You had far better throw away your good watch than treat your bowels roughly. You can get another watch, but you cannot renew your intestines.

MR. TARTE ON TRANSPORTATION.

We Must Have an All-Canadian Route to the Sea.

FAST LINE MUST BE FAST.

The Minister of Public Works With the Manufacturers—His Tariff Ideas—A Ship-Building Industry for Canada.

Hon. Mr. Tarte, Dominion Minister of Public Works, was a guest at the banquet of the Canadian Manufacturers at Halifax. His address at that meeting is thus reported:

Hon. Mr. Tarte's reception was almost overwhelming. When his name was mentioned by the chairman in connection with the toast of "Canada and the Empire," the entire gathering arose and cheered for several minutes, and this scene was repeated several times during his address. The Minister of Public Works described his long trip through the upper lakes, and said that although from the bridge of the Lord Stanley he saw many great vessels, but few of them were Canadian. Describing the development of the lake traffic in United States bottoms, he said that the citizens of that country had solved the transportation problem, and the solution for Canadians was not only possible but easy. Canada had to offer a route 300 miles shorter than the American route. Canada had the money, and it was not too late for Canada to redeem itself. The Georgian Bay was destined to be the great reservoir of the Canadian and United States northwest. He had once informed the General Manager of the Grand Trunk Railway that, great company as it was, if it did not make up its mind to be an all-Canadian railway, he, when the Georgian Bay and St. Lawrence routes were equipped, he would want to know the reason why it was not a Canadian railway. The next Manager of that railway did made up his mind that it would be a Canadian railway. (Cheers.) Continuing, Mr. Tarte said that although last year the Canadian northwest had exported its 45 million bushels of wheat through American bottoms, he still hoped to see the Canadian Pacific and G. T. Railway work together from the port of Fort William to carry Canadian goods through Canadian territory to the sea. Speaking of the fast line, he declared amid cheers that it would be an assured fact very speedily. The magnificent port of Halifax, which we have seen again to-day, will be, he said, the natural terminus of the fast line during the winter months. (Applause.) And if we have a fast line it must be a fast line. "I am not a believer in what is known as 'Ministerial discretion,'" said the speaker, smiling; "I would rather say what I mean, and may God help me if I make any mistake that my colleagues will regret. But I do say that we must have the best ships that can be navigated, if we have any. But I do not think that Halifax can be made the port for freight; St John is the port for freight." This statement was received with deprecatory cries from residents of Halifax, to which Mr. Tarte replied, "Let us not be sectional; let us be business men; sentiment is a fine thing, and business is also a fine thing. I verily believe that Quebec is the natural summer port for the fast line. I am a Montreal man, but I knew that Montreal was not the port for the fast line. Montreal can handle the freight, but for a port we must choose one that will give us the advantage over other lines." (Cheers.)

MANUFACTURERS' NEEDS.

Mr. Tarte, continuing, said that the great need of Canadian manufacturers was cheap transportation between different portions of the Dominion and ports on the continent, and freedom from being made a slaughter market by foreign manufacturers. He was prepared to state his own position and to stand or fall by it, and it was that this country must be united by cheap transportation, and have the protection of a tariff ample for its needs. The Government of the day must be a strong Canadian Government. Party politics were one thing, but the interests of the nation were above party politics. When the Americans were endeavouring to obtain control of our railways and trying to Morganize our transportation companies, then it was time to take a strong stand. Canada must have factories of its own, it must build ships of its own. He belonged of course to a free-trade Government, but upon the advice of the Minister of Finance and with his entire sympathy, they had bonused the iron industry. Why did they not go a step further and have a shipbuilding policy? They could build ships on the great lakes, and they could build ships at Halifax for the sea. In closing Mr. Tarte said that the time had come when Canadian business men should see to it that their strongest men were sent to represent them in the Commons, for now they were needed.

Just 400 Years After.

In 1492 Columbus discovered America. In 1892, just 400 years later, Merrill, a Brantford druggist, discovered Four T's, the great guaranteed cough and cold cure. In 5 years the sale of a quarter of a million bottles has proven that Four T's never fails to cure a cough in 24 hours, and a cold in two days. GROWTH OF CANADA.

Picture of the Progress Made by the Dominion.

When Manitoba entered the Confederation its agricultural production found no place in the records. In 1881 it was entered as producing 1,000,000 bushels of wheat on an acreage of 51,300, and 1,270,268 bushels of oats. In 1898 the acreage of wheat was 1,000,000, and the yield 15,615,000 bushels, and the yield of oats was nearly 10,000,000 bushels. To-day Manitoba has 2,000,000 acres under wheat, and there are at least 500,000 acres more in the Territories, and there has been commensurate progress in all departments of agriculture. When it was remarked the other day that Saskatchewan would become a second Manitoba, a local journal said that the estimate was below the mark. Manitoba and the Territories are filled with the sons of Ontario, but the older Province takes pleasure in the progress of its younger rivals, and in the westward movement sees the signs of the growth of our common country. Ontario and Quebec, however, have by no means reached the limit of their growth. Both have territory to the north far exceeding in area the well-settled districts, and possessing rich resources in fertile, wooded and mineral lands. A more rapid growth of population would be acceptable, of course, but this is a matter about which there need be no uneasiness. Habitable land of any kind will be more at a premium every year. The rapid growth of the population of the United States, so far from causing us any uneasiness, indicates a source from which we are already drawing immigration, and shall draw a greater measure in the future. The trade and wealth of the country are increasing far more rapidly than its population. With only one-fifteenth of the population, we have a trade of more than one-sixth of that of the United States, and we have no doubt that the advantages which this country offers to newcomers will in time be fully recognized.—Toronto World.

SALMON PACK 1,000,000 CASES SHORT

Columbia River Season Closed Friday With 337,000 Cases.

Astoria, Ore., Aug. 16.—The Columbia River salmon fishing season closed yesterday. The total pack of fourteen canneries is 337,000 cases, or 100,000 more than last year. The amount of frozen steel heads put up is 700 tons. The total amount of fish taken from the Columbia River during the season exceeds 82,000,000 pounds, equal to 430,000 cases. The pack of the various canneries is as follows.

Co-operative, 30,000; Sanborn Cutting, 27,500; Combine, 130,000; McGowan, 37,000; E. Booth, 25,000; Pillar Rock, 25,000; J. G. Meglar, 22,500; F. M. Warren, 31,000; Scufeurt Bros., 9,000.

The Puget Sound and Fraser River packs are failures thus far, and the world's supply of salmon this year will be nearly 1,000,000 cases short.

ALMOST IN DESPAIR.

The Condition of Mrs. John Shott, of Orangeville.

Suffered From a Burning Sensation in the Stomach—Food Becomes Distasteful and She Grew Weak and Despondent.

From the Sun, Orangeville, Ont.

The Sun is enabled this week through the courtesy of Mrs. John Shott, a lady well known and much esteemed b ymany of the residents of Orangeville, to give the particulars of another of those cures that have made Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a household remedy throughout the civilized world. Mrs. Shott, in conversation with our reporter, said:—"About three years ago, while living in Ingersoll, I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia. The trouble first began with severe headaches, dizziness and sometimes vomiting. Next I suffered continually from a burning sensation in my stomach, food distressed me; I did not sleep well at night; lost flesh and became very weak. I was continually doctoring but it did me no good. In fact I was gradually growing worse and despaired of ever being well again. One day a friend who called to see me strongly advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She spoke so highly of them that I decided to take her advice, and I soon discovered that they were not like the other medicines I had been taking and that I had at last found something to help me. I continued using the pills for perhaps a couple of months, when I found myself fully restored to health. I have always since enjoyed my meals with relish and have had no return of the trouble. With my experience I feel certain that if other sufferers will give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial they will find a certain cure."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills enrich and nourish the blood and strengthen the nerves. It is thus that they cure such troubles as dyspepsia, kidney ailments, rheumatism, partial paralysis, heart troubles, St. Vitus' dance and the ailments that make the lives of so many women a source of misery. These pills never fail to drive away pain, bring a glow of health to the whole body and make dispondent men and women bright, active and strong. Do not take any pills without the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" on the wrapper around the box. Sold by all medicine dealers or sent post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by addressing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Why Do You Submit to a Daily Life of Suffering From A Common Evil?

Paine's Celery Compound

Is an Infallible Cure for Distressing Summer Dyspepsia and All Digestive Troubles.

The tortures and evils of summer dyspepsia are experienced by thousands at this time. The dyspeptic's train of evils may be enumerated as follows—Feelings of dizziness, languor, nervousness, sleeplessness, intense headaches, distension of the stomach, loss of flesh, difficult breathing, and the heart's action is seriously affected.

All forms of dyspepsia are quickly banished by the use of Paine's Celery Compound. The use of this marvellous medicine allays the inflammation of the nerves centred about the stomach; it opens up the sewers of the body and removes all waste matter; it cleanses the blood; it makes new nerve fibre; it restores digestive power, and promotes bodily strength and activity. Mrs. J. B. Orr, Lennoxville, P.Q., says:

"I have been a very great sufferer from dyspepsia for ten years. At times I would suffer most intensely, notwithstanding great care in dieting and the best medical help I could get. Severe attacks were always attended with very violent headaches, followed by nervousness and sleeplessness. Different physicians exhausted their skill in trying to effect a cure. Finally, upon the advice of a friend, I decided to venture an experiment with Paine's Celery Compound. The first bottle did me much good, and by the time I had used three bottles I was perfectly restored. I am now free from nervousness, sleeplessness, dyspepsia, headaches, and all the sufferings that arise from these distressing troubles."

Halifax, Aug. 16. — The special train with the Manufacturers' Association arrived in Sydney yesterday afternoon. China to Reform Trade Laws.

Shanghai, Aug. 15.—There is a prospect of an early settlement of the controversy between the British and Chinese treaty commissioners, concerning inland navigation. China has agreed to foster inland trade and so states in the treaty. The rules and regulations governing this inland trade have not been made part of the treaty, but have been added to the existing rules made four years ago by the Chinese Foreign Office and the British Minister. No edict has as yet been issued sanctioning the proposed tariff amendments.

A Gruesome Story.

Ottawa, Aug. 16. — A gruesome story comes from the wilds of Gatineau region, where an old man named Samuel Napier, was found dead in a shanty, with his body partly eaten by a dog. It appears that Napier, who was formerly a member of the Provincial Parliament of New Brunswick, had gone out as a shanty man last May. He was all right in June, but recently he was found dead.

Nervous and Sleepless.

There is just one cure and that is plenty of food for the blood and the nerves, which is best supplied in Ferrozone, than which no blood tonic or strength producer is better. Ferrozone promotes healthy digestion, which results in improved nutrition. The blood grows rich and red, furnishes stability to the entire system, and the store of nerve force and energy increases daily. A rebuilding of the constitution, new spirits, health and strength, all come from the use of Ferrozone. This marvellous renovator is sold by druggists for 50c. a box, or six boxes for $2.50. For sale by Ormond and Walsh.

An Answer to Prayer.

Your correspondent, "De Profundis," in The Spectator, of May 31st, says that to pray to God to interfere with the machinery, once started, is as unreasonable (all experience shows) as to thank him for what we conceive to be blessings is superfluous. This does not accord with universal experience. Some years ago I impulsively resolved to send £20 to a lady who had a coffee-room, and conducted a "mission." I soon realized what an unreasonable impulse it had been. But though entirely contrary to my judgment, after about a fortnight's delay, I felt the money must go. I despatched it with the strictest injunctions that there should be no thanks, verbal or by letter. The lady wrote to me that she had been praying for about two months for £20, a quarter's rent; that on Lady'day she had but £21, and hesitated to reduce her resources to £1; but that after a few days' delay she paid her rent, whereupon I at once posted to her my two ten-pound notes. I shall never forget the relief it was to end the period of indecision by getting rid of the money. The lady's gratitude to God, not me, was unbounded. I wanted no thanks; I sent the money simply because I felt I must; and never even visited the coffee-room, the cause of this strange experience. I may observe that £20 is a solid sum to spend on mere sentiment; but the pressure on my conscience was no sentiment.—I am, sir, etc.—Cor. London Spectator.

The Savings Bank of Health.

Is lots of red and vitalizing blood to nourish and invigorate the body. If your blood is thin and watery use "Ferrozone." It supplies the necessary elements such as phosphorous and iron, and quickly restores lost strength and spirits. Ferrozone is an unequalled restorative for the tired, the sick, and the run down; it stimulates appetite, aids digestion, soothes the nerves, and makes the system too healthy for disease to exist. No tonic does so much good in a short time as Ferrozone. Get it to-day from any druggist for 50c. per box, or six boxes for $2.50. Sold by Ormond & Walsh.

Government Turned Over.

Tien-Tsin, Aug. 15.—The turning over of the Government of the City of Tien-Tsin to the Chinese authorities was completed to-day with considerable ceremony.

Full Exhausted and Unconscious.

Mrs. R. W. Edwards, 30 McMurray street, Brantford, Ont., suffered for five years with nervous exhaustion, headache and dyspepsia. "The pains in my head would almost drive me crazy. I could not sleep nights, but would walk the floor in agony until I fell exhausted and unconsciousness. For the past nine months I have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and from a mere skelton this medicine has built me up in flesh and weight, until I am well and strong." It would be scarcely possible to produce stronger evidence of the wonderful power of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

The 57th Regt. Band appeared in Victoria Park last night, as usual. The evening was fine, and the concert was largely attended. The bright moonlight, together with the assurance of an excellent programme, drew out a very large number of townspeople, who, judging from the spontaneous applause, enjoyed the various numbers rendered. It is to be hoped that the public of Peterborough will be favoured with a few more concerts at least before the season closes.

THE NEW DAM.

Many Persons Watch the Operations—A Huge Contract.

An interesting sight to watch these days is the work at the Cereal Company's new dam, near the foot of London street bridge. The huge steam crane that is at work clearing out the sawdust and other debris from the river bank, is a curious sight, indeed. The task is a heavy one, but Contractor O'Toole is busy marking out the site of the dam, the power house, and the railway tracks. The contract is a two year one, but under favourable circumstances the work may be completed before that time. It is the intention of Contractor O'Toole to have the stone crusher at work immediately in order that plenty of material may be on hand when the concreting is started.

MONDAY NIGHT'S DINNER.

Members of C. Squadron, C.M.R., Will do the Grand.

The members of "C" squadron, 3rd C.M.R., will assemble in the Snowden House on Monday evening, when a supper will be tendered to Capt. Nasmith and to other officers of the squadron. The enthusiasm displayed by the members of the 3rd in holding a supper is indeed a worthy precedent and should be followed by the members of the various other corps that went to South Africa.

It is the intention of the boys to present Capt. Nasmith with a sword as a token of their esteem for him. The other officers of the squadron were equally as popular with the men while away.

Corp. V. LeBar is chairman of the committee that is arranging the supper and Pte. Vic. Hamilton is acting as secretary.

Capt. Nasmith will arrive at 7.30 o'clock per C.P.R. and will be met at the station by the members of "C" squadron, 3rd C.M.R., who will be in uniform.

The Daily Recorder of Petoskey, Michigan, has the following item:—"Edward M. Taylor, grain commission merchant of St. Louis, arrived last night from Mackinac Island, and is stopping at the Imperial. Since leaving home he has been to Chicago, Buffalo and Detroit, and later went to Toronto, and Peterborough, Canada. At the latter place he was the recipient of much attention and hospitality, visited the celebrated Kawartha Lakes, which are twelve miles from Peterborough, and was much impressed with their great beauty. Stony Lake, one of the group, is singularly beautiful, and about 2,000 tourists are now in the vicinity."

PRINTERS STAND BY THE TOWN

They Pass a Resolution Calling for Patronage of Home Industries.

At the last regular meeting of Peterborough Typographical Union, No. 248, the following resolution was unanimously adopted and a copy was ordered to be sent to the local press for publication:

"Peterborough Typographical Union No. 248, deeply deplore the action of a number of our merchants, societies and others in sending their orders for printing out of town. In many cases they pay far in excess of what it would cost them in Peterborough, and then often it is executed in an inferior manner.

"We also pledge ourselves to withdraw our custom from those merchants who continue to act thus unfairly and would call upon all wage-earners to assist us in our endeavour to have all printing executed under fair conditions. Merchants and others should practice what they preach—"Stand by the town," and patronize home industry, thereby reaping the benefit.

"Peterborough Typographical Union also respectfully requests all persons when ordering printing to insist upon having the Union Label appear on their work, as it is a guarantee that the work is performed under fair conditions."

The general tennor of the foregoing resolution is what the Examiner has been insisting upon for years. Every person who conducts a business whose success depends upon the patronage of his fellow citizens is in duty bound, and by all laws of fair-dealing, to reciprocate by extending his patronage to those who have favoured him with theirs. In this regard the printing guild deserve especial consideration. The newspapers industriously and at all times use their influence to up-build the town and increase its population to the manifest advantage of all engaged in commercial pursuits. And when they can furnish at reasonable prices, and in a manner equal to city establishments, the work which local merchants require, it is unfair that they should be passed by.

PLEASANT OUTING.

The Annual Excursion of the Peter Hamilton Company Yesterday.

The annual excursion of the Peter Hamilton Company took place yesterday to Jubilee Point, Rice Lake. The day was superb for an outing and about 400 of the employees and their friends took in the event. The steamer, City of Peterborough, which was chartered for the occasion, left Wolfe street wharf at 8.30 o'clock and the Point was reached at 11.10 o'clock. After dinner an interesting list of sports was run off, including football and baseball matches. The pavilion was well patronized and dancing was one of the leading attractions during the afternoon, the music being provided by Mr. and Mrs. Hodgson.

Mr. James Hamilton, of the Peter Hamilton Company, went down with the excursionists and made the proceedings pleasant by his congenial company.

A PETERBOROUGH INVENTION.

Mr. John McGill's Engine on a New Principle.

On the illustrated pages of the Saturday Globe appears an illustration and brief description of a new kind of engine, the ingenious invention of Mr. John McGill, No. 379 Sherbrooke street, an employee of the Canadian General Electric Company. Mr. McGill's engine is designed to be driven by steam, water compressed, or gas or gasoline, and appears to be a most important invention destined, if the inventors' confident claims are fulfilled, to exercise a great forward impulse upon especially the transportation problem and general motive operations.

OBITUARY.

The death occurred this morning of Mr. Cornelius O'Connell, youngest son of Mrs. Timothy O'Connell, of Ashburnham. The deceased was 30 years of age and has been a resident of Clifton Springs, N. Y., for the past 10 years. Last May he came to Canada in search of health but the change did not appear to be of any benefit. He leaves a wife and one child to mourn his demise.

The funeral will take place at 9 o'clock on Monday morning from his mother's residence, Ashburnham.

FROM STONY LAKE.

The Annual Regatta to be Held on Monday.—Shore Parties and Five O'clock Teas.

Juniper Island, Stony Lake,
Saturday, a. m.

Recent arrivals at the Victoria House registered as follows: Algernon St. Albans Smith, Karl Gustave Loch, Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Amys, Loftus and Annette Amys, Port Hope; J. G. M. Wilson, Fred Stenson, Peterborough; F. A. Tully, Lakefield; Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Buchart, Owen Sound; Wm. B. Jacoby, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McKelvey, Mrs. L. M. Kendall, Rochester, N.Y.; Alta E. Bradd, Mamie Hamilton, Peterborough; Mabel Oberg, Sophia Kenyon, W. H. G. Cass, Rochester, N.Y.; F. C. Taggart, Port Perry; C. E. Scranton, Rochester, N.Y.; Mrs. Scollie, Peterborough; Mrs. S. J. Sharp, Toronto; Miss Zora E. Sharp, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thompson, Peterborough.

A jolly party from "Forest Nook" including a large number of Peterborough young ladies were towed to the head of the lake on Thursday by the Mayflower. A shore dinner was partaken of at South Bay, and tea was served at the first portage on Eel's Creek.

Dr. Scranton, of Rochester, is as usual the most successful fisherman at the lake. He is staying at the Victoria House, and it is seldom, indeed, that he and Jack Hunter do not return in the evening with a big catch.

Mr. William Ball, of Chatham, landed one of the finest lunge of the season on Thursday. It was caught just off Eagle Mount, where a great many have been hooked this season.

A large number of cottagers enjoyed an impromptu musicale at Mr. A. L. Davis' cottage on Wednesday evening.

The Mayflower took twenty-two guests from the Victoria House to the head of the lake on Friday.

The omission of a men's tandem canoe race from the programme for Monday's regatta is hard to understand as this has always been considered the most interesting event of the day.

Mr. W. H. Meldrum is making a number of improvements to his cottage, including the erection of a new kitchen.

Scores of canoeists paddled to Jennemac Island on Tuesday to witness a big bonfire and participate in a marshmallow toast.

Five o'clock teas are considered quite the thing at the lake this season.

Siche gas has been introduced at the pavilion, but the girls prefered the dimmer light of the lanterns. Too much can be seen by gas light.

Messrs. Alex. Jacoby and Jess Kochentbal, of Rochester, left to-day for home and according to their usual custom devoted their last two days exclusively to fishing with the result that they are taking home a fine box of bass and lunge.

THE STREET RAILWAY MATTER

Ratepayer Demands Consideration of Public Interests by the Council.

To the Editor of the Examiner, —

Dear Sir, — I have been carefully watching the progress, or rather, delay, of the Street Railway matter for a long time, and a pretty long time, too, and I fail to see that our Town Council is looking after the business with that alertness and sense of responsibility which the interests of the town and public demand. Indeed, the Mayor and Council seem to wink at almost any sort of subterfuge and evasion on the part of those concerned in the deal, to gain time.

The town has been played with in a rather transparent way. I cannot learn that the supposed deposit of $5,000 to bind the contract with the old Street Railway Company and Mr. Bane, though amply forfeited, has been collected, or that it was deposited in such a way as to be available for the security purpose for which it was ostensibly deposited.

The original proposition, and agreement, to have the cars running on the Street Railway on August 1st was, I understand, blocked by the failure of the Peterborough Radial Railway Company, the new organization which absorbed the old company, to organize, so that they could legally make a transfer of the franchise, etc. Then this stumbling block having been removed by tardy organization of the new company, Mr. Bane, representing the National Construction Company, comes forward with a new, and somewhat elastic proposition, namely to have the council extend the option on the franchise from the 1st September to 1st of October this year, and in case a further extension may be desired, to the first of May next year. The town has granted the request on condition that in addition to the payment (of $25,000 presumably) to the "proprietors of the present Street Railway" $5,000 be also deposited with the town as security for the fulfilment of the contract.

It is to be hoped that this $5,000 will be so deposited that it can be got at, and that it will be promptly forfeited upon failure of the conditions it is supposed to represent. There has been enough delay, evasion and postponement. The town was very lenient with the old company, and took no advantage of the position, in which the latter's failure to operate the line, placed it. I have no particular interest, nor, I suppose, have the public generally, in the difficulties between the local Street Railway Company and the promoters of the resuscitation of the line, but as a large ratepayer I object, and the people object, to our streets being tied up in perpetuity to suit the convenience of anybody. Business is business; the town has shown enough leniency, and now it should see that something is done, and that the huckstering over the Street Railway franchise should be brought to an end. We have, for years, had our streets obstructed with the rails of the old line, and the town has, in addition, been put to large expense to place the streets on which they are laid, in a fit condition for traffic, and this has not always been done. Consideration for the old Street Railway Company was all right, up to a certain point, but I think, and I am sure the ratepayers agree with me, that there should be a limit. As a large ratepayer, I insist that there should be no more trifling with the Street Railway matter, and that the time has come when the interests and rights of the public should become again the first consideration.

The Town Council seem to be convinced that the franchise—the people's property—is being hawked about from place to place outside the province, and in the interests of the people they should see that the matter is speedily brought to a focus in some way.

Yours, etc.,
RATEPAYER.

JACOB'S ISLAND CAMP.

A Governor-General Appointed.—A Local Gentleman Knighted for the Occasion.

Jacob's Island, Pigeon Lake, Aug. 16th.—A special despatch to the Examiner, by pigeon post, from Jacob's Island, states that by the power invested in them by virtue of the law of jolly good fellowship, an investiture of Knighthood has been made by the boys composing the choir of St. John's in camp assembled at this place. Mr. Isaac Richardson, has been honoured with Knighthood and subsequently Sir Isaac was appointed and gazetted Governor-General of Jacob's Island, that is the portion over which the choir boys have jurisdiction for the time of their occupancy. Hon. James O'Bell has been appointed His Excellency's secretary and aide-de-camp. Sir Isaac is very popular with his subjects, his rule is mild and he often indulges in the mild dissipation of being rowed about the lake in the state barge by his liegs. The antiquarian of the camp, has been making researches into the origin of the name "Jacob's" as applied to the Island. By a sort of reactionary reasoning not unknown to many scientists, he reaches the conclusion that the name was given in honour of the Hebraic patriarch Jacob, by law of association and prophetic prevision, connected with the suggestively patriarchal beard of the first governor of the Island, who also possesses the patriarchal prenomen, Isaac. The most successful prophets are those who indulge their vaticinations after the event.

Half a dozen additions to the force of the camp go up this evening.

FINE OATS.

A Stalk of Grain 6 Feet 9 Inches in Height.

Mr. R. W. Esson yesterday brought to the Examiner office a stalk of oats measuring 6 feet 9 inches. It was grown on the farm of Mr. S. Armstrong, the oat stalk is a of Otonabee. The oat stalk is a fine looking one, and the entire field of grain is of an excellent appearance. If any one can beat this record, the Examiner would be glad to hear of it.

MATTERS MILITARY

BY SENTRY.

There is nothing whatever doing in local military circles. The only evidence of a martial spirit in the town is the presence of a number of South Africa soldiers, members of the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th Canadian Mounted Rifles who parade the streets, some in military attire and some in semi-military costume. When the holiday season closes the officer commanding the local regiment will likely make some announcement regarding the annual trip.

• • •

When the autumnal drills recommence for the infantry brigade a great deal of work lies before the officers and N. C. O's of the various regiments in giving the men instruction in the many changes which are introduced by the new system. Many of these changes are in a common sense direction, and now that they are ordered one wonders why such a mode of doing things was not introduced years and years ago. On the other hand some of the alterations appear to be worse than useless and of a retrograde rather than of a progressive nature.

A radical departure in the training of the rural militia has been adopted this year. In place of having all the infantry regiments turn out, it has been decided to hold camps of instruction for officers and non-commissioned officers of the regiments of Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime Provinces next month. The Ontario camp will be at Niagara-on-the Lake from September 23rd to October 4th; that for Quebec at Three Rivers from September 16th to 27th, while the units from the Maritime Provinces will assemble at Sussex, N.B., from September 9th to 20th. The period of training in each case will be twelve days. The several companies of the permanent corps will turn out in full strength, but each of the other infantry regiments will be represented as follows—1 Lieut.-Col, 1 Major, 1 Adjutant, 1 Quartermaster, 1 company officer per company, 2 staff sergeants per regiment, 3 sergeants per company, 3 corporals per company, 2 buglers per regiment. Twenty-two privates per regiment will also be detailed for fatigue duties.

The camp for Ontario will be composed as follows:—First Division—Divisional troops, No. 1 Co. R.C.R., 1st Infantry Brigade; 26th, London; 27th, Sarnia; 29nd, Walkerton; and 33rd, Goderich. 2nd Infantry Brigade — 22nd, Woodstock; 23th, Stratford; 29th, Galt; 30th, Guelph. 2nd Division: Divisional troops—No. 2 Co. R.C.R.; 3rd Infantry Brigade; 20th, Milton; 37th, York; 39th, Simcoe; 44th, Niagara Falls; 77th, Dundas; 97th, Sault Ste. Marie. 4th Infantry Brigade—12th, Aurora; 21st, Owen Sound; 34th, Whitby; 35th, Barrie; 36th, Brampton.

Third Division—5th Infantry Brigade—16th, Picton; 40th, Cobourg; 45th, Lindsay; and 46th, Port Hope. 6th Infantry Brigade—42nd, Perth; 47th, Frontenac; 49th, Stirling; 50th, Prescott; and 59th, Cornwall.

Everyone who takes an interest in rifle shooting rejoices that at the very end of the Bisley meeting the Canadians have succeeded in winning the McKinnon Cup, the match being shot over on account of the Scotch team's protest. In reviewing the shooting at Bisley the Toronto World says: Considering the fact that the Canadians at Bisley only number 20 in a host of 2,500 specially trained marksmen, selected from an army of several hundred thousand volunteers, the showing that they make each year is remarkably good. The score of Sergt. Mortimer of Toronto, 102 out of 105, being the top tally in the match for the Kolapore Cup in any team, and the score of T. Mitchell, C. N. Mitchell, T. Bayles, Mortimer, Scott, and McRobbie being possibles, and within one point of the possible in the different matches, prove that they can hold their own with any of the riflemen in the Mother Country. The fact of Canada having 11 men in the second stage of the King's, and 3 in the final, is excellent, considering the few that are entered from this country. Davidson of Quebec, tied the 100th man, while several of the others were within two or three points of getting in the final. In the King's prize all shoot in the first stage, 300 of the highest scores shoot in the second stage, and the 100 standing highest in the final stage at 500, 900 and 1000 yards. Australia has sent team to Bisley three times in the last five years, winning the Kolapore Cup in 1897, and 1902, and being second in 1899. This is a wonderfully good showing, and proves, as nothing else could, what our men are up against.

"Advance Australia!" And advance Australia, it is. Not alone did an Australian win the Diamond sculls at Henley, the first time of asking. Mr. F. C. Kelly, of Balliol College, Oxford, the said winner being a "Cornstalk," but riflemen from that far off land must of necessity win the Kolapore Cup the second time out of three tries. Our representatives gained a victory over the Mother Country, it is true, but that small piece of comfort is discounted by the fact that that the Rhodesians, competing for the first time, beat us. There appears however to have been a very marked improvement in the shooting all around. It is to be hoped that we shall hold our own in shooting for the Palma Trophy at Ottawa.

AN ACCIDENT.

That Occurred This Morning to Mr. T. J. Parker.

What might have been a fatal accident, occurred at Mr. T. J. Parker's bicycle shop this morning.

While Mr. Parker was testing a 22 calibre rifle, after putting in a new spring, the cartridge flew back and struck him in the right eye.

This is the second time of late that Mr. Parker has had a narrow escape. His many friends will look for his speedy recovery.

THE DEER HUNT.

How It Appears to the Hunted From Start to Finish.

A howl; a dog is on the scent; another dog joins in, and they are after me, and I must leave the haunts I know so well. No more, perhaps, will I nibble the tender branches, the sweet branches, the juicy branches. No more, perhaps, will I listen to the music of the little rill singing on its way to the lesser lake; no more, perhaps, will I view my graceful form mirrored on the still water which holds the shadows of nature on its bosom; no more, perhaps, will I scent the breath of the morning, or rest in the welcome warmth of the November sun; no more, perhaps, no more.

For why?

Because men love blood, and venison they say is good.

And where will I run?

Anywhere, if I may but distance those cruel voices.

I cannot hear them well, but still I know they follow, for even now, from the faint distance hurried by the willing wind, I discern the howl of Death.

Curse them!

What have I done to be hunted, to be driven a quarry to ignoble death?

Ah, yes, I forgot; the passion of men for blood and venison theysay is good.

So they leave their homes and the quiet of the happy cosy corner and come to my home, and bespoil it, and bespatter it with blood. They come the minister from the pulpit, the hotelkeeper from his hotel, the doctor from his patient, the lawyer from his brief, the rich from his riches, the poor from his poverty, the politician from his handshaking, the farmer from his native soil, they come, a savage host, to wait and watch for me.

For venison is good they say, and they love to kill.

And, now, I hear the hounds approaching, and as I run I know 'tis play to leave them, for I am fleet of foot; but it is the bullet I shrink from, the ping of the ball, the wound, the ravening hound, the cruel death.

Then they will hang me in front of a store, and men will poke my dead body and guess my age and weight, for they say venison is good and men must kill.

Would that my flesh were bitter; but even that would not avail against the passion for blood.

A shot!

I feel the bite of the ball, I see the blood, and the figure of a man rises from a hill.

I run, spurred by desperation, trailing the leaves with red.

I know a lake, a little lake, perhaps I may reach it, and shake the pursuers from my path.

Another shot!

It sings in the distance and proclaims itself a miss, but I am nearing the lake, and perhaps I am safe.

Again the voice of the rifle, and I fall to rise no more, and the hounds are closing on me; but, a man approaches, and, driving them off, draws a knife from his belt.

He comes quickly to me, and as I struggle he takes a fresh grip on the handle of that shining weapon; he lifts his arm, and it is the end, for the blade enters, and is searching for my heart.

The passion for blood, the passion for blood.—Charlie Churner, in Toronto Star.

A SERIOUS MATTER.

It is the Duty of Everyone to Look After the Health and Well-being of the Body.

A very great deal is being said and written just now about Consumption and the fearful number of fatal cases which occur in Canada during a year. It is very gratifying to note that so many prominent citizens of our country are actively organized to meet and if possible to defeat this monster.

But there is another demon at work in the land whose evil influences are much more far-reaching and whose fatal consequences are more numerous if the statistics could be shown, than even those of Consumption.

Dyspepsia has ruined more lives than any other disease that has ever attacked the race.

There are very few indeed who have entirely escaped from its painful influences.

Infants suffer excruciating tortures through indigestion, and the days of many an aged man and woman have been rendered miserable by these blighting and destroying influences.

But if the records were investigated it would be found that a comparatively small number of the deaths occurring in our land are charged to Dyspepsia.

This is accounted for by the fact that Dyspepsia if allowed to go uncorrected, almost invariably brings on some other disease which would never have made its appearance but for the opportunity afforded by the ravages of Dyspepsia.

If the deaths indirectly resulting from Dyspepsia could be shown the number would be appalling.

But no one need suffer with Stomach Trouble. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure it. They have never failed when used according to directions.

Law Officers' Incomes.

London, Aug. 16.—Mr. Austen Chamberlain informed Mr. Weir in the House of Commons that the fees received last year by Sir. Robert Finlay, the Attorney-General, amounted to £5,500. These were in addition to his salary of £7,000, making a total of £12,500. Sir E. H. Carson, the Solicitor-General, received £4,350 in fees, in addition to a salary of £6,000—total £10,350.

An Aching Back.

Is the first indication of kidney disease, and should be taken as a signal of danger—a warning to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, while yet there is time to avoid the dreadful pains and certain fatality of this certain disease. There is no guess work, no experimenting when you use this prescription. It brings relief in a remarkably short time, and because of its combined action of liver and kidneys, cures complicated cases which cannot be reached by an ordinary treatment.

HOME OF THE BUCKINGHAMS.

Stowe Palace, One of the Most Magnificent of Country Seats.

Stowe Palace, one of the most magnificent and stately country seats, not only in England, but likewise in all Europe, is in the market, and, while it may possibly be acquired at a bargain and far below its actual value, yet it is useless for any one save an exceedingly rich man to dream of purchasing it, so vast is the cost of its maintenance.

Although best known as the house of the last three Dukes of Buckingham and Chandos, it owes its origin to that Lord Cobham who was one of the principal lieutenants of the first Duke of Marlborough. Indeed, there is a good deal in common between Stowe Palace and Blenheim Palace, the creation of the first Duke of Marlborough, Stowe being decidedly the more manificent of the two. Its facade is a thousand feet long, and the area of the buildings alone is enormous.

Among the features of the place are the trees around the so-called Bourbon tower, planted by King Louis XVIII. of France, who spent much of his exile at Stowe as the guest of the first Duke of Buckingham. The second Duke entertained the late Queen Victoria and the Prince Consort there in the early days of the Victorian era, and the place, after having been rented to the late Count of Paris from the time of his banishment from France until his death, is now in the possession of Lady Kinloss, eldest daughter and heiress of the last Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, and a peeress in her own right.

She is married to Captain Morgan-Grenville, a former officer of the army, and at her death the title of Lord Kinloss will pass to her son. Though well off, she is not rich enough to live at Stowe or to keep the place empty year after year unrented. For she has found no tenant for it since the death of the Count of Paris. That is why she is now endeavoring to sell it, and the person who buys it will by reason of its possession become at once one of the most conspicuous and influential figures in the aristocratic County of Bucks, where there are so many beautiful patrician country seats.

Over a Million Victims.

A careful estimate shows that one fifth of Canada's population suffer every winter with hacking lung weakening coughs. Four T's, Druggist Merrill's great discovery cures a cough in 24 hours and the worst cold in two days making it unnecessary to wear the system out in this way. Large bottles 25c. at Ormond & Walsh's.

Chances of Life and Death.

The following table is one that is used by the London assurance companies, showing the prospect of life at various ages. It is the result of several years of careful calculation and is said to seldom prove misleading or incorrect. Of course sudden and premature deaths, as well as lives unusually extended, occasionally occur, but this is a table of average expectancy of life of the ordinary man or woman: A person 1 year old may expect to live 39 years longer; of 10 years, 51; of 20 years, 41; of 30 years, 34; of 40 years, 28; of 50 years, 21; of 60 years, 14; of 70 years, 9; of 80 years, 4. Readers can easily gather from the above statement facts which will tell them, approximately at least, how many years longer they may reasonable expect to live according to the law of averages.

Sore Feet

Dr. Chase's Ointment.

You may know of the exceptional merit of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and still not think of using it for sore feet. It is remarkably effective for this trouble, which is so annoying to many people during the warm weather.

Mrs. J. Brunton, Allandale, Ont., states:—"I can recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment as a sure cure for sore feet. I stand a great deal on my feet, and have been troubled for some time with chafing and blisters. My toes were often raw and very painful.

"I had tried nearly everything recommended for sore feet, but Dr. Chase's Ointment is the only remedy that did me any real good. It soothed the burning and stinging, and thoroughly healed and cured the sores."

TRIBUTE WRUNG FROM IT.

Even Reynolds's Weekly Puts Into Line and Writes in Admiration of the English Coronation Postponement.

Reynolds' Weekly, the Socialistic newspaper of London, is nothing if not vivaciously bitter. Specimens of its amusingly sweeping condemnations of everything have from time to time been given. Quite worth quoting is the tribute fairly wrung from it by the demeanor of London when suffering from the blow of the postponement of the coronation. Writing after the collapse of the coronation the "special correspondent" of that journal said:—

I am no believer in the English character, and yet I now stand, self-confessed, an admirer of it. 'Tis cosmopolitan and 'tis not Saxon. The stupid historian dubs us "Saxon" and "Sassenach," and naught else, and is stupid even in his descriptions. We are neither Saxon nor Sassenach. We are mostly fools. But fools be we as we may, we are fools with a glimmering of intellect. There is one supreme evidence of this. We have abandoned mafficking-ism. I walked late on Thursday night from Ludgate Hill Circus to Trafalgar Square. I walked among the people constrained, restrained, decent. There was no woman who wanted to reveal the underlining of her petticoat. There was no stupid Boeotian — all these fellows have the brains of the brainless—who wanted to reveal to the world the sole of his foot. a decorous, well-sustained, self-controlled, good-humored people walked along, and walked along in something like dignity. You missed the hi-hi-tidilledy-iddely-hi-hi-tism of the ordinary mob. You had a really decorous people—a people you could respect, a people with their hands in their pockets and not in the air, a people greater than their own design, for they know not their destiny.

I stood at Ludgate Hill on Thursday night. I was fascinated by a couple—a couple loving in their way, a bucolic way if you like, but loving. His hand was in hers and hers in his. All at once a wagon passed along in which the chevaliers of the East End were hustled close together. Suddenly one of their companions — a loidy — began to sing the "Soldiers of the King" in a raucous voice. Not a soul responded. The crowds on either side regarded her, as she opened her mouth, it to engulf an empire, as a harridan, a termagant, a fool, and then she, dispirited, desisted. Then as by an inspiration she howled out "God Save the King." She had caught the popular temper and sounded a note the popular voice could harmonize with. Up arose a great chorus—a chorus that really had something of sentiment in it. 'Twas not Bacchanalian; 'twas really human. And my girl and boy sang tenor and contralto to my bass.

I left Ludgate and walked to Hyde Park corner, passing all along through a jostling, wrestling, who-shall-be-first crowd. The whole way along I began to believe with intensified force in the English people. I have never been aught but a disbeliever, as I have said, in the theory of Saxonism. And these people were not Saxon in their emotion. True, they were generally phelgmatic and stolid, but their stolidity concealed a real sentiment—the sentiment of sympathy. I conversed with these people—, the people who repressed the larrigans, refused to buy those raucous-toned paper trumpets, and who despised the Hooligans, who, men and women alike, wanted to kiss the heavens with their steel-toed boots, and I found that they regarded the King not so much as a monarch but as a good fellow.

What has killed the republican spirit in England is not so much the question of the moment as the appreciation of the King's humanity. What use hiding it? The late Queen was a good woman, but a good woman only of the Gaelic type. She belonged to the "bang-goes-saxpence" example of womanhood—an example that would see an appetite sacrificed for a bawbee. The King doesn't belong to the same class. We say "clawss" in London—'tis the only means of showing your patriotism. As I stood outside a group beyond the entrance to the Hotel Cecil—this was at 10.30 on Thursday night—I heard a lady of much-petticoats and many frills declare that the King was a man. There you have the secret at once. "Puritanize the King," said a distinguished Liberal statesman to me at the National Liberal Club the other night, "and we shall think him to be a Pharisee." And there you have the secret of the new mood of the people—the mood that is resentful of stupidity, of secrecy, of anti-manliness, of anti-humanity.

Still the crowd flowed along beside me. It was a good-humored, good-natured, man-loving crowd. These scurrying fellows knew nothing of the nuances of economics—they knew nothing of the difference between godliness and stupidity, between Jingoism and hate-ism. They only thought of the man. Every now and then a fool passed blowing a trumpet that sounded a harsh note of imbecility—every now and then an ass protruded his face into yours, crowned with the becolored headgear of assininism. But, on the whole, the people were gentle, subdued, kindly, wholesome. You gazed upon them as they surged to and fro, you gazed whole-eyed, wondering, sympathetic, delighted. You felt that mafficking-ism had met its doom. This was a good thing—this unriotous rejoicing. Go where you would, the old tiddle-iddle-dy-hi-ti-hi-ti-ti-ism had disappeared. You didn't want the mafficker — your soul rebelled against the idea that he was existent. But, glory be to God, he wasn't present. The King's illness had killed the mafficker.

"Sir," said a man to me, "can't a fellow buy a tickler?" "Get on," said the stern policeman. And he went on. 'Ticklingism is over!

VICTORIA'S CORONATION.

How It Was Celebrated in Toronto in 1838—Full Report as It Was in The Patriot.

When Queen Victoria's coronation was celebrated in Toronto, the people had not outgrown the partisan bitterness of the recent rebellion, and the unsettled state of society prevented such a spontaneous and unanimous celebration as occurred on later demonstrations in honor of the Queen. The thirteen thousand people of Toronto, then but four years removed from its still deserved title of Muddy York, contained many sympathizers with the "Patriots," and still apprehended further trouble.

Within a hundred yards of the Church street hotel which was the centre of the Coronation celebration, had stood, but a couple of months before, the gallows on which the rebels, Samuel Lount and Peter Matthews, had been hanged, in the presence of a large crowd and guarded by the military in fear of an attempt at rescue.

The newspaper report of the Coronation celebration was eclipsed by a much more lengthy official proclamation by the Governor, Sir George Arthur, "Lieutenant-General of Upper Canada and Major-General commanding Her Majesty's forces in that province," calling on the people to restrain demonstrations against those who had been connected with the rebellion, and to permit them to return unmolested to their homes. Besides showing the unsettled condition of affairs and the partisan bitterness prevailing, the proclamation would earn for its writer a diploma for efficiency in the use of abusive adjectives in referring to the malcontents.

A record of the celebration is preserved in The Patriot of Friday, June 29, 1838, an ultra-loyal semi-weekly sheet, which referred to the somewhat restricted celebration. The Patriot, which was published by Thomas Dalton, had an account, without heading, and situated at the bottom of a column on an inner page. The firemen referred to in the report had at the time of the rebellion formed a military company and had taken part in the skirmish, having been called out to help repel a party of rebels about to enter across the Don bridge. The firemen were ordered to take their engines to prevent fires lighting through the firing of the opposing force and ropes in one hand and muskets in the other, had repaired to the scene of action. The rumbling of the engine and cistern being taken for cannon, the rebels disappeared before the firemen arrived.

The report of The Patriot is as follows:

"Yesterday being the day appointed for the Queen's Coronation, a general illumination took place, which, considering the culpable shortness of notice by the Mayor, was very brilliant. With due notice the affair would have been perfectly splendid, because all were emulous to testify their zeal and display their taste on so happy an occasion. The Fire and Hook and Ladder Companies walked in procession with their engines and numerous rich banners, and made a most gratifying appearance. At the saloon at the corner of Church street there was a rich display of fireworks which afforded much enjoyment to the numerous beholders. The crowds of men, women and children, in holiday attire, parading the glowing streets from 9 o'clock till near 12, presented a most exhilirating coup d'oeil, which, in conjunction with the glorious event which had set the masses in motion, could not fail to produce in the heart of every true lover of his country, the most gratifying reflections on the permanency of British power and the efficacy of British protection for life and property, notwithstanding our vicinity to a faithless, savage and barbarous people."

MEDAL FOR INDIAN CHIEFS.

Handsome Souvenir of Visit of Duke and Duchess Presented.

The head chiefs and councillors of the different Indian reserves throughout Manitoba and the Northwest are being presented with a medal in commemoration of the visit of their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of York, last year and their meeting with about 2,000 representatives of the Blackfoot, Blood, Pelgan Sarcee, Stony and Cree Indians of Southern Alberta, at Shagganappi Point, Calgary, on September 28 last.

The medals were struck by command of His Majesty King Edward VII, and are massive, weighty affairs of two and a half inches in diameter. The medals of the head chiefs are of silver and those for the councillors of bronze. They will not become the property of the Indians to whom they are presented, but will be handed down to their successors in office, being retained by them merely as a trust so long as they hold office.

The medal has a handsome clasp, bearing the figure of an Indian warrior chief with head dress of feathers and shield. On its face appear the portraits of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York with the words: "Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of York." The reverse side bears the British coat of arms and the following words: "Calgary, September 28th, 1901. Presented to head chiefs in commemoration of assembly of Indian Tribes."

The fracas in which Cromwell was stabbed took place in a special train from Guelph to Hespeler. A counter charge has been laid against Cromwell. Yesterday an additional charge, that of interrupting the free use of a G.T.R. car by fighting therein, was laid by Detective Cockburn. The prisoners pleaded not guilty, and their trial was fixed for Aug. 22 at 11 a. m. In the meantime both men are out on bail.

HO! FOR SOUTH AFRICA.

First Canadian Steamer Will Sail in October.

Cable From Hon. Mr. Mulock Announces That Arrangements for a Direct Service Have Been Completed.

The first week of October will see the establishment of the promised line of direct steamships between Canada and South Africa. The negotiations which Sir William Mulock has been carrying on in London during the past few weeks, while there in connection with the intercolonial conference, have reached a successful conclusion, and a contract has been made with a syndicate of steamship lines for a period of five years for a regular line of steamers..

Yesterday afternoon the Secretary of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, received the following cable from Sir William Mulock, dated from London;

"Pleased to inform you Government has completed contract with syndicate composed of Allan, Elder-Dempster and Furness lines for cargo service between Canada and South Africa, sailings at least monthly, with provision for increased frequency. Summer sailings, Montreal and Quebec; winter St. St. John and Halifax. Africa ports, Cape Town and two other ports. First sailing, first week in October from Montreal. Ships will carry mails; also supplied with cold storage. Contract five years.

"MULOCK."

In the reports that the Canadian Manufacturers' Association furnished to Sir Wm. Mulock, regarding the volume of freight that would be available for a direct steamship line it was estimated that at least 4,000 tons a month could be promised, with the trade that is at present doing, and not considering at all the possibilities of future expansion. To do this it would be necessary to divert a large Canadian business that now goes via the New York steamship lines, and also to have equal freight rates out of Canadian ports with the competing American lines.

The two other ports of call which the steamers of the new line are to touch at, are not mentioned by Sir William Mulock in his cable, but the ports recommended by the Canadian Manufacturers' Association are Durban and Port Elizabeth, these serving a large stretch of territory that cannot be well reached from Cape Town.

DEAFNESS AND CATARRH.

The remarkable reports published by the Drouet Institute show that nearly one half of the people who are deaf attribute the cause of defective hearing to colds in the head, or to the extension of catarrh from the nose and throat to the ear. The general opinion that such forms of deafness are incurable is also the subject of comment in these reports, and the strongest arguments against this opinion is contained in the fact that the Institute is able to publish the records of from 30 to 40 cured cases each month. That these cases are of the most obstinate form is shown by the following; Mr. Robert Allan was deaf for 16 years. The deafness came on after a cold in the head, and gradually grew worse. The nose and throat were affected by catarrh, and there were occasional noises in the ears. The complete cure resulting from the Drouet Treatment is confirmed as follows—

Pow, Innertown, Stromness,
Orkney, Scotland,
March 29, 1902.

Dear Sir, — Just a few lines to let to know that I am keeping all right still. I am telling lots of people of my cure, and they think it is a wonderful thing. I do not know how to thank you for the trouble you have taken. Yours truly,

R. ALLAN.

Those who are interested in deafness, or diseases of the ear, nose or throat, can obtain a free copy of the "Journal for the Deaf," with a "Supplement," containing detailed accounts of upwards of 40 cases cured during the past month, by addressing The Secretary, Drouet Institute, 72, Regent's Park Road, N. W., London, England. Each Journal is accompanied by a Patient's Report Form, which enables applicants to receive full particulars for applying the treatment at home. Any advice by correspondence is absolutely free.

What you ought to know just now is that we are making the last days of our Removal and Reduction Sale so important to every man, youth and boy that to overlook its advantages would be a serious mistake. The prices, as well as the qualities, tell the story of unusual saving opportunities offered in the buying of whole suits and parts of suits, as well as cloths for making up suits to order. Great specials in underwear, hosiery, shirts, etc. Prices are low enough to make it an object to buy ahead for future use. Everything in the store has been put on the bargain list, as we would rather sacrifice than have the trouble to move or carry over the goods. Don't fail to come, as you have never before seen such bargains in a clothing store. H. LeBRUN & CO.

ODDFELLOWS CONCLUDE.

E. B. Butterworth, of Ottawa, Elected Grand Warden.

The Home Fund—About Twenty Thousand Dollars is Now Promised—First Week Benefits—The New Grand Officers.

After a session lasting two days, in which some very important matters were decided upon, the Grand Lodge of Ontario, Independendent Order of Oddfellows, concluded its deliberations Thursday afternoon, and adjourned, to meet next year at Hamilton, which, in competition with Toronto, was chosen as the place of meeting.

The Peterborough delegates returned home Thursday night and report having had a delightful visit to Grand Lodge. The Peterborough delegates were as follows:

Otonabee Lodge — Messrs. Alex. Rutherford and James A. Tully.

Peterborough Lodge — Messrs. Bert. Wallis and M. W. Matchett.

Hiawatha Encampment — Wm. Comstock.

The Grand Officers were elected Thursday, there being a contest only for the Grand Wardenship. To this office Mr. E. B. Butterworth, of Ottawa was elected, there being ten candidates in the field. The election was by the vote of the Past Grands voting in their subordinate lodges, and the balloting was done by the Hare-Spence system, which is now in general use in the offices. Mr. Butterworth is a member of Carlton Lodge, Ottawa, and is a well-known hardware merchant and manufacturer of that city.

The other Grand Officers were elected by acclamation, Mr. R. K. Cowan, K.C., of London, being the incoming Grand Master; J. B. Turner, of Hamilton, Deputy Grand Master; J. B. King, of Toronto, Grand Secretary; and Charles Packert, of Stratford, Grand Auditor.

The Grand Secretary, J. B. King, by this re-election enters upon his 37th year of office. He has discharged the expanding duties of his executive office with ever-increasing usefulness and devotion. To his earnest advocacy of its tenets throughout the jurisdiction, his faithful adherence to its principles, and his comprehensive grasp of all the workings of its various branches the progress of this fraternity on Ontario has been in no small measure due. In spite of his 65 years and the heavy burden of his recent bereavement, he has attended to the work of the session with great care, for every detail and that regard for the highest interests of the order which have in the past charactorized his work.

The newly appointed Grand Master made the following appointments, Grand Marshall, O. L. Lewis, jr., P. G.M., Grand Representative to Sovereign Grand Lodge, D. B. Brown, of Orangeville; Grand Conductor, R. R. Brett, Essex; Grand Guardian, R. H. James, Oshawa; Grand Herald, W. G. Graham, Guelph; Grand Chaplain, Rev. C. R. Morrow, Bartonville; Auditor, Abner Fraser, Hamilton.

SELL ASYLUM GROUNDS ?

Hon. J. R. Stratton's View on the Question.

Its Present Site Now of Great Value—Advantages of a Rural Situation—Official Visit of the Minister.

Hon. J. R. Stratton, Minister in charge of public institutions of Ontario, says the Globe, made an official visit on Thursday to the Asylum for the insane in Toronto. Mr. Stratton spent the afternoon in going through the institution and looking over the changes that are being made for the comfort of the patients.

The Minister thinks that the property in which is situated the Toronto Asylum has become too valuable to remain long as asylum property, and it somewhat prevents the growth and extension of the city in that direction. He is of the opinion that if the property can be disposed of at a price that would warrant it the patients would be more comfortable and the male portion of them better employed if the asylum was removed to a rural district, where, on a 300-acre farm, the patients would be able to work, and would be able not only to help to maintain themselves, but attain a better mental and physical condition in the occupation of a farm. The forty cows, housed the year round, would be better off than on stable pasturage.

"With the exception of the small vegetable garden," said Mr. Stratton, "the whole property is used as grounds for the 750 patients."

The Minister thinks that the cottage system, where the buildings are smaller, for the mental recovery of of patients is better than the large one-building plan. Of the 750 patients in the institution when Mr. Stratton made his visit, but seven or eight of them were inside the building on account of illness. The whole patient population were out on the grounds. Some were playing football, others croquet; some were at lawn tennis, while others indulged in the game of whist. All were employed in various ways, and basking under the sun. A new bowling alley and a gymnasium are being built for the amusement of the patients.

WAR ON "MASHERS" STARTED.

Two Young Men Arrested at Oak Park, Montreal.

The following item from the Montreal Star of a recent date might be of interest to Peterborough people who sometimes have to contend with the ungentlemanly conduct of certain young men at our own band concerts on Friday evenings:

"The arrest of two young men at the band concert in Oak Park Friday night, marks the beginning of what the suburbanites say will be a thorough crusade against flirting.

"Policeman Pooley is the first on the force to bring an offender to justice. Pooley, who was attired in citizen's clothes, was in the rear of the crowd when he suddenly noticed two men steal up from behind two young women and quietly put their arms around them. A. E. Groffman, the husband of one of the women, also saw the occurrence, and, picking his way to the spot, demanded of the men what they meant by insulting his wife and sister-in-law. The men made no reply, and started to leave. Groffman called to Pooley, who had been standing near by, and the offenders were arrested.

"When taken to the police station the men gave their names as Charles Krichoof and H. C. Sargent. A hearing was given yesterday morning by Justice Martin. Bail was fixed at $200, and the case was postponed until Aug. 2nd."

STOCK MARKETS.

Good Indications for the Future.

New York, Aug. 16.—From most all points of view signs point to a good fall in the securities market. The outlook for general business is so good speculators can scarcely resist the temptation to discount it right now. Some of the greater lights of the market are now on their way home. Morgan has sailed for America, and Keene, who has been away for a long time has announced his intention to return in a few days. The major portion of the larger operators and stock manipulators are either in New York now or within stones throw of the city. Secretary Shaw has announced that he will increase government deposits with the banks when the demands for cash to remove the crops become active. The government crop report of the tenth instant concedes the remarkable estimate made in advance of a record breaking crop.

Industrials shares have been hardening for the last month and on the eve of making large advances. Big harvest means as much to the industrials as to the railways to which they mean big expenditures by the railways and the farmers, and this will keep the wheels of the industrial companies busy for another year. The Penna. will spend about 10,000,000 of dollars for new cars alone this year. Other roads will do proportionately. This will distribute a lot of new business among the car companies, who in turn will be large purchasers of iron and steel. The rail capacity of the U.S. S. Corporation is sold to its full capacity up to June 1st 1903. It is an unusual situation. Indications for material progress in the upward direction. Being so strongly marked and so clear to thinking people. The proper thing for speculators and investors to do is to take advantage of such a situation by purchasing as liberally as their means will warrant. Get into some of these sleeping industrials they will be lively enough a little later on, to get in now will be not to miss your opportunity. Railway shares are good also. This fall will witness a search and hustle for means and facilities to handle the business offering instead of a search by freight agents for business, to handle. The facilities of the roads will be taxed to their utmost limits, earnings will be simply prodigious and prices of stocks will be climbing upwards.

For cheapness, speed, comfort, enjoyment, and seeing something worth seeing, the Foresters' excursion on the Civic holiday must be voted a good one.
